TRANS-U. S. MARK—Lt. John Conroy, 34 of Van Nuys, Calif., flew F86A Sabre from Los Angeles to New York and return (5085 miles) in 11 hours, 26 minutes, 33 seconds. He's first pilot to make trip on one day.

HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT GOING TO CONSTRUCT NEW CONCRETE BRIDGE OVER INDIAN CREEK

Commissioners Think 2 To 6 Months Needed To Repair All County Roads

The present Indian Creek bridge on state highway 256, three miles west of Memphis will not be repaired, but will be torn out and a new concrete bridge will replace the present wooden structure, according to Palmer Massey, State Highway District engineer.

One pier of the bridge was washed out last Wednesday in the county's second flood in a week and the road to Lakeview and on west to Brice and Turkey and Silverton was closed for several days.

Wednesday morning Massey said that a graded crossing had been completed and traffic could again get across as long as it stays dry.

Massey said the Highway Department had already planned to replace the 19 narrow, wooden bridges on the highway, and since the Indian Creek bridge had gone out, they decided to go ahead and get construction underway now.

It will be a few weeks before all the details for letting the contract to build the bridges are completed and work begins, the highway engineer said.

Work is going ahead on the two bridges south of Red River on the same highway that were washed out in the first flood. Massey stated that the bridge nearest Red River is now able to handle one-way traffic, and the Antelope Creek bridge will be repaired in the next week.

The district engineer said some people might think that no work was being done on that bridge, but the forms for pouring the concrete culvert were being built, and would be moved to the site in the next day or two.

The bridge was two 10 feet by 10 foot spans, and they were not large enough to handle the water. A third span is being added.

The shoulders on the farm-to-market road to Friendship were washed away in many places. The dirt was washed from under the pavement at the ends of the Oaks Creek bridge on Highway 256 near Lakeview, but this fill has been made and some jetties put in to protect it. This bridge is one of the 19 which will be replaced at a later date.

Farmers Collect For New Terraces Damaged By Flood

Through the joint efforts of the ASC County Committee and the SCS technician, Hall County farmers with terraces on which all work had been completed to meet government specifications, will be paid in full although the terraces were damaged by recent storms before the terraces were checked by the SCS, Lynn McKown, local ASC office manager, said Wednesday.

On Monday afternoon, representatives of the Texas State ASC Office met with members of the Hall County Committee and the SCS technician. At this meeting, a plan was formulated by the group and approved by the Washington office of the ASC, under which all terraces that meet current SCS specifications will be approved for payment although they may have been damaged by the excessive rains of the last two weeks.

There are some 40 systems of terraces in Hall County on which conservation assistance can be paid although they have been damaged by floods, McKown said. These payments are being made through the efforts of the County ASC Committee and the SCS technician.

Another unusual entertainment feature of the meeting was the Boys State Band, recruited from those attending, who played musical instruments. The band was under the direction of Conway King of Brownwood.

During the week long meeting, the delegates heard such outstanding speakers as Attorney General John Ben Shepperd, Senators Rogers Kelly and Jimmy Phillips, Judge W. A. Morrison, and Dr. George Beto, a member of the state prison board.

The three delegates considered the visit to the capitol building as the highlight of the serious side of the meeting, and the Governor's Ball as the highlight of the entertainment program.

In the elections, McQueen was named district clerk after trying for district attorney and district judge in the nominating conventions. Rodney Lewis was appointed to the state agricultural (Continued on Page 10)

Weather Is Dry After Five Weeks Of Rain And Hail

After five weeks of rain, hail and wind, Hall County and the Memphis area had a relative dry week. J. J. McMicken, local weather recorder, reported only .16 of an inch of moisture for Memphis this week.

The threat of rain has been in the air almost every day as the skies remained cloudy and heavy storm clouds have appeared, but have failed to deliver any rain.

The .16 of an inch fell Monday afternoon and night. This rain here came without any accompanying wind or hail.

McMicken's record of the high and low temperatures for the last seven days is as follows: Friday, 64-51; Saturday, 73-50; Sunday, 78-53; Monday, 86-54; Tuesday, 91-62; Wednesday, 89-64; and today, 84-63.

Man In Jail Here For Forging Check In December 1949

Sheriff Bill Baten returned Claud Pegram here Tuesday from Shamrock to stand trial on a charge of allegedly forging a check on Dec. 26, 1949.

