Program Closes Schools Week Rites at Estelline

A large crowd attended a program in the Estelline High School auditorium Friday evening which culminated Texas Public Schools Week activities there. During the week, parents were invited to visit the schools, where they were registered by students.

Mrs. J. A. Ballard directed the program Friday night. During its presentation, all Masons present were requested to stand.

The program included novelty and patriotic numbers, choral readings, vocal selections, instrumental numbers, a discussion of what the Estelline High School offers, and a panel on the essentials of this nation's greatness. Harry Graham, minister of the Memphis Church of Christ, spoke on responsibilities of the home.

Ronnie Burl Bruce was master of ceremonies, and accompanists for musical presentations were Mrs. C. L. Sloan, Jr., and Mrs. Wesley Nivens. After the program was completed, homemaking girls served fruit punch and cookies in the homemaking banquet hall.

won such an award, according to Miss Kathy Phillips, director of the present group.

The presentation recognized outstanding performances by the musical organization, in making the highest ratings in the various types of musical effort. It was awarded Thursday afternoon, during a concert by the West Texas State College band.

During the day, the band received first division ratings in both concert playing and sight reading. In individual events, Carol Callaway was given first division rating for her French horn solo, and Judy Lemons received a second division plus rating for her clarinet solo.

Sharon Harrison, Monta June Saye, and Ouida Massey all made first divisions on their twirling solos, as well as their twirling trio.

Twirling also was graded on its competitive basis. The Memphis trio won first place among all of the ensemble entries, and Sharon took third place in the solo section.

Lakeview Residents' Son Wreck Victim

Mrs. H. J. Thompson of Lakeview and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thompson of Amarillo have returned home from Grand Junction, Colo., where they visited their son and brother, B. M. S. N. Frankie Thompson, who is in a Veterans Hospital there.

Thompson was injured critically in an automobile accident, while returning to California to join the crew of the U. S. S. Manchester, after spending a six-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Thompson of Lakeview.

He was thrown through a four-line barbed wire fence, landing 47 feet from his overturning car. His injuries included a broken spine, crushed disc, a compound fracture of the left arm, and cuts and bruises.

Thompson is to be transferred to Fitzsimmon General Hospital at Denver, Colo., for further treatment.

School Trustees Re-Elect Coaches And Principals

All principals and athletic coaches in the Memphis schools were re-elected, at the regular monthly meeting of the school board Monday night. The session was held at the high school.

Re-elected were: Miss Ethel Hillhouse, principal at Travis School; B. J. Thomson, principal at Austin School; Kenneth Miller, principal of junior high school; Weldon McCreary, principal of senior high school; and Judge R. Whitfield, principal at Morning-side School.

D. C. Andrews was re-elected football coach, and Nolan Poteet was re-elected basketball coach and athletic director.

All of the contracts are for one year. School trustees accepted the resignation of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Foard. Foard is janitor at Travis School and Mrs. Foard is a cook at Austin School. Their resignations will become effective Monday. The couple have been employed as custodians at the courthouse in Memphis.

Other business during the evening was routine. All board members were present for the meeting. They are: Robert Sexauer, president; J. L. Foxhall, Worth Howard, Edwin Hutcherson, R. C. Lemons, Mrs. John Smith, and Mrs. Henry Foster.

Supt. W. C. Davis also attended the session.

Damp Weather Comes To Area

Residents of Memphis and the surrounding territory were pleasantly surprised this morning (Thursday), when they awoke to find light moisture was dripping from leaden skies, in place of the extensive diet of dust they have been experiencing in recent weeks. But though welcome, fall to mid-morning was not sufficient to measure, John McMickin, weather observer here, said.

So far this year, precipitation has amounted to only .94 of an inch. However, the first months of the year are usually relatively dry ones in this section, and the total to this point is not too far below the average of 1.72 inches, which the Texas Almanac lists.

Mercury extremes, recorded by McMickin the past week, were as follows: Last Thursday 21-68 degrees; Friday 22-73; Saturday 34-85; Sunday 26-47; Monday 18-40; Tuesday 18-59; and Wednesday 28-50.

Group To Attend Highway Meeting At Wichita Falls

Several Memphis citizens plan to attend a committee meeting of representatives from towns on Highway 287 between Fort Worth and Dumas, to be held at Wichita Falls Tuesday, according to Clifford Farmer, manager of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce and president of the National 287 Highway Association.

Others, besides Farmer who expect to go to Wichita Falls, are: Herschel Combs, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce highway and tourist development committee; Eddie Foxhall, vice-chairman; and M. O. Goodpasture, a member of the committee.

