Local Men Robbed Negroes

Two Hall County farmers, E. Emmons and W. C. Canby of the Lakeview community were robbed of $141 by negroes in Fort Worth last night after going to the city to get a load of cotton pickers which the negroes had promised would be available.

The two negroes first contacted Mr. Canby last Thursday noon in Lakeview and told they wanted a job pulling cotton. They also said they wanted a crew of 27 negroes for Fort Worth and that they had a truck there on which they owed a mortgage of $141.

Mr. Canby took the negroes in his car and went to see his neighbor, Mr. Emmons, and between them they decided they could use the truck.

The negroes said if the men would take them to Fort Worth they would pay off the mortgage on the truck. (Continued on page 5)

Mr. Deaver, Now

Capt. John Deaver of the U. S. Marines is home—but now he is plain Mr. Deaver. He arrived home over the week-end from the Marine base at Quantico, Va., where he had been stationed for the past year. Previously he had been at a Marine base at San Diego. Mr. Deaver, who is a veteran of both World War I and War II, was in the legal department of the Marines. He enlisted shortly after Pearl Harbor. He served in the Marines in the First War.

Being Discharged

Lieut. J. O. Fitzjarrald of the Navy stopped off in Memphis over the week-end, to see his family and new daughter, Kathryn Wherry Fitzjarrald who was born last Thursday, and then went to Camp Wallace, near Houston, where he will be given his discharge. He plans to be back in Memphis by Sunday and will re-open his law office next week. He has been in the service for three and a half years and was taking sea duty training at Seattle when the war ended.

USS Texas Comes Out of War With Enviably Record . . .

Shown riding at anchor is the battleship USS TEXAS, one of the Navy's oldest men-o'-war. Her age did not prevent her from piling up one of the war's most enviable combat records. The TEXAS was the only American battleship that fought off three continents—Europe, African and Asia.

Banks, P. O. and Public Offices Close Monday

Banks, the post office, courthouse and federal agencies will observe Monday as Armistice Day.

There will be no general observance on the part of business firms, according to reports to the Chamber of Commerce, however the three dry cleaning shops have issued a public notice that they will be closed.

The official Armistice Day observance planned by the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary will be in the form of a religious and patriotic service at the First Methodist church Sunday night.

Plans for the observance will be completed at a meeting in the Legion home tonight.

Many local people plan to attend the parade, fireworks display and other events in Childrens on Monday. All business firms in Childrens are observing Monday as a holiday and the people of Memphis and Hall County have been invited to attend the attractions there.

All Dog Owners Given Notice To Get License Tags

Orders were given by the City Council this week to Chief of Police Edd McCreary to warn all dog owners that dogs without license tags after Dec. 1 will be killed.

License tags will be available on that date, and dogs without them will be disposed of, said Chief McCreary.

The Resemblance Was Uncanny!

In Amarillo the other day a local druggist ran into John Snider, an old-time friend.

Snider, a peace officer for 40 years and widely-known as the barbecue king, prides himself on knowing more people in the Panhandle than any one else.

The Memphis druggist chatted with Snider a few moments, and saw that the officer didn't recognize him.

"You don't know me," he said, and Snider replied: "I'm afraid I can't call your name but I'm always getting you mixed up with a friend of mine down at Memphis, Oren Jones."

He was talking to Oren Jones.

Masons of Area To Honor Grand Master

One of the largest gatherings of Masons of the lower Panhandle in years is anticipated at a zone meeting here on Tuesday night, November 13, in honor of the Texas Grand Master, Bascom Giles of Austin.

Rev. Yarborough At ME Conference

Rev. P. E. Yarborough, pastor of the First Methodist church, went to the Northwest Texas Conference at Abilene Wednesday prepared to report the local church as having met all financial obligations during the year.

His report will show that the church has more money in the treasury than in recent years.

He was accompanied to Abilene by Mrs. Yarborough and Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Neeley, lay delegates. The conference will end Sunday noon, when appointments of pastors for the coming year will be made by Bishop C. C. Seelman.

18 Bales Cotton Damaged in Fire Early Wednesday

Fire of an unknown origin damaged 20 bales of cotton on the Compress yards early Wednesday morning.

Watchmen turned in the alarm about 4:30 o'clock. The cotton had been brought to the yards late the night before. Firemen believe it must have been burning when it was unloaded. On nearby lots were 2,000 bales of cotton.

W. J. ROBERTS DISCHARGED

T-3 W. J. Roberts, who has been in the Army nearly four years, received his discharge at San Antonio last Friday. He is in Lubbock this week and plans to be here to visit his grandmother, Mrs. T. J. Franks, within a few days.

Estimate on Cotton Set At 23,000

Cotton ginned in Hall County to Wednesday night totaled approximately 13,000 bales, a survey of gins in the county reveals.

Earlier estimates of the county yield have been raised slightly by ginners and others who have made a study of crop conditions and the yield is now set at around 23,000 bales.

When gathering first started most observers were of the opinion that it would crowd Hall County to produce 20,000 bales, but approximately 10,000 bales had been ginned by the end of October, and it is now believed that the yield will be some point between 20 and 25 thousand bales.

If dry weather continues for as long as three weeks most of the crop will be gathered.

Gins are now handling about 500 bales a day.

Calves To Dallas Show

Jack Moreman and Don Hancock of Lakeview, accompanied by County Agent W. B. Hooser, left late Wednesday for Dallas where the 4-H members will enter calves in the junior division of the Pan-American Livestock Exposition, opening Saturday.

Don Hancock took a calf owned by his brother, Billy, who is now on a tour of the state with a group of boys from the Mexican College of Agriculture, and will have him ready for the show when Billy reaches Dallas on Saturday.

Harold Rumpy will attend the show to collect a prize he won in general 4-H club activities this year. It will be a check from the Pan-American Exposition for the purchase of a prize Hereford calf which he will show next year.

Harold and Carroll Fowler plan to leave Friday night on the train after the Lefors-Lakeview football game.

All four of the youths are members of the Eagle first string but Moreman and Hancock will not be in the game.

Rev. Jeff Moore To Deliver Armistice Message on Sunday

Armistice Day, falling on Sunday, will be observed in Memphis with union religious and patriotic services at the First Methodist Church at 7:30 o'clock in the evening, when Rev. Jeff Moore, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will deliver the message.

A special section will be reserved in the church auditorium for Legionnaires and service men and their families. Music for the program is being arranged by Mrs. Oren Jones, president, of the American Legion Auxiliary.

All churches in the city will forego services on Sunday night and participate in the program at the Methodist church.

A pre-Armistice party will be given on Saturday night at the Legion Home for all members, service men and former service men and their families.

This program is being arranged by a committee with Otis Jones as chairman, assisted by C. C. Dodson, Homer Tribble, Hiram Crawford and Herschell Pounds.

Re-open Local Hospital Case; Hearing Monday

The hospital project has been re-opened and a hearing will be held in Washington by the Veterans Administration on Monday at which time President Horace Tarver of the Chamber of Commerce and W. C. Davis, representing the American Legion, will be present.

Decision of the Veterans Administration to re-consider the Memphis application was announced Wednesday by Rep. Gene Worley.

The Panhandle congressman notified Mr. Tarver by long distance that he had been in conference with General Bradley and officials of the Veterans Administration most of the time for two days, and advised the local men to get to Washington in time to go before the locating board and engineers on Monday.

A number of veterans hospitals will be announced before the end of the month, Mr. Worley said.

He said that the engineers had been making a careful study of the brief prepared on behalf of Memphis for the location of a hospital here, and that he would go with the local representatives to call on the board members in Washington.

