Voters Informed on Paving Issue

The Memphis Civic Affairs Committee of the Chamber of Commerce this week is mailing out informational letters on the proposed paving program. Voters go to the polls Tuesday, Aug. 19, to vote on the city and swimming pool projects.

Another question has to do with the cost of the paving. One contractor who did the paving in Childress said he would do the work for $7.20 per running foot. Divided three ways this would amount to $2.40 per front foot for each property owner, making $120.00 (Continued on page 12)

ANGUS FIELD DAY SLATED FOR SEPT. 5

Committees for the Lower Panhandle Angus Association second annual Field Day met Monday night at the Courthouse to discuss plans for the occasion. Details are not complete but the Angus men decided to have a barbecue feast at their annual day which is to be held Sept. 5 at Caprock Farms about seven miles north of town on Highway 287.

Jerrold Rapp, president of the organization, said that the Field Day committees are trying to work out a program that will be of interest to livestock men. Several noted livestock authorities will probably speak, and many of the members will display their cattle.

Caprock Farms is owned by Wendell Harrison and Clifford Farmer. Last year the Field Day was held at Rapp's Angus farm at Estelline.

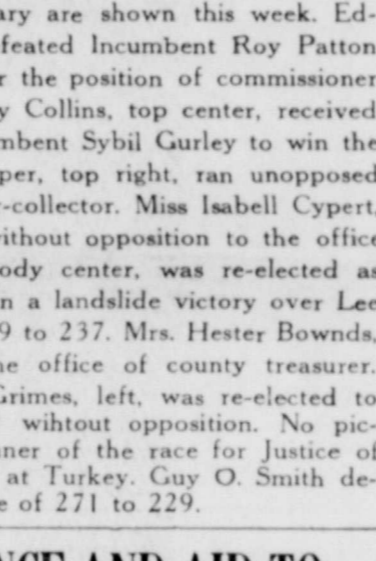

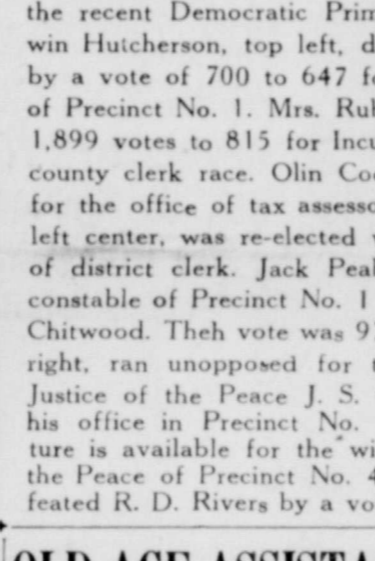

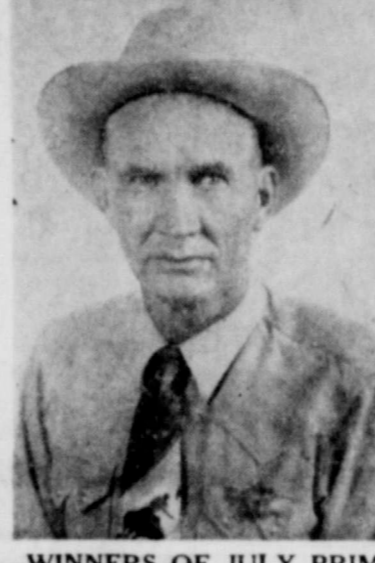

Wells Relates Convention Experiences For Rotarians

J. Claude Wells gave an interesting and informative talk at the Rotary luncheon Tuesday on his experiences and observations at the Democratic National Convention which he attended as an alternate.

Wells, Chairman of Hall County Democratic Executive Committee, was asked to speak by Attorney John Deaver who was in charge of the program for the day.

The speaker sketched little-known incidents, including humorous highspots, of the Chicago convention. He said that he had access to one of the press booths, and that when the tedious roll call got underway he would leave the floor, go into the air-conditioned press booth and watch the proceeding on television.

Wells said that television had a marked effect on the convention as it permitted the public to watch every move made on the floor. He said that fraudulent demonstrations were bared as such. He thought that something would

OLD AGE ASSISTANCE AND AID TO BLIND RECIPIENTS GET $5-RAISE

All persons receiving Old Age Assistance and Aid to the Blind will get a $5.00 increase in their grants beginning in October. This now makes a maximum grant of $55.00, instead of $50.00 available for Old Age Assistance and Aid to the Blind. Naturally, this does not mean that everyone will receive the maximum grant of $55.00 any more than they are now receiving the maximum grant of $50.00.

The amount of each grant is determined by the basic recognized needs of the individual less his income, and varies according to the individual situation. It simply means that beginning in October no grant can go higher than (Continued on page 7)

Other children not shown are Roy Rea of Memphis and Rex Rea and Miss Myrtle Rea of Plaska. Mr. and Mrs. Rea were born and reared within about 20 miles of Ft. Worth. PMA Elections To Be Aug. 22

Hall County PMA elections will be held three months early this year due to a change in policy affecting the Agricultural Conservation Program, Lynn McKown, county secretary, announced this week. The elections for committeemen from each community and county committeemen will be Friday, Aug. 22, at the Courthouse.

