Teachers who receive the scholarships are Mrs. C. D. Morris, Mrs. Ethel Hillhouse and Miss Neville Wrenn. Hall County Farmer Charged With Car Theft

A Hall County farmer, Preston Elmo Schoffner, 27 was arrested at his home in the south part of the county, near the Tell Community between Memphis and Childress late Saturday night by Federal Bureau Investigator Carl Perryman of Amarillo and Deputy Bill Baten.

Schoffner was held in the Childress county jail. He is accused of driving a stolen car from Dallas to Taos, N. M. He is one of the latest to be arrested by the FBI in a car theft ring probe which FBI authorities say involves about 50 stolen cars.

Schoffner allegedly operated a farm adjacent to his father's in the Tell vicinity.

The FBI claims the operations of the car theft ring included substitution of motor numbers from wrecked autos to which the ring obtained titles for those originally carried by the stolen vehicles. Evidence so far shows the men operated in Missouri, Kansas, Texas, Oklahoma, Colorado and New Mexico.

Edward Schoffner, Jr., 21, brother of Preston, pleaded guilty Saturday to a similar charge, the FBI reported. So far seven men have been arrested in connection with the car theft ring.

Chicanery

Natural Gas Tax Needs Support In State Politics

Citizens of this state are now victims of more political chicanery now going on in Austin and other places.

The newest chicanery deal involves the tax on natural gas from the rich, abundant fields here in Texas.

At present oil and gas companies are piping this gas off to distant states and are paying only for the gas, which the get for ridiculously low prices. Residents of this state want and, justly so, need a tax on this natural gas.

To hide the issue, the big gas interests and companies who stand to profit as long as there is no tax on the natural gas are backing a bill recently introduced by Representative Graham House Bill 226.

This bill would take all of the surplus left from the one cent tax now collected on gasoline and turn it over to counties for road bonds.

Now on the face of the issue this sounds good. But they are backing this bill in order to keep the counties from pressing for the tax on natural gas which provide more money for the state.

House Bill 669, a road bill was introduced recently by Representative Jim Sewell of Blooming Grove, Navarro county, and has the full support of Texas Farm Bureau Federation because it will meet the needs for a rural road program in the state.

It is co-signed by five other representatives. The signers of this bill, realizing that the present rural road program is in jeopardy and eager to find another solution, have written a bill that will bring in approximately $30,000,000 additional revenue next year from a tax levy of one cent per 1000 cubic feet on natural gas.

The money will be divided 1-4 to public schools, 1-2 to counties for the building and improvement of rural roads and 1-4 will be distributed among every incorporated city, town and village on the basis of population according to the most recent federal census.

This bill, patterned from the 1 cent tax which Louisiana levied recently, will accomplish three primary aims:

(1) It will allow the continuation of the direly needed farm-to-market and rural road program. One-half of the estimated $30,000,000 which provisions of the bill will provide, will be sent to the counties for the building and improvement of rural roads, starting with school bus and rural mail routes. County judges and commissioners will authorize the spending of the money with specifications to have the approval of a licensed engineer or the Texas Highway Department.

(2) One-fourth, or about $7,500,000 will go to some 700 incorporated cities, towns and villages that are facing serious financial difficulties. They will be allowed to use the money for the building and maintenance of streets.

(3) It will insure that the people of Texas, living both in town and on the farm, will get more benefits out of our vast resources of natural which are rapidly being expended.

A tax on natural gas is not an unfair or unjust tax because natural gas is not carrying its fair share of taxes as compared to other commodities. Gasoline at the domestic consumer level has a tax

Also the Lower Panhandle Angus Association is trying to locate some Angus heifers to be furnished members at cost.

Anyone interested in this program of Angus cattle may obtain additional information from either County Agent W. B. Hooser or Chamber of Commerce manager Clifford Farmer. It is a part of the Hall County Livestock Improvement program.

Recent purchases of Angus cattle in the area include 34 head bought by Wendell Harrison and Farmer for their Caprock Angus Farm at Giles from Michigan.

Jess Dennis recently bought 10 head of Angus in Fort Worth for use on his Memphis farm.

Newlin Clifton of Estelline recently shipped in 17 head of Angus from Missouri for his farm.

Local Cattleman Makes Hit in Land Of Down Under

Frank Finch, 73-year-old Memphis cattleman is now on a tour of Australian cattle ranches with a group of United States cattlemen. Below is a reprint of an article which appeared in a Sydney, Australia newspaper. One of the ranches mentioned is of one and one half million acres and has about 60,000 breed cows on it.

The Texans highly praised three stations they inspected in the scene district.

On the second day of an air tour by A.N.A. chartered plane, the party of eight men and five women visited St. Aubins and Kinora racehorse studs and Belltrees cattle station.

One member of the party said: "Would be proud to have such establishments in Texas."

Mr. Harry Dunlap, of Rock River, Wyoming, who needs 40,000 to graze his herd of 1000 cattle said he "was deeply impressed and highly envious."

LAUDE'S COMMENTS

By J. C. W.
Hidden taxes come in for a lot of discussion—that is, those who are aware of the "bug under the rug" have a lot to think about. They claim there are 151 hidden taxes in a loaf of bread. (And all this time we have been thinking of a loaf of bread contains only many vitamins.) A man's sum-but has 116 or more of the tax rasals; at least 100 in each; but these add up to $55 billion dollars a year, more than 25 per cent of our national income—$336 per person. More than half of all taxes levied first on business which include them in the selling price to stay alive.

Now the State Legislature is going to pass a state sales tax of 3 cent to add to all the mentioned kind of hidden taxes. It seems to me that all interested buyers of merchandise should take time out to flood representatives with protests against proposed sales tax. Three cents on a letter would be cheap comparison with paying that every time one buys a dollar-worth of merchandise.