Mr. Tarver and Mr. Davis plan to leave by plane on Saturday either from Amarillo or Dallas.

"We don't want to be too optimistic," said Mr. Tarver, "and nothing may come of the hearing, but from what Mr. Worley advised we think it best that we do everything possible now to convince the locating board of the desirability of our claims."

Lions, Rotarians Will Hear Giles

A full attendance of the membership of both clubs is urged for Tuesday noon when Bascom Giles, state land commissioner, will address a joint meeting of Lions and Rotarians.

The meeting will be held in the basement of the First Methodist church and will be in charge of W. B. Hooser. Mr. Giles, who is Texas Grand Master of Masons, is coming to Memphis for a zone Masonic meeting that night, but agreed to arrive in time to address the civic clubs at noon. His talk will deal with affairs of the state land office.

Memphis Needs Plan for Future Rev. Moore Avers

Cities are built by the home people and there must be plans, the Rev. Jeff Moore, pastor of the First Baptist church told Rotarians Tuesday noon in an appeal for more aggressiveness and leadership on the part of local business and professional men.

A planning committee should be set up in order that definite projects for the future of Memphis and its area may be worked out and "followed through," the speaker declared.

He stressed the importance of co-operation and alertness on the part of the local people in getting things done in Memphis which in his opinion need to be done.

He cited as some of the needs: Marking of the streets, more street lights, a community auditorium, remodeling and dressing up of store fronts, an airport and the preparation and publication of a booklet detailing facts and statistics as to Memphis and the trade territory.

Rev. Moore pointed out that Memphis had not been favored industrially with war installations, but said that this factor could be offset by a study and utilization of local, natural resources.

His talk resulted in much favorable comment by the members who heard him.

Dan Latimer of Hedley Is Fatally Injured in Wreck

Dan Latimer, pioneer resident of Hedley, passed away in St. Joseph's hospital in Wellington late Wednesday afternoon as a result of injuries he received Monday afternoon near Quail when the car in which he and his son, Radell Latimer of Amarillo, turned over twice after a blow-out.

Radell Latimer, who was driving his father from Hedley to a place near Quail where he was engaged in drilling a water well, sustained a broken collar bone, a fractured shoulder and numerous bruises but doctors do not believe he was injured internally. He is receiving treatment in the Wellington hospital.

Funeral services for Mr. Latimer are tentatively set for Friday afternoon, pending the condition of his son and the arrival of other relatives.

He was a long-time resident of Hedley and the McKnight community where he had farmed, engaged in the trucking business and in recent years had been drilling water wells. Survivors are his widow, three sons, Radell of Amarillo; Wayne, who recently was discharged from the Army Air Forces after 18 months overseas, and Gene, both of Hedley. A sister, Mrs. Eric Turner of Mangum, Okla., arrived at the hospital in Wellington shortly before Mr. Latimer succumbed.

The car in which Mr. Latimer and his son were riding turned over on a dirt road near Quail, it was reported, and the elder man was thrown from the vehicle. He suffered a dislocated vertebra in the neck and died while physicians were preparing to perform an emergency operation. The car was badly damaged.

The word kerosene comes from the Greek word, Keros meaning wax.

Polish Orphans Wearing Clothes Americans Gave

Thousands of war orphans in Poland are now wearing clothing contributed by the American people in the United National Clothing Collection of the past spring. A cablegram describing the distribution of this clothing in Warsaw on October 25 was made public by Dan A. West, Director of the Division of Contributed Supplies of UNRRA. (United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration.)

The report was cabled by an UNRRA representative who watched pathetically thin war orphans in a temporary children's shelter exchange their ragged garments for the war clothing given by American families only a few months ago in the nation-wide drive for overseas relief.

The cable said: "There are seven million orphans in Poland, waiting for UNRRA's help. Their urgent needs are food and clothing and medical supplies."

"A hostel for destitute and homeless Polish children, who would otherwise roam the streets of Warsaw day and night, is run by the social welfare department of the Warsaw government. The first distribution of clothing to the American people took place there on October 25.

"The children were waiting eagerly in their tattered, filthy rags for the special UNRRA Mission plane to arrive from England. The mere sight of UNRRA personnel is an event of almost as great importance in Poland as the actual relief received.

"Our reception by these children—underfed, and lacking homes, families and personal friends was royal. They knew that UNRRA was coming. They had managed to find two tiny paper flags, the Stars and Stripes and the Union Jack, and garlands of autumn leaves with which to decorate the doorway through which we entered the building.

"Mostly barefooted and often shirtless and wearing only thin trousers or skirts, boys and girls from about 5 to 14 years old, stood around us beaming with delight.

"Upstairs we watched a transformation scene take place in two rooms piled high with clothing gifts. To step out of their shabby garments took them only a moment. Perhaps a skirt and the remnant of a blouse was all that had to be removed. Dressing took longer—a vest and knickers, shoes and socks for perhaps the first time in their lives, a pretty frock and a coat that was both large enough and warm took the place of the two cast-off garments. From time to time, when they were finally dressed, a little boy or girl would approach us, delightedly point at themselves in their new cloths and say, 'UNRRA'—the one word that everyone could understand.

"The present hostel buildings, which once comprised the most beautifully equipped and organized children's home in Poland still stands and are in a fair state of repair. Now, however, they can house boys and girls and babies in only a Spartan fashion. All the fittings and furniture were removed by the Germans, the heating system no longer exists, and medical treatment and cooking are carried out under conditions of great difficulty by a small but tremendously enthusiastic staff.

"A twelve-year old girl, Anna Maslanka and her brother Waldemar had been brought into the shelter of the hostel the day before we arrived. Their mother and father were both killed and many during the early days of the Warsaw rising. Waldemar was put to work in a factory, and Anna sent to a camp. They found their own way back to Warsaw, walking the first 120 miles, and getting lifts in farm wagons, trucks and cars for the rest of the way.

Industrial Era Seen for Texas

The Interstate Commerce Commission's recent order reducing freight rates throughout the South west "carries possibilities that even the imagination cannot conceive," Chairman Olin Culberson declares.

Culberson, recognized by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce as the state official most responsible for the money-saving rates now in effect, was the principal speaker at the WTCC's joint Freight Rate Victory Celebration and Directors' and Referendum Assembly held in Abilene.

Suggesting that the readjustment freight charges be coupled to Texas rich storehouse of natural resources for immediate industrial expansion, the speaker pointed out that full employment cannot come until we increase our prewar productivity by more than 50 per cent.

"This is going to be the test of our financial and industrial leadership—whether they have the initiative and aggressiveness to step out and develop such lines of endeavor and see that such industrial expansion develops in their regions, geared to their own resources," the Railroad Commission chairman said.

"Texan's per capita income has increased perceptibly during the last decade," Mr. Culberson reminded the West Texas civic leaders. "Consequently, it is not wishful thinking to say that much of the market, perhaps most of it, for new Southwestern industry is in the Southwest.

"And this market will continue to improve as we grow more industrialized."

Mr. Culberson said he was "not such an optimist as to think that the industry we shall see come into being will be gigantic plants. Rather, I believe that they will be small or modest proportions whose products will be utilized by larger assembling activities.

Vigil in Far East Red Cross Workers Maintain 24-Hour

Red Cross workers are maintaining a 24-hour vigil in the Far East until all liberates are repatriated to the United States, according to Mrs. T. D. Weatherby, home service chairman of the local Red Cross chapter.

