City Council Calls Election On Community Building Bonds

C. of C. Directors Discuss Progress

The regular June meeting of the directors of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce and Hall County Board of Development was conducted in the Cyclone Drive Inn Monday noon with President Dick Fowler in charge.

Directors present included Homer Tucker, Jim Beeson, W. E. Smithee, Les Sims, J. M. Ferrel, Jr., Dr. D. H. Aronofsky, Allen Dunbar, Ed Foxhall and Manager Clifford Farmer.

Fowler called attention to the start of a new building for General Telephone Co. as a division office which will serve a wide area from the Memphis location.

He also pointed out that the last remaining hurdle has been passed regarding the Cotton Classing office, and that plans were being prepared for remodeling of the old Wooten wholesale building for the 12-county classing office.

Fowler added that V. C. Durrett and O. E. Bevers, who spearheaded the original campaign to get the classing office located in this area, had done a wonderful service for all of Hall County in their untiring work and many miles of driving on this project.

The need for more rental housing in Memphis was discussed after it was reported that some difficulty was being encountered in finding furnished apartments for families now moving here.

A letter from the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce was read regarding a program there June 19, which will include a chicken barbecue. Fowler said that since such a large crowd from Clarendon attended the Memphis Park opening, an effort should be made to have a good turnout from here.

The caravan will leave the court house at 6:30 p. m., Fowler said.

Plans were approved to begin construction immediately on a cotton classing sub-office to be located in Memphis at a meeting of the directors of the Rolling Plains Cotton Producers, Inc. in Memphis Friday, June 5.

Frank C. McLendon, assistant manager of the Cotton Division of the Agricultural Marketing Service of Dallas, and E. H. Matthews, manager of the Altus, Okla. classing office, met with the group and presented to them the final blueprint and construction specifications for the Memphis office.

MRS. DONALD RAY KINARD

Nancy Jo Coffee Becomes Bride of Donald Ray Kinard in Andrews Rites

Delight and twilight blended in a soft illumination at the marriage of Nancy Jo Coffee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kinard, son of Mrs. Kinard and the late A. A. Kinard, on Friday, May 29 at 8 p.m.

John Freeman, Plainview, pastor of the Baptist Church of Andrews, officiated at the double ring ceremony in the sanctuary of the First Church of Andrews. While guests were being seated, Earl of Plainview played the traditional wedding music.

During the ceremony, Alvin Mendelsohn, uncle of the bride, "A! Sweet Mystery of 'Cause", and closed ceremony with "The Lord's Prayer." The "Bridal Chorus" single white lighted taper banded with daisies and greenery.

Entering on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride was resplendent in a gown of Swiss imported organdy. Embroidery accented the buffout skirt and a large bow formed a bustle effect in the back. Capped short sleeves tapered with tiny bows fitted the embroidered bodice shaped with a Sabrina scalloped neckline. A band of nylon tulle enhanced the flowing hemline. Her finger-tip veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a dainty queen's crown of pearl and sequin trimmed lace. The elbow-length gauntlets were of embroidered organdy tapering over the hands with tiny covered buttons. She wore a crystal pendent and matching ear drops. For something old and borrowed, the bride carried a white Irish linen handkerchief banded with lace that belonged to her great aunt, and for something blue — the traditional blue garter. She carried a cascade arrangement of long-stemmed daisies and English Ivy. The ivy entwined with miniature daisies trailed the length of the gown.

Miss Louise Broxson of Sunray served as the bride's maid of honor. She carried a colonial bouquet of rainbow-colored asters and wore a dress with short sleeves and full skirt. The waist was accented with a white satin cummerbund. She wore a hat of tulle fashioned around a pleated organdy bow.

Mrs. Allen Clinkscales of Duncan, Okla., aunt of the bride, was bridesmatron and Susan Freeman of Plainview was flowergirl. They wore dresses of white modeled after that worn by the maid of honor. The attendants carried colonial bouquets of rainbow-colored asters.

Bob Painter of Plainview served the groom as best man, and Glen Bruce, of Memphis, brother-in-law of the groom, was groomsman. Johnny Freema of Plainview was ring bearer and ushers were Virgil Wayne Coffee, brother of the bride, of Andrews, and Rollie Rinker, Bobby Jack Frye, and Ben Ballard, all of Plainview.