McKown said that the early election would enable the new community committeemen to make a thorough farm survey for 1953. This year each farmer in the county will be interviewed.

"The PMA is making a new approach to soil conservation problems with a farm-to-farm survey to be made by community committeemen to learn the desires of the men who farm the land. Through this method, first things will be taken first, the desires and needs of the individual farmer will take first consideration in operating the 1953 Agricultural Program."

Permanent Rate On Cotton Loans Set At 31.87

PMA Secretary Lynn McKown announced this week that the permanent cotton support loan rate has been set at 31.87 cents per pound for strict middling white cotton with 15/16 staple.

This rate is quoted for cotton delivered at the compress in Memphis, McKown said. The new rate is nine points lower than the interim rate announced Feb. 15. The PMA officer said that reflected an increase in freight charges. He said the support rate actually has been raised slightly.

Loans will be made as in previous years. The county PMA committee is in process of approving about 50 clerks to be located at all gins and banks in the county. These clerks will handle loan documents for farmers. One procedure is different this year. All documents will remain in the county, either in banks or in the PMA office. In previous years, they have been shipped to New Orleans.

Less Than Tenth Of Inch of Rain Falls on Memphis

Rainfall in Memphis for the past week amounted to less than one-tenth of an inch. Moisture in last night's storm here amounted to only .01 inches. Rain Tuesday totaled .07.

Hail inflicted heavy damage in a two-mile strip west of Lakeview Wednesday, according to Ted Montgomery. He also reported that about one-half inch fell yesterday at Lesley.

Weather Recorder J. J. McMillin reported that only light rain fell in eastern Hall County last night.

REBELS WIN; CARDINALS LOSE IN WEEK OF SOFTBALL UPSETS

Upsets changed the softball picture in Hall County in games played last week.

The Rebels started the strange proceedings in the first game last Thursday night when they downed the Renegades, 11 to 3. However, the Rebels were not quite up to par in the nightcap when they came back to play the hard-hitting Cardinals. The Cards won 15 to 2.

Friday night the Cardinals met their match when a strong, heavy-hitting Harrell Chappell aggregation came to town. The Cards lost a tight pitchers' duel, 7 to 10. In the nightcap the Estelline Cubs defeated the Lakeview Eagles, in another close tilt, 6 to 5.

On Sunday afternoon the Renegades downed the Rebels in a high-scoring game, 21 to 14.

Bobby Crooks led the scoring for the Rebels when they finally broke into the victors' column Thursday night against the Renegades. Scorers for the Rebels were Crooks, 3; Bob Baker, 2; Max Kennedy, 2; Roy Coleman, 1; McKown said that voting by mail will be from Aug. 12 through Aug. 22. Farmers may vote in person at the office of the county committee in the Courthouse Aug. 22.

"It is of special interest to all farmers to vote in this August committee election and help elect responsible men to make the surveys," McKown said. He added that the outstanding success of the farm program has been due to administration by local farmers. He emphasized the importance of electing committeemen who are willing and able to do the job.

The elected community committeemen will be directly responsible for contacting every farmer in the county. They will receive training for the survey duties. All contacts must be completed by Dec. 31 of this year.

In the elections 18 community committeemen and 12 alternates will be chosen. One week later, Aug. 29, these delegates will choose three county committeemen. They will also designate the county chairman.

Present county committeemen are: R. A. Eddleman, Estelline; Joe C. Montgomery, Lesley; and T. R. Fuston, Jr., Turkey. Eddleman is chairman and Fuston is vice-chairman of the committee.

County Secretary McKown announced that there will be a meeting of present community committeemen at the PMA office in the Courthouse tomorrow. Purpose of the session will be to explain the new PMA program.

Funeral services for Mrs. F. M. Gwinn, 82, were held at 3 p.m. Tuesday at the First Methodist Church in Memphis. Mrs. Gwinn, a resident of Hall County for 45 years, died Monday in a local hospital.

Rev. Lloyd V. Hamilton, pastor, officiated. He was assisted by the Rev. E. L. Yeats of Albany. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery. Murphy-Spicer Funeral Home had charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Gwinn is survived by three daughters, Mrs. W. R. Waggoner of Levelland, Mrs. Elber Cheek of Memphis, Mrs. Clyde Reed of Memphis; two brothers, Ernest Gerlach of Memphis and Buddy of Oklahoma, Okla.; two sisters, Mrs. Lena Habern of Denton and Mrs. Mary Heron of Pasadena, Calif.; 13 grandchildren; 25 great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

Cudd-Boone Gas and Oil Serves Area in 25-Mile Radius of Town

Cudd-Boone Gas and Oils furnishes Shamrock petroleum products for the area within a 25-mile radius of Memphis. Here in town the wholesale firm supplies five different service stations with Shamrock products.

