First Concert Program To Be Here November 6

"The Hasty Heart," the first in a series of three program which will be presented here this fall and winter under the auspices of the Hall County Concert Association, has been scheduled for Sunday afternoon, November 6, at 3 o'clock, Mrs. T. M. Harrison, president of the association, announced this week.

The play which was originally scheduled for Saturday night, November 5, was changed to Sunday afternoon at the request of the board which met in the home of Mrs. Harrison Friday evening of last week. "The Hasty Heart," which has proven to be one of the most popular programs offered by the Lucius Pryor Concert Services the season, has a full booking and the Sunday date was the only one available at this time, Mrs. Harrison explained.

The play will be given in the High School auditorium and admission is by tickets only. Mrs. Harrison pointed out that grade school students are required to be accompanied by their parents and also sit with them.

ONLY 4416 BALES GINNED IN HALL COUNTY BEFORE FIRST OF OCTOBER

A total of 4416 bales had been ginned by Hall County gins as of Oct. 1, states Ace Galley, special agent of the Bureau of Census, Department of Commerce. That number is considerably lower than the 1948 total of 11,439 bales at the same date.

Monthly reports are received by Galley from the Commerce Department, and last year's pace is expected to be surpassed by Nov. 1.

Additional rains and the shortage of laborers continue to slow the harvesting process. Pulling crews are arriving almost daily, but many more are needed. Damage was reported in some parts of the county after rains and high winds hit several areas.

NEW VA BILL MAY BE ANSWER

Approximately 30 citizens of Memphis met Monday and discussed possible procedures to take toward solving the critical housing shortage in Memphis.

A number of proposals were presented, and each of them will receive attention by W. B. Wilson Sr., chairman of the Housing Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, and other persons directly interested in the needs.

Last night, another meeting of the housing committee and a group of ex-service men was held to discuss provisions of the new VA housing program which went into effect this week. The Veterans Administration has created a market for loans of ex-service men whereby the Reconstruction Finance Corporation may handle 100 per cent of loans for houses.

It is estimated that between 20 and 40 ex-servicemen in Memphis are eligible to build under the present plan. An intensive survey will be made in the next few days in the form of a mailed questionnaire, in order to obtain pertinent information for the Chamber of Commerce files.

Definite qualifications for a loan are required, and additional information may be obtained from the Chamber of Commerce office, Mr. Wilson, chairman of the local committee, or other local men who are aware of the provisions of the bill. A special request has been made to the VA for official confirmation and explanation of the new set-up.

Estelline Man is Buried Monday at Lakeview Cemetery

Cyclone, Skyrockets in District Game Tomorrow

An injury-ridden Cyclone club meets the Wellington Skyrockets at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night at Cyclone Stadium for its third district encounter.

Several of the boys received minor cuts and bruises last week, and their ace fullback, Andy Gardenhire, will not be able to suit up.

Gardenhire, whose play has been a prime factor in each of the four games Memphis has won, has been suffering from an infection which has settled in his knee. He is at home this week after spending several days at a local hospital. It is not known when he will be well enough to rejoin the team.

Without Gardenhire, the team will be far below the effectiveness attained in their last district game against Shamrock two weeks ago. Raymond Clark filled in at the fullback position last week against Diamond Hill in Fort Worth, and his play was pleasing to Coaches Chuck York and Ray Newton; however, both boys could be used to good advantage. Besides being one of the top Memphis offensive stars, Gardenhire was most effective as a defensive linebacker.

Bobby Crooks, who turned in his best performances of the year last week, has a strained ligament and will not be up to par, physically, tomorrow night. He will play, however, as will Tommy Messer, who has a bruised shoulder and sore elbow. R. A. Wells received a bruised hip last week, but will see action tomorrow night.

The Skyrockets feature a sharp passing attack to go with a fine running game. Bobby McCutcheon, quarterback, is the aerial artist, and Lindell Norman and Orville Copeland are the chief ground gainers. Ends Doyle Ingram and Rogers Melton are favorite targets for McCutcheon's tosses.

The Wellington line averages 160 pounds per man and 140 in the backfield, which will compare favorably with the Cyclone weight.

The 'Rockets have won three and lost four this season, but they have encountered some of the best opposition in the state. They have a 1-1 record in district play, having beaten Clarendon 21-14 and (Continued on page 8)

FOURNEAU 309
 In 1920, German scientists produced Bayer 205 or Germanin, a drug to fight Sleeping Sickness. Before allowing the rest of the world to share this discovery, they demanded the restoration to Germany of her colonies that she lost in World War I. Callahan of Memphis, to Jimmie McElreath, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan McElreath, also of this city, was solemnized in the parsonage of the First Baptist Church on Saturday, October 1. Rev. Texas Tech Wins College Dairy Judging at Fair

First place in the intercollegiate dairy judging contest at the Texas State Fair in Dallas has been awarded to the Texas Technological college team in the first resumption of competition since 1942.

