Tom Collins Lands 6-Pound Bass Near Here

Tom Collins landed what he believes is the biggest bass ever caught at Brookhollow Country Club Lake on Sunday night, April 6 while fishing at the lake with his wife and children, Rose Marie, 13, and Darrell, 7.

The bass weighed six pounds, and it took Collins about 10 or 15 minutes to bring it into the boat. He was fishing with a rod and reel and using minnows for bait. Collins said he and his family had been fishing about six hours before the big one took the bait and had caught only a few small ones.

Collins, who is a farmer living about three and a half miles south of Memphis, said this was the first year he had fished much.

The six-pound bass represents the biggest fish Collins has ever caught, and he admits the catch has made a confirmed fisherman out of him.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

To The Automobile Insuring Public

Effective May 1, 1952, the Texas Board of Insurance Commissioners has announced NEW PRIVATE PASSENGER AUTOMOBILE insurance rates under a new system of rating based on the intended use of the vehicle, and the ages of the operator.

The new classifications for rating are:

Class 1—Non-Business Use - No Operator Under Age 25. This group includes individuals who DO NOT use their automobile in connection with their business, profession, or occupation (other than going to and from work), and whose family includes NO OPERATOR UNDER AGE 25.

Class 2—Business and Non-Business Use—Operator Under Age 25. This group includes individuals WHOSE FAMILY INCLUDES AN OPERATOR UNDER 25 YEARS OF AGE, regardless of whether or not the automobile is used for business or pleasure.

Class 3—(a) Business and Non-Business Use—Individually Owned—No Operator Under Age 25. This group includes individuals who use their automobile for BOTH BUSINESS AND PLEASURE, AND WHOSE FAMILY DOES NOT INCLUDE AN OPERATOR UNDER AGE 25.

(b) Business and Non-Business Use—No Age Qualifications. This group is composed of automobiles owned by corporations, co-partnerships, or unincorporated associations.

NOTE: Farmers and ministers are exempted from the business classification, but not from the age classification.

The insuring public rightfully expects losses to be paid promptly and satisfactorily. To accomplish this, it will be absolutely necessary for your automobile to be rated under the proper classification.

Cooperation in seeing that your car is properly rated will be greatly appreciated. See your insurance agent in advance of expiration of any existing policies.

Ex-Students Banquet Called Huge Success

The Ex-Student Association's banquet Saturday night was a huge success with the full 200 places occupied, according to Supt. W. C. Davis.

Davis invited the ex-students to the Homecoming festivities Nov. 7. At that time the association will elect new officers and plan for the year's activities. The second annual banquet will be held here again sometime next Spring, Davis said.

Two from 1898 Class
At Saturday night's dinner in the high school cafeteria the ex-students ranged all the way from 1898 graduates to the class of 1951 exes. There were two from the class of 1898 present, one from the class of 1900, and three representing the class of 1903.
Supt. Davis called the fellowship displayed at the get-together "inspirational." The main address of the banquet was delivered by Jack Hightower of Vernon. His topic was "The People's Attitude Toward the World's Enlightenment."

Alvin Massey Toastmaster
Alvin Massey was toastmaster, and Mary Foreman led the exes in group singing with Mrs. John Bass as accompanist. Mrs. Charles Lacy sang "Perfect Day." Mrs. Bass played a piano solo, "Sunrise."
Mr. and Mrs. Royce Harwell came the farthest—all the way from Rockdale in Central Texas—to attend the banquet. He graduated in 1934 while she received her MHS diploma in 1941.

Letter to Editor

Dear Sir, Upon request of the Ministerial Alliance of Memphis, I am writing this letter to express the gratitude and appreciation of that body of your paper for the splendid cooperation you have shown in publishing the City-Wide revivals.

We would like to say also, that we deeply appreciate the effort of so many firms in closing their stores, offices, and shops, for the morning services. It is a splendid gesture on their part, and shows support to the churches from the business firms.

We also appreciate the fine display of the full-page ad in last week's Democrat, and all the merchants' names listed there. If any were overlooked, it was accidental, and we apologize for the oversight.