The local firms are: Brewster Service Station, H. S. Foster, Vick Shelton, Bill Stevens and Bill Dunn's Shamrock Station.

Besides gasoline, Cudd-Boone handles Gates tires and several brands of lubricating oil. Amalie, Pennzoil, Quaker State and Cudd's High Speed oil. The latter is canned especially for Cudd-Boone.

The wholesale distributing business at Fourth and Brice has grown plenty since it went on a partnership basis on the first day of this year. That was when Jack Boone bought half-interest in the enterprise formerly owned by Ed Dumas and others in other states. Cudd. The partnership team has added several retail outlets and made improvements in service equipment.

Cudd-Boone now has two delivery trucks and one transport. Farmers within a 25-mile radius are serviced by Cudd-Boone. E. "Red" Moore is driver of the gas transport.

Memphis is on the southern fringe of the vast area served by Shamrock gas and oils. The two service stations in Childress which are serviced by Cudd-Boone are the southernmost outposts for the 28-year-old petroleum company. All of the northern part of the Panhandle, several mountain states and one or two plains states are included in the Shamrock domain. The company has a refinery at

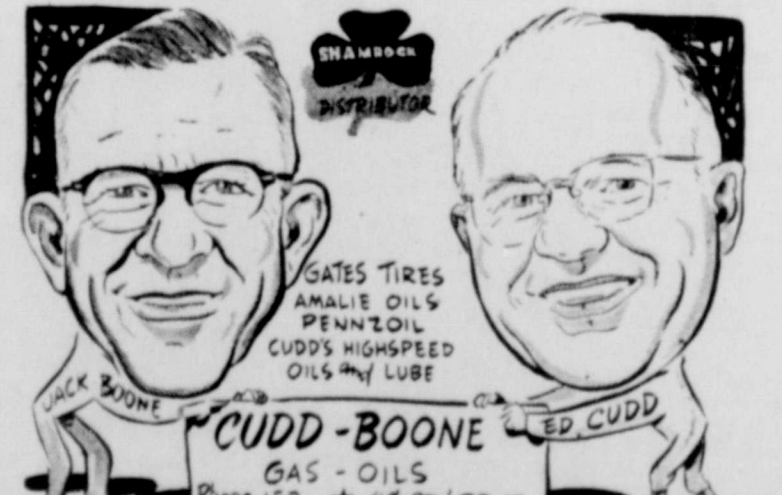

The new partner of the local Shamrock dealership, Jack Boone was born on St. Patrick's Day, 1902, at Trent--near Abilene. He finished school there and played professional baseball three years for Ranger in the Oil Belt Association.

He came to Hall County in December of 1926, settling at Brice where he went to work at the new gin owned by O. M. Cosby. Boone moved to Memphis three years later when Cosby secured the first franchise for a trucking line between Amarillo and Wichita Falls. He worked here as assistant manager, until 1934 when the truck company was sold to Miller and Miller.

MR. AND MRS. ADOLPH L. SCHMITZ

Adams-Schmitz Marriage Vows Are Exchanged in Borger Rites

BORGER, July 26—Altar baskets of white gladioli and blue Marconi daisies, jade greenery and white tapers in seven-branched candelabra formed the setting for the recent marriage of Bobbye Nell Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Adams of Houston, to Adolph L. Schmitz, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Schmitz.

Rev. James G. Glenn, pastor, read the double-ring ceremony in the First Presbyterian Church. Pews were marked with white satin bows, fern and sophelia.

Mrs. C. R. Berrien, organist, played a nuptial prelude and accompanied George G. Gerding, who sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," "I Love You Truly" and "Because." Before the ceremony, Rev. Glenn read Elizabeth Barrett-Browning's sonnet, "How Do I Love Thee." The traditional wedding marches were used.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of fashioned of pleated tulle banded with scalloped lace and was topped with a fitted jacket of Chantilly lace. A train was formed of the pleated tulle. Her veil of illusion was attached to a Juliet cap of chantilly lace outlined with seed pearls and rosettes of illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and a gold-throat white orchid. Her jewelry included a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom, and a ring worn by the bridegroom's mother in her wedding.

The bride's sister, Miss Jolene Adams, was maid-of-honor. She was gowned in orchid nylon net over taffeta. The fitted bodice had a ruffle-edged net yoke and the bouffant skirt was ballerina-length. She wore a matching taffeta hat and net veil and carried a bouquet of white gladioli.

Bridesmaids were Miss Marilyn Sue Schmitz and Miss Grazella Hogins, both of Memphis, Miss Anna Adams of Fort Worth and Miss Oleta Dowlin of Panhandle. Their ballerina-length gowns were in rainbow colors of nylon net over taffeta, styled with ruffle-edged strapless bodices and full snap-on puffed sleeves. Each wore a small matching taffeta hat and carried a bouquet of white gladioli.