Draft Boards Ask Changes Be Listed

Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state director of Selective Service, today reminded all men registered with local draft boards that the law requires them to report any change in personal status to their respective boards.

"Young men have asked us by telephone and letter just what changes are required to be reported," General Wakefield said. "Generally, anything which may have a bearing on classification should be reported."

The state director pointed to the following things which would be regarded as a change of personal status:

1. Change of address. This is a change in the address at which a man expects to receive his mail.
2. Change in marital status. If a man marries, he should advise the local board of the name of the person he marries, the place and date of marriage, and name of county in which the marriage is recorded. If he has children, date and place of birth should be named, and place where birth is recorded. If he becomes separated, divorced, or his wife dies this should be reported.

3. Change of job. The local board should be advised only if this is a permanent change.
4. Change in physical status. If a man has had a serious injury or has otherwise acquired a physical defect, it should be reported. It should be reported whether it is permanent or temporary.
5. Students. If a man becomes a student, college, or university this fact should be reported.
6. Members of armed forces reserves or National Guard. If a man enters any of these, he should advise the local board, giving date of entry and name of organization.
7. Rejections by the armed forces. If a man has attempted to volunteer for the army, navy, air force, or any other branch of the armed services and has been rejected, he should advise the local board.

Much of this information is vital in determining proper classification of any man. The law requires men to keep local boards advised about such matters. All such information, if submitted by letter or card, must be signed by the man himself.

law at this Session of your legislature is a bill to slow the wholesale construction of Federal Housing Projects in this State. Under this legislation our cities would not be prevented from accepting Federal Housing Projects but could not do so unless a vote of the people of that area approved such projects.

No doubt many people would interpret these acts to mean something else, but the fact remains that there is a strong tendency by your State Legislature to reverse the trend of taking everything labeled "free". There is much effort being made to keep the powers of spending and administration in our own City, County and State governments.

Under a bill recently introduced, drivers' licenses will advance from 50 cents to $1.00. This is an effort to make the Texas State Highway Patrol self-sufficient. The bill passed the House by a vote of 128 to 4.

An additional beer tax of 2 cents per bottle has been proposed as a means of meeting the present shortage of State funds. This would produce an estimated $22,000,000 annually in new revenues. This present tax is 1-2 cent per bottle.

REPORT FROM AUSTIN

By A. J. ROGERS
Rep., 121st. District

The Legislature is now involved with its most difficult task—making its spending fit its income.

At first glance this may not appear to be such a large problem; it just spends the money on hand. It is not that simple.

Every day some group comes to the Legislature wanting more and more services, often for purposes which have never before been a function of the state.

People, who have State Hospitals and Schools in their areas want more money. Old age pensioners want more money; State and City officials and employees want more money. Sometimes the list seems endless.

On the other side, there are those who pay taxes, which just about everyone in these days. They come to the Legislature in groups demands for both spending and saving.

Actually, the decision is up to you, the folks back home—the voters—for the average lawmaker does what he thinks is most popular with his folks back home.

While most states are eager to receive United States Government surplus commodities free for use in state institutions, and for use in the school luncheon program, Texas does not have a State agency to negotiate with Uncle Sam for these commodities, as is required by Federal law. Rather than accept further Federal hand-outs, Texas lets other states get the benefits of these surpluses, even though a large part of them are purchased with tax money from Texas' own pockets.

Your Legislature is now at work on legislation which would provide for State Construction of dams and lakes, thereby leaving the control of these assets entirely in the control of your own state.

REPORT FROM WASHINGTON

By CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS

BEHIND THE SCENES ON THE RFC INVESTIGATION: This is the overall business picture of RFC operations to June 30, 1950: Number of loans, 600,000; amount loaned, 21 billion dollars; average loan, 35 thousand dollars; overall loss on bad loans, 100 million dollars; gross profit, 100 million dollars; net profit after all operating costs, interest and other expenses, 580 million dollars; dividends paid to U. S. Treasury, 100 million dollars; portion of profits now being used in the fund, 255 million dollars. This stock issue, which is all authorized by the U. S. Treasury was 100 million dollars. This overall picture reflects a loss experience of more than one percent on the amount loaned. There is a total move on foot by Eastern and an Eastern Republican bloc to abolish the RFC. RFC has made many loans in Texas and industrializing Texas. Many of these loans could not be handled by banks and partially by RFC. If it had not been for the RFC, the money for these industrial projects in our section of the country could not have been obtained. This same situation is being repeated across the entire South. If the RFC is abolished, industrialization of Texas and the South will be seriously damaged. I do not want to see the RFC abolished because it will place our section of the country at the mercy of the big money interests of the East. This will certainly curtail the industrial development of our people are wondering why the Senate sub-committee has failed to make public letters from senators and Congressmen in both states, some of which I hear are interesting. An skulduggery, canny, immorality or illegality in the operation of this corporation should be fully aired, and the parties responsible or connected with shady transactions should be punished. The same rule should apply to all other government departments, from the national level to the local, whether the offense be immoral or illegal. Immorality in a public function is ferred to because that belt is adjacent to the tidelands that the Federal Government has stolen from the State of Texas, and it occurs to me that since the Federal Government has stolen these tidelands from Texas, it should certainly be its obligation to defend them as requested in this resolution. And while defenses are being prepared in this respect, I might further suggest that such defenses be set up on behalf of Texas, not only against Alien enemy attacks, but against further encroachments by the Federal Government."

Cattle Progeny Test Results To Be Announced

Results of the 1950-51 West Texas beef cattle progeny test will be announced at a field day to be held March 31 at the agricultural experiment substation at Balmorhea. Differences in the inherent rate of gain in breeding animals are determined in this experimental work which is being conducted by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station in cooperation with West Texas ranchmen. There are 200 head of cattle in the current experiment. Of these, 170 are breeding cattle. The balance are crossbred steers on rations to compare the feeding value of three kinds of cottonseed meal. The various groups of breeding cattle will be shown in separate pens, with a record of their daily gains. Miss Leota Wines visited with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Ramsey in Amarillo last week.

