Hall County Jerseys Make Great Showing In Plainview Show

OF FIFTEEN ENTRIES, EVERY ANIMAL FROM COUNTY RECEIVED AN AWARD

Hall county Canadian-bred Jersey cattle made an excellent showing at the Plainview dairy show this week, winning first in one class, second in another, and many lesser prizes.

When fifteen head entered by local cattlemen, and exhibited together as a group entry from Hall county, every animal placed "in the money" in the show which brought out 200 head of Jerseys from Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma.

Pinnacle Oxford Lad, whose sire came from Canada, senior bull calf shown by M. E. Drake of Lakeview, and bred by Clifford Farmer on his Missouri farm, was the first prize winner in his class, and a contender for junior championship. This animal was also first prize bull calf at the Tri-State fair in Amarillo last fall.

The bull, Design Sultan Basil, purchased in Canada by the First State Bank of Memphis for the local dairy program, continued his winning ways by placing third in this strong dairy show. The first prize winner in this class was junior champion. This bull was also grand champion at the Childress fair, and first in his class at the Tri-State fair in Amarillo last year.

In the heifer-in-milk class, Hall County exhibitors had three entries, and placed second, fourth and sixth, although there were sixteen entries in the class. Dell Wells of Lakeview scored second on Don Head Pinn's Maple. W. O. Waites of Lakeview was fourth with Don Head Tidy Bell, and J. O. Robinson, also of Lakeview, placed sixth with Edgelea Jester Dream. All of these heifers were imported from Canada last year in the Hall County dairy program, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with W. B. Hooser, Hall county agent.

In the Junior Dairy division, open to club boys throughout the Southwest, and with entries, from

Memphis Pioneer Passes; Moved To Hall County In 1904

This week saw the passing of one of Hall County's oldest and most honored pioneers, Mrs. Martha Ellen Melton, who moved to the county in 1904, when the wild west was really wild. She and her husband, William Henry Melton, came here from Wise County. They were married in 1875, and Mr. Melton passed away in 1930. She was a member of the First Baptist church in Memphis, of which denomination she had been a member from childhood.

Mrs. Melton died at the home of her daughter in Memphis, Mrs. Margaret Holcomb, Wednesday, April 13, making her age 92 years and three days.

She is survived by two daughters and two sons, four brothers, great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Her daughters are Mrs. Margaret Holcomb of Memphis, and Mrs. Lena Evans of Los Angeles, Calif. Her two sons are Henry

Audie Murphy Book Just Received At Memphis Library

"The most decorated G. I. of the war" is the title well earned by the Texas War hero, Audie Murphy, of Farmersville, Collin County, Texas.

Nearly everybody knows now that Audie was drafted into motion pictures about as soon as he was discharged from the army, also that he married a movie star. Perhaps less people know that he has written a book, the thrilling story of his experience in the war. The name of the book "To Hell and Back," and a copy of the book has just been received at the Memphis Carnegie Library, ready for lending.

Other new books received within the past week are:

"The Young Lion" by Irwin Shaw, a powerful story of three soldiers, two Americans and one German. Book reviewers say this is the story of all soldiers, and one of the best stories of World War II.

"The Seven Story Mountain" by Thomas Merton. A book on a religious theme, said to be the

65 First Graders From Clarendon Get Train Ride Here

An experience never to be forgotten by any youngster in his first ride on a "choo choo" train. That experience came to sixty-five boys and girls of the first grade in the Clarendon grade school.

They were the guests of the Ft. Worth & Denver Railway last Friday for a ride from Clarendon to Memphis.

O. B. Sandidge, Traveling Freight and Passenger Agent of the railway accompanied them, and explained many wonders of the trip, and scenery along the way. It was just like any other "good will" tour of grown-ups, as promoted by the chamber of commerce, of a big city.

The youngsters were met at the depot in Memphis by Manager Clifford Farmer and a delegation from the Memphis Chamber of Commerce, C. C. Hodges, mayor of Memphis, the chief of police, Jack Peabody, Hall county officials and the press. There was a photographer present to make pictures.

The boys and girls were taken in the big Memphis school bus and automobiles to Memphis' beautiful city park where they had their lunch. They were furnished all the ice cream they could eat by the Memphis Chamber of Commerce.

After luncheon they played in the park, in the swings and other play-ground equipment with which the park is well supplied.

When all sixty-five of them were well tired out, they found waiting for them a score of automobiles and the parents of many of them from Clarendon, ready to take them home.

And with one accord every youngster present proclaimed that it was the most exciting and enjoyable experience they ever had.

The children were under the care of their teachers, Mrs. Donald Ballew and Mrs. Jolly Johnson. Mrs. Johnnie Blocker, mother of one of the children accompanied them on the train.

The ladies were profuse in their praise of the reception accorded them by Memphis and its citizens.

REV. C. R. TENNISON

Rev. C. R. Tennison Bids Farewell To Memphis Friends

For two and a half years it has been the privilege and great pleasure for the people of Memphis to work with a great leader, Rev. Clifton R. Tennison, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Brother Tennison has been the leader of the First Baptist congregation, but he has been a leader in a much larger field, the field of religious and civic service of the entire city of Memphis, and it is with deep regret that the city must lose his leadership.

Sunday evening at his church, he will deliver his farewell sermon to his congregation. He is leaving to return to a former charge, where he spent two years prior to coming to Memphis, the Baptist Church of Ozona, county seat of Crockett County, where his major task will be to build a new church building.

Below is a brief farewell message of Brother Tennison to his flock, as carried in the First Baptist Church bulletin for Easter Sunday.

"Today marks the end of almost 2½ years that we have been privileged to labor together in this great business for the Lord. In quality."

More Light Rain, Temperature Is Mixed, Up and Down

The Memphis weather map presented a varied picture during the past week. A light rainfall of .17 of an inch fell on Sunday, the 10th. Temperature ranged from a low of .36 Wednesday morning to a high of 90. Wednesday, and Thursday of last week the mercury also climbed to 90. The daily report of the low and high follows: Friday, April 8, 46 and 90. Saturday, the 9th, 50 and 75. Sunday, the 10th, 43 and 59. Monday, the 11th, 45 and 59. Tuesday, the 12th, 41 and 62. Senior Choral Club Honored, Regional Festival, Canyon

The Memphis high school choral club went to West Texas State college last Friday to participate in the Interscholastic league's Regional 1 Vocal Competition—Festival. The Girls Chorus of the local school was awarded an excellent plus rating for a distinguished performance in Class A.

The vocal sextet won an excellent rating. Members of the sextet are: Billie Dell Martin, Billie June Sturdevant, Edith Compton, Leota Sturdevant, Roddy Patton, and Joanna Davis.

The vocal quartet won a good rating. Members of the quartet are: Janney Mueller, Leona Robertson, Cleve Mae Tiner, and Joy Davis. The piano accompanist for the choral club and the vocal ensembles is Lois Wines.

Judges for the league meet were Donald W. Morton, John Tarleton College; Henry Hobart, Phillips University; Euell Porter, Hardin-Simmons, and Dr. Walter Hodgson, North Texas State College. Some of the comments made by the vocal judges on the local club were as follows: "Very good attacks and releases"—"Good blend and balance"—"Very nice accompaniment"—"Nice tone in quality."

LONG RANGE C. OF C. PROGRAM; HIGHWAYS, FARMING, INDUSTRY

The major objectives of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce for the coming year are three-fold, declared Manager Clifford Farmer, in a brief presentation of the organization's plans.

The completion of short sections on our two main highways would give us East-West and North-South cardinal outlets, he added.

The paving of about 34 miles of highway 252 would close the gap and give us an ocean-to-ocean east and west outlet.

Building a bridge across Red River to the South of Memphis, and modernizing short links of the highway will place Hall county on a Canada-to-Mexico cardinal highway by connecting us with the Pan-American road. That is the highway part of the Chamber of Commerce program.

In a farm and ranch country such as this, industrial progress must be coordinated with agriculture, Mr. Farmer said.

Continuing our program of importing fine registered Jersey cattle from Canada, we expect to develop the dairy industry of Hall county, in a long range and well-balanced program, of agriculture and industry.

The banquet was the termination of Mr. Farmer's first year as manager of the local organization. The plans for that year, according to the record, were better than 70 percent achieved.

President H. J. Howell was toastmaster and there was not a dull moment when he had the floor.

Track Meet Events To Be Completed This Afternoon

The district track meet started at 2 o'clock this afternoon at Childress, according to Coach Chuck York, who left Memphis at noon with members of the Memphis High School squad.

Races began promptly on time, and events were to be finished before sundown, he added.