Also, to all the Clubs of the City, who cancelled, or postponed all meetings for the week of revivals.

MRS. DWIGHT L. KINARD

Kinard-Graham Wedding Is Read at First Baptist Church

Views were solemnized in the Post First Baptist Church for Mary Margaret Graham of Post, and Dwight L. Kinard, son of Mr. D. L. C. Kinard of Memphis.

Rev. L. D. Dutton, pastor, read the wedding service. Arrangements were made by Mrs. D. L. C. Kinard and chrysantheum of the altar, which was decorated with pink and white flowers.

Following the ceremony, the party was feted at a reception in the church parlor. Centering the serving table was an arrangement of pastel flowers and foliage. The tiered wedding cake and punch bowl completed the appointments.

For a wedding trip to New Orleans, the bride wore a mauve wool suit with pink and grey accessories and an orchid corsage.

Both the bride and the bridegroom are members of pioneer families of West Texas. Mrs. Kinard graduated from Post High school and attended Texas Technological College in Lubbock. Prior to her marriage she was employed with L. C. Smith Motor in Amarillo.

Mr. Kinard was graduated from Memphis High school and Baylor University, Waco. He served in the Navy immediately following World War II and is a Naval reserve officer. He is associated with the Kinard-Galley Agency. Mr. and Mrs. Kinard will make their home in Memphis.

The bridal party and immediate families of the couple were honored with a rehearsal dinner Friday in the D. C. Williams home in Post. Hostesses were Mrs. D. C. Williams, Mrs. Walter Boren and Mrs. Warren H. Yancey.

HISTORY AND TRUMAN

Someone has said that Truman's only approach to greatness has been in his decision not to run for political office again. A great many Americans will agree that his stepping down has been the wisest thing he has ever done.

Some of the historians of our day are even bolder. These men say that Truman will go down in history as far from the worst chief executive the country ever had.

They say that history will tend to forget such things as corruption in his administration, wasteful spending of taxpayers' money, association with a corrupt political machine, stubbornness in defending incompetent cronies, and that humanly trait of putting one's foot in one's mouth.

These historians predict that Truman will be remembered as an ordinary man who rose to greatness in stopping the Reds in Greece and in other European countries with the Truman Doctrine, the Marshall Plan, for his efforts in organizing NATO, his backing of the UN, his positive action to stop Communist aggression by military opposition in Korea, and for the humanitarian ideals that sought to relieve suffering and want through the Point Four program.

It can be argued that the decision to go into Korea has backfired; that we have needlessly sacrificed our men there; that we cannot win anything by continuing the fighting. It can be argued that various aid programs to Europe have only made beggars of the people there; that this country cannot afford to feed every hungry person in the world simply because he may turn Communist if we don't; that we are being sapped of our strength when we give our wealth away.

All these things may be used to prove what an utter failure Truman has been.

But on the other hand, it is a fact that the Communist menace has all but disappeared from Greece; that Italy, once on the brink of turning Communist, has become a staunch friend of the West; that the whole of Europe is now, because of our economic and military aid, strong enough to resist a Red revolution from within and deter aggression from without.

No one knows if the decision to move against Red aggression in Korea was wise or not. It is a fact that since then the Reds have not tried that same sort of aggression elsewhere.

What seems to make Truman so unpopular with the American people is his humility, or to put it more plainly, his being just an ordinary, everyday American. He has said several times that there must be a million men in this country more capable of running the government than he.

Truman has been doing the same things that Roosevelt would have done on a grander scale had the latter lived to fulfill his fourth term. Yet the same people who condemn Truman for his civil rights, his wasteful "socialistic" spending, his expensive international intervention, would have followed Roosevelt with blind admiration.

It remains to be seen whether or not the Muse of History will touch Harry S. Truman with the wand of greatness. Right now he is just an ordinary man to most of his fellow Americans. If nothing else, his reign of power will be remembered as a time when the President of the United States was looked down upon by more ordinary people than any other chief executive before him.