Pegram was indicted by the grand jury in Feb., 1951, for allegedly giving W. W. Martin a check and signing his father's name. His father, Jim Pegram, would not honor the check, the sheriff said.

The man is being held in county jail awaiting trial in district court.

Army Engineers To Inspect Oaks Creek Flood Area

Army engineers are to inspect the Oaks Creek flood damaged area and see what can be done about controlling the water from further rains, Harold Hodges, President of the Hall County Farm Bureau, said this week.

After last week's flood had damaged all the farms bordering this creek below Lakeview, Hodges contacted W. L. McGill, head of the Texas Civil Defense and Disaster board in Austin.

In a letter to Hodges, McGill said that Army engineers from Tulsa, Okla., would be sent here in the near future to inspect the flood damage and investigate the Oaks creek situation.

As of Thursday morning Hodges had not received any further word about when the engineers would arrive to make the investigation.

50 Boys Report For First Night Of Softball Play

Some 50 boys reported at the City Park Tuesday night to take part in the summer softball program for youths under 15 years of age.

There will be another meeting tomorrow night (Friday) at the park, and the league officials hope to organize the rest of the teams and make plans for getting play underway.

Two practice games were played between two Pee Wee teams, and between a Junior team and an Intermediate team.

This summer's plans call for a Pee Wee League, two teams of Juniors and two teams of Intermediates. An effort will be made to get out-of-town games for the Junior and Intermediate teams.

The Pee Wee teams will include all boys under 10 years of age. The Juniors will be 10 to 12 years old, and the Intermediates will be boys 13 to 15 years of age.

In the first game the Yankees, led by Don Gailey, beat the Giants 16-4. Gailey scored four runs for the winners and Don Craig led the losers with two runs.

Kenneth Allison, Bunky Adcock, Toby Crooks, Hoot Jones, Barry Phillips, Brad Posey, Jerry Moss and Buster McQueen scored for the Yankees, and Donnie Spicer and Larry Combest added runs for the losing Giants.

In the second game the older Intermediate team beat the Junior team.

Program Director Ted Myers has asked for four coaches who will work with the Pee Wee teams to be at the park Friday night.

Delegates To Boys State Tell Clubs About Meeting

Four of the four Hall County delegates to Boys State in Austin explained the workings of the American Legion sponsored Rotary Club, and Wednesday, Jerry McQueen and Lewis, of Memphis, spoke to the Rotary Club, and Wednesday, Lewis and Nolan of Brice, spoke to the Lions Club.

The fourth delegate, Dwain Estelline, is on vacation, and was unable to attend two meetings.

State is held each year in only high school juniors and seniors to attend. These boys from the Panhandle during this year's session.

Group is divided into two parties from 13 fictitious cities. Two cities make a county and two counties make a state.

Political parties hold nominating conventions and select delegates for city, county, district and state offices to run in general elections.

Boys said the nominating conventions are just like the nominating conventions of Democratic and Republican parties.

The different candidates nominated, and they make speeches and their supporters demonstrate supporting them.

Boys said he was hoarse for days from yelling at his nominating convention.

Boys Club Having Sale June 18

Memphis Boys Club is sponsoring a lake sale at the Tarver Pharmacy, Saturday, according to an announcement by Smith Jr., club director.

The money from the sale will be used toward paying the dues due on the trampoline and pool earlier this spring.

Boys wishing to donate either trampoline or pool for this sale should call Mrs. Frank Smith Jr., club director.

The Boys Club would like to function this summer with the work being done on the trampoline. The club is planning a program to be presented to the McLean Lions Club this summer.

Six to eight-year-old boys will be invited to the trampoline and pool sale from 4:30 until 6:30 p.m. Monday afternoon in the school gym, and the older boys will meet during the same time Thursday afternoon.

Program of trampoline trampoline sale being offered to any child. This program will be conducted from 6:30 until 8:30 p.m. Monday night.

It is a movement now to get a women's softball league started. Any woman who likes to take part in this should be at the City Park Monday night, Smith said.

The women's and men's volleyball program will continue on Tuesday night at 7 o'clock in the high school gym. According to Smith, all interested men and women are invited to take part.

A. A. Patterson Funeral Sunday In Estelline

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Estelline Baptist Church for Asa Alexander Patterson, 52, of Estelline.

