Harold Rampy Wins 4-H Award

Harold Rampy, 16-year-old member of the 4-H Club, is the winner of a $200 scholarship given by Westinghouse Education Foundation for achievement in better farm methods with emphasis on electricity, according to an announcement made Monday in Chicago.

4-H WINNER

HAROLD RAMPY

County Agricultural Agent W. Hooser, who this past year was selected as one of the outstanding agents of the nation, accompanied Harold on the trip to the national 4-H Club Congress in Chicago. Harold went to Chicago on an expense-paid trip sponsored by Westinghouse.

Hall County had previously won state awards for achievement during the present year. This is the third time that Hall County has won over all other counties in Texas for the most outstanding program carried on in the county. A plaque was awarded the county by the Westinghouse Education Foundation.

Thirty-two boy and girl champions in five classifications were announced Monday at the 25th anniversary National 4-H Club Congress. One other winner of a $200 Westinghouse scholarship was David S. McClun, 14, Weston, Idaho.

William U. McCoy Joins Democrat as News Editor

The Democrat publishers are pleased to announce an addition to the editorial staff in the person of William U. McCoy who will be news editor of the paper. Bill, or Mac (take your choice), has been with the Western News Service with headquarters in Amarillo for several months, and before that was connected with publications in Memphis, Tenn. McCoy succeeds Lester Campbell who is now editor-manager of the McLean News. Campbell has with The Democrat some three or four years and recently resigned from his job here when he bought an interest in the McLean paper.

McCoy is married, and at present his wife is teaching in the Amarillo schools. She will join here at the close of the first semester and they will make Memphis their home.

The publishers ask the people of this area to call on Bill (or Mac) any time they have any news to report.

Two in Troop 35 Win Eagle Award

Billy Howard West and Carl Smith have been approved for the Eagle Scout classification by the Adobe Walls Council executive board, Hugo O. Olsen. Approvals were forwarded to the national office in Washington, according to Scoutmaster Ted Myer. Scout badges will be sent to Scoutmaster of Troop 35 for presentation to the boys. Myer stated that Billy and Carl, Mr. and Mrs. Howard West, moved to Memphis in 1937. Billy has been a patrol leader of Troop 35.

Super Phosphate for Winter Crop Arrives

Super phosphate has arrived in Memphis for distribution to farmers in this section, according to Lynn McDaniel, ACA secretary. This fertilizer is receiving 20-cent subsidies. Plans for next year for the use of several carloads of super phosphate, to be used for alfalfa and winter cover crops, will be paid for by the government and the farmers, the government paying $15 a ton and the farmers paying $13.

High School Queen To Be Crowned on Friday, Cake Sale

If you're running short on sugar, we suggest that you be at the high school auditorium at 7:30 o'clock Friday night to get some of those delicious home-baked pies made with real sugar. Still more stellar attraction will be the crowning of the high school queen.

Yes, it's the annual program sponsored by the high school yearbook staff to raise money for the publication of the Cyclone. But you're not making a donation; you will receive plenty for your money—or you can just come and enjoy the fun and it won't cost you a cent, sponsors of the event stated.

The program will start with a pie-eating contest, each class being represented by its chosen "pie-eater." The first place winner will receive 2,000 votes, second place 1,000, and third place 500. After this, the auctioning of pies will begin, each buyer giving his votes to his chosen class.

When all the pies have been sold, the classes will bid on the cake, and last of all, the queen candidate whose class has received the most votes will be led to the stage, seated on a flower-decorated throne and crowned queen of the high school.

The annual staff and entire student body cordially invite the public to attend.

Cyclone Meets Carey Tonight

The Cyclone cagers will meet Carey here tonight at 7:30, and both "A" and "B" squads will play. It was announced this week. The "B" squad game is to be played first.

The next home game will be played against Quanah on the 10th, probably in the afternoon, and will be the last game before the Christmas holidays.

The Cyclone lost a close game to Lelia Lake Tuesday night. At the end of the third quarter Lelia Lake led by only two points, with a 11-9 score, but in the final quarter, with two or three minutes to go they broke through baskets to make the final tally 19 to 10.

On the starting team for Memphis was Dink Miller, Bill Hickey, Jimmy McElreath, Bill Davis, and Larry McLane, with Leroy Green and Gayle West coming in later. Miller made good for six points, while Hickey and McElreath each scored two.

A good defensive team is being developed, Coach L. E. McCulloch stated, and some football players are going out for basketball for the first time.