Mary Ann Schmitz, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl and Donna Knight, Fort Worth, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. They wore aqua gowns like those of the bridesmaids. The flower girl wore a wedding ring head-dress with a matching veil and the ring bearer had a headdress of matching maline.

A. L. Schmitz was his son's best man and ushers were W. R. Phillips, Nathan Beckworth, E. R. Nunnely, Jr., and Bailey Adams of Houston.

A reception was held in the hall after the ceremony. The lace covered table was centered with a tiered cake. Nougats of blue and white Marconi daisies and white tapers in crystal holders completed the setting. Reception assistants were Mrs. R. L. Adams, Jr., Mrs. F. R. Williams of Houston and Mrs. E. R. Nunnely, Jr. After a wedding trip to West Coast Mr. and Mrs. Schmitz are living in Borger.

There are new protections that you may not know about. Your insurance against many possible disasters may now be inadequate, in view of increased replacement costs of property. Even damage suits are bigger now.

Why Get In Hot Water?

The Texas Motor Vehicle Law requires that your car or truck be inspected before

SEPT. 6th

Avoid The Rush!

The Texas Safety Association predicts that there will be a terrific glut of cars and trucks at each inspection station later this month unless motorists start having their cars and trucks inspected now.

As inspection agents of the state we respectfully urge you to bring your cars in now; for we are sorely afraid that we will not be able to handle the task if too many people wait until the last few days to have this work done.

It should be remembered that your car or truck must have an inspection sticker on the windshield after the Sept. 6 deadline. The inspection test is not nearly as severe as most people think it is. The items to be checked are the ones that will save your life.

So don't delay. Act TODAY! You can save yourself time and trouble by making an appointment to have your car inspected now and you won't be among the hot and bothered people who will be sweating near the deadline.

Age No Barrier To Joe Rasco; At 80, He's Still Traveling

Joe T. Rasco was 80 years old last March, but he still likes to be on the go.

He left Saturday night by train for the Pacific Northwest, going by way of Denver, Pocatello, Idaho, Pendleton, Ore., and Walla Walla and Sunnyside in the famous Yakima Valley in Washington where he will visit his brother, W. R. Rasco and family.

From Sunnyside he will go to Portland where he will take the Shasta route down to San Francisco. He plans to visit his son, Foster Rasco, who has been living in San Francisco for the past year.

From San Francisco, Rasco plans to ride the California Zephyr which features the vista dome cars and goes through the scenic Feather River Canyon to Salt Lake City.

In the Mormon Capital he will tour the points of interest and hear the famed organ recital which is presented each day at noon.

After leaving Salt Lake City Rasco will return through the 10,000-ft Tennessee Pass and the Royal Gorge.

Mrs. Rasco, Gertrude and June Rasco made this same trip last summer and Rasco has patiently awaited his turn. This is his fourth journey to the Northwest.

Other business at the routine meeting included reading of the minutes and approval of collection for payment. The tax collector's report for the past month was received.

The session was opened with a prayer.

CITY OFFICERS PREVENT FIRE

Alertness on the part of two city patrolmen early this morning during the height of the windstorm prevented a possible serious fire at the Alamo Cafe on Highway 287.

Officers W. I. Glosson and Henry Stinnett were patrolling the area about 3 a. m. when they smelled smoke. After circling four blocks in their car, they sighted smoke coming out of an airconditioner on the building. A fire was blazing under a refrigerator in the cafe operated by Joe Perez. They extinguished the blaze before it got out of control. Vernon Fowler, owner of the building, said the officers prevented a disastrous fire. He commended them for their alertness.

SHERIFF WARNS CITIZENS ABOUT 'CHECK ARTISTS'

Hall County Sheriff E. S. "Peck" Morrison warned local citizens to avoid being victimized by "bad check artists" by knowing the endorser of any check they may be given. Morrison said that his office has investigated four cases of forgery in recent weeks.

One man was returned July 23 from Paris by Deputy Bill Baten and Constable Jack Peabody to face charges of passing a forged check for $38.00 on May 8 at J. C. Penney store. The man is being held in the county jail with bond set at $1,500.00. Another thought to be his accomplice, he returned from Bonham as officers there release him. Last Friday Baten and Peabody went to Vernon where a forgery suspect is being held. man, who has been arrested times since 1929 on various burglary charges, has been passing a forged check for $40.00 on June 22 at the White Store. Pearls of Wisdom

Shady Sentinels
One need not be an Arab loping across the sun-parched desert on an ungainly camel or a bird searching for a place to build a nest to fully appreciate the beauty and solace of shade trees these summer days of August.