"Many local persons have heard that finals would be held at night in Childress," he said. "This is untrue, as we plan to finish the annual track event on time."

The Memphis track team has competed against teams from high school districts several times during the training season.

Memphis Hi. Teams And Fathers Given Banquet by Mother

One of the traditional highlights of each school year is the banquet given to the members of the football and basketball teams and their fathers by their mothers. On Monday night, April 11, in the high school cafeteria this season's mothers served a delicious feast to some one hundred twenty-five boys and their guests.

The long tables were centered by bands of black and gold and arranged along these bands were vases of black and gold flowers.

Place cards were replica of the ever-present water-boy. Some twenty mothers brought to the tables plates heaped with beef roast, creamed potatoes, brown beans, vegetable salad, and relishes. Cake and coffee were served later.

Superintendent W. C. Davis, toastmaster, called the group to order and Chubby Cullin pronounced the invocation. Principal Ray Newton led in singing "Pack up your Troubles" and "The Eyes of Texas."

Quite in keeping with the informal spirit of the occasion, Mr. Davis introduced Coach C. D. York and Coach L. E. McCulloch, each of whom commended the athletes for their good work not only during the closing season but during their entire school career.

Billy West, co-captain of the football team gave a timely discussion of the relationship between athletics and physical development.

Don Corley, the other football co-captain-talked about the mental and physical cooperation so necessary to the good athlete.

These two boys introduced Miss Roddy Lynn Patton, a high school junior, who is the season's football queen.

Leroy Green brought a most beneficial thought, citing the challenge of good sportsmanship in all fields of endeavor.

Sammy Jo Rasco thanked the mothers for their thoughtfulness, the fathers for their inspiration, the coaches for their training, and Mr. Davis for his untiring planning and far-sighted vision.

Then, these two student co-captains, of the basketball team, presented their queen, Miss Anita Johnson, senior.

Only two members of the school board were able to attend, Messrs. George Cullin and Matthew Allen. They were introduced and extended their greetings.

Peck Morrison, proud papa of Charles Morrison congratulated the athletes; and Ace Gailley gave a resume of the activities and plans of the Boosters' Club.

As a surprise to the group, a movie of the Memphis-Coleman basketball game in Austin was shown. A typical closing for the hour was the group singing of the Alma Mater.

The coaching staff of the school system consists of: C. D. York, F. M. Baker, L. E. McCulloch, Ray Newton, George F. Childress, and R. A. Burks.

Devotional Service, Methodist Church, By Mrs. W. B. Funk

As Sunday is Easter, the day we celebrate the resurrection of Christ, and for our meditation this morning, let us think about the Last Supper, Jesus had with His disciples.

Think about His betrayal, His trial, His Crucifixion.

First, it might be well for us to remember that the garden of Gethesmane is found on the slopes of the Mount of Olives overlooking the city of Jerusalem.

Tradition tells us there is still an old olive tree in this place, and it is called Gethesmane Tree, where Jesus knelt to pray.

And let us try to picture in our minds, Jesus and the disciples as they eat the last supper, together in the upper room in Jerusalem, and how Judas betrayed his Lord, for thirty pieces of silver.

And after they had finished their supper, they went upon the Mount of Olives to pray. Jesus was sad. Already the shadow of the cross was falling across their pathway.

He knew He would not be with them long, and as they walked along the way, He told them many things they must never forget. It was springtime. Perhaps the grapevines were in bloom, and the fig trees had put out their tender leaves, and the night air was cool and refreshing. And Jesus wanted his disciples to feel the nearness of His presence, and we hear Him say:

"I am the true Vine—ye are the branches; they that love me must abide in me."

Oh, we as Christians must abide in Christ. We must seek His help daily if we are to be fruit-bearing Christians.

And when Jesus and His disciples came to the Garden, He told them to tarry there while He went a little farther and fell on His face and prayed, saying "If possible, let this cup pass," meaning His death.

Jesus was in the human flesh. He dreaded the pangs of suffering and death, just as much as we would today.

And yet, as He prayed we hear Him say: "Not My will, but Thine be done."

And while Jesus prayed, the disciples slept, and Jesus came and awoke them, saying: "Could ye not watch with me one hour?"

And while He was talking to the disciples, multitudes of soldiers appeared, armed with swords. And slaves, under the guidance of Judas, for he knew the Garden where he had spent many hours with Jesus.

The guards hesitated to take Jesus—they had heard of His teachings and the wonderful things He had done throughout Galilee.

And Jesus asked: "Whom do ye seek?"

They replied: "Jesus of Nazareth" and He answered "I am he," and they laid hands on Him.

The divine prisoner was first led to the House of Annanias, and then sent to the High Priest, Pilate, for trial. They accused Him of many things. They mocked Him. They spat upon Him. They platted a crown of thorns and placed on His head. And he was made to take up His cross and bear it, and when they came to the place called Calvary, they crucified Him, between two thieves.

In studying the trial of Jesus I wish that we might notice the determination He had to do the will of His heavenly Father, although it cost Him His life.

Oh, how we Christians need to work a little harder at our task,

The Voice Of The People

NOTE—I found the following letter on my desk upon my return from a trip toward Florida. It was crowded out for lack of space, but has some timely suggestions that are well worth considering, hence it is being published this week, even though the occasion for which it was intended has gone by.—J. C. Wells.

By R. P. MARTIN

We are going to have an election in Memphis to elect law makers, I have been informed. Some of our old servants are going to quit their jobs. Who can blame them? No one could be too interested in working as servants for the well-to-do folk that are in Memphis for accommodation. It is a shame for such a noted city as Memphis to even let the best man of our town serve as official servants for the little sum of $5.00, per month.

Who is to blame? I don't know where such a deal could have started. It seems it's fear on the part of some groups that don't have faith in the tax value of our city to pay sufficient amounts of money to pay its just dues, and pay salaries for our law-making body, so that they would be proud of their official jobs. They would feel duty bound to work for the interest of the general public.

Then pay labor a good wage that men will be proud to work. There is plenty of wealth in Memphis if it were justly taxed to have plenty of money on hand to do all the things needed to be done. It is a shame that Memphis has been begging our officials for their time to look after our affairs.

There was a newspaper man who was a very busy man of Memphis. The citizens of Memphis got in a hard place and needed a leader so we persuaded this big-hearted man to serve as mayor. Some one said it was nice of him to serve, I say so too. But it wasn't nice that we didn't pay him that I know of.

Well the old saying is, all this life. But it isn't fair business.

Some one said if we had all the money in Texas in Memphis how on earth would we spend it? For example we could have owned our light and power plant and ice plant, water system and gas at the city limit by this time—by taxes, and we wouldn't have missed the money, and it would be a big saving to the citizens of Memphis after we had accomplished all this.

Just keep raising values, as values increase get more money and keep spending round and round, it will keep paying off. Don't buy bonds, don't borrow, pay as we go. Borrowing will break the world. I have had the experience.

Senator Downey of California advised: Collect taxes, buy material, and labor to head of depression. Some one ask him what kind of labor would he suggest. Build a four lane highway from coast to coast. "Then what?" Some one asked. "Build one the other way," was his answer.

We could do something in Memphis if we would open our eyes. Let's not be afraid of taxes. The more taxes collected, if used right, will increase business, increase values to cause more taxes.

I am not smart enough to blueprint all, but there are men in Memphis who can, if they will. Don't think I am a candidate for an official place, nor a job. Although I don't have a job, I would love a way in which I could earn. I realize if an older has a job he will make it himself.

As I would not be a slave, so I would not be a master. This expresses my ideals of Democracy. Let us be as one man headed to one cause, marching as to war. Public officers are servants and agents of the people, to make and execute the laws. The people should pay them well for their valuable time.

You may ask a thousand men if

Alcoholism Disease To Be Discussed In Clarendon, April 21

A prominent Dallas businessman will make three separate talks in Clarendon April 21st on the disease of Alcoholism and the rehabilitation program of Alcoholics Anonymous. He will speak to the members of the Lions Club Thursday noon, to the High School students Thursday afternoon and then appear before the public in general at the Pastime Theatre Thursday night at 8 p. m.

"There are 3,700,000 Americans suffering from the disease of alcoholism. At least 12,000 Americans die each year from the disease. This is a public health responsibility but almost nothing is being done about it," sponsors stated.

The speaker, a successful Dallas businessman—a businessman who once wagered his entire business fortune on the effort to make himself quit drinking—and lost—will be speaking both as a member of A. A., the rehabilitation fellowship, and of the Dallas Committee for Education on Alcoholism.

