

Rev. Charles Clark, Korean Missionary, To Speak in City

Has Spent Many Years In Foreign Work; Saw 2 Wars, Guerilla Warfare

The Rev. Charles A. Clark, missionary who has spent many years in Korea, will speak at the First Presbyterian Church in Memphis Tuesday night, February 12, at 8:30 o'clock, it was announced this week.

"The public is cordially invited to hear this great preacher and missionary," Rev. B. L. Peacock, pastor of the church, said.

Rev. Clark went to Korea in 1902, and has returned to the United States only five times, the last time by invitation—of Tojo. He was under arrest three-and-a-half months just before leaving Korea, and escaped a three-year penitentiary term in a Japanese jail only by a miracle.

Since the Russo-Japanese War in 1904 brought Korea into the spotlight, Dr. Clark has seen the old Korea practically disappear, with the advent of automobiles, radio, airplanes, and Olympic winners. With his wife, who has shared all his evangelistic work, Dr. Clark passed through two wars and many months of guerilla warfare.

He was once captured by bandits. (Continued on page 7)

Total of 2,447 Pay Poll Taxes

The political prophets of Hall County pried open the pin-pointed pupils of their expert eyes this week and estimated that more than 3,000 ballots may be cast in next summer's voting melee, as Floyd R. Springer, tax assessor-collector, announced that 2,447 citizens had paid their poll tax for 1946.

In addition, nine exemptions from 21-year-olds were registered, giving a total known voting strength of 2,456 for Hall County.

This figure does not include the extra large number of those who will be eligible without payment of a poll tax this year. The number of those over-age (this year that includes all persons who were over 60 years of age prior to January 1, 1945) has always numbered 100 or more.

Then added to that figure this year will be the numerous returning servicemen, most of whom will be old enough to vote and if so, eligible to vote without payment of poll tax and without obtaining an exemption certificate.

The number of returned servicemen has already reached a figure in the neighborhood of 300, and by the time of the primaries,

Surplus Blood Plasma Will Be Distributed

Distribution of surplus blood plasma from the St. Louis, Mo., warehouse of the American Red Cross to civilian physicians and hospitals in 17 states comprising the Midwestern Area has begun, but as yet none has been received in Hall County.

Mrs. T. D. Weatherby, Red Cross home service chairman, and Mrs. Virginia Dodson, production chairman, have received no official notification of the distribution in this area as yet.

Dr. O. R. Goodall, city health officer, also reported that he has received no notification as yet. There is no county health officer for Hall County.

The plasma is part of an estimated 1,250,000 units declared surplus by the Army and Navy at the end of the war, Otto J. Brenner, director of public information for the Midwestern Area of the Red Cross, has announced.

Plans for its distribution back to the civilians from whom it came were worked out by the American Red Cross in cooperation with the Association of State and Territorial Health Officers, the American Medical Association, and the American Hospital Association.

Under the distribution plans, every physician and surgeon licensed to practice in this state will have one complete unit of blood plasma in his bag. Plans for its distribution back to the civilians from whom it came were worked out by the American Red Cross in cooperation with the Association of State and Territorial Health Officers, the American Medical Association, and the American Hospital Association.

Two directors are to be elected at this meeting. The county advisory committees have been active in plans for this annual get-together. The central office advisory committee is composed of A. S. Bevers, B. T. Prewitt, O. F. Messer, D. A. Neeley, Paul Montgomery, Parge Winn, C. R. Foster, and O. T. Glover.

In addition, Hooser said, prizes will be awarded to the best group of three calves fed out by one boy, and the best group of five fed out by one boy.

All club members must have their entries at the lint house of the Memphis Cotton Oil Mill by 9 o'clock Friday night, March 1, the county agent emphasized. The

CLAUDE'S COMMENTS

Am I deflated? Just when I was all pepped up with the idea that a lot of people read my comments, deflation struck. Last week I asked the subscribers, when writing for the address of their paper to be changed, to say "where from" as well as "where to." Already, this week two requests have been received for changes which just said "where to." Evidently those two do not read my comments, and if they (Continued on page 7)

Red Cross Rooms Open on Thursdays

The American Red Cross rooms in Memphis are open each Thursday afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock, Mrs. Virginia Dodson, production chairman, said this week, and urged all local women to visit the rooms and help sew.

At present the voluntary workers are making clothing for children in foreign countries, who have been suffering from lack of clothing due to the war. All help will be appreciated, Mrs. Dodson said.

The Tuesday sewing club deserves special mention, Mrs. Dodson pointed out, since the members have been taking materials of the Red Cross and working on clothing for the overseas children at regular meetings of the club.

Catch Chickens—Then Advertise Them for Sale

Another want ad in The Democrat paid off in good dividends—this time to Joe Vandiver of Memphis.

Vandiver advertised the fact that he had some chickens—and a 1938 auto for sale—and now he states that if you advertise chickens for sale in the paper to have them caught by the time the paper comes off the press.

When he arrived home last Thursday afternoon, other members of his family were already busily engaged in catching the chickens, and they were soon all sold.

The car didn't actually sell until Tuesday, although there were numerous inquiries before it sold. But Joe says he didn't want to sell it to someone unless they were from the South—the south, that is, son.

Income Tax Experts To Visit Memphis

In spite of all the changes in the income tax laws, March 15 is still the deadline for filing final income tax returns.