Next week's meeting was set at a November session in Wichita Falls. At that time, plans were made to cooperate with the Texas (Continued on Page 12)

Memphis Defeats Hedley Nine, 13-10

The Memphis High School baseball squad took its opening game of the season Tuesday afternoon by defeating Hedley, 13-10, according to Coach Nolan Poteet. The contest was played on the Hedley diamond.

Memphis made 13 hits, as compared with five for Hedley. Fourteen errors in all were made during the tilt, with Memphis making nine of them.

Terry Monzingo started on the mound for the local squad but was relieved in the fourth inning by Campbell Morris, who finished the game and received credit for the victory.

Monzingo, who took Morris' place in left field, was the hitting star of the afternoon, knocking a homerun and three doubles. Cleve Evans, Memphis first baseman, hit two doubles and a single.

A Hedley player, Shortstop Bill Reeves, pounded out two doubles, to get the only other extra base-hits of the game.

Jim Harris took care of the catching chores for Memphis. Owens was the starting pitcher for Hedley, and his battery mate was Beavers. They were relieved in the fifth inning by Younger on the mound and Johnson behind the plate.

Poteet said his team looked good, except for errors. He said he expected to devote considerable time to sharpening the squad's fielding.

The Memphis boys will play

Attending Doctor Believes Condition Is Not Serious

Tom Tyner of Estelline was injured shortly before noon Wednesday when he was struck by an automobile driven by Rev. Jim H. Sharp, pastor of the First Methodist Church here. The mishap occurred on Highway 287, at the southeast corner of the Estelline square.

Tyner, 70 years old, was taken by Spicer ambulance to a Quana hospital. Preliminary examination disclosed that his left arm was broken between the elbow and shoulder. He also had cuts and bruises on his face, suffered shock, and was complaining of his back, Spicer personnel said. X-rays were made but it was not believed that his condition was serious.

Mr. Sharp suffered small lacerations on his face from flying glass from the windshield of his car, and also was in shock for a time. Deputy Sheriff Elmer Neel brought him to a Memphis hospital for treatment. He was dismissed Wednesday afternoon.

According to investigating highway patrolmen, Tyner started east across the highway toward the Texaco Service Station, stopped, and then started up again, as Mr. Sharp approached from the south. Mr. Sharp sounded his automobile horn and swerved the vehicle to try to miss Tyner, the report continued. However, the injured man hit the left side of the car, bending the radio antenna and shattering the windshield on the left side, and was rolled under a car, owned by his son-in-law, O. R. Lambert, with whom he lives.

At the time of the accident, Mr. Sharp was driving alone in a late model Cadillac sedan, patrolmen said.

Special reunions are scheduled for classes of 1928, 1929 and 1930, and those of 1935, 1936 and 1937, Mrs. Gailey said. Some special entertainment also will be provided, she added.

Piano Auditions To Be Held Here In Late April

Piano auditions will be held at the Methodist Church here late in April under the sponsorship of the National Guild of Piano Teachers, a member of the organization, announced Wednesday. Time of the auditions is April 24-28. Memphis was selected as one of the audition centers several years ago, and auditions have been held here annually since then.

Malcolm Frost of Portland, Ore., will serve as adjudicator during this year's event. In a letter to Miss Rasco, who is chairman of the local center, Frost stated: "I am pleased that I am to have the privilege of judging piano auditions in Texas. It will be my first time to be in Texas, something I have wanted to do for many years."

The auditions are not competitive but each student is judged by his own performance — according to length of time he has studied, age, classification, and (Continued on page 12)

Tower Installing New Screen System

Theater-goers of Memphis and this area will be able to see "Cinemascope" when the Tower Drive Theater opens on April 1.

This announcement was made early this week by Bill Boren, who stated that a crew of construction workers were now enlarging the screen area of the Tower Drive Theater. When finished, the screen will measure 72 feet in length, and will be 34 feet high.

"We're proud to bring our people the new concept in the moving picture field," Boren said. "Cinemascope has been called the miracle of motion picture entertainment. When our construction program is finished, true Cinemascope will be available here."

Among other improvements, which will be completed within a short time, will be the enlargement and remodeling of the concession stand, and the addition of new equipment; and complete factory re-conditioning of each speaker in the parking area.

"The pictures we will be showing on our new gigantic wide screen will be projected through Cinemascope's miracle lens. These new wide-angle lenses on our film projectors will give us near perfect a picture as is humanly possible to get on the giant screen," Boren added.

Careful attention is being given by the construction workmen to the enlarged screen frame. It was pointed out. Three heavy one-inch steel cables will be anchored in nine feet of concrete, and extra steel and wood bracing will be used throughout the huge screen frame. This is a necessary precaution to be taken where high winds buffet the big screens, Boren stated.