Rev. Marvin B. Leach, pastor of the church in which Patterson was a member, conducted the services.

Burial was in the Estelline cemetery, with arrangements under the direction of Spicer Funeral Home.

Mr. Patterson, a farm laborer, died suddenly on a ranch south of Estelline Thursday afternoon while working.

He was born in Lee County, Miss., on Aug. 20, 1902, and came to Hall County 48 years ago. He married Miss Bertha Eddleman, Oct. 23, 1940, in Turkey.

He is survived by his wife of Estelline, one son, Billy Thomas Patterson of Amarillo, two sisters, Mrs. Jess Smith of Turkey, Mrs. Bessie Radriff of Tahoka, Texas, and his mother, Mrs. Bertie Patterson of Estelline.

Pall bearers were Pete Davis, L. J. Halford, Bill Collins, A. W. Johnson, Jim Morrison and Billy Collier.

Weather Rough At Scout Camp

Eighteen Boy Scouts of Memphis Troop 35 completed one of the "roughest" annual summer camps they have experienced in several years, when they returned to Memphis Saturday.

Scoutmaster Ted Myers said that bad weather forced the boys to do some real camping, and the worst weather conditions that he had ever experienced during a summer camp were recorded at Camp Kiowah, located near Canadian.

Garland Moore passed his requirements for the Order of the Arrow membership while in camp. Larry Craig was presented his first class scouting pin at the Camp Court of Honor. Scouts Jimmy Dunn, Don Deaver, Bobby Murdock, Wayne Lesley and Dan Durham were awarded merit badges.

During the first days of the camp, the full program of fishing, boating, canoeing, swimming, archery, rifle range, hiking, nature study, camping and advancement in scout ratings, was carried out. Wednesday the weather closed in on the camp and the water program had to be cancelled.

The cold weather program consisted of games and hiking classes to Camp Kiowah.

Scouts going to camp were Bobby Murdock, Garland Moore, Don Deaver, Charles Massey, Wayne Leslie, Kenneth Jones, Bunky Adcock, Don Gailey, Thomas Snowden, Dan Durham, Jerry Smith, Larry Craig, Jimmy Dunn, Gordon Newton, Robert Gardner, Henry Foster, Ronald Ables, and Scoutmaster Ted Myers.

Myers said that he and the scouts were grateful to John McCauley, Temple Deaver, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jones, Mrs. Lucille Ables, Mrs. Garland Moore, Mrs. Henry Foster, Mrs. Lloyd Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Gailey and Mrs. Bill Leslie, for providing transportation to and from the camp for the troop.

Dennis Is Elected Legion Commander

Hubert Dennis was elected commander of the Simmons-Noel Post 175 of the American Legion of Memphis by acclamation last Thursday night.

Dennis will replace outgoing Commander J. J. Roan, Jr., and will be installed at the next meeting of the post in July.

Other officers elected to take office at the same time are J. R. Mitchell, vice commander; Herschel C. Pounds, adjutant; Roy Guthrie, chaplain; Gene Lindsey, treasurer; and Chester Carson, sergeant-at-arms.

Besides electing officers for the coming year, the organization voted to pave the street gutter and parking area south of the Legion Hall.

Memphis, with more blocks of paving than any other town its size in the Panhandle, could have more feathers in its cap if all property owners along all the streets would do some face-lifting of their homes, lawns, flower gardens, etc. And by all means, the alleys should not be forgotten. A nice looking home front with cluttered alleys is like a dressed-up person who forgets to shine his shoes. Let's make Memphis truly the City Beautiful.

Wheat Parity Vote Saturday, June 25

R. A. Eddleman of Estelline, chairman of the Hall County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, has designated six voting places in Hall County for the wheat referendum to be held Saturday, June 25.

Here are the places where the eligible wheat growers of the county will indicate whether or not they want the wheat marketing quota program to continue in operation for the 1956 crop: Adams Store in Lesley, Paymaster Gin Office in Lakeview, J and G Grocery in Plaska, the ASC office in Memphis, Paymaster Gin office in Estelline, and the City Hall in Turkey.

Election chairmen at the different polling places will be Joe N. Berry at Lesley, Billy Hancock at Lakeview, C. R. Foster at Plaska, Joyce Webster at Memphis, Cecil Adams at Estelline, and W. W. George at Turkey.