Everyone who had a gross income of $500 or more in 1945 must file a return. This even includes minor children with $500 or more gross income. In addition, many wage earners whose salaries were subject to withholding will not owe a tax for the year, but must, nevertheless, file a return in order to obtain a refund of amounts withheld by their employers from their salaries or wages.

In order to give taxpayers of this locality first hand assistance in the preparation of their returns, collector of internal revenue at Dallas, is sending deputy collectors Harry T. Warner and J. A. Desmond to the court house in Memphis Tuesday, February 19, 1946.

State Conducting Training Schools For Food Handlers

In a vigorous campaign to elevate the state health level by preventing the spread of communicable diseases which might be transmitted by foods, the state department of health is conducting training schools for food handlers in many sections of Texas, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

"Food handlers are being taught sanitary methods of preparing, handling, and serving foods for public consumption," Dr. Cox said. "Actual experience has shown that an insubstantial eating establishment is one of the surest sources of spreading infection. Public health is menaced by the lack of proper sanitation in food handling and our goal is the education of cooks, waiters, butchers, bakers, fountain men, and all other food handlers to such a level as will insure the elimination of this health hazard."

The training schools consist of elementary courses in bacteriology, communicable diseases, medical zoology, foods, disinfection, sterilization, personal hygiene, and sanitation.

These schools for food handlers which have been well received wherever held may be booked in any health unit of the State of Texas upon request from the director of the local health unit, addressed to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

Mrs. Kedron Ward visited last week-end with her mother, Mrs. J. A. Merrick, and her daughter, Mrs. Billy Thompson.

Army Answers Your Questions

Your questions on allotments, insurance, legal problems or other matters as they relate to dependents will be answered in this column or by letter. Write Headquarters Eighth Service Command, Dallas 2, Texas.

Q. I was discharged from the Army in December and I believe that I will receive the pension for which I applied. Will the receipt of the pension keep me from going to college under the G. I. Bill of Rights?

A. No. A veteran receiving a disability pension is eligible for the benefits of the G. I. Bill of Rights.

Q. My husband will be getting out of the Army soon after nearly four years in service. He wants to continue his National Service Life Insurance. Neither he nor I, his beneficiary, has ever received a policy or certificate for the insurance, although premiums have been paid regularly. Is there any way we can get some notice that the insurance is in force?

A. Yes. Your husband should write the Veterans Administration, Washington, D. C., requesting a letter which will show that a policy has been issued, the number of the policy, and its date of coverage. (He should be careful to include his full name, rank, serial number and organization.) This letter will serve in lieu of a certificate or a policy. Policies themselves have not been printed or issued during the war. It is anticipated that they will be resumed at some future date for those whose applications have been approved by the Veterans Administration.

Q. My brother, an Army veteran, is going to college under the G. I. Bill of Rights. I will be taking care of his child for him. Could I get an allowance for the child under the provisions of the bill?

A. If the child is dependent upon its father for support, the father should receive $90 per month for living expenses, instead of the $75 paid to those who have no dependents. Fifteen dollars of this amount will be for the child. However, it will be paid to the father.

Dr. Quinn, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Dalhart, read the double-ring ceremony by glowing candlelight, before an improvised altar in the living room. The mantle was decorated with baby-breath fern below a large gold-framed mirror. The altar consisted of two large candelabra, and two large baskets of white gladioli and baby-breath fern.

The maid of honor preceded the bride and her father down the winding stairway and at the foot of the stairs was another large candelabra and basket of white gladioli. Another candelabra was set by the piano in the hallway.

Mrs. O. B. Phillips played "Love's Old Sweet Song," followed by the trio singing "Till the End of Time," sung by Betty Enfield, Betty McClendon, and Joan Taylor, all of Dalhart. Mrs. Phillips played the traditional wedding march.

The bride was attired in a white satin dress with a sweetheart neckline and long, pointed sleeves. She wore a fingertip veil trimmed with beautiful wide lace. She had a halo of tiny yellow rosebuds. For something old she wore a heirloom cameo pin at the neck of her dress which belonged to her mother. For something blue she carried a baby blue lace trimmed handkerchief which was given to her by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lenham Nelson. For something borrowed she wore a string of pearls which belonged to her sister, Mrs. Dorrace Klotz. She carried a bouquet of white lilies. The bridegroom was attired in a blue pin-stripe suit. He wore his discharge button and a white carnation in his lapel. The maid of honor was Miss Ella Mae Kercheville of Memphis, who wore a black and blue net evening dress. Her corsage was pink roses.

The best man was Lanham Nelson, Dalhart, brother of the bride. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. D. H. Nelson.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. John Colquit, Dalhart, took pictures of the bride and bridegroom and the wedding party. Mr. and Mrs. Helmstetler then led the guests to the dining room where a reception was held. The three-tiered wedding cake was cut, and cake and punch were served from a lace-covered table. Mrs. Lenham Nelson, the hostess, presided over the punch bowl.

The bride then changed into a tailored aqua suit with white and black accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The bride and groom left for a two-weeks honeymoon in Monterey and Mexico City, Mexico. Delphian Club Has Annual Program, 'Stories of Hymns'

The Delphian Club met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. W. True, when three new members, Mrs. Annie Stone, Mrs. Henry Hays, and Miss Zady Belle Walker, were introduced.

