CROP SPRAYING PILOT CRASHES HERE

PLAINVIEW VET DIES IN PLANE

A Piper Cub crop spraying plane hit a high tension REA line, crashed and burned, killing the pilot, Ray Wright, 26, of Plainview, between 7:30 and 8 a. m. yesterday morning near the community of Lesley, about 19 miles Southwest of Memphis.

The pilot was flying a new airplane for the newly-organized Panhandle Spray Company, owned and operated by J. R. Mitchell and Bob Winkels of Memphis.

The crash occurred near the farm of Carroll and J. P. Fowler. Both men witnessed the accident.

"I saw the pilot right after the plane hit, before it exploded and he looked unconscious. I believe he was killed instantly," J. P. Fowler stated.

It took Murphy-Spicer ambulance attendants Creed Lamb and Leon Randolph more than two hours with other rescue workers to free the body from the wreckage. Special cutting torches had to be secured.

Wright came from Plainview early yesterday morning in the new plane specially equipped for spraying to help out with the crop spraying on cotton fields in this area.

"He was flying east and evidently the sun got in his eyes and he didn't ever see the power line," Carroll Fowler said. Wright was making his first pass over the field and getting set to spray.

He was a World War II Air Force veteran and a C-46 pilot during the war in the South Pacific. He was also employed as part-time pilot of a cloud seeding plane for the High Plains Hall Prevention Association of Plainview.

Funeral arrangements were pending arrival of relatives. The body was shipped to Plainview.

Wright was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Clint Wright of Plainview.

Traffic Arrests Head Police's June Docket

Police Chief T. D. Weatherby reported a total of 49 arrests were made by members of the city police department during the month of June and 20 of the arrests were for traffic violations. Indictments ranged from drunkenness, fighting, gambling to traffic violations of speeding, running stop signs and reckless driving.

One of the first traffic violations during this month was committed early Monday morning when a Dallas woman, Mrs. Mary Harris Kisler, was charged with reckless driving after running into a lumber truck at 10th and Front streets.

The woman and her two children were hospitalized at a local hospital but released after treatment. The truck driver, Bill Miles of Fort Worth was not injured.

R. B. Darnell Dies Here This Morning

R. B. Darnell died at his home on East Noel here in Memphis this morning.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed, pending notification of all relatives. A complete obituary will be run in The Democrat next week.

Murphy-Spicer are in charge of arrangements.

Hot Weather Here As High Hits 99

Temperatures during the past week ranged from a low of 60 to a high of 99 and rainfall during the seven-day period was almost two inches according to local reports from J. J. McMicken, local weather recorder.

Board Members Launch Big Repair Program For Memphis City Schools

A general repair and remodeling program for the Memphis Independent schools was launched by School Board members after two meetings earlier this week and actual construction work began today, Superintendent W. C. Davis announced.

The repair program, estimated at about $40,000 will be financed out of the school bonds recently voted on by local citizens.

"This is part of the school program we have in store for Memphis," Davis continued.

The main part of the future school program includes construction of a new grade school and Davis announced that architects have promised drawings will be ready by August 1, and then bids will be advertised. Actual construction of the new school is expected sometime in late September.

Lack of building materials hindered progress of plans, Davis added.

Work to be done on the present buildings include modernizing of junior high school which will include repainting inside and repairing rooms, halls and fixtures.

At the high school, a complete re-wiring job will be done, new plastering will be put on walls and places where water has leaked will be repaired, new plumbing fixtures will be added and the building will be painted inside and outside.

The West Ward building will be re-wired and the floors will be re-worked and covered with a semi-fire proof rubber tile. The old West Ward auditorium will be closed off and only the first two floors will be used, Davis said.

The companies which have the contracts are starting work immediately and have promised they will be through by time the fall term begins," Davis added.

Contractors who will do the work in the school program include R. A. Massey and Angus Huckaby, plumbing; E. R. Braidfoot and Bill Miller, painting; Bud Godfrey, plastering, stucco and cement work; L. J. Kennon, carpenter and stone work and Gidden and Pierce the electrical work.

Most of the work has been let on a cost plus basis, Davis said.

Repairs also have been planned for the school at Morningside including moving in of some additional barracks, stucco and sealing work, establishment of a library and moving of lavatories inside.

The buildings will be painted and general repair work completed.

Members of the school board who attended meetings launching the program included President R. C. Lemons, Ed Hutcherson, M. C. Allen, Homer Tucker, Roy Coleman and J. A. Anthony.

STOP THESE INVADERS!