The four man team includes Clarence Darter, jr., Childress; Royce Jackson, Quannah; Terry Smith, Roby; and Harold Sawyer, Evant. Dr. J. J. Willingham, professor and head of the dairy manufactures department, coached the team.

The contest was formerly held at the Fort Worth livestock exposition, but was discontinued in 1942 because of World War II. A silver-plated milk can, the "All-Products Southwestern Trophy," accompanies the award and will remain in Tech's possession until the 1950 contest. The trophy was donated by the Texas dairy products industry.

On Oct. 19 the team will leave for the International Inter-col-

Social Security News

Q. What is the difference between Social Security and Old-Age Pension?

A. There are three main programs under the broad Social Security Act. Old-Age and Survivors Insurance, Unemployment Compensation and Public Assistance. Old-Age Assistance (commonly called Old-Age Pension) is administered by the State Department of Public Welfare.

Q. How does a person qualify for Old-Age Assistance payments?

A. Application is made with the State Department of Public Welfare worker who is generally located in the county court house. Public Assistance is given to the needy aged, the needy blind, and to dependent children. The basis for determining need varies with legiate Dairy Judging contest at Los Angeles. Dr. Willingham said the judging in California, scheduled for Oct. 23, will be the outstanding contest of its kind in the United States this year.

the different states.

Q. Isn't this the same as Old-Age and Survivors Insurance?

A. No. A person's need is not considered in making Old-Age and Survivors Insurance payments. To qualify for retirement payments or survivors' payments in case of death, the worker must have been employed a required amount of time on jobs covered by social security.

Q. How many people in the United States are receiving monthly Social Security payments?

A. At the end of June, 1949, more than 2,550,000 were actually receiving the payments.

Q. About how much was being paid out in benefits to those actually receiving them?

A. In June more than $50,000,000 was paid out in old-age and survivors insurance.

Q. What part of this total amount went to retired workers?

A. More than $30,000,000 went to retired workers and almost $5,000,000 to the wives of such workers. The remainder went to widows, children, and parents of deceased wage earners.

Q. How does this compare with payments being made a year earlier?

A. During this one-year period there was an increase of 18 per cent in the number of people receiving payments, and of 21 per cent in the amount of money being paid out.

Senator Johnson Lauds Defeat of Old's Nomination

Washington, D. C.—Texas Senator Lyndon B. Johnson hailed defeat of the nomination of Leland Olds to the Federal Power Commission as a "victory of principle over pressure."

Olds' nomination—which had been made a party-line issue by the chairman of the Democratic Party—was defeated overwhelmingly, 53 to 15, after Senator Johnson served as floor leader for a five-hour fight against the confirmation.

"I do not relish disagreeing with my President and being unable to comply with the request of the Chairman of my Party," the Texas Senator told his colleagues in a 55-minute speech, "but I can find no comfort in failing to do what I know, in my own mind, is right."

Senator Johnson pointed out that Olds, by his own admission, voted for Hoover in 1928, joined the leftist New York American Labor Party in 1938, and "forgot" is a political sin, then I must plead guilty," Senator Johnson said, "but I will now or at any time match my loyalty to my party, the Democratic Party, against his."

"If 'disloyalty' to Leland Olds to vote for the Democratic Party in 1948.

Telling the Senate that he considered Olds "unfit and unqualified" to regulate this country's free enterprise, Senator Johnson added:

"In the Twenties, Leland Olds scoffed at private property as 'just another myth'; in the Thirties, he said our Democracy has been made a sham; in the Forties, he has intimidated his staff, discredited his fellow Commissioners, fostered a smear of Congress, and taken the law into his own hands to substitute irresponsible confiscation for responsible regulation."

PILLS

Our predictions last week gave us seven wins, a loss and a tie. The games are getting progressively harder each week. McLean must be a bit tougher than past rans after their game, as the loser will virtually be eliminated from title consideration. If Memphis gets by tomorrow night, it will still have a fair shot at part of the pennant — providing McLean (and it looks like the Tigers are the only ones who can do it) is able to slip up on the Pirates, and if Memphis can lick the Tigers — and Wellington — and Clarendon. Really quite confusing, no?

