T. R. Jones Family Reunion Is Held In Vera; All Children Able to Attend

A family reunion of the Jones family, some members of which live in Memphis, was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Jones at Vera December 23 and 24. It was the first time that all of the children had ever been together.

Five of the sons and one son-in-law served in the U. S. Navy, all of whom now have their discharges.

Attending the reunion from Memphis were Mr. and Mrs. Lynn B. Jones and children, Helen, Dorothy, Clinton, and Winston; and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall T. Jones and children, Jimmie, Dannie, and Carol Jean.

Lynn B. Jones, an ex-seaman first-class, was discharged October 17. He received his recruit training at Farragut, Idaho, at the same time as did Marshall, and their brother-in-law, Floyd Gilchrist. Lynn served 20 months, nine of which were overseas in the Pacific. He rates the American theater and Asiatic-Pacific theater ribbons, and the victory medal.

Marshall T. Jones, also once a seaman first-class, was discharged November 25. After his recruit training, he spent 16 of his 21 months in the service in the Pacific area. He rates the Philippines liberation, Asiatic-Pacific, and American theater ribbons. While overseas in Guam, and later in the Philippines, Marshall ran across his brother Carl and enjoyed several visits with him.

The others who were formerly in the service are Carl, Bill E., and Clyde C. Jones: Carl, who was a pharmacist's mate first-class, got his recruit training at Great Lakes, Ill., and spent nearly four years in the service, 21 months of that time overseas. He served along the Australian, Philippine, Okinawa, and Japan coasts, and was in the disastrous typhoon at Okinawa. Carl was discharged November 27.

Bill E., a gunner's mate first-class, also received his initial training at Great Lakes. His nearly four years in service were spent in the European, Mediterranean, Pacific, and South American waters, and he was discharged September 25.

The remaining son, Clyde C. Jones, went to San Diego for his recruit training, then to a mechanic's school in Norman, Okla. While waiting at Treasure Island to be sent overseas, he underwent a mastoid operation, and received a medical discharge after about a year's service.

The menu for the reunion dinner consisted of baked turkey and dressing, baked hen, giblet gravy, pork roast, celery, marshmallow-sweet potatoes, cranberry sauce, lettuce and tomato salad, potato salad, green beans, fruit salad, assorted cakes, pies, fruit, coffee, and lemonade.

M. O. Goodpasture Seeks Re-Election As County Judge

M. O. Goodpasture has authorized The Democrat to announce his candidacy for re-election to the office of Hall County judge, subject to the action of the democratic primary.

In announcing, Judge Goodpasture made the following statement:

"THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE FOR EXPERIENCE in banking, railroading, oil, merchandising, newspaper work, and farming. Experience in administering public affairs may also have value. Believing such is the case, I am again a candidate for county judge.

"Consider some actual conditions in Hall County affairs.

"Past audits show that in the last 35 years debts against Hall County, covering county and road matters combined, have totaled $2,147,000. This enormous debt has been paid down to a present total of $1,047,000. $78,000 plus interest must be raised to pay on bonded debts in 1946. This will reduce our bonded debt in Hall County to less than a million dollars for the first time in many years. City and school debts are not included.

"Under the so called bond "assumption" law, the state now carries $714,081 of the present $1,047,000 outstanding. This leaves $332,919 squarely on our people themselves.

"The part "assumed" by the State is not a debt of the State of Texas. It remains a county debt as it was originally when voted by the people. For a few years the legislature has appropriated money from year to year to contribute to the aid of counties having roads incorporated into or designated as state roads. It is a misstatement to say the state has "assumed" anything whatever. And the state is not bound to keep this up.

"If conditions change in the business affairs of the state, or in the administration of its road laws, every dollar the state fails to pay immediately lapses back on the county. Although the state has helped, and we are grateful for it, counties are at the state's mercy and the properties of the people in the counties are the only substance backing the bonds. Hence, we are never out of danger.

"It has been my unceasing task to help secure appropriate legislation to keep the bond law up-to-date and operable, in this regard. Very few in Texas have put in more time than I. With this effort comes experience and knowledge which cannot be handed down to anyone else. Hence, I feel it an imperative duty to work longer if my services are desired by the people. If elected I can be of benefit; if I be not elected, my usefulness will be over.