Wheat growers are being notified of their wheat acreage allotments. All wheat producers who will have more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest in 1956 are eligible to vote. The marketing quota program does not affect those who will have 15 acres or less of wheat for harvest next year. The program will be in operation only in the commercial wheat states. Texas is a commercial wheat state.

There will be approximately 350 eligible voters in the county. If two-thirds or more of the nation's wheat growers voting in the referendum approve, marketing quotas will continue in effect for the 1956 crop. This will mean that price support within a probable range of 75 to 82 per cent of parity will be available to those who stay within their farm's wheat acreage allotment. Those who exceed the larger of the farm allotment or 15 acres will be subject to a penalty equal to 45 per cent of parity on the excess production, and price support will not be available for any of their 1956 wheat crop.

If more than one-third of the growers voting disapprove, marketing quotas will not be in effect and 50 per cent of parity for those farmers who stay within the wheat acreage allotment for their farms. Those who exceed their farm wheat allotments will not be eligible for price support.

Constables Pay Cut; Irrigated Farms Taxed

The Hall County Commissioners Court voted Monday to cut the salaries of constables, increase the valuation of irrigated farms for tax purposes, and set the length paid vacations for deputy clerks and janitors in the courthouse.

The salaries of the constables in this county will be lowered from their present scale of $165 a month to $40 per month effective July 1, 1955.

The county has only two constables in Precincts 1 and 4 to be effected by the wage cut. They are Jack Peabody in Precinct 1 and Bill Wedge in Precinct 4.

The court also authorized the county sheriff's department to hire a deputy for Precinct 4, which is the Turkey area. No date was set for hiring a new deputy.

His salary will also be set at a later date.

The commissioners also passed an order increasing the tax valuation of farms with proven irrigation wells. The wells have to be in operation one year from the time they were drilled for the increased valuation to be effective.

The size of the well will govern the increase in the valuation of the farm for tax purposes. An eight-inch well will increase the valuation $1,000, seven-inch well $800, six-inch well $650, five-inch well $500, and a four-inch well $350.

In a third order passed by the court, the paid vacations of deputy county clerks and the janitors of the courthouse were set at one week.

Recently, our fish pond in the back yard suddenly came alive with hundreds of small tadpoles. Dr. J. W. Fitzjarrald brought us a 2-inch mud catfish, saying it would get rid of the tadpoles. We thought it would be necessary to get several dozen such fish if we were to get rid of them, but after two days of the catfish's fishing, we note there are a lot fewer tadpoles. If and when catfish has completed his job in our fishpond, he will be for rent to any others who have polliwog troubles.

So much rain has fallen the past five weeks that a lot of stagnant pools of water are in every section of town, and the result is a very noticeable prevalence of mosquitoes. A good DDT spraying job might help a lot right now.

Start Control Of Insects Early For Better Crop Yield

COLLEGE STATION—Texas farmers are urged to get the jump on costly cotton insects by starting insect control measures early. "Cotton starts off faster, fruits earlier and yields higher when early season insect control practices are followed," Dr. F. M. Fuller, extension entomologist, says.

Initial dust or spray treatments should be made when cotton reaches the two to four leaf stage or earlier if necessary. Two to four applications of insecticide usually will control the season's first offender's—thrips, red spiders, aphids, fleahoppers and overwintered boll weevils.

Unless fleahopper and boll weevil infestations remain injurious, the early season phrase of insects control should be curtailed about 30 days before the bollworm normally appears. This allows time for a build up of beneficial insects which also help control bollworms.

Sprays are more effective and economical than dust on young cotton, Fuller says. More information on early season control is given in the 1955 Guide for Controlling Cotton Insects in Texas. This guide lists each recommended insecticide and its rate of application. The bulletin, L-218, also contains a detailed program for late season control of cotton insects. Available from local county agents, this bulletin is free for the asking.

TCU Award Winner Came To Texas To Visit And Stayed

Fort Worth, Roy Francis House, a Maine boy who "fell in love with Texas," has been granted the second Schlumberger Collegiate Award for study at Texas Christian University, according to Dr. T. F. Richardson, chairman of the scholarship committee.

The grant goes to a junior or senior of special promise in the engineering and scientific fields. It was established by the Schlumberger Well Survey Corporation of Houston and provides $500 for the university annually.

House, a major in chemistry and mathematics, will complete his senior year at TCU with the help of the scholarship. In his first three years, he has made an outstanding scholastic record and is a member of Alpha Chi, the national honor society.

