Heart Campaign To End March 15

The 1955 Heart Fund Drive in Texas has been extended to March 15, according to information received here by Ted Myers, county chairman. The campaign originally was scheduled to be concluded on Feb. 28.

The extension was made "in order to give all of the local Heart chapters and groups affiliated with the Texas Heart Association an opportunity to complete their work," according to Dr. W. R. White, chairman of the state heart fund campaign.

Myers urges those who have not made contributions to do so sometime between now and March 15. Heart-shaped containers are located at various business houses to make donations easy. Or if residents desire, they may mail checks to L. C. Martin at the First State Bank in Memphis, to Dr. R. E. Clark, Jr., at the Clark Clinic here, or to Myers, addressed to General Delivery, Memphis.

No canvass for contributions is being made, the county chairman said.

Money, collected by the heart association, is employed to finance heart research and treatment, and in educating the public about the ailment, which is among the chief health problems that exist in the United States today.

Driver Uninjured In Truck Mishap

R. S. Thomas of Memphis, escaped uninjured about noon Monday when the northbound Borden's truck he was driving, overturned on the Childress-Wellington highway, about 7 miles north of Childress, highway patrolmen said. Milk and orange juice, which the truck was carrying, were spilled on the highway. Truck damage and merchandise loss was estimated at around $2,600, according to the officers.

Thomas told patrolmen that he was not certain as to the reason for the mishap, but thought, perhaps, that a gust of wind might have caused the large vehicle to swerve. The truck glanced off the east railing of a bridge and ended up on its left side, about 30 feet north of the structure.

Although the vehicle was crossways on the pavement, traffic was able to bypass it, the officers said. The truck had to be towed away.

Bureau Members Attend District Meet in Amarillo

Four members of the Hall County Farm Bureau attended a District 1 Bureau meeting in Amarillo Monday. They were: Harold Hodges, president of the county organization; Brown Smith, chairman of the resolutions committee; Zip Durrett, a committee member; and Bill Cosby, service agent.

During the Amarillo meeting, various policies of the state and national Farm Bureau were discussed.

The Hall County group presented a proposal seeking federal government approval of a cotton-planting plan in which two rows would be left in and two rows left out. It is proposed to substitute this for the present ASC practice whereby four rows are planted and four rows left unown Hodges said.

The substitute plan, if adopted, would be followed only in drouth and wind erosion areas, the county president explained.

County Farm Bureau representatives, present at the Amarillo session, agreed to support the proposal.

Hodges said Senators Lyndon Johnson and Price Daniel and Cong. Walter Rogers have presented the plan to Agriculture Secretary Ezra Benson and are working for its approval.

In discussing the aims of the county organization, Hodges declared, "The Hall County Farm Bureau is working with the Agriculture Department from every angle, to help farmers, ranchers and businessmen in every way possible. If any of these have problems they would like to bring before us, we will be glad to give them a hearing and help them all we can."

Services will be held nightly, starting at 7:30 o'clock. Sunday morning worship will begin at 11 o'clock, preceded by Sunday School at 10 o'clock.

Bro. Doyle Davis of Childress, is to be in charge of singing. The public will be welcome at all services.

March Behaving Like Lamb So Far

March has been like the proverbial "lamb" so far in this area, as weather has remained uniformly mild, with no sustained periods of wind and very little dust or sand. Although there has been considerable cloudiness, it has resulted in only a sprinkle Friday and some dampness in the air Saturday morning. Thus, the precipitation total to this point still holds at 1.40 inches. Some dust appeared in the air Monday and Tuesday.

Temperatures were cold and accompanied by considerable wind, as the past week opened last Thursday but assumed a warming trend Friday. Since then, the mercury has continued to climb. Wednesday afternoon, readings reached the 84-degree level, according to Weatherman John McMickin. Indications were that it would follow this pattern today but the Amarillo weather station this morning was predicting colder weather Friday.

According to McMickin, temperatures the past week fell in the following ranges: last Thursday 20-44 degrees; Friday 23-62; Saturday 26-74; Sunday 37-79; Monday 37-81; Tuesday 42-78; and Wednesday 37-84.

Car Badly Smashed In Headlong Flight After Control Lost

Jack L. Bowman, 29, was killed and Monty Elwood Richerson, 18, both of Estelline, was critically injured in a one car wreck four miles west of Childress on U. S. Highway 287, early Monday morning.

Bowman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bowman of Estelline and is also survived by his wife, Ruth, a daughter, Helen Ruth, and a son, Bobby Jack, and one brother, Palta D. Bowman, all of Amarillo.

In addition the attending physician said, "the top of the youth's scalp has been peeled and he suffered multiple abrasions from head to foot."

According to a service station attendant who sold the two some gas before they left Childress for Estelline, Bowman was driving the 1949 Ford.

State Highway Patrolman Noel D. (Blackie) Callaway said the car went out of control on the first curve west of the drive-in theatre and snapped off four guard posts of the south side of the highway.

Both men were thrown clear of the car as it turned over several times before coming to rest 185 feet from where it struck the first post.

The wreckage was discovered by an unidentified truck driver at 12:45 a. m. He stopped a passing motorist and sent for an ambulance.

Bowman was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital.

Funeral services for Bowman were conducted at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the Estelline Church of Christ, where he was a member, by Minister Fred L. (Continued on Page 12)

Eighteen Girls To Vie For JC Queen Honor

Eighteen Memphis girls are scheduled to vie for the honor of being named Jaycee Queen for 1955, at a contest to be held here Thursday evening, March 10.

Joyce Webster, president of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce, said Tuesday. The competition will be staged in the William B. Travis cafeteria. Plans call for having a cafeteria-style spaghetti supper between 7 and 8 o'clock, with the beauty contest following. The supper charge will be 75 cents a plate.