"The heavy burdens on the county, outlined above, mean that great care in prevention of waste and extravagance must be exercised. It is doubtful if we need any more debt piled on top of the debt that we have, except in case of extreme necessity. For this reason, and others, I have advocated, and do advocate, a program of economy to prevent raises in taxes. Our county tax rate has not been raised in years. When changed, it has been lowered. (In 1945 the State Tax Board raised state taxes seventeen cents on the hundred dollars. State taxes will be kept high in 1946. The county has no power over them.)

"Space limits forbid most other comment but you no doubt expect a statement on new roads in prospect.

"Not one inch of proposed and definitely designated Hall County lateral or farm-to-market roads has been cancelled. All designations of every kind are in good standing. All are subject to right of way demands when the state calls for them.

"Several first choices in locations were rejected and never designated because conditions did not meet state and federal requirements. But, when built, the farm-to-market roads chosen will be maintained by the state at no expense to the county. County money thus released can be used for better upkeep of other county roads, helping everybody. Further information can be given as fast as it develops.

"All my time in office has been devoted to public service. You may expect the same in the future if you commit the work into my hands. I propose to show my gratitude by working at the job. Am always glad to answer questions.

Thanking one and all, I am

Very truly yours,

M. O. GOODPASTURE"

Roy Patton Asks To Be Re-elected As Commissioner

Roy Patton has authorized The Democrat to announce his candidacy for re-election to the office of county commissioner of Precinct No. 1, subject to the action of the democratic primary in July.

In authorizing the announcement, Mr. Patton made the following statement:

"In announcing for re-election for county commissioner of Precinct No. 1, I feel, with my past experience, that I am better qualified than ever before.

"I want to thank the people of Hall County for your support and cooperation you have given me as county commissioner. During the war with rationing and shortage of tires, gas, and equipment, we didn't get to do the things we would like to have done, but it seems possible that we can go forward with much better advantage.

"And if I am elected I will strive to please the taxpayers in every way possible. I will appreciate your support and influence in the coming election."

Enjoy Trapping? Goldsmith Finds It Pays Off Well

Collection of bounties on coyotes and fox is paying off for O. L. Goldsmith of Parnell, who brought in pelts of 23 coyotes and one fox Monday.

Mr. Goldsmith, who says "you can get them if you work at the job," had 26 more pelts curing, on which he will collect bounties in a few more days.

21 Boys Complete Work to Advance In Scout Ratings

Twenty-one Boy Scouts of Troop 35 passed their work in scouting at a board of review held in the latter part of December.

Eight of these graduated to the Star scout rating, 10 to first class, and 3 to second class.

To become Star scouts, the boys had to have five merit badges covering a field of 50 or 60 different classes of education. These badges cover such work as first aid, life saving, swimming, personal health, physical development, bookbinding, printing, gardening, beef production, cotton farming, etc.

With the help of four volunteer counsellors in Memphis, the boys will now be able to advance to the top in scout work. Counsellors are W. B. Hooser, Mrs. W. D. McCool, Curtis Kelly, and Ted Dudley.

Scouts who have been approved in their work and who will be presented with badges at the Court of Honor early in February are as follows:

Star scouts: Bobby Taylor, Billy West, Creed Lamb, Donald Carley, Carl Smith, Leroy Green, Jack Knight, and Bobby West.

First-class: Adrian Combs, Don Wright, Doyle Evans, Kenneth Steed, Lacy Boles, Jimmie Stewart, Bobby Joe Paris, R. A. Wells Jr., Anderson Gardenhire, and Charles McCreary.

Second-class: Willie Pickering, Donald Payne, and Ray Crawford.

Lt. and Mrs. Ed Todd visited in the home of his sister, Mrs. L. L. Mitchell, Wednesday afternoon. Lt. Todd was on his way to Camp Wallace for his discharge, following which he will be employed at WTSC, Canyon.

T. W. McCreedy Given Discharge

Pfc. Tildon W. McCreedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McCreedy of Route 1, Lakeview, is visiting his parents after receiving his discharge at Fort Bliss, El Paso, on December 30.