"ALCOHOLISM IS a progressive and fatal disease, yet alcoholic addicts who begin in time may attain normal health and sobriety. Other diseases demand and get scientific attention, the best medical men can give. The great mass of the sufferers of the disease of alcoholism are left to the administration of policemen, police courts, to horrors of jails and madhouses, and are subjected to public scorn and neglect."

Man Fined in County Court on Charge of Transporting Liquor

E. B. Watson was fined $100 and cost of suit Friday, April 8, in county court when Judge M. O. Goodpasture heard his plea of guilty to transporting whisky into Hall County, a dr. area.

He was arrested en route to Memphis Friday morning by Chief Deputy Bill Baten. Two cases of whisky were confiscated, Sheriff Earl Hill reported.

They would love to see all the people of Memphis happy. All of them would say yes. But who is working to make it so? The question is, should our law making body serve the citizens of Memphis, or should the citizens be servants to the welfare of the citizens at large. We should feel and act as one family and let the head of the family see to it, that all share our responsibilities, according to our ability.

Mrs. Jane Rogers Of Newlin, To Be Buried Friday

Mrs. Lillie Jane Rogers, a resident of Hall County for 31 years, passed away at a Memphis hospital Wednesday, April 13, after an illness of several months. Mrs. Rogers was born in Johnson county, Texas, February 8, 1882. She was married to J. W. Rogers June 8, 1901. The family moved to Newlin, Hall county in 1921. Mr. Rogers died April 13, 1943. Mrs. Rogers was a member of the Church of Christ.

Survivors of Mrs. Rogers are: three daughters, Mrs. Fred Hemphill, with whom she had lived for a number of years, Mrs. Thelma Tucker, Los Angeles; Mrs. Ruth Caskey, Houston. Two sons, Jesse Rogers, Sunny Vale, Calif., and William Rogers, Mericopa, Calif. Four brothers, H. B. Ray, Atlanta, Texas; Joe Ray, Shafter, Calif.; John Ray, Los Angeles, Calif.; and Willie Ray, Oklahoma City, Okla.

Five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren survive her.

Funeral services will be held in the Baptist church of Newlin at three o'clock Friday afternoon April 15, by Minister Gray Carter of the Church of Christ in Memphis, assisted by Rev. W. S. Crawford, pastor of the Baptist church in Newlin. Interment will be in the Newlin Cemetery, under the direction of Murphy-Spicer Funeral Home.

Easing Of Timber Shortage Is Seen Thru Good Roads

WASHINGTON, D. C.—America's timber shortage, adverse affecting housing and other construction programs, could be eased immensely by construction of roads to presently inaccessible timber stands, Ben F. Ostergren, manager of the municipal division of the American Road Builders' Association, declared today.

In fact, Mr. Ostergren asserted, timber production from national forests alone could be increased 50 percent within the next few years, if adequate roads were built linking these stands with markets. In commenting on a study in which federal and state departments participated, Mr. Ostergren asserted, "The cut of timber in our national forests could be increased from four billion to six billion foot a year if access roads were built to the uncut stands. And even be obtained eventually through greater timber production could more timber road construction, forest service estimates indicate. The larger cut would increase both production and quality of our timber stands."

"Although forest roads have improved during the past 30 years through the aid of federal funds, construction has always lagged far behind actual need. With the shortage of timber accentuated during the war years because of war production and the housing shortage, concern has been expressed over the inadequacy of forest roads and the lack of funds sufficient to modernize these highways and construct new ones.

"A study made by the Public Roads Administration, U. S. Forest Service, and the State Highway Departments recently indicated that the federal government should spend $40,000,000 annually over the next ten years to provide a well-balanced and adequate network of forest highways.

"Of this sum 30 percent would be used to add new roads and reconstruct old ones and the remaining sum would be used to highways and $17,500,000 for forest development roads in each of the fiscal years 1950 and 1951. No authorization was made for the 1949 fiscal year."

Memphis Lbr. Co. Has A Completely Remodeled Store

Completion of extensive remodeling of the office building at Memphis Lumber Co. has been announced by E. E. Roberts, manager, giving Memphis a new retail store arranged in a modern manner.

"During the past several weeks," Mr. Roberts said, "extensive remodeling of our office building has resulted in a completely new store, arranged for the convenience of our customers."

"It is modern in every respect. The new style display islands make selection of paints, builders' hardware and materials easy. And the additions we have made to our stock of pipe fittings, bolts, plumbing supplies, places us in a position to supply the trade with anything it wants with the least possible delay."

"Our policy," Mr. Roberts continued, "will be to carry first quality, standard lines of merchandise, and sell at fair prices. Now and in the future, we shall have on hand what our customers call for. Our service to builders must meet with the public's approval."

In the glass department, Mr. Roberts said, all kinds may be found, window glass, door, plate, safety, they have it.

The Memphis Lumber Company succeeded the J. C. Woldridge Company which was purchased by the Canadian Lumber Company in October, 1947, and the name changed to the Memphis Lumber Company.

E. E. Roberts, who had been the manager of the lumber yard in Memphis for fifteen years, became manager of the new company, a building supply concern which had been in business in Memphis for 55 years.

"A cordial invitation is extended the public to visit our new store," concluded Mr. Roberts. "We want everybody to see how our merchandise is arranged, and to know that here they will find everything used in modern building."

Marketing of Farm Products is Basic Economic Problem

COLLEGE STATION—Everybody wants the biggest share of the consumer dollar. Whether it's a business or an individual doesn't matter. The fellow that runs his business the best is the one who will come out on top.

All the commodities that are for sale are in competition with each other—every one trying to outdo the other fellow. It's the same thing with the poultry industry, too, says F. Z. Beanblossom, extension poultry marketing specialist of Texas A. & M. College. Only in this case, there's competition among the poultrymen—the egg, fryer and turkey producers.

Not many poultrymen stop to think about all the things that have to be done to get their products on the market. It's because the bigger part of them are thinking only about the production end of the situation. Most poultry raisers turn the selling end of the job over to another fellow. But in quite a few cases with the poultry and poultry products business this is necessary.

These people that do the selling also have a finger in the financial pie. They, too, are looking for a part of the consumer dollar. In order to compete with other items for this consumer dollar, a product has to have eye appeal, high quality and uniformity through selling, and reduce the loss of quality in a product. Honesty is important in a business transaction, and there has to be an ample supply to be an economical venture.

According to records in areas of Texas where graded programs operate, many producers are not selling on grade. The most common reason for this is low quality, says Beanblossom. The egg producer is not willing to maintain the quality of eggs when they are laid. As a result, he says, the flock owner doesn't profit when selling eggs on a graded basis.

• A small flock of turkeys on any farm will pay off.

Survey Shows 1949 Hwy. Construction Will Hit New High

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Upward trend in postwar highway construction will continue in 1949 with an estimated expenditure of $1,233,546,000 on state and federal aid roads as compared to $1,111,600 and 23,657 miles in 1948 and $846,153,000 and 30,278 miles in 1947, a state-by-state survey just completed by the American Road Builder's Association discloses.

"Maintenance, also mounting steadily, is not included in these estimates," explained Dan R. Lamson, ARBA's research engineer. "Our figures show $433,603,000 for maintenance in 1949 as against $415,126,000 for 1948 and $377,181,000 for 1947."

The survey breaks down the mileage as 1,526 miles of concrete, 19,716 miles of bituminous mixes and treated types, and 10,988 miles of other forms of surfacing.

"Expenditures and mileage have no relationship as, for example, in the cases of New York and California," said Mr. Lamson. "New York state, with estimated costs of $166,000,000 leads the nation in spending, but stands 24th in the list for mileage. California is fourth in national spending and 27th in mileage. The special type of highway contemplated—expressways, etc.—accounts for this disparity. In other instances, costs and mileage are more in proportion as in the case of Pennsylvania, second in spending and fifth in mileage."

Combined construction and maintenance expenditures for 1949 of $1,667,149,000 for the second successive year constitutes a new all-time high in American road building history.

Rev. Bedford Smith Is Rotary Speaker

Rev. Bedford Smith, First Christian Church minister, was guest speaker at Rotary luncheon Tuesday. He was introduced by R. S. Greene.

The Three Fools was Rev. Smith's subject. First, "The fool says in his heart there is no God"; second, "I have no need for God," and the third, "I have no responsibility to God."

The speaker brought out numerous reasons for believing there is a God, a need for God and responsibility to Him, and that man is foolish if he thinks and acts to the contrary.

Decorating the walls of the banquet room were hand painted Texas scenes depicting cowboy life and also historical scenes such as the Alamo. Noted at one side of the room was a typical cowboy camp scene complete with camp fire, saddle, tin cans, etc.