Girls due to appear on the Travis stage, according to Webster, are as follows: Betty Claude Hickey, Lois Ann Cofer, Mary Frank Garrett, Sharon Harrison, Betty Lemons, Joy Parks, Linda Fields, Jean Foxhall, Patsy Moore, La Juana Owen, Janice Smith, Wanda Widener, Beverley Bowerman, Audrey Beth Burnett, Guyula Cawfield, Helen Shackelford, Peggy Shockley and Francis Wright.

Three members of the Childress Junior Chamber of Commerce are slated to serve as judges.

Also on the schedule are installation ceremonies for 1955 officers. The slate of leaders were to be chosen at a regular noon meeting of the Memphis Jaycees today (Thursday).

Negro Man Killed In Knifing Affray

The charge of murder with malice was filed against Essie Dorothy Joiner, 26, a Negro woman who lives on the L. E. Marcum farm near Estelline, in connection with the knife slaying of her husband, James H. Joiner, Sunday morning.

The killing occurred in the home of another Negro couple, Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Reed, who live on the Fred Berry farm west of Estelline, at approximately 6:45 a. m., according to a statement by Sheriff Bill Baten.

Joiner died in a local hospital of a knife wound in the left side of his chest near the heart. There was also a small cut on his left shoulder.

In a statement, Mrs. Joiner told Sheriff Baten and other officers that she and her husband, along with the Reeds, had been to Electra, Vernon and Childress Saturday night, and they had been drinking beer.

When they got back to Reed's home early Sunday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Joiner decided to spend the rest of the night there, she told the sheriff.

Allegedly an argument started between Joiner and his wife, which resulted in the fatal blow over the heart.

She then told Tommie Reed to tell Mr. Berry to call an ambulance and the law officers, the woman's statement continued.

The knife that is alleged to be the murder weapon is a pocket-knife type with a four inch blade. It is being held in the sheriff's (Continued on Page 12)

70 And 256 Gaps Have Been Closed

The gap in Briscoe County along State Highways 70 and 256 has been closed, according to information received by Clifford Farmer, Chamber of Commerce manager here, from Palmer Massey, district highway engineer at Childress.

Massey said the last project on the stretch has been completed, except for a small amount of shaping of ditches and slopes. He explained that this does not interfere with the movement of traffic.

In conclusion, Massey stated that State Highway 70 is now paved between Turkey and Clarendon and State Highway 256 is paved between Silverton and Memphis.

Completion of gaps in these stretches realizes a goal toward which citizens of Memphis and other communities in this region have been working for years.

Revenue Service Lists Income Tax Exemptions

(Below is another article which the Internal Revenue Service has compiled to aid taxpayers in preparing their income tax reports.)

You are allowed a deduction of $600.00 for each exemption for which you qualify.

You, as the taxpayer, are always entitled to at least one exemption. If at the end of your taxable year, you were blind or were 65 or over, you get two exemptions. If you were both blind and 65 or over, you get three exemptions.

You get an exemption for your wife (or husband) if you are, or she is, filing a joint return. If you file a separate return, you may claim her exemption only if she had no income and did not receive more than half her support from another taxpayer. Otherwise, your wife's exemptions are like your own—one, if she was neither blind nor 65; two, if she was either blind or 65 or over; three, if she was both blind and 65 or over. In case of death, if wife or husband died during 1954, the number of his or her exemptions is determined as of the date of death.

You are entitled to one exemption for each child, including a stepchild legally adopted child, if during the taxable year that child:

1. Received more than one-half of his or her support from you (or from your husband or wife if a joint return), and
2. Had not attained the age of 19 or was a student (if the child is 19 or over and not a student, he must have received less than $600.00 gross income), and
3. Did not file a joint return with her husband (or his wife), and
4. Was either a citizen or resident of the United States or a resident of Canada, Mexico, the Republic of Panama or the Canal Zone, and
5. (a) Was related to you (or to husband or wife if this is a joint return) in one of the following ways: Mother, Father, Grandmother, Grandfather, Brother, Sister, Grandson, Granddaughter, Stepbrother, Stepsister, Stepmother, Stepfather, Mother-in-law, Father-in-law, Brother-in-law, Sister-in-law, Son-in-law, Daughter-in-law. The following if related by blood: Uncle, Aunt, Nephew, Niece; or (b) An individual who —

1. During the taxpayer's taxable year, used the taxpayer's home as his principal place of abode and was a member of the taxpayer's household, or

2. Is a descendant or brother or sister of the taxpayer's parents and during the taxpayer's taxable year, received institutional care for a physical and mental deficiency but prior to such institutional care was a member of taxpayer's household.

Bureau Issues Penalty Caution

The Internal Revenue Service has cautioned North Texas businesses about a new penalty provision of the IRS Code of 1954, according to William E. Palmer, chief of the Childress IRS office.

The 1954 Code provides a penalty on business taxpayers who fail to comply with the depositary receipt system unless reasonable cause can be established. This penalty is one per cent of the amount of the underpayment of the deposit for each month or part of a month during which the underpayment continues.

Palmer reported, however, that the penalty does not exceed 6 per cent in the aggregate. The penalty also will not be imposed for any period after the date prescribed for filing the return (without regard to any extension of time) or the date the tax is paid, whichever is earlier.

Palmer said that under the new instructions taxpayers subject to filing returns on Forms 941 or 72 or both, whose reportable taxes in either category total more than $100 for any month except the third month of a quarter, are required to make deposits. These deposits must be made on or before the fifteenth day of the succeeding month for taxes reported on Form 941. Deposits must be made on or before the last day of the succeeding month for taxes reported on Form 720. In every case the taxpayers must secure validated depositary receipts for submission with the quarterly return.

Depositary receipts can be obtained from any Federal Reserve Bank or from a local bank authorized as a government depositary. Palmer stated that Internal Revenue Service personnel at the Childress office are available to answer taxpayers' questions concerning depositary receipt requirements and penalty.