Game schedule is as follows: Hedley, December 10 (there); Turkey, December 13 (there); (Continued on Page 8)

New Street Lights To Be Ready for Use About December 14

The new street lights in Memphis will be turned on around December 14, according to E. M. Wilson, utilities manager. Two crews are working on the lights at present. While this date is not definite, it is believed that at least the lights around the court house square will be on by then.

Mr. Wilson has received a number of queries concerning the use of only one wire on the new lights. He explains that all series circuits require but one wire, and that all street lights are on series circuits. However, this wire is often underground, he adds.

A sub station crew of seven are re-vamping and re-metering the new sub station, Mr. Wilson said. The old sub station will be done away with eventually.

County Elects Committeemen, Delegates Meet

Hall County farmers elected community and county committeemen in six communities Saturday. Each community elected three committeemen and two alternates, as well as a delegate and alternate to the county convention. The delegates to the county convention will meet Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Hall County court house to elect the three county committee members.

Balloting results were as follows:

Lesley: Delegate, Charnel A. Hightower; alternate delegate, Thomas H. Gattis; chairman, Jonnie W. Driver; vice chairman, John W. Hatley; regular member, Marion Cross; first alternate, William H. Youngblood; second alternate, Olma B. Rapp.

Lakeview: Delegate, Candler M. Hawkins; alternate delegate, Robert Sexauer; chairman, Marlon A. Wiley; vice chairman, Albert S. Bevers; regular member, Glen M. Stargel; first alternate, Vernon C. Durrett; second alternate, (Continued on page 8)

Judge Goodpasture Speaks at Meeting in San Antonio

Judge M. O. Goodpasture spoke before the County Judges and Commissioners Association Monday, when that body met for a three-day session at San Antonio. His subject was "Soil Conservation."

Wednesday afternoon he offered a resolution requesting the association to support a program for the state to aid in soil conservation practices. Pointing out that heretofore the burden of building up the soil had rested with the federal government, Judge Goodpasture went on to say that he favored more effort on the part of private enterprise in this movement.

During the past several weeks he has been assembling information for his address, the keynote of which was "what is our next step to take." Theme of the convention was soil conservation, roads, and improvement of county government.

11,562 Bales Cotton Ginned in County Prior to Nov. 14

As of November 14, the number of bales of cotton ginned in Hall County from the 1946 crop was 11,562 as compared with 15,477 bales for the crop of 1945, according to A. L. Gailey, special agent for the U. S. Census Bureau.

Continued good weather has aided considerably in the gathering of cotton during the past two weeks.

Boxing Squad Goes To Amarillo Bouts Friday, Saturday

"Some good boxers are out for practice this year," Coach Curtis Kelley of the Memphis High School says, "and from here it looks like a good season."

Boxing practice has been underway for two weeks and a number of men from last year have shown up for workouts. Jack Monzingo, Elmo Sams, Harley Young, and Wendell Owens were in the Golden Gloves tournament last year and are back on the squad.

Melroy Cofer, Dudy Fowler, Damon Welch, A. D. Ackard, A. C. Sams, and Roy Grimes are also last season men back on the squad this year.

Bob Ellis, 1944 letter man, is back on the squad this year.

Three more lettermen who will join the squad after basketball season are Dink Miller, Bill Hickey, and Leroy Green.

Ten new men are coming out for practice who show a great deal of promise, Coach Kelley states.

Coach Kelley is taking several boxers to the Amarillo Maverick Club bouts Friday and Saturday.

The team is not definite, but will probably consist of Jack Monzingo—welterweight, Wendell Owen—lightweight, Elmo Sams—bantamweight, Harley Young—featherweight, A. C. Sams—middleweight, and probably several others.

Twenty-one boys are coming out for boxing, Coach Kelley says, and this season's prospects are bright. Schedules are not definite yet, but the squad will probably meet such boxing schools as Petersburg, Amarillo, Shamrock, and Wellington.

AIRPORT APPROVED BY DISTRICT, SCHOOL APPLICATION SUBMITTED

The city council of Memphis has submitted an engineering plan to CAA officials for improvement of the local airport under the federal development plan, according to Wendell Harrison, chairman of the airport committee. The plan has been approved by the district engineer at Big Spring, and he has forwarded the application.

The federal development plan provides some $500,000,000 for the development of small airports over the country. From this fund, the city would get a one-fourth refund on land purchases and 50 per cent refund on all money put in improvements. Submitted for approval is im-

Christmas Lights Go On Dec. 7th

Kriss Kringle will sail into Memphis in style! The jolly fat man with the red suit and white whiskers has been making big plans this year, according to chamber of commerce sleuths who have scouted his home territory.