"These workers," she explained, "are establishing central registration files, providing message center service, staffing recreation centers, canteens and information counters, distributing comfort articles and running a nursery for children of evacuees. They entered Japan with General MacArthur's initial occupation forces so as to be prepared to give immediate aid to liberated prisoners of war and civilian internees. As evacuees are registered at depots and hospitals, American Red Cross workers deliver messages collected by home chapters and rushed to Manila by special air transport."

All Texans Urged To Give Aid To Industrial Plan

Houston.—All Texans were urged to take an active part in plans of the Texas Centennial of Statehood Commission to "revitalize Texas agriculture," in a statement released by the board of directors of the Farm Credit Administration of Houston.

Endorsing proposals of Chairman Karl Hobilitzelle of Dallas that the Centennial be made the occasion for starting far-reaching plans for improvement of rural life in the state during the next 100 years, the Farm Credit board stated that "this is a program of such importance that it challenges every citizen, every group and every business enterprise to contribute its part in leadership and effort."

Chairman S. A. Lindsey of Tyler directed attention of the Farm Credit board to the Centennial Commission's plans for initiating programs to encourage soil building, construction of farm-to-market roads, "rural schools, second to none with dependable bus service for our greatest asset—our boys and girls; daily mail service to farm and ranch... and electric power and telephones."

Judge Lindsey, who has been engaged in various undertakings of a practical nature for bettering rural conditions during the past 35 years, said: "There has already been much good work initiated along each of these lines in many different ways but the active interest and assistance of everybody will be needed to put these betterments into effect generally in rural communities. If we are to continue as a great nation or state we must keep our agriculture great."

"Farm and ranch life must be more attractive, stable and profitable, if agriculture is to continue to fill its place as the basis industry and important source of our wealth and strength. Today land has been badly depleted, improvements are worn and need rehabilitation, and there is great need for better homes and equipment," he said.

"The Farm Credit Administration—composed of the Federal Land Bank and national farm loan associations, the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank, Production Credit Corporation and 36 production credit associations, the Houston Bank for Cooperatives serving several hundred associations—is vitally interested in improvement of Texas agriculture and rural life. We represent several hundred thousand farm and ranch people; all of our business is with agriculture and experience has demonstrated that the things that improve and stabilize rural life are of vital concern to everyone."

In advocating the adoption of the Centennial Commission's plans the Farm Credit board members said best results can be accomplished by encouraging and assisting organizations such as the Extension Service and other agricultural agencies in the counties where the actual work is to be done.

Built in 1682, Ysleta, near El Paso, is the oldest city in Texas.

According to the nutritionists, variety meats have not been given the consideration in the menu that they deserve. The fact that the home menu planner isn't as well acquainted with their possibilities as she might be may be one reason. The variety meats include liver, heart, sweetbreads, kidneys, brains, tongue and tripe. As the name implies, they may be prepared in a variety of attractive ways. The above table gives only a few of the many ideas which may be applied in making the most of variety meats.

REA Is Allocated 8 Million in Texas For New Projects

More than eight million dollars has been allocated by the Rural Electrification Administration for loans to expand rural electrification in Texas during the last half of the fiscal year ending next June 30. The exact amount is $8,101,059 and exceeds by more than one million dollars the sum earmarked for any other state.

According to a statement by REA Administrator Claude R. Wickard received by the A. and M. College Extension Service, an estimated 65.3 per cent, or 273,102 Texas farms were without central station electric service on July 1 last.

The national picture shows an estimated 44.7 per cent of all farms are now electrified as compared with less than 11 per cent when the REA program was commenced in 1935. Regardless of this encouraging advance, the Administrator estimates that 3,371,189 of the nation's farms still are without central electric service. Viewing the immensity of what he calls "one of our major post-war tasks," Mr. Wickard said that making electric power available to unserved farms is only a part of the nation's rural electrification job. Large numbers of non-farm rural homes, schools, churches and other county establishments also are without electricity. Counting these with homes on farms he estimated a total of 6,000,000 are ready to receive light and power.

Mr. Wickard believes that the quickening of the rural electrification program will contribute to the goal of jobs for a long period. This employment will be in producing line construction materials, building power lines, and wiring rural homes. One immediate pressing need is a supply of poles. The present shortage is at least one million poles a year, and he suggested that the farm wood lots of the south were among the most likely sources to supply the shortage.

The money allocated to Texas for loans is this state's pro rata of a $100,000,000 fund, which is one half of the total REA loan funds available for the current fiscal year.

Local Men --

(Continued from page 1) truck they would bring all the hands back with them. They left that afternoon and late that night as they reached the Fort Worth city limits, the negroes pulled a gun on Mr. Canady and Mr. Emmons, and demanded that they turn over the $141.

Mr. Canady, who was driving, stopped, and Mr. Emmons, who was carrying the money, obeyed the demand of the negroes. As soon as the money had been handed over the negroes fled up an alley.

The Hall County men immediately reported the robbery to the Fort Worth police department and gave them a description of the negroes.

The negroes did not search the two men, who had approximately $250 more money in their pockets. The $141 which they had intended to use in paying out the truck was in a separate bill fold.

Time To Treat Trees for Borers

The time of year has come to treat peach and plum trees for control of borers, says Paul Gregg, entomologist for the A. and M. College Extension Service. In areas north of Waco trees should be treated as near October 25 as possible, and by November 20 south of Waco. If gum with frass or sawdust is noticed coming from a tree just below or above the ground line the borer is at work.

The true borer, or bass borer, is the lad to watch for, Gregg says. It works underneath the bark of the tree just above or below the ground line. If it is not controlled it will weaken a tree and prepare it for attacks by other destructive parasites.

Control may be obtained by applying PDB crystals around a tree after removing weeds and grass from a distance of 18 inches from the trunk. Dosages are one half ounce of crystals for a tree under three years of age; three-quarters ounce for a tree just coming into bearing; one ounce for a bearing or mature tree, and one and one half ounce for an old or large tree. Treat only those showing signs of borer damage.

The crystals are applied in a circle one inch wide and one and one half inches from the tree trunk. If the borer's entrance hole is above the ground, build a dirt mound around the tree so that the crystals will be placed above it. After the crystals are applied to the soil cover them with a few shovelfuls of dirt and pack it down. After about 30 days, remove the mound with the crystals to prevent damage to the tree.

Gregg says that borers working in the branches of peach or plum trees can be controlled by painting their entrance holes lightly with a solution of one pound of PDB crystals dissolved in one half gallon of raw cottonseed, or raw linseed oil. Remove the gum from the bark before painting and do not paint all the way around the limb or branch because the solution will injure it. The PDB crystals generally can be bought at most drug or feed stores.

Red Cross Cannot Make Far Eastern Inquiries, Reports

No means now are available for obtaining welfare and location reports requested by servicemen or civilians nor for forwarding messages to persons in Japan or other parts of the Far East recently liberated, Mrs. T. D. Weatherby, home service chairman of the Red Cross reports.

Requests for inquiry or message service to persons in those countries must be discontinued, it was explained. Current requests being received by home service at Red Cross national headquarters, will be returned to chapters with an explanation. Replies to inquiries and messages previously sent to these countries and requests which may be in transit from persons in that area will be forwarded to chapters for delivery to addressees. Even though Red Cross facilities are not available for continuing and expanding such a service, large numbers of civilian messages are still being forwarded to Japanese persons in war relocation centers or to a later address if they have left the center.

Let's tear your electric bill to pieces

GO AHEAD, lady—tear your electric bill apart and see what it's made up of.

This little piece lights all your lamps. This one plays your radio. This cools and keeps your food. This washes your clothes. This takes care of the cooking and ironing and cleaning. And so on.

