MEMPHIS, HALL COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 22, 1949  SEVEN CENTS  NUMBER 16

50 Jerseys Expected in Annual Hall County Dairy Show

Animals to Arrive Tomorrow; Swine Show Also to Be Held

Show animals will begin moving into Memphis in the morning to compete in the Annual Hall County Dairy Show which will last through Saturday afternoon. After clipping and grooming for competition, the animals will be taken to Building No. 11 of the Memphis Compress Co. where the show will be held.

The use of the building is donated by M. C. Allen, owner of the compress company.

Between 50 and 60 head of Jerseys are expected by show officials to be in the arena by noon tomorrow—deadline for entries.

The show is being sponsored by the Memphis Chamber of Commerce and Hall County Board of Development in conjunction with W. B. Hooser, county agent.

Also on display will be two bulls purchased by the First State and First National banks of Memphis, used for breeding purposes by livestock raisers in Hall County.

In connection with the dairy cattle show, and on display in the same building, will be the annual Hall County 4-H Club Boar and Gilt Show. This show is the result of a program sponsored by local businessmen.

Dr. Harbaugh to Judge

Dr. Fred G. Harbaugh, veterinarian and professor of animal husbandry at Texas Technological College, will be judge of the dairy show. Judging will take place Saturday morning, and prizes in 13 classes will be awarded. As high as six awards will be made in some divisions, and rosettes will be given the Grand, Junior and Senior champion bulls, as well as the Grand, Junior and Senior champion cows.

A special attraction that is designed to attract a goodly portion of the citizens of Memphis and Hall County—whether or not they are authorities on cattle—is a ringside judging contest, according to County Agent W. B. Hooser. This contest will consist of judging two classes: yearling heifers, and cows in milk, and it will be conducted Saturday afternoon. The task of deciding the winner of the ringside judging contest will befall a special committee, consisting of Gene Lindsey, chairman, and Jim Davison, Homer Tucker and Weldon McCreary.

There will be announcers on hand to explain each of the contests. H. J. Howell, president of the C. of C., and Herschel Combs, chairman of the dairy committee, will divide time at the public address mike as masters of ceremonies. Between each of the class judging will be short talks by authorities on various phases of the dairy business, and other business and professional men.

Hooser has visited several of the cattle to be shown—getting them in shape for the show ring. Final preparation on some of them will be taken care of Friday morning.

Winners in this show will be entered in other fairs throughout this area. Hall County entries have been successful in most of the shows they have entered in the past.

Those persons who are expected to bring one or more animals for the show are Roy Sweatt, John Luther Byars, Wesley Waites, Stacey Waites, E. W. Pate, E. L. Weddel, M. L. Alexander, Del Wells and M. E. Drake, all of Lakeview; F. R. Gentry, Ordie Jones, John Ira Foster, Ira McQueen, L. A. Richards, Hall County Dairy, Holland McMurray, E. E. Cudd, Jack Montgomery, Charles Williams and son, and A. Womack, all of Memphis.

Winfred Cooper and Alga Turner, of Turkey; Paul Buchanan and Woodrow Phillips, of Estelline; Arwin Wood of Parnell; Archie Martin of Newlin.

F. F. A. Chapter to Attend District Banquet Tuesday

Members of the local F. F. A. chapter will attend the annual Greenbelt District banquet at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in Turkey.

Robert Duncan, vice president of the district, will help conduct the opening ceremonies.

About 12 schools are expected to be represented at the dinner, states Weldon McCreary, vocational agriculture teacher here. About 10 boys from here will attend.

Oil Well Rig Set Up Again Over Estelline Test

Drilling will start again this week at the wildcat oil test, located three miles west of Estelline. J. C. Moore, who with his partner, J. O. Fox of Dallas, hold a 12,000-acre block of leases in the area, announced Tuesday.

Moore stated that B. L. McFarland of Colorado City, independent drilling contractor, started moving in a deep test rig Tuesday. The rig has been set over the abandoned hole located on the John Chaudoin place, from which a rig was moved about three weeks ago after the driller T. F. Vander Laan of Odessa had fished for broken drill stem for two weeks.

It is understood that McFarland will spend a short time fishing for the drill stem, Moore stated.

If fishing is unsuccessful, the crew will by-pass the drill stem by installing a "whip-stock", and continue drilling to the contracted 5,600-foot depth.

Last reported depth of drilling was at 4,800 feet.

Relative of Memphis Families Killed in Arkansas Plane Crash

Hoyt Willingham, relative of several Memphis families, was killed instantly Tuesday afternoon when a plane with which he was dusting cotton struck a smoke stack and crashed.

Willingham was employed by the government and was working in Arkansas. His home is in Littlefield. His mother, Mrs. Ora Webster, of Lubbock, was born and reared in Memphis. His father had been dead several years.

He is the nephew of Dot, B. Brice, C. R. Jim and Ray Webster, and Mrs. Ed McRury of Memphis, and several members of the families plan to attend the funeral services at 2 p. m. tomorrow in Littlefield.

Besides his mother, he is survived by his wife and four children, and a brother, Amel Webster, of Austin. Another brother was killed in an automobile accident some five years ago.

Sand Samples are Wanted by C of C

Farmers who have a large enough quantity of sand for manufacturing purposes, are asked by Clifford Farmer, manager of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce, to contact him in the City Hall and to bring a sample of the sand.

MEMPHIS, TURKEY BUSES BE INSPECTED MONDAY

School buses of Memphis and Turkey High Schools will be inspected by the State Highway Department Monday, according to Miss Mary Foreman, county superintendent.

The Lakeview and Estelline buses were inspected last week.

Cyclone Will Meet Dumas Tomorrow Night Here

Memphis Cyclone, undefeated in its first two games this season, will play its final non-disaster game tomorrow night against the High School Demons at the Cyclone Stadium.

Headed on the No. 1 position in the Amarillo Daily News football register, Coach Messer's eleven is expected to be in better physical condition than they were for last season's game with Canyon.

Messer, who did not play in the Canyon tilt, will take over his regular position although he is the best physical condition he has been suffering from cold and has missed several games this week.

Men to action will relieve Messer from backfield duty in his regular position at the game, and he was shifted to left half back for Kennedy.

Both turned in creditable performances at their new locations.

Demons have broken even this season thus far. They were defeated by Wellington in the first game, but bounced back to win last week 34-12.

Don Raso, center, Raymond Hoots, halfback, also played well. They will wear their new uniforms.

Joe Champion's team averaged an average of 166 yards per game on the line and in the backfield—almost the same as the Cyclone.

Long Dies: Funeral Tuesday

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Thomas Long, resident of Memphis, who died Monday at the age of 79.

Mr. A. W. Francis Jr. of Memphis read the ceremony at the home of Christ and later at the funeral home, where the services were held.

Mr. Long was born in Paris, Tex., on July 11, 1881, and moved to Memphis in 1925 where he remained until his retirement some years ago. He has been a member of the Memphis Church of Christ since 1927.