Mr. and Mrs. Coffee were hosts for the reception honoring the newlywed couple, in Fellowship Hall of the Church, with the sister of the groom, Mrs. Glen Bruce and other members of the wedding party assisting the couple in receiving guests. Other members of the house party were Mrs. Bert Stockard of Levelland, Mrs. Nelson D. Hall and Mrs. Charles Hall of Lubbock, Mrs. Curtis Nix, Mrs. Harold Biggs, and Mrs. Dick Ream

Wesleyan Guild Meets in Home of Mrs. M. Stephens

The Wesleyan Service Guild of the First Methodist Church met in the home of Mrs. Mildred Stephens, 403 South 6th, on Monday evening with Mrs. Walter Jameson and Mrs. Clyde Morris acting as hostesses.

Mrs. Barney Burnett, president, presided in opening the meeting. She asked Mrs. W. V. Coursey to lead the prayer.

Guild Weekend will be held at Ceta Canyon July 25-26, with the first session getting underway early Saturday morning.

A skit entitled "Time, A Most Precious Possession" was introduced by Mrs. Burnett, Mrs. Ruppert Wynn, Mrs. Arthur Gidden and Mrs. Burnett discussed the founding of the early missionary society in 1869.

The introduction read, "Time is one of our most precious possessions. Our use of it shapes our destinies. Tick, tick, tick, tick. All time is divided into three parts; the past, the present, and the future. Tick, tick, tick, tick."

Ten years later, the General Conference gave the women of the church the authority to organize for work in foreign fields. The first women missionaries were Miss Isabella Thoburn and Dr. Clara Swain, serving in India.

About 1880, the first home missions were established in New Orleans — fifty women heard the appeal and this was called the Woman's Home Missionary Society. One of the first things this Society did was the parsonage work which later developed into the combination of Home and Foreign Mission Society.

In 1940 the formation of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild was recognized. Some of the aims of the Woman's Division are: All Methodist women should vote; All Methodist should have civic pride and vote on community referendums for new schools, new hospitals, or civic centers (community building or auditorium); All Methodist women should know the capabilities of the women of the community (not hide their talents under a bushel); All Methodist women should participate in church and community affairs; it is the duty of all women, not just Methodist women.

Mrs. Gidden accompanied the group in singing the hymn "Take Time to be Holy" and "Take My Life and Let It Be". The skit closed by the women pledging more work and interest in shut-in members and elderly people of the community. Time is our most precious possession.

Guild members present were: Mrs. Mabel Lavender, Mrs. Hap Johnson, Mrs. Ruby Compton, Mrs. Gordon Gilliam, Mrs. W. V. Coursey, Mrs. H. B. Bennett, Mrs. Elsie Gidden, Mrs. R. V. Messer, Mrs. Arthur Gidden, Mrs. Mary Jameson, Mrs. Clyde Morris, Mrs. Mildred Stephens, Mrs. Ruppert Wynn, Mrs. H. B. Burnett, Miss Dorothy Gowan, Miss Neville Wrenn, Miss Ira Hammond and Mrs. O. B. Herring, wife of the new minister.

The next meeting will be in the home of Miss Neville Wrenn with Mrs. Louisa Merrill and Mrs. H. B. Bennett as co-hostesses, on June 22.

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to our friends and neighbors for your kindness to us in our sad hour. Linda Sue Widener, Frank B. Foxhall Marry in Pretty Home Ceremony Friday

In a lovely home wedding at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, June 5, Miss Linda Sue Widener, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Widener, became the bride of Frank Browder Foxhall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Foxhall, at the home of the groom's parents, 615 South Elm.

The Rev. O. B. Herring, pastor of the First Methodist Church, read the double-ring ceremony before the mirrored mantle-piece which was decorated with white day lilies and spiraled tapers. A large floor basket of white gladioli complemented the wedding decor.

Mendelssohn's wedding march was played softly during the ceremony and Lohengrin's recessional was played for the recessional.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Johnny Ward of Colorado Springs, Colo. Frank W. Foxhall was his son's best man.