Following the business session, Mrs. P. E. Yarborough was in charge of the program, entitled "Stories of Hymns," an observance of the annual religious program. As each member told the story of the origin and the points of interests of one of the beloved hymns, Mrs. Tom Draper softly played the chosen hymn.

Mrs. Sidney Baker, Mrs. Hays, Mrs. Yarborough, and Mrs. Jack Boone told the story of the patriotic hymns, "My Country 'Tis of Thee," "Home Sweet Home," "Battle Hymn of the Republic," and "America, the Beautiful." Following the singing of "My Country 'Tis of Thee," the club members stood and sang one verse of the song, and then gave a salute to the flag.

Mrs. George Kesterson and Mrs. Harry Womack gave stories of songs of comfort, "Rock of Ages," and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." Mrs. W. C. Dickey told of the song of guidance, "He Leadeth Me."

Songs of faith, "How Firm the Foundation," "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," and "Faith of Our Fathers," were presented by Mrs. Hal Goodnight, Mrs. C. C. Hodges, and Mrs. Yarborough.

Mrs. Yarborough then gave the story of courage, "A Mighty Portrait," following which songs of sacrifice, "The Ninety and Nine" and "The Old Rugged Cross" were reviewed by Mrs. W. C. Davis and Mrs. O. R. Goodall.

Songs of hope and aspiration were presented by Miss Maud Milam and Mrs. Jack Boone. The songs were "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Sweet By and By." Edd McCreary in Race for Sheriff Of Hall County

Edd McCreary of Memphis has authorized The Democrat to announce his candidacy for the office of Sheriff of Hall County, subject to the action of the democratic primaries.

McCreary made the following statement in announcing:

"In announcing my candidacy for the office of Sheriff of Hall County, I desire to submit the following facts:

"I am 48 years old and have lived in the county for 30 years. I have served as chief of police for the City of Memphis for almost ten years, and during this period, I have had much valuable experience in arresting many persons guilty of crimes, both of misdemeanor and felony grade. I have taken the courses offered by the Federal Bureau of Investigation for police officers and have made a close study of the duties of law enforcement officers in civil cases.

"My record in the district and county courts for the arrests and convictions of defendants charged with both misdemeanors and felonies will reflect that I have served the City of Memphis as well as Hall County very efficiently, and I submit this record to the citizens of our county.

"If elected to the office of sheriff, it will be my purpose and intention to arrest and furnish the evidence to convict those guilty of law violations and to protect the innocent with equal effort and vigor.

"I earnestly solicit the investigation, consideration, and support of all citizens in my efforts to be your next sheriff."

Respectfully submitted, Edd McCreary.

In planning for veal in the meal a good many home food buyers are in the habit of not thinking much further than veal roasts or chops. But veal has other cuts to offer—cuts which may be less well known but, nevertheless, are just as desirable, if properly prepared. An idea as to what can be done toward injecting variety into the menu with veal is set forth by the recipes given above. There are, of course, many other cuts of veal and many possibilities for their preparation that may be used to advantage.

Study Shows Over 15 Million Families To Enjoy $2,500 or More Incomes in '46

Over 15 million U. S. families will enjoy incomes of $2,500 or above in 1946; this is about twice as many American families as ever had equivalent buying power in any preceding peacetime year. The incomes of over 12 million of these families will be $3,000 or more; $2,500 is now the "acceleration point" above which a rapidly increasing proportion of income is spent on "prosperity goods," i. e., non-necessities, according to a study by Northwestern National Life Insurance Company.

Thus nearly half of all U. S. families—the half who own the bulk of the nation's 150 billion dollars in war bonds and other savings—will not need to dip into those savings to be a market for the flood of luxuries, semi-luxuries, and items for good living which will pour out of U. S. factories in 1946, the study says; it points out further that high wartime incomes were financed quite largely out of government-borrowed money, whereas probably by midyear the high 1946 income levels will be entirely financed by industrial activity, as the government budget is expected to come into approximate balance in the new fiscal year.

The study cites Lough's "high-level consumption" analyses, demonstrating that at living cost levels of 1913, $1,300 a year was the critical income above which, with necessities and basic comforts provided, income was spent at an accelerating rate for non-necessities and luxuries. Using today's dollars, and after deduction of income taxes, a 1946 family of four must receive a gross income of approximately $2,500 in order to net the equivalent buying power of the 1913 family with $1,300 income. The insurance economists calculate that on the basis of prevailing estimates of a 140 billion dollar national income in 1946, and on the basis of previously demonstrated patterns of distribution of national income, 45.8 per cent of U. S. families will receive incomes of $2,500 or above in 1946; 37.1 per cent will receive $3,000 or more.

As family income reaches and passes the "acceleration level," now approximately $2,500, percentages spent on food and clothing decrease, while proportion of income spent on home maintenance, life insurance, recreation and health, automobiles, and downright luxuries, increase in accelerating ratio.

In the middle and late thirties, when the "acceleration level" income was between $1,800 and $1,850—i. e. at the then cost of living, it required $1,800-$1,850 to provide the necessities and

Leonard King Asks To Be Elected as District Attorney

Leonard King of Childress has authorized The Democrat to announce his candidacy for the office of district attorney of the 100th judicial district, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries.