He is survived by Mrs. Curtis, James Robert Long, all of Tracy, and Mrs. Mary and Mrs. Bertha Nergler of Memphis, Calif., Mrs. Idabell Colquhoun of Paris, Tex., and the Lee Doty of Quanah; and Mrs. C. L. Grimes of Memphis, one brother, Isaac Long, and four half-brothers, Roy Grimes of Memphis, Grimes of San Marie, and Elmer Grimes of Memphis, Calif.; and five half-sisters, Mrs. L. E. Jenkins of Memphis, Mrs. Owen Jenkins of Memphis, Mrs. Eddie Beard of Memphis, Mrs. Lizzie Long of Memphis, Calif., and Mrs. Ollie Long of Buckeye, Ariz.

He had 30 grand children and seven great grand children.

Bearers for the funeral will be Stephens, Johnnie Brewster, Alexander, Gene Hughs, and T. A. Everett.

Farmers Can Get Government Loan On Cottonseed

As soon as proper testing equipment arrives, farmers will be able to receive up to $49.50 government loan for each ton of cottonseed produced, according to ACA Secretary Lynn McKown.

The seed would have to be stored by the farmers, however, as there are no storage facilities furnished under this program, McKown pointed out.

The testing equipment, which costs $600, has been ordered, and its arrival is expected in the next few days, he said. Memphis will be the centrally located office for testing for several adjoining counties.

He also stated that his office could loan money toward the building of storage space—up to 85 per cent of the structure's value, and with five years in which to pay off the loan.

Scoutmaster Myers, Tommy Messer Will Attend Meet Saturday

Scoutmaster Ted Myers and Scout Tommy Messer will go to Camp Kiowah at Canadian Saturday, Sept. 24, to attend a two-day meet of the Adobe Walls Council Order of the Arrow Ceremony.

Tommy has already passed into the Order of the Arrow secret society, while Scoutmaster Myers will take his test Saturday. Sunday afternoon the Order of the Arrow investiture ceremony will be held for all scouts and scoutmasters who have successfully passed the test, and will at this time receive their awards.

The program Saturday night at Camp Kiowah will have 16 m. m. movies of the scouts at summer camp. Also to be shown are the Randolph Field Senior Scout Airlift and the Senior Scout Airlift to Canada, made from Adobe Walls Council this summer.

BANQUET SPEAKER—Dr. A. F. Edwards will be guest speaker for the Memphis Lion's Club banquet at 8 o'clock tonight. The occasion will be Ladies' Night, and members of the Memphis school faculty will be honored guests. Dr. Edwards is professor of government at Hardin College, Wichita Falls.

WESTERN COTTON OIL CO. NAMES MEMPHIS PLANT SAFETY CHAMP

An intensive safety campaign put into operation through regular meetings of the personnel, has paid off for the Western Cotton Oil Co., as the plant here has been awarded a bronze plaque for having the lowest rate of accidents of any mill in the Western Cotton Oil Co. organization.

This was announced by the division office in Abilene, and it was compiled during the 1948-49 season. L. H. Reams, superintendent of the mill, is the man most responsible for the excellent record. He has recently been transferred to the Western Cotton Oil Co., Littlefield, and will be succeeded by E. S. Cunningham at the Memphis plant.

Before he left, Mr. Reams was host at a barbecue for mill workers and their families. E. B. Free, safety director of the company, was speaker at the dinner. He lauded the efforts of Reams and the company personnel for their efforts in winning the award, and commended all men for their part in the program.

The Western Cotton Oil Co. has a very active safety program, employing a full-time safety director who is in the division office in Abilene. A summary of accidents is kept for all mills in the branch, and also the cost of all accidents—based on the number of man-hours worked. By dividing the cost of accidents by the man-hours worked, the director can get a cost per man hour, which is the basis used in determining the mill with the lowest rate.

"Our record did not just happen," said Mr. Reams. "It was brought about by intensive safety campaigns and regular meetings of the employees of the mill, pointing out to them the hazards to watch and the correct ways to use the tools and machinery. As in the case of any concern using a good many men working around machinery, accidents will happen unless the men are safety conscious and are on the alert. By training the men to watch themselves around machines, accidents can be cut to a minimum in any industry," he added.

Soil Conservation Area Supervisor Election is Oct. 4

A new supervisor for Area No. 1 of the Hall County Soil Conservation District will be elected on Oct. 4 by property owners of that area, states W. B. Hooser, county agent. The election is set for 2 p. m.

The present supervisor, J. J. McDaniel, will have served his term of office at that date. Area No. 1 includes all of Memphis, south to the river and west to the county line.

TROOP 35 SCOUTS TO MEET MONDAY

Roll call and inspection of all Scouts of Troop 35 between the ages of 11 and 14 years will be held at the Scout meeting 7:30 o'clock Monday night at the library building.

All members are requested by Scoutmaster Ted Myers to attend because the roll call for all scouts in the United States will be held Monday, and all members should wear full uniforms for the inspection.

A scout executive from the Adobe Walls Council will be present for the meeting.

Troop 35 now has the following scouts registered: Billy Combs, Max McCoy, Carroll Gardenhire, James Freeman Jr., Billy Hawkins, John Deaver II, Jimmy Hill, Don Howell, Paul Rowlett, Jackie Boone, Roddy Bice, Dennis Davis, Jimmy Davis, Philip Patrick, Si Gibson, Robert Breedlove, John Freeman, James Moss, Jim Smith Jr., Roy Coleman, Wayne Tiner, and Jim Jenkins.

Firemen Win Water Polo Championship At Tulia Convention

The Memphis Volunteer Fire Department team won the water polo championship but lost out in the water pumping contest at the semi-annual Panhandle Firemen's Convention held Sept. 13 at Tulia.

Some 17 persons from Memphis attended. They were: Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Sturdevant, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hancock, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Briscoe, Mr. and Mrs. Red Ward, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wise, Mr. and Mrs. Don Genter, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Alexander, Fire Chief Clayton, Harry Aspreen and Alvin Massey.

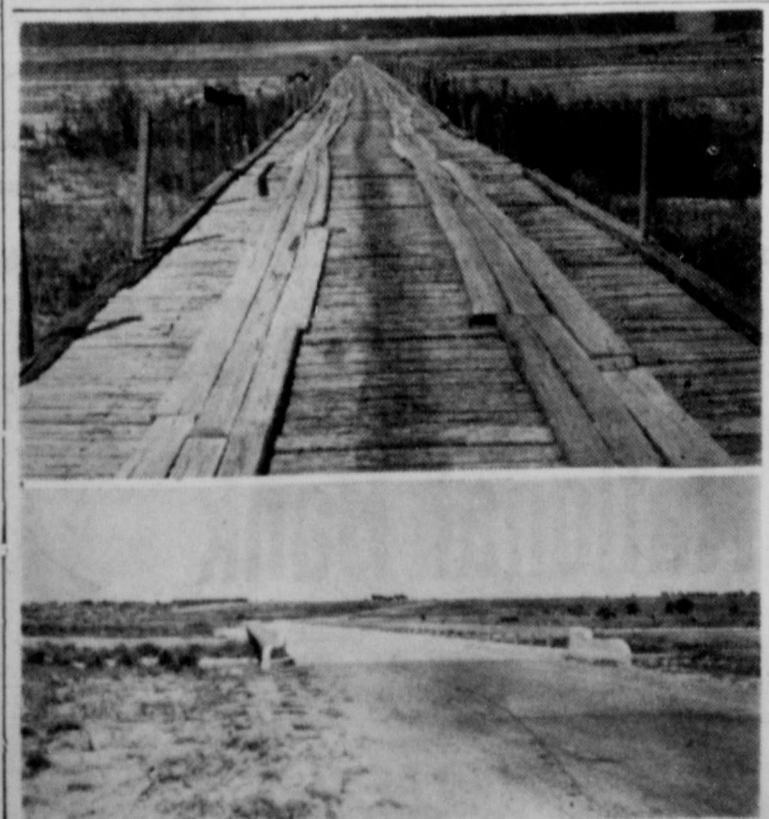

Some 35 Panhandle towns were represented at the one-day convention. The next one will be held May 12, 1950, at Levelland.