Mr. McCreedy was inducted into the Army at Fort Sill, Okla., on March 15, 1942, and was sent from there to Williams Field, Ariz., for his basic training. He went from there to Luke Field, Colo. From Colorado, he was transferred to Salt Lake City to attend an advanced armament and heavy bombardment school. After completion at Salt Lake he was transferred to Dalhart and became a line maintenance armorer on the flying fortresses. He left Dalhart and was stationed at various fields throughout the United States.

On May 19, 1945, he left Seattle, Wash., with the 504th bomb group for the island of Tinian. From that base he helped in operations which included carrying incendiary bombs, mines, and demolition. The plane that dropped the first atomic bomb was based on Tinian. He landed in the States December 19.

His father re-married, but died a few years later. Milligan enlisted in the Navy August 1, 1944, and had been overseas at Guam during a part of his naval career.

Survivors include his wife and two children; two sisters, Mrs. Maggie Nelson of San Francisco and Mrs. Oleta Culbertson of Terrebonne, Ore.; one half-sister, Mrs. Patsy Carlson of Willmar, Minn.; and one half-brother, Raymond Milligan of Terrebonne, Ore.

Flower bearers were Freda McWhorter, Lou Gray, Dorothy Dameron, Dorothy Creed, Elsie Bartley, Letha Wilson, and Beadie Creech.

Pallbearers were Bill Joe Holcomb, Jack Holcomb, Truett Hardage, L. J. McAbee, Bud Creech, and L. D. Messer.

John Marcus Hall returned last week to Arlington after spending the holidays here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Hall. She is a student at NTAC.

TO BE WELL OR NOT WELL— THAT IS THE QUESTION

NEARLY FOUR years in the U. S. Navy put this writer somewhat behind in what is going on in our government today, especially those things which have to do with bills now before our Congress.

One of these bills which is new stuff to this writer is the Wagner-Murray-Dingell bill, a measure which calls for a health insurance plan to be handled by the government.

In the first place, this writer likes nothing about the idea of health insurance. It is quite likely that persons requiring medical attention would probably be required to see the doctor allocated to them by the Federal Bureau of Medicine—not the doctor, necessarily, whom they learned to trust, like, and believe in.

During my last days in the Navy, I broke one of my teeth and went to a Naval dental clinic to have it filled. I was herded to a small room before a dentist whom I had never seen before. He filled it, but not all right, for it is almost a certainty that the tooth will have to be extracted soon. And it could have been saved by a dentist who was interested in helping his patients in the future, not just the present.

The same thing would probably apply to all types of medical and dental work. A doctor working on a salary simply would not be quite as interested in his patients as he would be if he had his future as well as theirs to think about. An employee of a business is not quite as interested in the outcome of the business as is the employer. That's human nature.
And the health of our nation is not thought of merely as a business venture. It's more important than that, and affects you and you and I.

In the second place, the money to support the program would come from a proposed 8% tax, 4% of which is to come from the employee and 4% from the employer. Add that to your income tax and social security tax, and you'll find that the federal government will be getting quite a sizeable slice of your income in a direct manner. Total up your state, county, city, and hidden taxes, and you'll soon find out why it costs you so much to live.

If the tax were necessary, then we could hardly condemn it merely because it runs up our cost of living. But it isn't necessary. Even if the health plan goes through, which we hope doesn't happen, it is estimated to cost approximately $3,142,000. And the tax assessment would bring in about eight or ten BILLION! This seems a rather under-handed method of getting extra revenue.

The 8% tax would affect the pay checks of well over one million people, but it's quite doubtful that the proposed plan would benefit one-tenth of that number. And it's more likely that the percentage of those hurt would be much higher than the one-tenth.

Perhaps government control of some phases of life is very practical. The government-operated post offices are the prime example of this. But health is a lot different from postal service, and it is our belief that the care of health should not be regimented.

There must be a stopping place to governmental control, or soon we will be drifting even closer to a socialistic or communistic state.

The only way to stop this trend is to tell your representatives in Congress and the Senate what you want. Write them today if you want your health preserved, not destroyed.

Press Paragraphs

SELECTED FROM THE
DEMOCRAT'S EXCHANGE

Tragedy

Douglas Meador in the Matador Tribune: One of life's subtle tragedies is concealed in the comic sections of newspapers.
Several of the leading creators, whose names are continued in the panels, are dead. Their work is perpetuated by others who are unknown to millions of followers.