King, a veteran of World War II who was reared in Childress County, made the following statement when announcing:

In announcing my candidacy for the office of district attorney of the 100th judicial district, I am aware of the duties and responsibilities of the office. I believe the office to be of such importance in the matter of law enforcement as to require the full time and efforts of the lawyer who serves as your district attorney, and more especially in the immediate post war years. Because you do, and should want to know something about the candidate who offers himself for this office, I give this brief statement of my past life.

I was reared on a farm in Childress County, educated in the public schools and Clarendon College; studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1929, and immediately began the practice of law in Childress. I served as county judge of Childress County from 1931 to 1935, and assistant attorney of Texas from 1935 until I resigned to enter private practice of law in Childress in 1939.

In October, 1942, I enlisted in the army as a private, and on finishing basic training I went overseas to the South Pacific as a field artillery replacement. Some 14 months later, as a result of an injury received while in the Solomon Islands, I was returned to the United States for further hospitalization and given a medical discharge seven months later. I returned to Childress and took over the duties of the county attorney, who is absent because of serving in the armed forces.

If the people of this district are kind enough to elect me district attorney I pledge full cooperation with the courts, peace officers, and grand juries in all matters of law enforcement, and to devote my time and best efforts towards making you a good district attorney; and to vigorously, but fairly, prosecute all criminal cases coming under the jurisdiction of the office.

I hope to meet all of the people of the district, if possible, before the primary election. Your assistance in my behalf will be greatly appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Godfrey and Mrs. E. W. Godfrey Jr. went to El Paso to get their son and husband, E. W., who has just been discharged from the Army.

POOR WIRING !

Poor wiring is as outmoded as the high-wheeler grandfather used to ride. Today we have so many electrical aids that good wiring is a necessity if we expect efficient service.

Plug too many appliances into one poorly wired circuit and it may overheat if fuse does not blow in time to shut it off. The loss of electrical energy into heat on such an overloaded circuit also reduces the efficiency of each appliance attached.

It's quite easy to get your wiring up to date. Start planning now and remember that full benefit of electrical appliances depends upon adequate and proper wiring.

Hugh Olson, District Scout Executive, Presents Awards at Court of Honor

A Boy Scout court of honor, preceded by an address on scouting by Hugh Olson, district executive officer of the Adobe Walls Council of Boy Scouts, was held at the regular Wednesday meeting of the Memphis Lions Club.

Olson gave various instances of how former scouts had advanced to high positions, and stressed the importance of proper training for the youth of today.

The visiting executive also made the awards to the scouts, and a special award was given to Theodore Myers, local scoutmaster, for his outstanding work here.

Star scout badges were awarded to Billy West, Creed Lamb, Bobby Taylor, Donald Corley, Carl Smith, Leroy Green, and Jack Knight.

First-class badges went to Don Wright, Adrian Combs, Dayle Evans, Lacy Boles, Jimmie Stewart, Bobby Joe Paris, R. A. Wells Jr., Anderson Gardenhire, Charlie McCreary, and Thomas Messer.

Second-class badges were given to Willie Pickering, Donald Payne, Fay Stone, Don Rasco, and Trayce Rhudy.

The scouts to whom the awards were made were guests of the Lions members at the luncheon.

Wednesday afternoon, Olson and Myers met with the cub scouts and their parents, where Olson explained much of the work of cubs to the boys and their parents.

Estimators Doubt County Will Make Over 25,000 Bales

Official Report Gives Hall Gins Credit for 24,080 Bales as of January 16

Judging from the official report on Hall County ginnings as of January 16, various estimators were doubting this week that the production would reach many more than 25,000 bales, if that many.

The official report by C. Lee Rushing, special agent for the bureau of census of the department of commerce, credited Hall County gins with 24,080 bales from the 1945 crop, as compared with 31,756 at the same time last year. This figure was based on the ginnings as of January 16.

Usually the final report is made sometime in March, but there is seldom much change in the January report and the final report.

A glance at the fields shows that practically all of the cotton in the county has been gathered. That remaining is being gathered by mechanical means, which involves waste and is not cleaning the fields thoroughly, it was pointed out.

The past fall, as during the other fall seasons during wartime, found field laborers hard to obtain. This naturally resulted in much of the cotton being sludded or picked by other mechanical means. Cotton-picking machines are being quickly perfected, but thus far none have proved entirely satisfactory from the clean-field standpoint.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Welcher will leave today for Santa Fe, N. M., to visit his mother, Mrs. Sid Welcher, for two days.

Lakeview Women Honored by Lions On 'Ladies Night'

R. E. Drennen of Clarendon In Charge of Program; Del Wells Presents Awards.

Women of the Lakeview vicinity were honored guests when the Lakeview Lions Club held its "Ladies Night" Thursday night of last week.

In charge of the program was R. E. Drennen, dean of the Clarendon College.

The menu consisted of combination salad, club steak, cream gravy, french-fried potatoes, whole stringless beans, hot rolls and butter, coffee, and pie.

The program was called to order by Boss Lion Bascom Davenport, following which singing was led by Loran Denton. The pledge of allegiance was given, and the invocation was given by Rev. R. M. McAnally.