That's a lot of different jobs to be covered by one small bill. And—hold on! You've paid for more than just electricity. About 25c of every dollar you pay for electric service goes in turn for taxes which benefit your community and help carry our heavy federal government expenditures.

Taxes UP....General cost of living UP....You'd think the cost of electric service would be up, too. But it isn't. The overall rate has even come down a little since the war began. Actually—

The average family gets about twice as much electricity for its money today as it did fifteen years ago!

This welcome fact comes from the careful planning and progressive spirit of America's business-managed, self-supporting, tax-paying electric companies.

FFA Boys Attend Mill Iron Sale

Approximately 25 boys of Mem- phis High School F. F. A. attend- ed the Hereford sale at the Mill Iron ranch last Thursday. The trip was made under the super- vision of Claude Livingston, agricultural instructor at the high school.

The Ranch is located about 10 miles east of Wellington at a de- sirable site with many shade trees and natural spring water. The old fashioned ranch house with its open barbecue pit, spring house and other familiar sur- roundings, brought to mind num- erous "Western movies."

On the tour of inspection the boys saw the newly painted cor- rals and cattle pens just a short distance from the house. The prize cattle were shown here. Practically all ages of cattle were shown but mostly of the stock- show type. Cleanliness was espe- cially noticeable.

"When the dinner bell sounded we viewed a sight not often be- held," one of the boys reported.

About five long tables placed together and spread upon these were two barbecued calves, eleven baked turkeys with dressing, pies, cakes, cookies, pickles, onions, bread, crates of fruit and coffee. The public was invited and visitors from various places attended.

Aerosol Bomb Is New Fly Killer

Civilians have heard a lot re- cently about aerosol bombs used in all parts of the world by ser- vice men to rid their quarters of flies, mosquitoes and other fly- ing insects. With peace here, aerosol bombs are being made available for civilian use.

Like any other weapon, says Cameron Siddall, entomologist of the Texas A. and M. College Ex- tension Service, aerosols have a proper use for best results. The term "bomb" really refers to the containers—it looks like a bomb, but it doesn't explode. The aerosol itself consists of an in- secticide, which dispenses in the air like a fog or mist, when re- leased from the container by opening of a valve. Small parti- cles of the insecticide scatter through the air and hit flies and mosquitoes and moths flying about.

The aerosol bombs used by the armed forces and most of those on the market today contain a mixture of DDT and purified pyreth- rum.

The bombs are most effective against insects in their flying stage, says Mr. Siddall. That means insects such as flies, sand- flies, mosquitoes and moths. Don't expect aerosols to get rid of crawling insects such as bedbugs, roaches and dog ticks or the egg or larval stages of cloth moths, carpet beetles and meal moths. Don't expect aerosols to act as fumigants, either. Other methods of control are more effective and less expensive for these purposes, Siddall states.

The first paper mill in the United States was built in 1690 in Germantown, Pa.

Need Is Urgent For Kitchen Fats

The fats and oils situation will not change much until supplies begin flowing again in volume from the South Pacific and for that reason every housewife is urged to continue increased collection of used kitchen fats.

"Every drop of used fat is needed to help bridge the gap between what we have and what we need," E. C. Munro, acting district officer for marketing, production and Marketing Administration said. The difference must come from the kitchen, our last remaining source of supply, he continued.

Used fats are worth four ration points per pound which may be exchanged for meats, salad and cooking oils, margarine, butter, lard and other items still under rationing. In addition to increased ration purchasing power, housewives also can speed the return of many scarce civilian items by turning in used fats, since by-products of used fats are needed in manufacture of such necessities as nylon hose, electrical appliances, radios, paints and plastics.

Wellington Host To FFA Leaders

Marion Baumgardner of Well- ington, national vice-president of the Future Farmers of America, and the Wellington FFA chapter were hosts to officers of Area One and sponsors recently. Plans for bigger and better FFA chapters were discussed.

The area includes 57 depart- ments, scattered from Wichita Falls to Lubbock in the south and the entire Panhandle, with about 2,500 members. There are nine districts in the area.

Oliver Thompson of Lubbock, area president, presided at the meeting.

Baumgardner gave a report on the national convention, saying that boys who attended were of the serious thinking type who had the ability to get things done. He urged the members to work toward eligibility to attend the Cictory Convention next year.

Billy Burrow of Tulla, a state officer, discussed FFA interest and cooperation of members.

and those eligible to attend voted to hold a banquet next spring. Lano Barron, state supervisor for vocational agriculture from the department of education, Austin, urged more reports for the Lone Star Farmer magazine of which he is editor.

Following the meeting the members visited the Baumgardner farm where they viewed their national vice-president's farm program. A barbecue and games followed with a group of Well- ington girls as guests.

Others attending the conference were Donald Cross of Plains, the sentinel; Bill Etter of Childress, vice-president; Billy Hill of Sey- mour, secretary; Don Powell of Shamrock, parliamentarian; Billy Joe Sandusky of Floydada, histor- ian.

Advisers present were John Gill- ham of Clarendon, J. M. Hill of Aulia, H. C. Weatherby of Sham- rock, Mr. Kennedy of Quail, Lester Burke of Seymour, Walker P. Tood of Wellington.

Junior Red Cross Campaign Is On Through Schools

November 1-15 are the dates set nationally for the enrollment campaign for the Junior Red Cross.

Material for enrollment has been received by the Junior Red Cross chairman Mary Foreman, and has been distributed to all schools. She is expecting one hundred per cent enrollment of the schools in the County.

Enrollment of both elementary and secondary schools is on a group basis. No individual fee is required. The enrollment fee is 50 cents for each elementary classroom and $1.00 for each group of 100 high school pupils. Contributions above the enrollment fee are put into either a local service fund or sent to the National Children's fund. The local service fund is used to purchase materials for the chapter production program and to finance any local service project which conform to Red Cross policies.

Last year members of the local chapter filled Christmas socks for hospital patients at the Childress Army Air Field, filled gift boxes, and made toys which were sent to children across the seas.

Cyclone Holds Skyrockets First Half, But Loses 37 to 12

Local 4-H Club Boys Win in Six of Eight State Contests

Locals All Pepped Up, Sense Victory Over Tigers Friday

Rocking the seasoned and heavy Skyrockets back on their heels during the first half, the Memphis Cyclone proved to be the first team in district play to score on Wellington and won admiration of all the fans at the local stadium last Friday night, even if they finally did lose the game 37 to 12.

Knowing that they don't come either tough or big enough to keep them from scoring, the Cyclone squad now is all pepped up and determined to blast the McLean Tigers here tomorrow night.

In fact, the Cyclone is so pepped up over its showing against the league leading Skyrockets that it senses victory in both of its remaining games. McLean here this week and the Bronchs at Clarendon next Friday night.

When Russell and Hatch got through tearing down the field last night the Skyrockets came 25 points ahead of the Cyclone, but the championship play between the visitors in the last half didn't detract one iota from the Cyclone's driving offense put up by the local squad in the first two periods. Although outweighed on average of 10 pounds, and trying against a squad made up mostly of seniors, the Memphis Cyclone had the hustle and spirit that never wavered.

It was a badly rattled Skyrocket team that fought throughout the first half to keep the Cyclone from staying in first place.

The most sensational play of the game, and one which no doubt was the most demoralizing to the Skyrockets, was a 77-yard run for a touchdown by McQueen on the second play of the game, after Memphis had received the kick-off.

