It's A Bad Day For Road Hogs, Garrison Says

By COL. HOMER GARRISON
Director

Department of Public Safety
The new Texas traffic law, which went into effect September 5, will make things rough for those people who think they are the only ones on the road.

The person who drives up in the middle of the road, or wanders from one side to the other, will now be liable to arrest. So will the person who passes one vehicle when another is coming to meet him.

A driver must stay on the right except when passing, when driving on a one-way thoroughfare, or when the right side of the road is blocked.

The middle lane of a three-lane highway is to be used only for passing and for making left turns, and then only when nobody is using it from the other direction.

One vehicle may not pass another when they are at, or approaching, an intersection or railroad crossing; when approaching a bridge, viaduct, or tunnel; or when in a designated No Passing zone, marked by a broken stripe or any other means.

The question of right-of-way is clearly defined in the new law. The vehicle that gets into an intersection first has the right-of-way. If two vehicles get there at the same time, the one on the right has the right-of-way. In other words, if the other car is on your right, you must let it go ahead. If the other car is on your left, it should let you go ahead.

When you are making a left turn at an intersection, you must not cut in front of other vehicles

BETTY AND TED LAMB, sensational girl riders and ropers of the rodeo world, will be one of the feature attractions at the Memphis Stampede Oct. 2-4. Residents of Dallas, the Lamb sisters have been stellar attractions at the nation's largest rodeos this year and their Memphis appearance will be their last before going to Madison Square Garden in late October.

so as to create a hazard. But you may turn ahead of opposing traffic after you have signalled for your turn and let the cars by that are in, or right at, the intersection.

Observance of rural stop signs — whether on highways or county roads — has never been enforced, because the old law did not actually make it a violation to run a rural stop sign. But it's a different story under the new law.

Those stop signs now mean STOP. Furthermore, after stopping, you must be careful not to start up again in such a way as to interfere with other traffic, thereby creating a hazard.

Hay-wagon turns are outlawed. To make a left turn, you must start the turn from the position nearest the center of the street or road. A right turn must be made only from the lane nearest the right side of the street or road. Turns should be short, not on a wide angle such as one must make when he's driving a hay-wagon with a double span of horses.

Definite signals must be given before a driver turns, slows down, or stops.

Most of us will use the prescribed hand-and-arm signals. But buses and trucks will have to be equipped with electrical or mechanical signalling devices if they are built so that hand-and-arm signals cannot readily be seen. Owners of farm trucks with wide, blind bodies or narrow cabs should check up on this matter right away.

Hand and arm signals are given in this manner: the hand and arm are extended out and up for a right turn; straight out and pointing to the left for a left turn; and out and down toward the ground for slow or stop.

THE SLEEPING SPHINX

By John Dickson Carr

A mystery. When Major Sir Donald Holden returned to the house on Regent's park, where he expected to find all the people he liked best, he knew that things would be changed. He had been away from his friends for seven years, and there were reasons why he had been blotted out of their lives. He returned to find his closest friend in the arms of a 19-year-old girl and to hear that a beautiful woman had died from what the doctor insisted were natural causes. But Donald feared the death was not a natural one, a fear that was enhanced when the dead themselves refused to rest quietly, and tormented the living.

GENTLEMAN'S AGREEMENT

By Laura Z. Hobson

Philip Schvyler Green came to New York as a staff writer for a great liberal weekly. He had made a name for himself with his articles on coal miners and Okies. Now, the editor of Smith's Magazine had given him, as his first assignment, the problem of writing a series of articles on anti-semitism.

Gentleman's Agreement is the story of what happened to Phil Green on his assignment. How he searched for an "angle," how he found it, how he met certain situations that no other non-Jew had ever met. Above all, it is the story of how his assignment changed his life and presented him with the dramatic conflict between his conscience and the woman he loved.

THE WALL BETWEEN

By Elsie Oakes Barber

This is the love story of attractive and earnest, but very human Mark Gardner, the pastor of a church on the edge of a Connecticut city slum, and of his gay, rich wife, Christy.

Mrs. Barber has the true novelist's flair for telling a good story.
In "The Wall Between," her theme is a universal one—that of two people's adjustment to the problems of marriage.

