Hall Farmers Apply Poison, Combat Hopper Infestation

Truck Crashes Into Combine Near Salisbury

Two Electra men were slightly injured Wednesday afternoon when driving a loaded wheat truck...

Grasshoppers descended on Hall County crops this week in a determined manner...

Weather

Temperatures for the past few days have been much cooler than last week...

County Agent W. B. Hooser emphasized that poison was available, and asked farmers needing poison to control the hopper infestation to come by his office...

The mixture being used is composed of 100 pounds of bran, 49 pounds of peanut hulls, 16 pounds of sodium flusulfate, and 25 gallons of water...

Hooser stated that care must be used in mixing and using the poison, both for safety and for best results.

Hoppers do not start feeding until about 9 o'clock in the morning, Hooser said, and the poison should not be put out the night before, but early in the morning...

He said the poison should be applied around turn rows and fence rows, and that farmers should circle the field with the poison. The hoppers usually hibernate in fence rows...

It was emphasized that poison should be applied lightly, as in hand-sowing wheat. It only takes a flake to kill the hopper, and if a heavy quantity is applied it becomes a danger to all other animals...

Maverick Athletes Will Perform Here

Cal Farley, president of Boy's Ranch at Tascosa, told chamber of commerce manager Pat Flynn Tuesday the Mavericks Tamponline artists, tumblers, and other athletes would definitely be here for the Cotton Carnival October 3 and 4...

The Tamponline stars are state champions. The tumblers have never met their equal in more than five years of competition, the report said.

"How many cotton burrs do I have to have behind my ears to be eligible to attend the carnival?" wisecracked Farley. When told two burrs would qualify him, he said he found that many at Rotary luncheon and would be here in full glory.

Those who have not brought in water samples are also urged to do so at once, delivering the gallon jugs to County Agent W. B. Hooser. Certificates of the analysis will be given each person submitting water samples, Hooser said.

No Fire Sunday, Just Testing

The populace turned out for what seemed to be a major fire about 8:30 Sunday evening as a black pall of smoke drifted into town from the northeast. The fire, which seemed to most observers to be in the north outskirts of town from the heavy smoke, was a test fire on an oil pipeline about 15 miles from the city, according to reports received Monday.

CAL FARLEY TALKS TO SALISBURY CLUB MEMBERS, GUESTS TUESDAY

Around 50 Salisbury Sewing Club members and guests from nearby communities heard Cal Farley give a talk on youth problems at the home of Mrs. Ernest Lee Tuesday afternoon. He visited Rotarians in Memphis at noon Tuesday.

Farley brought with him three boys from Boy's Ranch, who were introduced to all the guests.

"If people have labeled certain parents in the community as 'no good,' they often think of their children as 'no good.' There are some adults who fit this description in every community, people who just sit and wait for nothing and who have no life plan."

TAXATION AND MONOPLY

When Congress finally gets down to cases on what is to be done about government expenditures, the national debt and taxation it should look squarely at this grim fact: the small and medium-sized enterprise is taking the worst beating under present tax policy.

The big business, with reserves of capital built up over many years, is better able to look out for itself. But the small business, with its current tax burdens, cannot obtain and keep the wherewithal necessary to rapid expansion. Money that, in past times, would have gone for new plants, new developments, new employment, now goes to the tax collector.

Senator Cordon of Oregon put the issue well when he said that, once we make it impossible for the small concern to progress and reach its proper place in the economic sun, we are paving the way for monopoly. And monopoly is the surest road known to socialism—with its destruction of all traditional American freedoms.

The structure must be revised to permit all enterprise to grow, to compete, and to become big if it has the capabilities. That is the way this nation was built. That is the way we became the world's greatest and richest power in a century and a half. A tax system which says, in effect, "small business must remain small," will prove ruinous to all.

QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

Handy Bills

It's a pity that $2 bills are so scarce these days. They'd come in so handy for buying a dollar's worth of almost anything.—Groom News.

Small Talk

There isn't much to see in a small town, but what you hear makes up for it.—Groom News.