The boys played a mighty fine game last Friday night after they got started. A fumble on the one and a kick that slid off the side of the punters toe and went out deep in their own end of the field were two reasons for the last two Diamond Hill scores. Before the game some observers were expecting the Eagles to climb all over the Cyclone, and at the start it looked like they were going to. But the boys got up steam, had a better team at the half, and could have won handily.

Last week was a natural for big football fans — they could have seen Memphis play Diamond Hill Friday night, watched the Texas Christian - Aggie game Saturday afternoon, then dashed over to Dallas for the S. M. U. - Rice tilt that night. We understand a number of Memphians did just that.

Our predictions last week gave us seven wins, a loss and a tie. The games are getting progressively harder each week. McLean must be a bit tougher than past performances indicate. But then, comparative scores are practically useless in many cases. When Tulsa beat Villanova — that's all! Texas as A. & M. had beaten Texas Tech three touchdowns, who had beaten Tulsa 15-0 who beat Villanova 21-19 — which makes Texas as A. & M. at least five touchdowns better than Villanova, yet the latter mauled the Aggies five touchdowns. I don't get it.

However, here we go again. In the top Class A game in the state, we look for Dalhart to beat Phillips. It's a game that could go either way, but the Wolves' defense appears to be considerably stronger, and Phillips CAN be scored on fairly easily.

The Cyclone should be able to stop Bobby McCutchen's aerial artistry. They'll have to stop him! Gardenhire's absence will severely handicap Memphis, but we believe the local boys will take this one. Shamrock, a team which has been held scoreless in two games, should cop their first district game tomorrow night against Clarendon.

Lefors will beat Tulia by about a couple of touchdowns, since the Pirates probably won't be at full strength. McLean has an open date. In other games, I'm sticking with the Rice Owls to sneak by Texas University. Any team which can score like Rice did against SMU is headed places — Baylor will romp over the Aggies — S. M. U. might bounce back and defeat Kentucky, but I doubt it. I'll take Kentucky — The T. C. U. Frogs will have their

KING'S TEXAS TOURIST TRAVEL GUIDE INTERESTING, HELPFUL

A publication now on sale which is interesting and worthwhile to both Texans and non-Texans, is Howard King's Texas Tourist Travel Guide. It is written by Dr. Rex Z. Howard, of Fort Worth under the pen name of Howard King.

The booklet is designed to illustrate points of interest throughout the state, and also to contain enough historical data to be educational.

The guide is loaded with facts and figures about most of Texas' most famous sites, and it also describes many points of interest which few persons outside the immediate area know about—things which are exceedingly interesting to travelers.

School teachers and students find the book helpful in the class rooms and it is used as a reference by the three largest universities in the United States.

The guide is the first one to be compiled about the wonders of the state. It covers the entire area and is not a guide to economic resources of the state, but rather to the historic and scenic.

The book contains stories of local interest, such as Old Moheette, Old Tascosa, Billy the Kid, The Medicine Mounds, The Buried Cities along the Canadian River, and many other explanations of historical significance in this part of the state.

The author of the guide has toured Texas for more than 40 years collecting information and photographing interesting things in the state. He is a native Texan, and is the son of a famous Texas Ranger.

It has 138 pages, 167 photographs, 400 stories, a very usable index, and sells for $1. It is published by the Lo-Ray Co., Grand Prairie and is sold at many hotels, book stores and railroad stations. It is not a joke book, but rather a useful reference text for information concerning the attractions of Texas. It was not written, nor is it being sold for financial gain.

At the present time Dr. Howard is organizing a Texas Tourist Association whose purpose is to collect information of Texas, advertise Texas to the world, and persuade Texans, themselves, to see the wonders of the Lone Star State. Dr. Howard also writes a newspaper column, You Auto See Texas.

He has prepared a map of his farm as well as that of his father's and has planned a program designed to build up rather than deplete the soil. It includes more terracing, contour farming, restoring to pasture land that which is subject to erosion, constructing more stock tanks, using shelter planting crops on the soils best adapted for their growth and balancing the farming with the right number and kinds of livestock to utilize the production from crops and pastures.

Insurance Dividend For G. I. Insurance. Announced by V. A.

The Veterans Administration's first calculations on amounts proposed to be paid nearly 16,000,000 veterans in the $2.8 billion special National Service Life Insurance dividend have been received by the Veterans Administration Regional Office at Lubbock recently, Robert W. Sisson, Manager, has announced.

Maximum possible amount that any veteran can receive will be $528. Other payments, based on age groups will run to lesser sums. The dividend will be paid on both term and converted insurance policies, and will be paid only for the period that the policy was in force prior to the policy anniversary in 1948. No payments will be made for periods of lapse, V-A emphasized.