The son of Delmar L. House of Greene, Me., Roy graduated from nearby Lewiston high school. He came to Texas three years ago to visit a brother, an Air Force officer stationed at Carswell Air Force Base here.

"I fell in love with Texas and TCU," he grins, "and with the help of my brother and many university officials, I've managed to get this far. Everyone has been swell and I just hope I make good."

Dr. Richardson and young House's professors have no doubt as to that score. "Roy is one of the most deserving students we've ever had," Dr. Richardson said. "He's worked and battled every inch of the way and is an outstanding example of how a boy with real determination can get his education."

At present, young House is not certain of his choice of careers. He is leaning toward a college teaching job in math or chemistry. He has never made less than "A" grade in any science course and has polished off such tough ones as German and physics with ease.

Despite his heavy course load and outside jobs, he finds some time for campus activities. He is vice-president of the Parabola Club and Alpha Phi Omega.

Non-Laying Hens Cost Almost As Much As Layers

A hen that lays 250 eggs a year eats only 25 to 26 pounds of feed more than one that doesn't lay an egg.

That's evidence enough why producers can't afford to feed a non-producer, says E. D. Parnell, professor of poultry husbandry at Texas A. & M. College. A four-pound non-laying hen will eat about 56 pounds of feed a year, while the same bird that lays 250 eggs yearly will consume about 81 pounds.

Feed costs make up 60 per cent or more of the total cost of producing eggs, says Parnell. By culling closely, producers can cut feed costs per dozen eggs and help maintain their profits.

Go along the roost at night with a flashlight and check the health signs of hens in production. Look for enlarged combs and wattles with a bright red color. They feel soft and waxy.

The hen's abdomen should be enlarged, but still soft and pliable. And, her pubic bones should be wide apart, with the vent, loose, moist and dilated. A good layer has loose, soft and pliable skin.

If a bird fails to meet these standards, put her in a crate and examine her again in the daylight. If she doesn't pass the test, cull her.

Mrs. Jeff G. Ray and two children have been visiting here for several days with Mrs. Ray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Finch. Lt. Col. Ray, who is stationed at Ft. Sill, Okla., will arrive this weekend and the family will visit for several days longer before returning home.

Modern broiler pans are smokeless and easy to clean. Cleaning directions: Remove broiler pan immediately, drain fat, sprinkled with soap or detergent and cover with dripping wet cloth or paper towel, or soak in hot sudsy water. Use mild abrasive lightly on stubborn spots.

When cooking meats in liquids, such as pot roast, it is advisable to first sear the meat so that the liquid or gravy will have a brown color and thus a more appetizing color, but the searing will not "seal in the juices."

Chill candles in your gas refrigerator for several days before using them so they'll burn more evenly.

One Day Apart

(Editor's Note: The following editorial was first published in the June 16, 1930 edition of the Democrat, and we feel that as another Father's Day approaches, it is fitting that it should be reprinted.)

Honor thy father and mother. That is the command of the Holy Scriptures, and is fitting and proper in this modern age that two days should be set aside during the year when the citizens of the world's greatest nation pause to pay tribute to the parents to whom they owe their heritage.

It is significant, too, that while neither of these occasions is a "legal" holiday, they are nevertheless observed throughout the land each year. The second Sunday in May has been set aside for many years as "Mother's Day." More recent, but almost as widely observed is "Father's Day" on the third Sunday in each June.

Next Sunday is Father's Day—in Memphis, in Texas, and throughout the United States. It was not created by law, but was given birth through a spirit of reverence on the part of the sons and daughters of the nation for "Dad."

Every person has someone to whom he looks with respect and gratitude for paternal guidance and help—if not his father, then some person who has taken a father's place in his life. That is a feeling often difficult to express, but one which certainly deserves expression.

A word or two, or a card or letter will do this trick. Next Sunday is set aside for that purpose. Don't forget Dad on Father's Day.

Communism Failed With Pilgrims

"The basis of American progress was discovered by the Pilgrims in 1623 at Plymouth," said a spokesman for one of the country's leading farm equipment manufacturers. In the beginning the Pilgrims tried a kind of communist state, but it didn't work. When the whole undertaking seemed about ready to fold up, two fundamental decisions were made which brought success to the little colony. It was decided that everybody should do what he thought he could do best—and, secondly, that every man should be allowed to have as much land as he thought he and his family could work. Embodied in these resolutions were the two principles of personal liberty and freedom of enterprise which have made possible the growth and phenomenal development of the United States.