Photo Contest

The contest sponsored by the chamber of commerce in Swisher County, for the best pictures of any phase of the 1947 harvest, will be open until the first of August. It is the belief of that organization that too little public interest is being taken in this event and it urges anyone who can take a picture to send it in for a chance at the prizes.—The Happy Herald.

No Typhoid

In an effort to suppress an unfounded rumor that has been circulated in Shamrock recently, Dr. Howard Y. Sigler, city health officer, this week issued a statement that the city water is not contaminated with typhoid germs.

Cash in Crowell

Deposits in the Crowell State Bank reached the $4,000,000 mark during the harvest season, according to information released by officials of the bank. This amount exceeds by far any amount of money on deposit in the history of the banking business in Crowell. It was also reported that loans were at a low level.—The Foard County News.

Motley Hoppers

Hoppers, traditional foe of West Texas farmers, are moving vast armies out of the drying pasture lands to the more succulent fields of row crops, but countless thousands are perishing as Motley farmers battle with great quantities of poison, according to County Agent J. Rufus Emmons. Within the past ten days 14 farmers secured more than 8,000 pounds of poison bran.—Matador Tribune.

Wheat Thieves

The estimated million to million and a half bushels of wheat piled on the ground near Floydada has started an epidemic of grain thefts, according to Deputy Sheriff Howard E. Whittaker. Unprotected grain has been loaded into trucks and carted away by brazen thieves who pay frequent visits to lots and driveways where the wheat is stored.—Ochiltree County Herald.

There are those who scoff at sentiment, saying it is unnecessary. Perhaps they are correct, technically.

The world could get along without circuses but the heart of boyhood would miss something. And the world could do without music; and buildings could be flat surfaces and blank walls and straight lines; ornamentation is not necessary. And we could do without paintings and statues.

By the same cold reasoning, we could do without dogs, too.

But why, may I ask these practical individuals?—Why do birds sing and why do flowers have a hundred colors and why are the wings of butterflies dusted with gold and why do the stars glitter

Kidneys Must Work Well—

For You To Feel Well

24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood. If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly.

Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling. Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulates the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.

DOAN'S PILLS

with silver fire? Could it be that nature is wiser than these gentlemen?

For is it not true that man does not live by bread alone?

There is need for beauty in the world and the man who, having eyes, sees it not is a pauper though he has millions.

Thoughts of the old home, of school days, of loving deeds of friends, all these we treasure; ideals, the little church in the dale and the old songs, the memories of mother and dad, these are sacred; and the hope of a happier life when this brief span is over—sentiment, you say? Yes, but who could live, who would want to live, without these treasures?

Sentiment is to the heart what springtime is to the earth.

This Week in WASHINGTON

WITH the tax reduction and labor bills out of the way, bitter controversy was touched off in the house when Cong. Albert Gore of Tennessee charged that GOP reductions in appropriations totaled only $1,876,716,750 in contrast to the house goal of six billion dollars and the senate goal of $4,500,000,000. The Gore denunciation of the GOP promised appropriations reduction brought forth a vigorous denial by Congr. John Taber of New York and a defense of what Gore termed "phony" budget cuts.

"The truth is," Congressman Gore thundered, "the purely phony cuts or claims of reductions exceed the real cuts in the budget by nearly a billion dollars." The Tennessean then proceeded to "post the scoreboard."

The first chart showed what he termed were real cuts in appropriations made by the GOP leadership and included treasury and postoffice, $97,072,750; labor and federal security, $28,825,520; government corporations, $14,847,077; agriculture department, $343,427,742; war department, $435,809,077; navy department, $377,519,200; state, commerce and judicial departments, $159,645,031; interior department, $161,413,513; independent offices, $175,240,732. Total, $1,876,716,750.

The second chart presented by Representative Gore showed what he termed were "phony cuts" amounting to $2,649,150,000 and including postponement of tax refunds, $800,000,000; additional revenue from ship sales, $505,075,000; downward revision of budget by the President, $291,075,000; treasury cancellation of CCC notes, $642,000,000; abolishing maritime commission revolving fund, $108,000,000; atomic energy commission, part year appropriation, $75,000,000; contract authorization instead of appropriations for veterans hospitals, $30,300,000; substitution of contract authorizations for money already appropriated $50,000,000; deferral of appropriations for veterans pensions, $50,000,000; contract authorization substitute for appropriation for Hill-Burton hospital program, $50,000,000; UNRRA, $47,700,000.