In many instances the work is better than that in which a public following was created. Change murders its parents.

Czar?

The Amarillo Times: Newspapers here and there are beginning, in a mild way, to get after James Caesar Petrillo, the music czar.

To clean up bills systematically, borrow at our bank.

FIRST STATE BANK
Member FDIC

* BANK PERSONAL LOANS ARE BEST ****

He is the fellow who forbids the broadcasting of amateur music programs in schools and elsewhere, and gets away with it.
Such restriction has never been known in the past, and it is obviously illegitimate. He has extended his operations during the Christmas holidays, forbidding American radio stations to broadcast musical programs originating in foreign countries—except in Canada, where the musicians pay dues to him. It is a strange thing for one of the fine arts to be handicapped in this arbitrary way by a labor union dominated by one man. The year 1946
should see the end of it.

Friendly Soul

The Quanah Tribune-Chief: A friend of ours was found hunting on land recently purchased by an out-of-town man. The new owner was irritated and insulting. In an effort to pacify the howling landlord, our friend told him that he had hunted on the property
some time before and had found a cow mired and that he had worked long and hard to save the cow.
This information only served to further stimulate the land owner's temper. "That damn cow was trespassing, just like you," he shouted. How his neighbors are going to love that man, we wonder.

Thoughts

The Donley County Leader:
It's like wasting energy to tell a hair-raising story to a bald-headed man. . . Many a "train of thoughts" is merely a string of empties. . . The "good die young"
because they are given off time for good behavior.

No Solution

The Dallas Morning News: We have gotten accustomed to thinking of widespread strikes as the only solution of our difficulties.
There is nothing more absurd than to contend that we must have a nation-wide stoppage of industry at this critical juncture in order to settle the issue of a postwar national wage rate. The absurdity of it may be forcefully demonstrated unless something is done to meet the critical situation.

Thrilling

The Foard County News:
There are thrilling scenes as the veterans coming coming from overseas sail up the harbors of American ports, and land at our docks. One can hardly imagine their joy as they see the familiar sight of an American city. They have been fed up with foreign lands and the ancient dwellings of old countries. There is a newness about our cities that strikes them pleasantly, and it suggests that this is a land of hope and progress. The cheering crowds on the docks as their ships touch at our ports, is a thrilling welcome.
They scan the faces eagerly, to see if they can recognize anyone they know, or if members of their family may be there. When they get ashore, a telephone call to the family at home is often their first action. What a thrilling sound it is to hear the dear voice from home and to offer assurance that they will soon be back to greet the loved ones again.

A "Look at the Books" OR "A Finger in the Pie"?

Which is the UAW-CIO really after? Is it seeking facts—or new economic power? Does it want to know things—or run things?

These questions concern you as well as General Motors.

For years the facts about General Motors have been made public.

In spite of this, the UAW-CIO demands a chance to look at our books, with the hint that we could meet Union demands "if the truth were really known."

We have firmly declined to recognize this as a basis
for bargaining:

1. The Full Facts are Published

How much General Motors takes in each year—how much it pays employees—how much it pays to stockholders—how much it pays in taxes—how much net profit we make—and many other facts are plainly stated in annual reports and quarterly reports.

These are broadcast to 425,000 stockholders from coast to coast—sent to newspapers and libraries. Additional copies are free for the asking.

2. All Figures are Thoroughly Checked

Every General Motors annual statement is audited by outside auditors. Similar figures are filed with the Securities & Exchange Commission.

Does the UAW-CIO honestly believe that General Motors would or could deceive these experts?

3. Basis of Collective Bargaining is Defined

The Wagner Act lays down the rules for collective bargaining.
These cover such areas as rates of pay, hours of work, working conditions.

No mention is made of earnings, prices, sales volume, taxes and the like. These are recognized as the problems of management.

4. Something New has been Added

The obvious fact is that the UAW-CIO has gone beyond its rights under the law—and is reaching not for information but for new power—not for a look at past figures, but for the power to sit in on forecasting and planning the future.

A "look at the books" is a clever catch phrase intended as an opening wedge whereby Unions hope to pry their way into the whole field of management.