Mrs. Ward was attired in an afternoon dress of pastel blue faille fashioned with basque bodice and full gathered skirt. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

For her wedding gown, the bride chose an afternoon dress of white tulle with organza trim. A tiny white hat and other accessories of white complemented her costume. She carried a prayer book topped with a single white orchid showered with white satin ribbons tied with love knots.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the Foxhall home. The refreshment table was covered with a white organza cloth and centered with a bouquet of ivory roses. Mrs. Thurman Widener served the decorated tiered wedding cake while Mrs. Ward, matron of honor, presided at the punch bowl.

After a wedding trip to San Antonio, the newlyweds will be at home at 623 South Eighth St.

Wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. Roy Widener, parents of the bride; Michael, Donald and Rickey, younger brothers of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Widener, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Ward, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Philippe, grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Oren Jones, grandparents of the groom; Virginia Browder, the groom's aunt; Rev. O. B. Herring, Adrian Combs and Mr. and Mrs. Foxhall, parents of the groom.

Rev. Aiken, father of the bride, read the ceremony in the Arlington Heights Presbyterian Church in Fort Worth.

Maid of honor was Miss Marsha Aiken, sister of the bride. Sloan Thompson served as his brother's best man.

The newlyweds visited with relatives here Tuesday enroute on a wedding trip to Colorado. They will be at home in Breckenridge after July 1.

The minutes were read and approved and all the group captains present gave their reports.

Pathfinders' Council Enjoys Luncheon Meeting in Mrs. Jessie Mitchell Home

Tuesday, May 26, the Pathfinders' Council held its final meeting of the fiscal year of 1958-59 in the home of Mrs. Jessie Mitchell. Members arrived about 11:30 a. m. and were served a luncheon. The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Jessie Mitchell, who acted as hostess. The business meeting was held at 12:30 p. m. and was presided over by Mrs. Gene Chamberlain. The following reports were given: Mrs. Gene Chamberlain gave a report of the year's achievements, which included: contribution of $100 to local hospitals for use of underprivileged babies; visits to shut-ins as the "Golden Years" program; placement of book-markers in local hospitals; a Christmas box to the Wichita Falls State Hospital; awarding of five dollars to the best boy citizen, Dan Gentry, and the best girl citizen, Paula Gentry, in the eighth grade; five dollars each to the two seniors, Virginia Chappell and Roger Crooks, for writing of essays on the subject, "America Means to Me"; the purchase of 100 tea towels as a group-making project; one hundred cent subscription to "The Clubwoman"; participation in the interests of the Texas Federation and contributions to all funds, totaling a score of 95% in the Federation Score Card. The theme of the year, "Lamp of Knowledge," was localized upon the subject of "Advancement". Mrs. John W. Smith, in her capacity as installing officer, after reading the challenge of Christ's leadership and quoting the scripture "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path," used the Lord's Prayer as the basic idea for the installation ceremony. Mrs. Smith had prepared an altar covered with gold. After her remarks, she placed upon the altar a lighted white candle and declared, "God is our Light". She asked Mrs. W. F. Ritchie, president elect, to approach the altar and light the candle. Mrs. Ritchie, in a blue and white dress, represented the blue heaven. The president elect quoted, "Father, who art in heaven" and lighted her candle from the white one and placed it next to Mrs. W. F. McElreath, vice president elect. Mrs. Smith handed Mrs. McElreath a candle and stated, "Green is the ever-lasting color." Mrs. McElreath, lighting and holding her candle, said, "Hallow Thy name". Mrs. J. J. McElreath, recording secretary elect, receiving her purple candle. Mrs. Smith stated, "Purple is the royal color", lighted it and said, "Thy kingdom come". Mrs. Jessie Mitchell, treasurer elect, received a brown candle as Mrs. Smith said, "This represents brown earth". Then Mrs. Mitchell, in a yellow dress, stated, "Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven". Mrs. Ernest, corresponding secretary, was handed a yellow candle. Yellow represents the golden from which we get our daily bread"; lighting it from the white candle, she quoted, "Give us this day our daily bread." Mrs. Gene Chamberlain, parliamentarian elect, received a silver candle from Mrs. Smith, who said, "This represents the coin by which we pay our debts". Placing her lighted candle, Mrs. Chamberlain prayed, "Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors". As press reporter elect, Mrs. LeRoy McCoy was given a red candle and admonished, "Red means danger", she said, "Lead us not into temptation". Mrs. A. Gidden, critic elect, received a black candle as Mrs. Smith remarked, "This represents dark deeds"; she then lighted her candle and placed it by the others as she stated, "But deliver us from evil". Mrs. Robert Spicer, librarian elect, accepted two candles, purple and white, as the installing officer declare, "Again, purple is the royal color and white represents the white throne, the seat of God's power". Mrs. Spicer then quoted, "For Thine is the kingdom and the power". Mrs. W. D. Young, press book custodian elect was given an orange candle as Mrs. Smith said "The orange represents the glory of God as it is the dominant color in the sunset". As she lighted and placed her candle, Mrs. Young quoted, "And the glory forever and ever". Mrs. Smith said, "No other prayer is so full of divine radiance as the Lord's Prayer. Its sixty-six words are Holy Chapel Bells which call the world to prayer. The entire membership repeated the Prayer in unison. In conclusion, Mrs. Smith pled, "May the strength of God pilot you; may the power of God preserve you; may the wisdom of God instruct you; may the hand of God protect you; may the way of God direct you."

