Izzard Hits Censorship In Speech

"The fight for un-censored news from the federal government is your fight just as much as it is any newspaper's battle," Wes Izzard told members of the Memphis Rotary Club Tuesday at their luncheon meeting.

Izzard, publisher of the Amarillo Globe-News, spoke on government censorship in relation to the order released this week by President Harry Truman which said news releases from government agencies will be classified and released by an appointed censor.

This week is National Newspaper Week and Izzard spoke in behalf of newspapers, warning against the trend to censorship. During the last war, Izzard explained, that by cooperation between the newspaper editors and the department of intelligence, a voluntary censorship was in use all over the country to protect the security of this nation.

If the present law is allowed to remain in force, the American public will know only what government officials want them to know about what is going on in the government, Izzard stated. Scandal instances like the American Lithofold mess in St. Louis, the RFC jackpot and others would never come to light if censorship as advocated by the government order this week is allowed to remain in force, he added.

"This government is yours, and you have a right to know what is going on," Izzard told Rotarians and guests. He suggested that people write their law officials in Washington of their concern over this impending censorship because it is as much their fight as anyone else's fight.

J. A. Anthony was in charge of the program and Izzard was introduced by J. Claude Wells.

SOCIAL SECURITY
According to an announcement received this week, a representative from the Amarillo Social Security office will be in Memphis October 9 at 11:15 a. m. The field man may be contacted in the commissioners court room.

1st Moore County Cotton Ginned Here This Week

The first Moore County bale of cotton produced since 1928 was brought to Memphis to be ginned the first of this week by O. B. Thomas, wheat farmer, cattleman and tourist court and cafe operator of Dumas.

Thomas has several hundred acres in cotton this year, and the first bale's sample was excellent, local cotton buyers stated. On one cotton farm he thinks he will get about one-fourth bale per acre.

O. B., who is a son of E. A. "Tater" Thomas, is a former Memphian. He is also the grandson of the late O. B. Burnett known in Hall County as the initial cotton raiser here, and was called the "Cotton King." After Burnett moved to Moore County in the early 20's, he tried raising cotton there. Since 1928 no one attempted raising cotton there until this year.

While in Memphis Monday with his father, O. B. stated "Moore County is way up north in the land of cotton, and no one knows but that with the changing climate it may become one of our money crops."

CLAUDE'S COMMENTS

Continuing our trip from Yakima, Wash., we went through the Cascade Range of mountains. This was another hair-raising experience, for the winding railroad took us up valleys, on hill-sides and through tunnels, across central and northwestern Washington into Seattle. Four days were spent here sightseeing, mostly by boat. Bremerton, a Navy yard and Navy training station that was more interesting to us because of the fact that Lester Campbell spent most of his time in service there and had told us a lot about the place. Another trip was by boat up Puget Sound, through locks said to be almost as large as the Panama Canal locks. In the locks our boat was raised some 15 feet and then the gate was opened and we went into the fresh water of Union and Washington lakes. The raising of the boat had to be done because the ocean water was low due to the tide having gone out. The tidal range is from one foot to 21 feet and thus the fresh water is reached by either raising or lowering the water to its level by means of the locks. Salmon from the ocean went leaping out of the water all around us on their way into fresh water. Ocean-going warships and liners gather barnacles, and when taken into fresh water, shed the barnacles in a few hours, thus saving going into dry docks and being scraped clean. We traveled being scraped clean. We traveled (Continued on page 12)

Tidelands Win Pushed By Daniel

ATTN. GEN. SAYS TEXAS MUST NOT GIVE UP FIGHT
"If the State of Texas keeps fighting the tidelands battle, I believe we will win," Attorney General Price Daniel told a group of business, professional and farm men in Memphis last Friday evening.

Daniel, in the Panhandle to open the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo last Monday, spent the week speaking to civic groups over the area on the tidelands issue. He explained to Memphis and Hall County men that the tidelands bill has already passed the House of Representatives with a majority of more than 40 votes and is now tied up in committee in the Senate. "Once we get the bill on the floor for a vote, I think it will pass with enough majority to override a presidential veto," Daniel said.

"We must keep up this tidelands fight not only for what it means in itself, but because it is a principle on which the State of Texas cannot compromise," Daniel said. He also pointed out how the tidelands case is very important to the nation as well as states with sea-boarding lands because to stop the tideland steal of the Federal government, "we can turn back the trend toward centralization which our government is now in."