Added Courthouse Insurance Voted

County commissioners this week voted to increase the amount of insurance carried on the courthouse to $200,000. The vote was taken at the regular meeting of the group.

The insurance is to be divided among five Memphis insurance firms, as at present. The firms are: The Dunbar & Dunbar, Kinney, the McNally agency, Baker, and Charles Webster, and County Judge Tracy

Announce Parts In Senior Play

Members of the Memphis High School senior class are busy rehearsing a play, "No More Home-work," which they will present in the high school auditorium, Friday night, March 23. Directing preparations are Mrs. Glenn Bruce and Kenneth Miller, class sponsors.

Using a school setting, the three act comedy develops from circumstances, which lead to three high school students assuming roles of principal, vice-principal, and school secretary. Characters include teachers, and students, as well as several others.

Filling teachers' roles will be: Sharon Harrison, Miss Goodin, 50, mathematics instructor, not as mean as she seems; Betty Lemons, Mrs. Clendenning, 40, science, plump, and sensitive to heat; Jo Ann Odom, Miss Ogilvie, about 35, English instructor and drahma coach; Jimmy Hill, Mr. Harper, middle-aged, history, a confirmed bachelor; Jerry McQueen, Coach Guthrie, about 25, breezy and congenial; and John Deaver, Mr. Lundquist, nearing 50, the long-suffering, ambitious principal.

The following will play the parts of students: Monta June Saye, Pamela Jones, 17, capable, conscientious, and well liked; Jerry Hill, "Buzz" Bailey, Pamela's boy friend, who has more freckles than brains; Janice Smith, Shalimar Ames, a good-looking and over-indulged troublemaker; Edna May, "Midge" Murphy, 16, fond of rumors and bubble gum; Rodney Lewis, Faversham Lightly, a slow

County Youths Win Numerous Honors at Austin

Hall County exhibitors exhibited an excellent record at the Houston and Austin livestock shows, according to County Judge W. B. Hooser, who returned last weekend from the Houston show.

At the Houston show, Raymond Hall of Lakeview, exhibited a steer which took first place in the Junior Hereford Heifer class and later was awarded the reserve champion position in the Houston and Austin Hereford Heifer Calf class. Hooser also showed the Houston Hereford Heifer Calf class.

A county group of 15 animals, constituting a carload lot, placed fifth. Hooser said Hall County had more calves in the show than any other county.

Hall added to his string of successes, at the Austin show, when he had both the grand champion and the reserve champion females in the 4-H and FFA division, as well as the first-place animals in the Senior Hereford Heifer Calf and the Junior Hereford Heifer Calf classes. In addition, he exhibited the reserve champion Hereford female, and the first-ranked senior Hereford heifer calf and junior Hereford heifer calf, in the open division.

An animal, belonging to Gary Don and David N. Hudgins, captured fourth in the Summer Yearling Angus Heifer class.

On Saturday, Feb. 25, Daryl Long of Memphis, won a Hereford calf, in a scramble at the Houston show, Hooser said.

The Farm Bill in the Senate
While this newsletter is being written, the Senate is debating amendments to the farm bill. Three weeks ago it was almost a foregone conclusion that the Senate would vote 90 per cent supports for basic commodities. During the past three weeks, one of the hardest-hitting propaganda and lobbying campaigns has been carried on against the American farmer that you can imagine. The Department of Agriculture has been on the move to defeat every attempt to restore mandatory stability to the price supports. They want the discretionary power that gives them economic control over the American farmer. One of the worst mistakes that has ever been made in our history was the delegation of too much power by the Legislative Branch to the Executive Branch. As long as this power is exercised in a reasonable, sound manner, there isn't much to fear; but an abuse of it can cause widespread hardship.

At the present time it appears that the campaign of the Administration against 90 per cent props has been successful. We will know the answer before you get this letter, but it will depend upon what some Southern Senators do. If they switch over and support Benson and the flexible, the Administration will win and the American farmer will lose. It seems certain that the soil bank provision will remain in the bill in some form or another. There are many, many misgivings about this type of operation. In theory, it is similar to parts of the old Brannan Plan that was so soundly condemned by Benson's crowd in the past. However, the recommendation of it by Benson did not surprise many of us, simply because he has been following the Brannan Plan, in so far as wool was concerned, for some time. He seems to be trying to win a legislative battle at the risk of losing an economic war.