Club members attending the meeting were: Mrs. O. M. Gunstream, Mrs. Anna Dickson, Mrs. Hester Bownds, Mrs. A. O. Gidden, Mrs. Gene Chamberlain, Mrs. Walter Hicks, Mrs. W. D. Young, Mrs. John W. Report From Washington necessarily mean lower wages because of more people seeking to work. The statistics also reflect the impact on small business and professional groups, of the many requirements of government that have burdened business in the past several years. Many people have given up small business and are refusing to go into business because of the complex requirements of the government in keeping records and making reports. This burden has been not only a physical burden on the individual trying to operate his own business, but it has saddled him with the need for additional expenditures for professional advice and help which we can't afford. Many young people in the professions have accepted employment with corporations or other business associations for the same reasons. Unless this general trend is stemmed, more such changes can be expected.

By WALTER ROGERS
Representative, 18th

Visitors

En route to Rotary International in New York City were Mr. and Mrs. John Fowler of Memphis, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Cain of Pampa. Both couples stopped by the office, and we appreciated the opportunity of seeing and visiting with them. Mr. Lewis MaGouirk of Childress is in Washington visiting his sister, Miss Jean MaGouirk, a very able member of my office staff.

Texas Traffic Deaths on Upward Trend, DPS Says

The Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety warned recently that a "definite upward trend" in Texas traffic deaths has been established this year even before the heavy summer-holiday travel season.

Col. Homer Garrison Jr. said unless something happens to change the trend, it could mean that an all-time record of traffic deaths could be in the making for 1959.

He said the death trend appears to be leveling off at about 10% above 1958 when 2,342 traffic victims were counted, and pointed out this could mean 233 additional deaths this year if the pace is maintained.

"With travel up an estimated three per cent this year, and with the Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving and the Christmas holidays yet to come, this could mean we're driving for an all-time high in motoricides on the streets and highways of Texas," Garrison said.

Garrison reported that as of Friday noon, May 29, at least 833 persons were killed in traffic, compared with 753 during the same period of 1958 — an increase of eleven per cent.

"This means 80 more lives were lost in traffic violence," he said. "We appeal to every driver to observe these cold, hard statistics and realize those summer trips are potentially more dangerous this year than last."

"We also must realize it is extremely likely that one of the biggest killers on the long, hot summer road is fatigue — an insidious demon that can attack even those of us who observe all the other known safe driving practices."

"Our statistics cannot reflect how many traffic deaths are caused by fatigue, only that the death car was on the wrong side of the road, ran off the road, or rammed into a slower moving vehicle. They cannot tell us that the driver was asleep, or nodded at the wrong split second."

"Don't let your vacation enthusiasm cause you to drive when you should be resting. Don't push yourself to make up for lost time. Do Not get caught napping at the wheel," he concluded.

New Law Names Successors To Governors Job

Wherever you live in Texas, after August 12, a potential successor to the office of Governor will be living near you.

A new law, passed by the 56th Legislature and signed by Governor Price Daniel, becomes effective on that date. It extends by 13 the number of persons who can legally succeed the governor without a special election. Most of the 13 live outside Austin.

The purpose is to assure the state a chief executive in case of calamitous occurrence, such as atomic attack.