No Evidence
In his talk here Daniel reviewed the case he presented to the United States Supreme Court in which he was not permitted to introduce evidence—one of the first instances in history where a lawyer was not permitted this privilege. He also explained why the Federal government is so intent on keeping the tidelands and traced the cause to selfish interests behind influential government. (Continued on page 12)

IN MEMPHIS—District Attorney Allen Harp, left of Childress and State Representative A. J. Rogers, right, of Childress were here last Friday when Texas' Attorney General Price Daniel, center, spoke before a group of Memphis and Hall County men outlining and explaining the tidelands situation. Daniel ended a Panhandle speaking tour here before returning to Austin.

WELLINGTON AND CLARENDON GET NEW INCREASES

Official action Tuesday night by the Memphis City Council gave final permission to the Southwestern Associated Telephone Company to raise their rates for Memphis phone service.

The Memphis hike was granted simultaneously with increases permitted by Wellington and Clarendon City Councils, Mayor Carl Harrison said.

Mayor Harrison has met with these other councils throughout the past few months seeking a settlement to the telephone rate question. Southwestern Associated first submitted their request for increased rates in Memphis to the City Council May 3. One offer submitted by the Council was refused by the telephone company officials because it would not permit the company a fair return on their capital investment, officials stated.

The hike granted will be $7.75 for an individual business line and $6.25 for a two-party business line. Resident lines will carry charges of $4.50 for individual lines on wall phones, $3.75 for two-party line and $3.00 for four-party line, with no increases on extensions.

Phone rates now in effect are $5.75 for individual business line, $4.50 for two-party business line, $3.25 for individual resident line, $2.75 for two-party and $2.25 for four-party line. Roy L. Brewer, district manager for the Southwestern Associated Telephone Company said that increased rates will go into effect on the next billing, which will mean higher October phone bills for most Memphis phone.

Brewer said the increased rates give the company a 5.10 per cent return on their capital invested here. During 1950 the telephone company made only 1.32 per cent return on the Memphis exchange, officials said. Under Texas laws, companies are permitted as much as an 8 per cent return on investments, city officials pointed out. Memphis phone rates were last raised in 1948. Voting was unanimous among City Council members to approve the increase.

Auto Crash Victim Dies, 4 Others Hurt

The body of Mrs. Mildred Louise Finley, 56, has been sent to Whittier, Cal., by Murphy-Spicer Funeral Home. Mrs. Finley died Monday at a local hospital of injuries suffered in a traffic accident last Thursday night near Clarendon. The Finley home is on Baldwin Park, Cal.

Her husband, John E. Finley, is still in serious condition in Odom Hospital and in the same hospital is Mrs. Mary B. Walker, 38, of Fort Smith, Ark., a passenger in the Finley car. Both were in serious condition but hospital authorities report condition of both patients improved.

Also in serious condition in Goodall Hospital is W. S. Malone of Memphis, driver of the other car involved in the accident. He has shown slight improvement and his wife is reported in good condition. The Malones were returning to Memphis from Amarillo where they had attended the Tri-State Fair when their car was in a collision with the Finley car. The crash occurred at the crest of a hill where Highway Patrol officers said Malone was attempting to pass a truck.

Mrs. Finley is survived by her husband, two sons, H. A. Roberts, Norman, Okla., and Arthur M. Roberts, Baldwin Park, Cal., two daughters, Mrs. Raymond Schwacfer, Long Beach and Mrs. H. F. Burkhead, West Memphis, Ark.

Labor Department Rules On Child Work in Harvest

Information was received recently by County Judge M. O. Goodpasture that under no condition are children to be permitted to work under the age of 16 while school is in progress. According to officials of the Department of Labor there are no exceptions to this rule. Several persons have reported here that the County Judge can excuse persons from school and permit them to work during harvest season or that persons from another area, excused from school, can work in this harvest.

But according to Department of Labor rulings, no children under 16 can be employed during school hours.

NEW FHA LAW TO HELP FARMERS

Farmers who borrow from the Farmers Home Administration will be better able to make adjustments in farming operations, increase production and work out balanced farm and home management plans under the newly enacted Public Law 123, Earl W. Wilson, county supervisor of the FHA announced today.