After the food was served, Davenport introduced the master of ceremonies, and Del Wells presented several awards. The program was then presented, with Dean Drennen in charge. The closing song, "America," was sung, and the meeting adjourned.

Board to Review Awards of Navy

A board of review for decorations and medals, headed by Admiral Frederick J. Horne, U. S. N., has been appointed by Secretary of the Navy James Forrestal to prevent any oversights, injustices, or omissions in the presentation of awards to officers and enlisted men of the navy, Marine corps, and coast guard.

The board, composed of regular and reserve officers of the navy, marine corps, and coast guard, will review such cases as may be advisable "in order to assure, insofar as may be practicable, that there may be no oversights, injustices, or omissions," Admiral Horne explained.

To Mrs. J. B. Evans went the reward for running a house for rent want ad. Numerous people want apartments and houses, and can't find them. We have a printer here with a wife and two children who have gone from house to house trying to find a place to stay. The housing shortage is so great that the ground hog didn't come out to see his shadow February 2 because he was afraid some one would get his home while he was out basking in the sunshine.

Joe Vandiver thinks a want ad in The Democrat works too fast. He ran one last week about some chickens for sale, and when he got home customers were already on hand to buy them.

Bill Phleuger of West Main street says the next thing we'll probably hear is that the strikers want to work every day but week days, with Sunday off. . . The wife talks to herself a lot, but she doesn't know it. She thinks I am listening.

Deck's Didactics in Wellington Leader says a snuff salesman told him that 1,800 pounds of snuff is the normal sale in Memphis every three months. He thinks one fifth of a pound of snuff for every man, woman, and child is sufficient to supply a lot of fun on the sly.

The Dalhart Daily Texan came out in a new seven-column dress last week after going tabloid for several years.

Thanks to Mrs. M. I. Hendrix and daughter Winifred of Hotchkiss, Colo., former Hall Countians, for their nice letter of sympathy to us in the loss of our Collic. . . Also to the anonymous writer who sent the nice tribute to be published, our thanks.

Matilda Upstart of West Noel street says her friend in Fort Worth writes that a new excuse for class absence has turned up at TCU. The excuse is: "The stork visited our place last night." The excuse was accepted, because in this post-war world many married veterans are going to college.

If material could be obtained, there would be a lot of building and improvement going on in Memphis. As it is, a lot of people are doing repair work around their homes, putting out shrubbery, trimming old shrubbery, making flower beds, preparing for gardens, and a thousand and one things that go into the making of life as she is lived day by day by the inhabitants. After all, Memphis is a good town, and so are the people therein—none better anywhere. If I didn't think so, I wouldn't live here. Once a person gets the Memphis feeling, no other place will satisfy.

Memphis men, first thing you know the good wife will be after you to get busy with the hoe and spade, and don't say I didn't give you fair warning.

Royce Crisler has returned to Camp Chaffee, Ark., after spending a three-weeks furlough from the Army with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Crisler of Memphis, and his wife, Mrs. Crisler of Hedley.

Governor Names February 22 to Be Texas Arbor Day

Its purpose is to stimulate interest in tree planting, tree appreciation and forestry conservation throughout the state.

Joe J. Mickle Now Head of Centenary

Joe J. Mickle, former resident of Memphis and Amarillo, has been inaugurated as president of Centenary college, it was learned here this week.

Mickle, who was reared in Memphis and later lived for some time in Amarillo, spent a number of years as a professor in a Japanese university. He spoke of his experiences in Japan while on a visit to this city four or five years ago.

The inauguration ceremony at the college was a two-day affair, it was reported, and one of the outstanding events in the history of the 120-year-old school.

A. H. Newsom Buys Interest in Electric Firm

A. H. Newsom, formerly of Wichita Falls, has purchased an interest in the Toland Electric Company, and the name of the firm has been changed to Memphis Electric Company.

During the war, he was in charge of aircraft electrical maintenance at Sheppard Field and at the army air base at Childress. Prior to that time he had spent ten years with the United Electric Service Company of Wichita Falls, where he was connected with both sales and service.

Mr. and Mrs. Newsom have purchased a home in Memphis. They have a daughter, who is employed in El Paso, and their son was lost in the Alaskan theater of operations in 1943.

H. D. Toland, who established the firm here recently, and Newsom are opening a shop where electric motors will be repaired. Plans are being made to enlarge the facilities of the firm as soon as supplies are available.

Coursey Retires From Fire Work

W. V. (Bill) Coursey, who has served in the Memphis Fire Department for the past 25 years, was granted his request for retirement from duty when members of the department held their regular meeting Monday night. During the meeting, plans were made for buying badges for the members who have none. It was also decided that the department would buy new membership plates for automobiles belonging to members.

Plans were also made for a departmental party, to be held February 11. It was announced at the session that four new gas masks have been received.

and Texas furnishes the sand for it to sink away in.

"New Mexico is a game country, too. If all the deer horns in the state were clustered together into one giant bracket it would make a good place for Texans to hang their hats on when not talking through them. Combine all the mountain lions' tails in New Mexico into one and you could brush all the heel flies out of Texas in one swish.

"Speaking of oil, all you have to do in southeastern New Mexico to start a filling station is to stick a garden hose down a gopher hole.

"New Mexico raises every mentionable crop, including cotton, cattle, beans, buckaroo, wheat, sheep, chili, cow, cane, and the hopes of Texans who hunker for some place to go about fishing.