Previously the only legally designated successors to the governor were the lieutenant governor and president pro tempore of the Senate. Added to those now are the speaker of the House, the Attorney General, and he chief justices of the eleven courts of civil appeals in their numerical order.

"Enactment of this law is a significant milestone in Texas' survival preparedness program," said James H. Gardner, acting coordinator of civil defense and disaster relief. "Continuity of government at all levels is basic to civil defense, and the short line of succession to the governorship here has been a matter of serious concern."

The civil appeals judges represent an extra safety margin since they are scattered geographically over the state. Their courts are located at Galveston, Fort Worth, Austin, San Antonio, Dallas, Texas, Amarillo, El Paso, Waco and Eastland.

The smallest part of a Swiss watch is a screw that is so tiny, 50,000 of them would fit in an ordinary thimble.

New Publication Covers Insects In Corn Sorghum

A "Texas Guide for Controlling Insects on Corn, Sorghum, Small Grain and Grasses", is the title of a new publication released by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The insecticides to use for control of these insects are given along with the amount of the insecticide to use. Also listed are the major pests of these groups and the way to identify each.

How to make infestation counts, when to spray and seed treatments to control certain soil insects are discussed. Included is a discussion on rice pests and their control.

A diagram of a homemade-type seed treater to be used for better control of southern corn rootworms, wireworms and seed corn maggot is included.

Results of research indicate that sprays and dusts are equally effective in most areas when properly applied. Copies of the publication are available from local county agents or the Agricultural Information Office, College Station. Ask for MP-399.

Your SOCIAL SECURITY

When is the last time you took a good look at the financial side of yourself?

Periodic stock taking is recognized as a good business practice. It helps the businessman to find out how he stands and to plan for the future successful operation of his enterprise. In the same fashion, you should regularly take stock of your "business" — your personal financial holdings, such as savings, life insurance, government bonds, social security and the like. It will help you plan your retirement, to make provision for your family in the event of death and to provide some measure of protection if you become disabled for work.

As part of this regular personal stock taking, you should make sure that your social security record is in good order. Your future benefits under this insurance program, in the case of retirement, death or disability, are based on your social security account. You want to be certain, therefore, that your earnings have been correctly reported; that no error has been made because of an incorrectly reported social security number, misspelled name or the like. You want to be certain that when the time comes you and your family will receive all that is properly payable.

Your social security office will furnish you with a handy postcard which you may use to request a statement of the earnings credited to your account. There is no charge for this service. Gets the National Income?

The gross national income of the country has been increasing measurably. In 1955 it was $391.7 billion; in 1956 it jumped to $417.7 billion; in 1957 it was $437.9 billion; in 1958 it was $437.9 billion, and it is estimated that it will reach $467 billion in 1959.

The increase is not really as great as it would appear because of the inflationary trends which have developed—meaning that it takes more dollars to buy the same amount of goods. In other words, the increase is not as great as it appears in constant 1947 dollars.

Even in the event the people wonder if they get this income, and that is what I propose to try to tell you in this newsletter. The information is compiled from statistics gathered together by the Department of Commerce on the subject and is considered most accurate.

It seems that the persons who are receiving a wage and salary are now enjoying the largest increase in their share of the national income. The records reflect that wage and salary earners are now getting approximately 71 per cent of the national income. This figure includes the wage benefits and the social security insurance, such as social security and unemployment compensation benefits. This means that wage rates have increased at a more rapid rate, percentage wise, than has the national income.

The share of wage and salary earners, including social security fringe benefits, it the result of wage rates which have increased faster than the national income.

The measurable increase in interest rates has resulted in a substantial increase for those who own money or who own interest-bearing mortgages and bonds. In the share of this group has declined since World War II. In 1946 this group was getting 1.7c out of each dollar; in 1949 this had increased to 2.2c, and now it stands at 3.7c. This is a long way from the tremendous take that was being enjoyed by that group during the heyday of the late 20's, but this share seems to be on the upward trend.

Contrary to the general opinion of many, and contrary to some of the propaganda that has been passed around this country about the amount of money going into the hands of farmers, the records reflect that the farm group is receiving less than 50 per cent of what it was 13 years ago. The present take of the farm group is less than 4c of every national income dollar. This is not an all-time low, but it is getting pretty close. The all-time low occurred in 1957 when the farm group was getting 3.2c out of every national income dollar.