The law, amending the FHA Act of 1946, enables the agency to make loans for farm operating expenses up to $7,000 for an initial loan and places a ceiling of $10,000 on the indebtedness outstanding at any one time. The maximum repayment period is seven years. Previously the initial loan was limited to $3,500, the maximum indebtedness to $5,000 and the maximum repayment period to five years.

"In amending the loan terms, Congress recognized that the costs of farm operating expenses have increased sharply in recent years," L. J. Cappelman, State Director of the FHA explained. "A farmer who required a $3,500 loan in 1946 for annual operating expenses and the purchase of machinery and livestock would have required a loan of $5,900 for the same purpose in 1951. "The main objective of the FHA is to help family farm operators make the most efficient use of their land and family labor supply. "The new loan terms will be of great help in achieving this goal. In the past we have had to turn down many young veterans and other farmers who came to us for assistance simply because we could not provide them with adequate financing under our previous loan limitations to enable them to work out a balanced farming system. "A sound farm and home management plan is drawn up with each family who receives a loan, and no loan is made unless the plan shows that the family will receive enough income to pay operating and living expenses and retire their debts, Cappelman pointed out. Loans are made only to farmers who are unable to obtain necessary financing from other sources. Committees of three local farmers approve each applicant. Veterans receive preference.

Cyclone Nips Tigers 26-0 In First Win

The Cyclones combined a passing and running attack last week to defeat the McLean Tigers 26-0 here for their first victory of the season after three straight defeats.

Max Kennedy threw two touchdown passes to Ronnie Smith before the Cyclones could chalk up a counter that wasn't called back in the second period after both teams fought a scoreless first quarter.

After the TD, Max slipped over for the extra point from a quarterback sneak. Half-time score found the Cyclones only 7 points ahead of their scoreless opponents. But in the third period Memphis racked up seven first downs and Clyde Tamplin pushed over four yards for the TD to put Memphis ahead 13-0.

In the last quarter Harvey Kennedy cut lose for a 56 yard run that pushed the Cyclones ahead 19-0, and minutes later Carl Lee scampered 51 yards behind goal blocking to top the Cyclone score 25-0. Davey Corley ran the extra point over and ended the scoring 26-0.

Memphis made 19 first downs to McLean's three. The Cyclone passed nine times for 19 yards six were incomplete and Julius Stevens intercepted two Tiger passes and Charles Messer one.

McLean passed 10 times for 40 yards.

The Cyclones only punted once for 31 yards and the Tigers kicked three times for an average of 33 yard. Memphis was penalized six times for a loss of 30 yards and McLean twice for a loss of 10 yards.

Memphis also had a touchdown run across by Carl Lee, nullified by an offside penalty in the last quarter.

The Tiger-Cyclone clash was the last home game for Memphis until they meet the Canyon Eagle here October 19. This promise to be a thriller as Dumas defeat Canyon 13 to 7 and also clipped Memphis 30 to 0.

So far this season the Cyclone have had 88 points scored against them and have pushed across 45 points. They face three more evils before they enter District competition November 2 against Wellington at home.

This past week Wellington and Shamrock fought to a 19-19 tie.

MHS Band Crowns Sweetheart At Game Half-Time

The MHS band presented a prelude to the coronation of their band sweetheart, Marilea Pruitt at the half time ceremonies Friday night in Cyclone Stadium.

The band marched onto the field from the south goal playing "College Medley" and paraded to the north goal, countermarched and then halted and saluted the stands.

A heart, with an arrow through it, was formed and "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" was played. Marilea was escorted by Johnnie McDaniel and Anne Shankle, Cyclone Twirlers, to a position where she formed the point of the arrow.

Abbie Louise Massey, Pep Squad Mascot, walked onto the field carrying a corsage which she handed to Jacky Gilbert, Cyclone Drum Major, who presented the corsage to Marilea. This concluded the prelude to the coronation that will be held at the Annual Sweetheart Concert.

The band then formed and marched off the field playing "Salutation."

B. F. Goodrich Tubeless Tires Protect Against Blowouts ... Seal Punctures Too!

Give you protection you can't get with any other tire — or tire-and-safety-tube combination

HERE'S HOW — Inner tube in regular tire is pinched, stretched or chafed through when break in sidewall is caused by sharp blow — resulting in hazardous blow-out. You get the instant collapse of a hazardous blowout.