CIVIL SERVICE TESTS SOCIAL WORKER TESTS

"The U. S. Civil Service Commission announces examinations for Social Worker (General) GS-9 $5060 per annum, and GS-7 $4205 per annum for employment at Sheppard Air Force Base, Texas. Full information and applications may be obtained at post offices in this region, or from the Executive Secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Sheppard Air Force Base, Texas."

an accredited agent of an educational institution or of a State Primary and secondary schools, preparatory schools, normal schools, colleges, universities, technical and mechanical schools are among those considered to be educational institutions. However, correspondence schools and on-the-job training are excluded. Attending night school while working daytime is considered "part-time attendance" and will not qualify the child as a student.

Amounts received as scholarships for study at an educational institution need not be taken into account in determining whether a child who qualifies under the above definition of a "student" received more than one-half of his or her support from you.

You are entitled to one exemption for each other dependent who meets all the following requirements for the year:

1. Received less than $600 gross income, and
2. Received more than one-half of his or her support from you (or from husband or wife if this is a joint return), and
3. Did not file a joint return with her husband (or his wife), and

If several persons contributed toward the support of an individual during the taxable year, but none contributed over half of the support, they may designate one of their number to claim the exemption, if

(a) They as a group have provided over half of the support of the individual; and

(b) Each of them, had he contributed over half of the support, would have been able to claim the individual as a dependent; and

(c) The person claiming the exemption for the individual contributed over 10 per cent of the support; and

(d) Each person described in (b) above (other than the person claiming the exemption) who contributed over 10 per cent of the individual's support files a declaration that he will not claim the individual as a dependent for the year. Consult your Internal Revenue Service office for information regarding the filing of these declarations.

Amateur Gardeners Helpful To Science

AUSTIN—Amateur gardeners who grow and preserve rare plants are performing a valuable service to science, Dr. Edgar Anderson of St. Louis, Mo., said in a University of Texas lecture.

Dr. Anderson, Shaw's Botanical Gardens director, described how researchers have found such plants to be valuable sources for tension-easing medicine and industrial gums used in making mayonnaise, butter softeners and inks for cotton-fabric printing. Recent successes indicate more rare garden plants will be studied, he said.

Sewage Waters Okay In Irrigating

AUSTIN—University of Texas tests show sewage waters can be used successfully in irrigating.

Minute physical and chemical changes in different soils indicate they are neither benefited nor harmed by sewage substances in irrigation water, Professor E. W. Steel and E. J. M. Berg report.

Sewage irrigation encourages accumulation of chloride in soils, reducing the speed with which water rises to the surface, a report on experiments at Balcones Research Center states.

The chlorides, however, are readily leached from the soil during flooding and should not accumulate injuriously when normal irrigation practices are observed, the researchers add.

Sewage irrigation increases pore space in soil and the crump structure, or tendency of very small soil particles to form larger pieces shows some improvement. Such structures are not destroyed by the addition of water.

Sewage irrigation is of considerable importance to the arid Southwest, the researchers declare. Whether it is sterile or slightly used, water is a natural resource and should be used whenever conditions permit.

Soils ranging from sand to clay were collected from various sections of the state and subjected to periodic applications of waste water. Repeated chemical tests were made to determine changes in the soil.

Using the proper fertilizer on pasture helps control plant mixtures, promotes balanced grazing and means more profits for producers. It's not uncommon for farmers to double pasture and meadow yields with fertilizer. A soil test should be the first step in the pasture fertilizing program.

Uranium Prospecting Circular Is Available

AUSTIN—A circular on uranium prospecting in Texas is available through the University of Texas Bureau of Economic Geology and State General Land Office.

The two agencies published the bulletin because of many inquiries about uranium occurrence in Texas and regulations covering prospecting and mining of uranium in the state, University Director John T. Lonsdale said. The circular includes suggestions of Texas geologists, point, information sources, methods of prospecting and marketing. Known occurrences of radioactive minerals are described and the map. The circular may be obtained from the University Bureau of Economic Geology, State General Land Office charge.

Habeas Corpus

Produce the body!
That in effect is what a writ of "habeas corpus" demands of a sheriff or jailor. That means: Bring the prisoner to court on a valid charge or turn him loose.

Habeas corpus has long been a standby of the "who-done-it" writer, but it has been a standby for us and our liberties for a much longer time.

In old times, the king or tyrant could jail you on a whim, with no chance of a day in court. No one dared to question him.

In 1215 the English barons had taken all they could stand from King John. They demanded his written guarantee of their rights—the Magna Carta. Among their rights, they wanted the right to a day in court.

The English Petition of Rights asked for habeas corpus in 1628. It said, "no man should be put in jail or held without cause shown to which he may answer according to law."

The Habeas Corpus Act became law 51 years later.

Our national Constitution says that "the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless when in cases of rebellion or invasion the public safety may require it."

Let's see how habeas corpus works.

Suppose a policeman arrests and puts you in jail. You have the right to be brought to court for a hearing. In court the judge should tell you of the charges against you and your rights to counsel and a fair trial.

But what if you don't get a hearing—in a reasonable time? Then somebody is unlawfully taking away your freedom. Conquently, your lawyer may go into court and get a writ of habeas corpus on your behalf.

The writ commands your jailor to "produce the body." Your jailor must show that he holds you lawfully or turn you loose. In court, the judge looks into the charges against you. He may hear witnesses. If he cannot find that you are held lawfully, he will order you turned loose. If he finds cause, you then can ask for reasonable bail.

National 4-H Week Set For March 5-13

COLLEGE STATION—America's 2,058,144 Club members will observe National 4-H Club Week, March 5-13, in many ways. A hard working group, they are proud of their achievements and as part of their observance of the week plan to give citizens of the United States an opportunity to see and hear them in action. In following their club program, they carry on practical demonstrations in the home and on the farm that involve every phase of homemaking and agriculture.