COTTON INSECT PLAGUE—Insects robbed Texas farmers of almost a million bales of cotton last year and almost 400,000 tons of cottonseed. Current fights are now on county and state-wide to prevent mounting insect damage.

Crop Prospects Fade As Web Worms Strike

Hall County crop prospects were described as excellent this week by County Agent W. B. Hooser but added that immediate spraying and insect control must be applied, practically county-wide, if these prospects are to continue.

Invasion of web or careless weed worms has taken practically all parts of the county according to reports.

Farmers in all areas spent this week applying spray and combating the worms.

What seems to be the most heavily infested area is the Lesley-Brice and Lakeview area but farmers all over the county have been busy using sprays both by airplanes and from tractor equipped ground sprayers.

At least four planes have been at work in the county spraying young cotton stalks.

Ort hand estimates of cotton planted in the county have topped 200,000 acres but how many acres actually produce remains to be seen.

Most widely used insecticide seems to be toxaphene which County Agent Hooser stated should be applied about three pints to the acre with ground spraying equipment.

Aerial sprayers are having success with parathion using about a pint to the acre.

Recent and heavy rains have been traced as the cause of the early worm infestation. Exact amount of damage caused by the worms cannot be calculated at this time most farmers report; however, most of them think and believe they are catching the worms in their first stage here.

Some cotton chopping is already in progress in the county and many Mexican choppers are already here. But because of good weed control by plowing there will be less chopping needed on most farms, Hooser added.

Heavy rains Saturday and Sunday nights did additional crop and land damage in the area according to Soil Conservationists Guy Cawfield, especially in the Bryant Lake area.

"Many more terraces were washed away by the heavy rains and standing water has probably destroyed several more acres of cotton in the area," Cawfield added.

BIT Takes Man Here Wanted in Okla.

County Sheriff E. S. Mordecai, Deputy Bill Baten and Bureau of Investigation Sunday night arrested a man near Memphis who was wanted in Oklahoma for rape and murder.

Jefferson Wingo was wanted in Atoka, Okla., on charges of rape of a 14-year-old girl last Christmas day. The girl was his daughter.

Announcement of the arrest of Wingo, gray-haired Oklahoma farmer, was made Monday by H. O. Hawkins, head of the Dallas FBI office.

Wingo was being held in Potter county jail in lieu of $7,500 bond after arraignment before the U. S. commissioner in Amarillo.

Federal charges against the man were filed at McAlester, Okla.

Sheriff L. O. McBride of Atoka said the entire family had expressed fear of the father who disappeared from Atoka in early June.

Mrs. Ollie Wingo, his wife was found dead on a bedroom floor of the farmhouse June 19. Sheriff McBride said a single puncture, apparently made by an ice pick-like instrument, penetrated the heart.

"The death of Mrs. Wingo is unsolved," Sheriff McBride stated. Wingo, who has been working on a farm a few miles from Memphis the last few weeks, denied the charge.

Pioneer Rancher Thomas J. Smith Dies in Amarillo

Thomas John Smith, 81-year-old retired rancher of Childress and Hall counties, died Monday in Amarillo where he had been visiting.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Newlin Baptist church with Minister Bedford Smith of Memphis conducting services. Burial was at the Newlin cemetery.

Smith moved to Childress county in 1908 and ranched there and near Memphis until he retired a few years ago. He had been a member of the First Christian church for many years.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Ida Anderson of Las Vegas, N. M., Mrs. Lella Browder of Amarillo and Mrs. Pearl Daniels of Wagon Mound, N. M. and two sons, T. J. Smith Jr., of Croano, N. M. and James Burle of Childress plus eight grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Pall bearers were Gus Odom, A. M. Sims, Jake McCulloch, Bud Godfrey, Otis Cobb and Charlie Read.

Honorary pallbearers were D. W. Lawrence, Jeff Harper, Bob Mothershead, Arthur Eddleman and Bill Holland.

Flower bearers were Mrs. Eva Odom, Mrs. Thelma Knight, Lois McCulloch, Mrs. Evelyn McCulloch, Mrs. Bud Godfrey, Mrs. Mrs. Ruth Cobb and Mrs. Gladys Read.

Funeral arrangements were handled by Murphy-Spicer.

Farmers to Get PMA Maize Checks

Checks amounting to about $2,000 were being mailed to farmers in Hall County this week by Production Marketing Administration.

"These checks are for the 1950 maize crops in the county," Administrator Lynn McKown said.

The government took title on the loans April 1, and payment is being made this week McKown added. The checks vary in amounts from $5 to as much as $68.