BFG TUBELESS TIRE has an air-retaining inner lining that's part of the tire itself. If a bruise occurs, air escapes gradually — giving you miles of safe stopping distance. Special compound under the tread seals punctures as you drive.

... yet costs less than regular tire and safety tube

Hill-Hedrick Nuptials Are Performed In Clovis, N. M. Rites September 25

Miss Rita Jean Hill of Parnell and Frank Hedrick of Turkey were united in marriage Tuesday Sept. 25, in the First Baptist church in Clovis, N. M., with Dr. B. P. Maddox, pastor, officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The couples only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Logan and Mr. Logan as best man, and Mrs. Logan as matron of honor and Mr. Logan as best man. Also attending were Mrs. Carl Hill mother of the bride, and Mrs. Elbert Hedrick, the groom's mother.

For her wedding the bride chose a brown silk faille frock accented with brown accessories and a gold gladioli corsage. For something old, she wore a lavallier belonging to her mother; something blue and something borrowed was a blue handkerchief loaned by Frances Winn; for good luck, a keepsake penny from her father.

The matron of honor wore a suit of navy with white and navy accessories, with a corsage of pink gladioli. The groom and best man wore boutonnieres of white carnations.

For her daughters wedding, Mrs. Hill wore a navy dress with navy accessories and a corsage of erise gladioli. Mrs. Hedrick wore a green suit with brown accessories and a corsage of cream gladioli.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hill of Parnell, is a member of the junior class of Turkey high school.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Hedrick of Turkey and was reared in Turkey. He graduated from Turkey high school in 1950 and attended Texas Tech college for one semester.

After the ceremony, the couple left for a honeymoon at Ruidoso and other points of New Mexico. Upon their return they will make their home in Turkey where Mr. Hedrick is associated with his father in the contracting business.

260 Guests Attend 1913 Study Club Initial Meet to Hear Mrs. H. Emery

Approximately 260 guests assembled at the American Legion Hall Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock to hear Mrs. Herbert Emery of Dallas, eminent literary reviewer.

Invited to Memphis by the 1913 Study Club, Mrs. Emery is actually "an ambassador of good will" from Sanger Brothers Store of Dallas. As their initial gathering of the club year, the members of the 1913 Club chose to share with their friends the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Emery.

Mrs. Emery said that in her opinion "The Caine Mutiny" is one of the best novels of the year and to really appreciate this great work a person has to read it. I certainly recommend that every person who has been in the Navy plans to enter the Navy, or has a loved one in the Navy read this book, Mrs. Emery suggested.

"The Caine Mutiny" is the story of a young, wealthy Princeton graduate who enters the Navy and is sent abroad the mine sweeper, the U. S. Caine, during world War II.

1st little moron: Can you stand on your head?
 2nd same: Of course not. It's too high.

From talk around town, most people believe the high school team is beginning to take shape and really look like a team.

The victory over McLean did a lot of good, both for the fans and the boys. No one likes to watch a losing team all season and no one likes to play on a losing team all the time.

But since the boys found out they can win, we believe they may make it a little rougher on some of these other teams they are scheduled to face.

Tomorrow night they ought to have a real battle on their hands.

How does it feel to drive a Buick?

If you think perhaps we're hinting that it would be a good idea for you to try out a Buick—mister, you've never been so right.

It does a lot of things for you and to you that will be something new in your driving experience.

Take the way it feels beneath your hands on the wheel—eager and willing and anxious to please.

It spurts when you want to spurt—rolls with effortless momentum when you want to cruise.

When you take a curve, it snugs down to the road with sure-footed confidence.

After you make a turn, the front wheels instinctively seek a straight course. This car seems to guide itself.

When you come to a bumpy stretch, each separate wheel on its own coil spring steps you smoothly along on a level keel.

Then there's power that surges into action at a nudge of your toe—sends your speedometer needle soaring up to any speed the law allows, in a matter of seconds.

And there is also thrift—the gas-saving thrift that comes from a high-compression valve-in-head Fireball Engine found in no other car.

To top all this, there is Dynaflo Drive*—that feeds power in a steady, falterless flow—lets you ride relaxed in busy traffic or on a day-long cross-country drive.

We're willing to stand on the statement that no other car rides, performs or drives like a Buick.

But why take our word for it? Come in—take over one of these lively lovelies—and see for yourself.

