MEMPHIS GINS IMPROVED—During the summer months the Memphis gins have undergone considerable improvements and are prepared for the largest prospective crop in the history of Hall County.

This cotton crop is conservatively estimated at between 50,000 and 50,000 bales and, if the present prices continue, will bring to Memphis and Hall County an unprecedented era of prosperity.

BUSINESSMEN ATTEND MEETING—A company of nine prominent businessmen of Memphis, including G. A. Sager, S. T. Harrison, Cave Grundy, F. N. Foxhall, W. H. Quigley, County Judge Hoffman and Commissioners Nash, Burnett and Coker, are attending a road meeting at Matador today.

The object of the meeting is to discuss the proposed Spur highway extension to Wellington.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strains on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, tingling pains, swelling—feet constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

Girls Forget Fears, Thanks To 2-Way Help

What to do for woman's oldest problem, functional monthly pain? Many a girl and woman has found the answer in CARDUI's 2-way help. You see, CARDUI may make things lots easier for you in either of two ways: (1) started 3 days before "your time" and taken as directed on the label, it should help relieve functional periodic pain; (2) taken throughout the month like a tonic, it should improve your appetite, aid digestion, and thus help build up resistance for the trying days to come. CARDUI is scientifically prepared and scientifically tested. If you suffer "at those certain times", get CARDUI today.

It is more than just the front end of the new Buick Special. It's a fresh new front end treatment — a "Buick first" — and it makes so much sense that it's safe to say it will start a new trend in styling.

Look it over and you'll see what we mean.

Sturdy vertical bars, attached to the bumper from the grille — and at the same time serve as bumper guards, which make it impossible for you to lock horns with the car ahead of you. The bumper no longer projects beyond the grille — so inches are saved in the all-over length of the car.

The parking lights are deeply recessed. The grille is made of bars heavy enough to absorb all normal impact — and they're replaceable to cut repair costs in the unlikely event of damage. Bumper, grille, bumper-guards and parking lights all become part of a single, unified design. But — stunning as this brilliant bit of designing is — it's just a hint of all the new things.

Wellington Girls Stage Late Rally Over Local Nine

A big seventh inning rally gave the Wellington girls' softball team just that many runs Wednesday night as they outscored the Memphis Yellow Jackets 9-1 at Crossroads.

It was a very tight game for six and one-half innings with interest centered on a rugged pitcher's duel.

The teams scored one run each in the third inning but Wellington moved ahead in the sixth, adding another tally, and then had their seven-run spree in the final frame.

The Yellow Jacket tally was scored by Nellie Taylor who got on base with a hit and was driven home by Violet T ownsend's double. Nancy Jones got a double, Jettie Sams a double, Nellie Taylor an additional single and Lucille Stevens a triple to round out the Yellow Jacket hitting.

Manager T. D. Weatherby has announced that the girls will go on the road again Friday night when they journey to Shamrock for a clash. The season is rapidly drawing to a close and Weatherby said all persons who had not seen the girls play should try to make this trip.

Other games will be announced later. Monday night's scheduled game with Matador here was postponed.

Water Hauling Service Now Offered Farmers

A new business for Memphis was announced this week when O. R. "Doc" Saye, well-known oil distributor in this area, disclosed the opening of The Sanitary Water Company.

Actively in this venture with Saye is his father, O. N. Saye, formerly of Nocona, who has recently become a Memphis resident.

"Our plan is to offer water-hauling service to farmers and rural areas that have been forced to worry about their individual hauling problems in the past," Saye said.

He stated that the company has a 1000 gallon capacity truck ready for service. Orders will be taken for 500 or 1000 gallon shipments. Saye said they would haul water to any location in this area. Charge will be made by the amount of water hauled and the distance, he added.

He said that those desiring the service should contact him at his petroleum warehouse.

Trees Should Be Checked Now For Bagworm Damage

BAGWORMS—they are not particularly pretty insects and they are just as dangerous to your trees and shrubs as they are ugly. These multi-legged insects have recently declared war on trees throughout the Panhandle and many have been damaged beyond repair.

The Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine says: "The bagworm is a common pest of arborvitae and red cedar. It also will feed on pine, spruce, hemlock, willow, maple, sycamore, black locust and many other evergreen and deciduous trees and shrubs. It occurs from Southern New England west to Kansas and south to Florida and Texas."

"Evergreens that have been completely defoliated are not likely to recover, and it is usually best to remove them. When only a few branches are affected, it is often possible to save the trees by carefully pruning the most severely damaged twigs."

The caterpillars, after maturity, attach their bags firmly to twigs of trees and transform to the inactive pupal stage. Males leave the bag and search for females, defenseless because they have no wings.

Few persons notice the bagworms during any stage of development since their protective covering is wrapped with foliage and they look like part of the tree. But they are extremely dangerous to your trees. There are reports that they are ravaging many trees and shrubs in Hall County and should be sought out and destroyed.

W. W. Yocum, professor of Horticulture at Texas Tech, recommends the following formula to effectively combat the bagworms—two tablespoonsful of lead arsenate per gallon of water when the worms are small. A stronger concentration should be used on older worms.

"The bagworms feed and develop for about two and one-half months," says Yocum. "A duster may be used with one part of lead arsenate mixed with five parts of flour or lime."

"Apply the dust early in the morning when trees and shrubs are wet with dew."

Yocum stated that control should begin with picking off all overwintering bags that can be found on trees and shrubs since many of these bags contain egg masses to start the next generation.

He pointed out that the evergreens should be watched closely in early summer so any new infestation will be discovered quickly. Sprays at this time may be applied when the worms are small and easy to kill and before severe damage is done.

Christian Church Minister Begins Vacation Sunday

Minister and Mrs. Bedford W. Smith of the First Christian Church will leave Sunday, following the morning services, for a five day vacation during which they will visit relatives in Ft. Worth, Orange, Port Arthur, Temple and Brady.

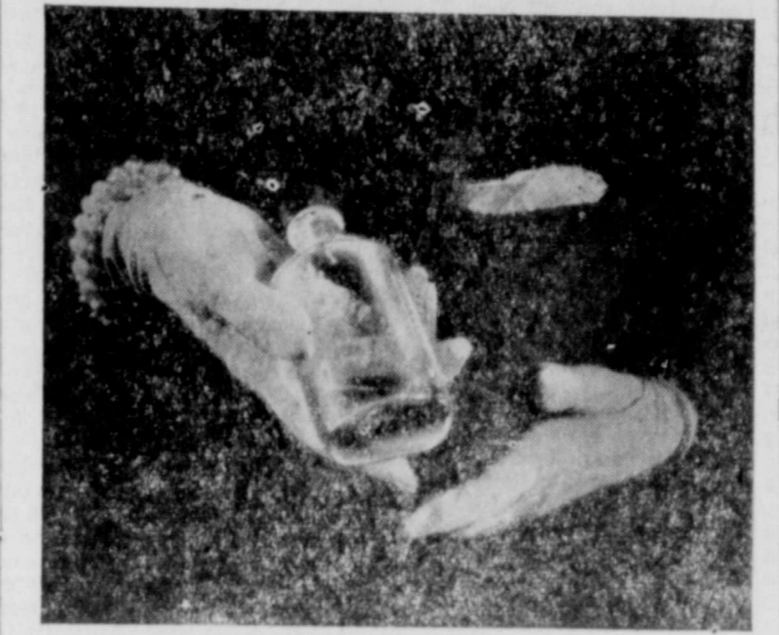

They will be accompanied by their two children, Carolyn Kay and Bedford David.

There will be no pulpit supply for Sunday evening services since two revivals will be underway in Memphis, Minister Smith said. Smith will preach on "Haggai: Who Turned Defeat Into Victory."

Arizona has the second largest American Indian population of the states of the U. S.

On Sunday, August 28, Clyde Lee Fife, noted national evangelist, will begin a two week revival at the First Christian Church.

WHAT WAS INSIDE?

An unlabeled bottle . . . a prescription container with the number defaced . . . an envelope with a few loose tablets, perhaps passed along by a friend. Often your pharmacist is confronted with these clueless exhibits and asked by customers to guess what these medicines were, and to supply "some more of the same."

