Cyclone Ousts Shamrock in District Title Path

Playing plenty of fight and coming from behind the Cyclone swept past its first major obstacle to the district title Friday night when it outfought and outplayed Shamrock Irish eleven to win on penetrations after was tied 6-6.

With 15 first downs against eight for the Irish, and five penetrations against three for the visitors, the Cyclone won a well-deserved victory. Bad breaks prevented them from winning by at least a touchdown, if not two. A touchdown pass in the third quarter called back when both teams were offside and shortly afterwards Shamrock broke the scoreless tie. The fourth quarter opened with Memphis facing a 6 to 0 defeat, but the Cyclone backfield got to clicking and the score was tied when Captain Smith lunged over the goal line after Sanderson had counted for 34 on an end run. Three Cyclone journeys up to McLean this week to tangle with the Tilers and next week goes to Wellington to meet the vaunted Skyrockets in what has loomed as the decisive game of the season. The district outlook has changed a lot, however, following the 26 to 0 defeat handed McLean by the Pirates from Lefors, and Lefors is now offering a serious threat to the hopes of both Memphis and Wellington for district honors.

Wellington plays Lefors this week and the winner definitely is the team that the Cyclone must brush aside if it cops the district title. McLean plays at Shamrock, Clarendon takes on the classy Phillips Blackhawks and Lakeview has a non-conference session with Paducah. The Cyclone-Irish game last Friday was one to keep the fans on edge from start to finish. The stadium was filled to capacity.

Starting for the visitors were Nolan, McMurtry and Anderson. Opening the play, Robertson kicked and in the ensuing scramble the Irishmen lost the ball to Memphis. On the next play, however, Memphis fumbled and the ball went back to the Irishmen. Wilson and Nolan carried the ball to Memphis' 10 yard line where it went over to Memphis on downs. Sanderson and Smith carried the ball to the 40 before the end of the period. Sanderson opened the second quarter with a 17 yard run, then he and Smith, McElreath and Lamkin made nice runs from 5 to 20 yards to place the ball on Shamrock's 11 yard line at the end of the second quarter, with the score still 0-0.

Beginning the third, Billington, Smith and Sanderson put the ball on Shamrock's 11 before it went over on downs. Then the Irish fumbled and Smith recovered on his own 20. After reaching the Shamrock 13 yard line, Smith tossed a 14 yard pass to Robertson over the goal line, which was perfectly completed, but both teams were off-side and the play was called back. Shamrock took over on downs and after a few plays, Nolan, Shamrock quarterback, got loose for a 34 yard run and Shamrock's only touchdown. Solan missed for the extra point, but missed. The quarter ended with the ball in possession of the Irishmen.

Early in the fourth Shamrock lost the ball on a fumble. After a few short runs by Memphis, Sanderson galloped 34 yards to place the ball right against Shamrock's goal line, and on the next play Smith went over for the Memphis counter. Smith tried to run the extra point but failed, leaving the score 6-6. McElreath made a 10 yard run to place the ball on Shamrock's 3 as the game ended.

Lakeview Lions Get Ready to Receive Charter

Lakeview Lions are getting ready to "put the big pot in the little one" when they receive their charter from Lions International on Nov. 16. The club, organized in August, now has 37 members and is looking forward to a busy year of community activities. B. E. Daventport is president and H. D. Payne is secretary. Many visitors from neighboring towns and state and district Lions officials will be present on Charter night.

BECAUSE THEY KNOW what USO, War Prisoners Aid and other agencies of the National War Fund are doing for their buddies abroad, these wounded veterans of fighting overseas were among the first to contribute to the Texas war fund campaign. The war fund never solicits gifts from service men, but these Texas veterans asked war fund officials to call on them at McCloskey General Hospital, Temple, where they are recovering from wounds, and insisted upon contributing on behalf of their comrades in Italy and France. From left to right above are: Raleigh Leatherman, Bell Telephone Company executive who is helping with the war fund drive; T/5 Leiland Grohman of San Antonio; T/4 Donald Brown of Mart; S. Sgt. Wilbert Beckman of Bellville; Pvt. Vollie Gafford of Turkey, Texas, and Leslie Huff, chairman of the Bell County War Chest. (Photo by U. S. Signal Corps Photographer.)

