Cemetery Work To Be Friday

Several hundred local citizens are expected to be on hand Friday at Fairview Cemetery when the first community-wide cemetery working to be held here in a number of years will be staged under the sponsorship of the Memphis Lions Club.

The working will begin at 9 o'clock Friday morning, Roy Coleman, president of the Lions Club, has announced, and all citizens, men, women, and children are urged to be present and to bring along a hoe or rake and aid in the work.

Members of the local chapter of the Future Farmers of America and of the Boy Scouts have agreed to be at the working and aid citizens. The boys, however, will need hoes and rakes, and all those people who have the implements to spare for that day are requested to turn them over to Gene Lindsey at the Wm. Cameron Lumber company Thursday. Lindsey will mark the implements, and the owner may pick them up following the working.

Others who have extra implements are requested to bring them to the cemetery when they come to aid in the working, since it is expected that some who desire to work will have no implements.

Both funeral homes have been contacted, and will be represented at the working, furnishing seats, iced water, and other conveniences.

All clubs in the city are being contacted, as are as many of the lot owners as possible, in order to get as large a crowd as is possible at the working.

The community-wide working was called by the Lions Club last Wednesday, when the city council announced that the city had officially taken over the cemetery. A new caretaker, N. M. Lindsey, has been employed for full-time, and the work is being held so that the grounds may be turned over to Lindsey in excellent shape.

Services Are Held For Sherley Infant

Graveside services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at the Lakeview cemetery for the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Sherley Jr. of Plaskd. The infant died Tuesday shortly after birth.

Services were conducted by Rev. L. M. Clements of Lakeview. Burial was under the direction of the Womack Funeral Home of Memphis.

Survivors include the parents; and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Sherley of Friona, and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Barnett of Lakeview.

Rev. Jeff Moore Resigns as Pastor Of Baptist Church

Accepts Call to Pastorate Of Mangum, Okla., Church; Is Effective November 1

Rev. Jeff Moore, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Memphis for slightly more than three years, announced from his pulpit Sunday morning his resignation from the pastorate in this city.

Rev. Moore stated that he has accepted the call as the pastor of the Baptist Church in Mangum, Okla., and will assume his duties there November 1.

The pastor, Mrs. Moore, and their son David Gene left Sunday night for Hawthorne, Calif., where he will conduct revival services at a Baptist church in that city. His resignation will become effective here on November 1.

No successor to Rev. Moore has yet been named. A committee has been named to choose a new pastor, although the committee has not yet been officially approved by members of the church.

Rev. Moore came to Memphis September 23, 1943, from Claude, where he had been serving as pastor. His home is in Venus, Texas.

Mrs. Sally F. Paul, Resident 26 Years, Dies at Home Here

57-Year-Old Hall Countian Had Lived Here Since '20; Interment at Fairview

Mrs. Sally Francis Paul, resident of Memphis for the past 26 years, died at her home here Friday of last week. She was 57 years and 6 days of age at the time of her death.

Funeral services were originally scheduled to be held Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist Church in Memphis, but were delayed until Monday afternoon due to the heavy rain. Interment was in Fairview Cemetery under the direction of the Womack Funeral Home.

Mrs. Paul was born September 29, 1889, in Arkansas. She was married October 24, 1904, to Emmitt J. Paul of Rockston. Mrs. Paul moved to Hall County, Texas, in 1920, and had made her home here since that time. She was a member of the Baptist church, having united with that church in 1901.

CITY TEACHERS TO BE HONORED AT DINNER HERE

C. OF C. TO SPONSOR AFFAIR THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 17

The Memphis chamber of commerce will be host at an informal dinner in honor of the teachers of the Memphis Public Schools Thursday evening, October 17, at 7:30 o'clock in the dining room of Bob's Cafe, Horace E. Tarver, president, announced this week.

The speaker for the evening will be Dr. J. Herschel Coffee, professor of economics at West Texas State College, Canyon. Tarver will serve as toastmaster.

The Memphis school board, composed of T. B. Rogers, S. C. Harrison, Roy Coleman, E. E. Cudd, C. C. Meacham, George Cullin, and E. E. Roberts, will also be guests of the chamber and of the board of directors. On the board are Tarver, T. H. Deaver, T. M. Potts, T. J. Dunbar, J. E. King, O. V. Alexander, S. C. Harrison, Wendell Harrison, J. F. Smith, Benzy Estes, R. C. Lemons, M. C. Allen, and J. B. Crockett.

In charge of arrangements for the dinner is the educational committee of the C. of C., composed of W. C. Davis, chairman, Miss Mary Foreman, Dr. M. McNeely, Mrs. W. L. Crowder, George E. Forgy, and Rev. Tom Posey.

"The chamber of commerce, as well as others in the city, fully realize the value of the service rendered by our teachers," C. of C. Manager Crockett said, "and this is a way in which we can express our appreciation of the good work being done."

"The teaching profession deserves every assistance it is possible for us to give in building the teacher reserve pool for the future. It is indicated, through national surveys, that the need for teachers is the greatest it has been in many years, and the need for stimulating interest among those who might enter this work is more apparent because of the continuing shortage. We feel that nothing is too good for our teachers—one of the groups 'doing so much for so little.'"

New Winter Crop Being Tried Here

A new winter cover crop, Austrian winter peas, which in some other counties yields more pasture than wheat and a hay crop equal to alfalfa, is being experimented with by about 20 farmers in Hall County, Lynn L. McKown, Hall County ACA secretary, said this week.

McKown said that his office still has about 12,000 pounds of the seed left, and farmers who want to try the new crop may apply at his office in the court house.

The government shares the cost of the seed, paying approximately 75 per cent of the cost, McKown said.