Places were marked at banquet tables by hand-made place cards fashioned to form the map of Texas in the high school colors of black and gold. Centering the table was a colorful bouquet with native Texas flowers predominating. Halves of grapefruit, painted in gay colors, held vari-colored lighted tapers. Completing the table decorations were runners of ivory interspersed with colorful pottery holding cactus.

The menu consisted of barbecue, buttered new potatoes, red beans, combination salad, apple pie, hot rolls and ice tea.

Rev. C. R. Tension, pastor, was toastmaster for the evening and the invocation was given by W. C. Davis, superintendent of the Memphis schools, Mrs. O. T. Toney, president of the WMS, extended a welcome to guests.

Introducing the program, J. O. Strother led the group in singing Texas songs after which he sang two solos, "Home on the Range," and "Navajo Trail."

George Stokes, head of the speech department at Wayland College, was guest speaker for the evening. He encouraged members of the senior class to seek further education in higher institutes of learning, stressing Christian education.

Banquet arrangements were under the direction of the four circle chairmen, Mrs. Frank Smith, Mrs. Roy Patton, Mrs. H. H. Lindsey and Mrs. Lynn Jones.

Guests present in addition to the senior class were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Davis, Ray Newton, principal of the high school, and L. E. McColloch, senior sponsor.

Don't Forget Beans If Home Garden Is To Be Complete

COLLEGE STATION—What is a home garden without beans, asks, J. F. Rosborough, extension horticulturist of Texas A. & M. College.

It isn't too late to plant the green bush beans. The Giant Stringless Green Pod variety is standard among home gardeners.

A new kind called Logan is the latest model in beans. This variety is outstanding in quality, and is recommended for use as a fresh vegetable, or for freezing or canning, Rosborough says.

It's a little early for the pole bean varieties right now. And a point to remember about the pole beans is that these plants must be set out further apart in the row because they grow larger than the bush types.

Kentucky Wonder is standard in the pole varieties, but the Blue Lake is higher in quality and yields as well as the Kentucky Wonder.

In East Texas, the Florida Speckled seems to do best.

To Honor Memory Of John Tarleton On Founder's Day

STEPHENVILLE—Near Santo, Texas, still stands a small ranch house, the home of an early day Texan who will be commemorated in a Founder's Day program at John Tarleton College April 30.

There, on a 10,000 acre ranch John Tarleton lived the last 15 years of his obscure life, and there he conceived the idea of founding the school which today has grown until its physical plant is worth $1,600,000.

A man of little formal education, he was astute in business. Through perseverance, thrift, and hard work, he accumulated a fortune large enough to leave, at his death in 1895, $86,000 for a school that would provide educational opportunities for children "over six years of age, of good moral character, and unable to educate themselves."

Coming to Texas a-foot in the early 1860's, he established a mercantile store in Waco. Before that, he had led a dull monotonous life, clerking for the same man in the same store for 40 years. Even so, he had saved $1,000 and acquired title to 20,000 acres of land in the Middle Western states through trading for land warrants.

In Waco he made and lost a fortune in early cattle drives, ran a prosperous mercantile business, and married and was divorced by a socially prominent Waco widow when he was well past 65.

Leaving Waco after this as he had entered it, on foot and dressed as a tramp, he walked to his ranch near Santo, which he had bought when he first came to Texas. There on the first land to be fenced in this section, he lived a lonely life, weathering the droughts of 1886-88 and becoming a prosperous and respected ranchman.

Many are the tales told of his peculiarities. He always kept large sums of money in an old trunk in his bare little room. This he counted behind drawn curtains every night. He never wrote a check to an individual, always insisting on giving and receiving cash. When he walked to Santo, he always carried two rolls of money hidden separately about his body.

In September, 1899, four years after Tarleton's death, John Tarleton College opened its doors. Like its founder, the school has weathered many a storm, and today after 50 years of service, its growth is a monument to the man who wanted to help educate the children of the little man. Twenty-four people who knew Tarleton personally have been invited to attend the Founder's Day Ceremonies.

Caution Sounded In Use Of DDT Around Dairy, Milk Cows

COLLEGE STATION—Texas dairymen are warned not to use DDT for insect control. The warning comes from G. G. Gibson, extension dairy husbandman of Texas A. & M. College, who adds that small amounts of DDT in a food such as milk might prove harmful in time.

And the presence of DDT in milk goes strictly against the grain with the Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act. So, its best to use another chemical in the control of dairy cattle insects.

Entomologists recommend methoxychlor or pyrethrum in place of the DDT for dairy cows, and go on to say that DDT is still good for insect control on other livestock, including beef cattle. Dairy animals or livestock being finished for slaughter should not be fed forage treated with DDT or other chemicals in the same class, cautioned the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

It's a different matter when it comes to fly control in and around farm buildings. DDT is all right for this. So is chlordane and BHC. But methoxychlor is the one recommended for use around dairy barns where milk is being processed.

With a clean dairy, only a small amount of chemicals may be needed, he concluded.

looking back over this period we are thrilled at the marvelous way the Lord has blessed us. We have had over 280 conversions and additions to the church . . . 110 for baptism and 153 by lotter. We gave almost $80,000.00 to all causes with $14,000.00 of this added to our building fund. We now have $21,000.00 in the building fund plus what we will give this morning. We have purchased a home for the Educational Director. Truly the Lord has been good to us.

"These have been pleasant years in that you have been kind and gracious, prayerful and encouraging. We have learned to love and appreciate you from the depth of our hearts. We must unite hands in the Lord and in real Christian fellowship go forward in a greater way.

"It was without a doubt but that the Lord was leading that I accepted the leadership of this church as your pastor; and, it is under the same kind of leadership and direction and a deep sense of God's presence that I come to offer my resignation, as pastor of the church, effective Sunday night April 17, 1949.

"May God bless you and guide you as you prayerfully seek the right man, God's man, as your leader and pastor."

Clarendon College

faculty of Clarendon Junior College feels that such activities have a social educational value for the students who participate.

"It is a member of the Association of Texas Colleges. Its work is accepted by any Senior college in Texas. Our enrollment is not large. Consequently, the classes are smaller; students and teachers are closer; therefore better work is done. We find that our graduates have very little trouble in carrying on their work in a senior college. The cost is much less in the Clarendon Junior College, and high school graduates are at home for two more years. Junior colleges may be the answer to many of our problems in higher education."

Speaking for Memphis High School, both teachers and students expressed themselves as highly delighted with the program, and look forward to a repeat performance next year.

Mrs. Anna H. Dickson returned Tuesday night from DeQueen, Ark., where she spent a week visiting in the home of her son, Boyd T. Dickson.

three states, Archie Martin, Jr. 4-H Club boy from Newlin, placed third in the yearling heifer class, with his Canadian heifer, Don Head Basil Juliana.

The Hall county exhibit was sponsored by the Memphis Chamber of Commerce, which furnished a set of show blankets, bearing the words, "Hall County, Texas," and other equipment needed for handling the exhibit.

The cattle shown were mostly Jerseys imported from Canada or their offsprings. Placards placed over each stall in the show tent gave the name of the animal and owner. This attracted considerable attention at the show because many of the Canadian cattle are sired by famous bulls.

The cattle were cared for at Plainview by Wesley Waites, Archie Martin and J. O. Robinson, who did an excellent job of preparing the cattle for showing. On show day, Wednesday, many other Hall county stockmen were on hand to render assistance in the showing. W. B. Hooser, Hall county agent, and Clifford Farmer, Memphis Chamber of Commerce Manager, selected the cattle for the show, and assisted throughout, in the exhibition at the show.

The cattle were loaded last Saturday in Memphis, and moved to Plainview by Lonnie Widner Truck. Considerable difficulty was experienced at the fairground, due to a storm which destroyed the tent, but fair weather during the rest of the week resulted in many thousands attending the show, which is rated as one of the top dairy shows of the entire nation.

The cattle were judged by F. A. Atkinson, head of the dairy husbandry department of the Kansas State College. He was also the judge for the National Dairy Show in Columbus, Ohio, last year. Commenting on the Hall county Canadian-bred heifers, Judge Atkinson said: "I like them. They are my type."

Few people ever stop to think about it, but the rate they have to pay for fire insurance on their property is made by the community, by the number of fires which occur in that city over a given time.

Thus it is seen that every property owner and every individual is vitally concerned about the number of fires his city has, since he is helping to pay for the losses, all of them, out of his own pocket, in increased, or decreased insurance rates.

Convincing information on this vital matter comes from the National Board of Fire Underwriters, and the State Department of Insurance. Herewith is a release just received, and turned in by Fire Chief Thomas Clayton.