Pharmacy is a science that cannot be pursued by guesswork, nor by smelling, tasting or looking at unidentified substances. When you request a medicine and give merely a vague description—or present an unlabeled bottle—you are asking your pharmacist to introduce an element of chance into his professional work. He has no choice but to refuse, for your safety is far more important to him than just another sale.

Labels should be protected; containers kept; prescription numbers carefully preserved, if more of a medicine is likely to be needed or your physician wishes the prescription to be refilled. Then, your pharmacist will be glad to help you. But he will not take chances or guess. By declining to take such chances, he is acting in the interest of your safety and your health.—Reprinted from a copyrighted advertisement published by Parks, Davis & Company, Detroit 32, Michigan.

MRS. T. M. HARRISON ENJOYS EXCITING TRIP THROUGH EAST

(Ed. Note—This is the last of a two-part story by Mrs. T. M. Harrison describing a recent vacation through the East. Mrs. Harrison continues her writing on New York City in this issue.)

Tuesday my niece, Mary Jo Dahm and little daughter Sharon of Manchester, New Hampshire, came in and we visited some of the big department stores, including 5th Avenue Saks, which is no more impressive than Neiman's and Tiffany's, where we saw a $150,000 diamond which wasn't for sale but for display purposes only. Of course this was a great disappointment.

Macy's, while not so fashionable, impressed me more than any other store. They use escalators instead of elevators. They guarantee that you can buy any article in the store at six per cent less than you can obtain elsewhere. If this doesn't hold true you can return it and get your money back.

"Oh The Bowery"
 That afternoon we took a sight-seeing tour of lower New York, again seeing the "Village," St. Patrick's Cathedral, the Little Church around the Corner, China Town and the Bowery. The guide told many interesting stories of people who started there, including Al Smith and a number of famous movie stars.

We also had a close-up view of the Atlantic and the Statue of Liberty. Our trip to Coney Island left me cold as it can't compare in any way with the Pacific Coast except in the number of people, which must have been well over 500,000—all foreigners.

The Sunday before we were there, there was an estimated million people on the Island. The most exciting part of this trip was the ride on the subway. This A. M. on "Welcome Travelers Broadcast" a guest was asked what he considered life's most dangerous moment. He replied, "Did you ever ride on a subway in New York?"

City Within A City
 Times Square is the heart of New York's theatrical district. Within a radius of 10 blocks are scores of theatres. Being interested in dramatics, much of my time was spent in Radio City, located right in the midst of Rockefeller Center. It was during the early 1930's, a none too confident decade in American history, that the vision of Rockefeller Center rose up in the heart of New York City. It will always remain a great accomplishment in a vast, incredible city. Today the soaring towers of

Greatly esteemed by the public is the channel, a verdant passage, which leads off 5th avenue to the lower plaza. It is filled with flowers, fountains, restful benches, hundreds of azaleas, forsythia bushes, cherry trees, and white birches. During the summer months it becomes an open air restaurant, it's tables, parasols and trees making an amusing pattern. As do the roof gardens, one of the most heart-warming spectacles, in this new citadel.

At The Theatre
 We saw two plays, "Mr Roberts" starring Henry Fonda with an all male cast, which a special interest for those who know about life in the Navy, and "Lend An Ear," starring William Eythe and Carol Channing. Of course I was particularly anxious to see South Pacific, but they were sold out six months in advance. However, we were told that by contacting scout ticket agents we might obtain tickets for $40 to $50. We decided not to go.

No less entertaining were the shows of the Roxie Theatre and the Music Hall. At the Roxie, we saw, "It Happens Every Spring" with Ray Milland, and on the stage, The Andrew Sisters in person, the Icapades, and Paul Remos and his Toy Boys.

The Radio City Music Hall has become a world-renowned institution. This great 6,200 seat playhouse is the world's largest indoor theatre. Here on the world's largest stage with its 60 foot-high, 100 foot-wide proscenium arch, revolving stage, golden contour curtain and the finest lighting and sound systems ever installed, the music hall presents spectacles which are the delight of its vast audiences.