Some of the lower counties have found the crop to pay off well, the ACA secretary said, but this is the first year it has been tried here. As yet, definite results on the peas are not known.

McKown said that about 20 county farmers are trying the Austrian crop for the first time, and that he has seed available for about ten more.

Moss Attends Bar Directors Meeting

A. S. Moss, former district judge who is a director of the State Bar Association, attended a meeting of the directors held in Galveston last week.

Most important item discussed at the meeting was the proposal to raise dues for the association's members from $4 to $8, Judge Moss said. The proposal also includes a graduated scale of dues, depending on the length of time a lawyer has been practicing.

The next meeting of the directors will be held in El Paso in January, and the state group will probably meet in Dallas in July for the annual session.

Memphis Gets 3.78 Inches Of Rainfall in Four Days

HAROLD RAMPY, outstanding 4-H Club boy of Lakeview, is shown receiving the State Fair of Texas honor award from R. L. Thornton, president of the fair, at the Rural Youth Day last Saturday. More than 25,000 rural youth attended the festivities and consumed a free barbecue of more than 17,000 pounds of beef.

Rampy Presented Scroll of Honor Award at Dallas

4-H Club Youth of Lesley Receives Award on Basis Of Records Submitted

Harold Rampy of Lesley was presented the Scroll of Honor Award of the State Fair of Texas last Saturday during the rural youth day at the fair.

The award was given him on the basis of records submitted to fair officials, in which his work in the 4-H Club projects was explained. The award was made Saturday by R. L. Thornton, president of the state fair, at a program for the 20,000 rural youth of the state who attended as guests.

Rampy exhibited a calf at the fair. The animal was presented to him several months ago by a group of Dallas business men, and came from the herd of Tommie M. Potts.

Calves owned by Laddy Sloan of Estelline and David DuVall of Lakeview were shown by DuVall at the fair, and both were sold at auction this week.

Sloan's calf was sold Tuesday at auction at the fair for 43 cents per pound. The calf was (Continued on page 4)

Three Car Wrecks In Area Reported During Weekend

Rainfall General Over Entire Panhandle Area; Temperature Low Is 52

For the first time since Thursday of last week, the sun managed to shine for a brief period Tuesday afternoon. And there was hardly a dry stick left in Hall County—unless it could be found under some sort of shelter.

All together, Memphis received 3.78 inches of rainfall from Friday through Monday night, J. J. McMickin, local weather observer, reported, and some spots in the county received even more than that.

Rain fell throughout the county, and according to reports, throughout the entire Panhandle area. Every community in Hall County reported at least "several inches" of moisture during the four-day period.

In Memphis, .14 of an inch fell Friday, .10 Saturday, 1.63 Sunday, 1.65 Monday, and .26 Monday night and early Tuesday morning.

Low temperature of the week was recorded Friday night at last week—52 degrees.

The rainfall was not altogether wanted, for it delayed the cotton gathering, and the ground was still so muddy Wednesday that cotton harvesting could not be started in most places. But few people griped about the moisture, since an amount too large is seldom received in this area.

MEMPHIS CYCLONE AND EAGLES MEET HERE FRIDAY ON GRIDIRON

Those two Hall County gridiron foes, the Memphis Cyclone and the Lakeview Eagles, will meet in the Cyclone stadium Friday night in a District 3-A conference battle.

Kick-off time is set at 8 o'clock. The Cyclone will go into the game as favorites, especially since their excellent showing against the Shamrock Irishmen last Friday night, when the Irish edged out the local eleven 14 to 13. In that game, the Cyclone showed up well both on the offense and defense, but allowed the visitors to score twice on passing.

Comparative scores, however, do not give Memphis much the edge. Both teams have played the McLean Tigers, Memphis losing by six points, Lakeview by 12, thus indicating only a six point difference in the two teams. On the other hand, however, Shamrock downed Memphis by only one point; the Irish took Wheeler by 32 to 0 and Wheeler took Lakeview 12 to 0. Thus actually little can be told by comparing the scores.

In weight, Memphis is far superior, since the Cyclone has one of the heaviest teams in the district. Lakeview, in direct contrast, has one of the lightest teams in the district, with only one or two men hitting more than 160 pounds on the scales.

For backfield men, Memphis has four seasoned players, all lettermen, while the Eagles are sporting an entirely new backfield this season. Jimmy McElreath, Larry McQueen, and Mark Lamkin are all threats with the ball, while the Eagles rely on K. D. Nabers and Bob Laird for most of the ball-toting.

Up until the time when Duane Vickers suffered a broken leg in a motorcycle accident here last week, Coach Curtis Kelley could also put a letterman in each slot on the line. The Lakeview coach, W. H. Rogers, however, has several new men on the line.

In past years, however, the size and strength of the two teams has meant little when the game started. The Eagles are always primed and out to beat Memphis, and in some years, these Eagles have come out victorious although they were out-classed.

Smith Trial Results In Hung Jury Here

The jury was dismissed, and the case will come back before district court at some later date.

The jury was still deliberating at 10 o'clock this morning in the case of Gabriel Smith, Negro pastor of the Morningside Methodist Church, who is charged with the murder of McKinley Smith, another Negro. The shooting occurred Saturday, July 20.

Gabriel Smith, the accused, pleaded guilty to the shooting and his defense argument was based on his plea that he shot McKinley Smith in self-defense. J. O. Fitzjarrald is serving as defense attorney, and introduced a number of witnesses in the court session Wednesday. The charge was given to the jury late Wednesday evening, and they had reached no decision by 10 o'clock this morning.