With the year 1948 behind us, we are all looking to 1949 as a year in which we can profit by our past experience, and make every possible effort to cut down the terrific loss of life and property which had our nation and our state on the ropes last year. When in America we bury 10,000 of our citizens and burn 700 million dollars of property in a twelve month period, we realize we have a serious war on our hands. Add to this a total economic loss of three billion dollars which includes increased insurance rates, loss of materials, production, customers, industries, jobs, extended unemployment, ruined credit ratings, business failures and increased cost of living. Every member of a fire department or fire prevention bureau realizes that there is an absolute necessity to enlist the help of every man, woman, and child in every community in overcoming these conditions. The most efficient fire department and the best equipment in the world cannot get the job done without an all-out community effort.

Your community looks to the fire service for guidance and leadership in both fire control and fire prevention. The satisfaction which any individual gets out of a job is measured directly by the amount of effort he puts into the job. Let's organize our community for fire protection and see that everyone has his job to do. Advertise a bill of goods for sale in each department of our community establishment—Fire Department, Fire Prevention Bureau, Business Interests, Industrial and Mercantile, Civic Organizations, Service Clubs, Schools, Churches, Homes (P. T. A.), Scouts, Press, Radio, Theatre. To put over a good advertising campaign lets secure local facts and data, prepare a plan of activity, organize a steering committee, select leadership, place responsibility and then stimulate public attention by launching an all-out program of activities. Keep in mind, this is not a one week sale, the public must realize there are bargains the year round.

The President of the United States and our Governor of Texas have urged that every community carry out this program during 1949. Backing you are, your District Firemen's Associations and your Firemen's Training School. Make full use of this cooperation and assistance. The important thing, lets do the job.

Your Training School is on a "full speed ahead" program. The field work is carrying assistance to the local departments as rapidly as time and man-power permits. We are planning a bigger and better than ever Firemen's Training School program at A. & M. College in July.

Stamps Ozark Quartet Will Present Musical Program High School Monday

A musical treat for Memphis and surrounding communities next week will be a concert of gospel and secular music by the Stamps Ozark Quartet of Wichita Falls, at the High School Auditorium by the Salisbury Sewing Club of Memphis.

The announcement was made Monday by Mrs. Ernest Lee who is handling the program. It will be Monday evening, April 18th and will start promptly at 7:45.

The purpose of this event is to provide funds for "Boys Ranch," near Amarillo, to be used for fencing "Boot Hall."

This fine musical organization is well known throughout the Panhandle, and West Texas, since it has a regular program on Radio Station KWFT of Wichita Falls. Most everybody in the Southwest is familiar with the various Stamps Quartets and their theme, "Give the World a Smile" is well-known to everybody who listens to radio programs.

The members of the Salisbury Sewing Club will be grateful for cooperation of the public in supporting this very worthy cause.

BILLION DOLLARS ANNUALLY NEEDED FOR HIGHWAY PROGRAM

MILWAUKEE—Charles M. Upham of Washington, D. C., engineer-director of the American Road Builders' Association recommended here today that federal aid authorizations be increased to at least $1 billion annually to assist the states in the nation's badly needed highway program. He spoke at the 36th annual meeting and convention of the Wisconsin Road Builders' Association in the Plankinton House.

Such an authorization would double the highest previous amount authorized for federal aid highways—$500,000,000 a year under the Federal Aid Highway Act of 1944.

Mr. Upham pointed out that by the end of the year deficiency in highway construction approximated $22,000,000,000. A survey by the Federal Works Agency, he said, indicates it will cost $60,000,000,000 over a 15-year period to get our highways in shape to handle present and future traffic at the rate of $3,000,000,000 annually in new construction and $1,000,000,000 in maintenance.

The only method of counteracting the "feast and famine" road building psychology of the past, he stated, is by planning and carrying out a long-range construction program.

Need Modernizing

"The federal aid system embracing, as it does, 624,000 miles of the nation's important highways should be modernized as soon as possible for economic reasons," the ARBA official stated. "A billion dollars a year in federal aid for at least three years would give impetus to a program which shows signs of flattening out at a point far below an adequate level. With matching funds, this would bring the federal aid program to two billion dollars, and with the added construction expenditure at state and local levels the total would approximate the required $3,000,000,000 program."

Since initial attempts were made to get traffic out of the mud after the first World War, the highway construction program has been a series of starts and stops in this country, Mr. Upham declared. The two most violent interruptions were the depression of the thirties and the second World War. Many other factors, however, have also delayed, impeded, and blocked the nation's road building for the past 20 years.

The main reason for the violent fluctuations in highway construction is "lack of planning," according to Mr. Upham. "By the time

Vital Concern Of West Texas In Water Problem Is Expressed

ABILENE—A new approach to the West Texas water problem has been offered by John D. Mitchell, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in a letter to committeemen, in which he points out economic loss from lack of water as well as from flood water.

In this letter, addressed to Mayor Lawrence Hagy of Amarillo, chairman, and R. M. Wagstaff of Abilene, co-chairman of the WTCC Municipal Legal Rights Committee, he urges a study to submit to congress a plea for amending flood control laws so that economic loss due to lack of water may be compensated for a parity with areas having an economic loss due to flood damage.

Staff of the WTCC, Under General Manager D. A. Bandoen, has recently been making a study of this economic loss from lack of water, pointing to towns of the area that now are having to haul in water in tank cars.

"These towns not only are paying a higher price per thousand gallons for their water, but they are suffering other economic losses," Bandoen said. "Service stations can't wash automobiles, it is impossible to have yards or flowers, which not only eliminates nursery and floral sales, but reduces real estate value. There isn't sufficient water for air-conditioning units, and other necessary uses are curtailed beyond the safety margin. We believe assistance to towns suffering from lack of water is just as important as assistance to towns with flood problems."

President Mitchell's letter also gave support to a program for the creation of an interim legislative committee to study Texas water problems and has offered the services of the various WTCC committees to aid in this program.

"Due to our objections to the proposed surface water code and also to other objections, it appears now that the proposed code is being held in abeyance for further study by an interim legislative committee," he said. "With the state having no inventory of our surface water; no definite formula for allotting of riparian no exact definition of riparian rights or stream flow, and since there exists a crying need among

Roy Autry Named Head Of S. W. A. Telephone Company

The Board of Directors of Southwestern Associated Telephone Company announced March 30, 1949 at its organization meeting, that Mr. Roy Autry has been elected President of the Company. Mr. Autry, who was former Vice President and General Manager, succeeds Mr. R. B. Fairly who was named Chairman of the Board. This change in officers is in anticipation of Mr. Fairly's retirement plan. Until the end of the year, Mr. Fairly will continue to devote his full time to the affairs of the Company, after that date, it is planned that he will remain as a director of the Company and as Chairman of the Board.

Mr. Autry has been connected with the Southwestern Associated Telephone Company, or one of its affiliates since 1930, except for a brief period from 1941 to 1943. He was born in Lampasas, Texas and started his business career in the Traffic Department of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in 1915. In 1930, he accepted a position as Traffic Supervisor with the Associated Telephone Company Ltd. located in California which, like Southwestern Associated Telephone Company, is a subsidiary of General Telephone Corporations.

During 1937, Mr. Autry was made Commercial Manager of Associated Telephone Company, Ltd., a position which he held until he resigned in 1941, to become General Supervisor of Communications for Douglas Aircraft Corporation. In 1943, he returned to Associated as General Traffic Superintendent and, in 1944, he was transferred to The Southwestern Associated Telephone Company as Vice President and General Manager.

Memphis friends will be interested in the news that Reuben Edward Martin, formerly of this city, has enrolled in the University of Southern California. Reuben will be remembered by his high school associates as quite an accomplished young pianist.

Farmers Against Crippling Farm To Market Road Bill

WACO—Farmers of Texas are up in arms as a result of the crippling amendment tacked on to the McLellan rural road bill by House members on Monday when they voted to cut the tax rate from one cent per 1,000 cubic feet of gas to three-fourths of a cent. J. Walter Hammond, president of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation, declared today. Legislators who voted for this rate reduction are voting against the McLellan bill and against the farmers of this state, Hammond charged, because their action debuts the bill and cuts down on the number of miles of road that can be built from the revenue derived from the natural gas tax levy.

Some of our legislators are favoring the out-of-state multi-million dollar industries instead of remaining loyal to the folks back home who sent them to the legislature, the Federation president further charged.

