NOVEMBER 2 WAR BOOK FINAL DATE

Saturday is the final day for filing pictures and information of servicemen and women for the Hall County War Book. Through newspaper advertising and by direct mail the publishers of The Democrat have tried to reach every interested person with the information concerning the publishing of the World War II War Book. Pictures and information must be sent to the publishers in Dallas soon if the books are to be printed and ready for delivery by Christmas.

Whether you want a book or not, you should turn in pictures and information in order that the book may be a more complete record and therefore a better book for those who do buy them. It does not cost anything to turn in pictures and information.

Orders for books must be made by Saturday, November 2, as it isn't likely that any extra books will be ordered. Once the printing of the number ordered is done, there will be no more printed.

Cyclone Goes To Wellington Friday

The Memphis Cyclone journeys to Wellington Friday for the sixth conference game of the season, and will enter the game determined to wipe out the defeat received last week at the hands of the Lefors Pirates.

The Skyrocks, who are tough opponents on any field but more so on their home ground, have a perfect conference record so far. Last week they smashed the McLean Tigers 39-0, with Russell, star back, bringing the grandstand to its feet in a 100-yard touchdown run from kickoff.

The Cyclone, who will enter the game as underdogs, is expected to unfold everything in the team's bag of tricks to upset the doctored. Coach Kelley's boys have been working to brush off rough spots, and are expected to render. (Continued on page 4)

Cotton Farmers Attend Hearing At Lubbock

Rep. Steve Page of Georgia told delegates at Lubbock last Thursday that a downward revision of cotton acreage in the United States is inevitable.

Page, chairman of a congressional committee which met in Lubbock to hear producers and processors' views on the cotton situation, said increasing yields and general world conditions will force the decrease.

The cut, he said, may have to be from the present 27,000,000-acre allowable to around 20,000,000 acres. There were only 18,000,000 acres of cotton this year.

Farmers, business men, and others who are interested are urged to attend the Farm Bureau meeting at Lakeview Friday night at 8 o'clock at the. (Continued on page 4)

Estelline Team Meets Silverton In Conference Tilt

The Estelline football eleven will play Silverton Friday on the Estelline gridiron. Both teams are members of the same class B conference and the outcome of the game will determine the leader in the district. J. B. Riddle, Estelline school superintendent, said this week.

Estelline has played two opponents in conference play, and has won both games. The Silverton team has played three conference games and has come out on top in each.

Following the game Friday, Estelline will play two more games this season. On November 8 they meet the Quitaque team at Quitaque, and Flomot journeys to Estelline November 15.

Last Friday the Estelline team defeated the Kress eleven 13-12 in an action-packed game before a large crowd.

City to Observe National Education Week Nov. 10-16

An enlarged program for observance of National Education Week, November 10-16, is planned for Memphis by the education committee of the Memphis chamber of commerce and the Hall County unit of the State Teachers Association, J. B. Crockett, manager of the chamber of commerce, announced this week. The program planned for the week includes some activity for each day, beginning with Sunday.

Leon C. Duncan's Name Added To Gold Stars

Cpl. Leon C. Duncan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Duncan, formerly of Memphis but now of California, was another Hall County youth who paid the supreme sacrifice during World War II. His name has been added to the list for the memorial page of the Hall County War Book.

Duncan was a prisoner of war of Japan following the fall of Corregidor and Bataan, and was on the Jap prison ship that was sunk by American ships between Manila and Japan in 1943. This was the ship that Virgil Lee Ford, a Memphis boy, was on when it was bombed. Ford made it to safety by swimming to shore.

Memphis C. of C. Opposes Abolishing Gasoline Tax Refund to Texas Farmers

At a called meeting of the board of directors of the Memphis chamber of commerce held Monday night, nine points of the West Texas chamber of commerce referendum was discussed and voted upon.

The directors voted their opposition to a proposal which would abolish the gasoline tax refund to farmers, and other agricultural work, and substitute other uses for these funds. In spite of reports that this tax refund is abused in some instances, the members of the board were of the opinion that it should be continued in its present form, it was reported, and their recommendation will be mailed to the West Texas chamber of commerce.