THE WEB OF LUCIFER

By Maurice Samuel

Alfred Knopf says, "This I think will most certainly be re-distinguished novels." Mr. Samuel tells a story of love, hope, deceit, and idealism at war with craft and brute power. Told against a turbulent and compelling background.

BEHIND THE SHOW WINDOW

By Jeanette Eaton

This is a panorama of the most essential things we buy, where they come from, how they get in the show window, and the process that determines their cost to us.

These chapters on foods, textiles, clothing, automobiles, etc., are like a great motion picture which shows us oranges growing in California, vast shipments of coffee beans from South America, electric bottles at our own doorstep. Miss Eaton spent two years of research in preparation for this book and visited many industrial centers.

THE STORY OF MRS. MURPHY

By Natalie Anderson Scott

Written in the tradition of great novelists "The Story of Mrs. Murphy" is a rich full-blooded novel, the minute examination of a family and its relationship to the rest of the world.

SEPARATE STAR

as the value of her chosen profession. She is confronted with the trials that beset many a young teacher imbued with the ideals and theories of teaching, but not quite prepared for the complexity of the problems. How she succeeds in creating a community spirit of cooperation and interest among the townspeople is the story of "Separate Star."

THE LITTLE ISLAND

By Golden MacDonald

There was a little island in the ocean, and this book is about how it was on that island, how the seasons and a storm and the day and night changed it. Children will love this newest book by Golden MacDonald, a winner of the Coldecot Medal in 1946.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnson of Wichita, Kans., are here visiting her mother, Mrs. Anna Stone, this

Childress Lions Veto New Skirts

Women would never lengthen
skirts if the Childress Lions Club had its way. At least the Lions so voted their objections in a public debate Tuesday at their regular luncheon.

Two lovely models were introduced to club members before the debate was launched. One showed current styles with the skirt hem-line 14 inches above the floor.
The other model presented the old style with hem line 18 inches high.

Then the debating began with one side contending women must have new wardrobes to remain happy; the defense claiming the added materials may rob some people of clothes, not to mention
an economic crisis among husbands. Pro and con the debate continued.

Visiting Memphis Lions Ben

Wilson Jr., Doyle Bunch, and Pat
Flynn, were appointed judges.

While a split-decision was rendered, Flynn and Bunch gave a majority verdict in favor of not only the 18-inch hem-line as in the past but recommended a 26-inch height as being "what America wants."

Wilson said the reason he favored the new styles was "I still like to use my imagination."

Hall 4-H Club Work Recognized At State Meeting

Four-H Club members and county agents had three days of intensive discussion and practical demonstrations at the state 4-H Club Round-up at College Station Wednesday through Saturday of last week, County Agent W. B. Hooser reported Monday. Hall 4-H members shared the spotlight at the state meet.

Bruce Gibson of Turkey went through all preliminaries and semi-finals and was one of the high point men in group discussion, Hooser said.

Billy Hancock was to have made a radio address Thursday on the Farm and Home Hour, but because of conflicting schedules J. W. Potts of the extension service made the address instead. In his talk he discussed the work of Hancock and other 4-H members in Hall County and their outstanding record.

Hooser, who was a discussion leader at the meet, said the county agents' conference held in conjunction with the round-up covered a wide field of practical demonstrations. The group observed most of the latest farm equipment in operation, methods of insect control, fertilization, mechanical cotton picking and harvesting, cattle feeding demonstrations, control of cattle diseases, plane plant dusting with calcium arsenate, hay and grain drying machines, and pasture studies which included all grasses adapted to Texas, Hooser said.

Trips were made to the College Station farm for practical demonstrations, and all agricultural departments of the college and extension specialists combined to offer three full days of informative work, Hooser said.

Mrs. Gertrude McCoy of Grandview arrived Saturday for a visit with her uncle, T. J. Brock and wife. They hadn't seen each other in 40 years.

Gymnasium, main streets and vacant lots in the business area," he added.

Buster Helm, chairman of the dance committee, has announced the "Sons of the West" have been booked for the many street dances during the Carnival and added plans are now being made for the Presentation and Coronation dance for visiting queen candidates.