Nowhere has change and improvement in working conditions and productivity been more pronounced than in the field of agriculture. An Egyptian of 5,000 years ago would have been quite at home using the implements and following the common agricultural practices in use in the 1850s. Since that time every facet of our agriculture has been changed almost beyond recognition.

The development of better strains of plants and animals, use of fertilizers and improved feeds, proper land management, and widespread use of farm machinery of tremendously increased efficiency now make it possible for one agricultural worker to produce food and fiber for himself and six other people. The ration of 85 people on the land to support 15 in other pursuits has been better than reversed.

Modern farm machinery to fit every agricultural task gives the individual farmer the power and versatility to put to use the agricultural knowledge which is available. The increasing productivity of the individual farmer has helped greatly to transform the luxuries of the recent past into the necessities of today.

QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

The Tamest We've Heard Of

The tamest request for a rate increase we ever heard of was put before the Littlefield city commission Thursday evening.

Southwestern Public Service Co. requested authority to raise rates of commercial users by one mill every time the cost of their fuel supply goes up half a cent. Residential rates would not be affected at all.

The proposal also included a clause to reduce rates by the same amount if fuel costs go down—an unlikely possibility.

If approved by the commission, no increase will take place immediately. But if the company's gas rates go up when their present contracts expire—as they expect—then the rates to commercial users will go by some three to four per cent.

It has been four years since the electric company last asked for a raise, and this is so much lighter than the 70 percent and 100 percent across the board increases that the telephone company has been requesting every year or two, that it hardly feels like an increase at all. If all the utility companies took it as easy on us as the electric company does, it would not be necessary that we establish a state utility commission to set rules.

We hope they have no trouble in getting their request.—County Wide News—

IN FRONT OF THE CROWD

This week we celebrate something that has become tradition in the town of Dumas—its annual Dogie Days celebration. It is being observed this year, as during the past nine years, because our citizens have made it something of general interest—something which once a year brings the people just a little closer together.

This newspaper would like to explore deeper into the reasons for the growth and success of our Dogie Days celebration. It carries hundreds of names, many of whom are familiar in the thin history book of Moore County. We choose Dogie Days as the proper progress tie-in because people are prouder of their town when they are able to laugh, greet their neighbors with a grin, be the occasion—one at curbside veiling a parade—or settled beneath a shade tree having lunch together. They are able to look at their town for an instant and see that more people are here than weren't here last year—and last year was bigger than the year before that.

Celebrations, in a way, are signs that a town is interested in seeing that its citizens are made to feel a part of a big family during the special event—and because people always will be the key to progress, you may judge its effectiveness by celebration interest shown.

The nucleus of growth, then, must first be centered around those who already have a mutual bond for existence—the businessmen and merchant. He is the man who first had to adopt this community before the people were able to live here. His faith which has been to a great extent responsible for our growth.

He may have come to the people several years ago... but the situation now is different. The people are slowly coming in because he is here, ready to accommodate, whether he must provide shoes, groceries, tractors... or this year than they did last year... they have made progress. If they have not, then progress, for their share, has lost ground.

There is plenty of room yet for building in Dumas. We have barely begun the climb, and the town is just now nearing its second building stage—with many of our first business houses abandoned in growth. It is the man who has no apparent desire to see a town make progress who is making no effort to grow with his town by meeting new business challenges.

There is good sense in the slogan "If you can't pull... push. If you can't push... please step aside."—Moore County News.

One of the first industries of natural gas recorded in Centerville, Butler County, 1840. John Criswell, in a salt well, discovered natural gas at a depth of about 700 feet. He burned this gas under his burning pans in the manufacture of salt, emulating a process of the Chinese many years before.

CHARM TIP of the WEEK!
by Barbara Bennett

"May I present..." is a more formal way of introducing and should be reserved for more formal occasions. "May I introduce..." is easy and acceptable, but even simpler and just as correct is the pronouncement of both names, such as, "Miss Smith, Mr. Brown". Teen-agers are young enough to abide by first name introductions, or first and last name introductions without "Miss" and "Mr."