WOMEN NOW KNOW WHAT MODERN SCIENCE PROVES

Women judge a clean, bright wash by its appearance, texture and smell. Science explains what homemakers in test areas say about a new all-purpose detergent that gets clothes cleaner and whiter than any known soap, even when used by itself without any bleach, water softener or bluing.

This new household product, named Cheer, was scientifically perfected after 19 years of extensive research by Procter & Gamble, one of the nation's oldest and largest makers of cleaning materials. It is being manufactured in the Southwest at Dallas, Texas.

Intensive laboratory and consumer tests show the new product, due to its patented formula, is guaranteed to get clothes cleaner, brighter and fresher-smelling because the cleaning action goes one Sudsometer test measures sudsing quality of new detergent.

Important step further than soaps. Scientists explain its action as follows:

Both products have what are called "head-and-tail" molecules. The "tail" of the molecule hates water and sinks into the greasy dirt, while the "head" of the molecule surrounds the dirt particles, literally lifting them out of the surface being cleaned and carrying them away with the water.

The new product does not react with minerals in even the hardest water; therefore, leaves no stubborn soap scum or grayish film to dull bright colors. At the same time, it is kind to hands. It is likewise ideal for those homemakers who prefer the time and effort-saving "no-rinse" method of doing their laundry.

Final testing grounds for any washing product are the clothesline and ironing board. Millions of women in test areas who have used the new product for nearly a year report that their wash is cleaner, brighter and sweeter-smelling—free of hard water film which tends to yellow under the iron's heat.

Social Security Representative Here Tuesday

The families of deceased veterans, including those who died in service may be entitled to increased benefits under the 1950 amendments to the Social Security Act, according to John R. Sanderson, manager of the Amarillo office of the Social Security Administration.

A representative from the Amarillo office will be in Memphis at the County Court House, Tues. day, March 27, at 11 a. m.

The new law provides a social security war credit of $160 for each month of military service during World War II. These credits are given to all servicemen whether they have social security numbers or not and regardless of their past employment.

Widows and children of servicemen may be entitled to benefits until the children become 18. The children may qualify even though the widow has remarried. Parents who were chiefly dependent on the servicemen may also qualify for benefits in some instances.

It is not necessary that a living veteran take any action to get credit for his military service. The families of deceased servicemen or veterans should contact the Amarillo social security extension applies only to Series E bonds. He emphasized that the extension is purely optional with the bond owner and that the holder of maturing Series E's can cash them in for full value at any time.

Owners electing to hold their bonds under the new plan will receive 2 1/2 per cent simple interest on them for the first 7 1/2 years of the extension and interest during the final 2 1/2 years at a rate to bring the total interest to 2.9 per cent compounded. The 2 1/2 per cent interest during the earlier years of the extension is a somewhat better return than for new bonds.

"Now the owner of Series E bonds who wants to reinvest his money as they mature only has to hold on to them," Adams said. "If he holds them for the full period of the extension they will pay him a return of 78 per cent on his original investment."

He said that the bill also would keep a lot of money in savings that otherwise would pour into the spending stream and add to inflation.

ty office if they have not done so. Proof of chief dependency of a parent of a serviceman or veteran who died prior to July 1, 1949, must be filed before July 1, 1951.

Widows and children may lose some monthly benefits if their claims are not filed prior to April 1, 1951, because a claim cannot be effective for more than six months before the date of filing.

Hedley Church To Hold Revival

The Assembly of God church at Hedley will begin a revival Easter Sunday according to the Rev. T. E. Gibson, pastor, who recently moved to Hedley.

Rev. C. C. Harris of Oklahoma City will conduct the revival. Services will be held each evening at 7:30.

Bonds May Now Earn Additional Interest

Announcement was made this week that owners of Series E United States Defense Bonds bought before and since World War II have the option of holding their bonds for all or any part of their 10 years with accrued inand trouble," Nathan Adams, state Defense Bond chairman of Dallas said.

"Many of the people who own Series E bonds will want to reinvest the money as they mature. If this bill had not been passed, they would have needed to take their bonds to the bank and have new bonds issued.

"When you have literally hundreds of these bonds, as many Texans do, signing them for redemption can be a tedious job that results in a tired and aching hand," Adams said that the automatic

Hints & Tips on Gardening

According to the calendar at least, spring is here and all your perennial should be divided and reset either in new or enriched soil. Water freely and they will last years growth probably exhausted the particular food they require from the spot where they grow, so move them or replenish the soil.

When the flowers on your potted Easter lilies have faded remove the flower stem and set them out in the yard, preferably where they have mid-day shade. Give them good drainage and rich bloom next year and multiply.

It is getting late to set out pansy plants. Give them rich soil and plenty of water.

Now is the time to dig dahlia tubers. If they have sprouted replant them immediately. It not they may rest for two weeks just lightly covered with dirt, sand, or peat moss. When planting dig an 18-inch hole, put in three or four inches of gravel, about six inches very rich dirt (half and half top soil and barn yard fertilizer is not too rich) put in a double handful of sand, lay bulbs lengthwise, put more sand on top of bulb and fill with good top soil to which some sand has been added. This allows water to soak to feeder roots and they do require plenty of water.

When resetting your plants if you have any to spare either divide with a friend or call 182.

EASTER MORNING ENTERTAINING

Store windows full of flower-decked straw hats, pink-eared bunnies and pastel eggs tell us that Easter is close at hand.

If you're planning to do some Easter entertaining, why not invite friends in for a buffet breakfast or brunch. Or, make it a special occasion for the family anyway, if you don't entertain.