The $800,000,000 asked for tax refunds will have to be repaid if tax refunds amount to that sum. If appropriated and not needed it would have remained in the treasury and could not be counted as an expenditure. The $505,000,000 for ship sales, claimed as a saving, money expected from maritime commission into the treasury it spent. Treasury cancellations amounting to $500,000,000 affect expenditures in It is merely a bookkeeping

The $105,000,000 in mission revolving fund ready in the government committee merely from the maritime commission in the budget.

*WHO WILL RUN THE NATION'S LARGEST BUSINESSES IN 1974?

YOUNG MEN back from war wonder about the country's future and their own future. What will they be doing 27 years from now?

The 143 top men who manage 50 of the nation's largest businesses can help answer that one.

Twenty-seven years ago, most of them came back from a war, too.

All of them, after the war or before, began their business careers at the bottom.

One started work for $1.50 a week—11 others for less than $5 a week. 43 others started work for less than $10 a week.

Eighty-one others received between $10 and $25 a week. Only 7 received more than $25—the highest getting paid $69.23 a week.

The average first wage of all 143 was $13.40 a week.

Who will manage the nation's largest businesses in 1974? Exactly the same kind of men.

Then, as now, they will be leaders with courage, ambition and initiative enough to come up the business ladder, rung by rung.

Neither the men and women in industry nor the money in industry can be effective without good management. Nothing else is so important to the workers' welfare, the investors' welfare, or the public welfare.

In an attractive home setting, Miss Louise Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Williams of the Salisbury community, and G. C. Baskerville, son of Mrs. Emma Baskerville of Memphis, were united in marriage Sunday, July 6, in the home of the bride's parents.

Rev. C. C. Armstrong, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Memphis, read the double-ring service before the fireplace which was decorated with a huge fan of white gladioli flanked by candelabra bearing lighted white tapers and baskets of white gladioli. G. W. Williams, brother of the bride, lighted the candles.

A background of piano music throughout the entire ceremony was provided by Mrs. Conley Ward.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a snow white faille dressmaker suit fashioned with a long peplum and tiny self-covered buttons down the front of the jacket. Immediately following the ceremony, the bridal party was honored with a buffet supper. The bride's table was covered with a white damask cloth and centered with white candles and an arrangement of yellow canna lilies. The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated in yellow and green and topped with a miniature bride and groom.

The bride wore a tailored black suit and a white hand-painted blouse as she and the groom left for a week's wedding trip to Colorado.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. Charles Champion of Vernon, sister of the groom, two of the bride's brothers, G. W. Williams, S. J. C., and C. A. Williams Jr. and family of Lubbock; and Mr. and Mrs. Olin Bain and son Olin Jr. of Clarendon. Mrs. Bain is a sister of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Webb and daughter Donna returned from a two weeks vacation Wednesday evening. They visited with friends and relatives in Kaufman, Terrell, and Dallas. They went through the Carlsbad Caverns, and visited at several places in California.

Double 4-H Club Awards In Meat Animal Program

Sectional awards in the National 4-H meat animal program have been doubled this year, the national committee on boys and girls club work has announced.

As a result, the two highest scoring state winners in this Southern extension section will each receive an educational trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago next December. Previously only one state winner in each of the four extension sections was awarded the trip.

The county, state, and national awards of medals, gold watches, and $200 scholarships, respectively, provided by Thomas E. Wilson, Chicago meat packer, remain the same. This is the eighteenth consecutive year of the activity, which is conducted under the direction of the federal and state extension services.

School Band News

(By Reporter)

The Memphis High School Band attended the rodeo at Clarendon on the Fourth of July. Fifty-four "A" band members made the trip. A good time by all was reported.

Students on the high school "A" band honor roll for the past two weeks are as follows: Jan Monzingo, Shirley Foster, Leota Sturdevant, Peggy Mitchell, Diane Meacham, Dorothy Deaver, and Margaret Ann Massey.