According to Carl R. Gray Jr., Administrator of Veterans Affairs, the estimated rate of the dividend was arrived at after long actuarial studies, and that the rate of payment will be the same for both term and converted policies, as the dividend is based on mortality savings since there are no excess interest earnings.

MEMPHIS COMES FROM BEHIND TWICE TO TIE DIAMOND HILL

Substitute Fullback Raymond Clark broke through right guard and went nine yards into the end zone with two minutes to play Friday night in Fort Worth, and the move brought the Memphis Cyclone a hair-raising 26-26 tie with the Diamond Hill Eagles. The same man attempted to make victory No. 5 for the Gold and Black, but he was stopped two feet short of the goal line.

It was a stirring climax to a wide-open, well played ball game on the part of both clubs. The Cyclone was nursing a 20-12 lead early in the fourth period when things really began popping.

The Eagles started the excitement when they moved the kickoff—following the touchdown that gave the visitors their 20-12 lead—all the way to the 20-yard line before Bobby Crooks intercepted a pass. The Cyclone was unable to move, and the Eagles took Crooks' punt at midfield and worked back to the nine, before fumbling. On the second play following, the compliment was returned, and the Eagles recovered on the one. Halfback James Pierson made the yard on one try, and Duane Hackworth drop kicked for the extra point, making the score 20-19.

The Wild West Stampede, presented by the Memphis Chamber of Commerce Band last Friday and Saturday, was one of the best shows of its kind ever shown in Memphis, and was in every way pleasing to the spectators. Although the attendance was small on the opening day, the grand stand and falls were crowded on Saturday. Despite the crowd which thronged the gate on the last day of the affair, which was produced at an estimated cost of $2500, was not a financial success, the band having lost approximately $600 on the enterprise.

Care in Handling
 Cotton Pays Big Dividends Later

The Texas cotton harvest is now in full swing and the shortage of pickers may cause producers to follow practices that will lead to lower selling prices, says F. E. Lichte, extension cotton gin specialist of Texas A. & M. College.

Care in handling cotton at harvest time pays big dividends, says Lichte. Cotton picked green or wet and taken directly to a gin not equipped to handle such cotton may be reduced in value from $5 to $35 per bale. Rough preparation at the gin is costly to both the farmer and the ginner for they both lose money, he says.

Wet, dirty cotton usually means a poor quality product that brings less money, says Lichte and growers should pick carefully, take their cotton to the gin dry, and then see that it is ginned properly.

Lichte says the cotton producer should not expect the ginner to turn out a quality product at the gin unless a quality product is provided by the farmer. The farmer and ginner both have a stake in the careful preparation of the cotton. It helps the ginner's business and the farmer's income. Two mighty important items, says Lichte.

"Must" Items for Dairymen Listed

There are certain items that should be on every dairyman's "must" list and one of these, says R. E. Burleson, associate extension dairy husbandman of Texas A. & M. College, is small grain pastures for fall and winter grazing. Plan at least one acre for each cow in the herd, for it is one way to get more feed for less money and that means lower production costs and more net income.

this year than heretofore, although some few farmers do not as yet have as many cotton pickers as are needed.

Silage is another source of cheap feed nutrients so have the silo ready for filling by the time the crop you are growing for silage is ready for harvesting.

In many sections of the state, it will pay you well to supplement the drying pastures with plenty of good quality hay and silage, says Burleson. Give the cows all they will eat. They will pay you well for it. Summer time isn't over in Texas and chances are good that many pastures will be brown from the heat and dry weather before fall grazing crops are available, so have the supplements ready.

Herd culling is always in order, says Burleson. Make the herd fit the feed supply. The same amount of feed produces more milk when fed to high producing cows, he adds. There is no profit in feeding cows that should be culled.

The mark of an efficient dairy herd is high average production of milk and butterfat per cow. The efficiency of the breeding program is indicated not only by the high average production, but also by the increasing percentage of uniform high producing females born in the herd each generation and a decreasing number of low producers born each generation. The proved-sire system of breeding, says Burleson, has demonstrated its worth as a sound method of improving the efficiency of dairy herds. Through artificial breeding associations, services of outstanding bulls are widened and are made available to dairymen who could not otherwise afford to own such animals.

SPORTS AFIELD

By Ted Kesting

Many a good shot who knows his ducks one from another as far as he can see them in flight never troubles to distinguish between the helpful and the harmful hawks. At the sight of a "hawk" he bangs away and nine times out of ten it's a beneficial mouse hawk he kills and leaves hanging on a fence.