During the meeting Carl Harrison was re-elected to represent Memphis on the board of directors of the West Texas chamber. Other points in the referendum which was voted on were: 1. Old age assistance and old age sur-

Personal solicitation by Legion members will be carried out, with a goal of $50,000 being set. C. C. Meacham, drive chairman, stated. To date, $5,148 has been subscribed by citizens of the county, and an effort will be made to raise the remainder of the amount.

According to final plans made at the meeting Monday evening, the proposed home will be known as the American Legion Memorial building. Approximate size of the structure will be 60 by 140 feet, and plans will call for the building to be modern in every respect.

"We hope to erect a building which will be a permanent memorial to all boys and girls from Hall County who wore the uniform of their country in World War II," Commander Deaver said. "It is hoped that we shall be able to construct a building that will house all veteran facilities. It was further decided to include a Boy Scout room in the basement, and have a large auditorium above with sufficient seating capacity to handle large crowds."

Another feature of the proposed building will be a banquet room complete with modern kitchen, Mr. Deaver said.

"The auditorium is to be used not only by the Legion, but by any worthy organization in the county," the commander added. "This means that any entertainment, show, or gathering may use the building. In fact, we hope to be able to adequately serve the needs of this community for the next generation."

All contributions will be kept separate from the general fund of the local post, members of the building committee said. It was also announced that all monies received will be deposited in banks on which checks were drawn, and will remain in the banks until. (Continued on page 8)

Building funds for state colleges.

T. H. Deaver, vice president, presided over the meeting, and Carl Harrison, WTCC director, explained each point in the referendum.

"The West Texas chamber of commerce has been actively engaged in promoting a program of industrialization for this area," Harrison said. "The regional organization has also spent much time and money in the last several years in leading the fight to bring about a parity of freight rates between the Southwest and the. ### VETERANS MAY BUY STATE LANDS IF NOV. 7TH AMENDMENT CARRIES

Proposed by the Legislature unanimously and approved by the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the 36th Division, and the State Democratic Convention, a constitutional amendment making it possible for Texas veterans to purchase farm and ranch homes from the state, faces its final vote on the general election, November 7, two days after the general election.

Some 5,000 Texas veterans have expressed a desire to participate in the program in letters addressed to Bascom Giles, commander of the general land office.

The plan the state would divide 10,000 tracts located in various parts of the state on sale to veterans for as little as 10 cents down with 40 cents in balance at 4 per cent interest. The tracts would range from one acre to 2,500-acre with a maximum purchase of $5,000.

Each tract would carry a fifteen-sixteenths mineral fee interest in oil and gas and seven-eighths mineral fee interest in sulphur. Purchasers would not be required to homestead the land. They would also be permitted to dispose of their equity.

The state, which owns several million acres of land, plans to select the best tracts and to supplement this acreage through purchase of some of the 2,400,000 acres of land acquired by the federal government during the war.

The program, which would run over an eight-year period, would be administered by the Veterans' Land Board composed of the governor, attorney general, and the general land commissioner, in cooperation with enabling statutes by the legislature. This board would be authorized to issue up to $25,000,000 in bonds to be sold to state surplus funds, for the purpose of purchasing federal-owned land.

Two Elections Up To Voters Next Week

Two elections will be held next week. On November 5, the general election comes up wherein citizens will vote on state, county, and precinct officers, and accept or reject three proposed state constitutional amendments.

On November 7, a proposed amendment to the state constitution will come up for acceptance or rejection by the voters. This amendment, known as Section 49-b, is for the creation of a Veterans Land Board, and providing by law that the legislature shall provide for the issuance by said board of not to exceed $25,000,000 in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as the Veterans Land Fund.

The three amendments to be voted on at the general election are: (1) "Amendment authorizing the legislature to appropriate $75,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay claims incurred by John Tarleton Agricultural College for the construction of a building on its campus; (2) Amendment to Article 16 of Texas by adding thereto Section 62 providing a retirement disability and death compensation fund for the appointive officers. (3) Amendments to the constitution of the state of Texas providing that subject to legislative appropriation, allocation and direction all net revenues derived from taxes except gross production and ad valorem taxes, levied on motor fuels and lubricants and motor vehicle registration fees shall be used for the sole purposes of acquiring rights-of-way for and constructing and maintaining public roadways; for the administration of laws pertaining to traffic and safety; and for the payment of principal and interest on certain county and road district bonds or warrants; providing that one-fourth of such net revenue from the motor fuel tax shall be allocated to the available school fund; providing a minimum limit or revenue that each county shall derive from motor registration high school auditorium. The price and control of cotton will be discussed, it has been announced.

