Hall County Suffers Million Catastrophe. If such had happened all at once the whole county would be told by newspapers and television reporters, in many cases by a cut-in on radio. Well, this county will lose $1 million 200 thousand this year on crops due to cut in crop prices, and if not changed before 1961, the loss will be greater. These figures are on our last year's crop yield price support. And, so far such has been said about the trouble.

Monday last week Mrs. Wells truly had occasion to the Wellington convalescent and three Memphis people domiciled therein—Jim
L. G. Perkins and Clar-Billington. We understand are some other persons from county located in the home.

equipped with airy and rooms. It was a forceful that Memphis should such a home so that our people need not have to go away their home area and family friends. Hospital facilities been taken care of in this and a convalescent home
be a primary objective.

MHS Cagers Split Games At McLean

The MHS Cagers go into the final rounds of the district play with the girls still in second place.

The local squads split games at McLean last Friday night with the girls defeating the McLean girls. The boys lost their match.
In the first round of play, the girls and boys both lost to McLean. This is the only time the local girls squad has been beaten on their

Ten Cars Derailed Near Turkey Tues.

Ten boxcars were derailed shortly after 10 o'clock Tuesday morning about 2 miles northeast of Turkey.

The cause of the derailment was blamed on a burnt off journal.
The accident occurred on the Fort Worth and Denver South Plains line running from Estelline to Plainview and Lubbock.

Nine of the boxcars were empty and one contained milo. The derailment occurred in a cut and the derailed cars were leaning against the embankment.

No one was injured in the accident, however the track was damaged and repair crews have been working on it since the time of the accident.

County Commissioners Hear Report On Hospital Plans

The Hall County Commissioners Court heard a long discussion on the progress toward obtaining Hill-Burton funds in the amount of $250,000 at their regular monthly meeting Monday morning.

E. E. Roberts Jr., of Stiles, Roberts and Messersmith Architects and Engineers of Lubbock, reported to the commissioners concerning the preliminary plans his firm has completed. He said that all the plans need, before being submitted to the State Department of Health, which approves the allocating of Hill-Burton funds for the Federal Government at the state level, was the selection of a site for the building and grounds.

N. W. Durham presented several sites to the commissioners court.
Two of these sites would be donated if the land was selected, he told the court.

It was the opinion of Roberts that the county should obtain four or five options on possible sites, which would be presented to an investigator of the State Department of Health for final approval.

"The state will have to approve the site anyway, so they might as well be in on the selection of it", he said.

On the temporary committee selected by the Commissioners Court several months ago to obtain site options are: Dr. H. R. Stevenson, Allen Dunbar, Harold Hodges,

Orville Setliff, and Joe Allen Ballard.

Several local men, of which N.
W. Durham is one, has been named by Dr. Stevenson, president of the temporary committee, to help in tracing down possible sites.

Roberts reported to the court on his recent trip to Austin. He told the commissioners that he talked with the head of the Department of Health committee, and was informed that Hall County had A-1 priority to receiving help in building a County Hospital.

He said that some of the things the state considers in the selection of a site, are: the condition of the land, paved roads to the site, utility connections, the noise in the area and its easy accessibility.

In the special session last month
the county commissioners requested that laws governing the establishment of a hospital be read and presented. The law, concerning the naming of the official hospital board, states that the official board should be selected following the purchase of the site and the letting of construction contracts.
This was read by judge Tracy Davis.

Roberts said that when the preliminary plans are submitted, a program of activities must also be submitted. He presented a program used by San Marcos to the

Wind Estimates Of 70 MPH Are Given

The high winds Tuesday, accompanied by blowing dust, the first of the season, dominated the weather picture for Memphis and surrounding area.

Unofficial wind velocity estimations were that the gusty winds reached 70 mph in this area. Some damage was reported.

A wood garage, belonging to Bob Carlton, section foreman for the Ft. Worth and Denver Railroad, collapsed when the wind lifted the roof. The garage door was open and when the roof was lifted, the walls fell, observers reported.

One of the large plateglass windows located on the west side, was blown out of the Hall County REA building. The window has not yet been replaced.

The most freakish incident to occur during the high winds was the collapse of the flag pole at Memphis High School.

The colors were lowered at noon because of the high winds, and during the fourth period, right after the noon lunch break, the pole collapsed. The pole was made out of 3-inch steel pipe base, with 2-inch second section and a top section of 1-and-a-half-inch pipe.

W. C. Davis, superintendent of Memphis Schools, said that he thought the building would fall down before that flag pole.

One of the light poles at the Cyclone stadium was also up rooted by its concrete mount by the winds.

The canvas awning at Jerry Wright's Conoco Service Station was damaged by the high winds.

Other damages reported were in the nature of loose singles on house roofs, and television antenna towers located in the rural area.

Accompanying the high winds was one of the lowest barometer readings this area has had. J. J.
McMickin recorded 29.12 Tuesday, and in comparison, the reading
this morning was 29.87.

Low temperature recorded this morning was 25 degrees. The rest of the week the temperature range was: Wednesday 52-40;
Tuesday 72-58; Monday 72-42;
Sunday 63-38; Saturday 55-29.