Mechanized farming has enabled United States farmers to produce a third more with 10 per cent less total labor than during World War I.

Livestock And Crop Round-Up (NCPA Service)

(NCPA Service)

Current production of two of the world's leading fibers—cotton and wool—is small. The 1946 world cotton crop was the lowest in 23 years, and stocks of cotton on hand at the beginning of the 1947 season are very low, especially in the United States. World wool production for 1947 is expected to be the smallest since 1935; wool stocks, however, are still unusually large although 10 per cent smaller than a year ago.

Nearly one and one-half billion acres of land in the United States are used for crop and livestock production. With 260 million acres in timber, land in crops, pasture, and timber accounts for about 90 per cent of the nation's land area.

Census figures show more Southern farmers owning farms, with the number of tenants the smallest in half a century. From 1940 to 1945, the number of owner-operated farms increased 10 per cent in 16 Southern states.

Grain sorghums equalled corn in feeding value in three years of tests at the Fort Hays, Kans., experiment station. Fattening steers fed grain sorghums showed no significant difference in amount of gain, selling price, dressing percentage and carcass grades from those fed straight corn in the grain ration. Sorghum-fed steers showed a slight advantage in cost of feed per 100 pounds of gain. All steers received 11-2 pounds of cottonseed meal daily to supply needed protein.

Total meat production of 23 billion pounds in 1947 is expected to be about the same as last year, and the fourth largest on record.

Concentrated feeds are especially important for pigs because the mature pig has a stomach with a capacity of only about 8 quarts, compared with a total capacity of over 250 quarts in the four-fold stomach of the mature cow, Fred Hale, Texas Experiment Station, points out.

Recent research has not unlocked all of the secrets of cotton quality, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture, "but much has been done to improve the quality of the world's dominant fiber, to utilize more effectively varying fiber properties, and to improve the competitive position of American cotton."

Americans today eat less grain products and potatoes, more fruits, vegetables, and dairy products and about the same amount of fats and meats, figures for 1945 compared with 1910 show.

Cottonseed ranks among the first ten crops of the United States as a source of agricultural income, and usually ranks third, exceeded only by lint cotton and tobacco, in the South. During the period, 1940-44, the farm value of cottonseed averaged 222 million dollars annually.

Quality Of Hall Hogs Is On Upgrade

The quality of hogs being raised in Hall County by 4-H Club members is being recognized, and even better quality is insured for the future, according to county agent W. B. Hooser.

A check is being mailed this week in payment for a boar raised by 4-H Club member Marshall D. Ellis of Plaska for use by Baylor County club members in the Sears-Roebuck 4-H awards program, according to a letter received Tuesday by Hooser from O. K. Hoyle of Seymour, Baylor County agent.

Hall County club members are raising a boar for use next year that is expected to improve the quality of hogs raised here. The boar is from a sow, under the care of Harold Rumpy of Lakeview, said by Fred Hale of College Station to be the "best gilt he had ever judged." The sow was named grand champion at Amarillo, and was also featured in the "Duroc Journal."

Cotton Council, Chemurgic Council, and state college officials in relation to bringing scores of exhibits here for the celebration are James F. Smith, R. C. Lemons, Wendell Harrison, Doyle Bunch, W. B. Hooser, M. C. Allen, and Pat Flynn. Harrison is chairman of the exhibits committee. More than 100 organizations and manufacturers have reserved exhibit space to date, it is reported.

Haskell Howell, concessions chairman, announced this week the deadline for exclusive local concessions would close July 17. "After this date," he said, "it will be first come, first served in allotting concessions." Several nationally known concession firms have asked to bid on carnival space.

Currently the entertainment program calls for athletic shows, wrestling matches, football game, a rodeo, stage revues, carnival attractions, queen's coronation, parades, exhibits, noted speakers, Gov. Beauford H. Jester, a host of state officials, dignitaries, and celebrities. Many other events such as street shows, musical concerts, street dances, and similar mardi gras events are being scheduled to guarantee 48 hours of good entertainment.