This, he conceded, probably would affect West Texas more directly than any other cotton producing area. He believes that outstanding points developed so far by the sub-committee of the House Agriculture Committee in hearings are that the Secretary of Agriculture should have more discretionary power over allotments and that farmers operating under a provision allowing 40 per cent of their tillable land in cotton probably will be forced to take the lion's share of any cuts.

The committee has found, however, that farmers and others interested want to preserve the control and support price program. Sentiment in West Texas favors allotments on the bale rather than on acres. This view was shared by Rep. Bob Poage of Waco, Rep. George Mahon, and Rep. Gene Worley who feel that the acre plan discriminates against Texas.

Attending the hearing from

Hall County were County Agent W. B. Hooser, Paul Montgomery, G. W. Sexauer, Robert Sexauer, C. M. Hawkins, John Russell, Hulien Clifton, and S. T. Hutchins.

Eastern manufacturing section of the United States. It is the only organization leading such a fight in Texas. The case was won but through the activity of an Eastern state, the application of the advantage to West Texas was prevented."

The case is now before the Supreme Court, Harrison went on to say, and is being argued by Attorney General Tom Clark, with the indication that in a short time an equitable agreement will be reached whereby Texas and the Southwest will enjoy a rate parity with eastern shipping centers.

Judge Goodpasture

Goodpasture showed how Hall County should go wholeheartedly in favor of the amendment.

Two new members were introduced at the meeting: Tom Clayton of the Memphis Press and Jerry McDaniel of the McDaniel Implement company.

izenship the committee stated it felt that this emphasis could be of great value to the teaching profession.

Monday—A high school assembly will be held at the high school auditorium from 10 to 11 a. m. at which time a former citizen of Memphis, Charles Damron, will be the principal speaker. The American Legion has been invited to participate in this meeting.

Tuesday—The education committee of the chamber of commerce will have charge of the program at the Rotary Club providing a moving picture and data on education activity. At 7:30 p. m. a dinner will be given by the Hall County unit of the State Teachers Association with Dr. James B. Boren, president of Hardin College, Wichita Falls, as principal speaker. All teachers in Hall County will be invited to attend along with the board of education and their wives, and the chamber of commerce board of directors and their wives. The meeting will be held in the high school.

Wednesday—The Memphis High School band will give a concert on the court house lawn beginning at 3:30 in the afternoon, and a music program will be furnished by the choral clubs of the several schools in the city. This program will be arranged with cooperation of Perry Kyser and the music leaders in the schools. At noon a special program will be given by the education committee of the C. of C. for the Lions Club with the showing of pictures and the presentation of current data on the national school situation.

Thursday—The Memphis schools will provide a "See Your School at Work" demonstration of methods and teaching technique by compressing a one-half day of school attendance into a two-hour session in each school to begin at 7 p. m. The purpose of this demonstration is to give the parents an in-sight on present day school methods and each pupil will be expected to bring his parents to the session. The chamber of commerce will assist in sponsoring the attendance at this meeting.

Friday—This day will be given over largely to the athletic emphasis in the school program, with the crowning of the football queen at the game between Memphis and Clarendon high school teams. A pep-rally will be held on the square at 3:30 in the afternoon and free tickets to the football game will be given to all school pupils under high school age. It is planned to have all former members of the Cyclone squad who live in or near Memphis participate in the crowning of the queen.

Efforts are being made to secure a county-wide participation in "Education Week," through programs in each town over the county and in teacher participation in the programs planned by the Hall County unit of the State Teachers Association, Crockett said. This is said to be the most extensive activity yet provided for American Education Week in Hall County.

W. P. Cagle of Los Angeles visited in Memphis Wednesday with friends. He is the son of the late W. P. Cagle and the son-in-law of Mrs. W. H. Moreman.

BLACK MARKET OR FREE MARKET

IN AN ARTICLE entitled "The Boom," Fortune said: "The black market is the real market. The black market is as clear a symbol of these times as was prohibition in the 20's. In the United States in 1946, the historians will write, it was possible to get anything you could imagine—for a price."