It was revealed today that Santa plans to arrive in Memphis December 23. He has discarded his familiar reindeer and traditional sleigh for high-octane transportation. Sleuths were unable to determine whether this was a Cessna 140 or Taylorcraft plane, but from the log book in Santa's office it was learned he would land at Memphis municipal airport at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Santa will then take over the city's best fire truck. He will parade over town, then stop at the court house square. He will question and talk to children there until 5 o'clock.

Business men all over town are decorating stores and windows for this gala occasion, and from all reports Santa will have a welcome befitting his exalted station.

Christmas lights all over the city will be turned on December 7, or shortly thereafter.

The members of the city decoration committee are Robert Moss, chairman, Robert Breedlove, Mack Wilson, Roy Coleman, A. O. Gidden, Rev. Aubrey C. Haynes, Doc Saye, Morgan Baker, Herschel Combs, and J. B. Crockett.

Sub-committees are: Lighting court house and streets, A. O. Gidden, chairman, Robert Breedlove, and Mack Wilson. Merry Christmas signs, Roy Coleman, chairman; and Doc Saye. Christmas carols and small decorations, Rev. Aubrey Haynes, chairman. (Continued on page 8)

Memphis C of C Gets Request for Work Program

The Memphis chamber of commerce knows the answers. At least that's the opinion of the United States chamber of commerce in Washington. La Grande, Ore., asked for information on the 1946 program of work set up by the board of directors of the Memphis chamber of commerce with the intent of using the information in the Oregon city. The request was referred to the Memphis chamber.

"We appreciate the fact that the work of the local chamber is so well developed that the U. S. chamber is willing to recommend it to others over the nation," President Horace Tarver said. "We are also pleased that the year's work has achieved the major points set out for accomplishment. Information will go to the La Grande chamber, and Memphis is willing to give assistance to any chamber that can profit by the use of plans we have proven by usage here."

Eligibility Must Be Filed for Vet Training Program

Two instructors have applied for positions with the Veteran's Vocational School, according to Miss Mary Foreman, county school superintendent.

So far, no veterans have filed their certificates of eligibility. Miss Foreman said, although a few interested veterans now have the certificates.

"Veterans wishing to take training must obtain the certificates of eligibility, and then bring the certificates in to be placed on file before they can be counted," Miss Foreman added.

CLAUDE'S COMMENTS

Well, folks, it looks like Memphis will be well decorated for the Christmas season. With new and more powerful street lights, and with various business and residence houses decorated in gala attire, Santa should not feel disappointed when he makes his visit.

By the way, a lot of you kiddies will be disappointed if you don't get your letters to Santa to The Democrat to be published right away. Those of you who are in school should ask your teacher to see that all the kiddies turn the letters in to her and then she can give them to us all at one time.

Green Christmas trees are beginning to show up over town. Other decorations will be limited, but let's make it a real happy Yuletide with what is available. One of the attractive places in Memphis is at Dave Price and O. J. Gilreath's place of business just west of the square on Main street. (Continued on Page 8)

Come on up!

Come on down!

THIS is the story of a blighted romance. These Swiss sweethearts have come to the parting of the ways. He keeps on climbing UP. She keeps on coming DOWN. Only a while ago they started out together, hand-in-hand.

This is also the story of your cost of living. It has been climbing steadily. Department of Labor statistics show that it has gone up 31% since 1939.

But wait a minute! National average figures show that the cost of electricity has actually been coming downward. Since 1939—through years of war and shortages, rising prices and higher taxes—the cost of electricity has decreased 14%!

Actually, the average American family is now getting twice as much electricity for its money as it did 20 years ago. Never has electricity done so much for so little.

Your friends and neighbors in this company—under sound business management—made this possible.

Don't Neglect A Bronchial Cough Due To A Cold

When your cold brings on a nasty, troublesome bronchial cough, spend 45 cents at any drug store for a bottle of BUCKLEY'S CANADIAN MIXTURE—triple acting—to help you get rid of it. At a moment, then swallow slowly and feel its powerful, pungent action spread through the throat, head and bronchial tubes. BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE acts promptly to help loosen up thick, sticky phlegm—soothe irritated throat membranes and ease hard coughing spells.

