A game of "cowboys" between a 4-year-old boy and his 4-year-old brother ended in tragedy this morning in the Indian community when William Whitten, 4, was fatally shot by a shot from a 12-shotgun held by his brother, 6 years old.

Interest Growing In School Board's Summer Program

Bicycle Parade Scheduled For July 4; City Softball Competition Warming Up

There's no doubt about it—practically all phases of the summer recreation program sponsored by the Memphis school board are gaining interest daily.

That interest is increasing is evidenced by the size of the crowds attending the twice-weekly softball games, and the number of youngsters turning out for their events.

One of the highlights of the summer program will be a bicycle parade, to be held downtown in Memphis July 4. Coach Curtis Kelley announced this week. Every bicycle owner in town is invited to participate. Kelley pointed out, and prizes will be awarded to the best-decorated vehicles.

The parade will be held at 10 o'clock in the morning.

Competition in the city softball league is getting "hotter" each week. The plan is to play a round-robin schedule, with the two highest-ranking teams meeting in the play-off. Last Friday night saw Magnolia winning over Estelline 12 to 2; and Hedley gaining a forfeit over Lesley. The Hedley team lost to Texaco in a practice game by a score of 21 to 9. Two trophies, one 20-inch and one 11-inch, will be awarded to first and second place teams, respectively.

Underway at present is the doubles tennis tourney, with Ed and Gordon Gilliam as the favorite team. Also figured to rank high is the team of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Crooks. But dark horse teams may be able to upset one or both of the favorites, Kelley said.

More boys are needed for the twice-weekly swim practices, Kelley said. The boys meet each Tuesday and Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the high school, and hike to the pool. Various water games are played, and so far a great deal of interest has been shown.

In the junior softball league, the City Drug Wildcats lost to the First National Daredevils 10 to 1, and the Thompson Hardware Blackhaws downed the Tarver Hornets 10 to 4 in the past week's play. The junior teams are beginning to shape up into excellent teams, the coach said this week.

Within the next few weeks, an all-family night is planned, it was explained. The affair will be held in the city park, and parents will be invited to attend with their children who will participate in the various contests. In addition, a movie will be shown.

Accidents in Riding May Be Stopped

Murray Dodson announced this week that classes in riding continue only two weeks unless more students attend this class.

The class is held in connection with the recreational program sponsored by the school in Memphis for the summer months. The class meets each Monday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the school house.

Thus far we have not had enough students to pay us to conduct the class," Mrs. Dodson said. "We would like very much to continue the class and do drill and formation riding for 10 or 12 students would be fine."

Anyone interested in riding has a horse is invited to participate in this sport.

In addition to the key, Durham was awarded a plaque, bearing the Lions insignia and his name engraved on the front.

Work toward the proposed municipal airport for Memphis went forward this week, as it was reported that the city council has obtained options on two or three plots of land where the airport may be located.

Mrs. Marian Wells Of Wellington Dies After Brief Illness

Was Well-Known in State As Newspaperwoman; Rites Held in Wellington

Mrs. Marian Wells, wife of Publisher Deskins Wells of Wellington, and known as one of the state's outstanding newspaperwomen, died early Monday morning following an illness of only a few hours.

Mrs. Wells became ill Sunday night at about 8 o'clock, and died at 2 o'clock Monday morning. Her illness was diagnosed as acute indigestion.

She was 37 years old.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the First Methodist Church in Wellington, and burial was in the Wellington cemetery.

Mrs. Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Temple Atkins of Shamrock, attended high school in Amarillo, making her home with an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mount. She finished high school in 1925, and attended West Texas State in Canyon for two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Wells were united in marriage in 1927, and made their home in Wellington. She started work on the Wellington Leader, which had been established by J. Claude Wells, now publisher of The Memphis Democrat, and who is a cousin of Deskins Wells.

She was extremely active in civic work in Wellington, and was also active in the Panhandle Press and Texas Press associations. Her husband is a past president of both organizations, and is now secretary of the state group.

Maybe He Heard About Memphis Being in the Dark

To the person from Greenville, Miss., who got off the No. 1 southbound train in Memphis last Wednesday morning—don't look now because you lost your glasses.