Press Paragraphs—
QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

Hereford Bull
—By Jimmie Gilentine
Everyone around The Brand is feeling pretty good these days in view of honors accorded the paper. The prizes, of course, don't mean too much, but it just naturally makes folks feel better when they get an occasional pat on the back. After all, the real test depends upon what the subscribers and the advertisers and other folks around home think. Many, many people have been nice in mentioning the awards and extending congratulations, and this really means more to us than the actual trophies. Anyway we have the plaque in the window and want anyone who is interested to see it.

Urlin Streu, our "good" neighbor to the south he never noticed any outstanding qualities as regards to the Bull Column—and we would certainly hate to have to read some of the ones which didn't win anything. J. L. McDonald, head of the Journalism Department at T. S.

C. W., Denton, and former newspaper man for 20 years, conducted a clinic on several newspapers and, while he criticized several points on typography and make-up he emphasized "Good Local News, Strong Editorials, Readability, Good Printing" in The Brand. Some of his non-technical remarks follow: "A nice, well-printed paper we like the large body type because it is readable... An excellent editorial page... Excellent classified page... Some striking ads... Very good Society page."

In fact The Brand should be "must" reading for all editors who are searching for ways to improve their publications."

Guess that should hold even Streu for awhile. I left out the bad things, mainly on his account. The Panhandle boasts some of the best small-town papers in the country, however, and placing in these selections is really an honor. —Hereford Brand

"Spanish Jail" Swindle

Postoffice inspectors remind the public that swindlers are again using the "Spanish Jail" bait to attract the gullible but, due to inflation, have raised the "buried treasure" from $100,000 to $500,000.

Many of our readers are familiar with the swindle. A letter is written to a prospect, telling him that if he will put up money to help the writer escape from a Spanish jail, so he can dig up a buried treasure, the sum recovered will be shared. Sometimes, a "beautiful daughter" is involved, with a hint that she might go with the booty.

We trust that our readers have too much good sense to be taken in by such flimsy fraud. Nevertheless, the scheme has worked to mulct innocent and gullible people before and unless the swindle is thoroughly understood, it might work again. —Foard County News

U. S. Cotton Supply Threatens To Be Lowest in 20 Years

The U. S. cotton supply threatens to be the smallest in 20 years by August, a University of Texas cotton marketing expert warned.

Dr. A. B. Cox reports that in only two years (1946-48) out of the past 15 have supplies been lower than they are now. Yet consumption and exports so far this year are about 600,000 bales more than they were in the corresponding period. Present lower cotton prices are caused by cotton goods manufacturing depression, he said.

Health Important Though Whole Of Living

A Roman medical scholar, Galen, presented a theory of a health Utopia in the second century. He wrote a great length on how to live with a perfect physical constitution. Galen's theories should be raised to main-tenance of health. Galen's theories dominated the medical world until the 16th century. Galen's theories were based upon physical health. Galen's theories were based upon physical health. Galen's theories were based upon physical health.

Healthy Attitude
Preoccupation with health is considered an unhealthy attitude, but Galen was in the field of physiology. Galen's theories were based upon physical health. Galen's theories were based upon physical health. Galen's theories were based upon physical health.

Practice Moderation
The predominant note of Galen's writing that does hold sway in modern medicine is the damage to health which excesses can cause. A perfect physical constitution can be damaged by excessiveness, too much of anything, even good things. Today as in Galen's day the first premise in maintaining a healthy body is the practice of moderation.

The too-muches and the too-littles are the deviations from moderation which can change the most perfect physical specimen into a case history in the doctor's book. An awareness of the needs of the body, which can be gained by a minimum of health education, does not mean abnormal preoccupation with thoughts of health.