Millions Attend Annually
 It entertains more than 8,000,000 persons a year. Here we saw "Look For The Silver Lining", with June Haver and on the stage, a stirring pageant dedicated to the United Nations, the world famous Rockettes, 36 precision dancers, who appear on every music hall program, and the brilliant Corps De Ballet, America's only resident Ballet. As many as 300 artists take part in these productions.

We took a tour of the RCA building learning how our radio programs come to us, and were given an opportunity to appear on television—also, to see ourselves on television—I would look.

We saw an NBC Broadcast, starring Faye Emerson in "My Silent Partner". I enjoyed the play so asked a member of the cast if it had been published. He said, "No, but they would be glad to give me a script." Then Miss Emerson came out and talked with us. She is a charming lady, who was reared in Beaumont, Texas. I continued to "Oh" and "Ah" about everything.

Still Likes Home
 I Simply didn't stay long enough to get that bored, cosmopolitan air that all New Yorkers seem to wear. Much as I enjoyed it all I was never quite so content to be just a poor, country girl.

After a two-week stay, we left New York Saturday A. M. and got stuck in one of the two traffic jams we were in. Until we reached Water Gap, a resort some 40 or 50 miles out, we probably didn't make more than 5 miles per hour. This happens every Saturday. Everyone who can get out of the city for the weekends, I think the traffic system in New York must be the most perfect in the world.

We visited some very beautiful places in New Jersey. Our drive to Troy, Penn., for a short visit with relatives was indeed lovely. The most beautiful spot about mid-way where large telescopes are stationed where you have a gorgeous view of the Susquehanna River Valley running through the Allegheny mountains. We were impressed by the huge black maple trees, easily 50 years old, that over-lapped forming an arch-way along the highway for our entrance into Troy. We entered many towns and cities through these arches of greenery.

Magnificent Niagara
 At 6:30 Monday we were again on our way to Buffalo and Niagara Falls which was certainly the highlight of the entire trip. Entering by the Rainbow Bridge over the Niagara River, you come into full view of the falls, a worthy 20th century rival of the seven wonders of the World. Fortunately, you see the American Falls and Maid of the Mist first, as the Horseshoe Falls on the Canadian side are much more beautiful and magnificent.

It so completely fascinates one that you can watch it for hours, for it's like a lovely lady of many moods, both somber and gay. It's so powerful that the spray often rises into the clouds, and at its foot I watched a rainbow form. As the water leaps over the Horseshoe Falls, it miraculously changes to a brilliant light green color.

We took the tunnel tour, viewing them from underground and saw the whirlpool rapids, a fitting setting for this scene is the Oakes

Garden Theatre. It's lovely park and spacious grounds overlooking the Niagara River were donated by a man bearing that name and dedicated to the memory of his son who lost his life in the armed forces overseas.

Man-Made Day
 We visited curio and antique shops until night when the rainbow lights were turned on the Falls illuminating them by 1,300,000,000 candle power and giving them colossal grandeur. The reflection from these myriad lights compassed the entire river, but why try to find words to describe the indescribable? At the time, it's magnitude and magnificence certainly leaves one speechless.

The next morning we had an interesting drive through Ontario to St. Thomas where we had lunch. Canada must be a marvelous farming country. The wheat fields were the loveliest I've ever seen but comprise from only 4 to 10 acres, which seemed strange to us.

The tobacco fields and enormous tobacco barns, too, were unusual, as were the acres and acres of soy beans. There were also many soy bean fields in Kansas and Missouri.

Into The Middle-West
 That afternoon we drove through Detroit, Mich., striking our second traffic jam as it was right at 5:00 o'clock. Then on into Illinois and Indiana. The country side through these states was exquisite with verdant truck farms and dense greenery. We arrived in Chicago July 6, where we spent the night. Thursday morning we attended Jimmie Amehie's "Welcome Strangers" broadcast. We failed to secure tickets so were told to stand in a line to the left until those with tickets had been seated. Pretty soon I noticed a lady in our line step into the right row and walk in. I asked someone in front of me how she did it. She merely slipped the doorman $2.00. Bribery seems to work most anywhere.