War Fund Drive Off to Good Start

The United War Fund drive in Hall County was off to a good start Wednesday, reported Chairman Carl Harrison, who unofficially is betting on Lakeview to come through with flying colors and set a pattern for the rest of the county.

The reason for Mr. Harrison's optimism regarding Lakeview is that the campaign there has been "taken over" by the newly-organized Lions Club, of which B. E. Daventport is president and D. H. Payne is secretary. "I didn't have to name any committees there," he said. "They just told me the Lions Club would get the job done."

Hall County's quota is $5,374 and groups are now raising the funds in all communities in the county. Bulk of the funds go to the USO and other agencies providing recreation to men in service, to the war prisoners aid and relief to relief agencies helping the destitute people of our allies.

Teubel's Report On Hospital Project Is Held Favorable

Memphis still has the same chance as other towns in getting a veteran's hospital, Henry Teubel of Tulsa told the chamber of commerce directors in a meeting Wednesday night. Teubel, who is district commander of the American Legion, recently conferred in Chicago with Gen. Frank T. Hines, head of the veterans administration, regarding the Memphis project.

He said General Hines told him there was little the committee could do to further the project until after the political air had been cleared in Washington following the Nov. 7 election. General Hines told him, he reported, that the brief furnished by the Memphis committee was being studied and that no definite action would be taken until after the engineers of the veterans administration had passed on the local project. While in Chicago attending the National American Legion convention Mr. Teubel also discussed the hospital proposition with Sen. Tom Connally, who also advised against sending any committee to Washington until later in the year. Mr. Teubel said it was his opinion the time would not be opportune until after the first of the year. He told directors he would be glad to go to Washington in behalf of the project when the time seems propitious.

Memphis Soldier Disregards Danger, Saves Ammunition

A sorely-needed trailer load of artillery ammunition was caught in a shell hole out on the coral reef 100 yards from shore the afternoon of the Marine landing at Peleliu, and Pfc. James H. Mason, 19, of Memphis, went out to free it with his tractor. Arriving, he jumped into the water and attempted to connect the trailer to the tractor. A mortar shell burst near-by—too close for comfort. And in a few minutes, though four more mortar shells landed close to Mason, he grimly completed his job. Son of George W. Mason of Memphis, Mason has been a Marine for two years and is a veteran of the First Division's landing on Cape Gloucester and Talasea. He is with an artillery unit.

Here's Our Answer, Mrs. Eisenhower

Sure, I'll Give a Texan's Share

Mr. Wayland D. Towner
General Manager
United War Chest of Texas
Austin, Texas

Dear Mr. Towner:

With the opening of the War Chest Drive, every Texan opens his heart, along with his pocketbook, for there seems to be some magic in the mere fact of being born under the Lone Star which warms the human heart.

Like the Star of Bethlehem, the Lone Star is a symbol of good will.

The great open spaces, the vast area, the superb courage of your pioneers and their descendants, and the huge scale of their enterprises and activities—these, no doubt, all contribute to the loyalty and generosity of the Texas spirit, which has never failed in any emergency.

And so, as the wife of a soldier who takes just pride in being a native son of your great State, I have no question about the success of your War Chest Drive, and I feel deeply honored in being one of its sponsors.

Very enterprise which hastens the inevitable victory of our armed forces in this war for Freedom, which helps the boys in the service and alleviates suffering at home, which helps to bring an end to the tragedy, blood and tears incident to the conquest of our enemies, must be helped in every possible way.

I am happy to participate in the opening of your drive toward that end, and, with every other wife and mother whose heart is at the battle front, I pray earnestly for an early victorious end to the war and for strength and poise to carry on cheerfully and helpfully in the meantime.