Street dancing will begin at 2 a. m. and continue until dawn throughout the Carnival dates, beginning Friday morning, October 3. There will also be street dances from 8 until 12 midnight Friday and Saturday evenings. A midnight stage show will fill in the two hour span between dances.

Ben Wilson Jr. is urging all talent of the area to report immediately as acts and features to fill out the "Cotton Capers" cast. Such stars as Guydelle Ekelund, Johnny West, The Magical Marvel, singers, dancers, and musicians of professional calibre will be augmented with acts from the region to balance out a gala stage show of girls, gags, and glamour.

Haskell Howell, concessions chairman, has accepted still additional duties in taking on the rodeo committee with Doc Saye as co-chairman, and has announced a complete program of outstanding events as still another Carnival attraction.

In addition to top-hands of the rodeo world competing for cash and championship points under R. C. A. sponsorship, there will be "Calgary Red," sensational slack-wire cowboy artist, Leonard Stroud, world champion trick and fancy rider and roper, the only cowboy ever to hold all eight world titles. Bill McBrayer, outstanding rodeo clown of Mangum, Okla., has been contracted for the arena's mirth.

And as an added attraction Ted and Betty Lamb, lovely riding and roping sisters of Dallas, will make their first appearance in this region as a feature attraction.

Dory Detton, Amarillo sports matchmaker, has promised the outstanding wrestling matches of the season for October 4 when a championship main event will highlight a card of the nation's outstanding grapplers.

Frank Monzingo, parade chairman, is urging all Memphis firms, organizations, and riders to register for the huge parade here October 4, featuring the governor of Texas, Will Rogers Range Riders, a host of bands and regional and local floats, hundreds of horses and riders, cowboys, cowgirls, and clowns.

Letters are being received daily relative to the Cowgirl Sponsor

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

Contest, open to any girl rider sponsored by a city, school, firm, ranch, organization, or club. Entrance fee is $10. The winner will be awarded an Ingerton saddle, tailored to fit and please the winner. The saddle has a wholesale value of $250, according to Potts Ingerton, Amarillo saddle maker. Second, third, and fourth winners will split entrance fees on the basis of $50, $30, and $20 awards.

Herbert Estes, housing chairman, said his committee would have a report on all available rooms within the next few days. Scores of letters asking for room accommodations are being received daily and all who can spare a room, bed, cot, or any type sleeping space are asked to list the accommodations at once in order assignments and confirmation may be made.

The special train from Amarillo is an assured sell-out. The tickets were placed in the hands of committee salesmen last Friday and reports from Amarillo this week indicated there just would not be room enough on the special for all those wishing accommodations and salesmen predicted the highway between Amarillo and Memphis for the Carnival would be choked with automobiles.

Above all Memphis is gaining national attention for the Carnival presentation. Dozens of letters from large cities and industrial engineering firms have been received which complimented Memphis in attempting such a unique method of exploiting natural and industrial resources of West Texas.

best booths exhibited have been posted by underwriters, The Memphis Democrat, Memphis Compress Company, First National Bank of Memphis and the First State Bank of Memphis.

Ninety-three varieties of exhibit items have been listed by agricultural officials as being possible for the nine clubs to show in agriculture produce alone.

The awards first announced as for 4-H Clubs are being made to the FFA clubs of the Green Belt region to include a wider area, and it was noted this would include a large number of 4-H members who are also members of the FFA.

To Bring Rajah To Carnival

Mason King, public relations manager for the Amarillo News-Globe, and former resident of Memphis, will be here early for the Cotton, Chemurgic, and Ceramic Carnival and is bringing Rajah, the famous white stallion familiar to all parades of consequence. King has agreed to assist Memphis Carnival officials in the presentation of events during the two-day "Mardi Gras" of West Texas.

Rajah is the horse Gov. Beauford H. Jester rode in his inaugural parade in Austin. The chief executive also rode the white stallion again in Amarillo July 4 and was quoted as saying, "I would cross Texas to ride that horse again." He will have the opportunity during his visit to Memphis, King said.