The only other criminal case tried thus far in this term of court were two charges against W. H. Gray of Madill, Okla., who was indicted on two charges of assault with intent to murder. The arrest of Gray followed the holding up of occupants of several cars near the Indian Creek bridge west of Memphis on the Lakeview highway August 3.

Gray pleaded guilty to one of the charges, and was given a two-year suspended sentence. The other charge was reduced to the misdemeanor of aggravated assault, to which he pleaded guilty and was fined $50 and costs. The cases came before the court last Saturday.

SURVEY OF RENT REGULATIONS TO BE MADE IN MEMPHIS SOON

The rent director has issued a warning to all landlords that a survey will be made in this area in the near future to ascertain the number of violations of the rent regulations in the following respects: (1) the number of houses, apartments, or rooms which are now rented but have not been registered with the area rent office, (2) the number of houses, apartments, or rooms which are now rented differently than the way they are registered with the area rent office, and (3) the number of failures to file change in tenancy statements.

Land lords will be given an opportunity to register their property prior to the survey. Also if the landlord is in doubt as to whether the present tenant's name and proper mailing address has been submitted to this office, they should request the proper forms at their earliest convenience and submit this information.

This notice is given in order that the landlords might have an opportunity to voluntarily comply with the rent regulations rather than waiting for the rent control office to uncover these violations.

Assistance in filling out registration statements will be given to those who wish to call at the area rent office which is located at 125 1-2 Commerce street, Childress. If it is impossible to make a personal call at the office, the forms needed will be mailed upon request.

Besides the colorful football game, free for ex-students, between the Buffaloes and the Aggies of New Mexico A. and M., plans include a barbecue at noon, free for ex-students, and for the evening entertainment, three dances.

Campaign Is Started For Planting of Roses

In cooperation with the Texas roadside development program, a citizens organization sponsored by the Texas highway department, Hall County residents this week were asked to join in the campaign to beautify the areas along highways, in yards of private homes, and around public buildings.

Selected as the flower to be planted in Hall County by the county chairman, Mrs. Landrum Stanford, and her assistants, is the climbing Paul Scarlet rose. Mrs. Stanford has planted this flower and has found that it grows quite successfully in this locality, and the selection was made on this basis and also on the basis of the flower's beauty.

The roadside development program was started a number of years ago, and in 1945 the state house and senate issued a joint resolution urging that the program be carried out in full.

Mrs. Stanford was appointed county chairman last spring, but at the time of her appointment the planting time for the chosen flower had passed. Now she recommends that the planting be done in November, in order that the flowers will be blooming next spring.

"We want every person in town to plant the flowers, and to aid us in seeing that they are planted along our highways, in school yards, and near other public buildings. The Paul Scarlet rose is a beautiful plant, and although it is a climbing flower, it spreads beautifully when there is no structure for it to climb on," Mrs. Stanford said.

The current project of the development program is for the planting of a "living" memorial throughout the state to keep alive the memory of brave Texans who have made the great sacrifice for their country. In this way, officials of the organization point out, the memory of those heroes and heroines is perpetuated long into the future, and our highways and homes are also improved and enhanced to honor those returning now that victory has been gained.

The resolution passed by the house and senate reads, in part: "We urge the cities and towns of Texas, through their chambers of commerce, garden clubs, and various civic organizations, to inaugurate the planting and propagation of a county-selected indigenous tree and/or flowering shrub in the yards of homes in towns and along the highways, on public building grounds, and at entrances to towns and cities, so that each town and each county may be identified as a city or a county of oleander, redbud, wisteria, etc., depending upon its choice, and thus reflect a uniform and pleasing planting motif as a living honor to Texas men and women in the service."

Three Car Wrecks—

ley Stone, 4501 Maple Avenue, Dallas, had stopped on the highway, and Stone was assisting another truck which had run off the pavement into the mud.

Dennis' car smashed into the rear end of the truck. His car was badly damaged, but the truck was not badly hurt.

Most seriously injured in the crack-up was Miss Fleta McCree of Memphis, who suffered bruises and lacerations about the head. She was riding in the front seat with Dennis, who was only bruised. In the back seat of the sedan were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Peabody of Borger, formerly of Memphis. Mrs. Peabody also suffered lacerations about the head. The injured were picked up by Dr. J. A. Odum, who was driving by at about the time, and brought to Memphis for treatment.

Charges of aggravated assault in a motor vehicle were filed by patrolmen against Dennis. He has pleaded not guilty and was released on bond.

A Continental bus, driven by F. E. Davis, failed to make the curve at the intersection of 10th street and the Amarillo highway Saturday morning at about 8 o'clock, and crashed into a fire hydrant and a concrete slab at the corner. No one was injured in the wreck, but the bus was damaged to some extent. Davis was charged with speeding, plead guilty, was fined, and released.

The third accident occurred at the same place, the intersection of 10th street with the Amarillo highway, Saturday afternoon at about 4:10 o'clock. W. J. Lewis of Clarendon and Dallas was driving north and had not quite reached the corner. Coming south was a car driven by Noah Ector Guthrie of Iowa Park, who pulled around a truck and the two cars—that driven by Lewis and that by Guthrie—collided head-on.

Lewis suffered cuts about the mouth, and Pearl Kirkland, who was in the car with Guthrie, also suffered cuts.

Guthrie, charged with aggravated assault in a motor vehicle, plead guilty and was fined. His driver's license was suspended for a period of six months.

Good Roads Amendment Campaign Committee Named for Hall County

Organization of the Hall County good roads amendment campaign committee, set up to work for the passage of House Joint Resolution No. 49, was effected this week by James E. King, county chairman of the committee.