You don't need to know everything about chemistry and physics in order to drive an automobile, but you do have to learn to drive it. You have to take time to learn the rudiments of driving, which once learned need little review thereafter. Knowing how to drive the car doesn't make the car run. You have to have a key and you have to be behind the wheel in order to manipulate all the gadgets that keep the car going. You have to know how to stop the car and you have to keep an eye on the traffic in order to avoid mishaps. There are certain safety rules which you not only have to know but you also have to obey. So it is with health. You may not know what the gasoline does to make the car run but you do know that the car needs gasoline, oil and water. It isn't essential that you know what food, air and water do once they get inside you, but it is essential that you get them inside you in the proper amounts. A gas tank will hold only so much gasoline before it spills over; your own "gas tank" spills over in the form of excess weight when you eat too much food. Overweight is just as much an indication of waste as the spilling of gas when the tank overflows.

An automobile that is seldom used requires much less refilling of the gas tank than one that is much in motion. A person who exercises little require less "gas" than the active person.

Simple Toy Compared to Body
Automobiles are wonderful inventions but become a simple mechanical toy when compared with the complexities and wonders of the human body and mind. If you would "make yourself as aware of the needs and uses of your body as you are of those of your automobile, you would have less apprehension and fear when something goes wrong and you have to haul yourself in to the "mechanic." Your doctor is versed in detecting sputters where there should be hums, rattles where there should be silence. But like the automobile mechanic, your doctor often feels that if you haven't just known how to take care of your "car" in the first place, it wouldn't have gotten into such sad shape.

Smith entered Naval service Feb. 5, 1952. This initial training includes instruction in such fields as seamanship, fire-fighting, gunnery, signaling, and other courses designed to make the recruit well-versed in every phase of Navy life.

REPORT FROM WASHINGTON

Congressman, 18th District
By Walter Rogers

CENT VISIT TO THE Panhandle, if only a two-day visit. It is a Washington to the and traveling by the reliable transportation re- sponse from Washing- in order to be for two days. I was the Swisher County Cooperative to address meeting and certain- intend to go back on- I had not contemp- the House would be important appropriat- and had hoped to be in these appropriations it necessary for me to Washington until the and to be back on the morning.

As a member of the unofficial economy bloc, my constant presence on the Floor of the House while it is in session is doubly necessary. This is a minority bloc in the House and unless we put up a solid front, our effectiveness is damaged. I was able to arrange a "pair" on the important votes that came up during my trip to the Panhandle. Otherwise, it would have been impossible for me to make the trip. I am sure that all of you are keeping up with the cuts that are being made and can see the effectiveness of this economy group.

It was certainly a pleasure for me to visit Tulsa and see the many good people there and visit with them. My only regret is that I could not stay longer. During my visit the Panhandle Press Association was holding its annual meeting in Amarillo, and I was afforded the additional pleasure of visiting with a number of the good newspaper people from that section. I had hoped to attend some of their meetings, but had to use all of my time, outside the Tulsa engagement, in discussing and working out problems with individuals—individuals whose sons and daughters are in the Armed Services, many of them in Korea, and others whose businesses and very livelihoods are in jeopardy, all of whom are carrying a tremendous burden. From all reports, the Press Association meeting was a tremendous success, and I regret that I was not able to attend the meetings, but felt that my duty was primarily to those folks mentioned above.

Mrs. Rogers and the children, together with myself, will be able to return to the district during the early part of the summer. They have all looked forward to this trip and can hardly wait for the day.

THE ARMED SERVICES APPROPRIATIONS CUTS: You will recall that the Appropriations Committee cut the request of the Bureau of the Budget by the sum of $4,240,638,500. The bill, when it came to the Floor, called for expenditures of $46,680,384,270 for the fiscal year 1952-53. This amount is $10,000,000.00 less than the amounts provided for the current or present fiscal year. However, the House was not completely satisfied with the cuts and proceeded to swing an additional axe, which resulted in additional cuts of $135,600,000, $130,000,000, $45,000,000 and $140,000,000. There were other amendments designed to result in savings, such as the limitations on transportation and crating and barring the use of funds for other purposes.

Probably the most important amendment was the amendment offered by Congressman Smith of Virginia for limiting expenditures of the military in 1953 to $46,000,000,000. It is difficult at this time to tell whether or not this amendment will result in measurable savings, but its effectiveness lies in the fact that it is definite notice to the military that the Congress does not intend to tolerate loose business practices in military expenditures.