He also expressed hope individual business men, small operators, and others would submit samples of individual creations, manufactured items, and personal ideas which may be used for industrial development through Individual, Inc., an organization incorporated in America and Mexico for the purpose of distributing new inventions, creations, and items on the market.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

- 1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.
- 2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did. CARDUI

Silage Is Good Feed Insurance At Low Cost

Some of the best feed insur- ance a West Texas farmer can have is a few tons of good silage, says Bailey County Agricul- tural Agent D. W. Sherrill. The type insurance the county agent is talking about is well- il- lustrated by the eye-to-the-future policy of Herschel L. Thomason, farmer of the Pettit community, Bailey County. Last fall, Thomason bought 200 tons of hegarj from a neighbor and dug a trench silo that would hold it. Over-all cost of the silo full of good feed was $1000.

Sherrill believes that more far- mers "would do well" to plan a feed crop that will give them a silo full of insurance next fall.

This is the time to plant the cover crop such as wheat, barley, or rye. Wheat which is planted in the fall is harvested in June and that is when the farmer most needs the money that it brings. To keep the wheat from getting too tall the farmer may pasture cows and hogs on it. By the first of April, when the farmer usually takes his cows or hogs off the wheat, they will be fattened enough to bring a good price. Therefore if the farmer fails on his cotton and feed he may make it up by pasturing his wheat and also harvesting it for a money crop.

There is one thing that should be done before every crop is planted, and that is fertilizing. In some places the soil is rich enough but in others this should be done before every crop is planted. That is some of the advantages that the farmers who use diversified farming have over the one-crop man. The farmers of the United States are beginning more and

Memphis Band Will Perform At Childress Fair

The Memphis High School band is all set to take part in the Childress State Fair parade and marching demonstrations to be presented September 17, Perry Keyser, band director, said this week.

One of the outstanding features at the Childress State Fair this year will be the band marching demonstration on Wednesday night, September 17. All school children will be admitted to the fair free of charge on this day, according to an announcement from Childress.

It is expected that 12 to 15 high school bands from this area will give their marching maneuvers in the stadium on the first evening. Each band will be allowed ten minutes on the field to go through their maneuvers, and an outstanding band director will give a criticism on the marching ability of the band.

All of the high school bands will participate in the tremendous opening day parade which will get under way at 1:30 on Wednesday, September 17. The colorful high school bands with their high stepping drum majors and twirlers will make a spectacular appearance worthy of coming a hundred miles to see. The marching demonstration in the evening is a free attraction, the announcement stated.

more to realize the importance of diversified farming, yet there are still many to be convinced against "one-crop" farming.

If I should be one of the boys to win a gilt I would want to have a dry shed and I would also want to keep it cleaned out. Other things I would want, in order to make a cleaner and more healthful gilt, are a pasture, wallow, and grain bin. All the satisfactory and healthful feed that I now have on hand is combine maize, milk and scraps, but if my essay is chosen as one of the winners I am planning to build a nice shed, fence in a hog pasture, and feed my hog combine maize, shorts, scraps, milk, and green-stuff.

In this way I am sure that I could raise a gilt into a nice sized sow to the satisfaction of the 4-H Club.

fourth and fifth, the big rally in the sixth, good for 5 runs, put Memphis well out front. Mobeettie had rallied for three runs in the sixth, then three more in the eighth.

Although Memphis errors helped Mobeettie's early scoring, the infield tightened down, and only good hits by Dorman, Elmore, Deason, and Riley, along with three walks, helped late Mobeettie scoring.

Keller, on the Memphis mound, fanned 6 and walked 5. Heavy hitters were Howard Stewart, Moyer, and Watkins, with three each. Dorman fanned 1, walked 2. Deason walked 3.

Bounty for Wolf Scalps in Force

Although the $2 bounty for wolf scalps was discontinued September 1, it has been placed in effect again and will continue to September of 1948, County Judge John Russell said today, following many reports of wolves in the county.

One coyote was killed on the porch of a residence near Turkey, another was reported killed in a yard near there.

Judge Russell said the head of one of the wolves had been sent to Austin, for a rabies test. If rabies are present, then the county can secure an emergency poisoning program, Russel said.

LET'S MAKE NEXT YEAR'S Wheat Crop .100% HIGH MILLING QUALITY.