Whoever the person is, J. J. McMickin, local depot agent, said, is probably from Greenville, Miss., and left his glasses on the ticket window in the Amarillo depot.

The glasses may be obtained by contacting McMickin at the railway depot here in Memphis.

CLAUDE'S COMMENTS
By J. C. W.

Because of the paper mill strike in Canada, The Democrat has been held down to 12 pages instead of the usual 16 pages for several weeks, and this restricted amount of news carried in the columns. When space is scarce my comments are kicked back, because the staff considers them just space fillers and nothing more.

This week I have out-talked the boys and here I go.

Tuesday, there was enough newsprint on hand to print this week's issue and it looked like we might have to take a vacation with the paper. But that afternoon several bundles of newsprint were unloaded and we can issue the paper a few more weeks. Perhaps the strike will be over

Funeral Services Held at Childress For Mrs. Galbraith

82-Year-Old Resident Of Area Formerly Lived Here; Burial in Childress

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon in Childress for Mrs. Celia Ann Galbraith, 82, former resident of Memphis who has lived in this area for the past 38 years.

Mrs. Galbraith died last Friday in Childress, where she had made her home for the past four years. Burial was in the Childress cemetery under the direction of the Womack Funeral Home.

She was born in Tyler June 17, 1863, and was married to J. A. Galbraith of Tyler September 15, 1883. He preceded her in death in 1940, while they were making their home in Memphis. The Galbraith family had lived in Memphis, Kirkland, and Childress for the past 38 years.

Lesley Community Next Place Where Candidates 'Talk'

Ex-servicemen of the Lesley community, who wanted a place to play softball at night, recently completed a drive for funds to set up light poles, etc., but the lighting equipment has been found to be slightly inadequate.

So to get more money to improve the ball diamond, these vets are sponsoring a candidate speaking at Lesley Monday night, June 17, to begin at 8 o'clock. A good, old-fashioned pie supper will be held in connection with the speaking.

If the weather permits, the program will be held in the open on the ball diamond, it was announced. All candidates, as well as the rest of the public, are invited.

Three Teams Tie For First Place In Valley League

Memphis, Childress, and Quanah on Top as Play In First Half Closes

The first half of the Upper Red River Valley League closed last Sunday, with three teams, Memphis, Childress, and Quanah, tied for top place, each team having won five games and lost two.

An exhibition game between Wahoo's Hornets and the Memphis baseball team will be played on the local diamond Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, it was announced this week. Sunday is an open date in the valley league.

Resting in second place is the Amarillo Times team, successor to the Vernon nine, with three games won and two lost. The Times team lacks two games completing its schedule, and has a possible chance of making the league result in a four-way tie.

Other teams in order of their standing are Wellington, Clarendon, Quail, and Samnorwood.

Sunday's play saw Memphis pounding out a 19 to 7 victory over Wellington, Quannah downing Quail 9 to 1, Childress defeating the Times team 11 to 3, and Clarendon barely whipping Samnorwood 15 to 14.

Garvis Davis pitched the first five innings for the local team, but was able to get only one strikeout. He was replaced by O. B. Hoover, who netted five strikeouts. Curtis Kelley relieved Hoover at the pitching plate in the 9th inning. J. W. Conpedez and Doc Saye caught for the local nine.

The Memphis team pounded out five 2-base hits, and Harold Berryman socked out a homer. J. M. Strong Jr. blasted out a homer for the visiting team.

Next Sunday is an open date, when games missed during the first half are to be played. The following Sunday, June 23, second half play will begin with Quannah playing at Wellington, Quail at Amarillo, Samnorwood at Memphis, and Childress at Clarendon.

First-half standings are:

Team	W	L	Pct.
Memphis	5	2	.714
Quanah	5	2	.714
Childress	5	2	.714
Times	3	2	.600
Wellington	2	3	.400
Clarendon	2	4	.333
Quail	2	5	.285
Samnorwood	1	5	.167

Road Construction Is First in County Since War's Close

Paving Over Six Miles; Material Shortage May Cause Work to Be Slow

Bids for hard surfacing the slightly more than 6 miles of road from state highway 256 to Plaska will be received by the state highway department in Austin until June 26, J. B. Nabers, district engineer at Childress, announced this week.