There is much talk on the Floor of the formation of a civilian control council to screen military expenditures after the money is placed in the hands of the military by the Congress. The tremendous size of the military establishment makes it humanly impossible for the few members on an appropriations subcommittee to ferret out all of the transactions that result in waste of taxpayers money. The ultimatum of this Congress to the military is unmistakable and unambiguous. Unless the military takes heed and plugs all of the leak holes, the formation of a civilian council on expenditures is almost a certainty.

I am convinced that the military is trying to do an excellent job in most instances and will certainly cooperate in all respects should it be the sense of the Congress that such a civilian control council should be created. People having knowledge of wasteful practices in any governmental operation should report them immediately to the members of Congress representing their districts. Although some of these may not be as wasteful as they appear on the face, many of them will be well founded and money can be saved. The taxpayers are entitled to value received for every tax dollar spent and it is the duty of all of us to be constantly vigilant.

THE STEEL ISSUE: Watch developments in the steel issue. The next final determination of this issue may well pinpoint the exact issue as to the extent the private ownership and use of property is subject to government regulation and control. Once the basic issue is definitely determined, the groundwork will be laid for solution of the problem that has long preplexed all of us who are fundamental believers in the free enterprise and private ownership of property doctrines.

THE KEYS ARE WAITING! DRIVE OUR SPECIAL "ROCKET" SHOW CAR TODAY!

Not "warmed over" but strictly brand new!

YOU owe it to your pocketbook to drive this Chrysler engine before you buy any fine car today.

It's not a "warmed-over" engine, but a basically brand-new one!

It gives a new kind of performance that means new value for every dollar you pay out for purchase, upkeep, or operation.

It was built brand-new around a hemispherical combustion chamber which makes better use of gasoline, and also permits sounder all-round engine structure, than any American motor car engine has had before.

It delivers 180 horsepower... without requiring you to buy premium gasoline. It runs with less waste, less heat, less friction and less wear than previous designs can equal. Its combustion is so clean, it literally develops almost no carbon deposit at all.

It will last longer than any engine you've ever known. It will cost you less along the way. It will stay "young" in performance thousands of miles past the point where an ordinary engine shows old age.

And on top of all that, it makes driving a lot more pleasure! Its smooth response... its safety-power, in reserve for emergencies... its easy scorn for distance or hills... make you just plain feel good at the wheel as you've never felt before.

For the good of your purse and your pleasure too... we invite you to drive it, soon!

Chides Boot Hill Diggers

Pioneer Recalls Lore Of Old Tascosa Days

J. L. McMurry, who has accumulated a lot of Panhandle lore since he moved to Hall County 47 years ago, says the men who got arrested for digging up the Boot Hill cemetery at Old Tascosa last week could have saved themselves the trouble if they had known a little history of the old wild and woolly west.

Boys Ranch is now located. He was made a Boys Ranch "partner" when he made a contribution to that institution several years ago. Since then, he has received literature from Old Tascosa that tells much of the history and some of the more gory incidents that transpired there when the frontier town was a hangout for characters like Billy the Kid.

SKIMMER . . . Allyn Hazard, Long Beach, Calif., controls boat which skims over water on fins, attached to steel arms. Fins can be controlled like airplane controls.

A roller skate & a visitor—cost $10,000

All accidents are ridiculous. But a ridiculous accident like the above may bring you a $10,000 damage suit. If your dog bites somebody — if your child causes injury to somebody — if you hit a caddy with a golf ball — you may get a big lawsuit that may almost ruin you.

POLITICAL FASHION . . . Mrs. John Davis Lodge wears Eisenhower campaign hat and an Ike button for a monocle.

The boys of Boys Ranch have fenced off a small area that is supposed to include all the graves. McMurry says that the Old Tascosa inhabitants were not very neat and probably buried slow-drawing cowboys all over the knoll.