NO OTHER CAR PROVIDES ALL THIS:

- 4-WHEEL COIL SPRINGING • DUAL VENTILATION

RALLY DAY VICTORY AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH
For the first time in more than a decade or two, the Bible School of the First Christian Church in Memphis had more than 100 present last Sunday. It was Rally Day and Promotion Sunday. The membership of the church is but a little over 140, so that the victory was great. But since a large number of church members and some regular Bible School members missed the occasion, efforts are being made this week to excel the new high records, and give all the thrill of a new victory. New students are always welcome, according to Minister Bedford W. Smith, and there are classes for all ages he said. The meeting time is 9:45 o'clock on Sunday mornings.

Church attendance has been high most all summer in the Sunday morning services meeting at 10:50. Last Sunday was no exception. Next Sunday has been designated as the annual Roll Call Sunday for the church membership. Min. Smith will preach on "Building Up the Body for Christ." Special music will be furnished by the Young People. This Sunday will mark the close of the minister's third year here, and Sunday, Oct. 14th the beginning of his fourth year. He will preach again Sunday evening on "The Sweetest and Bitterest Word."

Our Peculiar Responsibility

Recognizing that a pharmacy has certain responsibilities to the community in which it operates, we believe that our profession needs to review its functions from time to time. Upon analysis, we hold that the following is worthy of recognition:

Give the sick the best possible chance to recover. This obviously excludes any consideration of price. In our advertising to the public, we try to serve the public interest. We do not encourage self-medication, or exploit merchandise and methods which, in most instances will further this dangerous evil. Instead, we emphasize the importance of having health matters handled by the ONLY PERSON qualified for the vital service, the reputable licensed physician.

We strive to let the public know, through our advertising, that our prescription service is worthy of the same confidence that you repose in your physician. We conform to his standards and follow his instructions to the letter.

We are proud of our profession, and will continue to keep abreast of its progress. We keep a reference file of material which will aid us in our work. All in all, we recognize that the public deserves a truly modern, up-to-date pharmacy.

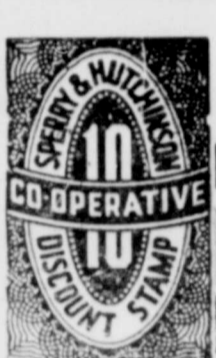

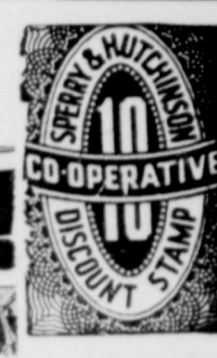

We hold the above to be important as far as our profession is concerned, and pledge ourselves to recognize at all times our peculiar responsibility to this community.

The Fight For Right Goes On

America, and Texas especially, has always admired a fighter. Throughout the pages of history, in books now dim with age, the deeds of men who were fighters for rights and ideals in this country are recorded.

Here in Memphis, a few of us got a glimpse of another Texan last week who is a fighter for ideals and rights of other Texans.

He was Price Daniel, attorney general of this state, and the man who has carried a large share of the fight of Texas against the Federal government to regain control of our valuable tidelands in the Gulf of Mexico.

The American public reacts strangely sometimes. We let certain governmental people get away with mal-function and mis-government just so long, then up from the common mass rise leaders and men who lead the public to stamp out such vermin.

Price Daniel is now helping to lead and carry the fight for the ordinary people of this country, the state of Texas and Hall County.

He is not alone by any means. There are many men today who are fighting just as hard and just as diligently for the ideals and rights that Price Daniel backs. It is these men who will help save the American public from the degrading aspects of the RFC mess, bribery of government officials, the Harry Vaughns, the mink coats and the domination of crime over city and local government.

We agree with these men and Price Daniel that the threat to liberty and to the rights of property is serious and that we,
the American people, have remained dormant long enough.

We thank God there are men such as Daniel, Lindon Johnson, J. William Fullbright, Estes Kefauver, Paul Douglas and others to lead us in this fight for moral rights.

The tidelands of Texas is an issue involving a principle which the people of Texas cannot let the Federal Government get away with as legal. The boundaries of Texas were made over 100 years ago by Sam Houston and others of our forefathers who fought and gave their life blood to wrest this land from Mexico. The United States helped not one bit.