A special menu is in order for the occasion: Fresh strawberries with cream, cereal, creamed ham and eggs on toast points, tiny corn meal muffins with butter and hot chocolate. Use these recipes:

- LITTLE CORN MEAL MUFFINS
 3/4 cup yellow corn meal
 1 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
 3 teaspoons baking powder
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 2 tablespoons sugar
 1 egg, beaten
 3/4 cup milk
 1/4 cup melted butter
 Sift corn meal, flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Beat egg; add milk and blend. Stir in melted butter. Add to dry ingredients, stirring just enough to blend. Fill 2 1/4-inch buttered muffin tins about 2/3 full. Bake in a hot oven, 425° F., for 20 minutes. Makes 16 muffins.
- CREAMED HAM AND EGGS
 3 tablespoons butter
 4 tablespoons flour
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon pepper
 1 teaspoon condiment sauce
 2 1/2 cups milk
 1 1/2 cups diced cooked ham
 4 sliced, hard-cooked eggs
 2 tablespoons minced parsley (optional)
 Hot toast points
 Melt butter; add flour, seasonings and condiment sauce, and blend. Add milk gradually and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Add ham, sliced eggs and parsley. Heat through and serve with toast points. Serves 6.

Care Urged in Buying Cotton Seed

Commissioner of Agriculture John C. White expressed alarm over cotton planting seed in Texas and urged to exercise extreme precaution when making purchases. "It has been known for some time that a shortage of cotton seed existed for the 1951 goal of 11,000,000 acres", Commissioner White stated. "Quality seed were booked early and supplies completely exhausted. Texas seed stocks were supplemented by what amounts could be purchased from other states and much of this seed has come in labeled below standard for germination or approximately 60%". "Additional seed stocks needed for this year's acreage in Texas will come from seed at gins, oil mills and from farmers themselves", White explained. This seed about which I am concerned since we found in our two state seedling laboratories that samples admitted from these sources as low as 3% germination. The Commissioner urged seed purchasers that every sale in Texas is required to have a tag attached to germination percentage. The commissioner added, "the seller is required to furnish one tag for one hundred pounds of seed sold." "I urge all purchasers of cotton seed to exercise caution and care. The tag of our seed laboratories is available to all Texas farmers."

Junior High Shows Sports Trophies

The trophy case at Junior High has recently been redone and the trophies placed in the case. There are 9 trophies. These trophies are 4 first place trophies (one of these "Undefeated Champs of '49-'50", 2 others being basketball trophies and Jimmy Davis' baseball trophy.

Five 2nd place trophies, for basketball, one girls' trophy and a consolation at Lakeview, Junior High School has certainly won its share of trophies—don't you think?

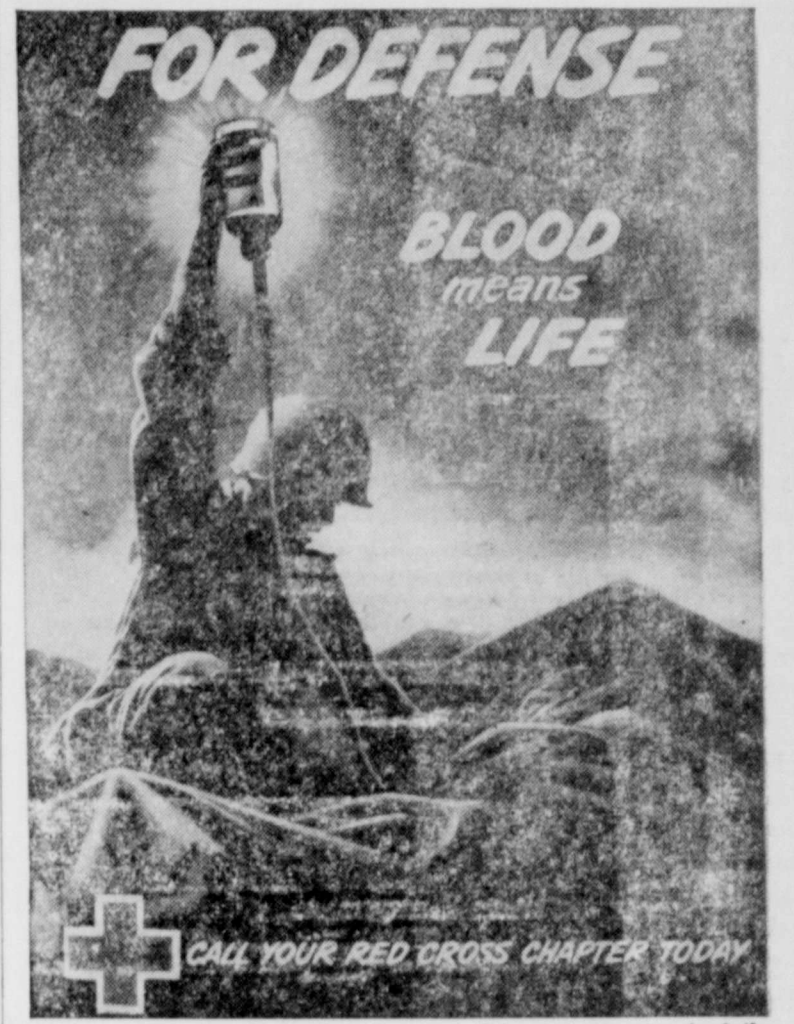

A Poem

A poem found by the roving reporter on the bulletin board in the halls of Junior High is an excellent poem to go by. It was written by Paul Wilson.

Why the rush through the hall,
Why, there should be no rush at all:
You have plenty of time and you may even fall.
So you should take your time
And there will be safety for all.

The Society was established in 1929 at Fairmont State College, Fairmont, West Virginia, by a group of teachers interested in the improvement of dramatic arts in the secondary schools.

The Troubles of a Country

The government of the United States and the people are confronted by the gravest possible problems at present—war and peace, ever-rising taxes and inflation, more schisms between labor and management, the possibility of having to support a great military force here and abroad for many years, and so on down an almost endless list.