It leads surely to the day when Union bosses, under threat of strike, will demand the right to tell what we can make, when we can make it, where we can make it, and how much we must charge you—all with an eye on what labor can take out of the business, rather than on the value that goes into the product.

5. This Threatens All Business

If the Union can do this in the case of General Motors, it can do it to every business in this land of ours.

Is this just imagination? Union spokesmen have said, "The Union has stated time after time that this issue is bigger than just an ordinary wage argument, that it is bigger than the Corporation and bigger than the Union."

For Labor Unions to use the monopolistic power of their vast membership to extend the scope of wage negotiations to include more than wages, hours and working conditions is the first step toward handing the management of business over to the Union bosses.

We therefore reject the idea of a "look at the books," not because we have anything to hide but because the idea itself hides a threat to GM,
to all business, and to you, the public.

hear these familiar utterances: "Pass the butter please." "I have an apartment for rent." "It isn't worth repairing." "I'm an experienced worker and want to work." "We have our shelves full of dress shirts and the racks full of suits, with sizes and patterns for all." "Nylons, yes, our counters are piled high."

It makes me feel ashamed to know that returning servicemen cannot buy civilian clothes and cannot find homes for their wives and children. Strikers and get-rich-quick schemers are delaying the release of civilian goods and building materials. Retailers are doing all they can, but the factories are not supplying them.

Matilda Upstart of West Noel street says that a glance at the average husband furnishes proof enough that a woman can take a joke.

C. W. McCool, the Noel Street barber, has been amputating whiskers and hair for 33 years in Memphis. If each whisker and hair cut by him were laid end to end and then twisted into a forty-strand rope, it would encircle the world and leave enough ends to form a good bow knot. If you doubt my word, figure it for yourself. Mr. McCool says that he counts every man a friend upon whom he wielded the razor or scissors during all these years. (I think he knows this to be a fact, because a man will not risk an enemy fooling around his throat with a razor.) There are only five other business establishments still going that were in business here when he entered the barber business—Thompson Hardware, Harrison Hardware, W. D. Orr, Greene Dry Goods, and the First National Bank. Of the original founders only Wiley Orr, E. S. Greene, and S. S. Montgomery are living and active in business.

Bill Phleger of West Main street says he has proof that paint preserves: Women live longer than men.

Ed Thompson, of the Thompson Hardware, has always looked upon trees as something almost sacred, especially trees in Hall County, and has never cut one down that was still living. That is, until right recently when he had two trees—old landmarks in front of the implement house across the street from the hardware store—removed to give room for the McDaniel Implement Co. which bought his implement business. "It was with sadness and regret that I allowed the old trees to be removed. Trees that had withstood the storms of winter and the droughts of summer for many, many years," he said.

Speaking of trees: Some remains of trees that have been piled up just east of the telephone office for a year or more were burned a few days ago. One might say that comes under the head of "public improvement."

During Christmas holidays Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Funk visited at Alford, their old home. While there Mr. Funk went squirrel hunting. "It brought vividly to my mind the many things I did when a lad—things I had not thought of for many years," he said.

Chas. Drake to Run For Re-Election as County Treasurer

Chas. Drake has authorized The Democrat to announce his candidacy for re-election to the office of treasurer of Hall County, subject to the democratic primary in July.

Mr. Drake is well-known in the county, having been a resident here since 1892.

In making his announcement, Mr. Drake said that his past experience in the office makes him well-qualified to fill the position, and that he is fully acquainted with the duties and requirements of the office.

"I want to express my appreciation for your consideration and support in the past," Mr. Drake said, "and I would like to serve as your county treasurer for another two years. I feel that my past experience can be used to the best advantage in rendering the best service possible."

Navy Names DE For J. J. Cofer

In a recent issue of the Atlanta, Ga., Journal appeared pictures and story of a Gold Star Mother, Mrs. Mary Jane Cofer of Louisville, Ga., who was sponsor of a modern naval craft named in honor of her son, John Joseph Cofer.

Mrs. Cofer, the sponsor, is the aunt of W. M. Cofer of Memphis. Excerpts from the story follow: "Mrs. Mary Jane Cofer will christen a new destroyer escort, U. S. S. Cofer, for her son John Joseph Cofer, seaman first class, who was killed by enemy action at his battle station on the Destroyer Ward in the South Pacific. . . . She feared four stalwart sons and all of them enlisted in the fighting forces."