Like Tom, Dick, and Harry or Hope, and Charity—book, hammock and shade tree form a perfect threesome . . . for comfort in the warm days ahead and ideal setting for a summer. Incidentally, Robert S. Lemmon, a well-known naturalist, recommends the white oak as the hammock support. Its branch, he writes, will never let you swing in a hammock beneath the great oaks' shade. My thoughts flitted here and like fireflies in a glade. A sweet peace settled over me as the hammock swayed and I blessed the name of who made the great oaks' . . .

By the wayside, Mr. Lemmon's published book, "The Loved Trees of America," has good hammock-reading you will find, when you turn through its pages, some pointers about trees. If you are to grow your own chewing tree; to make your own pen- get a red cedar and, for your initials, find a linden tree.

Remember these things and think more kindly of trees. Remember too that "poems are made by fools like me but only God can make a tree."

This is National Farm Safety Week and a mighty good time to plan the practices that will make your farm safe for the next 51 weeks. Don't be an accident victim.

Fish in ponds may die from parasites and diseases, however, the shortage of oxygen is the most common cause of fish die-off in the summer time.

Reports of crop damages resulting from careless misuse of hormone type herbicides are beginning to trickle into the offices of the Texas Department of Agriculture at Austin. These reports are expected to increase daily unless farmers and ranchers exercise normal precautions in chemical applications as the season advances.

Herbicides 2,4-D and 2,4-5-T are excellent for the control of weeds, mesquite and brush growths. They are not "poisons", as many believe. Instead, these hormone chemicals energize plants, causing them to literally "grow themselves to death."

Most broad-leaf plants are susceptible to this growing action. Rice, flax, grain sorghums and grasses are not affected, however, and for this reason, 2,4-D and 2,4-5-T are good solutions to use on these crops to keep down weed infestations.

But many crops, such as cotton, can be severely damaged by hormone herbicides of adjacent fields are sprayed carelessly.

Herbicides should never be applied, either from ground or air equipment, during high wind which would cause droplets to drift from pasturelands into crop fields. Another common mistake is the use of too much pressure in the equipment which creates a fine spray susceptible to long drifts. Heavier drops are most effective and are more apt to settle in areas where they are intended.

Damage from herbicides is usually easy to recognize. It causes mutations in the plant, sometimes making the leaves grow in odd shapes and curl at the edges. Unless the accidental dosage is too great, however, the farmer may still make his crop, even though the yield might not be as much as before damage occurred.

One of the duties of the Texas Department of Agriculture is to inspect all ground and air equipment in application of herbicides to see that it comes up to specifications of Texas Herbicides Regulations. The department also issues permits to those farmers, ranchers and commercial spraying companies who wish to apply herbicides to the land.

All dealers are required to keep sales records, and all spraying companies or individuals must keep records of date of herbicide applications for two years.

These regulations apply in cases where more than 20 acres are to be sprayed. A fee of 10 cents per acre is charged for permits. For plots less than 20 or more than 5 acres, no permit is required but written notice must be given the department that chemicals are to be applied. For less than 5 acres, no permit or notice is required.

A few counties in West Texas and South Texas are exempt from the Texas Herbicide Regulations. A request for information on exempt counties and regulations should be addressed to John C. White, Commissioner, Texas Department of Agriculture.

Old Age Assistance—

$55.00 instead of $50.00.

To assure that each eligible person on the Old Age Assistance and Aid to the Blind rolls gets the full amount of the increase the month available, John H. Winfers, executive director of the Welfare Department, has ordered that checks beginning in October be written for $5.00 more than the amount authorized on that date.

Supervision Hesse explained that since these increases are to be automatically taken care of in Austin, it will not be necessary to get in touch with the local or Austin office of the State Welfare Department.

By way of illustration, Hesse explained that an aged person who is receiving Old Age and Survivors Insurance and has been getting, for example, $34.00 Old Age Assistance will receive $39.00 beginning in October.

We wish to take this means to try to say "thank you" in our weak way, for the words fail when we try to express our appreciation for every act of kindness shown us during our sorrow that lasted over a period of many months. We are thankful for every card, the beautiful flowers and the nice meals that were served. We wish to thank each and every one, and may God's richest blessings be yours.

HAVE YOUR CAR CHECKED NOW!

Unsafe automobiles killed an average of one Texan every day in 1931, according to the Texas Safety Association. "Unsafe" cars, it said, are those with bad brakes, inadequate lights, faulty steering gear, etc.

Each year over 300 Texans meet death on the highways of the state because of mechanical defects of the biggest killer of the machine age—the automobile. Sometimes it is the human element that results in the blood baths on the highways, but too often it is the mechanical defects.

Even the best driver there is cannot escape the tragic consequences of a highway mishap if the car he or she is driving will not respond to the controls. A person that gets into a car with bad brakes is risking his life everytime he starts the motor.

A human being is capable of learning to operate any machine ever conceived in the brain of man. There are degrees of skill, of course, in handling an automobile—but even the most proficient driver on earth cannot pilot a vehicle suddenly gone berserk due to a faulty steering gear. He can only wait for the inevitable crash.