TURKEY JUNIOR HIGH BOWS TO WHIRLWIND 40-0 LAST NIGHT

The Memphis Junior High Whirlwind started scoring early and continued at a fast pace last night to defeat the Turkey Junior High team 40-0.

Coach George Childress substituted liberally throughout the game, but the substitutes kept up the scoring barrage. Harvey Kennedy, left half, End Ronnie Mack Smith and Tackle Max McCoy were standouts for the host club. Duke Frisbie, quarterback, and Center Billy Miles turned in steady performances, as did Roy Don Coleman.

The Whirlwind's next game will be next Thursday night with Le-fors here.

J. C. McMurrays Enjoy Visit to New Haven, Conn.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McMurry arrived in Memphis Thursday afternoon after spending the past two weeks in New Haven, Conn., with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sante Graziani and Michael.

While in the east they visited many interesting points in New York, Connecticut and Massachusetts, seeing such landmarks as the Rockefeller Center, the Empire State building, Geo. Washington Bridge, Grant's Tomb and Statue of Liberty. At the Metropolitan Museum in New York they saw the Broadway production, "Finians Rainbow" starring Joe Yule, the father of Mickey Rooney.

The outstanding point of interest in New Haven is Yale University, where Mr. Graziani is a faculty member of the Yale School of Fine Arts. At the present, Mr. Graziani is working on a mural for the Holyoke, Mass., Public Library in his Yale studio. One day was spent in Springfield, Mass., as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick B. Robinson, director of the Springfield Museum of Fine Arts. There Mr. and Mrs. McMurry enjoyed seeing a mural which was completed by Mr. Graziani in 1947.

INSIDE SPORTS
Searchlight
 By BILL REA

Most all of the "big" papers have their sports department, their sports pages and sports editors. We have nothing like that here at The Democrat, but we don't like to sit back and watch the city fellers make all sorts of rash predictions in the field of sports without doing something about it on our own. Consequently, my bosses and I decided that it was about time we started crawling out on limbs—speaking our minds about the great American sports events. And by putting somebody's name on the column, he—and not necessarily the paper—would have to suffer the consequences.

The boss man said "It's yours. Do with it what you will." With that in mind, I hereby start The Sport Searchlight—for better or for worse, to be run each week unless crowded out by something important.

Speaking of sports, there is nothing better to talk about than football. And speaking of football, there's nothing better to talk about than — you guessed it, the Memphis Cyclones.

From the two games the boys have played this season, the most impressive thing they have displayed out there on the field is spirit. And I believe there is no higher compliment a team, any team, can receive that for the people to recognize the fact that they are out there in win or to try their best. And in both games they have put that spirit to work by pulling themselves up by the boot straps and producing when they have to. They've indicated that they have the intestinal fortitude to do it!

The boys have been subjected to a lot of ballyhoo. They have been on the spot since practice began, and they will stay on it. I say that's fine and dandy. Let 'em look up to Memphis High School! Just so long as it doesn't get to the point of team over-confidence.

Right now it looks like District 2-A will be a three team

NOPE, YOU AREN'T BATTY . . . This is a real baby bat taking his repast from an eye dropper. He is Mickey the Bat, one of the wierd creatures of the all-star cast in the Moody Institute of Science film, "Dust or Destiny." He is a bottle-baby from way back and just loves that milk. The young bat became an institute pet during the filming of the documentary film in Los Angeles. He probably will grow up to be a fine, healthy bat and give a lot of people the "screaming meemies."

scrap right down to the wire, with Wellington, Memphis and Lefors in the big middle of it. One of the biggest jobs the Cyclones will have all year is the opening tussle with defending champion Lefors. The latter has over 20 lettermen back and that spells nothing but trouble.

Predictions? Everyone is doing it, so here we go:

MEMPHIS-DUMAS—It looks like we may see another high-scoring affair. I expect it to something like last week's game. Memphis 20, Dumas 13.

WELLINGTON-MANGUM—Very little to compare the two teams with, but I'll stick with Wellington, 20-14.

CLARENDON-PERRYTON—It looks like Perryton will finally get to beat a 2-A team. My guess Perryton 14-7 winner.

SHAMROCK-DALHART—The Irish have shown improvement, but I look for Dalhart to beat them by a touchdown.

MCLEAN-PHILLIPS—Is there any doubt? Probably by about three or four touchdowns.

Memphis Outscores Canyon 19-13 Friday Night Here

Whirlwind Begins Play; 'B' Team to Start Soon

is First Meet Lefors

FIREMEN ANSWER CALLS SATURDAY

A fire was extinguished by the Memphis City Fire Department Saturday morning in the H. C. McKnight apartment house, 1021 W. Main St., before extensive damage was done.

The fire in the first-floor apartment, inhabited by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Murdock and 15-month old daughter, was confined to one room. It started in a clothes closet, and is believed to have begun from spontaneous combustion, according to firemen.

An estimated $600 damages were done, as all of the occupants' clothes were burned with the exception of those which they were wearing and one dress.

The fire was discovered by Mrs. Murdock about 9 a. m. The baby was asleep some six feet from the closet which was burning, but the baby was not injured.

Another call was answered by the Fire Department Saturday night at the city dump grounds, as a 1940 model Chevrolet truck driven by Leroy Jones, had rolled into some burning trash and could not be started.

Fireman estimated the damage to be around $600.

'B' Squad Opens Season Oct. 7 With Shamrock

Coach Fred Wright's "B" team will be host to the "B" team of Shamrock High School Oct. 6 as it opens a schedule which will include seven games.