Their demonstrations and activities are conducted under the guidance of the Agricultural Extension Service in cooperation with the USDA and state land-grant colleges. Locally, the county agent and home demonstration agent are in charge of 4-H club work. Volunteer adults and older members, trained by the local agents, serve as 4-H leaders. Friends of 4-H also play an important role in the program by providing awards and incentives for even greater achievements.

Insect Control Guide Is Ready

COLLEGE STATION—Entomologists are trying to stay ahead of their worst enemies—cotton insects. The 1955 guide for controlling cotton pests is already out and available from county agents.

The guide lists each insect, the insecticides best suited for its control and includes proper insecticide dosages. A spray program for both early and late season control is given in simple, easy to understand form.

The bulletin gives information on how to make insect infestation counts and tells when to spray.

Again in 1955 the control program is divided into three phases—early season control, late season control and early stalk destruction and farm cleanup.

This bulletin should be a helpful and profitable guide to every cotton grower.

Copies of L-218, Guide for Controlling Cotton Insects in Texas, 1955, are available from county agent's offices or from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

No New Cases Of X-Disease Listed In Texas In 1954

COLLEGE STATION—No new cases of hyperkeratosis (X-disease) were reported during 1954, indicating the disease has been virtually eradicated.

At any rate, says animal investigators, the disease is curbed to such an extent it is no longer important to the livestock industry.

Concerted Federal State research was carried on between 1949 and 1953 by scientists in 18 states, including Texas, and coordinated by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Their studies revealed the principal cause of hyperkeratosis was highly chlorinated naphthalene, a chemical frequently added to lubricating oils and greases to give them "body." Some of the material found its way to farms and was absorbed by animals licking machinery or used crankcase oil. More found its way into animal feeds through greases used in lubricating feed-processing machinery.

Credit for eliminating the threat, once the cause was known, should go to the oil companies, manufacturers of petroleum products, and animal feed processors, investigators says. These companies acted in response to a USDA request to cease using chlorinated naphthalene in products used on farms or in food-processing plants.

Typerkeratosis, an often fatal disorder, especially in calves, was so named because of a characteristic thickening of the skin which accompanied the disease.

Issues Checklist GI Aid Deadlines

The Administration has issued a checklist of deadline dates for eligible veterans of the Korean conflict period who must apply for the grant within three years after they leave service or forfeit the benefit.

For this benefit, the President's proclamation merely set January 31, 1955, as the end of the Korean conflict period during which eligibility for the grant may be established. This means the injuries covered by the law must be sustained in active service on or before that date.

The President's proclamation did not change the deadlines previously established by Congressional action for certain benefits available to eligible World War II veterans.

These benefits and the applicable deadlines are:

World War II GI Bill education or training—For those now in training, no additional training may be afforded after July 25, 1956, except for veterans who may have additional training time under the Armed Forces Voluntary Recruitment Act of 1945.

Vocational Rehabilitation under Public Law 16—In general, no training based on World War II service may be afforded beyond July 25, 1956, except for certain hardship cases who are granted an additional four years in which to train.

World War II GI Bill loans for homes, farms or businesses—No guaranty or insurance will be available on loans made to eligible World War II veterans after July 25, 1957, except for those who have established a later terminal date under the Armed Forces Voluntary Recruitment Act of 1945.

Air Crew Sends Letter Of Thanks

Word has been received by E. P. Thompson, thanking him for courtesies provided a group of Air Force men, who spent about 10 days here in January. The group came here from Carswell Air Force Base at Fort Worth, to participate in an air-rescue exercise. They were picked up by two C-47 aircraft late on the afternoon of Jan. 15.

While here, the military personnel stayed at the Memphis Hotel, which Thompson operates.

The letter to Thompson stated that Maj. Thad M. Neal and his crew were enthusiastic in their praise of Memphis and the hospitality of its citizens, and thanking Thompson for his generosity and cooperation, and for transportation that he made available to the group.

The message was signed by Col. C. A. Neely, commander of the Wing of which Major Neal and crew are members.

E. W. Patrick Rites Held In Borger Church Last Thursday

Funeral rites for E. W. Patrick of Borger, son of Mrs. Lydia Braddock and brother of R. G. Patrick of Memphis, were conducted at 3 p. m. last Thursday in the First Baptist Church at Borger. Officiating was Dr. Moore, minister. He was assisted by Mr. Cryer, superintendent of the school where Mr. Patrick was employed.

Interment was in Memorial Gardens at Pampa.

Mr. Patrick, 63 years old, a former resident of Memphis, died on Tuesday of last week in the Veterans Hospital at Amarillo, of a heart attack.

Born in Blount County, Ala., he came to Lamar County, Tex., in 1894. He moved his family to Memphis from Roston, Tex., in 1920.

He, R. G. Patrick and another brother, E. O. Patrick, owned and operated a barber shop here for a number of years. Later, they operated the Pounds Hotel Barber Shop until E. W. Patrick moved to Borger, where he had been associated with the school system there until about five weeks ago, when he became ill.

He was a member of the Baptist Church. A veteran of World War I, he was a member of the American Legion and the Veter-

Burglars Strike Travis School Here

Burglars last Thursday night broke into the William B. Travis School and obtained about $35 in cash and currency, according to Sheriff Bill Haten.

The money was taken from a small floor safe in the office of L. L. Thomas, principal of the school. Entry was gained by breaking a window on the east side of the office, Haten said. Before shattering the east window, however, the burglars broke a window on the west but a locked door blocked entrance from this direction, the officer explained.

Officers this week were working on some leads in the case.

Boys' Club Sponsor Adds Second Weekly Recreation Night

Frank Smith, local Boys' Club director, announced this week that he has divided his club into two groups and has added another meeting night to his weekly schedule.

The club now meets on Monday and Thursday nights in the high school gym. On Monday nights the boys from the first, second and third grades meet. Thursday night boys from the fourth grade through high school meet.