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Howell of Dallas spent the past week-end here with his sister, Mrs. C. F. Stout and family.

Mrs. Isabell Cypert Seeks Re-election As District Clerk

Mrs. Isabell Cypert has authorized The Democrat to announce her candidacy for re-election to the office of District Clerk of Hall County, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries in July.

Mrs. Cypert was appointed to the office in 1937, following the death of her husband, J. N. Cypert, while holding that office.

In announcing for re-election, Mrs. Cypert made the following statement:

"I wish to take this means of expressing my thanks to the people of Hall County for being so nice to me and giving me the privilege of holding this office."

"The office has provided me the means of making a living and all has depended on the nice way in which the people have treated me."

"Someone once said, 'No man liveth to himself,' and I have certainly found that out, since I have been able to make my own living when otherwise I might not have been able to do so."

"Now that I have served you in this office, I feel much more efficient in handling the work, and believe that I can serve you well in the days to come if I am re-elected. If something should happen to incapacitate me, I would certainly see that the office is taken care of properly."

Local Junior Red Cross Chapter Commended on Contribution to Fund

A recent communication from the regional director of Junior Red Cross has been received by Mary Foreman, Hall County Junior Red Cross chairman, commending the local chapter on its contribution of $50 to the national children's fund. This fund is used for aiding young people throughout the world.

During the war proceeds from the fund were used for relief of children in the war zones of Great Britain, Iceland, Poland, Finland, Russia, China, Greece, and France.

In Great Britain war nurseries and convalescent homes were established and equipped for children living in the bombed areas. In Russia shoes were sent to children whose fathers and mothers had died fighting in the defense of their country. In China Vitamin B-1 concentrate to combat beriberi was sent to Chinese children.

Immediately after the attack upon Greece, funds were appropriated from the fund for materials out of which clothing for the children of Greek soldiers was made by Greek Junior Red Cross members. Also through this fund a shipment of cocoa to the refugee children of Greece was made possible.

Lost, orphaned, and destitute children from Holland, Belgium, and France made refugees by invading armies were given clothing and foods. In Iceland the National Children's Fund supplied garden tools, pails and shovels, and sacks of assorted toy blocks for some 8,000 Icelandic children evacuated from Reykjavik to safer country districts for the summer months.

Clothing, shoes, bedding, and medications were delivered to the child victims of the invasion of Poland, and clothing and bedding were sent to child refugees in Finland in the early days of the war.

The schools of Hall County have contributed $76.93 to Junior Red Cross this year. Two high schools and two elementary schools as yet have not sent in their contributions. We are expecting 100 per cent enrollment, Miss Foreman said, and would like to have the other enrollment fees within the next few days. The Memphis West Ward school has handed in the largest contribution so far.

Article Features Alfred Hutcherson

Alfred Hutcherson, who lives near Memphis in Hall County, is featured in an article in the January issue of Capper's Farmer, entitled "Soft Water on Tap."

"A shallow well pump operated by electric motor taps 2 large cisterns to give the Alfred Hutcherson family soft water for household use," the story in the nationally circulated farm magazine points out. "One cistern catches water from a shed 40 by 100 feet. The other drains a building that is 24 by 100 feet. The cisterns are churned regularly to keep the water aerated."

"Hutcherson says they have had all the soft water needed for laundry, bathroom, and dishwashing since the cisterns were constructed."

Bruce Gibson, Turkey, Makes Report on Trip to National 4-H Congress.

Editor's Note.—The following article was written by Bruce Gibson, outstanding Hall County 4-H member of Turkey, on his trip to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago in December. It is printed here so that other 4-H members will be given a detailed report of the trip.

We left Memphis about 2 o'clock in the morning, November 30. The other boys from the county was Carrol Fowler (W. Hooser) also attended the Congress.

We arrived in Dallas about 9 o'clock that morning. All of the Texas delegation gathered in Dallas so they could leave at the same time. That morning we stayed around the Jefferson Hotel and met the other boys as they came in.