When Texas joined the Union in 1846, she assumed all of her own $10 million debts and kept her boundaries. These boundaries were later changed on the North, by agreement, but they were never changed from the 10 miles beyond the coast line in the Gulf of Mexico.

Yet, with the Supreme Court ruling, the Federal government now claims control of these submerged lands. Why? Because selfish interests and government officials know the value of the oil lying underneath these marginal waters.

If the Federal Government owns these lands, they can be leased for as little as 50c an acre. The state of Texas charges an average of $20 an acre for such leases.

Government officials have tried to disguise the fight by saying the lease money will be put into a public school fund.
But why should the state of Texas support a school fund for the other 47 states?

Most of the other states are on the side of Texas in this battle, for they realize if the Federal Government gets away with the tidelands grab they can also grab mineral and other rights of inland states.

Centralization of Federal government has gone far enough.
The signers of the Declaration of Independence devised and designed that the Federal government would not have too much power. This type of government has been successful for more than 175 years, why should we let centralization take over now?

Texas and Texan can win the tidelands battle if we keep fighting. It is a principle for which we cannot compromise, but one which we must win, completely!

SELLING CANYON TO CANYON
PEOPLE IS THE PROBLEM

The Newsman sat in on a Chamber of Commerce conference the other day to hear various suggestions as to what would do the most good for the development of Canyon. One of the most impressive suggestions came from Dr. J. A.
Hill. He said that after 41 years residence in Canyon the greatest need was to sell Canyon to the people of Canyon.

That may sound like an alarming statement, but it is nevertheless true.

There are too many Canyon folks who do not realize the importance of the development of Canyon.

The Canyon News started an argument with several Canyon folks recently when we carried articles opposing to the development of Canyon. Several Canyon people expressed the opinion that they should trade away from home regardless of the effect that dollars spent away from Canyon only helped to build business in these other towns at the expense of Canyon business institutions.
Some Canyon folks frankly stated that it was their business to trade where they thought they were saving the most money, regardless of their seeming disloyalty to Canyon business firms.

Spending money in Canyon business houses is the only way thereby Canyon as a whole may be built.

Let's trade at home in the future, and not be lured away from ... Labor Days in the future promise to be as prosperous as the Labor Day of today. Business predicts an even greater boom is in store for the country. Therefore, labor will have its opportunities to share in a bigger and better nation.

There should be some caution observed, however, Labor unions should make their demands within reason. Labor and capital can work successfully hand in hand as they have done before. Strikes benefit no one and arbitration is the only reasonable solution to labor difficulties. Payless days are mighty costly to workers and when a strike is eventually settled and work is once again resumed, it sometimes takes the worker several years to regain what he has lost in the way of wages.

News dispatches from Washington report that President Truman has just VETOED two measures which would have added a mile to veterans, and or their widows, stating that it would cost too much money. And yet in the "same breath" he asked for an additional several BILLIONS for more Foreign Aid! It seems that any yellow belly across the pond means more to him than does American citizens—especially if the former has kindred in this country who can vote. Mr. Truman is too ready with his veto power, just as he was in vetoing the tidelands bill, thus robbing the school children of Texas of their just and legal rights.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Edens Observe Golden Wedding Anniversary Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Edens, who made their home in the Brice community nearly 20 years prior to retiring from farming in 1943, celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary at their home in Clarendon Sunday.

A retired farmer, Henry Edens was born in Tennessee on May 28, 1879. At the age of three months, he moved with his family by covered wagon to Hood County, Texas. The trip took three months.

Mrs. Edens, the former Lela Vasti Umphress, is a native Texan. She was born November 29, 1873, in Hood County and it was there that she met and married Mr. Edens on September 29, 1901.

After the wedding trip, the young couple moved to a farm near Granbury, in Hood County where they lived until 1925. While living in Hood County 12 children, 6 boys and 6 girls, were born to this union.

In 1925, Mr. and Mrs. Edens and their family, which now included three married children and families, decided to move to West Texas. After three days and nights of traveling in a Model T truck, the Edens arrived at their new farm home near Brice, in Briscoe County. They had sent their household goods, farm tools and mules and cattle by freight.

In 1943, Mr. Edens retired and he and his wife moved to Clarendon.

They have 27 grandchildren and 8 great grandchildren.

Children present at Sunday's celebration included Mr. and Mrs. Roland Salmon and four children, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Edens and son of Brice, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Edens Jr., of Clarendon, Mr. and Mrs. Seth Edens of Clarendon, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Edens and daughter of Hedley.