Another group which has been hit hard is the small business and professional group. This group is receiving less of the national income dollar today than it has any time since the great depression days of the early 30's. They get 8.6c out of every dollar of the national income. In 1946 this group was receiving 13c. Hence, they have been on a continual decline since the end of World War II. Some think that if the small business income was separated from the professional income, the facts would be more startling. It seems that professional income, when taken separately, has been slightly on the rise. This means that the small businessman has suffered a great deal more than is reflected by the figures, which lumps both the professional and small business income together.

The group receiving rents has stayed about the same — that is, about 3.4c out of each dollar.

Another group which has been on the decline is the management group, which is concerned primarily with corporate profits. The reduction in that group has been from 17c in 1950 down to 10c this year. It was 12 1/2c in 1946.

These marked changes indicate many things — a few of which are as follows: Many farmers are continuing to leave the farms and moving into the labor market. It must be remembered that the labor market has a minimum wage and maximum hour law. Hence, a greater number of people moving into the labor market would not

OPTOMETRY: The Art and Science of Visual Care

This is a sign of LIFE

It takes time to see and time to act. That's why good vision is important to safe driving.

With 20/50 vision, you won't see a STOP sign nearer than 90 feet. At 60 miles an hour you will be 200 feet PAST the sign before you can stop.

And at night the problem is multiplied. That's why two-thirds of all traffic deaths occur at night.

Seeing quickly and clearly is vital to safe driving. An examination by a professional optometrist every year can tell you if you are visually prepared to drive. He might help you save a life — maybe your own.

Don't live to regret! Live to be thankful that you could see the Sign of Life.

A Step Forward For A Growing Industry

This week officials of Waples-Platter Co. announced that they will close the Vernon office of their wholesale grocery organization and consolidate the business of that office with the branch of their firm located here.

This move will mean that about five more families will make their homes in Memphis. We should feel honored that the firm saw fit to consolidate the territory with the wholesale branch here.

Some people may think that five families are just a drop in the bucket compared to the number of persons who go to make up a community, but let us all remember that if we had 20 such concerns operating out of Memphis then we would have the equivalent of a 100-man factory payroll.

We would like to be among the first to welcome these new families to Memphis and to express our thanks to their firm for the faith shown in our community.

How Well We Know

In case anyone is interested, the House of Representatives Agriculture Committee in Washington reported the first of this month that retail food prices have risen 20 per cent while farm prices have dropped 8 per cent, all in the past 10 years.

All of us who have a bite taken out of our income to support this sort of spending are bitter about it, but it is frustrating not to be able to do anything about it.

In the news this week were a few instances of what is being done with your money.

In Michigan, a doctor was paid $41,000 for 2 months work taking X-rays for the Army induction station.

The Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs is another case in point. Already the Air Force has maneuvered around and spent twice as many million dollars on the academy as congress ever authorized.

Around and About
By HELEN COMBS

A community like an individual cannot stand still . . . either it progresses forward or it slides backward. This is a proven fact. We small town residents have complained long and loud the past few years of losing our citizens, especially the younger families, to the big cities.

Could our trouble be we are sliding backward while the cities are going forward? We in the small communities have many advantages to offer families with growing children over the city. Here one can rear children in the peace and quiet and safety of a wholesome atmosphere surrounded by friends with common interests and tastes.

But our society of today is demanding more than the peace and quiet of the countryside. They want good schools, modern churches, good hospitals, modern homes and good recreational facilities. The cities have met these demands. They have voted bonds and raised taxes to build modern improvements. City taxes are several times higher than they are in the smaller towns.

We can offer the same advantages . . . by taking the same steps. Recently Memphians voted a $75,000 improvement program for the school which will be an asset to the community.

Shortly citizens will have the privilege of deciding on spending $50,000 on a community building. This is something Memphis has long needed and a project the Federated Women's clubs of Memphis has worked toward for years.

Plans are also in the making for a completely modern county hospital that will be adequate to serve the needs of this large medical area. It is another much-needed asset for the area.

The community building, as planned, will have an auditorium that will seat around 600 persons. It will also feature a completely modern kitchen and rooms suitable for smaller gatherings and club meetings. Memphis has long been handicapped by not having a place to hold community gatherings . . . thus failing to bring to the county many out-of-town residents . . . all of whom could be prospective shoppers.