The resolution, to be voted upon in the general election to determine whether citizens desire it as an amendment to the state constitution, guarantees to each of the counties its present share of the motor vehicle registration fees, continues to allocate to the available school fund the one-fourth of the gasoline tax which currently is going for that purpose, authorizes the use of road user taxes for purchase of rights-of-way and for construction, maintenance, and policing of all public highways, and makes provision for continuation of legal refunds on non-highway gasoline.

King has named F. N. Foxhall as county vice chairman; J. B. Crockett as county secretary; Bill Kinslow, chairman of the folder distribution committee; W. B. Hooser, chairman of the poster committee; J. C. Wells, chairman of the speakers committee; and H. A. Combs, chairman of the publicity and advertising committee.

The committee plans an extensive campaign within the next three weeks to point out to Hall Countians the advantages the resolution would mean as an amendment to the state constitution, King said.

Directed by Rev. W. I. Torbert, and Reverends Luther and Scott Crawford.

Interment was postponed until Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock due to the heavy rains. Burial was in the Newlin cemetery under the direction of the Murphy-Spicer-Estes Funeral Home of Memphis.

The long-time resident of this area was born September 29, 1853, in Missouri, and moved with his parents at the age of one year to Springtown, Parker County, where the family lived until 1890.

In that year, he came to Childress County, just over the Hall County line three miles from Newlin, where he lived for several years. He moved back to Parker County, but returned to Hall County three months later and had lived here since.

Nelson was united in marriage to Mary Ann Eliza Peden December 30, 1877. She preceded him in death May 12, 1934. He and his second wife, the former Rhoda Cardwell, were married July 24, 1936.

The pioneer was a member of the Methodist church, having united with that organization in 1890. He had been engaged in farming during his life in Hall County.

Serving as pallbearers were his grandsons, and as flower bearers his granddaughters.

Surviving include his wife; and four children, Joseph T. Nelson of Memphis, William E. Nelson of Amarillo, Marian Claude Nelson of Gallup, N. M., and Myrtle Shoid of Long Beach, Calif.

Amarillo C. of C. Seeks Appointment Of Panhandle Man to Highway Group

A resolution has been passed by the board of directors of the Amarillo chamber of commerce asking Governor-Elect Beauford Jester to appoint a Panhandle citizen to the state highway commission as of January 1, 1947, it has been announced.

"It is our belief that the people of the Panhandle can be successful in achieving this if we all present a unified front," Rex B. Baxter, Amarillo C. of C. manager, said. "We are not recommending any particular individual for the job, which will leave the governor free to act as he sees fit."

Baxter pointed out that doubtless some communities will desire to sponsor an individual for the job, and the action on the part of the Amarillo C. of C. does not in any way interfere with such undertaking.

The resolution pointed out that a Panhandle resident has never served as a member of the commission, although there are individuals residing in this area who are fully capable of doing the work.

Teen-Agers Speak—

ONE YOUTH CANTEEN WANTED

WHAT WE THINK

By TEEN-AGERS OF MEMPHIS
This is a reply to the letter written week before last. Here is a few of the ideas of what we believe in and think of today, and we believe we will be speaking for the entire younger generation of Memphis.

To begin with this is about the Teen-age Canteen. Memphis has one of the largest groups of young people for our size town. We believe there ought to be a nice place to go for good entertainment instead of having to make our own.

The older generation have clubs, and different organizations to go to, such as: domino parties, bridge, parties, pool halls, etc. while the younger people have nothing to do—and nowhere to go besides shows.

We did have dances once a week but now they won't rent us buildings for them. We think we can truthfully say we did no harm to the buildings and the younger people had something to look forward to every week. Then we heard the reason they stopped renting the buildings was because at one of the dances the building was damaged—but if the people will remember it was at one of the older persons' dances that this happened. So why should we suffer for this?

Every other town around here and throughout the United States has a Teen-age Canteen. Our friends coming from other towns ask, "Where is your Teen-age Canteen," and we have to tell them we don't have one. They ask us what we do for entertainment here and we have to say—go to the show, ride around until we get dizzy, then go home. You must admit that isn't much for us to look forward to.

Some people don't approve of dances, but which had you rather have your children do, go to a nice dance with sponsors, or go out of town to other dances that haven't proper sponsors?

Some people of this town don't know what we mean by a Teen-age Canteen. It is a place the kids meet once or twice a week and dance, and play games. The children's parents are the sponsors. They also have snack bars, and serve sandwiches, cakes, etc., and the profit helps pay the expenses of the canteen.

Even to further the education of the young people of today, we must have a little recreation on the side.

We wouldn't ask you to put forth much of your time—or work—for that is the part we want to play. If the citizens of Memphis will be so good as to just give us a try, we're sure you will be satisfied.

Thank you, Rev. Posey, you really have the right idea on everything. If you ever need our help on anything, just call on us. We know you are behind us—and we want you to know that we are behind you.

The Teen-Agers.

Cox Lists Health Department Work

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer, was recently asked to give the duties of the Texas State Department of Health in contrast with those of the general practitioner of medicine.

He stated, "The health department is charged with protecting the public health. This it does by education of the people as to how they may secure protection against disease, such as vaccination against smallpox and typhoid fever and immunization against diphtheria; by investigation of sources of outbreaks of disease; by quarantine and isolation of those ill with communicable disease; by the prevention of the spread of disease; inspection of water supplies; by advocating the production and use of safe milk and to prevent threatened outbreaks of communicable diseases. sickness and the repair of accidents comes within the scope of the duties of the practitioner of medicine and surgery. The general practitioner of medicine is also engaged in preventive medicine when he advises mothers to have their children protected against diphtheria and smallpox or the family as a whole immunized against typhoid fever before planning travel, such as cross country trips."