LETTERS FROM READERS

June 4, 1955
The USNS Gen. H. F. Troopship, off the coast of Texas, 30 minutes south of Galveston. Here is a brief rundown of the trip.

in the middle of the Atlantic we had begun to get our details, our spirits to be high with an attitude I don't care what goes on these jokers do while I'm not planning to go.

'CALAMITY JANE,' the Federal Defense Administration's rescue truck, packs a wallop more potent than its namesake's six-shooters when disaster strikes, and people must be dug from debris. The $9,000 truck contains 300 pieces of rescue equipment of 99 different types.

compartments long, measuring 620 feet long, 70 feet wide and 70 feet from the top of the mast to the very bottom. It has four big engines, one 30-foot fan pushing us. The Navy calls it a screw.

On May 31 we docked in Casablanca and almost everyone went ashore for four hours of shore liberty to tour the place.

They got took for quite a bit of money, so I understand. One guy said he reached in his pocket for his lighter and two Arabs had their hands in there making change, so was their excuse. Anyway, there isn't much to tell about the place.

We got underway at 5 o'clock the same afternoon headed for Livorno, Italy, where we docked today for six hours. This is where the Leaning Tower of Pisa is, a pretty interesting thing. One can't just outright understand how it stands there without support, but it does. No one here speaks English, so all GI's coming here will have to learn Italian if they expect to get along.

We ordered coffee and they didn't know what we meant, so we said Kaffee, and they served it in a small cup about one swallow capacity. It cost 60 lira and it was so strong we poured it into a glass a little at a time and diluted it with water about three times and still couldn't drink it, strongest stuff I ever tasted. For information of any of you civilian young men around home there, if you come over this way, try to remember one name: Italia Nuova, and you will know you are docked in Livorno, Italy, and you are one mile from the docks. It's a tug boat. You'll be amazed at the load one of those can pull. They are only 30 feet long, 10 feet wide and ten feet deep, but they can lug the biggest ship afloat at four knots without help, and the ship can be loaded.

Tomorrow at 8 o'clock, I believe, we dock in Naples, Italy. The tour there will be Naples itself and Pompeii, along with one other historical sight, of which I have forgotten the name. We will be there until around 3 or 4 o'clock in the afternoon, then get underway to Tripoli, Libya, where me and the other 200 Air Force men will debark for duty on Wheelus Field, we hope. Of course, I would like to return to one of the wing detachments in Italy, which I probably won't. Most of Tripoli, I understand, is Italian; so it may not be so bad, except for the heat off the desert. This is where it starts, so a few old Marines have told me, and who should know better than they since they helped the Army storm the beach here against General Rommel under the command of General Montgomery.

We will go around Sicily tomorrow night, then there will be nothing but open water and the running fish, and one ship details to contend with until we dock in Tripoli on Tuesday, June 7.

Aboard we received the following: diploma, Royal Order of Atlantic Voyagers. With this we are supposed to be treated with respect everytime we cross the Atlantic Ocean on a ship. Tickets: Casablanca, $1.50; Livorno $2.50; Naples, $4.50; and Tripoli, 18 months.

That's all I know for now. Hope you folks enjoy what I've said within the bounds of this letter. Very truly your friend, Billie Fowler

IT'S PERFORMANCE THAT COUNTS!

'My regular job is piloting a United Air Lines DC-7. On most of my flights we use Phillips 66 Aviation Gasoline. It's high-performance stuff, and one reason it's so good is Di-isopropyl. Phillips has started putting Di-isopropyl in automobile gasoline, too. They call it 'FLITE-FUEL'... and I use it regularly in my car. It gives wonderful performance.'

commission as head of the seed certification program.

He said that he really learned a lot about how the laws governing the certification of seeds were passed and enforced.

Nolan Salmon was elected as a state representative from the Pioneer Party, and Dwain Kennedy was a Senator from the Longhorn party. These were the two political parties. Before being elected as a senator, Kennedy was in the nominating race of his party for land commissioner.

There was a supervised athletic program in which every boy had to take part. It consisted of ping pong, volleyball, basketball, softball, touch football, swimming, and track. McQueen placed second in the shot put.

All expenses were paid, and the boys received $2 for spending money when they arrived there on Sunday.

The entire program was under the direction of Firman Haynie, formerly of Wellington, and he was assisted by Legion members from over the state.