The building is not something that would be used occasionally . . . but one that would be used weekly and oftener. At present the three service clubs, the Rotary, Lions and B&PW Club, are through the generosity of the Masonic Lodge, using their dining hall. Since this room is up two long flights of stairs, some older people and those who are ill, are unable to attend the meetings. These organizations would hold weekly meetings there.

Although we are district headquarters for the Memphis Production Credit Association . . . a district meeting has not been held here. We do not have a building large enough to accommodate the crowd that would attend.

Neither have we been able to hold many conventions. In the women's groups we can think of three district conventions that could be held here: the Business and Professional Women's club, the Seventh District Federation of Women's Clubs and the District Parent-Teacher Association conference.

Then there are many and numerous local meetings that would be held in the building including family reunions, class reunions for ex-students, banquets both community and church; Scout meetings, for both boys and girls; club socials, parties for companies like the telephone employees, anniversary celebrations, youth activities, etc.

We sincerely believe that the large number of people the community building would bring in to our town would increase the value of business of local merchants enough to more than meet the added taxes necessary to construct the building. Whether this be true or not, let's give our community a chance to grow by meeting the required essentials for growth!

Speaking of recreational activities, two women's clubs of Memphis are planning summer activities. (Both could use the community auditorium) The Memphis Little Theatre is planning a summer production to be presented in July. It will be a re-vamp of "See How They Run," a hilarious comedy presented here several years ago. Then the 1913 Study Club is featuring a game afternoon to be held monthly during the summer months. The first meeting will be on Tuesday afternoon, June 23, at the Memphis Country Club. Games of bridge, forty-two and canasta will be played. Details are listed in a front page story this week. Both clubs are to be commended for their summer activities.

PERSONAL NOTES: Friends acquired, both far and near, add flavor to our lives. Mrs. George Greenhaw traveled to Plainview Sunday to spend the day visiting, reminiscing and comparing pictures with the group who toured Europe with her last summer. Enjoying a similar experience was Helen Madden. It just so happened while Helen was in Canyon the first of the week, taking a final examination on a correspondence course, that she had occasion to visit numerous friends with whom she made a tour of the East Coast last summer. The tour was conducted by Piez Harper, former Memphis resident. This summer a similar tour is being conducted by Mr. Harper to Mexico . . . made up of practically the same group as toured together last summer. Miss Madden enjoyed a fleeting visit with the group at 5 a. m. departure time.

John Deaver, Texas University College student is anticipating an interesting and busy summer. He departed Sunday for Birmingham, Ala., where he will attend a week's sales school in preparation for his summer work with the Nifty School Supply Company, working out of Houston.

The Jack McClothlins of Abilene were recently awarded a prize by the Abilene radio station for having completed the longest vacation trip. They flew to Fairbanks, Alaska, where they visited Mrs. McClothlin's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Rodriguez, who are there with the Army. Mrs. McClothlin and Mrs. Rodriguez are the former Joyce and DeEllen Durrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Durrett of Lakeview.

Mrs. Guy Wright arrived home Monday night after spending an enjoyable three weeks in Triangle, Wash., with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Corley and new granddaughter, Christina Grace. Her first grandchild . . . no doubt Mrs. Wright can now join with us of longer standing in proclaiming the title "grand" is certainly correct.

Mrs. H. B. Marks called to say if you think it easy to spoil your grandchildren . . . just wait until your great grandchildren come along. Her seventh great-grandchild was born last week, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Stuart of Amarillo. Mr. and Mrs. Marks will observe their 56th wedding anniversary Sunday, June 28. It was on a Sunday that they were married, Mrs. Marks recalled.

Mrs. Beas Crump departed for Amarillo Tuesday where she will join Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Shepherd and family for a trip to California to visit her son, W. C. Crump and family. While there she will attend a family reunion of the Crump family. Approximately 50 relatives will be present for the reunion on June 14.

Despite young daughters in the house, our son-in-law has continued with his studies plus a full-time job, and last week received his master's degree in Electrical Engineering from Southern Methodist University. Needless to say we are proud of his accomplishments.

UDC Chapter Enjoys Luncheon At Final Meeting

Members of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met June 3 for their annual Jefferson Day Luncheon in the home of Mrs. Bray Cook. Foresome tables were laid with lovely pastel colored clothes and centered with bud vases holding garden flowers.