Scouting's Fiftieth Anniversary

This week, Feb. 7-13, is being celebrated as National Boy Scout Week. This is the fiftieth anniversary of one of the largest organizations for youngsters in the world.

A statement was made at one of the civic organization meetings that since scouting has been here fifty years, it looks like it is here to stay. It was organized in 1910, and on Nov. 22, of that year Colin Livingstone was elected president pro-tem. Then at the first annual meeting, Feb. 14, 1911, he was elected president of the National Council, the office he held until May 29, 1925.

However, this was not the real beginning of this organization. It all started with William D. Boyce, a Chicago publisher, who incorporated the Boy Scouts of America in Washington, D. C. on Feb. 8, 1910. However, there is more to the story than that.

In 1909 while on a business errand in London, Mr. Boyce lost his way in a fog. A courteous, unidentified British Boy Scout escorted him to his destination and refused a tip for his "Good Turn." This so impressed Mr. Boyce, who had extensive experience with boys who sold his publications, that he asked about the Boy Scout program. When he completed his errand, Mr. Boyce accompanied the Scout to the office of Sir (later Lord) Robert Baden-Powell, founder of the British Boy Scouts Association and later "Chief Scout of the World," a distinction held by no other person. Mr. Boyce brought back to America a trunk full of literature, insignia and uniforms. His friend, Colin H. Livingstone, recommended a law firm to do the necessary legal work leading to the incorporation.

From this beginning, the scouting program has grown to a present active membership of 5,000,000 and has an alumni of 28,500,000.

What has attributed to this growth? Here are just a few things. First there is the Scout Oath: "On my honor I will do my best to do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law; to help other people at all times; to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight." This would be a good oath for any American, young or old.

Then the Scout Law: "A Scout is trustworthy, loyal, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean, and reverent."

But one of the main reasons scouting has been growing is because of volunteer leaders. The Boy Scout movement originated with the concept that men and women of character and good will can give constructive leadership to youth. It was built on the philosophy that most adults recognize the need for helping youth to grow into happy and productive citizens and that, if shown the way, they will gladly dedicate a portion of their time to this most important responsibility and duty.

Since the inception of the movement in 1910 through 1958, 7,601,000 men and women have been registered as members (scouters, cubbers, and Den mothers). Net volunteer adult enrollment on Dec. 31, 1958, was 1,335,821.

And these volunteers not only give their time in actual leadership to youth, but in addition take training to make sure that the time they contribute counts. Over 350,000 men and women complete training courses on boy leadership through Scouting each year.

Memphis scout troops are located within the Comanche District of the Adobe Walls Council, Boy Scouts of America. The Comanche District includes Hall, Donley, Collingsworth and Wheeler Counties. Other districts include: Adobe (Hansford and Hutchinson), Santa Fe (Carson and Gray), Kiowa (Beaver, Ochiltree, Lipscomb, Roberts, and Hemphill), and Pioneer (Cimmaron and Texas).

These districts make up the Adobe Walls Council. Some of the facts about the council are: it covers 20,000 square miles of the Texas Panhandle; includes 51 communities; has over 5,500 boy members, has over 2,500 volunteer leaders, has 142 institutions and over 200 units.

This is the organization behind each scout troop of 15 to 35 local young men. This is the organization which has for its anniversary theme: "For God and Country". This is the organization which will sponsor the 53,200 Boy Scouts Explorers and their leaders at the Fiftieth National Scout Jamboree which will contain a 2,000-acre tent city on a ranch at Colorado Springs, Colo. next July 22 to 28.

The national good turn for 1960 by the Boy Scouts of America will be their third non-partisan "Get-Out-the-Vote" campaign.

After fifty years, the organization has grown remarkably. We hope it continues this growth, and will continue to produce the leaders of tomorrow.

Why Government Is Inefficient

One can always drum up a lively conversation when he chooses to bring up the subject of inefficiency in government. It isn't difficult to point to this and that inconsistency — or apparent inconsistency.

But the wonder is not the inefficiency that does exist — the wonder is that we have little of it when we consider the attitude of the "stockholders" of our cities, schools, counties, states and nation.

To begin with, only a minority of citizens in any political division even concern themselves with the affairs of the division. The vast majority lack either the time or interest to study issues and to vote. And this minority often is a small, well organized pressure group with an ex to grind or else it uses the ballot box as a pace to give vent to petty prejudices and to spite candidates they don't like for personal and often petty reasons.

Numerous elections could be cited which illustrate what happens almost every day somewhere in these United States.

Consider, for example, the $60,000 bond election held last December by the local school district. Approximately 5,000 persons would have been affected directly or indirectly by this election. Yet only 424 persons bothered to vote and 213 of these decided that we would not provide needed classroom space for our schools. Right or wrong, 213 souls spoke for the entire school district which includes more than half of Swisher County. We have around 1,600 students in school which perhaps would represent 1,600 parents — if each family had an average of two students in school. Yet 213 — and many of these either are not parents at all or are parents with no children in school — spoke for everybody!