Moy God bless you Texans in your War Chest effort!

County Men in the Armed Forces

Jefferson D. Coleman Jr. in the following letter from his parents, Rev. and D. Coleman, Estelline: Mather and Daddy: Letter of Sept. 3 came and I was glad to hear as I always am. In fact, I was more happy to get it because I was anxious from you since you reached home. Surely hope that you like it, and that good will come from your pen there.

I returned from a furlough during which I visited the first city—Rome, which it completely and as it appeared to me, is my ability—both journal and mentally. However, I attempt to partially relate my experiences and my not in one letter but in a series. In this letter I'll give you only the general highlights.

Probably the most impressive sight in Rome—in spite of all we have read and heard of Fascism, the fables and myths of ruins and history of the empire dominated by the city—is St. Peter's church. Besides being probably the most elaborate and artistic church in the world, it is also the home of the Pope and holds the remains—supposedly—of the Apostle Peter. Peter's tomb is the most highly decorated and richly built grave I've ever seen. I don't think Peter would approve of all the lavishness of it at all. The church is some 600 feet long, 400 feet plus wide, and some 500 feet from the floor to the dome. They say it will hold 80,000 people; so it is obvious that is something that will not be forgotten quickly. There is no wood in the building, but it is all stone, marble mostly, and bronze. Even the hundreds of pictures on walls and ceiling are mosaic, and must have taken years of time and worlds of patience to set all those stones so perfectly.

Other things were interesting too. For instance, I was curious to see Mussolini's famous balcony, but found it very ordinary in a way, and quite extraordinary in another way. Venice Square on which it is located is very beautiful, but the building is much the same as other Italian buildings, except for the fact that the windows and doors on all the ground floor were heavily barred as though the mighty man was afraid of something. Now could it be that such a warrior and bloodthirsty general could know the meaning of the word fear? I think that he did.

Just to mention other points of interest: There were the ruins of Julius Caesar's Forum, the place where he was betrayed by the noble Brutus; the renowned Coliseum where so many Christians were fed to wild beasts centuries ago; the Vatican City and the Pope I saw in person; the Latin's famous Appian Way, the Catacombs, and the very lazy flowing Tiber River. I'll tell you more about these in letters to follow, and I'll no doubt talk about things overlooked in this letter.

You might be interested to know that it was my privilege to live in the palace of the Mayor of Rome while there. It is a magnificent estate and known as Palazzo Savona. Here I had clean sheets every day and a private bath, and enjoyed being in the home of an enemy of Mussolini, sharing their views, listening to their experiences over the last 19 years, and particularly during the last few months that the Germans were in the city. My host, by the way, is condemned to death by the Fascist at this time, but they will have trouble getting to him now. He managed to escape from them and is now doing what he can to help us. His wife is an important present day artist, and she has some famous work in St. Peter's church today. I enjoyed seeing her at work and looking over her highly prized pieces and her prized scrap book of her now famous art. When a person gets a peep behind the scenes, he is astonished to find what so many of these people really are and what they really think. To see them on the street, one would say, "Just another Wop." This Palazzo Savona is just next to the Fascist headquarters, and the family told me several interesting tales about occurrences before the city fell to our boys. I hope to be able to tell you about these things sometime in the near future, but that is something no one knows anything definite about at the present time.

I took a number of pictures of Rome and will send you some as soon as I can get them developed and if they turn out good. Everything is all right here, but I never stop wishing that we could come home. The day will come, I know, but I do wish it would hurry.

Take care of yourselves and write when you can.
Love always,
J. D.

Elizabeth Goffinett Is Bride of Capt. Chris P. Hodgson Friday

Miss Elizabeth Goffinett of Lubbock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Goffinett of Memphis, and Capt. Chris P. Hodgson, son of Mrs. Henry Killian of Oklahoma City, Okla., were united in marriage Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the Broadway Church of Christ in Lubbock. Dr. Norvel

Young read the double-ring wedding vows. The bridal couple stood before an altar decorated with gladioli and fernery, also white candelabra. Miss Lucille Goffinett of Lubbock, sister of the bride and matron of honor, wore a dusty rose suit. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli. Matron of honor was Mrs. Kenneth L. Allen of Lubbock who wore an aqua suit and brown accessories. Her arm bouquet was a salmon gladioli.