Most all Canada knows BUCKLEY'S—folks who live up North where a cough mixture has got to do a real job, keep BUCKLEY'S handy. FUNERAL HOME

FHA Office Now Handles Loans, Replaces FSA

Credit facilities and services formerly provided by the Farm Security Administration and the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Division of Farm Credit Administration are available to eligible farmers through the Hall County office of the Farmers' Home Administration, Lester J. Cappelman, Texas state director of FHA has announced.

Mr. Cappelman also announced the designation of Robert C. Land,

Hall County supervisor of the Farm Security Administration, as interim-supervisor - in - charge of the Hall County FHA office, which is located in the old Hall County National Bank building.

The Farmers' Home Administration, created by the 79th Congress, took over functions of FSA and ECFL effective November 1. The new agency will make producing and subsistence loans as well as loans for farm purchases. Facilities are available only to farmers who are unable to get the loans they need at interest rates not exceeding five per cent from banks, cooperative lending agencies, or other responsible sources in their communities.

The farm purchase loans made by the new agency are similar to those formerly made by the Farm Security Administration. Loans are made for 100 per cent of the purchase price of family-type farms, plus needed improvements. Repayment is scheduled over a period of 40 years, and interest rate is 3 1-2 per cent.

Operating credit extended by the Farmers' Home Administration under its production and subsistence loan program includes both annual loans and adjustment-type loans at five per cent interest.

The adjustment-type credit is similar to the "rehabilitation" loans made by the Farm Security Administration, and is based on farm and home operating plans worked out by the borrower with the aid of FHA supervisors. It is accompanied by on-the-farm management assistance provided by FHA personnel. Loans may be repaid over a maximum period of five years.

The annual loans made by FHA are similar to the "feed and seed" loans made by the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Division of the Farm Credit Administration. Farm and home plans are not required as a basis for these loans, but they must be repaid within 12 months.

Production and subsistence loans to any one borrower may not exceed $3,500 in any one year. Total indebtedness of any one borrower may not exceed $5,000.

Veterans will be given preference in all phases of the Farmers' Home Administration program.

'Take a Deep Breath'

By the time you can say "Take a deep breath and hold it," an X-ray picture of the lung can be taken on this modern photo-fluoro-recording camera. Chest X-ray examinations are advocated by tuberculosis associations, supported by the sale of Christmas Seals, to find unknown cases of tuberculosis.

Christmas Seals Support Campaign

The 40th annual Christmas Seal sale which opened Monday, November 25, carries a life-saving tradition not only into Texas homes but to all military installations in Texas.

In a letter to Pansy Nichols, executive secretary, Texas Tuberculosis Association, General Jonathan M. Wainwright endorsed the state-wide campaign for funds to combat tuberculosis, and declared Christmas Seals will be made available to military personnel throughout the state.

"The purchase and use of Christmas Seals has become an institution in this country of ours," General Wainwright said, "and I would like to have you know that your efforts in raising funds thru the sale of seals for use in the control of tuberculosis has my wholehearted indorsement.

"It has come to my attention that over 17,000 members of the armed services had to be discharged during the first three years of World War II because of tuberculosis. I know from personal experience of many occasions during the war when 17,000 men could have influenced a battle decisively.

"In these times it is most important that the preservation of good health and the treatment of disease receive proper emphasis in conjunction with other measures of preparedness presently being advocated by those who realize the necessity for a strong United States.

"I am certain you will find the commanding officers of the several posts, camps, and stations within the Fourth Army area very happy to cooperate with you in any way they can in promoting the sale of Christmas Seals to military personnel.

"You have my best personal wishes for a very successful drive. If I can be of any assistance, please call upon me," he concluded.

According to a recent report by the Texas Tuberculosis Association, activities of the national, state, and county tuberculosis associations, supported by seal sale funds, include education of special groups and the general population, case-finding, operation of clinics, nursing services, rehabilitation, personnel training, cooperation with the medical profession in tuberculosis work and financial support of medical research. Ninety-five cents out of every dollar raised in Texas fights tuberculosis within the state, and five cents is sent to the National Tuberculosis Association to support the services which it performs on a nationwide basis to further the campaign against the disease.

THE BOOKSHELF

Christmas is approaching, gifts for the youngsters are in the offering, and parents are faced with their yearly problem. For those who decide to give books to the kids, there seems to be a much wider range of choice this year.

With publishing restrictions off, many new titles and juvenile series are coming out—some even bound in fur! Other publishers are featuring book covers with non-toxic dyes so it won't hurt three-year-old junior if he chews up the book.