The Dallas Agriculture Club gave us a banquet at 12:15 o'clock in the Jefferson Hotel. After the banquet we went to the farm and ranch printing company and made a tour of it. It was very interesting to see how magazines are made. After we toured the building they made a group picture of the delegation.

After that we went to the Mercantile Bank Building and went up to the observation floor where we could see most of Dallas. We left the building and went back to the Jefferson Hotel, where we had another banquet which was given by Sears, Roebuck, and Company. For entertainment we had the Beeman Bros., and their sister, and also here was a magician on the program. After the banquet we caught the train on which we had Pullmans.

We changed trains in Oklahoma City. We arrived in Chicago at 10 o'clock on December 1. From the station we marched to the Harrison Hotel, where we stayed during the Congress.

The next morning, everybody who wanted to attended church. At 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, we had general assembly for all members in the grand ballroom of the Stevens Hotel. Talks were made by W. H. Palmer, Ralph Rohweder, Louise Talbot, and M. L. Wilson.

At 6:30 o'clock we went to the Chicago Sunday Evening Club, where we had a special 4-H program. We had a speech given by Dr. Richard C. Raines which was very interesting.

On Monday, December 3, from 7 to 9 o'clock, we had a breakfast given by the Firestone Rubber Company. The food and entertainment were very good.

At 9 o'clock we had general assembly where we were presented the ten guide-post program. The ten guide-posts are: 1. Developing talents for greater usefulness.

2. Joining with friends for work, fun, and fellowship. 3. Learning to live in a changed world.

4. Choosing a way to earn a living. 5. Producing food and fiber at home and market.

6. Creating better homes for better living. 7. Conserving nature's resources for security and happiness.

8. Building health for a strong America. 9. Sharing responsibilities for community improvement.

10. Serving 'as citizens in maintaining world peace.

We were divided off into discussion groups. We then went to discussion rooms where we discussed the ten guide-posts.

At 12 o'clock we went to the grand ballroom of the Stevens Hotel, where we had luncheon and entertainment given by the International Harvester Company. The speaker was Fowler McCorkle, who is president of the company. For our entertainment we had Olsen and Johnson, some acts, and Rico Marcelli and his orchestra.

That afternoon the girls went to the Museum of Natural History. The boys boarded a special electric train and went to the Museum of Science and Industry. The museum was very interesting and also educational. We saw exhibits on the atomic bomb, the Wright Bros first airplane, and other famous planes.

his orchestra, the Abbott dancers, the three Swifts, and the Harmonica Rascals.

That afternoon the girls toured the Museum of Science and Industry. The boys boarded a special elevated train and proceeded to the Chicago stockyards. I saw the Grand Champion steer and also the Grand Champion car lot of steers.

We went to the Saddle and Siroin Club and went through it. At 6:15 o'clock, we had the annual 4-H dinner in the grand ballroom of the Stevens Hotel. At this banquet we had the presentation of the scholarships and trophies to the national winner.

On Thursday at 7:30 o'clock, we had a special breakfast for state winners in poultry. My state leader and I attended it. It was held in the Roosevelt room of the Morrison Hotel. We were the guests of Swift and Company.

At 9 o'clock we had general assembly again. After that we went to the 8th Street Theater, where the national 4-H dress revue was held.

At 12 o'clock we had a farewell luncheon given by J. L. Kraft, chairman of the Kraft Foods Company. The speaker was J. L. Kraft. For entertainment we had the Kraft choral club, a comedy knockabout, Joey Rardin, Imogene, the horse, and Johnny Jones and his orchestra.

The Congress was officially closed. The total number of boys and girls attending was about 1,200. This included 18 Chinese, 7 Venezuelans, 1 Costa Rican, 1 Peruvian, and 1 Porto Rican. I wish to thank each and everyone who was responsible for me winning and making this wonderful trip to Chicago.

The Texas delegation remained in Chicago until the morning of December 7. The trip home was a pleasant one. We crossed the Mississippi in the daytime, when we could see it well. We arrived in Dallas early in the morning and had to stay until about 1 o'clock. Carrol and I arrived in Memphis about 8 o'clock.

SENTINELS OF HEALTH

Don't Neglect Them! Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—life itself—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure.

When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out.

Frequent, scanty or burning passages are sometimes further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance.

The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed the country over. Insist on Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.