Hammond said opponents of the McLellan Bill, which is sponsored by the Texas Farm Bureau Federation, are saying they are not voting against the farmers when they vote against the McLellan Bill, but contend that the rural roads have been taken care of in the Colson bill, which has already passed the House and Senate. Hammond declares that the Colson Bill is totally inadequate to take care of the rural road needs for the farmers of this state. The Colson bill is dependent upon appropriations from the general fund and will build only two miles more road per county each year than has been built in the past.

More than a thousand Farm Bureau members were in Austin on March 7 to see the committee on revenue and taxation vote out the McLellan bill favorably. If it is necessary for the farmers to make another trip to Austin to let the legislators know their views, they can show up again in increased numbers, Hammond concluded.

Editor's Note: Since the above was written, the McLellan bill was referred back to the revenue and taxation committee by a one vote margin, 69 to 68. The author of the bill says that means the bill is killed. If that is so, it would seem that the Texas Legislature has again ignored the vital needs of the farmers, as past legislatures have done for years.

Mrs. Clyde Milam and her mother, Mrs. J. W. Stokes, left last week for an extended visit in San Juan Bautista, Calif., with Mrs. Milam's daughter, Mrs. Frank B. Toner and family.

Clothing Program Is Big Item In 4-H Club Achievement

Nearly one-third of the 1,800,000 4-H Club members throughout the nation are expected to participate in the 1949 National 4-H Clothing Achievement program, according to the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work. This prediction is based on the annual increase in enrollment during the last nine years. Texas reported 29,403 enrolled in the 1948 clothing program, and hopes to top that figure.

The economy of home sewing plus a plentiful supply of intriguing designs and fabrics will attract many more 4-H'ers to complete the 1949 clothing project. Not only are members taught to make new garments for a carefully planned wardrobe, but they also learn to mend, alter and remake old ones. Many of the girls sew for the family as well as for themselves. They become adept at making hats, bags and other accessories. Demonstrations of sew-

Texas Mechanized Farming Takes Big Lead; 82 Percent

COLLEGE STATION—We are definitely in the midst of the greatest farm mechanization era of all times, says W. L. Ulich, extension agricultural engineer of Texas A. & M. College. Here is some proof so far as Texas is concerned.

At the beginning of this year, some 211,799 tractors are in use on Texas farms. Today approximately 82 percent of the cultivated land in the state is plowed with tractor power. In the case of wheat, oats, and other small grains 86 percent of the harvesting is done with power equipment.

The use of highly specialized machinery requires the farmer to make large investments, adds Ulich. The depreciation of this costly machinery eats deeply into the profits of the farm operator, but he can do something about it. The life of tractors or other expensive farm machinery can be increased by proper care and maintenance.

The 4-H boys are learning through their "Live Power Program" just what proper tractor maintenance can mean to their home farm. Boys enrolled in this program keep an accurate record of the operating costs of their farm tractor. They have found that regular servicing, using the correct oils and lubricants, keeping the cooling and ignition systems in good shape and cleaning the air filters daily will keep the tractor on the job longer and at a lower operating cost. Ulich says repair bills can be cut to a minimum if the boys put into practice the things they are taught in the "Live Power" program. This fact is proved by the records submitted by former winners in this program.

Five area tractor maintenance clinics have been scheduled for the latter part of March and the first half of April. Local 4-H leaders will hold similar schools in their counties for the 4-H boys who enroll in the "Live Power Program," says Ulich. The cause they operate farm tractors, he says.

On-Farm Storage Of Sorghum Grain Is Vehy Important

COLLEGE STATION—A series of experiments are underway to develop methods of safe storage of sorghum grain on the farm, according to Director R. D. Lewis of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

These experiments are centered at the Beeville substation. Cooperating with the Texas Station are the U. S. Production and Marketing Administration and the Corn Products Refining Company.

Sorghum grain is considered a highly perishable crop by Gulf Coast farmers because of its high moisture content. The crop is harvested during June and July and must be sold immediately since there are no facilities for on-the-farm storage.

If practical methods of safe on-the-farm storage can be developed through this study, the farmer will be able to market his sorghum grain in a more orderly manner, Lewis said. He will be better able to take advantage of fluctuations in market prices.

Sorghum grain production has had a tremendous expansion in the Gulf Coast area in the past few years. High temperatures and humidity, and severe insect damage make the safe storage of sorghum grain in that section very hazardous, Lewis said.

Seventeen storage bins will be used at Beeville for these tests. Seven are made of steel, four of wood, three of temporary construction and four are underground pits. Each bin will hold from 1,000 to 2,200 bushels of grain.

Lewis estimates that approximately one million pounds of the 1949 grain crop will be used to fill the 17 bins. The grain is being furnished by the Corn Products Refining Company.

Some of the bins will be painted aluminum and some painted white to determine the effect of the color of the bin walls on the temperature of the stored grain. Thermocouples will be installed in each bin and an accurate check will be made on the grain temperatures during storage.

Moisture determinations and germination checks will be made at frequent intervals during the storage period, Lewis said.

Chemicals will be used to determine their effectiveness in preventing heating and deterioration of high moisture grain during storage.

A part of the program will also be on control measures against insects, Lewis said.

Agricultural engineers heading these experiments are M. G. Davenport of the Beeville station and J. W. Sorenson, Jr., and H. P. Smith of College Station. Jack Bradshaw is representing the PMA.

is quite practical to utilize drag. "When fishing big water, I would cast across and up and allow my fly to drift down opposite me before picking up to recast. Now and then, in the hope of picking up a fish which had refused my offering, I would allow the fly to drift down past me. Then when drag set in, I would skip the fly in short jumps across the current in a semicircle until my line was directly downstream. To my surprise, I found that I caught fish that way."

For a while he contented himself with "bump casting" with skater or skitter flies. This highly unorthodox procedure consists of casting in rough water with a fairly short line. The forward cast is aimed so that it terminates at least two or three feet above the water. Then, as the fly drops, the rod causing the fly to strike the water at an angle and to bounce. Bump casting is effective only in rough, broken water. Smooth water requires longer line.

The next step in this unethical series was the use of a well-greased line and leader, and skittering big skater flies across perfectly flat water. This method seems to

EASTER

AN EASTER MESSAGE

This Sunday, in our churches, we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who rose from the dead three days after he was crucified by the Roman soldiers.

His followers, in many parts of the world, are still being crucified, but their courage, and their steadfastness, and their belief in their convictions are resurrecting them by enshrining their deeds in our hearts.

Your church, whatever it may be, is fighting for those things which we hold near and dear. Your help is needed to make this fight successful. We cannot sit back and feel that one person doesn't matter, because that isn't true. The work of all of us is only as strong as the work of the least of us.

Every man, woman and child must do his part here, in our town. Let us all attend the church of our choice this week, and rededicate ourselves to the task of building a better world based on truth and love, rather than force and hate. Your church needs you.

AT PENNEY'S

MRS. HERSCHEL MONTGOMERY

Thompson-Montgomery Nuptial Vows Are Solemnized in Amarillo Saturday

In an impressive, informal ceremony, Miss Lois Maurine Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin P. Thompson of Memphis, became the bride of Herschel Montgomery, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Montgomery, pioneer residents of Wheeler County, who are now making their home in Shamrock.

The Rev. Leon Hill, pastor, read the single-ring service at the San Jacinto Baptist Church in Amarillo, Saturday morning, April 9.

Mrs. Lester Campbell of McLean attended her sister as matron-of-honor. She wore a beige suit with brown accessories and a corsage of double peach gladioli. Lester Campbell served as the groom's attendant. Mrs. Thompson and Edwin O. Thompson, the bride's brother, both of Memphis completed the wedding party.

The bride chose for her wedding, a navy milatene suit fashioned with flare back and button trim and accessories of navy. Her hat of navy straw was trimmed with pink pastel flowers and she wore a pink rosebud corsage. For something old, she was wearing a hand painted cameo pin belonging to her maternal grandmother, something new, her hat; something borrowed, ear rings; and a blue garter. She also carried out the good luck adage of having a penny in her shoe.

Mrs. Thompson, mother of the bride, was attired in a black crepe dress with black and white accessories. She wore a deep rose carnation corsage.

Mrs. Montgomery attended the schools of Memphis and is the daughter of a Hall County pioneer family. Until her recent marriage she was employed with Thompson Bros. hardware company in Memphis. Mr. Montgomery joined the Memphis Democrat staff in 1936 and sold his interests there in 1948. He is now part owner of the McLean News and is employed with Miller Printing Company in Amarillo.

After a short wedding trip to Santa Fe and Albuquerque, N. M., the couple will make their home in Amarillo.