Hall County had only 81% high milling quality wheat this year, but even this record must be improved if marketing difficulties are to be avoided in the future. Penalties were imposed on poor milling quality wheat this year in several sections of the country, and it has been pointed out that once the current export program is reduced there will be no market for poor milling quality wheat.

News Events of the Day --- in Pictures

BABY SITTERS . . . With baby sitting becoming an important part of what this country needs is good baby sitters. New York's Children's Aid society is teaching a group of boys from Memphis all the tricks that the good baby sitter should know. Marion Foliete is the teacher and Baby Robert Giorla, the model.

MOST ATTRACTIVE TWINS . . . The nation's most attractive twins, Marilyn and Joan Voors, 23, Fort Wayne, Ind., pretty brunettes, are old hands at winning national contests. They won the 1941 award at Chicago and the 1942 award at St. Louis.

KNEE PANTERS PLAY BALL . . . Juvenile delinquency does not live at Dunn, N. C., any more. The youngsters are too absorbed in the joyful pursuits of the Knee Pants baseball league, and are under rigid contract to be little gentlemen. Herbert B. Taylor, former mayor, organized the league 27 years ago. The candidates—ages 8 to 14—must sign a regular "big league" contract, which among other things, obligates the player to be at home not later than 10 o'clock, attend Sunday school, refrain from bullying and respect property, etc. The contracts are generally fulfilled and enforced and juvenile delinquency is unknown, thanks to the Knee Pants baseball league. Photos show the members in action—and getting "mother's" signature on the contract.

DRUMS OVER . . . Stratford, Conn., Post 42, drum and bugle corps, national champions of the American Legion, swarm all over arrival at New York City to liven things up during annual national convention. As usual the Legion took to the city during their convention.

PLAYMATE ABOUT TO DIE . . . With peace between the Indonesian republic and the Netherland government, now in a state of hopeless confusion, the plight of a great section of the populace has become desperate. In the center of Tanjong Priok, the Dutch naval base, a vehicle makes a daily trip to pick up those who died overnight from starvation or sickness. The epitome of pathos is pictured here. Small boys on the left are cooking grains of rice they picked from the dirt of the street. The boy at the right has a premature rendezvous with death.

BRAVED SHARKS TO REACH U. S. . . . Making light of his narrow brush with death, Miguel Fernandez, 16, runaway from Spain, is shown at Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Stowing away for U. S. he leaped overboard off Miami and swam for 12 hours in shark-infested gulf stream, before being picked up.

MEETS HIS FANS . . . The American Legion Junior baseball champions of the mid-west, who personifies the national pastime to them, Babe Ruth. He is shown surrounded by the youngsters during the pregame ceremonies.

MARGARET SANG . . . Margaret Truman, daughter of the president, shown in Hollywood where the soprano made her first appearance in the Hollywood Bowl, August 23.

A GOOD TRY ANYWAY . . . St. Louis zoo chimpanzee, "Cookie," tried desperately to beat the heat with the use of a fan and ice cream stick, but the temperature still went up to 101 degrees.

ATOMIC MANAGER . . . Carleton Shugg, shipyards executive, who has been drafted by the United States atomic energy commission to serve as manager of its Hanford directed operation at Hanford, Wash.

BID FOR CONGRESS . . . Looking at the world with a smile as he walks through it on artificial legs is Charles E. Potter, 34, veteran, who recently won the Republican nomination for the 11th congressional district, Michigan.

WOMEN LIKE . . . A board of judges consisting of eight members selected these four styles as prize winners in a fashion show held at New York City. Left to right, a black and white dress worn by Irene Silk; black pleated ballerina dress worn by Irene Snyder; white chiffon with black sequins on Dolores; royal blue crepe dress modeled by Peggy Long-

KING BABE SHOWS QUEEN BABE . . . When a pair of babes get together the subject naturally turns to baseball, especially when one is king and the other is queen. "Queen" Babe Didrikson Zaharias, noted woman athlete, visited Babe Ruth, baseball's "king of swat," at this New York home and received correct instructions on how to grip the horsehide for a fast ball pitch.