4 Per Cent Rise In Cash Income For Texas Farmers

AUSTIN, Texas farmers' cash income in January-February was 4 per cent greater than the same period last year, primarily because of increased cotton sales, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reported.

Why the right power is so important to truck buyers

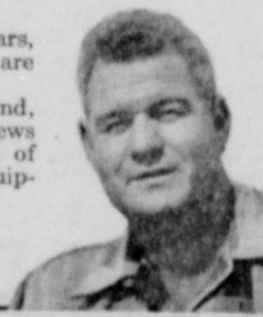

WHEN a truck engine is too small for the job, you'll pay in poor performance and high upkeep. When it's too big, you'll waste money on operating costs. To be sure of the right power for top performance and top economy on every job, Dodge builds eight great truck engines. There's one that's a "Job-Rated" to fit your kind of work.

"When power is needed, Dodge trucks have it!"

says C. R. SHEARMAN, Hood Construction Co., Lynwood, Calif.

"We've been big Dodge users for many years, because our business demands trucks that are dependable, economical and rugged. We do most of our driving over rough ground, a lot of it in the mud. The trucks work with crews who are laying pipe in the field. This kind of hauling calls for plenty of power to carry equipment to the men.

Pearls of Wisdom

Strung by J. H. R.

Spring is Come—Byssche Shelley, famous by a rhyme, is probably for an oft-quoted last including his "Ode To The Wind," this is the verse, the incantation of this er, as from unextinheart and sparks, my words through my lips to unearth met of a prophesy! O winter comes, can Spring behind?

a season of reawakworld around, for man-flora and fauna too!

In London, Kensington Gardens are blossoming with flowers and nurse-maids while Paris boasts springtime the year-around since one of its largest department stores is named "Le Printemps" (springtime.)

Mother nature rolls out her green carpet and scatters flowers everywhere while the birds split their throats with delight as they go about their business of feathering their nests. Snakes shed their winter skins and Mama Bear comes forth from her winter hidding place to go in search of berries.

Even man, strong character that he is, brave in battle and staunch in time of crisis, succumbs to a malady on which sulphur and mollasses have no effect, I refer, of course, to that unpredictable, incurable four-letter complaint called "love." In spite of the fact that man contends that woman is only a "passing fancy" (he's passing and she's fancy,) his resistance reaches its lowest ebb in the springtime. Then anything from a butterfly net to a "come hither" glance from a pair of laughing eyes, like a bolt from the blue, will snare this helpless creature. Such is life in the springtime!

A time of hope and promise, of rebirth and resurrection, of revival and revelation, of raddishes and younk onions, of resolutions by young ladies to get their man! Spring would be such dreary weather if there were nothing else but spring, so goes the roundelay, but since it comes only once a year perhaps we can endure it, even if

The dills are daffy, The squills are blue.

And heart's beat time to "I love you."

A young man's fancy turns somersaults

And old men forget their teeth are false

When spring comes peeping through.

Cupid gets busy with quiver and bow.

Romance whistles soft and low,
Young love beckons and blushes glow.

Why don't you know?
The tempo quickens of pace and pulse.

Things are not the same.
Usual efforts get strange results.
And Spring is come!

"Don't stop too soon, but don't go too far," says John R. Sanderson, manager of the Amarillo Social Security Office.

Sanderson's plea is directed to the bookkeeper who fills out quarterly social security wage reports.
Top amount for one employee in a year used to be $3000. Under the new law, the ceiling is $3,600.

"Some firms still seem to be reporting no more than $3,000 even when the worker is making more than that," says Sanderson.
"That's bad—a correction must be made, or the worker doesn't get full social security wage credit."

"Other firms report more than $3,600 in a year for one employee," states Sanderson. In these cases, as he pointed out, the firm, and perhaps the worker too, have paid more than the required social security tax, but the worker can get old-age and survivors insurance wage credit only for $3,600 in a year.

A representative from the Am-be in Memphis in the Commission-

Penney Jubilee Announced Here; Opening Today

H. J. Howell, manager of J. C. Penney Store in Memphis, announced this week the formal opening today of the company's Golden Jubilee.