The general practitioner and the health department alike believe that it is better to remain healthy than it is to get well after becoming ill, but the department is engaged in the control and prevention of disease as it affects the general population of a community of state. The field of medicine and cure of those ill belongs solely to the general practitioner of medicine.

Announcing

Opening of the NEW HOME of

HUDSON

SERVICE STATION

FRIDAY, OCT. 11th

We are moving our Rite-Way Service Station business and Hudson agency to our new building at 411 Noel Street, half block east of the square, and will be open for business FRIDAY, OCT. 11th. The 50-foot building has been completely remodeled and repainted, giving us one of the most modern places for an automobile agency and service station. The front of the building will be devoted to the station. A large display room has been set up for showing new cars as well as many items we will handle.

The only difference in the operation of the service station will be the location, and we believe our new quarters will make it possible for us to serve our customers even better. All business of the firm will be transacted under the name of E. E. Rice Motor Co., and all accounts will be transferred to our new location. John McWhorter, W. H. Spruill, and Blackie Glosson will continue with this firm. These men are fully competent in servicing automobiles.

On display for our opening will be a NEW 1946 HUDSON 51 Four-Door Sedan. Also of interest to the public is the fact that we will open with a nice stock of LEE TIRES and TUBES for trucks and passenger cars. We will handle this famous line in the future. Also will have on hand a limited supply of batteries, seat covers for most models, and many other items.

PHILLIPS 66 GASOLINE—YOUR FAVORITE BRAND OF MOTOR OIL

In our pumps we will handle Phillips gasoline, and will have in stock all brands of motor oil. We have built a car washing department in our building and installed a new hoist and greasing equipment. This work will receive our usual careful attention. Provision has been made for space for CAR STORAGE. Plenty of room is available, and we shall emphasize this service in the months ahead.

Our repair shop will be in operation within the next few days with A. O. Sturdevant in charge. We will have an up-to-date place, and a crew of competent mechanics assisting Mr. Sturdevant. Our PARTS DEPARTMENT has been set up, and replacement parts are now available to owners of Hudson automobiles.

YOU ARE INVITED—

We invite everyone in this area to come by and inspect the new home of Hudson and our service station. Whether you make a purchase or not, come on down. We are anxious for the people to know what we have here, and any business you send our way will be sincerely appreciated.

Lakeview Eagles Lose to McLean by 12 to 0 Score in Final Quarter

The Lakeview Eagles held the McLean Tigers scoreless for the first three periods in the game. McLean last Friday night, but control in the fourth quarter when the Tigers racked up two touchdowns to win by a 12 to 0 score.

The game was a District 3-A conference game.

Evenly matched the first three quarters, Lakeview attempted 8 passes and completed 1. McLean attempted 1 pass, and it was incomplete.

Sammy Haynes, Tiger quarterback, carried the ball over for the first score in the fourth quarter, conversion failed. The second tally came for McLean a few minutes later when the Tigers kicked a Lakeview punt on their yard line, and Alvin Shelton led the ball on down for the second score. Conversion again failed.

Wynn Buys Car In Surplus Sale

Fifty-nine veterans of World War II were successful purchasers of surplus used army vehicles at a two day sale conducted by the War Assets Administration at Childress Army Air Field. In all 163 vehicles were offered, including passenger sedans, jeeps, trailers, scooters, and trucks. Cash recovery for the sale by WAA was $31,792 for vehicles which originally cost the government $59,690.

Nathan O. Wynn of Memphis was one of the fortunate veterans to secure a passenger sedan. Wynn held a sufficiently old enough dated certificate to be awarded a 1942 Chevrolet 4-door sedan for $712.

The sale attracted 250 veterans from all parts of North and West Texas. All awards were made to holders of oldest dated certificates for each type of vehicle in the sale.

The popular name of the B-29 war plane is the Superfortress.

The Liberator war plane is technically known as the B-24.

FIRE WEEK GETS BIG SEND-OFF IN OBSERVANCE

National Fire Prevention Week in Memphis is drawing a near-maximum interest, as Fire Chief Thomas Clayton, ably assisted by members of the local volunteer department, got the week off to a big start with a public demonstration of fire-fighting and three lectures on fire prevention and causes of fires before other groups.

First and largest of the gatherings was at the Memphis High School auditorium Monday afternoon at a general assembly. There Chief Clayton led the discussions, assisted by O. R. (Doc) Saye on common fire hazards present in the home, school, and business houses. Demonstrations were presented along with the discussions to impress upon the students the danger of indoor cleaning by use of inflammable liquids and the hazards that may result from faulty electrical connections.

Last week at the school a general assembly was called, and students saw a motion picture film on fire prevention. School officials are also cooperating in the movement, and students are drawing posters on fire prevention and (Continued on page 8)

Conservation by Cropland Terraces Means More Food, Better Health

Cropland terraces save water and conserve soil, Chairman R. A. Eddleman of the Hall County Agricultural Conservation Association committee says. In the end, this means more and better food and improved health for all, he added.

Farmers cooperating with the agricultural conservation program can receive assistance in terracing their farms, he continued. Experiments prove that terraced land yields more and retards water erosion. Properly (Continued on page 8)

Memphis Loses To Irish 14 to 13

A pair of fleet Irish backs who couldn't do much gaining on the ground but who managed to complete two touchdown passes despite a wet field, a high wind, and rain cost the Memphis Cyclone a District 3-A conference game by one lone point Friday night on the Cyclone field.

The final score stood at Shamrock 14, Memphis 13.

It was a heart-breaker, especially since the local gridmen led two different times in the game, but the rain failed to drive away many of the fans from what will probably turn out to be the most thrilling and best game to be seen here this season.

Once again the stadium was filled to overflowing, showing that Memphians are backing the Cyclone in a big way this year. Shamrock fans, close to 500 of them, also turned out for the exciting game.