The road construction, the first in Hall County since the termination of the war, will result in another of the state's farm-to-market projects. The paving will be 6.897 miles in length, and will run over practically all of the old road bed.

The bids must be turned in to the state highway department office in Austin by 9 o'clock on the morning of June 26, at which time they will be opened and read. The department, of course, has the right to reject all bids, although this is rarely the case.

Officials hope that the work on the road will be completed in time for the usual traffic, but the scarcity of materials may prevent completion by that time. There is also a shortage of competent engineers, it was pointed out.

Winfred Messer Gets Five-Year Boy Scout Medal

Assistant Scoutmaster Is Presented Honor at Regular Scout Meeting

Winfred Messer, assistant scoutmaster of Troop No. 35 who recently was discharged from the U. S. Navy, was presented with a five-year Boy Scout service medal at the regular meeting of the troop Monday night.

Messer has been an active member in the Memphis troop for a period of seven years and three months. He joined the troop in March, 1939, while Jack Boone was serving as scoutmaster, and remained in the organization during his time in the navy.

Upon his return from the navy, Messer began his duties as assistant scoutmaster.

Also accepting a position as assistant scoutmaster is Gene Robertson, who recently was discharged from the navy. Robertson will be eligible for a five-year scout pin in the near future, Theodore Myers, scoutmaster, said this week.

Both assistants will make the trip to Camp Ki-O-Wah with Troop No. 35, and will supervise the boys at the camp.

The camp, a permanent scout camp, is located at Lake Marvin, near Canadian. It is sponsored once a year by the Adobe Walls Council and boys from over the Panhandle attend. About 400 boys will attend the camp this year, 14 of whom will be from the Memphis troop. The activities will begin next Monday, and continue through the following Saturday.

Light Rain Falling — At Least Heavy Enough for Weeds

A light rain, sufficiently heavy to make the weeds grow, had fallen in Memphis this morning by 10 o'clock, and was still slowly coming down at that time.

The moisture was preceded early in the morning—about 5 o'clock—by a high wind, but no damage by the wind was reported. Sand, of course, came with the wind.

At 10 this morning, the sky was still almost solid with clouds, indicating that more moisture might fall during the day.

The rain broke the hot spell of weather, which this week found the temperature soaring above 100 degrees.

Estelline and Newlin reportedly had a heavy rain this morning, and reports from other communities in the county were not available.

Lubbock New Site Of Vets Regional Panhandle Office

The 26 Texas counties comprising the Panhandle of Texas, which for years have been under the jurisdiction of the Oklahoma office of the Veterans Administration will now have their own regional office to be located at Lubbock, it has been announced by P. T. Lunquest, manager of the Veterans Administration center in Muskogee.

Although final details including the identity of the personnel who will operate the new regional office at Lubbock have not yet been announced, Lunquest stated that the present indications are that the new regional office will be staffed and the necessary records and files in its possession to enable the operations to begin on July 1.

The counties in the Panhandle of Texas have long been accustomed to dealing with the Oklahoma office in veterans matters and in various public meetings of veterans at this area, considerable regret has been generally expressed over the termination of a long and harmonious relationship with the office in Oklahoma. However, the policy of General Omar M. Bradley, Administrator of Veteran Affairs, is to bring the services of the Veterans Administration as closely to the homes of the veterans as possible. Lunquest stated that there can be no doubt that much more prompt and efficient service to the veterans of the Panhandle can be given through the regional office now being established there.

Visitors in the home of Mrs. Donna C. Lane Friday were Mrs. Guy Strickland of Clarendon, Courtney Brooke of Lubbock, and Mrs. M. E. Pester of Wellington.

Changes in Train Times Here Small

New schedules for the Burlington lines which pass through Memphis will affect the time of arrival of the trains to some extent, but it's doubtful that many people will notice the difference.

The most often-timed train which passes through the city is the Texas Zephyr, which has been arriving here at 8:11 o'clock each night; and the new schedule brings this northbound train through here at 8:23 o'clock.