The book journals have given space to Margaret Wise Brown for some time, but last week Life Magazine came out with a review of her work, the top publicity given a juvenile book writer so far.

Many parents will recall the "Horses" series which she wrote under the name of Timothy Hay. Other top-selling titles written by Miss Brown, under the name of Golden MacDonald, are "Red Light, Green Light," "Little Lost Lamb," and "Big Dog, Little Dog."

High on the suggestion list is a new edition of Stevenson's "Child's Garden of Verses," illustrated by a top-notch photographer who catches the full measure of expression in these classic gems.

A number of new books have arrived at the Carnegie Library, Mrs. W. V. Coursey, librarian, reports. Among them are:

TEMPERED BLADE
 By Monte Barrett

The story of Jim Bowie. The facts themselves are so incredible they need the aid of a creative artist to seem plausible. Monte Barrett has prepared the biography of perhaps the most vivid figure in all the flamboyant history of Texas, then used it as the basis of an even more stirring and convincing novel.

WAKE OF THE RED WITCH
 By Garland Roark

Another Texas writer. The prelude begins, "I, Sam Rosen, have a tale to spin. And the reader is hereby warned:—I have followed the fruits of the pen, I have devoured many stories dealing with the eruption of human passions, and in my travels I have heard many things which stand one's moral tufts eternally on end."

LORD HORNBLOWER
 By C. S. Forester

A lively historical romance in dependably acceptable naval tradition.

THUNDER OUT OF CHINA
 By Annalee Jacoby and Theodore White

New York Times says: "This book is of national importance, and bears directly on our fate to come. It may remake American policy. The lid is really off, and the American public can see what kind of dictatorship they are backing in the name of democracy."

PAVILLION OF WOMEN
 By Pearl S. Buck

Madame Wu, in the Chinese custom, had married a husband of her parent's choosing. Early years of marriage had been happy. Children had been born and carefully brought up. Madame Wu took her honored place as head of a great household of a wealthy man. But as she grew older, she found her marriage less satisfying, for she was a superior person to her husband, spiritually and mentally.

QUALITY
 By Cid Ricketts Sumner

more "realistic" than the outsider, is given fair play by the novelist.

Library hours are 1:30 to 5:00, every afternoon except Sunday.

WEATHER

Since last week the weather has been perfect for almost anything, with clear skies and sunshine prevailing. The thermometer reached a high Sunday that has held with little variation all week.

J. J. McMickin, government weather recorder, reported that the thermometer stood at 75 Sunday. It has reached the 70 mark every day except Tuesday, when 60 degrees was reported high. Low temperatures for most days were 30 and 32.

Mystic Weaver Club Entertains With Thanksgiving Dinner in Dial Home

Amid an autumn setting members of the Mystic Weaver club entertained their husbands and several guests with a Thanksgiving Gentlemen's evening Tuesday last week in the home of W. P. Dial with Mrs. W. C. Dickey as hostess.

The entertaining rooms were decorated with bouquets of dark red carnations and bronze chrysanthemums. A profusion of fall flowers and autumn leaves surrounded a large cornucopia full of fruit, vegetables, and nuts forming an esthetic arrangement for the dining table.

Members of the social committee served a turkey dinner with all the trimmings on individual tables centered by a single rose-bud.

Following the dinner, games of 42 were played.

Delphian Meeting Is Held in Home Of Mrs. Goodnight

"America tries for first place in fashion design" was the program theme at the meeting of the Delphian Club in the home of Mrs. Hal Goodnight Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Harry Womack, president, opened the business meeting by asking the entire group present to salute the United States flag.

Mrs. J. L. Barnes, program chairman, introduced the program and speakers for the afternoon. Mrs. Henry Hays, first speaker on the program said, "Most women don't want to wear what they ought to wear. Women want to wear what 'they' are wearing and by 'they' we mean the fashions which are designed by leading fashion designers and published in Vogue, Harper's Bazaar, and Mademoiselle fashion magazines. In the fashion business, where competition is cut throat and stealing ethical, it's more than coincidence that the Colonel's lady and Judy O'Grady could easily pass for identical twins. I'd rather be able to appreciate things I cannot have than to have things I cannot appreciate."

Mrs. Womack continued the fashion topic on "Lady Where Did You Get That Hat?" She told of how Lilli Dache creates hats for the most popular and best dressed women of America. Sometimes, Dache's creations are so unusual it is doubtful as to how they should be placed upon a lady's head. Once, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt after having worn a Dache creation backwards, asked Miss Dache to design a hat without a front for her.