And Home!
 Early Friday morning, we again crossed the Mississippi River into Missouri. Also crossed the Missouri River at Waverly. We spent one half day in Kansas City seeing lovely Unity Farm, then turned homeward. The highways in Oklahoma were the poorest we found anywhere.

So after driving 5,000 miles and touring 18 states, crossing the Texas-Oklahoma line Saturday, July 9, was the biggest thrill we had during the entire trip.

Owls Down Mangum

The Memphis Owls put all their eggs in one basket at Estes Park Saturday night—three runs in the second inning—and it proved to be enough as they edged past Mangum 3-2 in an exhibition game.

Mangum also could find scoring potency only in the second frame and they accounted for both their runs in that inning.

Their lead came in the top of the second. With two away, Duvall doubled and Riddle tripled to send across the first score. Thue Plew banged out a double that brought Riddle home and that was the Mangum scoring.

Memphis took charge of the game in their half of the second. Dorman reached base on a single as Ford, Dennis' double and Pruitt's single were leading factors in the Owl scoring spree.

Growth of Penney Stores Feature of Magazine Article

A company which in 47 years has grown from a single, tiny store into a nation-wide chain of more than 1,600 stores—the J. C. Penney Co.—is featured in an article in the August issue of Coronet Magazine.

The article, "Those Amazing Penney Stores," which was written by Lawrence Galton points out that the Penney chain owes its amazing growth to being friendly and helpful and giving good merchandise values.

Penney's caters to the average American family, declares Coronet. "What Penney's has accomplished is to combine all the advantages of modern mass-merchandising with the old hometown store ideas, sacrificing none of the later's friendly helpfulness towards customers."

The Penney store in Memphis is managed by H. J. Howell and employs an average of 12 local people.

For 47 years, says Coronet, it has been an ironclad Penney principle not to quote comparative prices. "Sales" are not held. "We Don't Deliver" is an unbreakable rule and "not a single dollar's worth of goods has been sold across the counter on credit."

Much of the credit for Penney's spirit and success goes to James Cash Penney, who was born 73 years ago and now is honorary board chairman of the company he founded.

Today he still is seen at his New York office when he isn't lecturing in churches and before business and civic groups.

Coronet concludes its tribute to the Penney stores with these words of J. C. Penney, "Today's greatest challenge is human relations. You won't find a finer example of good human relations than between our people and our customers."

"The answer lies in the spirit within our company, built up because everybody has an opportunity to get ahead and participate in profits."

Garvis Davis Sees Dairying Future

Regardless of what the thermometer might be saying, footballs will be filling the air here Monday when some 30 grid hopefuls are expected to answer the call of Coach Charles "Chuck" York to start training for the 1949 edition of the Memphis Cyclones.

YORK—"We'll have a better year than last season. Have plenty of good prospects but a couple of real question marks at the guard positions and in backfield reserves."

Coach York has a solid nucleus of six veteran lettermen to build his squad around and while he definitely faces a replacement problem, the tall mentor is most optimistic over the team's chances of improving last year's two won and eight lost record.

The ex-TCU griddler met a real test when he took over the reins here in 1948. He inherited a graduation-riddled eleven that was completely void of experienced boys and one of the toughest schedules in the history of the team. Their win record wasn't impressive but as the season progressed they gained one thing in football there is no substitute for—experience—and by the end of season were respected as one of the district's more powerful clubs.

Better Year

"There is no comparison between this coming season and the past," York said, "We'll definitely be a better ball club but, of course several other teams in the district will be improved, too."

York says the biggest question marks for the coming campaign are filling the guard slots—key positions in his T-minded attack—and finding capable reserves for the backfield.

That backfield, incidentally, may develop into the fastest in the region. Veteran pigskin-toters back for another year of action are Andy Gardenhire and Bobby Crooks.

Speed and Power

Crooks, who will operate this year from the right halfback position, will accentuate the speed (Continued on Page 8, Sec. 2)

Typical of the new wave of interest in the dairying industry in Hall County is the work being done by Mr. and Mrs. Garvis Davis.