In the past both group of boys had been meeting on Monday night. The group had grown until it was necessary to divide the boys to enable Smith to better supervise the program of tumbling, wrestling, and boxing.

Last week there were 17 senior boys, fourth grade and up, and 16 intermediates, first through the third grades.

The program starts each meeting night at 5:30 and is finished at 7. Smith invites any of the parents or interested persons to attend.

America's 2,058,144 4-H club members, working under the theme, "Improving Family and Community Living," will observe their annual 4-H Week during the period from March 5-13. The public is invited to join the local 4-H group in the neighborhood for their observance program.

Mizpah Guild Meets In Denny Home Monday

Meeting in the Denny home Monday evening, February 21, with Mmes. Forrest Power and Courtney Denny as hostesses, 22 members of the Mizpah Guild of the First Presbyterian Church enjoyed a continuation of their mission study of the Middle Eastern countries.

Calling the meeting to order and presiding over the business portion of proceedings was the president, Mrs. C. W. Kinslow. The usual matters of business, including special plans for renovation of the manse and the church fellowship supper were acted upon, and plans made to send the regular monthly box of necessities to the Children's Home in Amarillo.

Speaking about "Ambassadors of Faith and Good Will," Mrs. Boyd Rogers told of the remarkable progress which had been made in the past one hundred years toward establishment of the Christian doctrine in the Middle East. The Church of South India, according to Mrs. Rogers, is a strong organization and an on-going force in the cause of Christianity. Likewise, in Pakistan and Ceylon, equally deep-rooted Christian fellowships are converting souls for Christ and acquainting their fellowmen with the better way of life.

Though missionaries from this country and others are still an important factor in the forward movement of Christianity in those lands, the speaker added, the natives are doing a great work.

As "ambassadors of good will," Mrs. Rogers referred to Danny Kay's visit last summer to India as a representative of the United Nations' Children's Welfare organization. Also, Gene Duke of San Jon, N. M., was cited as an ambassador of good will.

"Gene went to Pakistan last summer as an exchange student of the International Farm Youth program. His trip was sponsored by the Ford Foundation and the U. S. Department of Agriculture. During his three months sojourn in Pakistan, he learned many things and was able to help them with their problems," she said.

As a finale, Mrs. Rogers, using a printed wool shawls shawl, demonstrated the way in which the East Indian women drape their graceful "seris." Mrs. Allen Grundy concluded the evening's program with a short story.

Tasty refreshments were served and the meeting adjourned.

The bull, TP Dandy Larry D 35th, was bought by T. L. Roach and Son of Amarillo, for $1,000. Potts also sold another bull, TP Dandy Larry D 43rd, to W. D. Price of Pampa, for $560.

Classes Observe Twirp Week Here

Usual procedures were reversed here last week when members of the Memphis High School junior and senior classes observed Twirp Week.

The week's activities began Monday night with a group of junior and senior girls and their dates and sponsors, Mrs. Roy Guthrie and Mrs. Mary Sue Beasley, making a trip to Childress to see the film, "So Big," made from the novel of the same name by Edna Ferber.

Many of the girls took advantage of their chance and made dates for the show, skating and other activities throughout the week.

School activities for the week ended with a semi-formal dance at the Travis Cafeteria Thursday evening. The boys were proudly wearing corsages, bought for them by the girls.

Midway of the dance, attention was given to the coronation of a King Corn, and Queen Cabbage, chosen because they were deemed to be most appropriately dressed in the Dog-Patch fashion of Sadie Hawkins' Day, which was held Thursday. Jerry McQueen was crowned King Corn by Dickey Craig, junior class president, with a brown paper crown bearing a mustard green plume and was given a cauliflower boutonniere. Ann Tiner, chosen Queen Cabbage, was given a crown similar to that presented to King Corn, and an arm bouquet of fresh vegetables. Terry Monzingo, assisted Dickey in the coronation, by showing the king and queen to their thrones which were nail kegs.

A close second in the King Corn and Queen Cabbage contest was Carlton Clayton and Mattie Lou Copeland. Honorable mention was given to Paul Wilson and Jean Foxhall.

Troop 35 Scouts To Tour Amarillo Air Base Saturday

Troop 35 Scouts will tour Amarillo Air Force Base on Saturday, as guests of base personnel, according to Scoutmaster Ted Myers. The Scouts are scheduled to leave from Scout Hall here at 7 a. m. and arrive at the base between 9 and 10 o'clock.

The group will be met at one of the gates to the installation by Air Force guides. After the Scouts and their parents are escorted to an Air Force bus, the trip of inspection will start.

Plans call for visits to the flight line, base weather facilities, the armament section, the Link trainer section, and the base flight operations section. The Memphis delegation also expects to witness some of the school activities of the base, as well as other items of interest, as time will allow.

Scouts and their parents will eat at an air base mess hall, at a cost of 35 cents for each Scout and 75 cents for each adult. The group will be permitted to buy candy, cold drinks and other refreshments at the base canteens. The visitors will be allowed to bring cameras and take photographs while on the base, Myers said.

Amarillo Air Force Base is one of the largest AF operations in the United States and the Scouts and their parents will see some of the latest jet planes during their tour.

The local delegation will be returned to the base gate where they entered, at the conclusion of the inspection trip.

Three or four more cars were needed the first of the week to be used in transporting the Scouts to Amarillo, according to the Scoutmaster. About 35 Scouts are scheduled to make the trip, he said. Anyone taking a group may accompany them on the tour, explaining that permission has been given for as many as fifty persons to be included in the party.

Plans To Rehabilitate Texas Gulf Coast Oyster Industry Underway

AUSTIN—Plans have been "practically completed" on a program designed to rehabilitate the Texas oyster industry along the Gulf coast, according to Howard D. Dodgen, executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

Dodgen said the first step will be to set up experimental plots in order to determine just what areas are suitable for oyster cultivation or "oyster farming."