Mrs. Leon Piland told of the "One Man Who Suits Women." That one man is the great dress and suit designer, Adrian, who made his fame by designing suits with broad shoulders after a special request by the movie star Joan Crawford for a hip slenderizing suit. Who knows, Adrian may keep broadening the women's shoulders until they will appear almost hipless, the speaker said.

After roll call, a delicious salad plate was served by the hostess to Mesdames A. Anisman, J. L. Barnes, Jack Boone, Doyle Bunch, W. C. Dickey, Ross Gentry, Henry Hays, C. C. Hodges, Haskell Howell, Bill Kesterson, Lynn McKown, J. C. McMurry, Robert Queener, O. R. Saye, Clarence Stroehle, Aubrey Haynes, J. W. "rue, R. H. Wherry, Harry Womack, Leon Piland, Callaway, and Misses Maud Milam and Zady Bell Walker.

The next meeting will be a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Bill Kesterson December 17. The party will begin at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

Friendly Thoughts by HARRY G. WOMACK

FRIENDLY TALKS
A friendly smile is like a light at the crossroads for stranger as well as friend. It is like a vibrant shaft of sunlight on a dark day that brings a moment's cheer to a depressed world. A friendly smile may be a golden coin upon someone's path of need or a cheering signal of hope to some sea-tossed derelict.

A capable staff. A modern equipment. A polite attendance. A service within the reach of all.

Memphis punted to Wellington and Williams was downed on the 32 yard-line. Then the former Rocket star put on a great running show and picked up four first downs and finally went over for a touchdown to make the score 13 to 0. The kick was good, and the score stood at 14 to 0.

Lakeview Seniors Observe Sadie Hawkins Day

(By Lakeview School Reporter)

The Lakeview senior class observed Sadie Hawkins Day November 14 at which time Lil Abner and Dacie May were elected by the student body. Jerry Williams and Bob Laird were chosen.

At 6 o'clock in the afternoon the seniors held a "potato" race at the football stadium. Some of the girls caught a man, and some were unfortunate—but are looking forward to that day next year. After the race the seniors and invited guests gathered around a campfire. They roasted wieners and had a very good time. The finale of the evening came when the seniors attended a basketball game at the gym.

Col. Cleve Odom Cited For Work

(Editor's Note: The following was taken from a story in the New York newspaper, P.M.)

Cleve C. Odom, brother of Dr. J. A. Odom of Memphis, left Childress in 1917 to join the army. Since that time he has become known as one of the most brilliant medical minds in the country. During the war years he headed the army's famed Mason General Hospital in New York City. Col. Cleve C. Odom and Mason General initiated much of the new psychiatric therapy used with such success by army hospitals all over the globe.

Now 59, Col. Odom has been an army psychiatrist for 30 years. In spite of the fact that he is an old regular in the army, he has kept abreast of modern psychiatric developments and has shown impressive skill in using the latest techniques for his patients. He has gained the friendship and respect of many well-known civilian psychiatrists.

Became Show Place

Intensive treatment of patients with resort to all modern methods of psychiatry went along side by side with training of doctors at Mason General. The hospital became a proud show place where psychiatrists came from many distant places to view the latest developments in their profession.

The hospital became known for its use and recognition of clinical psychologists and social workers in the "psychiatric team," which aims for maximum rehabilitation of patients.

The hospital has achieved an enviable reputation for its treatment of patients. It is conducted as a hospital for mentally sick people, not as a prison for evildoers. You won't find a single patient in a strait-jacket or other form of mechanical restraint, even on the most "disturbed" wards.

Treatment Center

Over 33,000 mentally ill soldiers have been treated at Mason since its opening in June 1943, when mental crackups in the army were still such a hush-hush subject that the event was kept secret from the public. The army brass opened its eyes to the need for bigger and better facilities for tackling this problem. Mason became a main center for treatment and training.

Many young ex-army psychiatrists who are now climbing to top-ranking places in their profession got their initial start at Mason.

Mason General winds up its work this month when the army turns its buildings back to Pilgrim State Hospital—the world's biggest mental institution, and the remaining patients are being transferred to other hospitals. But the work of Col. Cleve C. Odom and Mason General Hospital will be remembered as an enlightened program, where curative ideals are pursued in place of defeatist policies.