Memphis scored in the first quarter, Shamrock in the second, Memphis in the third, and Shamrock in the fourth—which gives an idea of how the score saw-sawed back and forth.

Shamrock kicked off to the Cyclone to start the game, and on (Continued on page 8) the third play, Larry McQueen tore through the right side of the line, twisted his way on, and finally broke into the open to race 69 yards for the first Cyclone score. But conversion failed, and loss of this point eventually cost the local team a chance for a tie score.

Mark Lamkin, spark of the backfield in the Paducah game here two weeks ago, went out in the first quarter with a leg injury and never managed to play for the remainder of the tilt.

In the second quarter, the Irish worked the ball down to the Memphis 27, and then got to the 15-yard stripe, with four downs to go. But only one was needed when Euel Ramsey passed to Bobby Close over the goal to tie the score at 6 to 6. Ramsey tossed another to Close—both passes against the wind, incidentally—for the extra point to put the Irish in the lead shortly before the half ended.

The Cyclone came back again in the third quarter, with Jimmy McElreath setting the ball up for another tally when he ran 15 yards for a first down, and on a (Continued on page 8)

New Regulations On Priorities Tend To Speed Building

Five priorities regulations, all of them designed to speed up the channeling of building materials, utilities equipment, and other equipment into the veterans emergency housing program, have been issued in the past six weeks by the office of the housing expediter of the national housing agency.

First of these is the preferential consideration in the acquisition of more than 80 types of surplus building materials from the War Assets Administration stocks.

The second regulation makes a similar provision for the disposition of surplus materials and equipment for services and utilities (water, power, gas, sewage). After needs of the veterans temporary program and the Veterans Administration construction program have been cared for, materials will be made available to states, communities, and utilities.

The third regulation directs that nine types of surplus government building equipment in critically short supply be held principally for persons or agencies making substantial contribution to the veterans emergency housing program. This includes track-laying tractors, wheel tractors of 100 h. p. or more, tractor-type scrapers, some portable air compressors, ditching machines, cranes, and motor graders.

The fourth regulation supplements the third, and permits builders, contractors, utilities, and producers of short materials, producers of industrially-made houses and offices, to apply for certificates for certain equipment, which they need to step up or continue construction of production.

The fifth regulation changes the status of all new applications after September 10 for building authorizations.

The Force that Supports the World's Biggest Bridge...

OIL-PLATES Your Engine!

IN the great San Francisco-Oakland bridge, a tremendous tug-of-war goes on continuously between gravity and molecular attraction. Because the attractive force between the molecules in the cables balances gravity's down-pull the bridge stays up.

Through continuous experiment with the mighty forces of molecular attraction, Conoco scientists are able to produce new and better oils for America's motorists. For instance, by utilizing forces of molecular attraction, a special ingredient of Conoco Nth motor oil is bonded to working surfaces of your engine, so that cylinder walls are OIL-PLATED.

And because molecular attraction holds Conoco OIL-PLATING up where it belongs...prevents it from all draining down to the crankcase, even overnight... you get these benefits:

- added protection when your engine starts up
- added protection from corrosive action
- added protection from wear that leads to fouling sludge and carbon

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

My Customers are Angels...

They've been most patient about waiting for the tire that

OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES

The better the tire, the faster it sells . . . and we've never seen a tire sell as fast as the new postwar B. F. Goodrich Silvertown that outwears and outlasts tires of prewar construction. That's why, in the face of outstanding production, we've had to ask so many of our customers to wait just a little longer for the tire that's well worth waiting for.

It's Extra Safety that caused the Extra Demand for B.F. GOODRICH SILVERTOWNS

Extra safety is an engineered factor in the new B. F. Goodrich tires . . . extra safety and greater resistance to "road shock" from the 35% stronger body with more cords and an entirely new and stronger cord . . . extra safety and greater protection against skidding from the wider, flatter surface that spreads the wear more evenly, gives you many more miles of service than prewar passenger car tires.

If you want the tire that outwears prewar tires, order immediately for earliest delivery.

West Theatre, whose initial production, "The Second Man," is playing at the high school auditorium on Friday night, October 18, under the sponsorship of the Memphis Little Theatre, is an idea which came into the minds of Charles Thomas and Leslie Walker as they walked down Fifth Avenue, New York City, is now a touring company which holds promise of bringing new life to the theatre of the West.

West Theatre begins its tour this season with the production of "The Second Man," which is a gay and sparkling comedy from the pen of one of the most brilliant playwrights, S. N. Behrman.

This comedy is being sponsored by the Memphis Little Theatre in order to bring something to Memphis worth seeing, but seldom seen in smaller towns.

People of this entire area are invited by the Little Theatre to attend this show, believing the admission charge will be money well spent, and that all who attend will be well repaid by seeing something worth while.

YOUR PRESENCE NOT ONLY REQUESTED BUT URGED

IT IS INDEED gratifying that at long last prospects are excellent for Fairview Cemetery in Memphis to be cleaned up, and it is even more gratifying to know that the cemetery will have a full-time caretaker to keep it in good shape.

The city has officially taken over the cemetery, and the council is making plans for its upkeep. It is planned to install more wells, a much-needed project, in order that shrubbery will have a chance at survival.

Some citizens are apparently of the opinion that grass and shrubbery will not grow on the land now known as the cemetery. But this is a fallacy, as can be seen by a few, and we do mean few, scattered instances where some lot owners have worked diligently to make their lots beautiful.

Eventually, the city council hopes that the entire cemetery will become a spot of beauty, one which Memphians can point to with pride and not be ashamed of. That is hardly the case now—the cemetery is an eye-sore, not a place of beauty for our loved ones to rest.