But, in this as in other democratic countries where free elections are still held, such problems never obscure the great old game of politics. So the question of who's going to run for President in unpredictable 1952 is beginning to be a hot topic of conversation among professionals and the rank-and-file alike.

First, the feeling is strong, in both Democratic and Republican circles, that Mr. Truman will not run again. The Constitutional amendment restricting any President to not more than 10 years in the job has been passed and, while it specifically exempts the incumbent, it is an indication of public feeling.

Moreover, men close to the President say he has had enough of the job, and that his family, whose wishes he respects, are fed up with it. Mr. Truman has intimated that he would like to return to the Senate. No one knows if he really means this or not but, if he does, he would have a famous precedent in the case of John Quincy Adams who retired from the Presidency and spent the remainder of his life as a member of the house of Representatives.

The great question mark is the appealing and somewhat confusing figure of General Eisenhower. As Newsweek Magazine stated, "If Washington is right about Truman quitting, there's a good chance that General Eisenhower can get the Democratic nomination for President in 1952 just by asking for it. Quite a few Democrats think he can get it even without asking . . . but strangely enough, some of the most powerful leaders of the Republican party want Ike just as desperately."

No one knows whether the General is a democrat or a Republican. As a professional soldier he has played no politics.

Newsweek explains the Democrats' keenness for the General in these words, "The Democratic Party is split wide open on almost every conceivable domestic issue. On foreign policy, in contrast, the party is almost united. Ike's very vagueness on domestic problems, therefore, makes him an ideal Democratic candidate. There is nothing in his record that could alienate any of the groups which compose the Democratic party: The Americans for Democratic Action liberals, the conservative Southerners, the big city bosses, the labor-union leaders, the Negroes." That certainly not true of any other potential Democratic candidate now visible to the eye.

On the Republican side of the fence, he has the strong support of such still-potent figures as Governor Dewey. But here he runs into the powerful Senator Taft, who clearly wants the nomination for himself, and who in the view of millions is now "Mr. Republican." The probabilities are that the Senator now has the inside track, but many changes could occur by convention time.

Get a Studebaker truck and really cut costs!

The stand-up stamina that you want!
Free from gas-wasting excess bulk!

Look at that trim, sleek, streamlined design! That's one reason a Studebaker truck is a stand-out in low-cost operation.

Painstaking master craftsmanship puts wear-resisting long life into every detail of every Studebaker truck. But there's no superfluous dead weight in a Studebaker to waste your gasoline.

Studebaker trucks come in sizes and wheelbases for hundreds of hauling needs—half ton, three-quarter ton and one ton pick-ups and stakes—one-and-one-half ton and two ton models.