The automobile and the age that it ushered in are wonders of our time. For the common man the car has shortened distances even more than the airliners. It has made America a nation on wheels. It has created new industries, new diversions, new jobs and new habits. It has placed residential districts on the outskirts of metropolitan areas.

And it has killed more people in this advanced nation of ours than all of our wars put together. Hardly a family in America has escaped having a close relative killed or maimed by the automobile.

The situation could be improved by a whole nation of safety-conscious drivers. But the automobile is an inanimate object, a man-made contraption that even the most safety-minded person cannot control if a mechanical ill develops at a high speed.

Texas now has a law to remedy the situation. The law seeks to lower the death rate on the highways by forcing all motorists to have their cars inspected for mechanical flaws. Texans now have the opportunity to take advantage of their new motor vehicle inspection system which offers a uniform safety check at convenient locations throughout the state.

The inspection program was started last December, and was intended to expire on March 31. The deadline was postponed until midnight, Sept. 6 when it was found to be impossible to set up the required inspection stations and handle all the vehicles by the March deadline.

This delay has given Texas motorists plenty of time to have their cars and trucks checked. However, with human nature being what it is, most motorists have kept postponing their inevitable date with the inspection station.

In Hall County, up to a short time ago, only about one-third of the total registered vehicles in the county had been inspected. The deadline is now less than a month away, and the inspection stations may not be able to handle the expected glut of cars in the last few days before Sept. 6.

The time to have the inspection made is NOW! The inspection test is not as nearly as severe as most people think it is. The items to be checked are the ones that will save your life.

REPAIRS FOR RAPIDS AHEAD

The inspection stations will pay particular attention to the following check points.

BRAKES—Must stop car in 30 feet at 20 m. p. h. and take hold evenly on all wheels.

LIGHTS—Headlights at level to give maximum illumination with minimum glare. All lights must be clean and operating.

TIRES—Rubber should be evenly worn. No cuts or breaks in fabric.

STEERING AND WHEEL ALIGNMENT—Uneven tire wear and excessive play in steering wheel are warnings for mechanical correction.

EXHAUST AND MUFFLER—Tight and free from rust holes or leaks.

WINDSHIELD WIPERS—Good operation is necessary to visibility.

HORN—Audible 200 feet without undue loudness.

GLASSES AND MIRRORS—Clean and unobstructed for maximum visibility.

The five state authorized inspection stations in Hall County are: W. H. Monzingo Motor Co., Potts Chevrolet Co., Sisk Buick Co., Foxhall Motor Co., all of Memphis; and Mullins Motor Co., Turkey.

our President than there was before the Boston Tea Party.

Several of the lesser political lights have promised in their campaigns to work for a state preferential primary to nominate and elect a President. Those men can advance the cause of America more than anything else we can think of.

We think the people are just a little sick of the fights and fracas that mark the political conventions, and are due for a change to something that makes sense.

Let's have a State Preferential Primary.

Dancing about their kettles of boiling destiny the fates who poured my little saucer of frustration must be exceedingly well pleased. By intricate timing they were able to force me to hifocals the same season bathing suits ignored modesty as a reason to justify existence.

It is not easy to discourage a bore who finds his own jokes worthy of his laughter.

Since statistics affect our lives with increasing power, it would be entertaining to know the number of people who are actually deceived by a girdle.

Elections are like summer love affairs. They drive the emotion out of their regular orbit, yet when seen in the light of retrospective they are destined to appear absurd.

I think perhaps I should prefer a child's confidence to a gold en cup engraved with a record of any achievement.

There is little behoof in possessing a favorable character re-

Preferential Primaries
"Turn back the clock, mother, the democrats are doing the same thing the republicans did."

Last week the Democratic party more or less met in Chicago to run through the same farce—nominating a candidate for President. If the virus of stupidity and assinnity can be transmuted like rabies, then the Demos certainly picked up the germ left behind by the Republicans.

To spend huge sums of both money, which can be replaced, and time, which cannot, to go through the motions of nominating a man to run for the highest office in the land is about as silly a procedure a civilized country can have.

There is no more representation of the voter in the system we now have in nominating and electing FINGER CUT OFF IN MACHINERY—Mack Tarver had the misfortune to lose his middle finger on his left hand by getting it cut off in machinery at the city bakery last week. Another finger was badly cut and the hand was otherwise lacerated. This cut caused considerable pain for several days, but is now healing rapidly.

CATTLE SHEDS AT FAIR GROUNDS BLOWN DOWN—The high wind Tuesday afternoon blew down the cattle shed, turning the building which was 200 feet long and 20 feet wide completely over and demolishing it. The posts were set in the ground but not anchored as they should have been for an open building.