The southbound Zephyr will pass through in the future at 1:56 o'clock in the morning. The Gulf Coast special will go through here toward the north at 5:59 o'clock in the morning instead of the old time of 7:13, and the southbound train at noon will go through at 12:33 o'clock in the future.

The changes in the schedule went into effect Sunday.

Chevrolet Gets High Production

Despite restricting factors of national coal and transportation strikes, as well as a variety of tie-ups on the part of suppliers, Chevrolet during the month of May established a new high production record for the auto industry in its post-VJ Day history, producing 58,820 cars and trucks, it was announced by Hugh Dean, of Detroit, general manufacturing manager, Chevrolet motor division of General Motors.

The 58,820 total includes 30,387 passenger cars and 28,453 trucks, Mr. Dean said. The comparable monthly total for April, best previous post-war month production-wise, is 47,077 units.

An Appeal To My Friends

JOE L. MOTHERSHED

I am not going to get a leave from service before the July primary, and want to ask all my friends to do my campaigning for me. I realize this is an unusual way to run for the office of sheriff, but while I wear the uniform of the Marine Corps I do what I am told—and there will be no leave for me until after the votes are counted.

My discharge from service is to go into effect on or about the first of the year.

I believe I am well qualified to serve the people of my home county as their sheriff. During the past nine years I have been with the Marine Corps, 39 months of this time being spent in overseas service.

The purpose of this message is to ask the people of Hall County to help me make this race. If you think I am the man for the office, then tell your friends. This is an unorthodox way to run for office, but necessity forces us to do our campaigning in this manner.

If I am elected, I shall repay you by giving the best in my power in the administration of the duties of sheriff.

Miss Mary Jones United in Marriage To D. S. Johnson in Ceremony in City

An informal wedding ceremony in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oren Jones Sunday, June 9, at 5 o'clock united Miss Mary Jones and D. S. Johnson in marriage.

Rev. Jeff Moore, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Memphis, read the simple but impressive double-ring ceremony.

The wedding party entered the living room to stand before a white fireplace and mantel decorated to simulate a marriage altar. Two white and silver wedding bells and festoons of fern decorated the mantel mirror. Pink gladioli, calladiums, and fern flanked on either side by white draperies, potted palms, and white wax tapers made a lovely background.

Mrs. Jeff Moore, as soloist, sang two numbers, "Believe Me if All Those Endearing Charms" and "Always." She was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Tom Draper, cousin of the bride. As a musical background during the marriage ceremony Mrs. Draper played "Just a Song at Twilight."

The bride wore a french blue crepe with a shoulder corsage of pink carnations. A hat of matching blue ribbon and pink flowers, white gloves, and a white prayer book completed her costume. Take Jimmie Lynch's word for it!

HE KNOWS THIS TIRE IS SAFER!

Risking his life is Jimmie Lynch's business. Not for thrills! He does it to make dead certain the new B.F. Goodrich Silvertown tire is the safest tire for you to buy! Jimmie's death-defying runs are part of more than 17,000,000 miles of scientifically-controlled tests conducted by B.F. Goodrich to develop the new B.F. Goodrich Silvertown tire—a tire that has a stronger cord, a more rugged body, a better-gripping tread than prewar tires and OUTWEARS THEM TOO! Ask Jimmie—he knows!

Be Safe! Come in and see us now for the tire that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES!

Don't think those tires Jimmie risks his neck on are specially built. They're production-line tires. The same tires B.F. Goodrich is turning out by the thousands to meet America's overwhelming preference for "the tire that outwears prewar tires." The same tires we're ready to sell to you!

They're the new B.F. Goodrich Silvertowns with the wider, flatter "road level" tread that makes your rubber go farther. With more and stronger cords to give you a far stronger tire body. With not one but two shock absorber breaker strips to cushion sudden blows!

And all those features add up to a tire that's safer, too! It grips the road better. Laboratory tests show it has greater resistance to bruises. And it actually OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES—even at high speeds!

Sure we're having trouble keeping these tires in stock. But that's no reason why you too can't have the extra safety and longer wear that only B.F. Goodrich Silvertowns give. Come in and see us today. Maybe we have your size in stock. If not, an order placed now will assure you of earliest delivery!