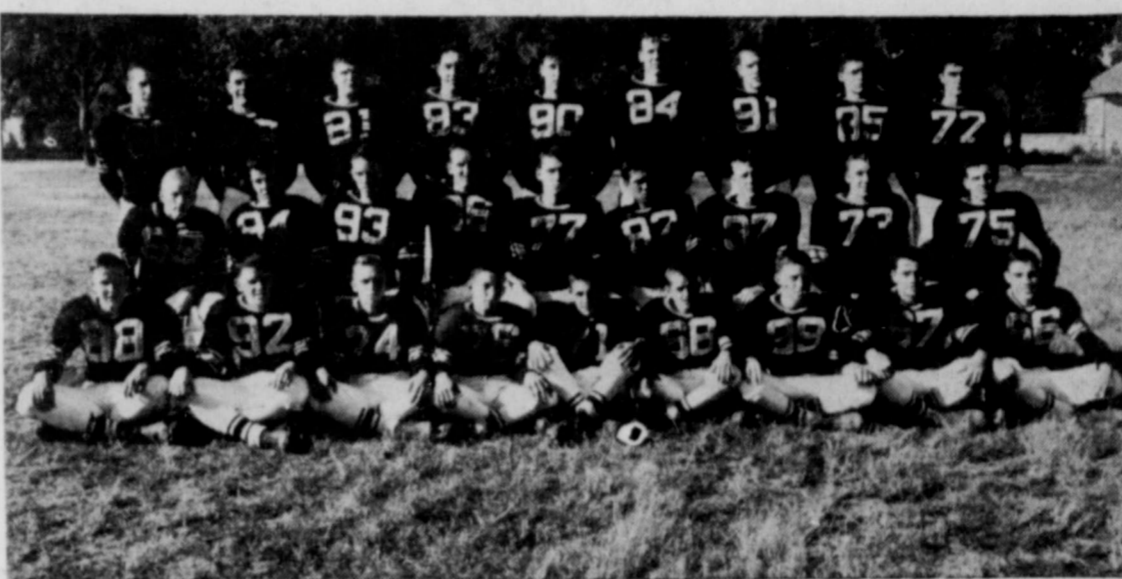

Three games have already been set, two with Shamrock and one with Lakeview. Four more are probable—two each with Wellington and Childress, according to coach Wright.

The boys have been putting in some rugged afternoon sessions since school began, and they have scrimmaged the "A" team several times.

The team has been given unusual attention and it is one of the units that of great concern in the expanding athletic program carried on by Memphis High School officials. It is the squad that has produced the majority of the material for their year's "A" team. On the main squad, only six did not get some experience on the "B" team.

The first game will be part of a double-header, as the junior high school team will meet the Shamrock junior high team the same night.

The Memphis Cyclone, obviously still under the influence of the previous week's upset victory over Quannah, almost fumbled the ball game away Friday night before it ever got a chance to get in some good licks of its own. However, it got up from the floor, turned on the steam, and defeated the Canyon Eagles 19-13 Friday night in Cyclone Stadium before almost 2,000 spectators.

But for some exceptionally fine line play on the part of Lee "King Kong" Bloxom, Cyclone tackle, the trigger happy hosts could easily have received their first defeat. On numerous occasions the big boy stopped Canyon offensive maneuvers aimed at his position. He was helped along by Freddie Vinson, Raymond Clark and Kenneth McQueen in fine defensive showings on several occasions. On two different instances, the Eagles had the ball on the two-yard line, goal to go, and were held.

Cyclone Breaks Tie in Fourth

Memphis was forced to rally in the fourth quarter to produce the victory. And while Canyon had displayed a much more effective aerial game throughout, it was a pass, from Quarterback Roddy Stargel to End Don Rasco, good for eight yards which was the deciding play. It was the climax to a snappy 15 yard march that started on the kickoff after the Eagles had tied the game 13-13. After that, the Cyclone turned all attention to protecting their lead for the remainder of the contest.

Andy Gardenhire continued to head the Memphis attack. He scored two touchdowns and added an extra point. In addition, he carried the ball 22 plays, gaining 93 yards for an average of 4.23 yards per try. He had missed several workouts before the game getting some teeth fixed up after receiving a jar in the mouth during the Quannah game. He lost one tooth and may have to have another or two extracted. Anyway the affliction didn't show in his play Friday night.

Bobby Crooks, running mate of Gardenhire, also turned in a fine performance as he picked up 57 yards on 16 running plays for an average of 3.78 yards each attempt, and had a respectable average of 33 yards on three times he was called on to punt.

Fumble Starts It

A fumble by Roddy Stargel on the first play from scrimmage sent Canyon in motion. The Eagles drove to the two-yard marker, with first down and goal to go, but they couldn't push it over.

Crooks punted out to the 44 where the ball was killed. A (Continued on Page 8)

Estelline Loses To Price, 21-7

(Special to The Democrat) The Price College Cardinals downed the Estelline Bear Cubs by a score of 21-7 on Butler Field, Amarillo, Saturday afternoon. It was a hard-fought battle.

The Cardinals took to the air to get the first touchdown as Lewis Yoakum passed to Harry Gill. Walter Austin kicked the extra point. Good blocking and tackling by the Cubs held the heavier Cardinals fairly well.

Gene Jouett of Estelline scored the only touchdown for the Cubs, and the extra point was kicked by Gerald Fowler. In the last quarter, Yoakum passed to Gill which set up the second Cardinal score, then Yoakum plunged the ball over and Austin again converted. With two minutes left, Yoakum pitched to Gill for the final score of the afternoon. Austin made it three straight extra points.

The Cubs have an open date this week in which to prepare for their opening game next week with Turkey.

Organized Reservists Will Receive 50 Points For Reserve Training

Organized Reservists who were in the active Reserves during the one-year period ending June 28, 1949 will receive 50 points for Reserve duty training regardless of the number of points earned. Colonel Oscar B. Abbott, Executive of Texas Military District, announced this week.

This is as a result of HR Law 5929 which was signed into law last week by President Truman.

The new legislation changes the "year" for computation of the 50 retirement points required for a year of satisfactory service so as to coincide with the fiscal year—July 1 through June 30. The same period will be used as a year in which prescribed minimum training requirements must be met in order to remain in the active Reserve.

All Reserve members who earned more than 50 retirement points for Reserve training during the one-year period ending last June 28th will lose all points in excess of the 50 under the new law. Losses resulting under this new legislation will be slight, however, as the maximum number of points allowed for inactive duty training during a year is 60.

Colonel Abbott went on to say that this will assist many Reserve officers who did not make their required number of points during the last fiscal year. "Many Reservists did not receive the notification of the retirement law and the points needed thereby until early winter, and, therefore, lost three to four months of opportunity to obtain these points."

ENGINEERS BEGIN SURVEY FOR NEW ELECTRIC HIGH LINE

Engineers have been sent to Childress by the Texas Central Power Company to begin the preliminary survey for an electric high line which will be constructed from Childress to Clarendon through Memphis, beginning at a date yet to be decided. A franchise granting the company the privilege of building the line across Hall County was recently granted by the Commissioners Court.

Memphis is one of the towns to be accommodated by the line. The plant here which is owned by the above mentioned company, will not be discontinued but will be kept in a state of preparedness to be used in case of emergency.

CYCLONE BEATS ELDERADO TO WIN 33-7

Since it was a pretty autumn day and there was nothing better to do, Coach Nolan Walter's Cyclone decended upon the Eldorado team in devastating fury last Saturday afternoon and put the skids under the visiting heavyweights by a score of 33-7. It was a light, fast team that the coach sent up on the field to do battle with the enemy and save for the one department they showed up well. The Cyclone has not, as yet, developed a passing machine. Six passes were attempted in the Saturday game and Cyclone failed to complete a single one.