It was the fake pass from center Henry that threw the Skyrockets into a tailspin. The Wellington team took off after Davis and McElreath and not knowing for sure who had the ball, Henry passed it to McQueen in tackle position, who was down the field and headed for pay dirt before the Wellington players realized where the ball was.

The Cyclone used this play twice at Lefors, scoring on it each time.

Try for extra point failed and Wellington came back in quick order to tie the count when Russell heaved a long pass to O'Neil who scampered the remaining 25 yards. Russell's try for extra point failed.

Eight Men Are Inducted as 22 Are Registered

Eight Hall County men were inducted in the Army last week at Dallas, and 22 men registered in October for military service, some of them being youths who had reached 18 and the rest were men who have been discharged but who had not previously registered.

Men inducted were Van Dyke Guest, Willie Elster Lyles, Mitchell Eugene Moore, Royce Leon Crisler, Kenneth Dee Gilchrist, Billy Joe Murdock, Joseph Doyle Galbraith and Weldon Glenn Robertson.

Youths registering upon reaching 18 were Haskell Doyle, Cogburn, C. L. Sloan, Noah Foster, Billy Joe Veal, Francisco Cruz Vasquez, Phelix Wilson, John Elmer Brown, Eugene John Mitchell and Winifred Dale Wise, who recently was discharged from the service.

Men discharged following enlistment service and who registered were Wesley Fitzgerald, James Harold Harper, Claude Edward Stevens, Raymond Omerle Martin, Arthur H. Brown, Benton Victor Furrh, Harold Hoggatt, Clyde Ernest Messer, Harlie Taylor, Mark Williams and Buddy Hurst.

Ralph Taylor, San Saba County turkey grower, is raising 4,200 birds this year, for both eggs and meat. He is one who uses electricity to lengthen the laying season, getting his first eggs on the market before the heavy rush. He turns the lights on over the roosters daily at 5 a. m. and the turkey hens start laying in December, instead of waiting until March.

Examines Tojo's Fan

Lovely Frances Rushmore, a John Powers model, is shown examining the fan stained with his lifeblood which was found on former Premier Hideki Tojo, Japanese warlord, after his abortive suicide attempt in his home as he was about to be arrested as a war criminal. The fan and the bullet with which Tojo tried to end his life were brought back to the United States by Harry T. Brundidge, associate editor of Cosmopolitan magazine, shown above, who was at Tojo's home when the suicide attempt was made.

NEW 1946 MODEL CHEVROLET

The Stylemaster Sport Sedan

The new 1946 model Chevrolet, shown above, is outstanding not only for style-leading design, but for quality in materials and construction, advanced engineering, proved performance, economy and dependability.

Every line and contour emphasizes the massiveness and lowness of the vehicle from front to rear. The new, distinctive radiator grille, shown at the right, presents an expanse of gleaming chrome-plated horizontal bars, framed within a low-arched molding. A model of classic simplicity, it tends to emphasize width as well as lowness.

Front-End Styling Accentuates Massive Low Lines

New Chevrolet, Now on Display Here, Features Modern Styling, Smart Lines

Modern styling that accentuates massiveness in smart, low, sleek lines characterizes the new 1946 Chevrolet, which went on display last Saturday in the show rooms of Potts Chevrolet Co.

The first car received here is the Stylemaster, offering unusual refinements in the lowest price bracket. Other models, expected soon, will be the Fleetmaster and the Fleetline.

Outstanding style distinction is immediately apparent in the stunning array of colors and color combinations in which the 1946 Chevrolets are making their debut. For every regular model throughout the whole line there is a choice of six different color schemes. A range of three solid colors is provided, and in addition, ultra-smart two-tone hues are available upon specification, all in the newest and most appealing shades. All details of striping and trim harmonize tastefully and contribute further to outstanding smart appearance.

First to come from the production lines is the popular Stylemaster sport sedan, a four-door model which is being featured in initial displays in dealers showrooms throughout the country. As material availability and manufacturing are expanded, it is planned to broaden production schedules to include possibly such models as town sedans, business coupes and other types. Fleetmaster and Fleetline output will follow as soon as conditions permit.

Bonafide new, 1946 models sounding an entirely different note in styling, the latest Chevrolet cars make their bid for continued dominance of the volume market on the unequivocal basis of quality in design, engineering, styling, performance, economy and dependability.

Company engineers and manufacturing experts state that broadened knowledge of materials and methods has qualified them to build entirely new measures of quality in motor vehicles and to do it with heightened degrees of efficiency.

Progress in the development of materials is especially marked in the field of synthetic rubber, according to the engineers. In the construction of the new models, more extensive use of this material has resulted, in many instances, in improvements over pre-war engineering and manufacturing practices, they claim.

A model of classic simplicity, presenting an expanse of gleaming, unadorned horizontal bars framed within a graceful, low-arched heavy molding the new radiator grille tends to emphasize width as well as lowness of line.

Three horizontal bars span the upper part of the grille. Below these are two more bars of thick section extending across the front of the fenders to almost the same width as the bumper. Within either end of this double-bar section are attractively designed rectangular plates, the inner parts of which form frames for parking lamps of the same shape. On the upper of the two wide grille bars is a simple plate which bears the Chevrolet name in block letters.

Headlights, attractively framed in each front fender, are spaced widely apart for effective illumination as well as pleasing appearance.

The massive new front bumper of far greater depth and height than any Chevrolet has ever had and with lengthened ends that extend further around the fenders, not only offers better all-round protection but also contributes most importantly to the new appearance of sturdiness and advanced styling. It is of sturdy modified V-section with the apex of the V near the bottom. The large, simply designed grille guards are widely spaced on the bumper, improving appearance and affording added protection.

A new rear bumper, equally as massive as the one in front and styled to match, effectively carries out the theme of modern style appeal.

All models, with the exception of station wagons, have a wheel base of 116".

Unusual riding comfort is provided by Chevrolet's combination of unitized knee-action front springs, rear springs designed to synchronize with the front, plus scientific weight distribution.

High standards of performance and economy are assured by the announcement of company engineers that all 1946 models will be powered by the famed Chevrolet six-cylinder, valve-in-head engine, which has been improved and refined through the years.

Engines in the new cars will be equipped with light-weight cast alloy iron pistons in the production of which Chevrolet has had more than three decades of experience.

Another 1946 model engine construction feature is the Chevrolet develop specialized lubrication system which forces oil under pressure to valve rocker arms, camshaft and crankshaft bearings at the same time that an ingenious pressure-stream system, another exclusive Chevrolet feature, lubricates connecting rod bearings and cylinder walls effectively for

Chicago Trip Assured For 2; 3 Others Have Chance in Nationals

Hall County 4-H Club boys really "stole the show" in the state contests this year, with final returns being announced this week by judges in the State Extension Service at College Station.

Competing in eight contests club boys from Hall County won in six, taking top place in two of the fields which means trips to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago next month, and with three of the others still eligible to win in the regional contests and be delegates to the National Congress.

Hall County far outdistanced any other county and it is believed the showing made by the six winners sets an all-time record for any one county in the history of 4-H club work.

Taking first place and winning trips to Chicago are Carroll Fowler of Lakeview in the Rural Betterment Methods contest and Bruce Gibson of Turkey in the Poultry contest.

Other winners are Jim Whaley of Estelline in the Garden contest, Laddie Sloan of Estelline in Dairy Production and Harold Rampsy of Lakeview in the Safety contest.

The Whaley and Sloan youths each won a $25 war bond and will compete in the regional showing prior to the National Congress. Winners in the regional contests will be named as delegates to the Chicago gathering.