Donald Culross Peattie, this century's best known nature writer, reports that he has never yet seen a Cooper's hawk or a goshawk punished for its depredations. And these are your poultry and game bird killers.

It's true that sometimes individual birds among the beneficial kinds of hawks will acquire an appetite for poultry. Such antisocial individuals can be dealt with when they start killing birds. But the man-farmer and sportsman—who shoots every marshhawk and red-tail is destroying birds that make rats and mice 22 and 55 per cent, respectively, of their total diet. So it is of economic importance to the country at large to learn to distinguish the hawks.

There are some 32 kinds of birds of prey (not all of them hawks) in North America. It might seem to be asking a lot of the nimrod to know them all, but that wouldn't be necessary. Only a few of these make game birds and poultry as much as 20 per cent of their diet, and of these the commonest is the chicken hawk, the big blue darter, or Cooper's hawk. Let's get to know this fellow. He is a little smaller than a crow,

Children Should Be Checked for Decaying Teeth

Tooth decay or dental caries is a destructive, progressive disease of the teeth. A large part of a tooth may be destroyed by decay with little evidence of decay on the surface, says Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. Surveys of large groups of pre-school children reveal that 50% of them have decayed teeth at three years of age, 75% at four years of age, and 90% at five years of age. Six out of ten children age 4 and 5 have as many as seven or more cavities.

Decay begins most frequently in the small pits and fissures on the chewing surfaces and at the points of contact between the teeth. Pits and fissures with structural flaws should be filled at once to prevent decay.

Dr. Cox said, "Dental examination and care should begin with the three year old child, and periodic examinations and necessary care should follow, thereafter, as often as the dentist advises. The first or baby teeth should be kept in a healthy condition until it is time for them to be lost."

"X-rays aid the dentist in finding hidden cavities, especially those between the teeth. Many of these beginning cavities are located in areas where they cannot be found in any other way. X-ray pictures are also useful in finding other conditions that require immediate attention such as abscesses, impacted teeth, broken roots, bone destruction due to pyorrhea, extra teeth and other information that is important in treatment of the case."

"With periodic dental examination and adequate care for each child, beginning at three years of age, the great majority of the children will reach adulthood with good dental health."

Waterproof Soil, Says Agronomist

Will the fall and winter rain-drops strike unprotected soil on your farm and make flowing mud out of blowing dust? If so, says Roy L. Donahue, extension agronomist of Texas A & M College, your soil needs weatherproofing.

Soils, he adds, can be "proffed" against erosion losses by providing them with a green blanket of protection. That blanket can be made of any closely woven cover of growing green such as vetch, winter peas or one of the other adapted clovers. Or if you don't want to plant a legume, any close growing crop such as oats, rye, barley or wheat will provide the weatherproofing against soil damage from fall and winter rains, says Donahue.

Few people doubt the value of weatherproofing the soil in the long run, says Donahue, but what some doubt is this: Will it pay next year?

The answer to this question comes from records kept by extension service demonstrators located in all sections of the state. Corn following fertilized legumes made 36 bushels per acre against 18 bushels per acre where it did not follow legumes. This same method of farming, says Donahue, showed a per acre increase of 71 percent for cotton, 63 percent for grain sorghum, 56 percent for wheat, 65 percent for oats and 129 percent for sweet potatoes.

Donahue suggests that you see your local county agent about this weatherproofing job, for he can help you select the right legume and proper fertilizer for weaving that blanket of green for your farm.

District 2A Football

The Lefors Pirates took another big step in the direction of their second straight district title Friday night, with a 20-0 victory over Shamrock. The McLean Tigers also added their second victory of the season—a 33-14 triumph over Wellington. The two other teams, Memphis and Clarendon, played non-district opposition. Memphis tied Diamond Hill 26-26, and the Bronchos lost to Canyon 19-0.

Lefors 20, Shamrock 0
 Friday Todd and Joel Combs sparked the Tigers to a 20-0 victory Friday night at Lefors. Combs notched the first score, following an intercepted pass in the opening quarter. A recovered fumble set the Pirates in motion for the second marker, with Ray Dickerson making the necessary yardage.

The Irish threatened several times, but fumbles halted the drives. The final Lefors score came in the fourth period when Friday Todd went through tackle for 10 yards and a touchdown. Combs completed a 34-yard pass to set the stage for the maneuver.

McLean 33, Wellington 14
 L. M. Watson led the McLean Tigers to their second district victory Friday night, 33-14 over the Wellington Skyrockets. He scored 16 points to run his season total to 80.