COTTON GROWERS URGED TO WRITE FOR FREE NEWS

Cotton growers were urged today to write for the free cottonseed market news reports issued by the Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture's southwest cotton office at Dallas.

According to John McCollum, area manager, many cotton growers are not making full use of this report and in certain cases they are not receiving maximum returns for their cottonseed. He pointed out that unlike many other agricultural products, there are no organized markets to provide basic cottonseed information.

Therefore, farmers are entirely dependent upon local quotations with no basis for comparisons unless they receive these reports.

Current cottonseed prices are gathered by PMA from ginner and cotton oil mills.

McCollum said cotton growers particularly need this cottonseed market information this year since the Commodity Credit Corporation has a cottonseed loan program in operation. These reports will help growers determine whether it would be more profitable for them to place their seed in loan or sell it, he explained.

INSPECTOR HERE TO MAKE INQUIRY INTO VIOLATIONS OF LAW

L. B. Barkley, inspector of the State Highway Department, with headquarters in Amarillo, was in the city last week conducting an exhaustive investigation into alleged violations of motor bus licenses.

The inspector said it seemed to be pretty well defined practice for a number of people in Hall County to haul passengers without having obtained a motor bus license. This is entirely contrary to law, and reports reaching the Inspector's office in Amarillo justified the investigation that he has been conducting here.

WHY THE MISSOURI PACIFIC RAILROAD STRIKE?

Over twenty years ago, the Congress of the United States passed the Railway Labor Act. It was hailed by union leaders as a model for the settlement of labor disputes.

THE LEADERS of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, Order of Railway Conductors, and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen on the Missouri Pacific Railroad have refused to avail themselves of the peaceful means provided by this Act for settling their disputes. They insist that they be the sole umpire of their own disputes over the meaning of contracts.

There is no Need for Strikes

With all of the available methods for the interpretation of contracts, there is no need for a strike or even a threat of a strike, but the leaders of these railroad unions have ignored the ordinary procedures established by law and insist upon imposing their own interpretations of their contracts by means of a strike.

The wheels have stopped rolling on the Missouri Pacific. They may stop rolling on other railroads at any time. Recently the Wabash Railroad was forced to discontinue operation for several days under similar circumstances.

What are These Strikes About?

These strikes and strike threats are not about wage rates or hours. They result from disputes over the meaning of existing contracts. They cover claims for a full day's pay for less than a day's work, or for payments for services performed by others who were fully paid for the work done.

VA Announces New Eligibility Forms

Certain changes in Certificates of Eligibility for World War II veterans planning to train under the GI Bill have been made, and it will be necessary that all veterans comply with these new instructions in order to avoid delay in entering school, Robert W. Sisson, Veterans Administration Regional Manager at Lubbock announced this week.

Certificates of Eligibility issued to World War II veterans planning to train under GI Bill from now on will include (1) the name of the course a veteran wants to take and (2) the name of the approved school which he wants to pursue the course.

The new type certificate will be good only for the listed course in the specific school named.

The additional information on Certificates of Eligibility, Sisson explained, will aid VA in its efforts to help veterans get training that will be of direct use to their readjustment to civilian life, rather than seek training that night serve no other than recreational or avocational purposes.

Also, Sisson added, a veteran asked to select a school and course before he even obtains a certificate would be more apt to give serious thought to his educational objectives and to the institution in which he wishes to pursue those objectives.

In the past, veterans were not asked to list the course or school on application for GI Bill training. Certificates of Eligibility, therefore, could be used for nearly any institution that had appropriate GI Bill approval.

But Public Law 266, passed August 24 of this year, prohibits veterans from GI Bill courses for avocational or recreational purposes, or courses in existence for at least one year. The new type certificate—with course and school listed—have become necessary in order to screen applications and to prevent veterans from taking courses at government expense which have been prohibited by law.

Veterans who had Certificates of Eligibility issued before September 1, 1948, have been urged repeatedly by VA to exchange them for certificates bearing identifying "C" or claims numbers. Those few veterans who still have the old certificates should surrender them for the new type—listing course and school—before commencing a course of training. Veterans who have never had a course of training and now have unused Certificates of Eligibility—issued after September 1, 1948—may use them as they are until March 1, 1950. They need not exchange for new certificates, but after March 1, 1950, they will not be valid.

Those certificates, Sisson added, may not be used for elementary flight, private pilot and commercial pilot flight courses, or for any courses for which veterans are required to submit justification that the training will serve a bona fide use in present or future business or employment.

The date the certificate was issued may be found in a box "Item Six" in the upper right hand corner of the certificate, directly to the right of space for veteran's name.

Supplemental Certificates of Eligibility—issued before September 12, 1949, to veterans de—may be used for enrollment in current terms only until November 1, Sisson said.

After November 1, and until March 1, 1950, the supplemental certificates no longer will be valid—with a single exception.

That exception is a supplemental certificate obtained by a veteran for the purpose of changing his school, but not his course, without loss of a credit.

But even in that case, the supplemental certificate will not be good if the course taken is flight training or one of the types requiring justification.

Effective March 1, 1950, all outstanding supplemental Certificates of Eligibility—regardless of the purpose for which they were issued—will be void.

To obtain for the first time a Certificate of Eligibility, a veteran applies at any VA Office. He

"Spare the Gas and Save the Child" Urged by Texas Safety Association

Austin, Sept.—Texans were urged to "spare the gas and save the child!" in a statewide September campaign launched by the Texas Safety Association against traffic accidents to school-age children.

"No matter how much safety education a child has had drilled in him," said George Clarke, Managing Director, "the fact remains that it's largely up to the motorist whether the child lives or dies."

The Association pointed out that home training and school safety lessons are valuable in impressing youngsters with the dangers of playing in the street and crossing between intersections. But on the other hand, the Association warns, a child in the heat of play forgets quickly and easily the lessons that he has learned, so the bulk of the responsibility falls upon the driver.

Clarke told motorists they can save child life by following these rules:

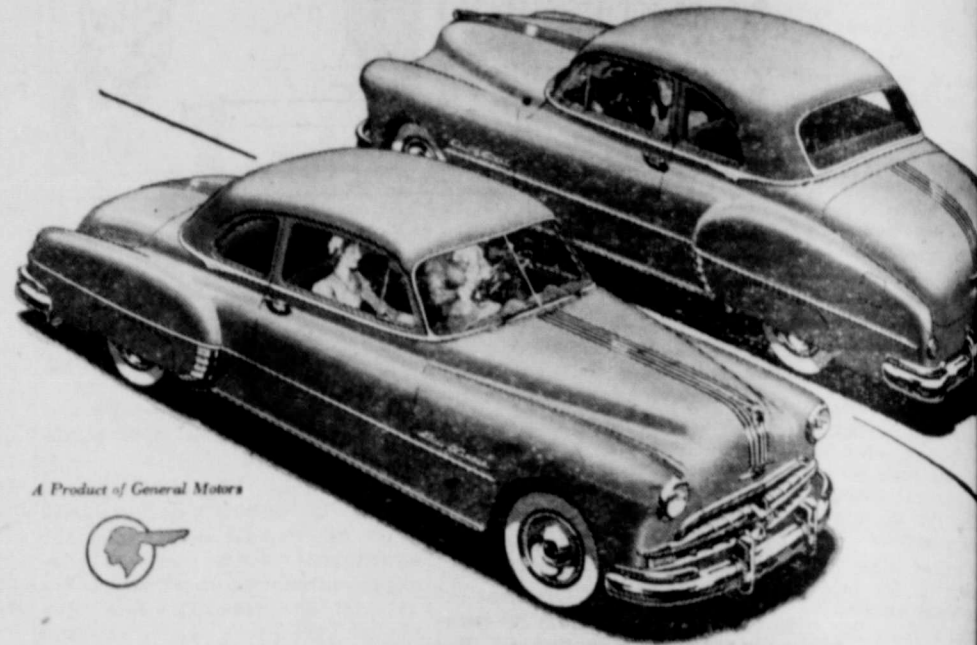

1. Regard every child on the street as a flashing 'caution' sign.
2. In school zones, residential districts and near playgrounds, be especially watchful for children and expect the unexpected at all times.
3. Give bicycles a wide berth. Inexperience, a poor sense of balance, holes in the road, or just BUZZING LOVERS . . . Two were hurt in this plane crashup in Philadelphia. The plane was piloted by Joseph Pichoske, 23, and carried his fiancée, Roselia Devlin, 19, as a passenger. The crash resulted from flying too low, or buzzing, the home of Miss Devlin. The plane landed in a very unorthodox manner in the middle of North Lee street in the Pennsylvania city, and Pichoske and his fiancée were seriously injured. Firemen of the Philadelphia department stand by and pour water on the wreckage to prevent any fire that might result from the accident from spreading to nearby buildings and threatening this section of Philadelphia.

Achievements Noted, Cancer Clinics Listed By Cancer Specialist

Where would your doctor send you for a diagnosis, if he suspected that you had cancer?

"That is a question that few Texans can answer," Dr. William F. Mengert of Dallas, Chairman of the Committee on Projects and Allocation of Funds of the American Cancer Society, Texas Division, pointed out today, while discussing cancer control facilities in the state.

"Few Texans realize the great strides toward a control of cancer which have been achieved in Texas in just a few short years," Dr. Mengert continued. "Four organizations are devoting almost constant effort to improve cancer diagnostic and treatment facilities in the state, and their results have been very noteworthy. They have sponsored and assisted the establishment of 20 tumor clinics. It is one of these tumor clinics that your doctor would send you for a diagnosis and treatment. These four organizations are also conducting a cancer educational program to warn Texans that cancer can be cured, if caught in time."

Dr. Mengert listed the four Cancer Society, Texas Division:

Not Up To Standard

A young British doctor, who served in the Royal Air Force during the war and was afterwards in practice in England, has moved to the United States. He has taken out his citizenship papers, and he will practice in California after going through a year of internship which is required by law. And the reason he gave for this abrupt change in his life is that, under England's socialized medical system, "it was practically impossible for me to be a good doctor."

His experience was typical of the average English doctor. He was treating some 3200 patients, under the panel system, and the government had assigned him a quota of 4000. He said "there were days when I saw 20 persons in an hour at the office, and one day I made 36 house calls." Commenting on this the Portland Oregonian said editorially, "Obviously there was not time for careful diagnosis, though many patients had very minor ailments, and some were hypochondriacs encouraged by 'free medicine'—that is, tax-supported care—to make unnecessary calls. There was no time for research and study. The young doctor knew that his work was not up to recognized medical standards in this country."

Here is the great tragedy of socialized medicine. It is enormously costly—a dangerously large part of Britain's total governmental budget is going to pay for it. It discourages and disheartens medical men, and especially the younger ones who will be the future custodians of the people's health. And, to top it all off, it cannot help but cause a dangerous decline in the standards of care and practice, and close the door on research and preventive medicine. These are among the powerful reasons behind the refusal of Congress to swallow the Administration's compulsory governmental medicine insurance scheme.

'Spare Gas, Save Child'

An ignorant hen can teach its young to scratch for worms and observe the rules of the barnyard. But mankind is having an awful time learning civilized amenities behind steering wheel.

For nearly thirty years we have been a nation on wheels. But it is still necessary every September for the Texas Safety Association, and similar agencies, to warn drivers not to kill school children.

"Spare the gas and save the child" is this year's grim admonition to be careful as you drive near schools. In Dallas we should remember the drunk, not so long ago, who came out of the tavern and ran down a boy on the highway.

He had his bookstrap and cravens, his tousled hair and youthful hopes for the future. There are millions like him who leave home every morning and return at their own risk.

A school child is immature. He is adventurous, like a mustang pony. He becomes frightened in a crisis—a crisis perhaps, induced by his own friskiness. These things the adult driver must remember.

Providence, R. I., had a highway courtesy campaign. There were no winners among pleasure-car drivers. The judges hunted a solid hour and found not one courteous driver among 1,00 motorists.

Every school has warning signs. But safety depends most, not on signs and mechanical contrivances, but on the heart and soul of the driver. A driver without integrity, a driver without courtesy or respect for others, is a menace though he be intelligent and experienced in the art of motoring.

As you near a school, remember the child who has a right to become an adult, as you are. You

Loan Fund Available To T.S.C.W. Students

A student loan fund now totaling $125,000 is available to students who attend Texas State College for Women, according to Jack Hester, Loan Fund Chairman.

Existence of the fund, now larger than ever before in its history, has enabled thousands of girls to complete their education and enter communities as college-trained women.

During the more than 40 years in which the loan has operated, girls who have borrowed from it have made remarkable record of repayment, Hester stated.

Built up through contributions of individuals, women's clubs and student and ex-student organizations, the Student Loan Fund has been in operation almost from the time college opened when need of assisting girls financially was first evident.

In 1936 Will C. Hogg of Houston, famed for his philanthropies, contributed $50,000 toward enlargement of the fund.

Any girl who has graduated from high school in the upper half of her class, or any TSCW student or girl transferring from another college with a C average or better is eligible for a student loan.

Loans, extending over a two-year period with privilege of renewal, draw three per cent interest. Payment does not have to be made until the student completes her courses at the college and is ready to accept a position. Applications for loans should be made to the TSCW Loan Fund Committee.

Paul Robeson Is a Fool and Should Be Treated as a Fool

Paul Robeson, the negro singer, has the same right to love Russia as we have to love America. But since he loves Russia more than he loves America, he should go there to live. He is gathering in those terrible capitalistic dollars by singing in America, largely through the silly attitude that America is taking toward him.

When you stone a commie, you create publicity for this commie.

This Week in WASHINGTON

WITH MEMBERS of a defiant house of representatives scattered to their respective homes for a self-imposed vacation until Sept. 21, an embattled and legislation-snarled senate fretted, fumed and pouted in turn in one of the most flagrant log jams in legislative history.

In the meantime, the nation has government by resolution. The 1949 fiscal year ended July 1, but many departments are operating by surffernce, by resolution extending funds, by making government employees wait as appropriation bills go unpassed and senators preach economy and appropriate more millions. Bills are thrown into conference which cannot be held until the house membership straggles back to Washington after its vacation is over. It looks like congress may eat its Thanksgiving dinner in Washington.