City To Stand Firm On Phone Hike

City Council members Tuesday night voted to "stand pat" on their decision regarding increased telephone rates in the city of Memphis.

Recently the council voted to grant the telephone company an increase in rates, though not as much of an increase as the company had asked for, and the telephone company refused the rate hike offered them.

Further action on the hike now is up to the telephone company.

Mayor Carl Harrison read council members a letter from the telephone company stating they refused the rate hike offered. The letter stated the company refused the hike offered because it still would not permit them the necessary return on their investment here.

The return asked for by the phone company amounted to about a 35 per cent increase in rates. The rate hike offered by council members equaled about 12 per cent increase in rates, which the company refused Tuesday night.

Council members present at Tuesday night's meeting included O. L. Helm, H. J. Mowell, O. V. Alexander, J. W. Johnson, Wendell Harrison and E. C. Rice.

Other matters brought before the council included the Community Public Service company's petition asking for a renewal of their franchise which expires in 1952 and their increase in water rates.

Mayor Harrison appointed a committee consisting of H. J. Howell, O. L. Helm and E. C. Rice to look into the water situation further and report to the council at the next meeting.

We Wonder Why, Do You?

One of the most common subjects of conversations these days is the current drift of this country towards Socialism and we might add communism. Now off hand most people don't recognize this trend for what it really is.

But the gradual drift or steps this government of ours is making as they are going into various enterprises and almost every phase of business . . . is nothing short of a trend toward Socialism.

The government more and more is trying to gain complete control of the electrical power industry; to socialize medicine. Recently an OPS head advocated the licensing of all businesses to give the government power to enforce OPS. This is just as much steps toward Socialism as anything the country of England ever did to bring on their system of Socialistic rule.

Yet, we, the common citizens, are the government.

Why, Why, Why? that is the question continually asked by everyone. Why is the trend toward Socialism? No one seems to know the answer. But one fact is evident:

When recent tornados hit at the towns of Olney and White Deer, one of the first items in the press after the storm stories was the amount of Federal aid the towns would receive.

Now don't misunderstand us, we are not condemning these towns for accepting this federal aid. If such a disaster struck Memphis, we would probably be very grateful for any aid which was received. Nevertheless it is a step toward federalization and for that step we give up a bit of our independence!

Here in our county, when farmers think of trying a new crop, which is rather seldom we'll admit, the first thing they try to find out is how much the government guaranteed price is.

For the last several years the farmers have been guaranteed so much for their crops whether good or bad . . . now we are neither condemning or praising this practice . . . but we are pointing out that for accepting such help . . . we, the American people, have sacrificed some of our independence and every time we sacrifice independence we are drifting toward Socialism . . . and don't let anyone fool you into thinking otherwise.

The old fashion pioneer spirit of making it on our own has about been lost in the dust of memories . . . and it seems to us that it is high time that we started doing a few more things for ourselves.

Now we come to the question, if we don't want this trend toward Socialism to continue when and where do we stop it.

That is a question to which no one knows the answer. You don't want to take away the guarantees on farm products, do you? You don't want to eliminate the possibility of obtaining on FHA loan to buy a home do you? You don't want to do without or wait for electrical power until private companies can extend you that service without government help, do you?

Oh no, you want government spending to cease, but are you willing to suffer the consequences if it affects you?

Therefore these millions of government employees who have good jobs under the present set-up and people like you tend to vote each election for the candidates whom they believe will favor continuation of most of this government mis-service.

Still others do not even bother to go to the polls, and so the candidates are elected who lean toward more government control and whether they themselves realize it or not that type of control is Socialism.

It's time to view with a critical eye this government aid, and help start a trend which will lead to less help from Washington, bearing in mind the examples set by our fathers and our forefathers.

Press Paragraphs— QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

Let's Learn From Experience

The head of a large department store recently had this to say about price controls: "The real answer to lower prices lies in production and then more production. Controls that bring about increased production could possibly be helpful during this emergency—and retailers have expressed their willingness to go along with such helpful controls. But it is high time we learned from our past experience about the evils of 'controls for control's sake' . . ."

"Virtually every merchant who operated under OPA price controls, after the various other controls had lapsed, will testify that these controls resulted in artificial shortages, decreased production, quality deterioration, black markets and higher prices than would have otherwise prevailed. . . ."

"More than 60,000 Federal employees were required to handle the OPA job, and the cost of administering this agency, during its lifetime, exceeded $750,000,000. This amount, however, was chicken-feed compared to what it cost retail distributors to try and observe these OPA regulations. A conservative estimate of this amount would run into many billions of dollars, thereby adding that much more to the existing inflation."