The executive secretary said the work will be supervised by the director of coastal fisheries, C. W. Reid, with headquarters in the Commission's marine laboratory at Rockport.

Oysters, a valuable food resource, have been in sizeable production in recent years in the Galveston Bay area but the output still is low as compared with what it was many years ago.

The executive secretary said oysters deserve a major role in the coastal markets since they probably are the most nutritious of any marine organisms used for food, that come from Texas waters. Likewise, they are palatable, he added, whether served on the half shell or in the long famed oyster stew.

The program will be designed to build new public reefs as well as to improve the older reefs which now belong to the public.

"From this activity," said the executive secretary, "private individuals will gain more knowledge to be used on their private

Memphis Men's Kin Dies At San Antonio

Funeral services for Mrs. J. A. Finch, stepmother of Howard and Frank Finch of Memphis, were held Tuesday afternoon at White-wright, Tex. followed by burial there.

Frank Finch, accompanied by a brother, Orville H. Finch, Sr., of Dahart, attended the services but Howard Finch was unable to be present.

Mrs. Finch, 86 years old, died Saturday morning in San Antonio, where she had made her home for a number of years with a brother, James Lackey, who cared for her after she became ill in her later years. She was reared at White-wright. She lived here for a time before moving to San Antonio.

She had not been well since breaking a hip several years ago and had been bedfast for three or four months.

In her younger years she was a school teacher.

Mrs. Finch was a member of the Christian Church.

Her husband died in 1930.

Editorial

Nations Are Persons

Second in a series of guest editorials presented by the Rotary Club of Memphis in commemoration of the Golden Anniversary of Rotary.

Suppose every wage earner in Memphis got a notice today that he or she was going to receive a bonus of one month's pay this year. Imagine the celebration! Yet, the idea is not so fantastic; for that is roughly the amount taken from everyone's income to finance the preparation for international conflict.

But there are even more striking measurements. If so much of our life's effort goes in tribute to the present lack of international understanding, much more is involved in the threat of a complete breakdown. Atomic warfare, at supersonic speeds, threatens our very lives and all we hold dear.

These considerations should impress anyone with his or her personal stake in the advancement of international understanding.

But what can he or she do about it? To most of us the relations between nations lie far beyond our reach and control. The daily flood of news and interpretation about international affairs swirls over us, leaving us angry, fearful, suspicious and frustrated.

There are alternative ways of thinking about them? We might begin by looking for the things nations have in common, instead of for the differences between them.

Thinking of nations as people suggests the possibility of understanding. Where so much interest is common to the peoples of all nations, surely the solutions of their problems can be achieved harmoniously.

Public Schools And Democracy

Most of us are more or less prone to take for granted many of the things around us. Even though we know they exist, we often give them little or no thought.

Now would be a good time for those who may have been negligent in this, to turn over a new leaf, since March 7 to 12 has been proclaimed Public Schools Week.

Our democratic way of life would have been seriously crippled, if not impossible, if some system had not been provided, by which the citizens of this nation could develop their minds and expand their horizons.

If we are to continue enjoying freedom of thought and action, there appears to be no question that we must strive to keep our public schools dynamic and progressive.

CUSTOMS CHANGE EYED

We have read that women not only live six years longer than men but they are more hardy and hale along the way.

The male is considered much more fragile because (1) women outnumber men considerably today (2) one-sixth of all hospital admissions are for pregnancies and no male has yet developed this condition.

These statistics suggest there should be some readjustment to the old gallantries. Women should realize that they must take care of the old boy if they expect to have his company in future years.

Therefore, it is time to change the customs. Women should look to ways to keep their mates from exerting themselves.

It is the women who should supply the helping hand to the stairs, the seat in the bus, the bared head to the frosty air at funerals.

SOVIET WORKER'S PLIGHT

A new winter suit is no great novelty to an American industrial worker. He can buy one of excellent quality for substantially less money than he earns during a five-day week.

In Russia, on the other hand, a wool suit is really a luxury. The Russian worker must pay in about 47 days of labor to earn the necessary rubles.

Why should this be so? One of the reasons is that in this country commodities are produced and sold by competitive free enterprise—while in the communist states they are produced and sold by non-competitive government monopolies. So American retail stores are laden with a bewildering abundance of wares that most of us can afford—while communist retail stores exhibit sparsely-filled shelves and sky-high price tags.

"PLANT TEXAS"

is like an uncut diamond. Treatment will enhance its natural beauty. As a precious stone needs the skill of a jeweler to increase its value, so does Texas need the skill of its citizens in a program designed to restore much of the vegetation lost in the re-creation of the state.

"Plant Texas" is a slogan that has been heard often in 1955. It is the cry of a movement to save the land from the destructive forces of erosion. Texas and other states land is abundant. Man could reclaim the land and move on to virgin territory. This led to the unwise cutting of land and the careless pioneer. The time to start correcting the mistakes of man and water-scarce, unsightly alone, hasn't been the only reason. Four years of drought have completed the land and plant destruction. The time to start correcting the mistakes of man and water-scarce, unsightly of this year, the Governor issued a memorandum calling for an official "Plant Texas" movement. The program is being carried by the Texas Department of Agriculture in cooperation with the Texas Nurserymen's Association.

Idea is to encourage better conservation practices and create more and better plant-around homes, schools, public and industrial areas.

It is an opportunity for homeowner to participate in the re-creation of the state.

going over the January of Sports Afield, one sentence stuck in my mind: A train should be standard equipment for woodland trips. This was a new idea. As Ewart Aultry of the article commented, "I always thought of my face as a train through and to get a hold in. The odors it picked up were merely incidental."

expect your eyes to note a difference between a bird and a train and with your ears you get the cry of a goose from a dog. The sense of smell is highly developed as a bird of prey or hearing, but it is equally effective when in the woods. Did you know you could smell a snake?