After the delicious meal, the regular business session was held. Mrs. Hampton, new president, named the committees for the coming year.

After the Pledge to the flags was given, Mrs. Glynn Thompson reviewed the life of Jefferson Davis's wife, Varina Howell Davis. Mrs. Baskerville concluded the program with selections of Southern music.

The chapter adjourned until September. Seven members and one guest was present.

Velma McKinney Edward Brown Marry in Dallas

Miss Velma Margaret McKinney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marquis L. McKinney of Dallas, became the bride of Edward Brown of Phoenix, Ariz., Saturday in a ceremony at the Cathedral of Sacred Heart in Dallas.

Miss McKinney is the daughter of M. F. McKinney, Memphis, and Mr. and Mrs. Kinney were in Dallas to attend the wedding.

The bride is a graduate of Santa Clara University, where she was a member of Pi Delta Phi and Gamma Alpha Chi.

Mr. Brown attended Gonzaga Preparatory School, Washington, D. C., and Arizona State University. He belongs to Phi Sigma Kappa.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the Hotel Adelphi French Room and in the Advertising Club.

Little Theatre Begins Rehearsals For Summer Play

Rehearsals got underway this week on the three-act comedy, "See How They Run," by Phillip King. This is the summer production to be presented Thursday evening, July 2, at 8 p. m. by the Memphis Little Theatre in the high school auditorium.

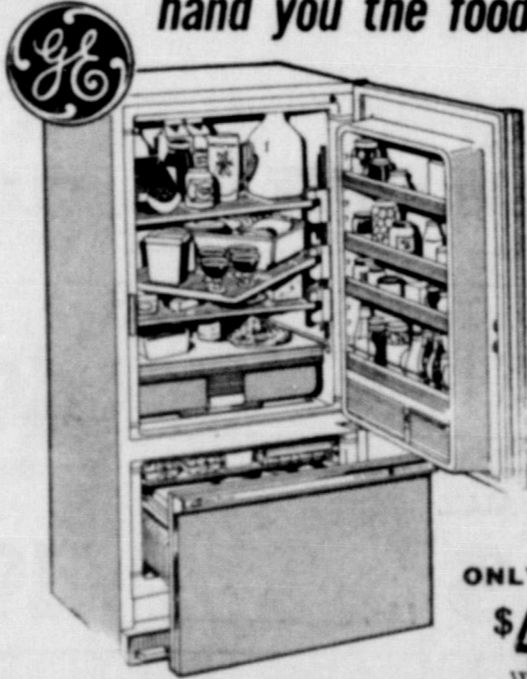

The play was presented here several years ago by the Theatre group and this year's production will feature many of the same stars. Since the play was presented only one night, many residents failed to see the comedy . . . those who did see it gave such favorable comment that members felt that they would enjoy seeing it again.

The cast will include: Mary Helen Sexauer, playing the part of Ida, the maid; Mary Lee Fields, as Miss Skillon; Dwight Kinard, as The Reverend Lionel Toop; Helen Boswell, as Penelope Toop; Charles Hamilton, as Corporal Cleve Winton; Les Sims, as the Intruder; Ben Parks, as The Bishop of Lax; Haskell Howell, as The Reverend Arthur Humphrey; and David Aronofsky, as Sergeant Towers.

Ethel Hillhouse and Grace Aronofsky will serve as co-directors. Tickets will be $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children.

B&PW Club To Sell 50-Star Flags Here Soon

Anticipating the need which will arise shortly for Memphis business firms to purchase new flags, members of the Business and Professional Women's Club voted at the regular luncheon meeting Thursday to sell the new 50-star flags.

A flag company has been contacted and as soon as information can be secured, members of the club will contact local business firms to take orders for the flags. Mrs. Mary Jameson, president of the club, said.

"By purchasing the flags in quantity, they can be sold at a reduced price," Mrs. Jameson said. "While at the same time a profit can be made by the local club."

"Members of the club will appreciate the cooperation of business firms in this project," Mrs. Jameson concluded.

During the business session Mrs. Billie Frisbie and Miss Jo Ann Edwards were named delegates to the state B&PW Club convention which convenes in Tyler on June 12, 13 and 14.