The Office of Price Stabilization is a very youthful organization, alarming symptoms that it is falling into the old OPA pattern—a pattern which probably did more to stimulate inflation than it did to reduce it. We need more production and more competition—not less production and less competition. Unless we keep that fact in mind and act on it, we're sunk so far as successfully controlling inflation is concerned.

—Industrial Review

KNOXVILLE, IOWA, EXPRESS: "Some of these days most of the . . . people of this fair country are going to get good and tired of having someone sitting in a swivel chair warming the seat of his pants in Washington, thinking up schemes to make more useless paper work for them, and will dump the whole lot into the nearby Potomac river and start over with a clean slate."

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, UNION BANNER: "Best news out of Washington in a long time to the little people who have to foot the bills for wild governmental extravagance is the action taken . . . by the House of Representatives in slashing 693 million dollars off the amount requested by President Truman for independent Federal bureaus."

The Judge Is Still Just a Person
An Associate Justice of the Supreme Court let it be known in readily understood language recently that he did not appreciate letters from people regarding cases pending before the High Tribunal. Writing letters of commendation, protest and advice to public officials is one of the privileges still enjoyed under our democratic system. When any person holding an office within the gift of the people, directly or indirectly, reaches a point in his thinking where he apparently feels no need of the common touch as represented so often by the personal messages, spoken or written, of the man in the street, he ought to go out behind the wood shed and rub ashes on himself maybe don sack cloth and fast, until he again discovers he is still just a person.

This just happens to be a member of the Court which junked a solemn treaty between two sovereign nations and thereby gave the Government of the United States possession of the Texas Tidelands.

ASTORIA ORE., ASTORIAN BUDGET—"In Washington, D. C. public money flows like water and when the government can't get enough out of the taxpayers it creates new money by its irresponsible fiscal policies—such as its forrowing from lending institutions, its facilitation of easy credit, and the like."

WEST BEND, WISC., NEWS: "High taxes and credit controls are imposed to compel us, as individuals and businesses, to restrain our expenditures; we are exhorted to recognize our responsibility as citizens to save. It is that the Federal government, which next year will spend about one-fourth of the national income, should not share in the general belt-tightening. Federal, state and local expenditures, by the way, will account for about one-third of the national income."

PLAINFIELD, IND., MESSENGER: "Quite a number of States are coming out of their lethargy as concerns where do we get off if we do not, and soon, up and lower the boom on the giant vehicles that are pounding our roads to dust—California has just discovered the its big trucks hit up to 70 and that they out-run by 15 minutes the fastest railroad streamliner between San Francisco and Los Angeles—445 miles."

Memphis Youth
 Is Promoted to Tech Sergeant

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Carter of this city have just received a communication from headquarters of the 85th Maintenance Group, U. S. Air Force, Erding, Germany, stating their son, Charlie, has been promoted to the grade of Technical Sergeant.

"His promotion was earned through diligence, high moral standards and exemplary conduct, and it is a pleasure to have him in the organization which I am privileged to command, and the credit which he has reflected upon his country and upon the U. S. Air Force in a foreign nation is commendable," his commanding officer wrote.

In a recent letter to his parents Charlie stated that he is now foreman of the whole automotive service section at the Erding base. He had asked for a transfer to another section earlier, but this was disapproved, Charlie thinks, because the CO wanted him to have the foremanship.

Draft Extended
 To July 1955
 With Modifications

The draft law, scheduled for expiration July 9, has been extended in amended form to July 1, 1955. Brigadier General Jaul L. Wakefield, state draft director, reminded Texas people today.

General Wakefield noted the following important changes in the Selective Service act:

- Men inducted will serve for 24 months as compared to 21 under the old law. Males must register at the age of 18, as formerly.
- Men are liable for induction at age of 18½ instead of 19. No man below 19 can be inducted so long as a board has eligible elder men.
- Physical and mental standards for service have been lowered with the result that some men now classified IV-F will be found suitable for I-A.
- The present strength of the armed forces, approximately 3½ million, can be raised to 5 million men.
- Except for cases of extreme hardship, a man may not be deferred for dependency on the basis of a wife alone.
- Men now or hereafter deferred on educational, occupational, farming, or dependency grounds will remain liable for service until age 35. Men not deferred are liable only to 26th birthday.
- Conscientious objectors to military service shall be ordered by local boards, subject to regulations prescribed by the President, to perform civilian work in the national interest for 24 months.
- Men entering the service by way of a draft board are obligated to serve six years in the reserves after discharge.
- High school students will be deferred until graduated, until they attain age 20, or until they fail school work.
- Some college students may be deferred on the basis of class standing during last completed school year, or on the basis of a government-sponsored test. The local board is not bound to defer on the basis of this information, but can defer on consideration of it. Some other college students may be deferred on a less competitive basis.
- No inducted man may be assigned overseas until he has had four months training.
- All enlistments in the armed forces, reserve and regular,