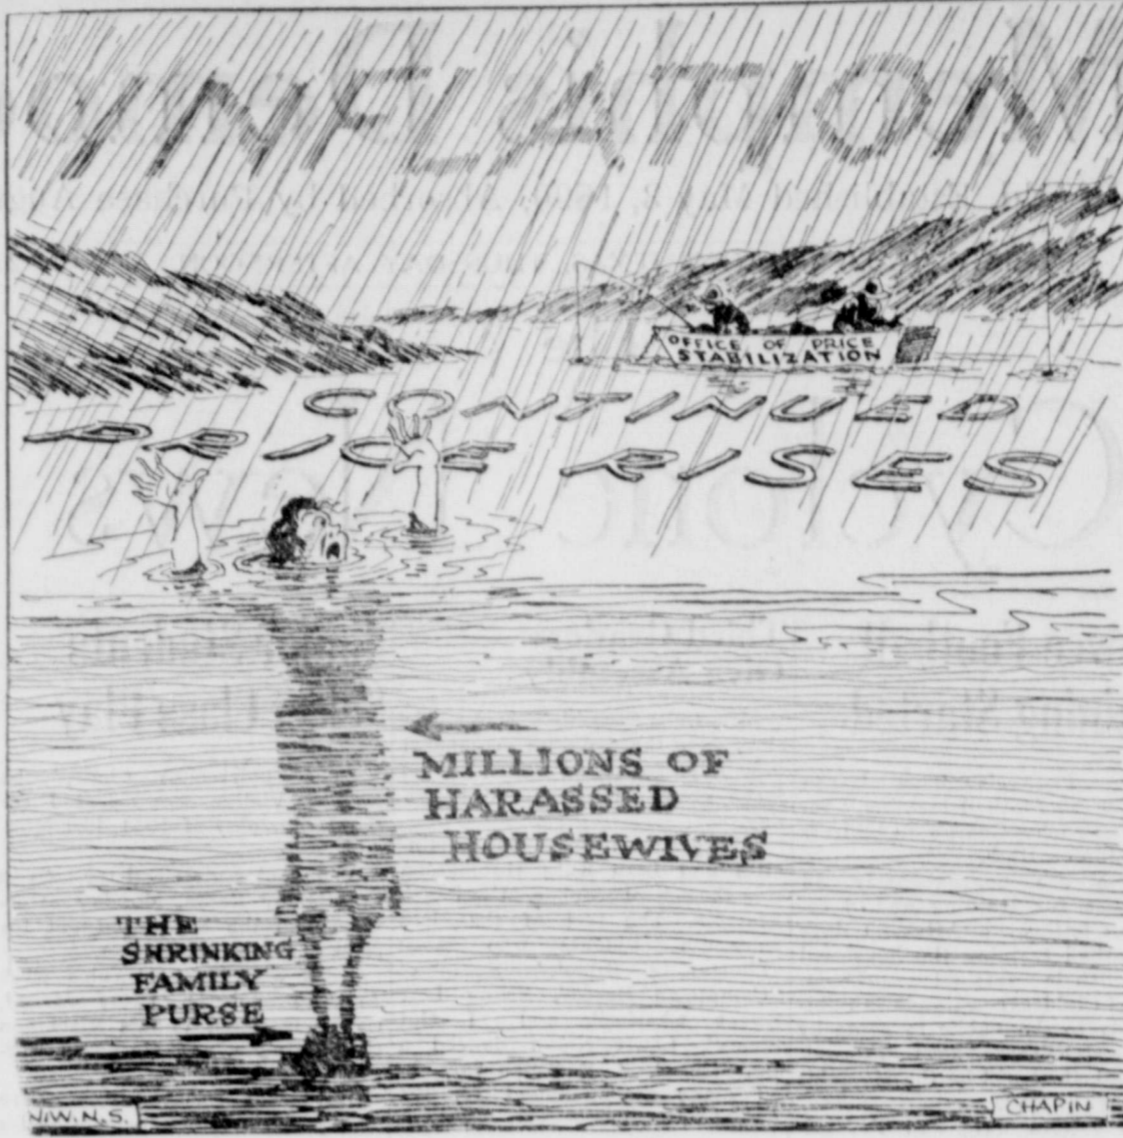

Two great Studebaker-built truck engines—the Econ-a-miser—the high torque Power-Plus—are tops in their fields for smooth performance.

Press Paragraphs— QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

GRASS ROOTS ACTION NEEDED

Suppose the nation's cotton farmers, whom the price freeze on raw cotton at the gin level has hit as hard as anyone, just up and "walked out" on the Government. Suppose they simply refuse to plant cotton despite the plea a 16,000,000-bale crop is a vital defense!

Such action would cause outbursts of horrified indignation in all quarters. No amount of protests from farmers, who have ample cause to gripe, could possibly justify their attitude.

Yet this is exactly what the labor members of the Wage Stabilization Board implicitly threatened to do when they walked out last week.

They said they wouldn't play ball because they don't like the rules. They implied strike action by organized labor if the proposed wage ceiling were not to their liking. One of the "walkers" was the president of the CIO Textile Workers Union.

We are willing to bet a 1932 dollar against a Truman buck that the walkout will get results—that organized labor will win a larger wage increase than the ceiling proposed by WSB.

We certainly are not advocating that cotton farmers stage a similar walkout through their representatives now in Washington. No amount of bureaucratic blundering in Washington could justify jeopardizing the safety of the country. But we do advocate stronger steps than those already used in an effort to bring Mr. DiSalle to his senses.

The chances are action which would permit the cotton exchanges to function would have been taken before now if the offices of Mr. DiSalle, Mr. Brannon and President Truman had been flooded with postcards, letters and wires from cotton farmers, large and small, from the Carolinas to California protesting DiSalle's order.

There are at least 1,250,000 cotton farm families in the Belt. If we assume an average of three votes involved—and with 1952 looming large on the political horizon, anyone who thinks that potent factor wouldn't receive weighty consideration is just plain simple.

It's about time organized action is taken at the grass roots level. It will get results—and how!

WHAT INFLATION DOES

Just what inflation does to the pocketbook is clearly shown in a statement from the National Industrial Conference. It went to the trouble of checking prices of virtually all commodities in everyday use by the average family in 1940 against the prices prevailing today.

The computation showed that unless you have doubled your earnings in the past 10 years, you are no better off financially than you were in 1940.

Concretely, the figures showed that the man earning $5,000 in 1940 must earn $9,367 in 1950 to live on the identical level of 10 years earlier. And as for 1951, it will be worse not only because of still higher prices but also because of the bigger "bite" the Federal income tax is going to be.
—Hidalgo County News

Food bargains are true economy only when the commodity purchased is of good quality as well as being low in price.

The 7th World Scout Jamboree will be held in the summer of 1951 about 35 miles south of Salzburg, Austria.

Easter Celebrations Show Many Changes

Easter customs and celebrations are so closely woven into the pattern of American life that we seldom question where they came from or when they began.

In some cases their origin cannot be determined, and in others are conflicting stories. Naturally, most Easter-time events related to Biblical recollections of the life of Jesus Christ.

In many instances, it is that tradition, legend, superstition, irrelevant invention or whimsical mixture of all these which have seeped into the Easter season.

Mardi Gras, for example, literally means "Fat Tuesday." It's a French name for Shrove Tuesday, the day before Ash Wednesday, beginning of Lent. Actually, Fat Tuesday alludes to an ancient ceremony during which a fat pig was paraded through the streets in Paris and other European cities.

Lent being a period of fasting, Mardi Gras in time, became a carnival. Frequently, the day was followed or replaced by other forms of revelry and dancing. And for years in England, the day before Lent was observed by eating pancakes. Britishers, in fact, still refer to it as Pancake Tuesday.

However, like so many of our Easter customs, time and place of the first Mardi Gras celebration has not been definitely established in either Europe or America. Although the New Orleans Mardi Gras is far better known, three southern cities have long been waging a friendly battle for the distinction of having staged the first Mardi Gras in North America.

Biloxi, Mississippi, claims it all started there in February, 1699, when Pierre Charles le Moyné d'Iberville planted the flag of King Louis XIV of France near the present site of Biloxi just a few days before Shrove Tuesday. Mobile, Alabama, has uncovered evidence that the first formal Mardi Gras appeared there in 1830, and also recalls how French soldiers stationed in Mobile held their celebrations between 1702 and 1710.

New Orleans, Louisiana, on the other hand has set the standard by which Mardi Gras pageants are compared. Their claim to fame is dated 1827, when students returning from school in Paris danced and played in the streets, as they had seen people doing in France.

Naturally, not all of our Easter customs have aroused such controversy. Other pageants of various descriptions, based on the last years of Christ on earth, have been dramatized both in Germany and the United States. The Passion Play presented every tenth year since 1634 at Oberammergau is the best known of these, but other versions were presented as early as the 14th century.