Girls Enrolled for Homemaking Work at Estelline

Under the direction of Blanche Estelline, homemaking teacher, 26 girls of the Estelline public schools are taking summer projects, it has been announced.

To be eligible for a summer project, it was explained, a girl must have completed one credit in homemaking this year. One-half credit will be given for satisfactory completion of 100 hours, with 200 hours preferred, for work in clothing construction, child care, canning, handwork, home management, home improvement, marketing and meal preparation, and departmental projects. The girls have been busy since the close of school May 24, varnishing chairs and tables in the clothing lab, removing paint from some pieces of furniture and refinishing the furniture, selecting material for new curtains in the clothing lab, etc. It is planned to make and hang the curtains at the beginning of the next school year.

Some of the girls met recently in the home of Louise Macy, and repainted her bedrooms. She also plans to make curtains for her room, a dressing table and stool, and a bedspread.

Numerous improvements are being made in various homes. Nell and Faye McClain plan extensive improvements in their bedroom, such as making two dressing tables, curtains, and bedspreads.

A complete record of each project, according to a plan outlined, is turned in as part evidence of work accomplished—the reports to be turned in during the week of August 26. Each girl must participate in the achievement day program and exhibit to be held early in September.

The girls also assisted in the pressure canning tests held Wednesday afternoon. Various women of the community were present to learn the problems in pressure cooking.

Authentic Battle Films to Be Shown at Legion Meet

Authentic battle films, depicting U. S. Marines fighting on Jima, Tarawa, and Bougainville, will be shown at 8:30 p.m. tonight at the regular Legion meeting in the American Legion Hall, L. B. Merrell, commander of the Chas. R. Simmons Post, has announced.

The films, to be shown prior to business meeting and free for public, will be shown by two sergeants of the U. S. Marine Corps, who are in Memphis for recruiting purposes this week.

The two Marines who are here are Staff Sergeant J. M. Cummings and Sergeant R. H. Houghton. They are located in the office building, and will be here until June 20 to accept applications for enlistment in the Marine Air Corps, the recruiters said, and the station branch is now open for enlistments. Age groups eligible are from 17 to 30.

Another phase of the recruiting program will be the distribution of pamphlets from the air. Major James T. McDaniel, flying out of Amarillo, will distribute the pamphlets from the air one day this week, Cummings said. He will be flying an F4U Corsair.

Roberts Released To Inactive Duty

Evan Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Roberts of Memphis, is now in Memphis on terminal leave from the army air corps. His leave will expire June 30.

Roberts and his wife and son Charles have been visiting her relatives in Quanah, and will probably spend the summer here with his parents. Both Mr. and Mrs. Roberts plan to enter Texas Tech at Lubbock this fall.

Upon his release to inactive duty, Roberts held the rank of first lieutenant. He had been in service for three years and four months.

AN EXPLANATION OF LIGHT PLANT BONDS

IN LAST WEEK'S issue of The Democrat, an article pointed out the estimated costs of constructing a municipal power and light plant for Memphis.

The costs given appear extremely large to the average citizen, since one estimate was $423,000 and another $486,000, the two differing in that one calls for different size engines than the other.

Each of these costs amount to a figure closely approaching the half-million mark, and certainly some residents fear throwing the city in debt that large amount.

Let it be understood first of all, then, that no matter how far behind the city gets in its payments of these bonds (providing they are voted and sold), the citizenry cannot be taxed to pay them off. The proposed bonds are known as revenue bonds, and the interest and principal on them are paid with the revenue of the plant.

The bonding company which buys the bonds will hold no mortgage on the plant. Should it become impossible for the city to meet the bond payments with revenue from the bonds, the bonding company would not immediately take over the plant—and probably would not even desire to do so. Instead the company would send representatives here to work out some plan whereby the company would get their money from the bonds—such as, selling the equipment or entire plant, or some other method which might be worked out.