One day a friend of mine stepped dead in the path and he smelled a snake. He searched and there it was behind a nearby log. He had "trained his nose."

planned that when he was in the woods and caught a special always took time to try to find its source. If he found a sniff at it for several minutes and try to file it away in his mind. After doing this for several days he found that the odors of woods were no longer just a mixture but separate and distinct things that he could usually identify.

er the snake experience, he decided it might be a good idea to give his sniffer a little training. The first lesson was down in a creek valley he was a faint but very pleasant started to crisscross and the air like a hound search for a lost trail. It took me 15 minutes to pinpoint the scent to a wild grape. I pulled the rest of the day. From the rest of the day. From the rest of the day. From the rest of the day.

of wild grapes the moment I caught it. From grapes I learned to sort many odors in the woods that formerly meant nothing.

It's an even better example of "the nose that knows" to sportsmen: One day I was with a friend who had a 10-point buck. To my surprise "How did you get him?" he asked. "Caught his scent," I replied. "A buck gives off a lot of scent when he's alive and moving; a little practice you can smell a good distance, especially if the wind is right. Of course, it's different with a doe. Her scent is a lot weaker than a buck's."

VA Gives Tips On New GI Insurance

Four important tips to the 200,000 veterans who have approximately $2 billion of the new post-Korea GI insurance have been released by the Veterans Administration.

First, VA said, don't send cash through the mail when paying premiums. Use a check or money order payable to Veterans Administration. Your canceled check or money order stub will serve as a receipt for your records. If you send cash, it may be lost or stolen and you thus will run the risk of lapsing your policy.

Second, get into the habit of paying all premiums when they are due. Although the law allows a "grace period" of 31 days during which the policy remains in effect, even if a premium due is not paid, you should consider this provision an emergency privilege and should use it only for emergencies.

Third, be sure you have named the beneficiary or beneficiaries to whom you want your policy paid in event of death and in what manner. This information should be recorded with VA.

Fourth, if you are paying premiums monthly, you should check the advantages of paying your premiums quarterly, semi-annually, or annually.

Civil Service Seeks Technical Workers

The United States Civil Service Commission is recruiting applicants for the positions of Architect, Engineer, and Junior Scientist. New minimum pay rates have just been set for the two lower grades of these positions. The new rates are $4035 and $4580 per annum, in place of the old rates of $3410 and $4205. For Architect and Engineer additional grades pay $5060, $5940, and $7040, per annum.

Vacancies exist in various Federal agencies in Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, and Arkansas. Further information or application forms may be obtained at any post office; the Branch Office, Eighth U. S. Civil Service Region, 333 St. Charles Avenue, New Orleans, Louisiana; Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Tinker Air Force Base, Oklahoma City, Okla.; or the Regional Director, Eighth U. S. Civil Service Region, Room 809, 1114 Commerce St., Dallas 2, Texas.

Lower Hog Prices Forecast In 1955

COLLEGE STATION — Hog raising will not be so profitable in 1955 as last year.

Larger marketing caused by increased hog numbers will lower prices this spring and summer, says John G. McHaney, extension farm economist. Later in the year, slaughter should slow and prices rise again, leveling off just below those of last fall.

After declining two years, hog production was expanded 13 per cent last year. The economist says an additional five per cent increase in the '55 spring pig crop is in prospect.

Generally, prices for hogs will be about "average" in relation to the price of corn. Producers should realize average profits where feed is plentiful and not too highly priced, McHaney explains.

Report From Washington

By Walter Rogers

Congressman, 18th District

Tax Relief
 Letter is being written during heated debate on the tax bill provides for a one year extension of the existing corporate rate and certain excise taxes and provides a deduction for each individual and dependent income taxes after July 1, 1956. This simply means that if you are single and pay a tax bill of $100.00 for the year 1954, you will be allowed to deduct $20.00 from that, leaving you owed by you of $80.00. If you are married and have two children, you will be allowed to deduct $80.00 from your tax bill if your tax bill is less than $100.00. The personal exemption that you claim (yourself, your wife and your children), then you owe no taxes at all.

method of relief was chosen it would bring tax relief to the low income group who so badly need every penny they can get their hands on. The tax relief would be identical relief would be given to those in the higher brackets, but they would receive more relief than the man, as many of them did not. The tax relief bill that is so much publicity last year designed to bring primary benefits to a very large group. For instance, the tax relief that brought relief to owning stocks in corporations would affect only 4.3 per cent of the people of this country. The simple reason that all the stocks of this country owned by that small percentage of the population. You will recall that many of us tried to force an amendment to the 1954 tax bill that would bring relief to the low income groups. We were defeated in this attempt by a very few votes. We were again this year up against the same group who want to bring tax relief to the few and let the many continue to bear their burdens. No one begrudges tax relief to anyone, whether he is rich or poor, but it seems to me that there should be at least some degree of fairness in the tax relief approach. I can never subscribe to the policy that tax relief for a privileged few is statesmanship, but that tax relief for the little man with a low income is fiscal irresponsibility.

Congressional Prayer Room

Shortly after I came to Congress, a move was started to provide a prayer room for Members of Congress. This movement has borne fruit and there is presently available the solitude, the quiet, and the peace of a room where a Member of Congress can go and commune with his Maker. No doubt, this room will be a great source of strength and courage for the men who are called upon daily to make the decisions that determine the fate of this great nation. If the decisions that are made are the result of a communion with God, we need never fear for the fate of this nation or our people.

Cyclones Start Baseball Season

With a game scheduled tomorrow, Friday, with Carey, the Memphis Cyclones tossed open their 1955 baseball season Wednesday by beating Lakeview 13-12 at Estes Field.

It was the first game for both teams and the boys suffered all the terrors of a first game, wild throws, dropped third strikes, and a reluctance in charging ground balls.

James Moss started for the Cyclones and went three innings before being relieved by freshman lefthander Billy Johnson. Memphis was trailing 3-2 when Johnson went in for Moss.