What that price is depends upon the rapacity of the seller and the eagerness of the buyer. And this in itself is a dismal commentary upon the efficiency of government controls, no matter how sincerely meant and how expertly administered. We have seen the legitimate merchants of the country, big and small, chain and independent, make an aggressive and honest attempt to hold the price line and adhere to complex OPA orders. And we have seen them deprived of more and more products as goods flow into black market channels where the only price consideration is all the traffic will bear.

We will continue to have this condition until the factors of supply and demand are permitted to again assert themselves, and goods are sold on an open, competitive basis. Then, and only then, a price balance will be established at a level in consonance with today's labor costs, today's supply prices, and today's general business overhead. It should be obvious to a child that we cannot return to 1941 prices while we have 1946 expenses—a fact which OPA is beginning to realize, as evidenced by the long lists of price increases which are constantly being issued. The black market came into being when the free market, to all intents and purposes, was abolished by unworkable government decrees. The black market will disappear when the free market comes back.

REVOLUTIONARY AND COSTLY

THE WAGNER-MURRAY-DINGELL compulsory health bill would disrupt a whole profession at a cost to the American people of over $4,500,000,000 annually.

Socializing the medical profession would not lower the cost of medicine. It would restrict the doctor to the point where he would be tied hand and foot. Medical care would be rationed to the patient and if the patient wasn't well in the time allotted, he would not only pay his compulsory health insurance premium but would pay for hospitalization and other expenses.

The best kind of medical care can now be secured by acquiring membership in a voluntary prepaid medical plan which does not make the doctor a ward of the state, unable to give undivided attention to a patient. Thus, when a patient suffers from illness his whole world does not collapse around him.

Too much government, in the form of misguided efforts to provide a "better life," can demoralize the efficiency of the people. The Wainer-Murray-Dingell Bill is a case of extreme interference because it proposes to place the people under a compulsory health insurance plan which leaves as little opportunity as possible for self help.

SELECTED FROM THE DEMOCRAT'S EXCHANGES

Soil Loss

Farmers and land owners over the country are becoming each year more conscious of the need of conserving the soil. Hardeman county farmers are bemoaning the fact that great tracts had come into their fields during the hot, dry summer of this year. When the drouth was broken by eight inches of rainfall, the cracks soaked up, but not until many pounds of rich top soil had washed down into them so deep that it can never be recovered or of use to the land.

Contouring and terracing are the hall marks of a good farmer nowadays, but it has not been too long a time that this has been the case.

Only a few years ago a youngster, Bennett of the department of agriculture, introduced this method of preserving soil to try and save as well as build up the worn washout hills of an old southern state. He met every rebuff, but proof and time show how right he was and the practice has become almost universal.

However, there are many farmers and landowners who are yet to be convinced. It will only be when owners are forced to terrace or contour their land in order to get a loan against it that this manner of conservation will be practiced by all.—Quannah Tribune-Chief.

"Good Old Days"

We catch ourselves longing for the good old days, wishing for the time to return when we can go to our grocers and get a sack of sugar and some soap and meat without the feeling that this may be the last we will have for some time. We long for the time to come when we can sit down to a home made cake or a home made pie without the feeling that we have wantonly and profligately depleted the sugar supply for the sake of one cake or pie spree. We long for the time to come when we can go to the store and buy a shirt and a pair of trousers without the feeling that in doing so we have deprived some one of a shirt and a pair of trousers who needs them worse than we do. We realize that we still have a lot to be thankful for when we think of the condition of thousands of others the world over and we are thankful, but at the same time we cannot help but think with a nostalgic yearning of the good old days before the world got out of joint and we were called in to fix it up.—Tulsa Herald.

BOYCE HOUSE

What this country needs is not a good 5-cent cigar; it's the return of good, old 5-cent hamburgers. Can you remember when you got a hamburger, slice of pickle, slice of onion, mustard, and a bun—all for a nickel? Now you get a slice of wilted lettuce, a sliver of apologetic tomato, a smear of mayonnaise, a dab of ketchup, two parched pieces of bread and three soggy potato chips—and pay 30 cents!