"There are more writers, artists, jack-rabbits and political aspirations to the square inch in New Mexico than there are burros in Washington.

"And the sun shines 365 days of the year, and twice on Sundays."

So says Mr. Barker of New Mexico.

That's a Joke, Son

The Quitaque Post: A sailor spotted his buddy in the Base library. Said buddy was solving a crossword puzzle and filling in with a fountain pen instead of the customary pencil. First sailor slapped his buddy on the shoulder and remarked, "When a guy whistles in a graveyard I know he is afraid. And when a guy cuts out paper dolls it means he is 'psycho.' But when a fellow fills out crossword puzzles with a fountain pen, what does that show?" "Confidence," his buddy calmly replied.

Those Chinese

The Claude News: A Claude subscriber says he now knows why they generally called it a Chinese puzzle.

For Both Sides

Ed Bishop in the Dalhart Texan: Newspapers as a general rule are considered anti-union, because strikes are big news and receive much publicity, regardless of their size and effect. Too, cartoonists and writers generally play up the strikes. The Texan has been more often accused of being anti-business than anti-union, but we've been accused by both sides, which we regard as a compliment, indicating that we are playing a pretty fair game so far as both sides are concerned.

They Learn Young

The Hereford Brand: Jimmie Conkwright, 8-year-old son of Colby, has the makings of a sharp business man. With an eye on the weather a while back, Jimmie confiscated his dad's boots and refused to part with them. Colby, after going bootless for a few weeks, lit on the solution of buying a pair of pint-sized boots for Jimmie, which worked fine—to a point. Young Jimmie is now willing to "sell" the old boots back to Dad—but at a profit.

Advertising

The Foard County News: The human race began to make fast progress when it learned to communicate ideas by using printer's ink. So now business makes faster progress when it uses printed matter in advertising. People do not need to go far from home to find opportunities for work and business. Many opportunities are offered in the home town and nearby country.

A Little By-Passing

The Canyon News: Veterans are complaining that they are being by-passed in the procurement of war surplus. We don't know just how valid the complaint is. But we do know that a returning veteran made application in October for a apprentice training under the G. I. bill, and not a darned thing has been done about the application in a three months period. Just why all this delay? More government bureaucracy.

WE'D LIKE FOR YOU TO THINK ABOUT THIS

ATHLETIC in all types of schools has proved its worth in the past, and it is of enough types of sports so that every boy and girl can participate and show its effect.

During the war we became conscious of a fact that we had never given much thought to; and that fact is that a large percentage of our young men were not physically able to pass successfully the examination given by the armed forces. The bad feature of it is that the physical exam, as a general rule, was not hard to pass, providing a man could crawl to the examining room and could see the doctor. He could pass the physical exam.

Truly the physical exam given were not too hard to pass. Of course there were some things which always brought about a rejection, such as mottled skin, bad hearts, varicose veins, etc., and some of the things which might have been avoided had the young men had the opportunity to build up their bodies.

What Memphis really needs, just as does every other community in the country, is a well-rounded athletic program for the children in the schools and for the grown-ups (or nearly grown-ups) who are out of school. At present, the schools offer a number of sports, but only a few of the students actually do participate. The program in the schools, in order to be carried out satisfactorily for the benefit of the students, must be compulsory. One student would not participate in sports or all physical activities, but only as that which he would choose. And the program must also be for both boys and girls.

Furthermore, the program must start before the students reach high school. The younger grades must have athletic programs for the children, so that when these students enter high school, they will be physically prepared to take further body-building sports and exercises.

To make the program more comprehensive, it would be well for the city of Memphis to not the entire county, if some all-day program of athletic exercises of some sort could be worked out to take care of those people who do not attend school, for the young men and women just out of school, and for those reaching the middle age stage of life.

For this type of program, a full-time physical training director would have to be employed. Some man would have to be hired who could devote his entire time to the training program in the schools and out of the schools. Regular high school athletics should be continued, just as they are, since they are highly competitive and add much to the spirit of students. Don't misunderstand, we believe in high school athletics and competition—we are merely advocating that more people benefit from a healthy body.

Naturally, it is understood that the employment of a full-time athletic director for the city would require considerable money, not only for his salary, but also for the equipment which would be necessary to carry out such a program. However, the problem of getting that money could probably be worked out on a cooperative basis between school officials, the city, and local business men. Some business men have already stated that they would willingly give a straight contribution of a few dollars a year to support such a program. This, with the cooperation of the schools and the city, the program might be put into effect.

This, of course, has two advantages—one in that it would help out hundreds of people physically and mentally, and two that it would take up the time of just a few minutes so that we should not be bothered with juvenile delinquency.

Suppose we think this idea over a while, and then, if there is a way in which it can be done, let's put it over. A healthy body and a busy one, should help to make a healthy and happy mind.

Trend on Southwest Farm Products Steady to Strong Last Part of January

Except for seasonally lower prices on eggs, the trend on most southwest farm products the latter part of January was steady to strong, according to USDA's Production and Marketing Administration.

Early in the week cotton prices reached a 20-year high of 25.41 cents a pound for middling 15-16 in the ten designated markets. Some of the gain was lost later on, but closing prices were about 25 cents. Sales totaled 2,000 bales compared with 190,000 in the preceding week and 1,800 a year ago.