F/O Roger K. Hodgson, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and Capt. Forrest Orr was also an attendant.

The wedding music was provided by an A Capella choir. Preceding the ceremony they sang, "O Promise Me," "I Love You Truly," and the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin.

Given in marriage by R. D. Holmes of Lubbock, the bride wore a white wool flannel suit with brown accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid. For something old, she wore a signet ring belonging to her mother; something blue, a linen handkerchief; something borrowed, the Bible belonging to Juaneila Goffinett, her niece of Memphis.

A reception was held at the R. D. Holmes residence following the ceremony. The refreshment table was covered with a cutwork linen cloth and centered with white gladioli. A three-tiered wedding cake was served.

Assisting the couple in receiving were Mrs. Paul Sherrard and Mrs. Allie of Lubbock. Mrs. Sorvel Young and Miss Frances Price of Lubbock presided at the refreshment table.

The couple is in Denver, Colo., on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in Miami, Fla., where Captain Hodgson is stationed.

For traveling, the bride wore a grey gaberdine suit with brown accessories.

War has proved the value of considerate driving. And now this fine national habit keeps spreading.

There's been a fellow-feeling about cars. When it comes to even a dented fender it's no longer a question of who's to blame, but of sparing one another from costly slow repairs—and footwork. Some such spirit has been making live-and-let-live driving so general. It's only logical to be fully as thoughtful of your engine. You'll exercise wise foresight by having it OIL-PLATED.

You can defy internal acid corrosion... engine suicide! ... by means of OIL-PLATING. You can do it by changing to popular-priced patented Conoco Nth motor oil—energized to surface your engine's interior with an acid-resistant shield of OIL-PLATING. This is the result of the special Conoco Nth ingredient developed by costly pioneer research. And while fluid oil alone goes draining down to the crankcase, OIL-PLATING remains as closely attached as if it were chromium plating—keeps on serving its special purpose of hampering contact between corrosive acids and metals!

These unavoidable acids of combustion—always bad—reach their worst in cold weather, when there is rarely heat enough to get rid of acids. Hence they linger inside—aplenty. But every OIL-PLATED surface is armed against the spread of acid corrosion. That's why you want Conoco Nth oil now... from Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Company

NEWS about boys in the Service

The following letter is from Pvt. W. M. Gowdy Jr. to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Gowdy. He has just returned to the States after being gone for three weeks on a trip to England and returning on a hospital ship. He is stationed in Minnesota:

Dear Folks: Sure seems good to be back in the good old U. S., but we had a nice trip. We were in England three weeks. It took us 12 days to go over and six and a half to come back. We got in Sunday Sept. 24, but didn't get off the ship until Monday.

We were on a nice ship, and it surely was large too. Brought back German prisoners on it, and some were sick and wounded. The hospital where we were stationed in England had mostly Germans in it.

We sure had some beds to sleep on over there. The frame was made out of 2x4s and the springs were made out of chicken wire. We put out straw in our mattress covers for our mattresses.

It is cloudy and damp most of the time in England. The people do not have much of a color because of a lack of sunshine. Guess you have started gathering your crops by now. I wish I was there to help but guess there is not a chance this time. I had better close for now. Love, SON.

YOUR COUNTRY GIVES YOU A PRESCRIPTION

Rx Keep Well!

Your Country means it, too, when it says that sound health has become a patriotic duty—the first contribution of a citizen who seeks to further the program of national preparedness. That's logical, isn't it? No nation, ailing and low-spirited ever put up an effective defense. What we need now is energy and optimism resulting from sound health and physical fitness. So, may we suggest that you go and see your Doctor without further delay. And, of course, we are well prepared to expertly compound his prescriptions.