They have recognized the future of the industry in Hall County, as have many other farm families, and have begun planning on a long-range basis to add the extra income from dairying to their crop profits.

The Davis family, which includes Mr. and Mrs. Davis and two children, son James and daughter Sherona, have a nice, large home on their farm which is located about one mile east of Memphis, near Highway 256.

Also on the Davis farm is a new stucco garage apartment. Here Mr. and Mrs. James Ritchie and four children, Vera Mae, James Ed, Linda Ann and Niela Mae, live. Ritchie works for Davis and is as enthusiastic over their dairying as is his boss.

The dairy barn on Davis' farm is much like others in Hall County. Built according to specifications set by the Texas Department of Health it is a six-stanchion barn. Its concrete and steel structure with easily-cleaned cement floors inside make this barn near germ-proof and add to the safety of the milk that goes from this farm to the Hall County Dairy and then into the homes of the consumer.

The barn contains three rooms including the milk room and feed room. In the milk room, key location of these modern dairy barns, is milk aerator and cooler. All equipment in this room is cleaned and checked regularly. Here (Continued on Page 8, Sec. 2)

MODERN—The dairying industry looks good to Garvis Davis, who operates a 160-acre farm about a mile east of Memphis. His modern dairy barn is built according to health department regulations and is as near germ-proof as possible to insure the cleanliness of his milk. In the top picture James Ritchie is shown putting a can of milk in the can cooler which keeps the milk at a safe 34 degrees. This cooler is located in the milk room, key location in Davis' modern dairy barn. Ritchie and his family live on the Davis farm and helps with the dairy work. Below is a picture of the Davis dairy barn. Its steel and concrete structure are more easily kept clean and sanitary than are old type barns. —Photo by Wise

Are You One of These?

'Let your light so shine before men that they will see your good works and glorify thy Father, which is in Heaven.'

In the busy world of today, we are too often prone to forget this simple truth and become a false leader of men. Our responsibilities to our God are to follow His teachings. Your life on earth should be a pattern for others to follow. Make sure that your church is a great influence in your life, because others are following after you, and your life will serve as an example to them. This week and every week, join your friends in the church of your choice.

Wonderful New Comfort

The Beautiful Chrysler | Silver Anniversary Model

New Yorker 4-door sedan with PRESTOMATIC FLUID DRIVE* TRANSMISSION—drive without shifting

New Convenience! Easiest car ever made to get into and out of. Women enter and leave with dignity. Common sense engineering of wider doorways, and natural step-in entrances make it seem absurd ever to have to wrestle your way in and out of a car.

New Smoother Driving! Chrysler's mighty Spitfire engine now has still higher compression for faster acceleration, smoother response. And along with its better all-around performance goes an amazing new Waterproof Ignition System that's exclusive with Chrysler. You can drive through high water but it won't stall. You get quicker starting, even in damp weather, smoother idling, longer life.

New Wider Chair-Height Seats! We don't fold you up like a "jackknife." You sit comfortably in seats the height of your easy chairs at home. We've more headroom, legroom, and shoulder room for you. And no other car has ever been so completely engineered from the fundamentals up for your comfort, your convenience, your peace of mind.

New Easier Steering! In one of the great advances since the war, we give you new "center control" steering. For the first time, tie rods of equal length give you balanced control. There's no wheel fight. There's greater road stability, easier handling, less road shock. Yes, and greater safety, too—for everything about this car is designed for safer driving.

Street Paving Decisions Needed Now

In response to a number of requests by local citizens, the City Council has formulated a plan whereby a number of streets in Memphis can be paved next spring.

The council has found a paving construction firm which they believe is very capable of doing the paving work. This company has been highly recommended by other cities where they have done paving contracting.

This work will be done completely on a voluntary basis with all the homeowners in each block desiring paving meeting the costs. It would be wonderful if the streets in Memphis could be paved out of city funds but since this is impossible, the plan offered by the City Council is the only feasible and practical solution.

The paving firm has agreed to take the job if as many as 15 blocks are contracted. The estimated cost of the project has been called fair by local paving authorities. For those homeowners who feel they can afford it, the paving project is undoubtedly worth the money.