Civil Rights

There is an old saying that "politics produces strange bedfellows." There is another philosophical gem to the effect that "if you will just wait, that which is unpopular today will soon be popular, and vice versa." Both of these sayings were certainly proven beyond any doubt this last week in Washington. There was a "Leadership Conference on Civil Rights" scheduled for March 4, 5, and 6. A request was made by the Department of Labor to the General Services Administration that the Interdepartmental Auditorium be provided for this conference. The use of the auditorium is supposed to be restricted by regulations to the following: "a. Agencies of the Federal Government and the Government of the District of Columbia, for official use. b. Officially recognized agencies, clubs, or educational units of the Federal Government or the Government of the District of Columbia." See GSA R3-282-November 1953. Regulations and policies in the past have prohibited the use of this auditorium for "special meetings, meetings of a political, sectarian, fraternal or similar nature." The General Services Administration granted the use of the auditorium to the Civil Rights Conference.

Several members of Congress, including myself, joined in a wire to the President protesting the use of the auditorium for that purpose, because the propaganda leading up to this meeting clearly indicated the political nature of the meeting. The New York COMMUNIST Daily Worker of February 14, 1956, made the following appeal: "Support the mass lobby for Civil Rights in Washington March 4, 5, and 6." The Chairman of the Conference made the following public statement: "The influence of the assembly on the Congress will depend less upon the number of individual delegates in attendance than upon the number of states and congressional districts represented." Consequently, the purpose of the meeting was for lobbying activities, yet the Administration granted the use of the auditorium. Needless to say, all of the signers of the telegram to the President were Southerners.

The meeting almost turned into a cat fight, because representatives of both the Republican and Democratic parties got into a word fight as to who could take the most credit for desegregation and all of the trouble that it has caused in the last few years. The big question is—why have the Republicans suddenly adopted the Truman Civil Rights Program and tried to expand it. Looks political from here. I am happy to say that the only ones that have come straight down the middle of the road are Southerners, and I am proud to be numbered among them.

Investigations
The much discussed investigation of lobbying activities in the Senate is now on a high center and all four wheels are spinning. A lot of noise is being made, but nothing is being accomplished. It presently appears that there will be a lot of fanfare and trumpet blowing, charges and countercharges, and that the entire project will wither on the vine.

Farmers can't afford to gamble with planting seed of questionable quality. The cost-price squeeze makes necessary both efficient and high yields from all crops. Certified seed may cost slightly more but their use is good insurance.

Buying debeaked chicks for broiler production has become an increasingly popular practice. Advantages include the preventing of feather picking and cannibalism; live market grades are better, and some feed may be saved.

CAN ONE BE SAVED OUTSIDE THE CHURCH?

Many, many Christians lived and died before a denomination was ever established. Anyone, I am sure, will agree that denominations (one or all of them) are absolutely essential and have no authority in God's Word for establishing the church. Since the denominations we have around us are unnecessary some have concluded the church that is established (Matt. 16:18) to be unnecessary. This is erroneous.

I. CHRIST PURCHASED THE CHURCH WITH HIS BLOOD. (Acts 20:28)

If men can be saved outside it why did Christ die for a price for it?

II. PEOPLE ARE SANCTIFIED IN THE CHURCH
Sanctification is in Christ. (1 Cor. 1:2) and to Christ is to be in his church (Col. 1:18; 24; Eph. 2:22)

III. CAN ONE BE SAVED OUTSIDE THE BODY OF CHRIST?

The body is the church (Col. 1:18; Eph. 1:22-23; 5:23) shows Christ will SAVE His body, the church.

IV. CAN A PERSON BE SAVED WITHOUT BEING A NEW CREATURE?

We are a new creature in the body of Christ, the church (II Cor. 5:17).

V. CAN ONE BE SAVED WITHOUT RECONCILIATION TO GOD?

Reconciliation is in the body, the church (Eph. 2:16)

VI. CAN A BRANCH BEAR FRUIT WITHOUT BEING IN THE VINE?

There is no salvation for us if we bear not fruit, and must be in the vine to bear fruit (Jno. 15:4-8).

VII. CAN ONE BE SAVED AND CONDEMNED AT THE SAME TIME?

No condemnation to them which are IN Christ Jesus (Rom. 8:1).

Friends, the Lord will add you to His church (Acts 2:41) when you've obeyed the gospel (Acts 2:37-41).

This week Mary Owens completed 30 years of service with our Memphis Post Office. In turning back the pages, Mrs. Owens recalls, when she first started to work, the post office was located in the back part of the old Tarver building, on Main and Fifth Streets. At that time W. M. Owens was postmaster, a position he held for the next 11 years. The office was then moved into the Odd Fellow Building, occupying the first floor, and later moved from there to the present location. During the past 30 years, Mrs. Owens has taken great pride in giving the people of Memphis and surrounding territory efficient and courteous service.