A WORTHY THOUGHT FOR A WORTHY MOVEMENT
 A COMMUNITY BUILDING for Memphis and Hall County has long been the dream of The Memphis Democrat publishers, because such a building would fill a long-felt need.

Various organizations have been handicapped for years in having no place for meetings and in not having an auditorium large enough to take care of large crowds or any kind of conventions—having to use the basements of the churches, etc., for such gatherings.

Now, members of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars are considering pooling their resources and erecting a memorial building to the World War veterans, instead of each organization having a building of its own. And in the preliminary consideration, these organizations are looking toward a real community-wide building that can be used by theirs and other organizations, with facilities to take care of various community activities and provide an auditorium of large capacity for use on special occasions.

In addition, the temporary plans call for plenty of room for recreation, a place for the young folks to meet and enjoy themselves, rather than have them seek various places that are not properly sponsored for such amusements.

The Democrat has at various times called attention to the great need for a community building, and goes on record here and now as favoring the tentative plans of the two veterans organizations and bespeak for such a movement the hearty cooperation of the entire citizenship. We hope the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars will ask the various organizations of the community, such as the Chamber of Commerce, the Rotary and Lions clubs, the Business and Professional Women's Club, the churches, study clubs, sewing clubs, the county officials and the city officials, as well as individuals to take part in a material way in the movement to erect a living and lasting memorial to dead and living veterans of the World Wars.

THE GREATEST FORCE FOR PEACE IS THE MEN WHO FOUGHT IN WAR

WHO HATES WAR MOST?

... naturally, the men who lived amid its horrors day after day, the men who saw for themselves what this madness of mankind does. Do you think they want to go through another and more horrible Atomic War which would mean the end of all civilization?

... let's wake up, America! Let's realize that our greatest force for peace is the men who fought in war—World Wars I and II—the men in this mighty organization of overseas veterans who today... now, in 1946... are working against war, for peace, for your country!

Communication Station
 Word was received by B. L. Hurst from the C. A. A. office in Fort Worth that the Clarendon Airway Communication Station was on the de-commissioned list which was brought about by the new government economy plan. The letter did not specify any date that the local station would be closed down, but according to information regarding other places, it is probable that it will be closed around the first of the year.—The Donley County Leader.

McLean Community Hospital
 Charter for the McLean Community Hospital has been received and those who have been pushing the movement intend to complete the membership campaign as soon as possible. Plans now call for setting aside one day immediately following January 1 to be designated as Hospital Day. A membership drive was held several months ago, when a large number either paid their membership fee of $50, or pledged to pay that amount. Now that the charter has been received, the legal part of the proposed hospital, which would be a cooperative non-profit organization, is completed. It is believed that about 1,000 members can be obtained in McLean and the surrounding areas.—The McLean News.

Prospects Bright
 Prospects for a good wheat crop in Ochiltree County and surrounding territory in 1947 are very bright, according to a report recently released by A. W. Erickson, noted crop forecaster and expert in agricultural conditions. On a tour of inspection of wheat fields in this area, Erickson found deep moisture penetration and varying degrees of leaf rust.

Music and Digestion
 If it is true that sweet music aids digestion, then the students and faculty of Perryton High School can dismiss all thoughts of stomach ulcers. The reason—a new record player and speaker has been recently installed in the school cafeteria. The music maker was purchased at a cost of $52.50, and each club and organization in high school has pledged to share the purchase price.—Ochiltree County Herald.

Our Future Senators
 Within the next few years it is probable that Texas will have two new senators. A recent poll showed that Gov. Coke Stevenson would have a good opportunity to be elected in 1948 to succeed W. Lee O'Daniel.

Sen. Tom Connally, who was elected for his fourth term the other day, will be 75 years old at the close of 24 years in the Senate.

When the State Democratic Committee met in Corsicana the other day, Myron Blalock, Democratic national committeeman from Texas, predicted that greater honors would be obtained by governor-elect Beauford H. Jester after he had served four years as governor.

That interpretation would mean

only the position of United States senator and his election in 1952 to succeed Senator Connally, who may not choose to run at that time.—Panhandle Herald.

BOYCE HOUSE
 "Gives You Texas"

Employment for all, high wages, low prices, no shortages, lower taxes, and no strikes—these are what the Republicans promised. Let us hope that these promises won't be like "two cars in every garage" and "a chicken in every pot."

1946 will be remembered as the year of hardships—when people paid $300 for a $4.80 ticket to the Notre Dame-Army game and Texas sportsmen chartered planes to fly to North Dakota to hunt pheasants.