Queen nominations are in order as Hall County chooses a girl to be host to visiting queens of the region. Nominations close July 31. Those nominated will be published in The Democrat and voting will be continued through August. Everyone may vote for the queen of their choice. The one winning the most votes will be Miss Memphis and official hostess for the regal court.

Flynn said the National Flag and Decorating Corporation has asked for rights to decorate Memphis for the Cotton Carnival, October 3-4, and at least two major theatrical circuits have asked for rights to present elaborate stage productions here October 3-4 at the Cotton Carnival.

The Ranch accomplished this, in part, by a system of reward promotions, as the boy develops his willingness to try. The boys first live in barracks. They then have the opportunity to be promoted to "section leader," or supervisor over a few other boys as they carry out various tasks. From there the boys have the chance to move into a room, shared by two boys, instead of the communal barrack. After a period here, the boy may be selected to live in one of the homes on the Ranch, with a supervisor or instructor and his wife. Here the boy is given a real home life and gets used to a higher standard of living.

NINTH INNING RUN EDGES SAYRE, OKLAHOMA HERE SATURDAY 11 to 10

With the score tied 10-10 after the first of the ninth inning Herschel Stewart belted one deep into center field to bring in Keller for the winning run and a 11 to 10 score over Sayre, Okla., here Saturday night.

Stewart had singled, struck out, doubled three times, then singled, to make five hits for six times up. Trailing his performance was McKnight, with a double and two singles for four times at bat.

The Memphis team, after a 5-5 tie at the end of the fifth, scored three men in the sixth to set a 8-5 lead that held until the first of the eighth, when the visitors rapped in four runs on three hits and a sacrifice bunt, giving them a 9-8 lead. Then Stewart's double brought in McKnight and Davis to put the Memphians in front by one tally. Sayre tied it up again in the first of the ninth when Reid came in on pitcher Estes' single.

In the final frame Keller doubled, then Estes walked his seventh man of the game, this time intentionally, as McKnight came to the plate. After having hit a heavy single to right field at the last time at bat, Davis struck out. Then slugger Stewart polished off a pitch into an unused section of deep center, and Keller came on in.

Parker, who pitched until the first of the eighth, gave up five hits and five runs; Hoover took over and allowed six hits and five runs.

In the schedule for Sunday, only one game promises to be close: Childress vs. Quannah, with the edge probably going to Quannah. Wellington should not give Mobettie much of a work out; Clarendon has a chance to get in the win column with Quail Sunday, but their luck will probably continue consistent. Memphis will have the edge when they go to Kirkland Sunday.

O. B. Smith Is Golf Medalist At Vernon Tourney

O. B. Smith took medalist honors at the Hill Crest Invitation Golf Tourney held at Vernon last week-end when he shot a qualifying score of 69, one under par. He was defeated in his first match and went to the semi-finals in consolation play.

James F. Smith made the chamreflex of several more. His inside curve was good, but he couldn't control it. Keller expresses the opinion that the side-arm pitch should go the way of the spitball: out of baseball.

Herschel Stewart and Hank McKnight turned in a fine performance at bat Saturday night. Stewart with 5 for 6, and McKnight with 3 for 4. Parker's batting has been on the upswing recently. He hit 1 for 3 during the same game, but at the contest with Pampa here on the 28th he hit 3 for 5, including 2 singles and a home run.

North All-Stars Rap Southerners At Childress

The northern all-stars of the Red River Valley League defeated the southern all-stars 5 to 3 before one of the largest crowds of the season at Childress on the Fourth in a three-run seventh inning rally.

Mobettie players sparked the northern stars as they provided the winning pitcher, Milton Deason, the day's leading hitter, Glen Elmore, who collected four for

Winning 4-H Essay

Editor's Note: This is the ninth in a series of prize-winning 4-H essays, from the contest conducted in the county recently. Weldon Fowler of Route 2, Memphis, wrote the following paper on "Diversified Farming."

Diversified farming is one great way in building up our land today.

Farming people should do all they possibly can to keep their farming land in a condition to produce more to the acre year after year.

It is hundreds of acres of land that is almost worn out by planting the same crop on it year after year.