Roads For The Farmer

Hundreds of million dollars are spent annually in Texas for public highways, yet a large majority of the farmers are still in the mud. They can't get beyond their own dooryard in wet weather.

Farmers pay a good portion of the gasoline tax which goes to build and maintain these highways yet none of it spent to help get them to the cardinal roads which they help to build, when the weather is bad.

The metropolitan newspapers and chambers of commerce are more or less indifferent in their defense of the farmer's rights in this matter.

This is understandable. They do not deny that rural roads help big cities, but the super-highways that receive the tax money benefit the large cities more. These mighty arteries of steel and concrete, spanning the nation in every direction, bring thousands of tourists to the cities.

The tourist trade is if great money value to hotels, night clubs, tourist courts, cafes, service stations, and even to department stores, all of which reap a rich harvest from the tourist crop.

The farmers are entitled to more support from the large cities, their chambers of commerce and large daily papers than they are receiving.

The time has come for the farmers, and their friends in the small towns and cities to speak up and make their voices heard.

Some three thousand supporters of farm-to-market roads recently descended on Austin to talk to a committee handling a bill to provide for such roads. And what they told the lawmakers couldn't very well be misunderstood.

Only the Texas Legislature can give relief in this matter, and there are bills now pending that would get the job done if the solons are enough interested in the farmers to do something about it.

Since much of the tax money for highways comes out of the farmers' pockets, it is high time some of it was spent to get them out of the mud. All members of the legislature have an eye to their political future, so they will hearken to the voice of the people back home, if those voices will make themselves heard.

If you must dry-clean clothes at home, use only a non-flammable fluid—one that will never explode or burn. And do the work outside, where the vapors will be quickly carried away by the wind.

If doubtful about the cause of a stain in clothes, always use the mildest treatment first when removing the stain.

Grasshoppers are expected to hit this year's crops heavily unless something is done. Kill them out. Check on poison supplies now so you'll have enough on hand when you need it.

The population of Cairo, Egypt, is made up of people following so many different religions that every day is "the Sabbath" for someone.

EVER THE STONE SHALL BE ROLLED AWAY

Press Paragraphs— QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

A STEER ISN'T ALL STEAK

The American Meat Institute has published a chart called "The Saga of the Steer" which is designed to help consumers understand why there is such a wide spread between what packers pay for beef on the hoof, and what is charged for such luscious cuts as steaks at the butcher's on the corner.

If steers are selling at 26 cents per pound, the packer pays $260 for a thousand pound animal. It dresses out to 600 pounds of beef and, curiously enough, he sells the meat to the retailer for $252. That is not accomplished by financial legerdemain—the difference between what he paid for the beef is made up by the value of by-products, such as fats, hair, hides, etc.

The butcher sells his $252 beef to consumers for $309. That may look like a big profit, but it isn't. The $58 he grosses has to cover rent, labor, depreciation, shrinkage in weight of the carcass when converted into retail cuts, and so on. So the retailer, like the packer, earns a very modest profit for the service rendered.

Finally, nobody has been able to produce a steer which is all steak. The porterhouse section of the animal which weighed 1000 pounds on the hoof amounts to only 40 pounds—and obviously must bring a high price. Other cuts, due to consumer preference and other such factors, must be sold for a low price.

The force which determines the price of meat on both wholesale and retail levels is supply and demand—as the very sharp price drops which have recently taken place prove.—The Munday Times.

For Victims of Reckless Drivers
We have noticed a good deal of editorial comment in Texas newspapers, lately regarding the proposed driver-responsibility law which Sen. G. C. Morris of Greenville has introduced as Senate Bill No. 21. The bill has passed the Senate and is now in the House.

It seeks to make the reckless, careless and irresponsible driver pay for the damage that he does and is responsible for, or gets him off the highways. Under the terms of the act, car operators will be barred from further driving after an accident until they have filed proof of personal financial responsibility or can show adequate insurance.

As the bill stands, the no-accident driver would not be affected. However, if his car should kill or injure a person, or cause $250 or more damage, the motorist would be legally bound to make amends up to $11,000 maximum.

For most of us, that makes insurance as protection against his eventuality almost mandatory. However, most responsible drivers carry property damage and bodily injury insurance already.

With the ever-increasing number of automobiles crowding our traffic lanes, it seems high time that something be done towards greater safety. If this bill will do the job and make drivers more careful, their vehicles safer, and give more protection on our public thoroughfares, it merits the strongest public support.—Ochiltrees County Herald.

If your coffee percolator will not operate efficiently, check it over. The percolator valve or pump may be clogged. Clean the valve or stem by forcing water through it or use a small round brush to unclog it.

Large pieces in the family wash should be fastened with clothespins in three or four places to avoid strain.

FOOTE & FOWLER

This Week in WASHINGTON

WITH CONGRESS passing the buck of rent control back to the local communities, high point of interest insofar as the rural communities of the nation is concerned is the expected stand of Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan on the Administration's long-range farm program.

As this is written, the contending forces which include the three large farm organizations holding opposing views on this legislation, particularly with respect to farm price supports are at a standstill. These views range from 100 per cent of parity, down to 90 per cent and to the sliding scale of supports as now provided by the Hope-Alken farm law. It is expected that Secretary Brannan's recommendation to the House and Senate agriculture committees will take the form of a compromise.

According to observers here in Washington, the push for the rigid farm price supports at a high level is losing some of its steam, and Senator Alken has been beating the grass roots in an attempt to whip up support to retain the provisions of the present law, which go into effect January 1, 1935.

The most telling argument of the proponents for a lower parity price support and the sliding scale is the high cost of the support price and there is indication even now that by the end of this year the Commodity Credit corporation will have exhausted its four and one-half billion dollar loan kitty.

As a matter of fact, about two billion dollars of these funds are already tied up even before the 1934 crops start rolling from the fields. CCC has about 750 million tied up in cotton loans; some 600 million in wheat loans; more than 200 million in corn, all on 1934 crops. The potato price support has already cost the government something like 170 millions of dollars.

Nevertheless, Congress even under the Alken law cannot afford to let CCC go broke, so will have to fork over more funds and these funds come from the taxpayer.

The farm organizations are lined up to fight against the 75 cent minimum wage bill, and observers here say they are fighting a losing battle. The farmers are not directly affected by the bill, since it is agreed that farm labor will not be included in the measure in its finality. However, those who hire labor directly affected, and businessmen are affected indirectly as processors, ginners, and exporters of farm products would force farmers to raise their prices.

In about half the country, particularly throughout the average hourly rate farmers receive is less than the minimum.

There is also considerable discussion in Washington as to whether the secretary will be likely to propose marketing quotas for the marketing year beginning in 1935. If he decides to take this course, it must also provide a percentage allotment for the marketing year.

According to information available here, the acreage of Spring wheat to be about 20,000,000, the most for four years, the total planted in 1934 was 18,000,000. Combined with the acreage estimated last year, total 1949 planted acreage is estimated at 38,000,000, about five per cent more than planted for the last year.

According to some reports, the White House has changed his attitude regarding with congress to go all the way in along with the legislation. An example is a statement in an approved statement in congress.

Texas Farm Income Shows Decline From Last Year's High

AUSTIN—Texas farm cash income for February 1949 fell 15 per cent from a year earlier, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reported. February marks the sixth consecutive month that farm income has fallen below its year-earlier level.

Totaling $43,594,000, farm income was at the lowest point in February 1949 since March 1942. Marketing of rice, wool, cattle, hogs, poultry, and milk products rose during the 12-month period, but income from other types of farm products was substantially below February a year ago.

Coastal Prairies and Trans-Pecos districts showed increases of 14 and 2 per cent over February 1948, while decreases ranged from 1 per cent in Southern Texas Prairies to 67 per cent in the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

Texas farmers received $9,857,000 from sales of milk products, which was the greatest source of income in February 1949. Sales of cattle amounted to $8,866,000, and eggs, $4,431,000.

Except for small increases from marketings of hogs and rice, all types of farm products brought Texas farmers less income than in the previous month, contributing to the over-all decline of 28 per cent from January.

With the exception of a 6-percent gain in Coastal Prairies, all crop-reporting districts registered sharp declines from January to February.

After adjustment for seasonal variation, the Bureau's index of farm cash income fell to 192 per cent of the 1935-39 level in February 1949, the lowest index was 211 in January and 234 in February 1948.

For the first two months of 1949, farm income totaled $104,000,000, falling 24 per cent under a like period in 1948, with all districts turning in declines from 3 to 54 per cent.

Growing plants without soil is a method known by several names, some of which are soilless culture, chemical gardening, hydroponics and tank farming.