Laddie Sloan also won third place in the National Achievement contest. This carries no cash award but he will be permitted to compete in the regional contest when a winner to attend the Chicago Congress will be named.

Harold Rampsy won honorable mention in the Achievement contest and will compete in the regional contest with a possible Chicago trip in store for him.

As an indication of the high honors achieved by the Hall County boys a report from the judges who handle the annual contests show that in the National Safety contest, in which the Rampsy youth was winner, there were 1,952 boys participating.

In Dairy Production there were 156 and in the Garden Contest there were 1,747 entrants. In the Meat Animal division, where Jack Moreman's record was highly commended by the judges but which could not be considered because of the dead-line, there were 2,666 contestants.

THE FUTURE OF SMALLER COMMUNITIES

Dr. Harry E. Moore, professor of sociology at the University of Texas, in a recent interview offered some observations that should be of more than passing interest to the people of Memphis.

"The smaller communities of Texas have their futures tied up in the returning veterans and war workers," he declared.

"The small towns that are able to hold these men and women will prosper," he said. "If these persons leave they will carry with them the new skills and ideas they have acquired while away, and will spend the productive years of their lives adding to the prosperity of the towns in which they do stay."

"They will stay in their home towns only if they find there the economic security and the social satisfactions they are seeking," Dr. Moore stressed.

"These men represent a tremendous investment on the part of the towns in which they grew up. Statisticians figure that a family with an income of $2,500 per year spends about $10,000 for each child reaching 18 years of age. Roughly, the number of men supplied the armed services is about 10 per cent of the total population."

Continuing, Dr. Moore said, "Cutting the cost of rearing a family to half the figure estimated by the statisticians, this still means that a town of 10,000 population has invested in its servicemen not less than $5,000,000."

"This figure does not measure indirect costs represented by taxation and leaves out of account entirely the more important but not calculable human worth of these men. Even so, $5,000,000 is pretty high stakes for a town of 10,000 to gamble for," he said.

Dr. Moore and his wife, Dr. Bernice Milburn Moore, family consultant for the Hogg Foundation for Mental Hygiene at the University of Texas, have recently written two pamphlets pointing out the importance of returning servicemen and war workers to their home towns. These pamphlets, titled "Through Their Own Front Door" and "What the Community Can Do Now for Its Servicemen" are being distributed through USO centers, or may be obtained by writing the University.

Press Paragraphs

SELECTED FROM THE
DEMOCRAT'S EXCHANGE

We noticed several towns are planning welcome programs for returning service men and while that comes under the head of their business, we do want to say the ex-fighters we have talked to are definitely against this sort of thing. Too many people have the mistaken idea that getting together a crowd of 75 to 100 folks around a banquet table and having some long-winded speaker deliver a patriotic oration, is paying glowing tribute to the person in whose honor the party is thrown.

Actually few people enjoy such affairs, and rarely the honored guests unless he a politician, lawyer, preacher, school teacher, or somebody who is accustomed to large public functions. The average person is embarrassed to death and would prefer the quietude of home or a small circle of close friends.

And back to the returning servicemen, most of them wish the public would leave them alone to their happiness among friends. They don't care a whit about the public expressing thanks in ostentatious fashion. They are happy in the fact they have come home. They want to get back in the groove as soon as possible and settle down and be one of us again. Give these boys a break. If Wheeler or any other town wants to show real appreciation for what they have done, let's do it in a more tangible way than by public speeches and music. Let's help them find jobs, talk to them about their future plans, be friendly with them. Let them know they are still plain old country boys as far as we are concerned. They're fed up with this hero stuff and public worship.—Wheeler Times.

Medical science predicts that one out of every eight persons alive will die as a result of cancer. No sure-fire method has yet been perfected to control this dread disease which strikes without fear or favor among rich, poor, fat and lean, young and old. Therefore, it is encouraging and inspiring to note the amount of money, time and energy being expended by the citizens of our country in the untiring and many-times discouraging effort to track down this no. 2 mankiller. Cancer ranks second only to heart

C-C Directors To Submit New Names on Ballot

In a move to get "new blood" on the board and give returning service men an opportunity to have a part in civic planning, directors of the Chamber of Commerce last week voted to automatically retire three members from the board at the coming election in January.

Under the plan adopted by the directors, which was advanced by Tom Dunbar, the names of three retiring directors will not be allowed on the ballot when members vote for directors. "In this manner," said President Horace Tarver, "it will be impossible for members to re-elect all of the directors. We will be assured of three new directors each year."

Mr. Dunbar and others who favored the plan said membership in recent years had been confined to the same group, with hardly any change from year to year. "I think we should have some new blood on the board," he said, "and one way to get it is to keep the names of the retiring directors off the ballot. If their names are not on the ballot they can't be re-elected. There are many service men coming home, many of them going in business, and the Chamber of Commerce not only needs their help from a man power standpoint but it needs their ideas as well."

J. O. Bradley Had Narrow Escape in Okinawa Storm

His ship landed on a reef about 200 yards from shore during the recent storm on Okinawa, Seaman 1-c J. O. Bradley writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Bradley of Memphis. His letter follows:

Dear Mother and All:
Just a few lines to let you know I am OK.

I just received your letters yesterday, one written Oct. 14 and one written Oct. 24.

We sure did have a big storm last week. Wrecked lots of ships, some were washed up on the beach undamaged. We were pretty lucky. We landed on a reef about 200 yards from the beach. The reef punctured the water tanks, that is, all but one. That left just enough water for cooking only, one shower, and we didn't have any drinking water for four days and in that four days, I had one can of pineapple juice and I just as soon not to have had that.

Well, I went to Japan Oct. 4 and came back to Buckner. The captain who was in charge of the mine sweeping, said we had too many men aboard our ship, so I was one of the ones to come back. We got here just in time for the storm.

I don't know whether I will get back to the states by Christmas or not. I sure do hope I get back in time to get discharged by then. I have 40 points, and they say that they are getting out with that many back there. I don't think that it is right for anyone with less than 44 points to get out or anyone with less than 2 1/2 years in the service or more. We have lots of guys here that have as many as 59 points and outside of that, they have a wife and family and they can't get out. Just like Lynn said, maybe there isn't any future in Navy life for him.

We left the States on June 1 the last time. The first stop was the Marshall Islands. We stayed there about six days and then came up here on July 22. We got torpedoped, 38 men were killed and three of them were never

Frank A. Finch and 4-H Club Boys Will Be Guests At Dallas Show

(From Dalhart Texan)

Dallas will be host Saturday to the biggest crowd of 4-H Club boys and girls and Future Farmers of America ever assembled at the State Fair Grounds.

They will be in Dallas for Junior Cattleman's Day at the Greater Pan-American Hereford Exposition, Nov. 9-18. Between three and five thousand from every section of Texas are expected, according to Exposition officials. They will be kept busy every minute of the time they are in Dallas.

All of them, plus a group of students from Mexico's National School of Agriculture, will be guests of Swift & Co. at a luncheon to be held at the Exposition Grounds at noon.

The day will start early for the young farmers and ranchers when they witness the judging at nine o'clock Saturday morning of the 200 entries in the Junior Cattleman's Baby Beef Show. Capt.

Frank A. Finch and Son Take Honors At Livestock Show

(From Dalhart Texan)

Fred M. Finch, rancher 15 miles southwest of Dalhart; and his father, Frank A. Finch of Memphis, made a clean sweep in the yearling steers carlot competition in the American Royal Livestock Show at Kansas City last week.

Fred Finch hastened to add it was kind of a fluke, still those who saw the Finch cattle say they might still have made a clean sweep, even if there had been no fluke.