"This is a great occasion for us, a time for celebration," said Howell. "In just 50 years this Company has grown from a single tiny store in Southwestern Wyoming to a great retail merchandising organization—the largest of its kind in the world—with more than 1,600 stores and 70,000 associates serving nearly 40 million people.

"That's a monumental achievement in which all of us can take pride. For where else, but in our own United States of America, could such an achievement be possible?"

"Ours is a success story, not one man alone but of many men. Early in his career our founder, J. C. Penney, realized that he would succeed only if others found success with him. Eventually he became known as the 'man with a thousand partners'—and thereby pioneered a profit-sharing idea which contributed much to the Company's success," Howell said.

Today the company has a staff of 206 buyers combing the merchandise markets of the world. All are specialists, in fields ranging from women's fashions to boys' jeans; from blankets to work shoes; from hosiery to infants' wear.

"As our Jubilee gets underway we believe our customers will benefit more than ever by the great values that have been planned for them," Howell said. "All the accumulated experience and 'know how' of 50 years of successful merchandising have been brought into play to see that for our customers, as well as ourselves, this will truly be a 'golden year.'"

Lakeview Baptists Plan Spring Revival For April 20-27

The Baptist church at Lakeview will begin a Spring revival Sunday, April 20, and continue through April 27. The pastor, F. N. Allen, will do the preaching and Loran Denton will direct the music. Mrs. H. W. Spear will be at the piano.

The church will have been completely redecorated by that time. The congregation wants to say, "thank you" to the School superintendent and to the school board for the use of the school auditorium for the last three weeks.

FERGUSON SUIT AGAINST FORD SETTLED!

On April 9, 1952, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York entered a final judgement, with the consent of all parties, which ended four years of litigation between Harry Ferguson, Inc. and Ford Motor Company and others. It was ordered and adjudged that:

1. The sum of $9,250,000 shall be paid to Harry Ferguson, Inc. as royalties on Patents Nos. 1,916,945; 1,118,180; 2,223,002 and 2,486,257.
2. Ford Motor Company shall not manufacture, after December 31, 1952, such tractors, and Dearborn Motors Corporation shall not sell any such tractors manufactured after December 31, 1952, as have
 - (a) a pump having a valve on its suction side, as for example in the present Ford 8N tractor, arranged to be automatically controlled in accordance with the draft of an implement, or
 - (b) a pump for a hydraulically operated draft control system for implement control and a power take-off shaft both driven by the lay shift of the transmission, for example in the present Ford 8N tractor, or
 - (c) a coupling mechanism on the upper portion of the center housing, of the form employed in Ford 8N tractors manufactured prior to November 22, 1949; and Ford Motor Company and Dearborn Motors Corporation must affix a notice on any long coupling pins, manufactured by them, to the effect that the pin is sold for replacement on 8N tractors made by Ford prior to November 22, 1949.

This notice will continue to be affixed until October 25, 1966.

3. The Ford Motor Company and Dearborn Motors Corporation shall have a period of time, expiring not later than December 31, 1952 in which to make these changes.
4. All other claims and counter claims are dismissed and withdrawn on the merits.

A copy of the consent judgement is available to anyone interested in reading it.

This settlement between Harry Ferguson, Inc. and The Ford Motor Company resolves the issues. The inventions in their entirety with which this action was concerned will be found only in the Ferguson Tractor and in the Ferguson System in the future.

It is fitting that farmers all over the world . . . and especially in the Americas . . . shall continue to look to Ferguson for fulfillment of all that these inventions contribute to a greater and more prosperous agriculture. Better implements, better farming practices, more abundant production, and lower farming costs have resulted from the Ferguson System as employed in the Ferguson Tractor.

Now, indeed, the Ferguson with one and only complete Ferguson System is the tractor that meets more of the needs of more of the farmers more of the time. This can be proved to you at a demonstration on your own farm. Such a demonstration can be quickly arranged by telephone. Won't you call us about it?