Lakeview climbed on the jittery freshman for seven runs and lefthander Campbell Morris went in to stop the visiting nine cold. Terry Monzingo relieved Morris and gave up two more runs before Lakeview was through for the day.

Jess Whittington of Lakeview went the entire seven innings with Frank Sahagun on the mound. The fireballer stopped Memphis cold until he tired in the late innings.

Trailing 10-2 going into the late innings, Memphis' hitting drouth was broken when Dean Sustaure slammed a long double against the centerfield fence. Then the dam broke on Sahagun and Campbell Morris drove in the winning run in the last of the seventh with a single.

Although both teams were having their bumps, the two coaches, George Childress of Memphis, and Jess Whittington of Lakeview, expressed confidence that their teams would be ready when District 2-B play begins.

School officials and coaches from the 11 schools in the district will meet in Turkey Monday night to make plans for the coming season.

Since Texas High School baseball is classified in only three divisions, AA, A, and B, Memphis will play this year in Class B.

The other 10 schools on the roster will be: Turkey, the defending champion, Lakeview, Silverton, Matador, Estelline, Hedley, Kirkland, Carey, Quitaque, and Flomot.

Coach Childress is fielding an all-veteran first team, and has 25 boys trying for the nine positions.

This year's team has only four seniors and according to Childress not all of them will be in the line-up at one time. "If fact," Childress said, "some of my sophomores and juniors are going to push them hard for starting assignments."

Lakeview uses only seniors and boys not running track on their ball club. Coach Whittington has only six boys from last year's squad and only three of these are regulars.

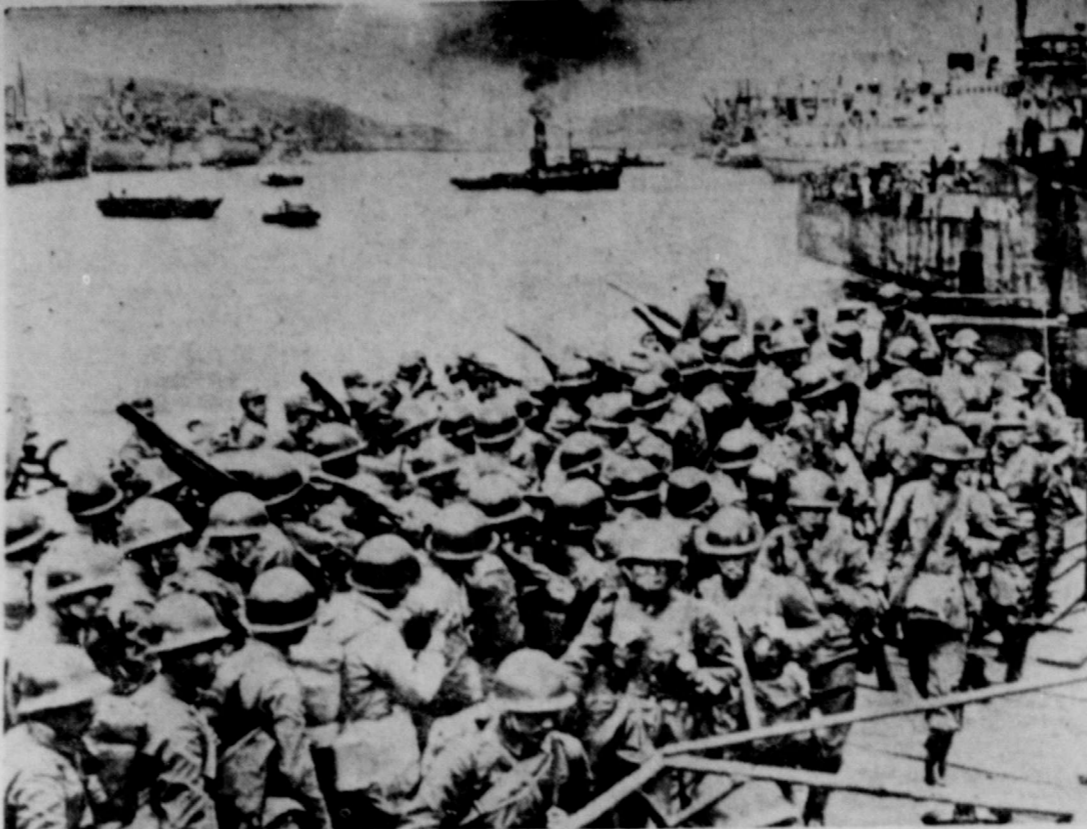

These three are Frank Sahagun and Shelby Hignight, pitchers, and Donald Clark, first base. Sahagun's early season fast ball shows promise of making him an outstanding hurler in District 2B.

The Cyclone hurling staff of two righthanders, James Moss and Terry Monzingo, and three lefthanders, Campbell Morris, Billy Johnson and Jerry McQueen, will be pitching to catcher Robert Hodges, one of the better catchers in the district.

The Cyclones are going to play at least one game a week at home when district competition begins, Childress stated. Season tickets for all games at home will soon go on sale in the downtown area for $1.

"We just want to make enough out of it to buy the baseballs," Childress added, "I don't want the boys throwing around old, sorry balls, for they will ruin their arms."

Cyclones starting Wednesday's game were: Sherman Clemons, ss; Robert Hodges, c; Dean Sustaure, 2b; Campbell Morris, 1b; Terry

All-district boys' and girls' basketball teams in the south half of District 1-A have been named, according to information released here last week.

Other members of the boys' group are: Jimmy Farren and Rodney Genn, of McLean; Phil Earhart of Lefors; and Don Sanders of Clarendon.

Completing the girls' team are the following: Harlene Smith of Clarendon; and Annette Smith, Marris Medly and Helen Bruner, all of McLean.

The charge of murder with malice and a $2500 bail was set Monday by Justice of the Peace J. S. Grimes. The woman is being held in the Hall County jail until bond can be made.