The fluke was this: It happened that no one else entered carlots of yearling steers.

Fred entered 20; his father sent 60, all of which had been summered on Fred's place. They were all Herefords. In the sales ring, three loads sold for $13.50 per hundred; one lot for $13.75.

Among the many other entries at the show were eight loads of fat cattle, 10 loads of feeder calves. Dan Casement, Manhattan, Kans., one of the best known of veteran Southwestern and Midwestern show men, exhibited the champion lot of feeder calves which sold through the sales ring for 19 cents a pound.

There were eight loads of fat cattle, the grand champion load being shown by a 14-year-old Iowa 4-H club boy who fed the stock for the exhibition. This load sold for $26 per hundred.

However, the other seven lots—since all belong to commercial feeders—were subject to the OPA ceiling of $17.65, Finch explained.

As a result, the 14 packers present had to resort to a lottery to see who got the cattle. Numbers were drawn and the high one took the first load. The lucky man then had to drop out, and the others drew again till the seven carloads were taken.

How women and may get wanted from functional periods

Cardul is a liquid medicine. Many women say they have been freed from the cramp-like agony and stress of functional periods. Here's how it may help you.

1 Taken like a medicine, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help you get on your feet.

2 Started 3 days before your period, it should help you get through the pain due to muscular spasms. Periodic use of Cardul, if it helps you, will be glad you did.

Tighter Control On Child Labor Is Announced

"Relaxation of manpower controls and the easing of manpower shortages has tightened restrictions on child labor regulations," E. R. Williams, Childress office manager of the U.S.E.S. has announced. He made public a release by Katharine F. Lenroot, Chief of the Children's Bureau of the United States Department of Labor, which announced the revocation of wartime amendments to the child-labor regulations.

Child labor Regulation No. 3 controlling the employment of 14-and-15-year-old children has been restored to its prewar standards for all industries. Hazardous Occupations Order No. 5 regarding operation of power-driven wood-working machines will no longer contain the emergency exemption under which 16-and-17-year-old minors were temporarily permitted to work on a few of the least hazardous of these machines. Under the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act, the minimum age for most employment is established subject to the Act is 16 years, with an 18-year-minimum for specific hazardous occupations, and a 14-year minimum for certain work defined in Regulation No. 3 as not harmful.

These amendments issued during the war because of certain acute manpower shortages while maintaining most controls over conditions of work and occupations of children, are being terminated on dates set to allow employers time for necessary adjustments. The dates set for revocation of the amendments to Regulation No. 3, dealing specifically with raw shrimp houses, fruit and vegetable packing sheds and the fruit drying industry, have been timed with consideration of the close of the "season" in each of the industries in question.

Chapel Funds Come From Many Sources

From many sources, including the Canyon Lions club, have come contributions to the West Texas State College chapel building project.

A combat veteran voluntarily handed President J. A. Hill a check for $200. This was part of his overseas pay. The chapel project appealed to him as a good thing.

Canyon Lions contributed $411 at a luncheon meeting, in addition to other donations previously given by members.

Of a goal of $50,000, cash and pledges in hand now total more than $17,000, Dr. Hill said.

The chapel, to be built on the college campus, will be used for lectures, religious services, musical recitals, weddings, quiet meditation, and as a conference center for Panhandle pastors and student members of their congregations. The chapel program will not conflict with services of Canyon churches.

Marine Corps, Committed To the Task Of Keeping World Peace, Will Observe Its 170th Anniversary on Saturday

On Saturday, Nov. 10, the United States Marine Corps is one hundred and seventy years old.

At posts and stations around the globe and aboard naval vessels at sea, Leathernecks will take part in varied celebrations commemorating the birth of their organization on November 10, 1775.

Keynote of the day's festivities will be the annual message from the Commandant of the Marine Corps, General A. A. Vandegrift, in which he will pay high tribute to the dead and wounded of this war, and salute the thousands of Marines who have or will soon re-enter civilian life.

From the earliest days of their history and throughout the years that have followed, Marines have served their country in every war, fighting on land, on sea and in the air.

Today they continue to serve. With another phase of war behind them in which they spearheaded U. S. offensives in entire Pacific, they are once again returning to their peacetime pursuits, those of guarding American lives and property on foreign soil.

The Marine Corps today is committed to the task of helping preserve world peace and order. Organized as a body of "Minute Men," they stand ready on call. Marines are already in China and Japan and on far-flung islands of the Pacific. Tomorrow will find them in all parts of the globe.

Birthplace of the Marine Corps was Tun Tarven, Philadelphia, where Captain Samuel Nicholas, first Marine officer, opened a recruiting rendezvous for the Marine battalions authorized by resolution of the Continental Congress, on November 10, 1775.

One of the stipulations for prospective recruits to serve in the Continental Marines was that personnel must be "god seamen or so acquainted with maritime affairs as to be able to serve at an advantage at sea."

In early March of 1776, the Continental Marines performed their first amphibious or landing operation. They landed on New Providence, in the Bahamas, under Captain Nicholas and took possession of Forts Montague and Nassau where sorely needed supplies were captured. The operation has been referred to as "perhaps the most successful of the Revolution."

While the patterns of warfare have changed considerably since that date, Marines are still "soldiers of the sea." The bloody island-hopping campaigns of this war in the Pacific which the Marines waged from Guadalcanal to Okinawa, were completely amphibious.

Leathernecks, a title Marines acquired from the days when they wore leather collars for protection against sabers, also serve aboard naval vessels today as they did in the early days of our history. These forces are known as sea detachments.

Following the Revolution, Marines, like the Navy, passed out of existence. But in July of 1798, an act of Congress authorized a Corps of Marines with William Ward Burrows as Major Commandant. This Corps figured prominently in the undeclared naval war against France being waged by this country at that time.

Scarcely had this war ceased, when a squadron of vessels was dispatched to the Mediterranean to protect American commerce from plundering by the Barbary corsairs. Thus began a war that continued until the Barbary states were crushed. It was against Tripoli, chief trouble-maker that Marines first went into action as raiders.

Marines again participated in Naval engagements during the war of 1812 and were active in all sectors when the war broke

Brice Marine On Tennessee When Landings Made

D. S. Johnson, private first class, USMC, of Brice, took part in the climax of U. S. Tennessee's role in the war with Japan, a role that included virtually every major operation in the Pacific, when occupation forces were landed from "The Rebel" at Wakayama, Honshu, Japan.

Damaged at Pearl Harbor, the Tennessee came back to engage in operations from the Aleutians to the home waters of Japan. She was a Okinawa, preparing for further operations, when news of Japan's acceptance of surrender terms was received.

NOV. 21, 1945

AN IMPORTANT DATE FOR THOUSANDS OF ARMY VETERANS NOW IN CIVILIAN LIFE

Between now and November 21, thousands of Army veterans will reenlist in Uncle Sam's new volunteer peacetime Army. Because—men who have been discharged between May 12 and November 1 of this year and reenlist on or before November 21 will be able to return to the Army with the same grade as they held when discharged.

Men with six months of satisfactory service discharged as privates will, on reenlistment before November 21, be given the grade of private first class.

Men now in the Army who apply for discharge after NOVEMBER 1 for the purpose of reenlisting in the Regular Army will also retain their present grades, if they enlist within 20 days after discharge and before FEBRUARY 1, 1946.

"BEST JOB IN THE WORLD"

These special privileges are typical of the new law recently passed by Congress. Few opportunities for a lifetime career offer as many attractive advantages.