DELIGHTFUL PEACH DRINK

A SULTRY summer afternoon, you have no will to move about, and guests are expected. There's no need to get in a hurry over refreshments. Nobody wants heavy food and nothing will be more appreciated than a delicious cold drink with good cookies to nibble on. To enhance the appearance of the drinks you serve, be sure your glasses are crystal clear, and of an attractive design. If cubes as a lukewarm drink has no appeal. If you are serving bottled fruit beverages, sparkling water or ginger ale, it should be thoroughly chilled before using. Fruit juices, too, should be chilled before making drinks.

Here is a delicious drink to serve guests. It can be topped with ice cream or whipped cream.

GEORGIA GINGER CREAM
2 cups peach nectar
Pale dry ginger ale
Whipped Cream or Ice Cream

Divide peach nectar among 4 tall glasses. Fill glasses with ice cold pale dry ginger ale. Top each glass with whipped cream. Stir gently to mix.

Spray Company Opens Business Here in Memphis

A new business, the Panhandle Spray Company owned and operated by J. R. Mitchell Jr. and Bob Winkels, both local business men, was organized here recently.

The firm has established offices at the city airport at present and are set-up to do all types of aerial spraying and dusting.

The company is using Steerman and Piper Cub airplanes and this week have sprayed cotton fields in the Lesley and Brice community.

"We also are handling a line of DuPont general insecticides," Mitchell said. "We have insecticides for sale also to tractor spray operators," he continued.

The firm also has their own ground equipment for work in connection with the aerial spraying including pumps and agitators.

"We are set up to handle spraying jobs anywhere in this section of the country," Winkels stated. Included in the insecticides handled by the company are toxaphene, parathion, aldrin 3-5-40, DDT, livestock sprays, weed and grass killers and defoliants.

"We hope we will be able to help the farmers of this area combat the insects to their crops successfully and we will be glad to discuss any insect problem a farmer may have," Mitchell concluded.

J. J. McMicken, local Fort Worth and Denver agent, returned Sunday from a two-weeks vacation.

Fit-Together Magazine Rack

A ONE-EVENING workshop project for the man who has a cross-cut saw and a coping saw is an attractive magazine rack requiring no fasteners. It simply is fitted together after the parts are sawed out. Of course, power tools will make the rack even easier to produce.

As illustrated, the magazine rack consists of a bottom, two ends, two sides and a divider. Incidentally, the divider should be made in two parts, so that it will fit into the slotted end pieces. All parts are Masonite 3/16" Tempered Presdwood.

Sides of the rack shown are 12 inches square. The sides taper from 3 3/4 inches at the bottom to 6 inches at the top. Note carefully the slots and tenons in the illustration. The center panels, which have tenons at either end, are slipped into position horizontally and then turned up into the locked position. There is sufficient pliability in the Tempered Presdwood to permit the side pieces to be snapped into position last.

This fit-together magazine rack may be left in its natural dark brown color, painted or enameled.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McMurry had as guests Sunday her sister, Mrs. Drucilla Householder and son, Ralph Jr., of Amarillo, and her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Fowler and two daughters of Sweetwater, Okla.

VET PROBLEMS AND ANSWERS

Q. I was separated, but not divorced, from my husband—a World War I veteran—at the time of his death. His service-connected disability, incidentally, did not cause his death. If I meet eligibility requirements, would I be entitled to a pension, even though we were separated?

A. Yes, if you can establish that the separation was due to the misconduct of, or procured by, your husband, with no fault on your part. Also, you would have to meet the income requirements and have not remarried.

Q. I recently received my NSLI dividend from VA and I'm pretty sure the amount is wrong. Where do I write to get things straightened out?

A. Write to the VA district office handling your account. Be sure to include all necessary information so that office can readily locate your file—such as full name and address, insurance number and service serial number.

Q. In 1943, I received an honorable discharge as an enlisted man to accept a commission, and I have been on active duty ever since. Am I eligible while still on active duty for GI Bill schooling benefits on the strength of that discharge?

A. No. A discharge granted merely for the purpose of changing military status is not sufficient under the law to qualify you for GI Bill benefits.

Q. I got in military service in 1948, after World War II, and was discharged recently. Would I be entitled to GI Bill benefits?