Senator Taft of Ohio declares the trials of the German war criminals are a disgrace. He says they were tried under an ex post facto law—that we declared the law after the act and not before. Murder has always been against the law. That law does not need to be passed by legislatures nor engrossed on parchment; the Almighty has written it in the conscience of man. No one had told Cain he should not kill his brother but Cain knew it was wrong and his Maker branded him and sent him forth to wander, accursed, through the world. Nobody has ever objected to that as a wrongful punishment—that is, nobody until Senator Taft came along.

Shall we hang a man for the murder one—and not hang those who were responsible, through concentration camps, slave labor, and executions, for the murder of millions?

A hunter popped a pheasant on a hill; It made a great to do and then was still. It seems, when later on his game he spied It was his guide.

This Week in WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, D. C.—For better or worse, the administration is committed to a policy of rapid decontrol of all price ceilings, both on commodities and labor. This policy, in direct contrast to the previously announced policies of President Truman, as events show, was forced upon the administration apparently by a combination of business and congressional leaders and the loud wails of the people during the past few weeks over the meat shortage. Whether this combination represents a majority of the American people or not likely will be determined at the polls November 5.

Also, whether the new "free market" will level off as some predict or whether the nation is bent upon a period of inflation "boom and bust," only the future will determine.

Compliance with the new congressional reorganization law which requires lobbyists to register and give their salaries and the organization which backs them, is bringing to light some interesting facts. For instance, it reveals that the National Federation of Post Office clerks hires two lobbyists, one E. C. Halbeck who receives $8,000 and expenses and another, Leo E. George, who is paid $10,000 and expenses. Who would believe that post office clerks, protected as they are by civil service, would need lobbyists in congress to protect their interests? Then there is the American Medical Association which hires Joseph S. Lawrence at a salary of $15,000 plus $5,000 a year set aside annually as a retirement fund, plus expenses up to $2,400 to fight the battle of the doctors on the congressional front. Another high priced lobbyist is Lachlan Macleay representing the Mississippi Valley association at an annual salary of $15,000 and expenses; William S. Snow representing the American Fisheries association cooperative and other canneries at about $11,000 per year. The American Legion has three men on their staff, Harry V. Hayden, Jr. at $4300, Francis F. Sullivan at $7200 and Col. John Thomas Taylor at $10,000 annually. The American National Livestock association pays F. E. Mollin $9,500 plus a $500 bonus. Some of the lobbyists include Nels Peter Alfass, International Association of Machinists, $8,000; W. D. Johnson, railway conductors, $4,000 with a raise to $8,000 after November 1; Jonas A. McBride, locomotive firemen and engineers, $7,000; D. C. Cone, railroad signalmen, $5,250; John W. Edman, Textile workers, CIO, $1,200; Earl C. Bassett, railroad trainmen, $7,300; E. L. Doyle, maintenance of way employes, $8,600; George D. Riley, railway and steamship clerks, $4,825; W. C. Hushing, American Federation of Labor, $7,280, and others.

Ten nationally known educators representing all phases of the American educational system and headed by George F. Zook, president of the American Council on Education, chairman, has completed a report to the state department on educational problems of the military government in Germany, after a three week tour of the American zone in Germany.

Among other things, the report urges encouragement of the purpose of German education to develop a democratic and peaceful way of life; elimination of class distinction in elementary, secondary and vocational schools; encouragement of teacher training since under the denazification program more than half all school teachers were ousted; vocational and profession studies and assistance to students from all class levels in universities; youth activities programs among voluntary associations to train youngsters in the Democratic way of life; adult education to place greater emphasis on current economic and social problems; administrative control which admits no compromise in setting objectives for the German people the ideals of freedom of teaching, freedom of private and public expression and freedom of publication and a continued veto power of the educational and religious affairs branch of the military government over undemocratic proposals of the education ministry; more adequate space available for teaching and for living accommodations in university communities and a revival of cultural contacts in the form of American publications and documentary films to strengthen the latent forces of democracy.

Four Million Veterans Seek to Rent, Buy, or Build Other Living Quarters

A recent census bureau sample survey shows that of the estimated 11,800,000 returned veterans, approximately four million want to rent other quarters or buy or build new homes within 12 months if suitable housing is available at prices they desire.

About 2,200,000 of these are seeking new quarters even at present prices. Results of the survey made in June at the request of the national housing agency for the veterans emergency housing program, were announced by Director J. C. Capt of the Bureau of the Census.