This explanation is made so that the citizenry will not become alarmed at the city council throwing them into debt. The bonds which are to be voted upon for the airport land are taxable bonds, and will be partially paid off through taxation. The light plant bonds, however, are revenue bonds, and will be paid off entirely through revenue produced by the proposed plant—no payments through taxation.

No election to vote on the light plant revenue bonds has been called yet. Citizens have sufficient time to think the proposition over thoroughly, and decide whether they will be willing to support the plant. Naturally a municipal plant will require support from the citizens, especially business men, before it can be a success. Now is the time, then, to study the proposition, ask your councilman's advice on the plant, and then when the election is called, vote for the good of Memphis.

IS GOLFING DYING?

LITTLE INTEREST has been shown by the citizens of Memphis this year in golf, although Memphis is fortunate in having one of the best 9-hole courses of any town of its size—a course better than most towns of comparable size.

Why? That question is hard to answer. It's not because there is a shortage of golfers here, for the Memphis country club has a rather large membership, and the majority of members have at one time enjoyed the game.

There is, however, a great shortage of younger golfers—teen-age boys who will be the future golfers of the city. In years past, almost daily during the golfing season, one could find a large number of boys attempting to learn the game; and eventually these boys developed into fair golfers—some of them have developed into very good golfers.

The golf course of the country club is an asset to the town, true enough, but it will not remain so unless more interest is taken in the game. More boys should be learning the game if the course is to remain well kept and useful. Before too many years pass, the older players will gradually drop out of the picture, and the course will likely become one more "white elephant" for the city.

The city has the golf course. What is needed is more people to make use of it. And especially needed are more younger golfers who will value the game more and more as they become older.

Press Paragraphs—

QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

The President
 The Moore County News: While it perhaps is too early to evaluate President Truman's new labor policy, it is impossible to refrain from cheering the spectacle of a fighting mad chief executive, who fought hammer and tongs holds barred, for protection of the nation, in a crisis that threatened its welfare—it took courage, disregard of personal political welfare, in short real patriotism, to do what the President did so forcibly and so well.

Dictator
 The McLean News: A labor dictator looks like any other kind of dictator from this distance.

Prison
 The Foard County News: Prison walls are not built to scale.

The Mines
 The Foard County News: If, as it has been represented, there are conditions in any of the coal mines of this country which are hazardous to the safety and the lives of miners that can be corrected by the coal operators, it should not require a strike to get this done. Congress should pass the necessary legislation to make the mines safe and then the government should see to it that the law is enforced. No mine operator has any right to ask miners to work in a mine that does not have all the recognized safety precautions. To do so should be classed as criminal neglect.

Worth Something, Anyhow
 Clyde Warwick in the Canyon News: We guess there are very few people who have not experienced an operation. The Newsman lived almost 61 years before going to the hospital for an operation. Well, we had that experience Friday—after this was written. A specialist is trying to make a good eye out of a bad one. We can now swell up with importance and refer to the time "when we were in the hospital." Our social standing has been raised. Operations seem to be the prevailing subject in all good social events. From now on we shall do our best to bore you with our experiences—provided the operation is successful.

Legislation
 The Floyd County Hesperian: Whatever crowd it is can prove that whatever it is they want must be had and that immediately. A lot of the legislation passed by the Congress now is that kind. Every minority has a hold on somebody or other and they make life miserable of whomsoever it may be doesn't jump through the hoop at every command.

The Truth, at Last
 The Donley County Leader: When the little ear of corn asked the mama ear where it came from, the mama ear was shocked to have to tell the baby ear that the "stalk brought it."

It's an old one but I've always liked the story of the intoxicated man who was shoved out the front door of a club and he announced to a bystander, "I'm gonna go back in there an' throw 'em all out. You stand here an' count 'em." So he made his wobbly way back up the steps and back into the building. In a little while the door flew open and out sailed a form. The man on the street said, "One." The figure on the sidewalk slowly rose and said, "Don't start counting yet; this is just me comin' out again."

And changing the subject: For the first breakfast in their home, the bride cooked some biscuits. Her husband said, "Darling don't cook biscuits anymore; you are too light for such heavy work."