Carnis writes us from Tokyo that she has enrolled in a flower arranging class. In Wednesday's letter she said, "Last night, I went to my usual flower arranging course. This time we used peach blossoms and yellow snapdragons. It made a beautiful arrangement. Sunday we are going to see Mr. Tachyuwa, who is a famous flower expert, under whom our teacher studied. He has just arrived here from Europe. They say he has some priceless vases."

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cooper and daughter left Wednesday for Lubbock to make their home... We are indeed sorry to lose the Cooper family. Bob, who works with the Western Cotton Oil Co., was transferred to Memphis from Lubbock, so maybe the company will some day send them back to live in our midst again.

Perhaps you have wondered how our friend, Mrs. Seth Pallmeyer, is making out with her new job in Georgia. Last week we inquired about Mrs. Pallmeyer from her sister, Mrs. Kesterson, and learned that she is enjoying her work immensely as house mother at Brenau Academy... this month she is to go with a group of girls to New York City where they will spend a week sight-seeing.

Although Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Davis of Corpus Christi have been away from our city for around 30 years, they still read The Democrat each week, according to a letter from Mrs. Davis this week. The couple recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. They were among the early-day settlers of Hall County. Mrs. Davis, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lovejoy, came to Hall County in 1892, while Mr. Davis came here with his family in 1900.

Mrs. Lloyd Ward and June, and Mrs. Mildred Stephens and Marcene spent Friday in Amarillo.

Mrs. J. N. Welch is visiting here this week in the home of Mrs. Dona McCormick.

Lakeview PTA To Meet Today

Members are urged to be present. A program will be presented and refreshments will be served.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to take this means of thanking Dr. Odom and his staff for their kindness and care while in the clinic last week. I also want to thank each and every one who sent flowers and cards and all who visited me. It made the hours shorter and I enjoyed each and every one.

GMC brings you the most impressive improvements of all 1956 trucks

Now we can show you these great new GMC's that are further than ever ahead of all others. Their advances not only clinch power supremacy—but reach into fields still unexplored by other truck-makers.

For example, GMC's Road Shock Damper Suspension*—plus a unique new stabilizer—produces in half-ton models a ride comparable to the finest passenger car.

An optional new fast-ratio cruising axle in light-duty GMC's gives you an overdrive's pace and economy without its cost.

Sharply increased engine displacement in both sixes and V8's gives you a power family unsurpassed in the light-duty field. Specifically, we offer 14.4% GREATER displacement on 6-cylinder models, 16.2% on V8's than our nearest competitors. And GMC V8's, mind you, match the shortest stroke ratios in the truck industry.

Styling is well into the future—panoramic windshield to sand-tight tail gate. Tubeless tires, of course. And a 12-volt electrical system is standard. These are some of the strides presented in new 1956 Blue Chip trucks we now have on view. The values are even more notable. Come in and get the facts!

*Standard on Suburban; optional at slight extra cost on other 1/2-ton models.

STATION — The Texas Safety Conference will be held in Dallas on March 26-27, sponsored by the Texas Safety Association, in a session on farm and ranch safety.

done outstanding work in farm and home safety and will tell their story of how youth organizations can help cut the accident rate on Texas farms and ranches.

"Motivation and Attitudes" will be discussed by Melvin T. Munn, director of public relations, Blue Cross-Blue Shield of Texas. He is from Dallas. Munn is an authority on accidents and their causes and according to Martin, is equally well known as a public speaker.

Presentation of awards to both individuals and groups who have made outstanding contributions to farm and home safety during the past year will be made by C. T. Johnson of Dallas. He is a member of the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Committee and Southwestern public relations director for Sears-Roebuck Foundation.

A short business session will conclude the afternoon meeting.

A ship that won the admiration and praise of the world during World War II was the versatile Landing Ship Tank (LST). Today, larger and faster, the LST is still considered the "back-bone" of the Atlantic Amphibious Force.

Coastal Bermuda grass offers a real opportunity for forage production where adapted and properly managed. It is adapted to the area of Texas east of the 30-inch rain-fall belt but under irrigation can be grown westward until the 3,000 foot elevation is reached. It has exceptional ability to respond to fertilizer.

8,700 Area People Receive Benefit Pay in February

During the month of February approximately 8,700 persons in the Texas Panhandle received benefit checks under the Federal Old-Age and Survivors Insurance provisions of the Social Security Act, John R. Sanderson, of the Amarillo Social Security office, reports. These benefits were payable because these persons had protection under the social security law. This protection has now been extended to farm operators who may qualify for benefits as early as the middle of 1956, depending on their age and type of crop produced.

Thus the Panhandle's self-employed farm operators (including sharecroppers) may find themselves qualifying for retirement benefits under this program when they reach 65. Should they die insured under the program, their survivors may also qualify for benefits. The year 1955 was the first time that earnings from operating a farm could be reported for this protection, Sanderson added.