Politics gave the boys a big appetite, if the amount of food they consumed is any kind of a measure. They drank 278 gallons of milk a day, ate 100 loaves of bread and 125 dozen rolls, 800 pounds of meat in two days, 600 pounds of potatoes in two days, 12 cases of apples, 100 pounds of bananas, 158 pies and 50 pounds of chocolate cake each day.

All four boys felt they had received a wonderful chance to learn about local and state government, and also overcame some of their shyness about speaking before groups.

McQueen and Lewis both said they were afraid to get up before their classes and talk in school, but down there they made several speeches and it didn't bother them very much.

highway department would have all the bridges and roads repaired in approximately four weeks.

The County Commissioners are not too optimistic about the time it will take them to get all of their repair work done. G. W. Blewer, commissioner of Precinct Two, said it would take him six months to get all his repair work completed. Ed Hutcherson said that he figured it would take his crews about two months to finish their work.

Precinct Two, the Lakeview area, was the hardest hit. Blewer said he had about 200 miles of roads to be rebuilt and three big bridges and about 30 small ones to replace.

The large bridge on John Mann Creek and two big ones on Oaks Creek were listed by the Precinct Two commissioner, and the small bridges were scattered all over his precinct.

Hutcherson said that had two bridges 60 feet long to rebuild, and one 20 feet long which was out. Also, that all of his roads would have to be graded and some of them rebuilt.

Clinton Richburg, commissioner of Precinct Three at Estelline, reported that he only had four large fills to make near the Tell community, and one bridge to replace. This bridge was not destroyed by the water, but by the lack of water. It burned out before the last big rain.

He said that all his roads were rough, but were passable.

In Precinct Four, Commissioner Leon Lane said he had no damage and all he was having to do was grade the roads to make them smooth.

Mrs. S. S. Cooper In Denver Visiting Injured Daughter

Mrs. S. S. Cooper of Estelline is in Denver, Colo., to be with her daughter, Mrs. Gilbert N. Hunter, who was injured three weeks ago. Mrs. Hunter was struck by a hit-and-run driver while in downtown Denver.

At first it was thought that her condition was not serious, but later internal injuries developed. Mrs. Hunter has undergone two major operations the past two weeks. Sunday her condition was improved.

Mrs. Hunter is the sister of Olin Cooper.

Mrs. Claude Hickey visited in Pampa Sunday with relatives. Del Lee Hoover who has spent the past week here accompanied her to her home in Pampa.

Kinard To Head USO Fund Drive

Dwight Kinard, Memphis, Texas has been named as chairman of Hall County on the Texas United Defense Fund, the state-wide group which will sponsor USO's campaign for $640,000 in Texas this year.

The quota for Hall County is $800.00. At present there are 199 servicemen from Hall County serving in the Armed Forces. Kinard was appointed today by Mr. T. D. Deaver, who is District Chairman of the forthcoming fund appeal to carry on the familiar services of the USO to the young men and women of the nation's armed forces.

A major portion of the Texas goal, as in 1954, will be included in the Community Chest and United Fund campaigns throughout the state this fall.

has usurped the Texas Democratic Committee's function in the visit of Butler, and some political thunder is being put out. Butler wants Texas Democrats to unite so Texas may become a powerful state in political affairs. Whatever the outcome, Texas will have plenty of fireworks politically from now to November, 1956.

News from the Texas Press Association at the state capital suggests there may be a number of candidates for the governorship of Texas in the coming election. Among those mentioned are former Speaker of the House Reuben Senterfitt of San Saba, who was first to announce in 1954 but withdrew because of the death of his father; Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey; Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd; U. S. Senator Price Daniel; Associate Justice of Texas Supreme Court Will Wilson; Commissioner of Agriculture John C. White; and State Senators Otis Lock of Lufkin, Jimmy Phillips of Angleton, and Jerry Sadler of Perville; Ralph Yarbrough of Austin. Others talked as possible candidates for the governorship include Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, now Secretary of Health and Welfare, Washington; Roy Hofheins, mayor of Houston; Robert V. Anderson of Vernon, now U. S. Secretary of Defense; and County Judge Jim Sewell of Corsicana. Capitol talk continues on the subject that Governor Shivers may step out of office before the end of his present term to accept a high federal appointment.

This makes the fifth first of the week when showers and heavy rains have fallen in this area. The showers this week so far have been light and farmers are hopeful that the seed planted and being planted will not be washed over, but will be allowed to come up and grow bumper crops.