All day Friday, October 11, has been set aside as a community-wide working. The working will be sponsored by the Memphis Lions Club, but unfortunately the club does not have the manpower necessary to do all the work. But the club members are spending time to promote the working, notifying as many citizens as they possibly can.

Both funeral homes have been contacted and have agreed to aid in the working, by furnishing seats and other conveniences. Clubs other than the Lions Club have agreed to cooperate, and the Boy Scouts and FFA boys are also willing to share in the work.

But the working can be a success only if you and you and you attend—not only attend but bring your hoe or rake, or both, and do your part.

Not next year, but now, is the time for you to aid in making your cemetery a place of beauty, not a place of disrepute.

NO DOLLARS, NO CENTS

STILL PENDING before Congress and which will in all probability be taken up when the next session is held, is the Wagner-Murray-Dingell Bill.

Please don't forget that bill, for it is one which calls for compulsory medical insurance—a sort of high-powered name for "socialized medicine," wherein you take the doctor assigned to you instead of one of your choice, wherein this doctor will receive his same pay regardless of whether you live or die.

The cost of this proposed bill is astounding, even though we are becoming used to the idea of our federal government dealing in the billions instead of in the millions of dollars.

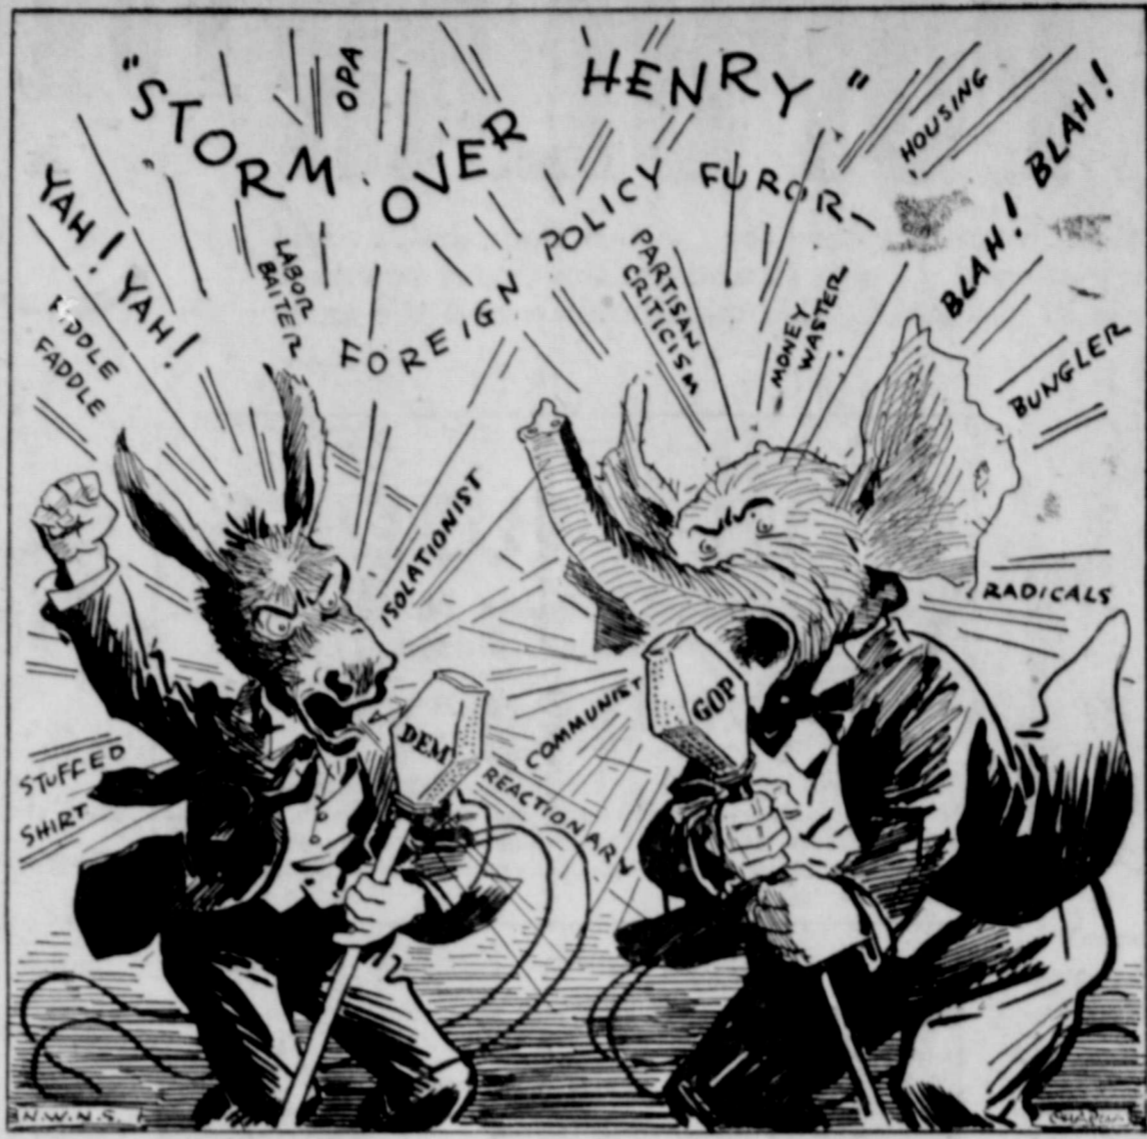

The initial cost, if limited to 100,000,000 people, estimates say, would vary from $2,600,000,000 to $2,880,000,000; if national coverage is offered (and whom of the 140,000,000 people would be left out of such a big scheme of things?) the initial cost would be between $3,630,000,000 to $4,030,000,000.