Farmers who had net earnings of $400 or more from their 1955 farming operations should write the District Director of Internal Revenue, Amarillo, for the proper tax return forms if they have not filed income tax returns in past years.

Requests for information regarding tax return forms and taxes due should be directed to the District Director of Internal Revenue, Amarillo. Questions concerning the benefits payable under social security should be directed to the social security office at Amarillo.

Pneumonia Season Said at Height Among Livestock

With the danger season for pneumonia at its height the American Foundation for Animal Health warns farmers that early identification and treatment in livestock are the most important considerations if heavy losses from this disease are to be avoided.

Pneumonia is most often associated with bad winter weather, but the Foundation points out that it can occur in any month of the year. It has many causes and may strike in several different ways, making early diagnosis and treatment essential for loss prevention.

"The disease may appear in individual animals, or it can become a herd problem," says the Foundation. "Often it follows another illness or disease, hitting after the animal's system has become weakened or rundown. For example, pneumonia often follows swine flu, scours in calves or overeating disease in sheep.

"Pneumonia symptoms may be nothing more alarming than a refusal or reluctance to eat. Temperatures do not always go up. Often there is no cough or runny nose. Lack of such symptoms makes it hard to detect."

Texas Motorists Urged To Have Cars Inspected

The Highway Safety Council of Texas has warned Texas motorists that they face the "longest waiting lines in four years" if they postpone inspection of their automobiles nearer the April 15 deadline.

State law requires every motor vehicle in Texas — passenger car, truck, and bus — to pass an annual check-up on mechanical safety. It is unlawful to operate a vehicle which has not been inspected after the deadline.

Highway Safety Council Executive Director G. C. Morris said: "For the past two years, 1954 and 1955, the bulk of private passenger cars have been inspected well ahead of the deadline and there have been no bothersome delays or snarls at the last minute. This year, however, inspections are far behind schedule and auto owners who wait beyond March will probably have to buck the longest waiting lines in four years to comply with Morris estimates that 150,000 automobiles a year have to be inspected next five weeks to comply with the April deadline.

The soil testing laboratory operated by the Agricultural Extension Service at College Station has proved its value to the agricultural industry, according to a report from the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. Last year, 10,111 soil samples were tested by the lab's personnel.

Total honey produced was 253 million pounds per cent from 1954.

A 30-knot hydrofoil craft is now planned by the Navy to replace the 8-knot landing craft now used by the Atlantic Amphibious Force.

Fire Deals Neighbor Staggering Blow

Estelline—our neighbor to the south—sustained a severe setback last week when flames destroyed four of the community's leading business houses.

Memphis can sympathize with the citizens of Estelline and the surrounding territory in their hour of trial, because several of our firms fell victims to the same fiery demon in June of 1953, not to mention several earlier conflagrations.

We hope with all our heart that the same thing will happen at Estelline, and that the merchants and property owners who suffered losses in Tuesday's blaze, will find it possible to make new starts, better prepared to serve their friends and neighbors than ever.

We say this, knowing that conditions in this area aren't as good as they have been. But we also know they are not as bad as they have been, either—as those who were here in the '30s can testify.

And they will be better some of these days, for anyone familiar with this section, knows that a series of short crops is always followed by several good ones.

This area has been good to a lot of us in the past and we believe it will be in the future. It is our sincere hope that the Estelline businessmen who were dealt such damaging financial blows last week, can rebuild and continue to play a part in the destiny of their hometown.

Thinking Big Pays Big Dividends

We read an article in the March issue of The Farm Journal, a national publication for agricultural families, that we considered very inspiring. In fact, we liked it so well that we wanted to pass it along, hoping our readers who did not see it, might enjoy it, too.

The article, titled "The Boy Who Figured Big," detailed how 16-year-old Lamar Ratliff, with the help of his dad, Paul Ratliff, used a poor Mississippi hill farm as a springboard in achieving an unprecedented corn yield of more than 300 bushels to the acre, and nationwide acclaim.

When the idea of producing 300 bushels of corn on an acre of ground was initially put forth nearly 10 years ago, farmers and scientists alike scoffed, because that was 110 bushels more than the record at that time.

Lamar, with his father as a willing but skeptical partner, started his climb to the record, in 1950. He was only 10. That year, the father-son team spread manure and commercial fertilizer, and wound up producing 179 bushels on one acre.

Not satisfied, Lamar began dreaming of 200 bushels. But production the second year only rose to 187 bushels. Undismayed, Lamar continued his efforts, and in 1952, he raised 214 bushels, beating the entire nation. Lamar set his sights for the 300-bushel mark.