Children who were unable to be present were Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Barton of Galveston, Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Edens of San Angelo, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Edens of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Baker of Portales, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bullock of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. Hobb Conn of Abernathy.

REPORT FROM WASHINGTON

By Walter Rogers
Congressman, 18th District

EXEMPT EXPENSE ACCOUNTS: The Senate on September 27, by 77 yeas to 11 nays, passed an amendment to the Tax Reform Act of 1951, which would exempt from the tax on gifts and estates the value of the exempt expense accounts of members of Congress in so far as the exempt expense accounts of officials are concerned: The amendment is effective as of January 1, 1953.

I will remember that I introduced this piece of legislation after I was sworn in. The amendment and the bill that I introduced is that the effective date of the bill would be much earlier than the Constitution it would be possible to make any change in the exempt expense account of the House of Representatives.

The case grew out of an altercation at the swank Sulgrave Club here in Washington. Whether or not the Sulgrave Club is swank is heresy with me, as I have never had the occasion to visit it, but I have talked to several of those who were present at the dinner the evening of the difficulty between Drew Pearson and Senator McCarthy and I have heard several stories, all just about alike except a little difference in detail.

The case is now in the pre-trial stage, that is the testimony of the interested parties is being taken.

A move was made by the defendants to prevent the proceedings or the testimony so taken to be published. I was rather surprised at this move on the part of Senator McCarthy and the Times-Herald as it certainly would have been at least a limited infringement upon the freedom of the press. The Judge, however, refused to allow the proceedings to be secret.

The testimony growing out of this proceeding is affording the residents of this section of the country some juicy reading material. From the local newspaper accounts it would seem that the entire proceeding is going along on the theory of "everytime you call me a bad name, I'll call you a worse one."

It seems that name calling and accusation throwing are becoming fine arts. This would probably develop into a new field for public relations firms. One bit of testimony that caused some furor in the Pearson vs. McCarthy case was that brought out by Pearson's attorney Roberts to the effect that Senator McCarthy's income tax returns over the period of several years prior to his appointment to the circuit court bench showed annual losses in stock market operations that exceeded the Senator's income.

However, the attorney for Pearson indicated by his questioning—and referred to an income tax return that there was an increase in the income of the Senator to $36,000.

According to the local papers Senator McCarthy refused to divulge where the $36,000 came from. This type of testimony is merely a forerunner of what can be expected during the actual trial of the case.

PUBLICATION OF INCOMES OF OFFICIALS: Talking about incomes, the President's message to the Senate and House of Representatives advocating an annual publication of the incomes of elected and appointed public officials certainly caused some re-

Methodist Home Children in Sunday Radio Series

The Methodist Home Choir of Waco, Texas, will be a feature of the radio series, "These Are Your Children" heard each Sunday morning at 8:15. The programs will continue through December 16, over 15 radio stations in Texas and New Mexico, featuring stories of life at the Methodist Home for Children, according to Hubert Johnson, Superintendent of the Home.

Mr. Johnson said that a few of the many interesting and inspiring subjects to be brought into the home via radio on Sunday mornings will include religious training and counsel a child receives; how he is taught to work and to assume responsibility; his general education and study helps; vocational training plan and how he is sheltered, clothed and fed.

The Methodist Home is owned by Methodist Churches in Texas and New Mexico and houses more than 400 children. The Home is non-sectarian.

Stations which will carry the programs include: WFAA, Dallas; WOAI, San Antonio; KPRC, Houston; KRIS, Corpus Christi; KRGV, Weslaco; KGNC, Amarillo; KRDD, El Paso; KGGM, Albuquerque; KFYO, Lubbock; KFDL, Beaumont; KFRD, Longview; KVAL, Brownsville; KERB, Kermit; KTVG, Austin; KBST, Big Spring.

precussions on the Hill. It was interesting to note that some of the Senators who have been crusading for every type of investigation apparently do not want to make known their own personal business.

Frankly, I can think of no honest reason why any public official would want to hide his income or the source of his income. Certainly senators and congressmen should be exempt from the searching light of truth any more than they should have tax exemptions.

It is a well known fact that some of the elected public officials in the Congress have a pretty sizable income from lectures, speeches, and appearances, and of course there has always been a great deal of rumor about the income of elected officials from outside sources.