A. No. One of the qualifications for GI Bill benefits is World War II service.

M-Sgt. and Mrs. I. W. Velo of Ft. Belvoir, Va. announce the birth of a son, Allen Coleman, on June 22 at Ft. Belvoir Army Hospital. Mrs. Velo will be remembered by her friends here as Pauline Hartman.

People who work in the sun are particularly susceptible to skin cancer on hands, face and neck. In Texas, where there is an abundance of sunlight, 140 out of every 100,000 people develop skin cancer; in Michigan, which gets half as much sunlight as Texas, the rate is 24 per 100,000.

Wattenbarger-Thompson Vows Are Read in Plainview on June 14

Miss Martha Ann Wattenbarger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Wattenbarger of Plainview and formerly of Memphis, became the bride of Benny R. Thompson of Roswell, N. M., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Thompson of Gainsville on June 14 at the St. John's Methodist Church in Plainview.

The Rev. R. H. Campbell, pastor, assisted by James Bell, performed the double ring ceremony before an arch entwined with huckleberry and a cluster of three large wedding bells. It was flanked by large baskets of white gladioli and white peonies, and tall candelabra holding white cathedral tapers. In front of the chancel and in the background were large palms. Three groups of seven-pointed tapers decorated the cancel rail.

Miss Marilyn Forsythe, pianist, played "At Dawning", "Clare de Lune," and "Make Believe," before the ceremony. While Jimmy Wattenbarger, brother of the bride, and Riley True lit the candles, Miss Forsythe played "I Love You Truly." She also accompanied Miss Francis Smith of Hale Center cousin of the bride, as she sang "Always" and "Because", played "Indian Love Call" softly during the ceremony, and the traditional wedding marches for the processional and recessional. "The Lord's Prayer" was sung as a benediction by James Bell as the couple knelt on a white satin pillow.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of imported white organdy over satin. The dress was fashioned with a fitted bodice and full gathered skirt in ballerina length with a group of five tiny tucks at the hemline. The yoke and long sleeves, which came to a point over the hands, were of imported Italian lace. The fingertip veil, of the same lace, was finished with a net ruffle and was held in place with a bandeau of stephanotis. She carried a white lace fan laden with white Killarney roses white carnations and stephanotis and streamers of white satin tied with lace knots and stephanotis.

The bride's aunt, Mrs. Jesse M. Reed of Kress, attended her as matron of honor. Miss Betty Jane Thompson, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. Both were dressed in street-length pale blue organdy dresses with eyelet embroidery and cuffs. They carried colonial bouquets of yellow Delight roses and a cluster of yellow roses in their hair.

Glenn Jolly of Plainview was best man and Jimmy Wattenbarger, brother of the bride, Billy True, Truman Hankins and Jack Hollister, all of Plainview, were ushers.

Maier-Gregory Wedding Vows Are Solemnized June 23 in Quanah

Miss Marjorie Maier of Quanah and Garland Frank Gregory of Memphis were united in marriage at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, June 23, in the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. S. J. Soft music for the double ring ceremony was presented by Mrs. R. C. Willingham, pianist.

For the exchange of their vows the couple stood before an improvised altar placed in front of a large silk draped bay window. White cathedral tapers in branched candelabra burned to provide a soft light and baskets of white gladioli and shell pink peonies completed the arrangements at the altar.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a ballerina length gown of white Chantilly lace over taffeta with a shirred bodice of white crepe complimented by a lace stole bolero and matching lace mitts. Her shoulder length veil of imported French illusion fell from a tiara of waxed orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet in French fashion was of sweetheart roses and cascading stephanotis. For "something old" she carried a point lace handkerchief made by her maternal grandmother. "Something borrowed" was pearls belonging to Mrs. Matthew.

Mrs. LeCourse Williams, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. She was attired in a pale pink ballerina length organdy and eyelet batiste gown over tafface hat, white nylon gloves and white pumps.

The bride was a 1950 graduate of Plainview high school and attended Lippert's business college the past year. The groom is employed by the Geotechnical Research and Survey Co., of Dallas and is located at Roswell, N. M. at the present time.

feta, fashioned after that of the bride. Completing her costume she carried a colonial bouquet of shades of pink frenched carnations.

Little Miss Carol Reglin of Waxahachie, Texas, was flower girl. Her gown was of white net and a bandeau of pink rosebuds adorned her hair.