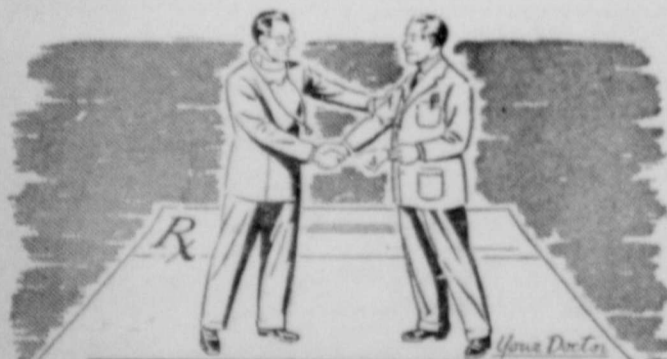

But his plans went awry in 1953, and his corn produced only 165 bushels. He took a new hitch, reshuffled his plans, and the following year, he made 218 1/2 bushels, his best effort so far. Nevertheless, a corn grower in Indiana surpassed him, with 241 bushels. But that only made young Lamar more determined than ever.

So, in 1955, he and his father remade their plan of planting and cultivation. When the final weighings and calculations were in, Lamar had a record of 304.38 bushels to his credit, and the 300-bushel barrier had been pierced.

All because, as his father says of his son, "That boy always did figure big."

Young Lamar Ratliff's desire to improve and to excel, typifies the spirit and the vision which, within a span of less than two hundred years, has earned this nation world leadership, but a position we will be able to maintain, only so long as we follow the course that achieved it for us.

Think big, America, and it will continue paying wonderful dividends.

QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

Court Exceeds Powers
Protection of "States' Rights" against encroachment by the Federal government is not a new problem... nor one confined to the Southern states.

That, of course, is the case at the present time. "States' Rights" advocates have, historically, based their case on the 10th Amendment to the Constitution, which provides that "The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the states, respectively, or to the people."

That article, quoted in its entirety, seems clear enough... but Supreme Court Constitutional Law decisions in recent decades have tended strongly toward the interpretation that the Federal Government is empowered by the Constitution to exercise all powers not specifically prohibited to it.

The Supreme Court, through its interpretations of Constitutional law, has actually created laws (as in the case of Natural Gas price fixing decision) although law-making is a power specifically reserved by the Constitution to Congress.

Several times in recent years Congress has been forced to pass laws correcting Supreme Court decisions "interpreting the intent of Congress" which actually changed our system of government.

Governor Shivers has suggested that States' Rights advocates should seek a constitutional amendment clarifying the rights of the states. That, it seems to us, is attacking the wrong end of the horse.

We doubt if a Constitutional Amendment could be drafted which could set out the rights reserved to states more clearly and concisely than the twenty-eight words of the 10th Amendment.

What is needed far more is a Constitutional Amendment which will spell out clearly... and limit... the powers and functions of the Supreme Court.

Article III of the Constitution, which creates the Supreme Court and the judiciary, is far less specific and far less clear in its intent than is the 10th Amendment, which spells out the rights reserved to the States.

The framers of the Constitution attempted to set up a system of checks and balances in the federal government... dividing powers of the President, the Congress, and the Supreme Court. Thomas Jefferson himself recognized, as one of the weaknesses in the system, that there was actually no check provided on the Supreme Court.

That weakness still exists.—Canadian Record

Economic Injustice
Within the next 30 to 45 days, Tullians and other persons living in the agricultural areas of our country are going to be shocked when we discover a price increase in many lines of merchandise. Despite the steady decrease in farm income, we're going to find that the price of ready-to-wear shoes, piece goods, hosiery all have been advanced in price. The same price increase will be felt in other lines.

Why the inconsistency? Why is the price of the finished product going up while the price the farmer gets is going down?

In a few weeks, the $1 an hour minimum wage will go into effect. It is estimated that the total effect will be a 50 per cent wage increase in many instances.

We are not arguing the merits or demerits of the increase in the minimum wage. Frankly, we don't see how any family can live on less than $1 an hour. That is $40 a week. If the wage earner is married but has no children, $2.70 of that amount will be deducted for withholding and 80c for social security. This leaves the worker $36.50 take home pay. We think even the most menial and unskilled worker is worth that much and we don't begrudge him a thin dime of what he makes.

But the point is this—no one is hurt by this price increase except the agricultural areas. The worker is benefitted. The manufacturer is not hurt. The investors who own the manufacturing plants will make their same rate of profit.

Why are we in this situation? It's because labor, through organization, is able to ask and get its share of the national income. It is because the manufacturer and processor, as well as other middlemen are able to pass the added expense down to the next man until finally the consumer is the one who eventually must pay it.