CREED FOR COUNTRYWOMEN . . . Mrs. Martha H. Eddy, Cornell university, looks over copies of new creed written for the Associated Countrywomen of the World by Dr. Ruby Green Smith, former state leader of home demonstration agents at Cornell. Mrs. Eddy will present the creed at the international meeting of the association in Amsterdam, Holland, September 19-31.

DRAWS BIGGEST SALARY . . . According to U. S. treasury figures, tops on U. S. salary hit parade was Charles P. Skouras, West Coast theatre chain executive. His checks totaled $568,144 for the year.

Six-Inch Sermon

↑ REV. ROBERT H. HARPER ↑

The Wisdom of Harmonious Living.

Lesson for Sept. 14: Proverbs 3:30-31; 15:1, 18; 22:24-25; 25:18, 21-22; 26:20-21; Matthew 5:9; James 3:17.

Memory Selection: Matthew 5:9
From the lesson we learn that living in peace with others is necessary to harmonious life. Several things are named that tend to destroy peace.

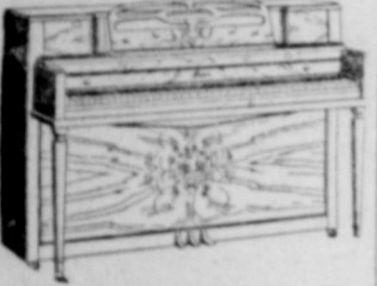

Strife often comes "without cause" and is due to a sensitiveness that should be controlled, and sometimes with a wrong interpretation of another's motives. It is often as much in the disposition of one who claims offence as in him who offends. "A wrathful man stirreth up anger, but he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife." Form not a friendship with a man given to anger, for you may learn his ways and get a snare in your soul. A perjurer will stir up strife but, as a soft answer turns away wrath, a forgiving spirit and kind treatment will shame the wrath of an offender, "heap coals of fire upon his head," and bring reward from Jehovah.

"For lack of wood the fire goeth out" When evil whispers cease, contention will end. How mean is the man whose whispers become worse than the hissing of a serpent! Do not steal a neighbor's good character.

"Blessed are the peacemakers." They are blessed as they bring blessing unto others. How sadly does the war-torn world need peacemakers now! Let us strive to promote peace in our sphere of action and of influence. God loves the merciful and the wisdom from above without those who reflect that wisdom to their own relations of life.

Byars-Bourland Nuptials Solemnized At First Baptist Church of Lesley

Baskets of white and pink gladioli formed the background for the double-ring ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Euna Byars, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Byars of Lesley, and Thomas Bourland, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Bourland of Matador, Sunday evening, August 17, in the First Baptist Church at Lesley, with the pastor, Rev. Fred Higginbotham, officiating.

Music for the wedding was provided by Mrs. Carl Smith of Memphis, pianist, and Mrs. Fred Higginbotham, vocalist. The latter sang "I Love You Truly" with accompaniment by Mrs. Smith who also played the traditional wedding marches and "To Each His Own," "Always," and "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an aqua blue crepe street length dress trimmed with ecru lace. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Doyle Miller of Portales, N. M., sister of the bride and matron-of-honor, wore a tan girdle dress accented by a pink carnation corsage.

Fred C. Bourland of Austin served his brother as best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Byars chose a black crepe dress trimmed in black chiffon, and Mrs. Bourland, mother of the groom, was dressed in navy blue crepe. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held for members of the wedding party and guests in the basement of the church. Refreshments of punch and wedding cake were served.

Mrs. Bourland was reared at Lesley and is a graduate of the Following a wedding trip to Ruidoso and Carlsbad, N. M., the couple will be at home in Canyon.

Guests attending the wedding from Matador were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McWilliams, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Bourland, and J. T. Hamilton.

Measure Up

modern standards of convenience and comfort?

Modern people don't want old-fashioned transportation—they want 1947 automobiles. They want them to "measure up" to 1947 standards of convenience and comfort.

Does your home measure up? Only the all-electric can meet today's standards. With electric appliances, the last word in cleanliness, convenience and safety, you can make your home "measure up" to modern standards.

Electric service is a bargain! Living costs continue to increase, yet the cost of a kilowatt hour of service to residential users has decreased one-third in the last 14 years.