Here's a little poem whose author is unknown, entitled "Give Them the Flowers Now":
 Closed eyes can't see white roses,
 Cold hands can't hold them,
 you know;
 Breath that is stilled can not gather
 The odors that sweet from them blow.
 Death, with a peace beyond dreaming,
 Its children of earth doth endow:
 Life is the time we can help them,
 So give them the flowers now.
 Here are the struggles and striving,
 Here are the cares and the tears;
 Now is the time to be smoothing
 The furrows and the furrows and fears.

What, to closed ears, are sayings?
 What, to hushed heart, is a vow?
 Naught can avail after parting
 So give them the flowers
 Just a kind word or a greeting
 Just a warm clasp or a smile
 These are the flowers that lighten
 The burdens for many a
 After the journey is over,
 What is the use of them?
 Can they carry them, who be carried,
 Oh, give them the flowers

 Plucked in the spirit of love
 Blooms that are earthly ref-tions
 Of flowers that bloom

When Will I Get a New Car?

This Is a Question We Are Asked Many Times Each Day. We Wish As Much As You Do, It Could Be Answered.

THE FOLLOWING FACTS AND FIGURES MAY HELP TO CLEAR UP THIS QUESTION WHICH IS OF SUCH VITAL INTEREST TO SO MANY:

1. It is conservatively estimated that over 16 MILLION PERSONS are anxious to buy new cars.
2. Earlier last year it was expected that 500,000 NEW CARS would be produced in 1945, whereas only 75,000 of that number have actually been manufactured, which is an average of only two new cars to every dealer in the country.
3. The optimistic hope that 4,000,000 new cars would be produced in 1946, now becomes impossible because of the numerous strikes that have affected the industry. A conservative estimate indicates that over 2,000,000 cars now in use will be scrapped this year, which will further aggravate the acute demand for new cars.

DO NOT BECOME A VICTIM OF THE IDEA THAT AFTER DISPOSING OF YOUR USED CAR IN THE BLACK MARKET, YOU CAN SIMPLY TAKE THE CASH AND USE IT TO OBTAIN IMMEDIATE DELIVERY OF A NEW CAR.

Consult Your New Car Dealer

DO NOT RUSH TO DISPOSE OF YOUR PRESENT CAR UNTIL YOU CHECK WITH A NEW CAR DEALER . . . as to when you may expect delivery of a new automobile. If you do trade in your used car to one of the undersigned dealers, you may rest assured that it will be made available to some returning veteran or local resident who urgently needs a car.

No One Can Legally Pay More for Your Used Car Than a New Car Dealer

Established dealers today are selling no more than 10 per cent of all used cars being transferred. The bootlegger, who is usually a floating gambler, the kind that jumps on your running board and offers to buy your car above OPA ceilings, is conceivably doing 10 to 15 per cent of the business of violating the ceiling, but at least 75 per cent more of the total sales in used cars, where ceilings are so flagrantly violated, are being made by individuals. If this were not so more individuals would be selling their cars to the regularly established dealers who can spare such sellers so much inconvenience. It is undoubtedly true that OPA has apprehended boot-leggers who have violated OPA regulations on approximately 5,000 used cars, involving perhaps 100 to 300 people who have sold them, to the extent of $3,000,000 in excess of allowable ceilings, but it should be made clear that these elements are not THE AVERAGE ESTABLISHED CAR DEALER.

It Seems Like Yesterday

It seems like yesterday that Nancy was playing with dolls. Now she's pushing her own baby carriage. Yes, there've been a lot of changes in the last fifteen years—most of them so gradual we hardly noticed them at all.

Nancy didn't grow up all at once. A tooth at a time—a curl at a time—an inch at a time—and suddenly a little kid sister was Mrs. Joe Jones, mother of Joe, Junior.

Like Nancy, the use of electricity has grown a lot in the last fifteen years. But the price of electricity has been going down steadily. You may not have noticed it because your bill may be about the same—but how many appliances have you added to your home since 1931? Actually, you're getting twice as much electricity for your money now as then.

Keeping electric service plentiful and cheap through years of rising costs was not easy. That today's electricity is at its very lowest price in history is a tribute to the hard work and experience of the men and women in the industry, and to its sound business management.