Then further estimates point out that as the program grows and includes other phases such as dental work and home nursing, the cost will go up to between $4,930,000,000 and $5,450,000,000; and some say this cost will amount to perhaps six billion or more.

Count this cost in on top of the rest of your "governmental expenditures"—income tax, social security, etc.—and it won't be long until you'll be getting a blank pay check with no dollars and no cents written on it. But there's one way to defeat the bill—tell your Congressman you don't want it.

QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

Figgers

The Donley County Leader: Figures don't lie, but often girls and brassieres keep them from telling the truth.

Big Rain

The Moore County News: Best description of the rain at Sunray was that of W. M. Elliott, Sunray deputy sheriff. Said he to R. L. Crump: "Well, I tell you, I had a huge water bucket with a huge hole in the bottom of it and you know, it just naturally filled up that bucket and ran it over." Who said dust bowl?

Gossipers

The McLean News: Everybody condemns gossipers, yet most people are willing to listen to them.

Unions and Politics

The Canyon News: For many years AFL has stayed out of politics. Seeing the success of CIO, the competitive union may decide to jump in. Wonder just how long it is going to be before the golden goose of high prices is killed under our great Democracy?

Rules

Jerry Sitton in the Clay County Leader: The housing situation being what it is, we went out and purchased a lot to build a house. But we forgot to check on neighborhood requirements. Running into a potential neighbor, he tells us that we'll have to sign a pledge not to be caught mowing grass, working about the house, and so forth. "We men in the neighborhood have been years in perfecting our plan," he reports. Hope our wife understands.

Your columnist has been interested all his life in public affairs. Away back yonder in the seventh grade, I lived in Mississippi, famed for its political oratory, and heard some of the spellbinders of the era that produced Senators James K. Vardaman and John Sharp Williams. Then, in high school days in Memphis, Tenn., I heard William Jennings Bryan, Senator Bob LaFollette (the original), and former Governor Malcolm R. Patterson, the greatest political orator I've ever heard.

The subject of keenest interest to me in high school was debating. Our coach was a young, red-headed, dynamic teacher from Texas, James Leonard Highsaw, who used to live in Delta and Colton counties. I took every subject he taught; economics, government, history, and sociology. Then, after school three of his favorite "boys" would meet in his room and we would prepare for our next debate until it grew too dark to see.

We debated such subjects as oratorical championship and, in the University of Wisconsin, he won the oratorical championship of the "Big Ten." Clifford Davis is about to begin his fourth term in Congress. Your columnist lacked the speaking ability of these two and so tried to make up for this deficiency by studying, extra hard, on the subject. In the rebuttal, where the speaking has to be extemporaneous, I used to attain a speed of 200 words a minute. The other boys were generous and elected me captain of the team.

Certainly, I'm sympathetic to-

This Week in WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The tragedy of presidential errors and public relations blunders at the White House which culminated in the ousting of Secretary Wallace from the Truman cabinet overshadowed all other developments in Washington.

On the international front the Wallace foreign relations speech and its divergence of views from our established foreign relation policy had such repercussions in the capitals of the world, the President, some sources said, had to take the tragic course he did take and fire Wallace in order to preserve the government's unity behind Secretary of State Byrnes and the American delegation at the Paris peace conference.

On the domestic political front, the Wallace ouster had equally loud repercussions and according to some official observers shunted away from the Democratic party the last of the New Deal party of Franklin D. Roosevelt and a sizable chunk of the labor and liberal vote.

That the President chose to oust Wallace as being the lesser of two evils, or that a united front at Paris was more important in our attempts at world peace than to retain Wallace as the leader of the liberal element in the Democratic party, is apparent. For the President, as a result of his own blunders, was faced with the grave responsibility of undoing what he had done in his now famous press conference. His action in firing Wallace and his issuance of a statement placing in Secretary Byrnes his full and complete confidence, was his way of telling the world that the Wallace speech in no way affected our established policy.

Democratic leaders here are divided as to the effect of the Wallace ouster on the congressional elections next November and the Presidential election of 1948. The old-line conservatives which comprise most of the southern bloc, and which now seemingly have taken over the administration, are jubilant over the Wallace exit. They have been trying for years to obtain his ouster. Liberal Democrats see a dark picture ahead, declaring that Wallace, the last of the Roosevelt cabinet, was the only party bulwark which kept labor and the liberal element in line. In the meantime Wallace has been ousted from the speaker's list at the Democratic national committee along with Senator Pepper of Florida, another liberal leader.

Hence Wallace must find another medium by which he may go before the people and proclaim his views, other than the Democratic party. Both the statements of the President and that of Wallace issued after Wallace was ousted, put the work of peace ahead of party politics and it may be that the erstwhile secretary, whose public life has been a continuous round of political crisis, may see fit to remain quiet on international policies until after the Paris conference has adjourned. He did say, however, that the President's action relieved him of his promise not to make further foreign policy speeches.

Whether Wallace as a private citizen will have the same influence with the government, remains to be seen. His cabinet job can no longer be the springboard by which he can proclaim his "one world" theory and his fight for peace.

As a consequence of the incredible blunders which led up to the Wallace ouster there is talk in official circles here of abandoning the extemporaneous press conference of the President. Few men in the White House have been able successfully to handle the barrage of questions hurled by the newspapermen. Wilson did it questionably well although he also made some blunders. Harding, Coolidge and Hoover made mistakes so fast that they abandoned the conference and had questions submitted in advance in writing. President Roosevelt revived the practice of personal and extemporaneous questions and answers and he was a past master. President Truman, however, has been unable to keep up the pace and some of his top advisers are now urging him to stop the present practice and return to the written questions.