The American Passion Play was inaugurated at Bloomington, Illinois, in 1923. It lasts about four hours, and is presented every Sunday in April and May. Similar religious spectacles are also performed annually in South Dakota and Oklahoma.

At Holy City in the Wichita Mountains, an estimated 100,000 persons every year attend the "Oklahoma Oberammergau"—an Easter sunrise service based on the tradition Passion Play. Inaugurated in 1926, this six-hour pageant draws its audience from all over the South and Middle West.

Mardi Gras and the Passion Plays, obviously, are compounded of Biblical history and tradition. But not all Easter customs are as well founded.

On Palm Sunday in Spain, for instance, natives formerly hung the palm they received at church alongside their homes—believing the palms served as lightning rods.

On Holy Thursday in certain parts of Mexico, children drive the devil out of town by creating a terrific din with rattles. Sometimes rattles are attached to a grotesque effigy of the devil, which is then dragged through the village with a deafening racket.

On Good Friday in most of France, all church bells were believed to make a pilgrimage to Rome, and the townspeople stayed indoors so as not to see their flight. The bells, naturally, remained quiet until their return on Easter Sunday morning. If any local bell missed the excursion, it was believed that bad luck, poor harvests, etc., might follow. To this day, France's church bells are not rung from Good Friday until Easter Sunday—a superstition now hallowed by time and tradition.

Comparatively speaking, Easter cards are probably the most recent of all our Easter customs. They first appeared in Northern Germany about 1850, migrating to America around 1880. Holy Land scenes, then as now, were the most popular illustrations on Easter cards.

GEORGE PFEUFFER
An emigrant boy who came to Texas in the days of the Republic and carved out a brilliant career as merchant and statesman. George Pfeuffer was one of the early Texans of great vision who made possible the development of the A. and M. College. He came to this country with his family at the age of 15, from his native Bavaria and settled at New Braunfels, where, after a number of years he and a brother established themselves as leading merchants. Soon he spread his holdings throughout the state, in the lumber business and even established sizeable holdings in Mexico. He served as county judge of Comal County and later served with distinction as a state senator. He was appointed a member of the board of directors of A. and M. College in 1880, and developed a deep interest in its educational opportunities, which he carried with him to the Senate. Almost singlehandedly he fought the battles of the college in the Senate at a time when it was being neglected while the new State University was being created. Pfeuffer Hall, oldest building standing on the A. and M. Campus today, was named in his honor.

Approximately 57 percent of all field corn planted in Texas last year was planted to corn hybrids. Research and farm demonstrations have proved that many more farmers could profit from planting hybrids.

More than 10,000 Texas cotton farmers last year used rotary hoe equipment on their farm tractors to reduce the cost and amount of labor needed for hoeing their crops.

of Spring. Before the wintry winds have died away, we will sally forth, shivering but stylish, in flimsy spring finery and gay Easter bonnets to take our place in the Easter Parade. March has always been pictured in the old engravings as Nature's Forester riding through the world on a ram and dotting the trees with green to show where the foliage is later to be hung. He carries a spade, also a large bag of seeds which he blows lustily about as he rides along. Naturally, after thirty-one days of such strenuous activity, he grows weary and must needs "go out like a lamb". I wonder if he knows to plant beans on Good Friday as all wise gardeners are supposed to do.

Pearls of Wisdom

Strung by J. H. R.

Here comes Peter Cottontail Hopping down the bunny trail. Many of us, in childish fancy, have traveled 'the bunny trail' to the sand bank at the foot of a big fir tree and the home of Mrs. Rabbit. Nor have we forgotten the picture of Mrs. Rabbit in dress and apron, the three little girl rabbits, Flopsy, Mopsy, and Cottontail (in their pink capes) and Peter in a blue coat, all ready to go gather blackberries. For two generations, the Tale of Peter Rabbit and his mischievous visits to the garden of Mr. McGregor, have delighted children and grown-ups alike. For these charming little stories, we are indebted to Beatrix Potter who befriends and small animals of the gan her Peter Rabbit series as a shy English child with only letters to a friends sick child.

woods for companions, Beatrix passed many happy hours sketching her woodland companions. Always she added the human touch to her pictures by dressing her friends in mufflers, bonnets and shawls. Thus Squirrel Nutkin, Timmy Tiptoes, and Jemima Puddleduch became real little people to the creator even if she was unable to induce any of the publishers to buy her stories. Finally, the first five hundred copies were published at her own expense, in February 1900. Soon afterward, sales became so brisk that Warne publishing house, which had previously rejected her book, reconsidered. Thus began a publishing adventure unparalleled in the field of children's books. According to the New York Times Book Review, "after 48 years the most successful animal book is still Miss Potter's Peter Rabbit. Around 100,000 copies are sold every year in the United States, and there are translations in many languages.

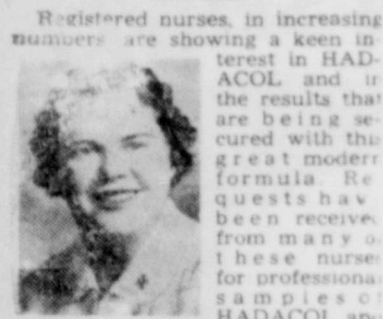

Our shy spinster found in Norman Warne, son of the publisher, a congenial companion. They were engaged to be married when he became ill and died. Because her parents objected to the ill-fated alliance, she bore her grief in silence. But because she had, thru the years, developed some independence of thought, she bought a small farm for herself. Thus established in her secluded hower where "herbs and flowers bloomed beside the path, and an untidy rose straggled across the face of the house" she continued to write her "spell-weaving tales possessed of the poetry and texture of lyrics". At the age of 47, still at odds with Mama and Papa Potter, Beatrix married a country lawyer. For 38 years, she lived happily with her sympathetic companion but she no longer wove the quaint yarns of the animal kingdom. In 1943, she died, leaving a precious legacy to the "make-believe world" of little boys and girls.