Wellington to Have Three-Day Rodeo

A three-day rodeo will be held in Wellington Friday, Saturday and Sunday, June 21, 22, and 23, sponsored by the Wellington Rodeo Association and the Glynn Moore Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Proceeds will go into the VFW building fund, it was announced. A total of $1,200 in prizes to winners of the various contests will be awarded, Cameron Beam, president of the rodeo association, has announced.

Thirty towns of the lower Panhandle and Western Oklahoma will be invited to send sponsors to the rodeo, and prizes will be given the winners of first, second, and third places.

Prior to the rodeo, a caravan of 50 to 75 cars will tour a number of towns in this area, including Memphis and Hedley.

Guests Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Everett were Mrs. Mary Louise Gleaton and son of Denver.

"Okay, just so the engine's OIL-PLATED!"

"This one is . . . and you're 101% right," the car salesman agrees. He goes on to explain, "We want this car to show you real engine endurance—which means the least carbon, sludge, and upkeep you can have. That's goodwill for us. And all it takes to keep your engine's insides OIL-PLATED is Conoco Nth motor oil . . . Say, this time you're figuring to treat your new car right!" . . .

Many of the oldest cars, too, are being kept in the running by having their engines OIL-PLATED. This internal wear-fighter—OIL-PLATING—is created by magnet-like action. That comes from Conoco Nth oil's added ingredient—surfacing your engine's insides with durable OIL-PLATING. There's your barrier against lots of wear. You can have it in any car—any model or year—by driving around to Your Conoco Mileage Merchant's station. You'll get your correct grade of Conoco Nth oil—and an OIL-PLATED engine. Plaska Road —

(Continued from page one) since many road engineers are still in the armed services, and many of those formerly with the highway department have gone to better-paying jobs.

The road will be covered with an asphalt surface, similar to that on the farm-to-market road out of Memphis to the Childress-Wellington road.

Hugh Wallace of Dallas, a former resident of Memphis who is now with an asphalt company in Dallas, was in Memphis last week conferring with County Judge M. O. Goodpasture. Wallace stated that materials for such roads are very hard to obtain, and that it is possible the Plaska road may not be completed by fall.

As much of the old road bed as possible will be used, however, and it may be that the road can be finished since a minimum of new bed construction will have to be done.

spent the night. The next morning we made arrangements for transportation up into the heart of the snow-caps some 50 miles away to spend a day or two trying to fool the mountain trout into thinking we were feeding them real flies. I telephoned home to let the Best Half know our whereabouts. She broke the sad news about Marian Wells dying that morning at Wellington. That started us on the road home. We landed at Clayton's new municipal airport, and at Amarillo, then at the cowpasture field north of Memphis.

It was a great trip—for me. Roberts is a fine safe pilot who knows flying in all its ramifications. He is the kind of man Memphis needs to operate an airport, and I heartily endorse the plan to vote bonds for an airport, after observing how other towns no larger than Memphis are cashing in on their airports—keeping money at home and providing the public with airport service—which in these days is as important as a railroad depot.

I didn't get to do any fishing, but really did do something about the weather.

It was a sad homecoming for me, for Marian Wells had just passed away in the full bloom of womanhood. She and Deskins, her husband, were very near to me because they had been partners with me in both The Wellington Leader and The Memphis Democrat during the '20's before we sold The Democrat to the Hawk & Howe interests. Marian developed into a competent business manager and reporter of The Leader, endearing herself to the thousands of readers. Not only that, she was a real wife to Deskins and mother to Diane, a thoughtful and considerate neighbor and friend, an active leader in the community life. She lived a full life, yet was in years very young. Why she was not spared to serve humanity many years yet is a question that will not be answered until the veil that surrounds the mystery of life and death is pierced and revealed in the hereafter. Journey's end is always sad to the loved ones who are left behind, and especially when a young life is concerned. In the person of Marian a beautiful flower was plucked while in full bloom. I will always remember the fragrance of her disposition and the freshness of her personality.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McAbee left Wednesday morning of last week for El Monte, Calif., to visit the sons, C. T., Oda, and Bud, and H., who are in the Navy at San Diego.