GENERAL RAINS MAKE PROSPECTS FOR CROPS GOOD—More than two inches of rain visited this general section from Friday morning to Monday morning. The rain seems to have been general over the entire Panhandle.
Hall County will have at least 40,000 bales of cotton this year, with the usual amount of feed and forage crops, and the price will be more than likely far better than last year. The banner county will again unfurl her winning banner this fall.
SAYS THE DROUGHT HERE WAS NOTHING—Jim McMurry of the Brice Community stated Monday while in town that they had a great rain last Friday, but very little Sunday night. He said he was used to dry weather. One year when he lived in the Wise end of Jack County it got so dry that his two water wells went dry and he had to carry water from stagnant pools on Cottonwood Creek. The water was full of wig-

TB and the X-Ray Bus

Time was when the TB victim innocently walked the streets of his town undetected—and undetectable.
For who had the millionaire's pocketbook to pay for examining a whole town of a thousand people to sieve out one possible victim?
Now comes the x-ray bus, able to be TB detective for whole cities, for a few pennies a person. Millions of people now have their TB worries erased when the doctor says "Okay."
How long did it take to get the x-ray bus? Well, for its part, General Electric had been working on x rays for 57 years. Costs of diagnosis have come down by better and better equipment. No year passes without some new development. So this was another big chapter in a long book of events.
Notice the nice way these buses get into service. They are usually purchased by voluntary contributions of plain people trying to get a job done.
It is always hard to write a definition of the "American Way." But this hand-in-hand achievement of state and national health associations, General Electric, and the local communities comes close to being a perfect example.

traps for seats... it's tables for four, restaurant-style, these days... and chairs to sit in, no less. Gone too, if Saturday's meal was any indication, is that old-fashioned GI cook who could turn the solidest food into a floating stew. The chow was good. Even the barracks have had a working over in this new army. They look very much the same from the outside, but they're made up of private rooms now... with closets, no less. Not exactly the Ritz-Carlton, maybe, but not to be mistaken for Grandpa's barn, either.

Just as we were beginning to wonder if we'd walked in on the wrong army, tho, we noted an old familiar touch. They still have the KP's. —Ben Ezzell, in The Canadian Record ers, Boone stayed in the trucking business until about a year ago, except for three war-time years in the bakery business when trucking operations were curtailed. He was married in 1930 to the former Ferne Martin of Temple. They have one son, Jackie, who will be a sophomore next year.

Business keeps Boone out of many of the local organizations. However, he was a charter member of the local Lions Club. He was also a charter member of the Cyclone Booster Club to which he still belongs. He once belonged to the Rotary.

Boone's hobbies are baseball (He's likely to be found calling bases at Owl games), football hunting and fishing. Ed Cudd started in the oil business in 1929. His first transport truck was a Model T truck with 15 ten-gallon cans in which to haul his product. Back in those days before the kerosene stove and lamp became extinct, kerosene was a bigger seller than gasoline. Cudd was a partner with B. W. Johnson in the wholesale petroleum products business. In 1923 he bought out Johnson who moved to Childress.

Cudd was born in Yell County, Ark., May 24, 1894. He went to school there until his family moved to Hall county in January of 1908. Cudd continued in his schooling here. In September he married the former Willie Bee Morris. Two years later the couple left the farm and came to Memphis where Cudd entered the wholesale gas and oil business. At present, Cudd is farming the old family home-place. He and his son-in-law, Nelson Combest, have a ranch in Donley County. When he has time, Cudd enjoys his hobbies of hunting and fishing and playing golf.

He is a member of the W.O.W. and former member of the Odd Fellows and Rotary. He served on the local school board for over 12 years. Both Mr. and Mrs. Cudd are members of the Methodist Church. He has been a member of the Board of Stewards of the Church for several years.

Charles Stout of Amarillo visited here last week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Stout.

Over 5,669 Miles Of Hall Terraces Built in 12 Years

The immensity of the government's farm program is not so noticeable over a short period of time, but when the statistics of several years are totaled up the magnitude of the program is clearly evident. For example, during the last 12 years the Hall County PMA has assisted farmers in constructing a grand total of 29,927,544 feet or 5,669 miles of terraces. These terraces cover about one-half of the entire crop land in the county. Most of the remaining land has terraces that were built before 1940. County PMA Secretary, Lynn L. McKown said that the highest construction for one year was in 1950 when 4,762,748 feet or 902 miles of terraces were completed. "One can readily see that million of gallons of water that went down the rivers prior to 1940 are now being held on Hall County's crop land," he said.

BROTHERS MEET FOR FIRST TIME IN 33 YEARS

Two brothers, who hadn't seen each other since 1919 and had no idea that the other was alive, got together here in Memphis recently. Fred Collins, who works at the Memphis Compress, had not seen his family since shortly after his discharge from service in World War I. Then, on July 25 his brother, Ed, ended a long search when he turned up in Memphis. Ed lives in Alvarado and found his missing through the Masonic Lodge. The Memphis man returned home to Alvarado with his brother to a family reunion. Other members of the family include Lige Collins of Beaumont, and two sisters, Mrs. Nannie Hickey and Mrs. Ada Mouser, both of Poteet, Tex. The two brothers did not recognize each other after the interval of 33 years when they met recently.