Every farmer in America should carry on a system of diversified farming. They should diversify each crop, every year.

Plant the kind of crop that is suitable to the land, for we have many different types of soil. On your poorest land there should be planted some kind of crop to be left on the land to help build up the soil, and also fertilizer is a great help. It is best to find out just what kind of fertilizer your land needs. You may find out by sending a small amount of it to College Station and they will let you know what minerals your land needs.

Terracing is another land builder. Keeping your terraces built up and your crops contoured will keep the land from washing away and will hold the water to benefit the crops later. The better care we give our land will be better for us and other people it will help that do not live on the farm. By keeping up our farming land it will produce more and will bring in more profit to build better farm homes, better barns and sheds for our stock and poultry, and they should have protection from the cold wet weather in winter.

So by keeping our land producing more and more to the acre, and with the cow, hog, and hen plan the world should never go hungry.

The growth and development of plants is influenced by climate, diseases, insects, soil structure, soil texture, fertility, and the acidity or alkalinity of the soil.

Nine Gliders Over Municipal Airport Here on Tuesday

Nine gliders from the Wichita Falls soaring meet appeared over Memphis Tuesday afternoon, and one of them landed at the municipal airport where many citizens looked over the strange craft. It was piloted by Paul Tuntland of California, who brought his Ross Ranger II into a smooth landing about 4 p. m., having flown the 140 miles from Wichita Falls in four hours.

Tuntland did all the gliding scenes in the recent motion picture, "Gallant Journey," he told a Democrat reporter. His single-seated machine was nothing more than an elongated cylinder with wings.

Eight other planes circled over the airport, but kept going to the northwest. They soared like buzzards, slowly and without apparent effort, circling and gliding, and Tuntland said the birds knew how to take advantage of the upward currents of warm air—thermals. They smelled the thermals out as they went. The pilots of man-made gliders have to use mechanical devices to locate the thermals. To the uninitiated, the impossible happens when men can fly for hours without motor power of any kind.

Plane Distributors Visit Here Tuesday

W. L. Pope and George Coles, representatives of Bellanca Aircraft Corporation, were Memphis visitors Tuesday. They conferred with Ed Foxhall relative to distribution of the popular plane for this area.

Pope is associated with Weatherly-Campbell Aircraft Corporation, Dallas, distributors for Texas. Coles is factory representative from Newcastle, N. Y.

Weatherly-Campbell has promised to have planes here for the municipal airport dedication, July 26, and again for the Cotton Carnival October 3 and 4.

McKown Reviews Re-Seeding Work In Hall County

"With choice fat steers selling for over $20 per hundred, it doesn't take a mathematician to see that Sand Love Grass could be worth approximately $25 per acre. This is pretty good revenue from cropland which is no longer suitable for profitable cropping." That was the way Lynn McKown expressed it in his address, "Re-seeding Croplands to Permanent Pasture," given over KCTX at 9 o'clock Saturday morning.

McKown said that of all grasses the AAA and Soil Conservation Service have introduced to Hall County, Weeping Love Grass has probably shown the most promise. He said it was an imported grass, being introduced from East Africa by the Bureau of Plant Industry in the late twenties.

Of the grasses adapted to fall seeding, McKown said, crested wheat and Western wheat grass are the most promising. Last winter cattle at the Woodward station grazed on Western wheat grass made gains of 158 pounds per head as compared with 96 pounds per head for cattle grazed continuously on native range, he revealed.

"The man who has done most for the development of a grass re-seeding program in Hall County is J. G. Gould, range conservationist for the local Soil Conservation Service work unit," McKown stated. "Gould has personally supervised the seeding of over 500 acres of grass on 34 farms, and has cooperated with the AAA in every phase of our program."

"The cancerous growth of an abandoned or denuded field may well be the beginning of another dust bowl. We have been favored with a series of wet years, and the high prices of the war years have encouraged the expanding and overcropping of fields that, under normal conditions would have re-seeded themselves to native pasture. But our own experience tells us that this cycle of wet years and high prices is nearing its end, and only through proper management of our cropland can we prevent a recurrence of the black duster of the thirties."