Those who are interested in having the streets on their block paved should get together with their neighbors and notify the City Council or the Chamber of Commerce of their decision as soon as possible.

Although the actual paving will not be done until next spring, preliminary work will start soon and it is necessary to know in the near future if the necessary 15 blocks of homeowners desire having their streets paved.

Let's Have A Great Dairy Show

The Chamber of Commerce has announced that plans are being made to hold the annual Hall County Dairy Show here either in late September or early October.

That time is not so far away and the Chamber of Commerce is to be congratulated for beginning work on this important county project.

Dairying is really coming back into its own in Hall County. It deserves, and should get, prominent recognition as an outstanding agricultural leader.

The Hall County Dairy Show gives the industry just such recognition. It is time for all of us to start thinking about this event and making this year's show the best ever—one that will really promote the cause of dairying in our county and announce to outside areas that we have an industry that is certainly worth their recognition and admiration.

We imagine that most of our presidents would have favored bi-ennial sessions of Congress.

QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

A LIVING THING, DEMOCRACY
—Visiting German students, after a year in American schools, said that democracy was something they could not study but that they could feel it.

Our democracy was probably like fresh air to them. The exhilaration and pleasure of "living in it" was like the life-giving effect of oxygen in the air we breathe. The things that give life to our democracy are free institutions and an opportunity to live a life unmolested by powers beyond our control.

Some of the elements that caused the German students to "feel" our democracy are a judiciary system to interpret the laws, and last but not least, private enterprise as the tangible evidence of the freedom enjoyed by our citizens.

SAGELY SPOKEN—We have no intention of getting mixed up in the fight between Cardinal Spellman and Mrs. FDR. Both eyes take care of themselves in rough and tumble battles.

All that it will amount to is to kill present legislation on pending federal aid for public schools.

—Maybe that is the intent of the argument. Who knows!—The Canyon News.

A MISTAKE, CARDINAL?—It must be true that any man who attained the eminent position held by Cardinal Spellman, would have to possess intelligence, education and wisdom and knowledge. Just what would cause such a man, who should realize the responsibility of his position, to lash out with such an intemperate tirade, with neither facts nor logic to sustain his charges, is quite beyond our understanding. The idea of charging Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt with either religious or racial intolerance is not only false, it is ridiculously silly.

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt has been in the public headlines for many years. Ten people know Mrs. Roosevelt and what she stands for, where one person ever heard of Cardinal Spellman, or what he stands for. The whole world knows that Eleanor Roosevelt has been the most active crusader AGAINST INTOLERANCE, of any man or woman in this United States, or even the whole world. This well known fact makes her completely invulnerable to the charge leveled against her by this eminent cleric.—Austin State Observer.

Legislator Home But No Vacation

Sessions of the state legislature can be hard work but the legislators face even harder work during vacation periods, according to Representative A. J. Rogers of Childress.

Rogers, who is considered an outstanding freshman Representative in Austin, was in Memphis Wednesday August 3, to speak to the Lions Club.

He brought proof of his hard work along with him in the form of blisters on his hands. It seems that Roger's father, who is a farmer near Childress, ran short of cotton choppers and...

"Well, maybe we'll have a special session of the Legislature before boll-pulling time," Rogers commented.

This Week in WASHINGTON

WHILE THE CENTER of the stage was taken up in consideration of the North Atlantic pact in congress this week several important considerations were in the immediate offing. One of these was likely early consideration by the senate of the controversial oleo bill which has been bottled up in senate committee since it was passed early in the session by the house. Proponents of the measure which eliminates the federal tax on oleomargarine, declare that if the measure ever gets to the senate floor it will pass in a hurry.

Another important development was a bitter behind-the-scenes fight over a senate appropriations committee action which effectually blocks one of the president's campaign promises to develop public power. This committee action was the slashing of approximately $16,000,000 from the appropriation for construction of transmission lines and contract authorization for such lines from government constructed power dams.