Of the four million veterans who want to move, 2,800,000 say they want to buy or build. The remaining 1,200,000 prefer to rent. Of the approximately 2,200,000 who will be in the market for new quarters at present prices, slightly more than half want to buy or build, with the rest wanting to rent.

The average veteran wanting new quarters reports ability to pay not more than $43 for rent or not more than $5,500 to buy a house. According to the survey, average weekly income of prospective renters is $44; of prospective buyers, $48.

Of all prospective home-owners, about 1,700,000 report ability to pay less than $6,000, while 1,100,000 are able to pay $6,000 or more. Almost 700,000 say they want homes costing less than $4,000. Of approximately 1,200,000 prospective renters, more than 800,000 report that the rentals they could afford would be under $50 per month.

Those planning to buy or build want, on the average, a five-room house. Three-fifths of the prospective renters want four or five-room units.

Approximately 2,100,000 of the 10,500,000 veterans in non-farm areas are living in dwelling units which need major repairs or lack private bathing facilities.

The survey finds that 6,100,000 of the ex-servicemen are married. Of those married veterans, almost two million are living doubled up with other families, or living in trailers or rented rooms. The survey does not cover the hundreds of thousands of veterans discharged since June, most of whom presumably are seeking homes.

Of the 5,200,000 veterans married before they left the service, 2,300,000 had separate homes to which they could return. By June 1946, the number having separate dwelling units had increased to 2,700,000, leaving about 1,500,000 still without their own units.

The average weekly income for all veterans, the survey reveals, is $40. About 10,500,000 plan to stay in their present area, 600,000 plan to migrate, and the remaining 700,000 are undecided.

Mrs. W. L. Nabers left for Lubbock Monday. From there she will go by plane to Valmeyer, Ill., for a several months stay with her son, A. J. Nabers and wife. Mrs. A. J. Nabers will return home with her.

NEW LIFELINE FOR BRITAIN . . . Reports are that the British defense committee considers transferring principal bases from the Eastern Mediterranean to Tanganyika and Kenya, as indicated on the map. Meanwhile France has offered the mandated areas of Togoland and the Cameroons for administration under the United Nations. Port Lycautey and Naples are the only U. S. naval bases left on the Mediterranean and Naples is not likely to become a permanent base. The dotted arrows indicate the British lifeline. Since the British are committed to the evacuation of Egypt, the proposed South African bases would replace Haifa, Palestine and Alexandria, Egypt. Black areas on the map show British and commonwealth controlled areas and holdings.

A MESSAGE OF INTEREST
 to all who await deliveries of new Chevrolets

We want you to know that everything possible is being done to speed deliveries to you; but production still lags far behind schedule—even though Chevrolet has built more cars and trucks than any other manufacturer from January through September 1946

WE REALIZE how eagerly you are awaiting delivery of the new Chevrolet. We have ordered from us, and we want to get on to you the latest information received from the Chevrolet Motor Division, even though that information isn't too encouraging at this time.

It is true that Chevrolet leads all other manufacturers in total production of passenger cars and trucks from January through September 1946, despite the fact that Chevrolet was out of production entirely the first three months of this year. It is true that Chevrolet has continued to lead in its lead in total production during the first quarter of 1946. And yet production is running far below desired levels, with Chevrolet's output of cars and trucks through September 1946 was only about the number produced during the corresponding period of 1941.

It means it may take many months for Chevrolet Motor Division to reach peak production of new Chevrolets—even longer to fill the unprecedented demand for this product of BIG-CAR QUALITY AT LOWEST COST—and, for the present at least, "there just aren't enough Chevrolets to go around," much as we wish there were.

However, we want you to know that new Chevrolets are leaving the plants in the largest numbers possible today. The Chevrolet Motor Division tells us it is doing everything it can, in the face of continued suppliers' strikes, material shortages and manpower problems, to step up shipments to us and to all dealers, in accordance with a predetermined distribution plan assuring each dealer of his fair allotment, based on 1941 passenger car sales. And we, in turn, are doing our best to deliver new Chevrolets to our customers as rapidly as they are received and in the fairest possible way. We are too appreciative of your loyalty and goodwill—too grateful for your patience and understanding—to do anything less than continue to serve you to the very best of our ability.