If the elected officials are required to publish an annual statement as to their incomes, there would need to be no further guess work or rumors about the matter, and the people could have the exact truth, unvarnished, to which they are entitled.

Capitalists at play!

- - the American Way!

Capitalists?

Why, yes. Fishermen and fiddlers, bridge players and ball players... all kinds of Americans, in fact, are Capitalists... because most Americans are owners of the electric light and power companies!

It's like this: several million people— from every walk of life—are direct owners of these companies' securities. And some 75,000,000 are indirect owners—through their life insurance and savings bank accounts! You see, when banks and insurance companies accept your money, they must invest it wisely. That's why so much of it goes into business-managed electric companies like the West Texas Utilities Company.

It's fair and fitting, isn't it, that the companies that serve nearly everybody are owned by nearly everybody?

In the last quarter, Jenkins added the last two touchdowns to raise the Whirlwinds score 40-0. Two touchdowns, by Jackie Justice and Sustain were nullified by penalties.

Tonight the Whirlwinds will tangle with the Childress Junior High school team in Childress for their third game of the season.

he kind of homes he craves at all times in Memphis, but due to dry weather, lack of water attention, never realize air castle ambitions. Carpets of green grass beds of flowers, and all surroundings are enticing and one wonders about and admires such beauty. Clean streets, nice shiny houses and clean and shining sidewalks all combine to make the place seem unreal. Flowers even grow in baskets hanging from street light posts all over town. Ivy and various vines, some in autumn colors, cover the walls of many of the business and civic buildings. One place we visited and from the top of the building we viewed the whole city, was the Hudson Bay Co. store. This company is said to be the oldest and largest in all of America. It started business in the northwest when it was a wilderness. Traded goods to Indians and trappers for furs and pelts, and, probably the customers in such trades got the small end of the deal.

Victoria is a strictly English city. Its citizens practically all have English customs and peculiar ways of doing things. The House of Parliament of the state of British Columbia is a large and imposing edifice, equal to our national capitol except in height. The Empress Hotel is also an imposing and interesting structure. Here visiting royalty and people from all over the world sample the hotel's accommodations. The walls are covered with ivy, the spacious grounds are well kept, and sports the most beautiful flowers one can imagine. Lunch at this place was most interesting. The waiters are trained to certain formalities and it takes a long time to dine. Speaking of English customs, it seems the whole citizenship of the place gather at the Empress at exactly four o'clock for tea. The large dining room, lobby, rose gardens and even the lawns were filled with people sipping hot tea. I am not sure, but I'd say the merchants take time off at four o'clock to sip their tea like a lot of Memphians do about coffee time.

It is nice to visit another country, but we couldn't help but feel more at home after crossing the Puget Sound back to Seattle.

United has offered the employees positions in other United Gas cities if they wish to remain with the company.

Purchasers of the properties are Martin Wunderlich of Omaha and Lee Akin of Corpus Christi, but acquisition of the pipeline is subject to approval of the Federal Power Commission.

The proposed sale covers United Gas Corporation's natural gas distribution system in 17 North Texas towns, United Gas Pipeline Company's gathering and transmission lines in 15 counties in Texas and Oklahoma and Union Producing Corporation's wells, lands and leases in Wheeler and Young counties.

Application filed with SEC states that United Gas wished to sell the properties because they are not connected with the main pipe line system operated by United Gas in southwest and are not capable of economic inter-connection because of their geographical location.

Local officials stated that further announcements concerning local personnel will be made.

Tidelands--

Federal oil leases in these marginal waters are sold by the government for as little as 50 cents an acre while the State of Texas charges an average of $20 per acre for the same leases.

Therefore, persons who desire these leases much rather pay the Federal government to lease them than the individual states, the attorney general pointed out.

Stalemate
"Texas must continue to fight for control of our tidelands, not only for the financial benefits but because it has been proven that state and local government does more to get better development of natural resources than Federal control," Daniel added.

He told local people that the tidelands issue at present is a stalemate and the selfish interests of the Federal government cannot exploit their ill-gotten gains until Congress rules on the situation.

"That is why we, the people of Texas, must continue to fight and in the end, right will triumph," Daniel declared.

Daniel was introduced by Ace Gailey. J. Claude Wells, county executive committee chairman for the Democratic party, was master of ceremonies. Other guests at