Grain markets reflected the strength in cotton and securities and were also influenced by recommendations for extension of price controls and subsidies. Prices continue at full ceiling levels with supplies tight, cars shipping short, and demand excellent from both domestic and export buyers. Exports of grain during the last half of 1945 were 20 million bushels more than in the same months of 1944 while imports were about 80 million bushels less.

Interest in domestic wools increased, largely as a result of the favorable outlook for replenishing stocks of foreign wools when these begin to get low in three or four months. Inquiries are received and buyers were reported cataloging domestic wools available throughout the country. Demand for Texas wools on the Boston market, however, was very slow. Demand for graded mohair included all types from 10 to average adult hair.

With resumption of packing plant operations after the government took over strike-bound plants, marketings gradually returned to about normal proportions. Cattle supplies were still tight to moderate, but the volume of hogs surpassed that for the corresponding week a year ago. Lamb marketings swelled late in the week as increased subsidies became effective. Hogs were strong with some light weights up to 50 cents. The week's trend for cattle was slightly irregular.

New Plan to Sell Farm Machinery To Vets Explained

Surplus Sales Will Be Held At Various Sites; Buyers Allowed 15 Days to Order

Veterans of World War II in the states of Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, and Oklahoma have received welcome news concerning availability of construction and farm machinery, recently declared surplus, now being offered for purchase by veterans.

Hamilton Morton, associate regional director of War Assets Corporation, consumer goods division, with offices in Fort Worth announced an important change in plans greatly to the advantage of all veterans living in Region VII. It had originally been planned to hold the sale in Fort Worth on a "first come, first served" basis. This would have necessitated an undue amount of travel and inconvenience for the certified veterans who reside in the four states. Inability to place the illustrated descriptive catalogue of the sale in the hands of all eligible veterans to insure adequate time to inspect this machinery, which is located at 45 different places throughout the region, contributed to the decision to arrange for a new sales plan.

Upon receipt of the catalogue, which lists the sales number, the item available, the price and location of the property, the veteran who has been certified to purchase farm and construction machinery which is in short supply will be allowed 15 days, February 5 to 20, in which to inspect the property and place an order to purchase. All orders must be postmarked before midnight February 20 and will be opened beginning at 10 o'clock on February 21 according to sales instructions sent to all veterans now registered for the purchase of such machinery.

Machinery being offered includes tractors, bulldozers, draglines, centrifugal pumps, chain hoists, cultivators, disc harrows, spreaders, air compressors, pneumatic drills, road rollers, concrete mixers, graders, and a wide assortment of other essential items.

The 44 locations at which the machinery included in this sale may be inspected by veterans includes 20 places in Texas, 10 in Arkansas, 7 in Oklahoma, and 7 in Louisiana. Large amounts of machinery are concentrated at such locations as Red Dam Spur at Denison; Camp Claiborne, La.; New Orleans; Tulsa; and McAlester, Okla. Smaller amounts are available for inspection at other locations throughout the four states, exact location of each item being given in the catalogue being sent veterans by mail.

No award of machinery to veterans placing orders will be made prior to February 21. After that date successful veterans will have contracts covering their purchases forwarded to them by mail and will be able to complete their purchase by merely forwarding executed contract and remittance in accordance with sales conditions set forth in the catalogue. Hamilton Morton pointed out in conclusion that under the new plans for the machinery sale, there is no necessity for the veteran to travel long distances for any personal contact with the regional consumer goods office in Fort Worth.

1946 Car Licenses Here; Dressed Up In Black and Ivory

New Tags Cannot Be Put On Autos Until March 1; Must Be On By April 1

Hall County's 1946 automobile licenses, all dressed up in the new colors of black and ivory, arrived this week, and are now on sale at the tax assessor-collector's office, F. R. Springer announced. The new tags, with ivory letters on a black background, went on sale February 1. They cannot, however, be placed on the autos until March 1, and must be on by April 1.

"Automobile owners who have cars without the current 1945 tag on them must pay for the remainder of the year at the Texas license rates," Springer pointed out. "For example, if a car owner with an Oklahoma license for 1945 on his auto wishes to register it in Texas for 1946 during the month of February, he would be required to pay for the remaining two months prior to April 1, in addition to the cost of the 1946 tag."

The plates will be the same size as those of 1945. Numbers for passenger cars will be CN7700 to CN9999; for commercial cars, MK900 to MK1349; and for farm vehicles, RF350 to RF649.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Breland of Amarillo visited Myrtle Howard and Mr. and Mrs. Gip McMurry last week-end.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.
2. Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them!
Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living - life itself - is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure. When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer sagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes - feel tired, nervous, all worn out.
Frequent, scanty or burning passages are sometimes further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance.
The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed by the country over. Inset on Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.

Atalantean Club Observes 18th Birthday Anniversary

The Atalantean Club observed its 18th birthday Tuesday of last week in the home of the president, Mrs. Claud Johnson, with a 9 o'clock "southern brunch." The members were greeted by Mrs. Johnson, and members of the social committee, Mesdames J. A. Odom, C. W. Kinslow, Myrtis Phelan, and H. B. Estes Sr., who were dressed in southern colonial costumes.

The dining room was decorated in a southern garden scene. The table was centered with a huge, decorated birthday cake of pink and blue, with pink snapdragons arranged as an old-fashioned garden.