Included in this slash was half the appropriation for this item for the southwestern power administration and about two-thirds of the fund appropriated for this purpose for the central valley in California. Another appropriation which was entirely eliminated was the appropriation for transmission lines known as the Kerr-Anaconda development in Montana.

According to observers here, the private power lobbyists were able to get in some fairly satisfying work with this senate appropriation committee which led Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas to remark that he was "tremendously disappointed" in cuts for the southwestern power administration funds.

According to the report of the committee, which observers here take with a grain of salt, its action in slicing the funds for power transmission lines is predicated on negotiations between federal power agencies and private power companies for the transmission from federal power dams of power to consumers on terms agreeable to the government.

Betty Wilson Weds W. D. Wilson in Clarendon Rites

In a formal church ceremony, Miss Betty Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilson of Ashola, became the bride of Wayburn D. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Wilson of Clarendon, on Thursday, July 28, at the First Baptist Church in Clarendon.

As a nuptial prelude, Mrs. Beryl Clinton, organist, played "Indian Love Call." She also accompanied Clyde Hudson, vocalist, who sang "Always" and "Because." Mrs. Clinton remained at the organ to play "Traumerel" by Schumann softly during the exchange of vows and the traditional wedding marches for the professional and recessional.

Rev. L. A. Sartin, pastor, read the double ring ceremony before an improvised altar decorated with white gladioli, greenery, silver foliage and pastel colored flowers. Candelabra, wedding bells, and aisle tapers tied with white satin ribbon completed the appointments.

Attending her sister as maid-of-honor, Miss Frankye Wilson wore a dress of pink dotted swiss styled with a fitted bodice and a full skirt. She wore a matching hat and carried a bouquet of painted daisies and carnations.

Billy Ray Blackman was best man and groomsmen were Henry Wilson Jr., brother of the bride, Gene Bulman and Nelson Christie. Jimmy Jenkins and Buster Bain were ushers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white slipper satin gown designed with a high neckline, set-in yoke of marquisette, long sleeves tapering to points over the hands, fitted bodice and a full skirt with folded loops in the back. She wore a shoulder length veil of white net and carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will be at home in Clarendon until September 1, when they plan to move to Oklahoma City where the groom will attend college.

AMERICA AT PLAY

VACATION! They've picked time and place, and they've planned and saved for months.

That's the American way—the way of free choice—so familiar we take it for granted. A man picks his job, leaves it freely for a better one. He chooses the town he'll work in, the house where he'll live. He saves or spends as he wishes.

It's not that way everywhere. In some countries, the government puts a man in a city, a house, a job, with no choice in the matter. He can't quit, leave town or move around the corner without permission. If he gets a vacation, he is told where and when to go. The government runs everything, the people nothing. That's what happens when a free people turn over their responsibilities to their government. They also turn over their freedom of choice. Socialism is the result. How does Socialism happen? Not overnight. It is woven slowly, a thread at a time, into the bonds of slavery. Little by little the government assumes powers other than governing—until it finally assumes all power.

You, here in West Texas, would be astounded by the various ways and means that

MILAMS ENJOY WESTERN TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Milam returned to Memphis Sunday night following a 10-day trip to California and other points of interest in the far West.

While in California they visited in San Juan Batista, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Toner and children. Mrs. Toner is their daughter.

On the return trip they enjoyed sight-seeing at such interesting spots as Boulder Dam and Las Vegas, Nevada.

some formerly good statesmen in Washington have been politically jockeyed and pressured into succumbing in many instances to the Socialistic planners that have infected our government and good old-line political parties.

Through acquiescence against the better judgment of some of our statesmen, our Federal government has already embarked on political, bureaucratic duplications and the taking over of private businesses with your tax funds.

This is true not only in our industry in some eastern locations, but the bureaucrats are now openly aiming at banks, insurance, steel, railroads, mines, forests and many other private businesses that have so helped this country to grow, produce and prosper. This is how Socialism got its political wedge and hold in such non-producing countries as England is today and it is why such countries are not producing but are leaning on us.

Talk to your friends and neighbors; see how they feel about this Socialism and other political "isms" in Washington that are threatening your American way of life, decreasing your liberties and increasing your taxation.