Members of the Fred Collins' family are: his wife, Dollie Mae, two sons, Fred Houston, 9, and Floyd Ray, 6; and a step-son, Howard, 23.

NINE COUPLES GET LICENSES DURING JULY

July, instead of June, turned out to be the wedding month in Hall County. There were nine licenses obtained last month as compared to June—the traditional month for orange blossoms and wedding bells. No one in the clerk's office was able to explain this phenomenon, but "hot weather" and "reluctant June bridegrooms" were two wild guesses.

Couples securing licenses during July were: Newt H. Freelan and Bobbie Lorene Parker; Harold Leflie and Nancy Lavina Calloway; Norma Jean Upton and C. H. Bennett; Thomas Young and Doris Gean Sanders; R. L. Nivens and Willa Dean Gowdy; Doyle Franklin Hawthorne and Bobbie Ann Shaw; Riley Bernard Adamson and Mary Lou Bain; Troy Ross Brown and Rose Lanell Cherry; and Bennie Wortham and Bertha Faye Painter.

County Leaders Meet To Discuss Hospital Project

Nineteen county leaders, most of them from Turkey and Memphis, met to discuss the county hospital proposition Friday night at the City Hall. It was decided to defer any commitments on the proposal until further investigation has been made. Another meeting will be held in the near future. Results of the investigation will be reported then.

year before. Just west of that, half and inch of more rain fell reaching to Brice. These afternoon showers, hot as the weather is, may be accompanied by hail, and farmers are hoping cooler weather will set in so that it will not be apt to hail. After all, crops have been doing nicely, although on tight land cotton is blooming at the top-indicative of the need for moisture.

Collingsworth County Pioneers' Reunion will be held Friday, August 15 in Ellison Park in the city of Wellington. This whole day will be devoted entirely to old timers, the invitation states.

And the 1952 Hall County picnic will be held Sunday, August 17 in MacKenzie Park, Lubbock. This is an annual affair and attended by 500 or more Hall Countians and ex-Hall-ers. Clarence "Skeet" Powell is president of the organization; Alvin White, VP, and Chas. Whitacre, secretary. Harry Delaney usually serves as emcee, and puts on a program of entertainment for a short while that gets all in attendance in good humor for visiting and renewing acquaintances.

Wellington, Collingsworth County and the entire Panhandle area has lost a Number 1 Citizen in the death yesterday of Pink Sullivan, a leader in nearly every phase of community development. Funeral services will be held Friday, 10:00 a. m. in the Wellington Methodist Church. Sullivan had been in hardware and furniture business and farming there since 1911, which businesses hardly ranked with his activity in all community programs. He served as city alderman 10 years, then as mayor from 1939 for eight years, and his tenure saw the construction of the Wellington Community building, a monument other cities would like to emulate, and also provided during his administration a good foundation for those who followed after. It was my good pleasure to act as mayor of Memphis during the same years, and Pink's advice helped me over many a rough spot. A fine citizen and friend is gone and his going leaves a vacant spot in my heart.

Ben Guill, Republican Congressman from the Panhandle for a short term, has been named Texas Campaign manager for Eisenhower, which means he will not run for Congress this year as was predicted for awhile.

Interest taken in precinct and county conventions and in the recent primary election indicate that at last Mr. John Q. Public has waked up to the fact that America is at the cross roads in her four freedoms and needs the attention of all Americans. Such attention will result in an about-face policy that will get the country on a more conservative road that will be beneficial to mankind in general and not to any sectional part, as it has fast been going toward in the past few years. The American people taking an interest in government has already shown some results, in that both the major parties have nominated good men—men who, in my humble opinion, will lead the country to a saner and safer condition.

Had the laborite leaders and stooges had their way in the Democratic Convention in Chicago recently, the government might well be termed a labor government, provided their candidates were elected after nomination. Conservative leaders, using their best efforts wisely, prevented such a debacle. In times of need great men arise and work for the good of mankind in general rather than for their own personal position and power in their own political party. Yes, America has not lost its ability to keep the Four Freedoms.

Locals and Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd VanDeventer and Michael of Memphis, Mr. and Mrs. James Stevenson and Claudette of Amarillo and Mrs. C. C. VanDeventer of Hedley returned home Sunday night following a vacation trip to Denver, Estes Park, Canon City and other points in that section of Colorado. They also visited in Boulder, Colo., with Clifford VanDeventer.

In closing, Wells called on those present to weigh carefully the pronouncements of the two major party candidates, and to vote as their consciences dictated in November.

Records of similar paving projects in other cities show that the paving increases property value more than enough to pay the paving cost. The last paving done in Memphis was in 1926 at which time the city paid for paving intersections of streets and alleyways. If the street improvement bonds carry, the city will be able to join property owners in paving 60 or more blocks.