Out of debate on the interior appropriations bill, the senate finally did salvage the government's policy on public power, overthrow the recommendations of its own appropriations committee and firmly implant back in the bill appropriations for construction of government transmission lines to bring public power to preferred customers from the gigantic dams constructed with taxpayer money.

This had all but been a victory for the private power lobby. The big utilities were defeated only after senators from five western states split over the issue. There was unanimity only among senators from Texas and California, the four from these states supporting public power.

Debate went on for several days, particularly bitter over this issue: the house had appropriated $9,000,000 for construction of transmission lines. The Southwestern Power Authority, a government agency, had used its appropriation and its right to construct government transmission lines as a club over the Texas Power & Light Company to force that private utility to transmit electric power to government customers on a contract favorable to both the utility and the government. Other western utilities however refused to go along on any such contract. At the insistence of the power lobby, the senate could not appropriate anything for the bill. The Southwestern Power Authority to sign contracts with private power utilities. The bill was turned over to the companies all the while. The bill was desired to take from hydro-electric plant payers had invested about $86,000,000 plus distributing systems, utility's own terms.

Final action relative to the Southwestern Authority, by a vote of 14 yeas and 14 nays. Eight Republicans voted with 13 Democrats for public power, while Phillips 33 for the private companies.

In the meantime, the Senate is pre-occupied with a bill to amend the National Labor Relations Act. The bill is sponsored by Senator Louis A. Johnson and is quietly making its way through the Senate. It is a bill to amend the National Labor Relations Act to give the National Labor Relations Board the power to order the reinstatement of employees who have been discharged for reasons connected with their military or naval service. The bill is expected to pass the Senate in the near future.

Farm agencies are over freight rate increase. The rate increase is the latest of a series of increases which have taken place over the past three years. The rate increase is expected to have a serious effect on the farm economy.

DARN CLEVER, THESE KOREANS . . . but they're learning it from the GI's. A U.S. military advisory group in Korea is training the Korean security forces to maintain order in that republic. The Korean government has asked for this training and the United States has complied. The training forces will remain until Korea can maintain its own security. The American group consists of approximately 500 officers and men, with Brig. Gen. William Roberts in command. Here Pvt. Exemption Tests To Be Made for Wage-Hour Law

Proposed revision of regulations governing exemption of certain so-called "white collar" workers in New Mexico and West Texas from the minimum wage and overtime pay sections of the Fair Labor Standards Act (Federal wage and hour law) will establish "test" of duties, responsibilities, salary levels and other basic requirements for employers to apply in determining which of their employees covered by the law may be exempt from the wage and hour provisions of the Act.

These exemptions will apply to executive, administrative, professional, local retailing and outside salesmen type of workers.

These revisions—the first major changes since 1940—were outlined here today by Jonathan R. Cartwright, field office supervisor, who represents the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Division, U. S. Department of Labor, in this area.

"In addition to establishing tests of duties, responsibilities, salary levels and other basic requirements for exemption of such workers, the proposed revisions would clarify the duty requirements for the five types involved, and change the salary levels which must be met before an exemption can be claimed," he said.

"For example, it is proposed to change the salary requirement for an executive type employee from the present $30 a week to $55 a week, and for administrative and professional type employees of these three types who receive at least a certain weekly salary and who have certain managerial duties.

"Interested parties will have until October 10 to submit written comments on the proposed changes to William R. McComb, administrator of the divisions at his Washington headquarters.

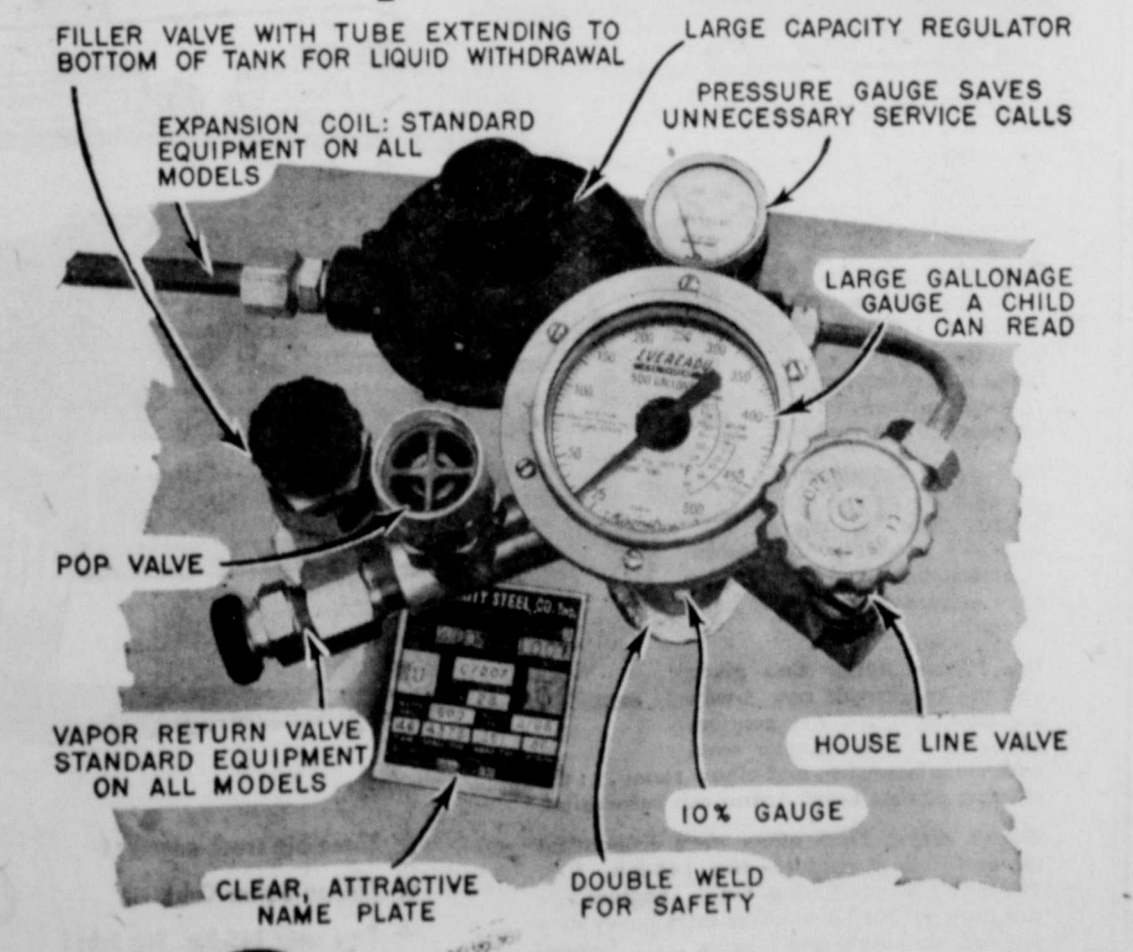

These proposals are based on a report of apubic hearing plans to amend the regulations.