The Austin dynasty may talk about "Washington wastefulness" but Austin itself reached an all-time low in stupidity and incompetence when it ordered a special election on one constitutional amendment for two days after the national election. The voters were so disgusted that only about 80,000 out of 1,500,000 took the trouble to vote in the unnecessary election, which cost the taxpayers a mere $220,000.

When Mark Twain got mad, he was a mighty good, free-handed cussier. His wife tried repeatedly to break him of the habit and at last one day she broke out in a

This Week in WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Despite the fact that President Truman has repeatedly declared that he would not call a special session of the congress, there is serious talk here now, since the John L. Lewis challenge to government, of a special session of the lame duck congress before January 1 to deal decisively with the labor situation.

That labor leaders are thinking in the wrong direction is evidenced by the quick assurances of William Green, president of the A. F. of L., and Phil Murray, president of the CIO that they will back Lewis in his czaristic stand to wreck the nation's economy. The further fact that the CIO national convention at Atlantic city voted for a $12,000,000 strike fund gives credence to the rumor that this whole labor mess may wind up in a general strike before the new 80th Congress can organize and get in shape to pass restrictive labor legislation.

Already there is talk of sympathy strikes, of demand for higher wages, and the inclination in the minds of present-day labor leaders is to join hands with Lewis in his desperate venture of defiance against government and against overwhelming public opinion.

The labor leaders profess to see, in use of the injunction, a violation of the Norris-LaGuardia act. However, this is no mere dispute between labor and management over wages and conditions of employment. The government took over the mines months ago when it was imperative to the economic life of the nation to continue production of coal. It made the extreme concession to the miners to negotiate a contract for fair wages and working conditions. That contract has now been terminated by Lewis, against the government contention that it is still in force and that Lewis has no authority to end it. It is the same contract which Lewis declared was one of the greatest achievements in union history. Under it the average miner is today making $62 per week and he can make as high as $70 and he is building up a welfare fund which already totals millions of dollars from a five cents a ton royalty on coal.

On the other side of the fence, there is merit in the demands of union labor for wage increases. For the spiral of living costs continues upward and no one in authority, no prediction or promise made by those who control living costs in the National Association of Manufacturers or other large business organizations in the "free enterprise system" holding down prices has been able to control living costs in the same way. Prices on meat and other food commodities which were under OPA control have steadily spiraled since controls were lifted. And there is indication at this time of any more lifting off on living prices. Bureau of labor statistics, as announced by Labor Secretary Schwelienbach, indicates that cost of living has gone up 14 percent while real weekly earnings of factory workers has declined 16.6 percent during the same period... April 1945 to September 1946.

During this crisis in labor relations a bit of real labor statecraft has come to light in the contract signed between the Sinclair Oil companies and CIO Oil Workers union, rivals of John L. Lewis's miners in the fuel field. Facing the problem of adjusting wages to living costs they agreed to measure changes in rates of pay by changes in prices of things the workers must buy. They agreed that the rate of pay an hour fixed a year ago was fair but since last year's contract was signed the cost of living has spiraled upwards. Consequently the contract begins with a 12% percentage boost in wage rates, roughly approximating the increase in living costs but to protect both parties to the contract against fluctuations, they agreed to review the contract every three months. If the BLS cost of living has moved up as much as three points, wage rates will be adjusted accordingly, and if the index goes down, wage rates will be trimmed in proportion, but in no circumstances will the rate of pay be decreased below the basic figure of $1.40 an hour in the old contract. This contract is what labor experts here call a rational pattern. And not the least of the advantages to be gained in that contract is the avoidance of strikes.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

- 1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "war" to come.
- 2 Started 3 days before "your time," it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

Production Is High! Demand Is Higher For The Tire That OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES

The new B. F. Goodrich Silvertown has made such a hit with car owners that they're telling all their friends! That's why we have been so busy taking orders from eager motorists who insist on getting the tire that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES.

They are convinced that the wider, flatter tread—which puts more rubber on the road—wears more evenly and lasts longer than the treads of wartime or prewar tires.

The tire body was redesigned and engineered to take this more rugged tread by using sturdier cords and more of them. It's 35% longer, and is better able to resist road shocks and bruises.

For cars, and new cars—in all types of service—all will get better mileage with this new tire. When you see it, you'll say, "That's for me!" That's why we say... order now for earliest delivery. If your needs are immediate, see us anyhow... we'll do our best to keep you rolling.