KEEP YOUR PRESENT CAR RUNNING
 Meanwhile, the most important car of all to you is the car you are driving now. May we suggest that you keep it in top running condition until you secure delivery of your new Chevrolet, by bringing it to us for skilled service now and at regular intervals. Remember—cold weather is hardest on old cars. Please see us for a complete check-up today. . . . And, again, thank you!

Controller Sheppard Gives Ruling Proposed Good Road Amendment

TEXAS.—Several inquiries have been addressed to the controller asking for his opinion on the proposed good roads Constitutional amendment which will have on the revenue side the effect of increasing the gasoline tax on non-highway gasoline.

The controller has carefully studied the amendment and has concluded that it is not in the best interest of the state to pass the amendment at this time. He has advised the legislature to continue to study the amendment and to report back to the legislature at a later date.

The controller's opinion is based on the fact that the amendment would require the state to pay for the construction and maintenance of good roads out of the state treasury. This would be a heavy burden on the state and would result in a large increase in the state's debt.

The controller also pointed out that the amendment would not provide for the necessary funds to pay for the roads. He suggested that the legislature should consider other methods of financing the roads, such as a tax on the sale of new cars or a tax on the use of heavy trucks.

payment of county and road district bonds issued to finance state highways and which bonds now are being retired by the allocation of one cent of the gasoline tax to the county and road district highway fund. As present, the bond assumption statute must be re-enacted each two years. On one occasion the legislature almost adjourned without passing the authorization bill and on another occasion a special session was required to pass the bill.

There always has been considerable doubt as to the constitutionality of state payment of these local obligations. Adoption of the good roads Constitutional amendment will remove any uncertainty on that score and will insure that these obligations will not again become a charge against property in the county or district.

My customers really deserve a medal!

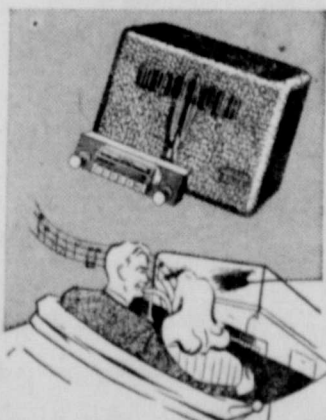

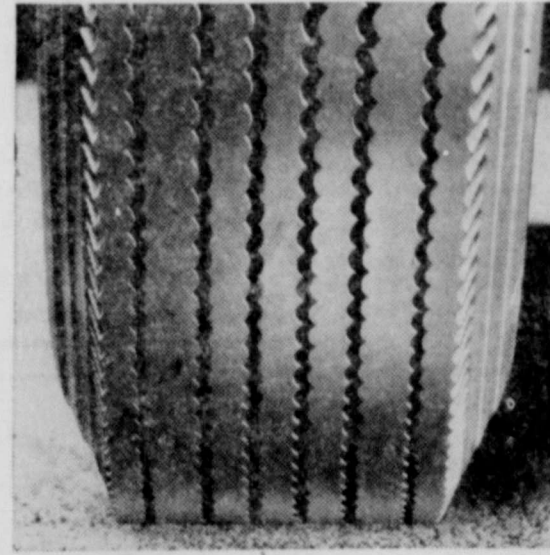

They've been so considerate about waiting a bit for the tire that . . .

OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES

Even despite the outstanding production in B.F. Goodrich's 75-year history, so many new customers have heard about the amazing performance of the new B.F. Goodrich Silvertown we've had to ask our customers to wait at times. And they've been grand.

B. F. Goodrich Silvertowns are selling like hot cakes . . . are worth waiting for!

If you're looking for a passenger car tire that will OUTWEAR PREWAR TIRES, pick the new postwar Silvertown which has been tested on taxi fleets, police cars, special test cars, and by hundreds of thousands of car owners. Tests showed the wider, flatter tread put more rubber on the road, provided longer mileage, better protection against skidding. To match the performance of this heavier tread, a new 35 per cent stronger cord body was developed with sturdier cords and more of them to give the tire better resistance to bruises and road shock. All this means more safety—more value—more economy—more reason for waiting a little longer for the tire that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES.

- 1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the next cycle to come.
- 2 Started 3 days before "your time," it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic cases. Try Cardui. It helps you be glad you did.