Why are we agriculturists made the goat? It's because we've been so darn busy here in the farm belt making sure that big business gets its share of the pie that we just haven't had the time or inclination to worry about our own problems. We've spent our time worrying about the plight of big business. Let's see now how big business reciprocates. Let's see how many tears big business sheds over our falling income and increased prices.—Tulia Herald

MRS. NELSON COMBEST

Miss Callie Gunter Becomes Bride of Nelson Combest in Amarillo Rites

In a double-ring ceremony Friday evening, March 3, Callie Gunter, 808 Jackson St., Amarillo daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Carey Gunter of Olton, became the bride of Nelson Combest of Memphis, son of Theodore Combest, Amarillo, and Mrs. Ola Combest of Paducah.

The Rev. Neil Record, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Tulia, read the service in the chapel of the First Baptist Church of Amarillo. An arch of greenery, flanked by baskets of white gladioli and candelabra, formed the decorative setting.

Mrs. Jack Martin of Groom, organist, played "Melody of Love" and "Clair de Lune" as the candles were lighted by Miss Mary K. Johnson and Larry Combest, son of the bridegroom. "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" was a nuptial prelude, and Miss Donna Ervin sang "Through the Years." The traditional marches were used.

Attending her sister as maid-of-honor, Miss Lorene Gunter wore a pink linen dress and a wristlet of pink rosebuds and white carnations.

Ed Cudd of Memphis was best man. Serving as ushers were Paul Sams of Petersburg and Al Burks of Tulia.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of egg shell pink lace over white taffeta, fashioned with a fitted Spencer jacket trimmed with seed pearls. The full flared skirt was ballerina length. Her veil of pink illusion fell from a cap of lace accented with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with pink rosebuds and white carnations.

Mrs. Gunter, mother of the bride, wore a navy jacket dress with sky blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Combest, wore a navy ensemble with white accessories.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party was honored at a reception in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Covered with a pink cloth, the serving table was decorated with pink and white rosebuds. Serving the wedding cake and punch were Mrs. W. C. Gunter, Jr., and Mrs. Uil Gunter, sisters-in-law of the bride. Guests were registered by Mrs. Paul Sams, sister of the bridegroom. Assisting in the house party were Mrs. Al Burks, Misses Berthamae Thomas, Joyce Measles and La Juana Ward.

For the wedding trip to South Texas, the bride traveled in a navy suit with navy and white accessories. Upon their return, the couple is to be at home in Memphis.

Mrs. Combest was graduated from Clarendon Junior College and West Texas State College, Canyon, and taught school for several years. At the time of her marriage, she was employed by Pritchard & Abbott. The bridegroom attended the University of Texas, Austin, and Tyler Commercial College. He is engaged in ranching at Memphis.

Attending the wedding from Memphis were Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cudd, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cosby, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Tucker, Mrs. Arthur Howard, and Mrs. George Greenhaw.

And he's helpless to do anything about it — until, when he grows up, he has to take off and try to find opportunity somewhere else . . . in the far places where his neighbors have scattered the community substance which Providence entrusted to their care.

Let's Give Our Junior Citizens a Better Break

Small communities . . . like this one of ours . . . are the finest places in the world for youngsters to grow up. They are the strongholds of the real American way of life and our country's greatest source of leadership.

Away from the regimented bee-hive life of the cities, a child has a better chance to develop the broad and independent viewpoint that makes useful leaders.

But . . . if we keep our small communities intact, with good schools and churches and comfortable living standards, we're going to have to slow down on the Great Give-Away . . . small town people giving away their community assets to Big-City business.

Former Lakeview Resident Injured In Auto Accident

A/2c Quinlan Joe Marler, nephew of Roy and L. O. McCoy and former Lakeview resident, this week was reported to be getting along as well as could be expected, after being injured March 6 in a car wreck near Lawton, Okla.

Marler, 20 years old, was critically injured, another companion was killed, and four others were less seriously hurt, in the one-car accident. Marler, who suffered a broken leg, scalp lacerations and had his right jaw broken, is expected to be moved from the Fort Sill hospital to Sheppard Air Force Base the latter part of this week.

The injured man lived at Lakeview until 3 years ago. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Marler of Amarillo.

The accident resulted when the automobile in which the six airmen were riding, crashed into the railing of a bridge, 5 1/2 miles west of Lawton.

At the time of the wreck, visibility was "practically zero" because of strong winds and blowing dust, Oklahoma Highway Patrol troopers stated. Patrolmen said a strong gust of wind may have caught the car and swerved it into the abutment just as the vehicle started onto the bridge.