Memphis Holds Eldorado To Lone Tally Saturday

Memphis won 10 to 1 over Eldorado, Okla., Saturday night. The 13-strikeout hurling of Eldorado's Bass furnished the bulk of the opposition. The Memphis club had already hit six times for three runs, but the first man up in the seventh, pitcher Head, slammed a home run through left field to open up a batting barrage

The lone Eldorado run came through in the first of the seventh when Denton came in on a Bass single to left field.

Lakeview Netmen Ready For Action

A number of students have signed up for a tennis class at the Lakeview Rural High School, and a tournament is scheduled there this week-end, it was reported Wednesday. Alene Cunningham has been named captain of the Lakeview team, and Billy Adams is the new co-captain.

Henry Cunningham is the Eagle net coach, and he stated Lakeview would like to arrange matches with nearby schools.

Alene Cunningham participated in three tennis tournaments during the summer. In the Lubbock city open she was defeated in the finals after winning the first set 6-4. In the Childress tourney, competing against older women, she bowed out in the semi-finals. In the tri-state tourney at Amarillo, she was ruled out because of age misunderstanding, but played mixed doubles with H. Cunningham and bowed out to two outstanding players of the tournament 6-4 and 6-1.

Miss Cunningham won the district meet in doubles last year and is expected to go a long way in singles this year. Other players expected to provide competition in doubles are Leon Hoggatt and Billy Adams, and Lynn Cunningham and G. Hagins. However, many promising Eagle netmen may provide upsets.

Sport-Scope

No games were scheduled this week to give the Memphis nine a rest so they will be in top shape for the important final contest with Mobeetie to be played at Pampa Sunday.

After the fine performance of the Memphis club against Mobeetie here Sunday a site for the final game in the Red River Valley League play-off was chosen which appears to be satisfactory for both teams. The Mobeetie manager suggested that the finals be played in Pampa. This proposition was readily accepted. The Memphis manager could have called for a coin flip, to decide whether the game would be played in Memphis or Mobeetie, and although the local club would rather play the game at home, it was felt that Pampa would offer a better playing field than Mobeetie. Pampa being near Mobeetie it will insure a home turnout for that team, although the high interest locally seems to insure an adequate delegation from Memphis.

The Memphis club looked good Saturday night. The hitting has so improved they netted 14 hits against one of the best pitchers to step on the Memphis mound this or any other season. Eldorado's Bass was fast, with good control and an acrobatic ball. He has hurled for Enid and was with that team when they figured in a national tourney at Wichita, Kans. The team, for the most part, was composed of younger players with less experience, but as they proved previously, they are capable of giving Memphis a good game when they are on.

Memphis drops two more players this week. Dennis was not present Sunday as he had to leave to report to Texas A. and M. Monday. Price leaves this week to enroll at T. C. U. Although the playing of these two men has been an asset, the Davis hustle behind the plate leaves little to be desired, and as slugger Howard Stewart has rejoined the team there are several good men for fielding slots.

Foster Watkins has left Canadian to be assistant coach with the Quannah Indians this year. He and Coach Weldon Bibb have been putting the Indians through two stiff practice sessions each day in preparation for the contest with Memphis under the Quannah lights Friday night. According to all reports the Indians have been emphasizing the same type of "T" formation football as have the Cyclone. The Indians had a 39-man turnout at initial practice sessions. Eight lettermen are back with the Indians, including three veterans: Wayne Johnson, Mack Harper and James Gilliam. The Friday night winner is anybody's guess, but the Cyclone's practice session audience is convinced the Cyclone is developing a fast and fancy ball handling technique as coaches Ezell and Newton pour on the heavy morning and afternoon training schedule.

The Lakeview Eagles will open the season Friday night as they play Clarendon. The bronc have around 28 on their '47 squad, with a 170-pound average team. They have been practicing daily, starting at 2 p. m., under the guidance of Coach McKnight and assistant F. L. Behrens, an outstanding Bronc player of a few years back. The Lakeview Eagles are thought to have a stronger squad than last year, but they will be meeting capable competition.

At any rate, the Hall County football picture will be more definite after the two week-end games.