Old Glory Renewed
The time this edition reaches Americans will have celebrated one hundred seventy-fifth year, the glorious fourth of July you will be holding your own party, or a lily deuce on how thoroughly you in your urge to join in the observance of this holiday. It was when a community took top billing as a lively day of celebration. Days of preparation ended in a picnic in the grove. Folks came all directions in horse and drawn vehicles. Old Maud hitched to the buggy for the folk, chairs were put in, and the chickens were led out of the surrey so Ma and the kids could be there. The day passed happily, barbecues and stomach aches, pink lemonade flowed freely, plentiful, and chiggers for but spirits were undamped. Quills were spread on the lawn for the young-uns and the swains assisted their ladies to a fallen log, a bench or their handkerchiefs for the place. Elder Brown said not before everyone dives in the fried chicken, ice cream and watermelon. Next one-legged races, and the nitchin', well seasoned spittin' arguin', afforded entertainment. Roman noses, jealousies flared, re-exchanged, yarns swapped by sundown, tired but all departed in their severations after a "glorious picnic in a secluded spot, a picnic offers too little excitement. Rodeos sweep the country like an epidemic while auto races, horse races, and baseball vie for first place as favorite pastimes. Some fly across country while others stay home to see the thrills and spills of a rodeo. In fact, There's nothing like a rodeo To bring the folks to town . . . Then all who can (and some who can't) Go riding up and down.

Daniel's Crime Stand Raised By Ministers

AUSTIN—Texas forged to the last week in its anti-crime campaign.

The greatest anti-gambling in recent Texas history gained when the house crime investigating committee held a hearing on the Galveston situation and Attorney General Price Daniel got a temporary injunction against telegraphing horse-race data to Galveston betting parlors.

The house crime committee of 10 Galveston officials and leaders; after hearing four members of Maceo and Co., the Galveston gambling group, at a hearing in Austin on Monday.

District Judge Jack Roberts of Galveston granted Daniel's request for a temporary injunction against Maceo and Company, Western Bell Company and Western Associated Telephone Company. The temporary injunction took the place of the restraining order the court already slapped on the three companies.

Meanwhile, the multi-million Maceo gambling empire is down operations in other Galveston horse race betting parlors as a result of the house crime committee hearings and the law.

Attorney General Daniel sharply published rumors that public opinion is somewhat divided over this issue, we, as representatives of a large group of the citizenry of Galveston, feel duty bound to make known our positive convictions about this situation.

"We are convinced that gambling in any form, by any person under any auspices, is a flagrant violation of the laws of the State a source of moral evil, and contrary to the fundamental principles of Holy Scripture, and must be condemned," the Galveston Ministerial Association wire said.

Ninety-eight percent of drivers involved in fatal automobile accidents in the U. S. last year had at least one year's driving experience.

man, Monsignor Dan P. O'Connell, was quoted as saying that gamblers and businessmen there believed that Daniel wanted to run for office on a platform as "the man who cleaned up Galveston." Monsignor O'Connell emphasized that: "This is not my opinion. This is simply what I have been told."

Daniel pointed out that he had moved against gambling in seven other Texas cities since 1949, and that he did not intend to make an exception of Galveston.

The attorney general commented that "it is an old trick for those who fell the weight of the law to cry out 'politics' and 'persecution' in an attempt to turn public sentiment against law enforcement officials."

The Galveston Ministerial Association entered the controversy to support the attorney general. They wired Daniel:

"We realize that it is not necessary for us or anyone else to come to your defense regarding the charges currently being made against you in connection with the gambling clean-up in Galveston. At the same time we feel constrained to commend you for the firm stand you have taken in this matter."

"Inasmuch as a local clergyman has indicated that public opinion is somewhat divided over this issue, we, as representatives of a large group of the citizenry of Galveston, feel duty bound to make known our positive convictions about this situation."

"We are convinced that gambling in any form, by any person under any auspices, is a flagrant violation of the laws of the State a source of moral evil, and contrary to the fundamental principles of Holy Scripture, and must be condemned," the Galveston Ministerial Association wire said.

Ninety-eight percent of drivers involved in fatal automobile accidents in the U. S. last year had at least one year's driving experience.

The Galveston mayor told the crime committee that Texas ought to have local option elections to determine whether the citizens wanted open gambling, sale of liquor by the drink and regulated prostitution.

Representative Waggoner Carr of Lubbock, a member of the committee and former county attorney, took sharp issue with the Galveston mayor.

Carr said it appeared that "if you don't agree with a law in Galveston, you don't live by it."

"I think that's true of the boot-licker in Lubbock," retorted Cartwright.

"Yes, but they get caught pretty often," Carr fired back.