The Wellington passing attack was stymied, and that was a big factor in the outcome. Watson capped off a 78-yard drive in the first period with a 13-yard run through tackle, then added the extra point.

Lindel Norman fell on the ball in the end zone after a McLean back touched the ball on a punt reception, also in the first quarter, for the first Wellington score.

Benny Cooper put the Tigers in a lead they never relinquished with two touchdowns in the second period. He plunged for one yard, then intercepted a Wellington pass and ran 45 yards for another.

The Skyrockets moved the kick-off back for a touchdown in the third quarter when Bobby McCutcheon hit pay territory from a yard out after he had passed to Copeland to set up the play. Bruner of McLean reeled off a 79-yard dash moments later, and Watson negotiated a 40-yarder—both for touchdowns—to end the scoring parade.

Canyon 19, Clarendon 0
 The Canyon Eagles scored in the first, second and third quarters Friday night to hand the Clarendon Bronchos a 20-0 defeat at Clarendon. Barrett scored from the six, Slack pushed across from the 15 and the seven for scoring runs.

O'Dell LaGrone, Clarendon full-back, was injured early in the game. His absence severely handicapped the Bronco attack.

Stewart Named State Head of March of Dimes

Ed S. Stewart, prominent Abilene businessman, has been appointed Texas State Chairman of the 1950 March of Dimes, Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, announced this week. It is Mr. Stewart's second year as head of the fund raising appeal in Texas.

As chairman, Mr. Stewart will be in over-all charge of planning and organizing the annual polio drive, and will coordinate activities of all city and county campaign directors in the state.

The March of Dimes is conducted each January by the National Foundation and its 2,800 county chapters to finance the nationwide fight against polio in the fields of patient care, scientific research and professional education. The 1950 appeal will be held January 16-31.

Mr. Stewart, a native of Waco, has been active in civic affairs and welfare work. A west Texas food broker for 17 years, he is now owner of the Abilene Candy Manufacturing Company. During the first World War he served overseas with the Army's Corps of Engineers. A past president of the Abilene Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club, he was Taylor County director of the American Red Cross War Fund in 1943 and 1944.

Literature on Cancer Symptoms Easily Obtained

Knowledge—today's best weapon against cancer—is a close to you as the Memphis postoffice.

It's not on a table at the postoffice. The postmaster doesn't have any cancer literature on the shelves.

But, if you'll just address a postcard or letter to: Cancer, Care of Postmaster, Memphis, Texas, in just a few days you will receive in the mail a free booklet about cancer, which may even save your life, should you ever develop this disease.

Here's how it works: Last year the Postoffice Department in Washington decided to aid the national fight against cancer by authorizing a simple mailing address for all requests for cancer information.

In a directive to postoffices all over the country the Postmaster General instructed all postmasters to forward all mail addressed to "Cancer" to the state headquarters of the American Cancer Society. In Texas, the Texas Division of the American Cancer Society is located in Houston. Therefore, all Texas postoffices forward all mail addressed to "Cancer" to the Houston postmaster, who, in turn, sends it to the state office of the Society.

As soon as cancer control workers in Houston receive the requests, they forward cancer booklets and information to the persons mailing the inquiries.

Fire On The Farm.

According to an article in Country Gentleman, written by Katherine Best and Katherine Hillyer, 80 per cent of American farms are not adequately or properly protected against fire, wind or hail. The farmer, the authors go on, frequently commits the following insurance sins: "He fails to insure all his buildings; he fails to insure them for enough; he fails to make sure an inherited or bought policy is made out to his name; he carries duplicating policies; he fails to consider the 'insurance credits' on his farm; he carries needless 'extended coverage endorsement' protection." Sin number one—the failure to insure the property—is the most common of all these potentially ruinous omissions.

The article tells of one farmer who paid premiums on a livestock policy four years after his last cow had been sold! This same farmer carried $27,000 worth of insurance on $19,000 worth of buildings. Yet two new buildings constructed since the war were not insured at all. One of them burned and he recovered nothing.

It is estimated that, on the average, most farmers carry only about half as much fire insurance as they actually need. What makes this fact of great and ominous importance is that farm buildings which catch fire are 97 per cent destroyed. As a rule, they are far from organized fire fighting facilities. Often they are old, dry and highly inflammable. So, when fire strikes, there is often nothing to do but watch the property burn to the ground.

Every farmer should periodically review his fire, wind and other policies to make sure they are adequate. As new buildings are constructed, they should be immediately covered—failure to do this has cost farmers huge sums of money. And, finally, every farmer should practice fire prevention every day of the year.