Many unique customs and traditions attend this Easter season of the year but, one of rabbits as we were, the fable of the Easter rabbit comes to us from the Saxons, who believed that a bunny always turned up with the gift of a brand-new egg for Easter, the Saxon goddess of Spring Eggs are a simple symbol for a new life and the giving and receiving of colored eggs signified a wish for the brightest of new things in the year to come.

YOUR HEADQUARTERS FOR FORD TRACTORS AND DEARBORN FARM EQUIPMENT

Telephone 481

When you pick a Tractor... be sure you can always get parts

● Any tractor is a big investment. You have every right to expect years of profitable performance from such an investment. In this connection one of the first things to think about is - "Will I always be able to get parts?"

The Ford Motor Company manufactures the Ford Tractor. What greater assurance could you have of being able to get parts - anytime, anywhere.

Not only is this important to you as long as you have the tractor, but it is also something the buyer thinks about seriously when you go to sell or trade in your used Ford Tractor. This is only one of the many reasons why a used Ford Tractor commands a high resale price.

THE SIGN FOR SERVICE

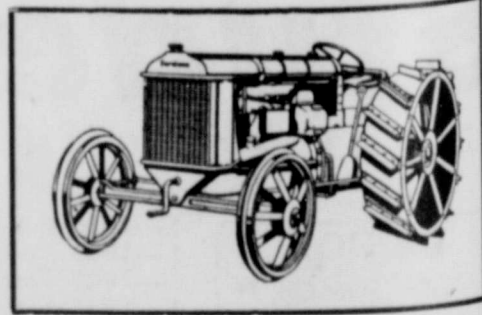

... that can't be beat!

● We are pretty proud of this service sign. We do our best to live up to those seven letters S-E-R-V-I-C-E.

We spend time and money training our mechanics. But we feel this is worthwhile to us because it's worthwhile to our customers.

We try to keep an adequate stock of genuine parts on hand at all times... and to stock up on parts ahead of the busy seasons so we have what you need in emergencies.

We cordially invite you to look over our service setup.

You can even get parts for Fordson tractors built 31 years ago!

says Bill Smith,

"WHEN A MAN BUYS A USED CAR from us, we want him to get his money's worth in performance and operating cost. That's why we put new Conoco Super Motor Oil in all our cars and tell the buyer to use nothing else," says H. C. Wheeler, Wheeler Motor Company, Denver, Colorado.

"50,000 MILES-NO WEAR!"—PROVED HERE:
After a punishing 50,000-mile road test, with proper crankcase drains and regular care, engines lubricated with new Conoco Super Motor Oil showed no wear of any consequence... in fact, an average of less than one one-thousandth inch on cylinders and crankshafts.
AND gasoline mileage for the last 5,000 miles was actually 99.77% as good as for the first 5,000! This test proved that new Conoco Super, with OIL-
PLATING, can make your car last longer, perform better, use less gasoline and oil.

"I RECENTLY CHECKED A CAR that had gone 39,000 miles on Conoco Super Motor Oil," reports Joe Pressidige, Chief Garage Mechanic, St. Paul, Minnesota. "I found the connecting rod journals were within five tenthousandths of an inch of the original factory specifications. I've never seen so little wear!"

Boys Ranch Plans New, Large Addition

Visions of a Boys Ranch for 1,000 to 1,500 youngsters with a fighting chance to grow into worthwhile American citizens has been put into words by Cal Farley, founder and president of the famous Boys' Ranch near Amarillo, Texas.

ings furnished, will cost approximately $30,000, but the Ranch founder pointed out that they probably could be built for less because of donations of labor and materials, such as have been given in the past.

Under the new program, the expansion area would be dedicated to the use of the older boys and would house the high school and vocational school, leaving the present area for handling the smaller boys.

Right now, it is necessary that one unit be started as soon as possible in order to ease the crowded conditions. Later on, another unit and part of the vocational school building will be built.

Plans and sketches have already been received from the Fifth Year Architectural Class of Texas A. & M. The class has made the planning of the future Ranch buildings a term project and the boys are donating their services. It is hoped that ground for the first new unit will be broken within the next 30 to 60 days.

Unfolding the story of the costs of maintaining the present establishment that now cares for 137 boys, Farley said that the ultimate expansion was limited only

FORD WINS AGAIN!

V-8 TAKES FIRST PLACE IN CLASS "A" 1951 MOBILGAS ECONOMY RUN

Both Ford V-8 and SIX Deliver more than 25.9 miles per gallon

Gruelling 840-mile test proves Ford Economy

Again this year . . . it's high honors for Ford! In the most important economy trial for American stock model cars . . . the famous annual Mobilgas Economy Run . . . A Ford 100-h.p. V-8 equipped with Overdrive took first place competing against all cars in its price class, making 54.587 ton-miles per gallon* and 25.994 miles per gallon. And its companion in quality, the new Ford SIX with Overdrive, was right up there with the winner. In fact, both cars averaged better than 25.9 miles per gallon.

Traditional Ford economy, for the second straight year, has been proved in open competition. Proved on the tough 840-mile grind from Los Angeles to the Grand Canyon . . . a course that included city traffic, below-sea-level desert heat and 7,000-foot mountain passes. Ford's Automatic Mileage Maker, standard equipment on all Ford V-8's and SIXES, contributed to this great achievement by squeezing the last mile out of every drop of gasoline.

Why not "Test Drive" the new Ford at your neighborhood Ford Dealer's? There's no better way to be convinced that "You can pay more but you can't buy better!"

*The AAA Contest Board determines the winner by a "ton-mile per gallon" formula to insure equal chance for all cars in each class regardless of size and weight. Ton-miles per gallon equals the car weight (including passengers) in tons, multiplied by number of miles travelled, divided by number of gallons of gasoline consumed.