Following the hearing, Mayor Cartwright said that "what the people of Galveston want they will have. I stand pat on everything I said in Austin."

The gambling Maceos of Galveston refused to answer any questions except for Sam Serio, who was granted immunity from prosecution. Thirteen partners in the multimillion dollar gambling syndicate refused to answer questions by the committee on the grounds that their answers might tend to incriminate them.

Testimony of Galveston's mayor, sheriff, police chief, police commissioner and county attorney concluded that the people of Galveston got the kind of law enforcement they wanted. This view was disrupted by the Rev. Will R. Johnson of Galveston's First Presbyterian church who said that a vote of the people in Galveston would overwhelmingly demand enforcement of gambling and vice laws.

Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr. of the Department of Public Safety, said he believed there were more good people than bad people in any community and that Galveston has been a "thorn in the side of law enforcement", but that they would have to enforce the law in Galveston as elsewhere.

Meanwhile, Attorney General Price Daniel, whose injunction against phoning horse race betting information has stopped that part of the Galveston law violations, intervened in a suit in Orange against Felix J. DeMary and his Border Cafe, located across the state line in Louisiana. The Maceos received their racing data from DeMary by telephone calls lasting from three to four hours daily.

How many "Independence Days" have we left?

"We hold these truths to be self-evident; that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed..."

Immortal words from the Declaration of Independence, adopted on the first 4th of July, just 175 years ago.

THESE WORDS are the stones upon which man built history's greatest work—the United States of America. Remember them well!

"... all men are created equal..." That means you are as important in the eyes of God as any man ever brought into this world. You are made in His image and likeness. There is no "superior" man anywhere.

"... they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights..." Here is your birthright—the freedom to live, work, worship and vote as you choose. These are rights no government on earth may take from you.

"... That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men..." Here is the reason for and the purpose of government. Government is but a servant—not a master—not a giver of anything.

"... deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed..." In America, the government may assume only the powers you allow it to have. It may assume no others.

From Concord to Korea, your kinsmen have fought and died for the principles of America's Declaration of Independence: belief in God... belief in the God-given rights of man... belief that man is more important than government... belief in the vital need for morality in all man does.

But on this Independence Day, as never before, these beliefs are in deadly peril. There are people in America who would deny your God-given rights, who prefer expediency to morality, and who would make government the master—not the servant—of man. These people are the advocates of an all-powerful, all-providing socialistic government to control your destiny from cradle to grave.

The time has come to answer them with your own "Declaration of Independence"...

- Declare that government is responsible TO you—rather than FOR you.
- Declare that freedom is more important to you than "security" or "survival."
- Declare again that the rights God gave you may not be taken away by any government on any pretext.

Our founding fathers accepted the truths of America's Declaration on faith alone. Today, our nation is proof—absolute and irrevocable—that these truths work. They are the last great hope for the protection of human civilization.

FREEDOM NEEDS YOU

On this 175th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, help give the day the spiritual, religious meaning it had to the founding fathers. Renew your faith and allegiance to the immortal truths stated in the Declaration. Make them an active part of your thinking, your acting, your voting.

Pray for help in maintaining man's closeness to God, in preserving man's God-given rights and responsibilities against those who would make you dependent upon a socialistic, all-powerful government.

"... we need only to recall that the substance of (America's) formula is continuous, strict and closely guarded limitations upon the power of government. Neither the peril of war nor the promise of welfare must ever serve to relax any item of this formula..."

Lightning Kills Prize Herefords

Four registered cows and one registered heifer were killed by lightning on the Tomie Potts Hereford ranch near Hedley during Sunday night's rain and electrical storm.

"Exact value of the animals cannot be stated," Potts said. "But I just wouldn't have sold two of my prize cows that were killed."

Two of the cows had been bred to top registered bulls and were about ready to calve. The other two had calved but their calves were not killed.

"It's one of those things that is hard to understand, but something you just can't help," Potts added.

(Recent News Item) SHIVERS INKS DRIVERS BILL

AUSTIN, June 28 (AP)—Gov. Allan Shivers, signed tonight a giant appropriations bill, a drivers financial responsibility bill, a labor control bill, and rushed to complete action on numerous others before midnight deadline.

While signing of the appropriations bill was vitally important to the state, the governor's endorsement of the driver's financial responsibility bill was apt to make a deeper impression on the average citizen.

The drivers financial responsibility law, effective Jan. 1, 1952, requires owners and drivers of motor vehicles to prove ability to pay up to $15,000 for bodily injury or property damage in case of accident.

Failure to prove financial responsibility will mean loss of drivers license and car registration.