One of the proposed amendments to the state constitution which voters will decide upon in an election Nov. 8 will be to the effect of forming Rural Fire Prevention Districts. If the proposal carries, the legislature will be given authority to create fire prevention districts supported by a tax not to exceed three cents per $100 valuation, and that no tax will be levied unless approved by a vote of the people living within the district.

It is certainly one of the more important issues to be considered at the coming election.

The first United States census was taken in 1790.

George Washington laid the corner stone of the White House.

Benjamin Franklin was the first Postmaster-General of the United States.

This Week in WASHINGTON

CURRENT DEBATE in the senate on the Anderson farm bill is expected to take up most of the time in the upper house during the next ten days or two weeks.

In the meantime, with the house back in session, committee activity took on added significance at this session, they were being set up for action at the second session of the congress which starts in January, 1950.

One measure important to veterans was approved by the senate finance committee without amendment from the house-passed version and would increase disability and death compensation rates listing total disability at $150 instead of $138 a month with partial disability rates at a corresponding raise. Payments to dependents of wartime casualties would be raised from $100 a month for a widow with one child to $105 plus $25 for each additional child instead of the present $15.

The government would pay 100 per cent compensation to World War I veterans for service-connected disabilities instead of 75 per cent, would make extra compensation benefits available to dependents of veterans with 50 per cent disability instead of the present 60 per cent, would extend time for compensation for arrested cases of tuberculosis and would liberalize requirements for disability incurred during confinement where felony or dishonorable discharge were not involved.

A senate judiciary sub-committee heard testimony on a house-passed measure to plug a loophole in the Clayton anti-trust act. The measure provides that one corporation may not acquire the assets of another corporation if the move lessens competition or tends to create monopoly. Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney of Wyoming told the committee that the bill would close a loophole "which is driving the country toward monopoly and totalitarianism."

"What has happened in Europe," Senator O'Mahoney said, "is proof that monopolies and cartels create unemployment and accelerate the drive toward a totalitarian state. Monopolies and cartels are the foe of free enterprise."

Senator O'Mahoney said the bill would not hurt small busi-covers all phases of production and manufacturing. The survey is intended as a handbook for every Chamber of Commerce or Industrialist in West Texas who might be interested in the wool textile industry, says D. A. Bandoen, WTCC general manager. "It won't tell a community how to get the industry, but it will have all the basic facts for an industrial committee to use in determining whether the community will support the industry."

The report is companion to one issued a year ago covering the cotton textile manufacturing potentialities of this area. "The economy of a region is supported by livestock raising and agriculture in the early stages of development," the survey says. "In the beginning these usually will more than support the population. However, after the population has increased beyond a certain figure, a purely agricultural economy will not support it to the best advantage."

FEED BAG CLOTHES, AND CHANTICLEER CROWS

There's more than one way to dress a fowl! Feed sack fashions have put the chic in chickens, and Virginia Kirehdorfer of Memphis has given a real cock-o'-the-walk strut to her rooster by making him a tax complete with top hat, Virginia, too, is clad in a sack outfit.

Cotton Insecticide Shortage Critical

Texas cotton farmers may have trouble finding a source of supply of the newer and recommended cotton insecticides, says Dr. H. G. Johnston, extension entomologist of Texas A. & M. College. Applications have been very heavy and a shortage has already developed in some states.

Grasshopper, cutworms, and army worm infestations were heavier than usual in many areas of the southwest and now the boll weevil is more numerous and widespread throughout the cotton belt than any year since 1941, except in Texas, Johnston credits the early and thorough cotton stalk plow-up program in Texas with holding down to some extent the boll weevil damage.

Boll worms are causing serious damage in some sections of the state and if present conditions prevail, damage can be expected to become general in many areas within the next two weeks, he says.

The preferred material for general cotton insect control, continues Johnston, is 20 per cent toxaphene plus 40 per cent sulphur, of a mixture of 3 per cent gamma BHC, 5 percent DDT, 40 per cent sulphur (3-5-40). If these materials are not available, some substitutions can be made if the substitutes can be found, and results should be good.

These fibers come from the Edwards Plateau in West Texas. The report then gives the history of the textile industry in the United States, tracing it to the few woolen mills which have moved to Texas in recent years. It also points to the development of the clothing manufacture with garment factories in more than a dozen West Texas communities.

A warning is issued, however, against expecting to find a bonanza in the industry, "but rather to build a solidly founded industry established on sound economic principles, which will grow of its own merit."