"Copies of the regulation (Part 541 of the Code of Federal Regulations) as they will be revised are available at the field office of the divisions at 413 Federal Building or at the regional headquarters, Room 222, at 114 Commerce Street, Dallas 2, Texas."

Social Security Representative to Have New Schedule

Beginning next Tuesday, Floyd B. Ellington, field representative of the Amarillo office of the Social Security Administration, will be at the Commissioners Court Room in the Court House in Memphis, on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month at 1:30 p. m. to take claims for benefits under the Federal old-age and survivors insurance program and to supply information on the system. Those interested in contacting the social security representative will note that this is a change from his previous schedule.

The Federal social security program, which applies to workers in industry and commerce, provides for the payment of monthly benefits when the qualified employee reaches age 65 and retires, for eligible members of the workers family, and for the survivors of insured workers who die at any age.

When an insured worker dies and there is no one qualified to receive monthly benefits, a lump sum payment may be made.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller and daughter Shirley visited in Dallas over the weekend. They were accompanied to Dallas by their son, Eugene, who went on to Austin where he will attend Texas University, and Mrs. Miller's mother, Mrs. M. M. Bledsoe, who remained in Dallas to visit with a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. McNally Jr., left Wednesday for Dallas where they will shop and attend the SMU-Wake Forest football game.

THE Sad STORY OF TEN LITTLE FREE WORKERS

(It is later than you think . . . it can happen here!)

THESE ARE THE WORKERS
REDDY DOCTOR RAILROADER MINER STEELWORKER FARMER LAWYER GROCER SALESCLERK REPORTER

Ten little free workers in this country fine and fair.
But if you cherish your freedom—worker have a care!
Ten little free workers—Reddy was doing fine
Until the socialists got him—then there were nine.

Nine little free workers laughed at Reddy's fate
Along came federal medicine—then there were eight.

Eight little free workers thought this country heaven
But the government took over the railroads, then there were seven.

Seven little free workers—till the miners got in a fix.
Uncle said coal's essential and took over leaving six.

Six little free workers 'till the day did arrive
The steel mills too were federalized—then there were five.

Five little free workers—but the farmers are free no more
The farms have been collectivized—that leaves only four.

Four little free workers till the government did decree
All must have free legal advice—then there were three.

Three little free workers—the number is getting few,
But with government groceries selling food—then there were two.

Two little free workers—our story's almost done.
With clerks at work in federal stores—that leaves only one.

One little free worker—the reporter son-of-a-gun
Mustn't criticize government—so now there are none.

Ten little workers—but they are no longer free
They work when and where ordered, and at a fixed rate you see,
And it all could have been prevented if they'd only seen fit to agree
And work together instead of saying "it never can happen to me!"

Does the fear of punitive action of government bureaucracies prevent your action in defense of the freedoms for which our forefathers toiled and fought . . . or is such action just too much personal trouble?

WE HAD BETTER WAKE UP . . . IT'S LATER THAN YOU THINK!

Opening of Schools, Large Polio Epidemic No Cause for Alarm

The opening of schools on scheduled dates throughout the country, despite the occurrence this year of the largest infantile paralysis epidemic in history, is no cause for parents' alarm, even though thousands of new cases may be expected during the next weeks, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis declared today.

The Foundation, now conducting a Polio Epidemic Emergency Drive to raise $14,500,000 to enable its Chapters to care for an anticipated 40,000 cases by the end of the year, pointed out that new cases still are being reported at a rate of 3,000 a week. But experience shows that school openings never have affected the course of epidemic, either to abate or increase the incident rate, according to Dr. Hart E. Van Riper, medical director.

Certain precautions should continue to be observed both at home and at school, he advised, but the assembling of pupils under one roof is not regarded in itself as hazardous. The majority of schools in incidence areas have opened or will open soon, in conformity with recommendations of a national conference of health authorities sponsored by the National Foundation early this summer, he added.

During the last week prompted Dr. Van Riper's statement.

"The reason for the recommendation regarding schools are threefold," Dr. Van Riper explained. "First, closing schools or delaying their opening has not affected the course of outbreaks of poliomyelitis in the past. Indeed such action often has resulted in public panic. Whatever is done to upset the usual routine of children in a household, or adults in their occupations, is likely to bring more trouble than good.

"Second, since children usually play with other children in their neighborhood, they probably have had the same exposure to their playmates as they will have when school opens. And there usually is less supervision when schools are not in session, so early symptoms may not be spotted as promptly.

"Third, it is intimate contact between those who are infected and those who are susceptible that causes the spread of infantile paralysis. Normal school contacts do not involve intimate living, such as takes place in households. Merely sitting side in a schoolroom does not constitute intimate contact."

Dr. Van Riper urged the continuance of such precautions as avoidance of over-fatigue, assurance of adequate rest and sleep, strict observance of cleanliness and avoiding the use of utensils or implements belonging to other children, particularly objects that may be placed in the mouth. Routine daily checking on each child's health for early notice of symptoms such as headache, nausea, muscle soreness and fever also was advised.

With respect to schools to which children are transported in busses from widely separated areas or boarding schools, excluding colleges and universities, Dr. Van Riper said occasional exceptions may be made regarding school openings. These involve such situations as when a school is located in a high incidence area, and children are brought into that area from regions where the disease is not prevalent.

"The thing to ask yourself is what would your child do if school were not open," he concluded. "If your child would be just as exposed to possible contacts through busses, movies, church attendance and social gatherings, then obviously nothing will be gained by keeping him out of school—except a disturbance of his normal pattern of life."

Meanwhile the National Foundation reported that contributions addressed to POLIO, care of post

Memphis Outscores

 strong Memphis line held and it looked as though the Cyclone was out of danger. However, Crooks fumbled the Canyon punt on the 12; Canyon recovered. Four plays later, Garland Butler faked a handoff, and traveled two yards for a score. Craig plunged over for the extra point.

Gardenhire started the long trek to the Canyon goal line when he took the ensuing kick off from the 10 to the 33 of Memphis. 18 plays and five first downs later, the Memphis fullback plowed left guard for a touchdown. He hit the same spot for the tying extra point. Four minutes elapsed before the Cyclone had its second tally. Bloxom recovered an Eagle fumble on the Canyon 33, and it took nine plays to reach the end zone. It was Gardenhire again who made the necessary yardage from two paces out. He was stopped on the point after try. Thus the half ended 13-7 Memphis.
 The Eagles took the second-half kickoff to the Cyclone three before Bloxom et al put a stop to proceedings. Crooks again punted out nicely, but the visitors were not to be denied. Joe Abbott capped off a 37 yard march with a one-yard drive into the end zone. An 18 yard pass from Butler to King was a key play in the march. Butler tried to run the extra point across, but he failed, and that brings us up to the final push by the Cyclone for the clincher.

 Statistically, the two teams were fairly evenly matched with Memphis gaining more on the ground, 169 to 114 yards net, but the Eagles showed the better aerial game with six completions in 10 attempts for 103 yards as compared to 22 yards on two completions out of three tries. Canyon led in first downs 13-11. Memphis was penalized five times for 25 yards, and Canyon drew one penalty of five paces.