The guests found their places at the table by attractive place cards with printed menu and program.

Mrs. Odom was toast-mistress; grace was given by Mrs. Myrtis Phelan, and a toast to the club by Mrs. C. W. Kinslow. Minutes of the first meeting of the Atalantean Club, January 28, 1928, were read. The first meeting was in the home of Mrs. Webster, the first president of the club. Mrs. Troy Broome, dressed as Scarlet O'Hara, gave two selections from Margaret Mitchell's novel, "Gone With the Wind." A southern skit was presented by Mrs. J. A. Whaley and Mrs. Jeff Ray.

Old southern melodies were sung by the club. The members presented the president, Mrs. Johnson, with a gift. Mrs. Odom presented the gift and expressed the club's appreciation of the successful work accomplished by her. Mrs. Johnson responded with the reading of the poem, "Friends," by Edgar A. Guest.

This anniversary celebration is the main social event of this club each year. There are several of the charter members who have not missed any of the celebrations. Mrs. S. B. Foxhall, a former charter member, sent greetings with a large vase of snapdragons to the club. Mrs. John Minnich, a former member, sent a birthday card of greetings to the club. Each year the club receives greetings from former members in various ways.

The menu consisted of grapefruit cocktail, Virginia ham, shirred eggs, broiled pineapple, marmalade, beaten biscuits, miniature molds of butter, birthday cake, and coffee. Favors were miniature hand-made colonial southern ladies, which added color and beauty to the meal.

Those present were Mesdames C. W. Broome, Troy Broome, W. C. Dickey, H. B. Estes Sr., N. A. Hightower, Claud Johnson, C. W. Kinslow, D. J. Morgensen, J. H. Morris, D. A. Neeley.

Excess Amount of Dry Foods Due to Reduction of Crops

The amounts of dry beans and peas civilians will have to eat for the first three months of 1946 reflect substantial reduction of these crops caused primarily by bad weather during last year's production season, according to E. A. McBryde, district director of the production and marketing administration.

He said while allocation of dry peas for the current quarter is below estimated demand, no inconveniences to housewives are expected. First quarter allocation of beans also are still well below estimated demand.

Total allocation of dry peas for the January-March quarter amounts to 1,233,000 bags of 100 pounds each, of which 1,000,000 bags have been earmarked for civilian purchase. Of the 3,020,500 100 pounds each, of dry beans allocated, civilians will receive 3,682,000 bags for the three-month period.

Others sharing in the supply of both foods include the armed forces, UNRRA and other foreign countries, including U. S. territories.

Last year's production of beans was 12,313,000 bags, cleaned weight of 100 pounds each, compared with 14,963,000 bags in 1944, while dry smooth pea production was about 4,000,000 bags, 100 pounds each, cleaned basis, compared with 7,000,000 bags the previous year.

Barbara Foust and Betty Lesley of Childress spent the week-end with Marjorie Hardwick. Miss Hardwick returned to Childress with them for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Williams of Borger visited friends and relatives here this week-end.

Reba Huggins and Mary Alice Ables spent the week-end in Quitaque with Marjorie Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. George Greenhaw visited their son, Reginald and his wife, in Amarillo last week-end.

Findings on Bang's Disease Reported

Pointing to the confusion among farmers as to whether adult cattle should be vaccinated against Bang's disease (brucellosis), the American Foundation for Animal Health has issued a series of findings summarizing latest research on this problem.

It is not advisable to have adult cattle vaccinated, says the report, if the breeding herd is "clean" and "negative" to the Bang's disease blood test, or if the herd is supplying raw milk to city users, or if the farmer expects to sell breeding stock to buyers in other states.

The report favors adult vaccination, however, where signs indicate an outbreak of brucellosis starting in a good herd of cattle. It also recommends vaccination of heifer and bull calves 4 to 8 months old.

"No farmer can hope to control or overcome brucellosis by vaccination alone," the foundation points out. "Veterinary authorities have found that the ideal program for the dairy farmer is a combination of calfood vaccination coupled with periodic blood-testing of adult breeding cows. For the beef rancher, interested in calf crop production only, vaccination of cattle of all ages is often a satisfactory solution."

Morrison in Race For Commissioner Of Precinct No. 1

W. B. Morrison of Memphis has authorized The Democrat to announce his candidacy for the office of Commissioner of Precinct No. 1, subject to the action of the democratic primaries next summer.

In announcing, Morrison, who served as commissioner of Precinct 1 several years ago, made the following statement:

"It is my sincere belief that my past experience as your former commissioner, together with my experience in road contracting and building contracting, will enable me to serve you in a better capacity than ever before. Future planning must be done now, in order that Hall County can benefit from the post-war planning for the nation.

"I feel qualified in all respects to help in this planning. These future improvements will require much planning before they can be carried out, not only on road planning but on other aspects to aid the county.

"Furthermore, I want it understood that if a capable ex-serviceman enters the race for this office, I will withdraw.

"It is my intention to see each of you personally before election time, but I wish to take this means of soliciting your help and consideration in the coming election."

the mayor explained. Especially important and one of the first projects on the list is the question of the Memphis sewage plant, which is now said to be in bad condition. The new official will also probably be an inspector for wiring and plumbing done in the city.