Following insecticides are suggested in the order of their preference: 2 per cent gamma BHC, 10 per cent DDT, 40 per cent sulphur; 5 per cent DDT, 75 per cent sulphur at increased dosage; lead arsenate; cryolite; and calcium every five days at rates of 12 to 15 pounds per acre. Aphid infestations may increase following the use of either the arsenates or DDT. Alternate applications of these and 3-5-40 as for boll weevil control will prevent possible aphid increases.

When both insects are abundant follow the suggestions for controlling the boll weevil alone at increased dosages of 12 to 15 pounds per acre, says Johnston. Two per cent gamma BHC plus 10 per cent DDT and 40 per cent sulphur at the rate of 12 to 15 pounds per acre may also be used.

Fleahopper and Lygus may be controlled with 5 per cent DDT, 75 per cent sulphur or 10 per cent toxaphene, 40 per cent sulphur. For the fleahopper alone sulphur dust, two applications at 15 to 18 pounds per acre will give good control.

If you need more detailed information, concludes Johnston, call on your local county agricultural agent.

Late Score—

Crooks made another first down on the Diamond Hill 44, then Clark made his way 13 yards to the 31. Stargel passed to Rasco who lateralled to Crooks and he was down on the nine. It was from this point Clark originated his tying touchdown maneuver. On the point-after attempt, Clark was stopped short.

Eagles Open Fast
The Eagles started fast, and they had a 12-0 lead after only five minutes on the first quarter. Memphis kicked off and the Eagles' Pierson carried it back to the visitors' 38. A half-dozen plays later saw Walter Thomas going four yards for the initial touchdown, and a landslide was in the making a few minutes later when Pierson raced 29 yards for score No. 2.

But the Cyclone gathered themselves, and got down to business. They negotiated a 77-yard drive after the second Eagle score, and it was Crooks who carried the load. After moving to their opponents' 45, the right half took off around left end on a double reverse for the distance. The attempted extra point kick was no good.

Roddy Stargel put the Cyclone back in the ball game a few minutes later when he sent a pass into the waiting arms of Don Rasco—good for 35 yards and a score. Crooks kicked the extra point, and the Cyclone took the lead that stood until after the half.

Crooks took a Diamond Hill punt from his 10 back to the 22 to start the Cyclone toward its third marker. Clark bulled his way 12 yards, then Stargel passed to Rasco who almost got loose before being ridden out of bounds on the Eagle 29. Clark picked up 11 on two tries, Stargel passed again to Rasco on the three, and Crooks circled end on the third play for the score. He then kicked the extra point.

Scoutmaster Ted Myers announces advancement in ratings of several scouts of Troop 35. Max McCoy, Cy Gibson and Jackie Boone have made second class advancements, and Philip Patrick has achieved his first class rate.

Boys who are working on their second class advancements are Jimmy Hill, Don Howell, James Moss, James Freeman, John Deaver, Paul Rowlett, Robert Breedlove Jr., Jimmy Jenkins, Jimmy Davis, Roy Coleman, and Jim Smith Jr.

First class achievement is being worked for by Cy Gibson, Roddy Bice, Donnie Davis, Billy Combs, Jackie Boone and Max McCoy. Carrol Gardeshire and Buzzy Patrick are working for their Star Scout Merit Badges.

Myers says there are now 20 scouts in Troop 35, and that he would like to have 10 more 11 and 12-year old boys in order to have a full scout troop. All prospective scouts are invited by Myers to attend the meeting at 7 o'clock Monday night in the Carnegie Library.

Insurance—

ces were followed, whereby dividends on a life insurance policy represent a return to the insured of the excess premiums paid over the amounts required to pay claims and set up necessary reserves. This is not necessarily proportional to the premium paid.

While portions of the premium originally estimated as necessary to pay claims may turn out to have been too high and can return a dividend, the part of the premium that goes into building up reserves cannot return a profit unless the fund earns a rate of interest higher than that assumed in the premium calculations. This has not been done in the case of National Service Life Insurance.

In computing the maximum payment of $528, the dividend was based on a $10,000 policy in force for 96 months, (the longest possible period), on a veteran aged 40 or less at the time the policy was taken out. This represents a payment month per $1,000. As the mortality group of 40 and vary greatly, a table will apply to this. Those under 40 the rate of $5 per $1,000 of insurance from 52 cents to 46 to 50, 37 cents; those 51 down to 21 cents over, 20 cents per year.

The proposed plan which is applied to insured cases will be arately. No further information received as to the ment of this division. Mr. Sisson pointing out that insurance blanks are available after being properly filled out there is no need for correspondence concerning this will in payment.