Can you think of any other job that would give you good pay, your food, clothing, quarters, free medical and dental care, world-wide travel, 30 days' furlough every year, education and training in any of nearly 200 skills or trades, and enable you to retire with a life income anytime after 20 years' service?

There isn't any! That's why a job in the Regular Army has been called "The Best Job in the World."

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE REENLISTMENT PROGRAM

1. Enlistments for 1 1/2, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50 years. (1-year enlistments possible for men with 6 months' service.)
2. Men reenlisting retain their present grades, if they reenlist in 20 days after discharge and before Feb. 1, 1946. The same applies to men discharged between May 12 and Nov. 1, 1945, who reenlist before Nov. 21, 1945.
3. An increase in the reenlistment bonus to $50 for each year of active service since the bonus was last paid or since last entry into service.
4. 20% extra pay when overseas.
5. Paid furlough, up to 90 days depending on length of service, or furlough travel paid to home of return, for men now in the Army who enlist.
6. Mustering-out pay (based upon length of service) to all men who are discharged to reenlist.
7. Option to retire at half pay for the rest of your life after 20 years' service—or three-quarters pay after 30 years. (Retirement income grade of Master or First Sergeant up to $155.25 per month for life; previous active federal military service counts toward retirement.)
8. Benefits of GI Bill of Rights.
9. Family allowances for the term of enlistment for dependents; men who enlist or reenlist before July 1, 1946.
10. Choice of branch of service; overseas theater in Air, Ground or Service Forces on 3-year enlistment.

Shortly after the second period opened Memphis scored again when McElreath passed 30 yards to Hancock, who gathered it in as he stepped over the goal line.

The score was tied again just before the half ended when Winter ploughed through the Cyclone line for a needed yard after the Skyrockets had taken the ball down the field on a series of first downs.

In the third quarter that deadly running combination of Russell and Hatch got to clicking and Hatch raced 50 yards down the middle for the Skyrocket's third counter. Russell kicked the extra point, the only conversion made during the game.

Later, Russell went through the line for three yards and a touch-down, and in the final quarter it was all Russell, the hard-running fullback who made all-district last season, going around end once for 10 yards and slicing his way 35 yards on a 5ff tackle play for the last two touchdowns.

But, the 1,500 fans who packed the stadium had no regrets. Nor did Coach Curtis Kelly and his squad. All were content that the Cyclone had scored two touchdowns against a team that was supposed to whitewash the locals anywhere from 25 to 50 points.

A whitewashing was just what McLean got at the hands of the Lefors Pirates at Lefors. The score was 67 to 0. At the same time the Clarendon Broncs were losing to the Irish at Shamrock, 19 to 6.

Lakeview had an open date and Wheeler went up to Canadian to take a walloping at the hands of its non-conference foe.

Outside the district Childress lost to Vernon, 13 to 6; Lubbock blanked Brownfield, 20 to 0; Floydada beat Lockney, 24 to 0; Canadian swamped Wheeler 68 to 0; Hereford smothered Canyon 67 to 0; Phillips beat Perryton 37 to 6; Paducah beat Rails 20 to 0.

by the fan. A ball-bearing water pump of highly efficient design is self-adjusting and permanently lubricated. Uniform cylinder cooling is provided by full-length water packets extending completely around each cylinder. Scientifically-located nozzle jets around the exhaust valve seats, in the head, concentrate cooling effects at points where the need is greatest.

A single-adjustment, balanced, down-draft carburetor, and an air cleaner, silencer and flame arrester are used in the fuel system. Fuel mixture is, heated, with thermostatic control, in the manifold heat chamber. The Chevrolet octane selector helps owners obtain best possible results from the various types of fuel that are available. Also, a high-reserve fuel pump is used.

A vacuum-power gear shift finger control is standard throughout the 1946 models, assuring easy control of the cars under all operating conditions.

Brakes are Chevrolet's distinctive hydraulic type, with 11" brake drums having alloy iron braking surfaces and cooling ribs. Self-aligning brake shoes that provide full contact of the entire surface of brake linings with brake drums, an exclusive Chevrolet feature, not only assure maximum safety but help prolong brake lining life.

The chassis frame used in all new passenger models is the Chevrolet-proved box girder type with side rails and cross members of flanged box section construction, insuring exceptional rigidity. In cabriolets, box girder side rails are further reinforced by "V" and "K" shaped I-beam girders.

Knee-action, an outstanding Chevrolet riding comfort feature is standard on all 1946 cars. A ride stabilizer at the front end contributes further to easy handling and greater comfort. Shock-proof steering is another highly desirable comfort feature.

A semi-floating type rear axle, with gear ratio of 4.11-1, has hypoid drive gears and six ball and roller bearings.

DOCTOR RATIONING! DO YOU WANT IT IN AMERICA?

COMMUNISM, FASCISM, NAZISM are not mere matters of terms or definitions. They result from the establishment of centralized controls and the operation of mechanisms of administration. Unfortunately, in the development of these mechanisms the insidious step by step procedure may postpone recognition of their real significance.

We are a trusting people. In some respects we are gullible folk. It is essential in these times that we be ruthlessly realistic.

There has been introduced in the United States Congress, Amendments to the Social Security Act. They are known as the Wagner-Murray-Dingell Bills. Most Americans favor the expressed objective of some of the proposals. However, almost hidden in the careful verbiage of the Amendments is the cold steel move to place in the hands of appointees of the Federal Government sole and exclusive responsibility for the distribution of health care for one hundred ten million people. This service would consist of general medical, special medical, general dental, special dental, laboratory care, hospitalization and home nursing service. In no country has machinery been established more sweeping in its provisions to serve the purpose of a Collectivist State.

A DRAIN ON PRODUCTION

In the beginning the tax provisions would create a central fund of more than Eight Billion Dollars annually. It is not anticipated that this amount would even approximate the total cost. It is to be supplemented from "General Revenue." We have fought and won two wars. Now confronted with a national debt approximating Three Hundred Billion Dollars, there is grave doubt whether our economy could sustain this additional drain of from Ten to Fifteen Billion Dollars each year.

The key principle of our Freedom of Enterprise System is more jobs for more men at maximum wages to provide ever greater markets for the products of a constantly expanding industry. Yet, it should be emphasized, the Wagner-Murray-Dingell proposals are a direct tax on employment. There would be a minimum of

FEWER JOBS FOR WORKERS

Eight Billion Dollars yearly less for consumers to spend for the potential output of our mines and factories and farms. This, of necessity, would create a downward spiral of production and fewer and fewer jobs for workmen. These results, within limits, would be inevitable. They might be disastrous but they are not the really important consideration.

The unparalleled progress and incomparable achievements of the American people are the result of self-respect, individual initiative and self-reliance. When formalized Security is substituted for self-reliance we forfeit the essence of the factor that has been our strength. When the incentive for individual effort and thrift is removed progress, as we have known it, will be shifted into reverse.

BEWARE, — IF DOCTOR RATIONING FAILS

It may be possible that a truly wise and honest administration can reasonably ration the food supply of a nation. Save under truly totalitarian concept and control, is it within reason to expect the effective rationing of physician and hospital services for one hundred ten million people? A vital difference should be kept in mind. If the food rationing fails, it may mean only that there are no steaks or pork chops on dining room tables. If the doctor rationing fails, men and women and children die. Human lives are the issue.

The Wagner-Murray-Dingell Health Services proposals should be recognized for what they are. They are in reality State Medicine. They are instrumentalities and mechanisms of the Collectivist State. If we are to preserve our Freedom of Enterprise System we dare not enact these proposals into law.