The best investment on any farm is a few guinea fowls. Sure, they make a lot of noise, and that's what makes them good "watch-dogs" for your poultry yard. And besides, each one will eat many times its weight each year in harmful weed seeds, grasshoppers and other insect pests. Their meat is mighty good eatin', almost like wild game, fine for your home freezer.

If you can't use it, sell it, by a Democrat want-ad.

Legion Sponsors Three-Day Rodeo, McLean, April 29-30

MCLEAN, TEXAS—A three-day rodeo will be held in McLean April 29 and 30 and May 1, under the sponsorship of the Andrew H. Floyd post of the American Legion.

First performance will be held Friday night, April 29, at 8 o'clock; second Saturday afternoon, April 30, at 2 o'clock; and final performance Sunday afternoon, May 1 at 2 o'clock.

In addition, the legion post will sponsor two dances; one will be held Friday night following the first rodeo performance, and the other Saturday night from 9 to 12 o'clock. Both will be in the legion hall.

Heading the rodeo committee is Spencer Sitter. Other members are Jud Henley, George Terry, and Bob Sherrod. The committeemen are already making plans for the big celebration.

The rodeo will be held in the football stadium near the McLean Grade School, and will probably be the last public activity to be staged there. The McLean school board is in the process of building a new stadium in the northwest part of town, due to the fact that U. S. Highway 66 will be widened soon and the widening will cause the new road to run through a part of the football field.

Featured in the rodeo will be bronco riding, both saddle and bare back; bull riding and bull dogging; calf roping; and a ladies sponsor contest. Liberal prizes will be awarded in all events.

Terry, in charge of publicity for the affair, is planning several booster trips to neighboring towns to advertise the rodeo.

The rodeo will be one of the first such activities to be held in this area, and is expected to attract a large number of cowboys as well as rodeo fans.

Later, we visited Wells Chapel near New Albany. This church was established more than a century ago by my grandfather who settled there when Indians were a menace. The church is still working for the good of humanity. Here we found the burial ground of a lot of the kin. Across the road from this is the cemetery where Grandfather's slaves were buried. Next, we came to the site where my father and Dr. Wells' father were born. All that is left here is a pile of logs from the original barn. It gives one a sensation that cannot be described when he stands on the grounds that loved ones trod in long years gone by.

Spent a day with a cousin and family in New Albany and then started for home by way of Greenville on the Mississippi. Traveled for miles down the rich Mississippi Delta to Greenville where we visited another cousin and family.

In the Delta we passed through Bowen Bayou, a town established for the negroes by Isaiah Montgomery, negro secretary to Pres. Jeff Davis. Not a white person resides in this town. The mayor, who is a graduate of Yale, officers, doctor, lawyer, banker, teachers, nurses in the hospital, are all negroes.

Isaiah Montgomery's daughter, Mrs. Mary Booze, is Republican Committeewoman from that district of Mississippi.

A story was told us about a negro who established a bank there some years ago. Another negro had some money which he deposited in the bank and then went on an extended trip to Florida. When he returned he asked for his money. The banker solemnly looked at him and said, "Don't you know that de interest done et up de principal?"

Sunday morning we said goodbye to the Greenville kin and to Dr. Wells, who had accompanied us to that place. We crossed the Miss. river into Arkansas, then to Texarkana into Texas and to Sherman where we spent the night. Next day we reached home, feeling that the trip was one of the most enjoyable we have ever taken, and as usual were proud to be back in Memphis.

Other than Texas, we did not go over the same roads of any former trips, except some 40 or 50 miles in Miss. The weather was just right, the scenes interesting and most of the roads were fine.

Instead of following just one trail we had dogwood, azalea, flowering quince, redbud, wisteria—purple and white, red maple leaves, on most of the rounds. Pine, sycamore, cypress and pin oak groves were to be seen all along after we hit east Texas. Peach orchards in Georgia were getting into full bloom.

All the Southern states are well worth seeing, and their peoples are progressive, hospitable and home loving. States Rights is their politics and future politicians should take them into consideration in the years to come. They have nice homes and towns. Many plantation homes are to be seen, and they are up-to-date in every particular.

At Chattanooga, I forgot to tell you, we saw the battlefield where Sherman broke through the Confederate lines and started his march through Georgia to the sea, destroying everything in his path. Mrs. Wells' people near Atlanta were in the path and nothing was left to them except their houses.

At the information office on Lookout Mountain, Mrs. W. asked "What were our soldiers doing when Sherman was 'marching to the sea'?" He said, "I'm sorry to say we were running like hell."

It's good to be home. Space does not permit a more lengthy account. Usually, I write some each week when away, but when night came we were too tired to write, and when we were with kinfolk, we just enjoyed them too much to take time out to do any writing.

CORRECTION—In the previous comments I referred to Governor Earl Long as the son of the late Hughey Long. This was an error. Earl is the brother of the late Hughey. Otho Fitzjarrald thinks I must have been rather tead up on the trip. I acknowledge I was rather exalted because of the various scenes and experiences we were having on the trip—not from any corn or essence of corn.

A former citizen, Edward Ewen of Long Beach, Calif. renews his subscription to The Democrat with the accompanying remark, "Price enclosed for my next year's subscription to the best Home Town Paper ever printed. I just wouldn't do without it, besides its the one way I keep in touch with all the folks at home. Give all my best regards."

A Mississippi cousin told me that a couple went to a neighbor's house for a visit, and kept staying on. The host said, "Wife, hadn't

Billion Dollars—

(Continued from Page 1, Sec. 2) the situation becomes critical, it is too late to meet demands with a normal program, so it is pushed to a level too high to maintain indefinitely and then reduced to a correspondingly low level. This results in a long-range program of peaks and depressions," he said.

Loses Engineers
This feast-and-famine psychology also results in a loss of engineers and contractors, as road building personnel must turn to other fields of activity when highway construction programs collapse. When a new program is finally begun, Mr. Upham observed, "complete rebuilding and reorganizing of the building plant is necessary."

Meanwhile, the use of roads increases daily, whether roads are built or not. Vehicle mileage and ton loads are at record peaks, and "the only reason the uptrend in highway use was not greater was due to the inability of the manufacturers to produce more vehicles," Mr. Upham said.

Fundamentally, the problem is one for the state and federal legislatures to handle, according to the ARBA official. The pressure is already on the state capitals and Washington for more adequate roads. Legislation is being urged to increase gas taxes and registration fees in 29 states, to float new bond issues and to pass toll road legislation.

We must overhaul our present highway organization "which is we better go to bed so these folks can go home?"

Heard a local outgoing official say, "I was elected without opposition and went out of office the same way."

Lester Campbell, editor of the McLean News and a former Memphis Democrat editor, was honored at the Panhandle Press Association's annual meeting last week. He was elected secretary to succeed Clyde Warrick of Canyon who had served as secretary more than a quarter of a century and had done the work so well that the association had grown from a handful to more than 400 members. Lester will have his hands full following Clyde. J. C. Howell of the Wheeler Times, was elected vice-president and Paul Allingham, advertising manager of the Amarillo Globe-News was elevated to the presidency of this greatest district press association in the world. My congratulations to these three fine young fellows!

CROSSING THE BAR . . . Floyd Blackwell's unorthodox form, shown here as he cleared six feet, four and a half inches to win the high-jump event at the Orange show relays, is a combination "eastern" dive and "western" roll. He learned the former at Tuscarawas, Ohio, where he was a 1948 prep high-jump champ, and the latter at Mt. San Antonio college.

Vital Concern—

As another means of aiding municipalities in solving water problems, Mitchell asked his committee to aid in the passage of the $200 million state water supply and conservation loan fund plan, as now before the legislature. At the same time, he urged that support of this measure be offered only on the understanding that loans be confined only to political subdivisions not eligible for other government aids.

THIS IS AMERICA

This is freedom—many religions, many races, living in harmony together. For freedom is more than a way of life. It is a state of spirit—and our richest asset.

Under freedom of religion, Americans attend more churches than any other nation. Under freedom of speech, we have more newspapers, more radio stations than any other country in the world. Under freedom of opportunity, our children attend more schools, have more chances to succeed in life.

We are only 7% of the world's people, living on 6% of the world's land. Yet, we who live in America have the highest standard of living the world has ever known.

Under freedom of enterprise—you may call it Democracy, or Capitalism—we make just about one-third of the world's goods, mostly for our own use. We drive three-fourths of the world's autos, use about half the world's electricity. Our homes are unrivaled for comfort and labor-saving devices. We eat more meat, buy more clothes, see more shows, own more insurance. We even save more money.

Yes, freedom pays—in the coin of tolerance and understanding, and in the coin of progress and prosperity.