Then let us consider the voting judgment of these 213.

Recently several school patrons circulated petitions which called for another election. When men and women refused to sign these petitions, they were asked their reasons for opposing additional classroom space.

Here are some of the reasons, reported by the opposition:

"We weren't given any information on the election. Way didn't they publicize it?"

(Several issues of The Tulia Herald were devoted to the issue, presenting the issue in language any six-year-old could understand. The same information was dispensed by radio. Radio panels were conducted in which school board members and citizens presented the issue. In addition, the school board sent letters to every voter living in the school district, explaining in detail what was involved. And if these media were not sufficient, any school board member or official was available to answer questions.)

"I wouldn't believe anything I read in The Herald or that came from the school administration."

"If they would divide that school cafeteria up into classrooms and let the kids bring their lunches in tin pails like I did, they wouldn't need any more classrooms."

"They have empty rooms in the junior high that are used for store-rooms. These should be cleaned out and used for classrooms." (The charge is preposterous.)

"The proposed addition to the high school building would cost too much. They could build it out of steel at a third the cost."

"Too much emphasis is being placed on vocational agriculture."

"Too few boys are taking vocational agriculture." (Another false report.)

"They're spending too much money on sports."

It can readily be seen how many ideas are the result of false information, how people accept and believe sidewalk conversation without bothering to check its authenticity. Most of these criticisms came from good men and women who had been misinformed or who are unwilling to face the facts of life. Nevertheless, a vote counts, whether it be an intelligent one or the other kind.

Not long ago a group vowed to "clean out the courthouse" because the commissioners court cut down bird infested trees and utilized the ground for parking space. The county judge didn't even cast a vote since there was no tie to break — but he was given credit for the action and misinformed voters registered their wrath on election day. We mention this without prejudice to the judge since we are thinking not of personalities but of reasons people have for voting a particular way.

A democracy is a farce in the absence of an intelligent electorate. If we're going to make a farce out of our democratic system of voting by acting like children, if we're going to trade capability and training for the momentary thrill of giving vent to all that is spiteful, vindictive and ugly within us, then we would be just as well off under a system whereby we had no voice in the selection of our leaders.

We wonder how we manage to have as efficient government as we have. —The Tulia Herald

LOOK AT THE LOWER PRICES

List prices as much as $76.05 lower on popular models with popular equipment

The '60 Chevrolet models most people buy, equipped the way most people want them, are actually priced lower than last year's models. This two-tone Bel Air V8 sedan, for example—with Turboglide, push-button radio and de luxe heater—lists for a whole $76.05 less! Prices are lower for all comparable V8 models throughout the line. Also for all comparable 6-cylinder models with Powerglide. Yet Chevy's loaded with more of the things that put pleasure into owning a car. (Just look at the list!) It's the greatest year yet to get into a Chevy!

Softer, more silent ride with coil springs at all four wheels and new butyl rubber-cushioned body mounts.

Big brakes for quicker, surer stops. Rivetless bonded linings mean they last longer, too.

More room to relax in. Chevy sedans offer roomier seating than any car in their class. Lower, narrower transmission tunnel means more foot room.

Only full wraparound windshield among the leading low-priced cars.

Electric windshield wipers keep sweeping even when you speed up to pass.

Vent windows crank open and closed. So much simpler than fighting those tricky little catches.

Keyless locking of all doors. Quick and easy. The same key opens door, glovebox, trunk and starts the car.

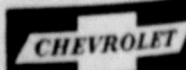

Economy Turbo-Fire V8. Or how to get up to 10% more miles per gallon of regular and still have lots of "git."

Thriftest 6 in any full-size car. It's the '60 version of the engine that got 22.38 miles per gallon in the 1959 Mobilgas Economy Run.

Widest choice of power teams. 24 engine-transmission teams in all, with output up to 335 h.p.

A trunk that's made for long trips with up to 22.5% more actual luggage space. Sill's lower for easier loading.

Fisher Body craftsmanship. Look at the finish, the fabrics, the detail work. You'll see the difference.

Roy L. Taylor Is Candidate for Representative

Roy L. Taylor of Matador this week announced his candidacy for State Representative from the 88th District, consisting of Childress, Donley, Hall and Motley counties, and declared the major pledge in his campaign would be strong and unwavering opposition to a state personal income tax or retail sales tax.

Taylor, a life-long resident of Motley county, is a graduate of Matador High School, attended Texas Tech, and is presently completing work at the University of Texas in public accounting and business. He has been active in Boy Scout work and having devoted many hours to service as a unit leader.

At the University of Texas he was president of the Men's Independent Campus Association and a member of the Alpha Phi Omega, a national service fraternity, Intramural Council, Goodfellows and the "T" Association, the association of lettermen of the University of Texas.

Taylor, 26 years old, served two years in the U. S. Army from 1953 to 1955 and was released with 30 per cent disability. He is still a member of the United States Army Reserve.

While working his way through the University of Texas, Taylor has made an intense study of governmental affairs and is well acquainted with the work of the Legislature.

In his statement announcing his candidacy, Taylor declared: "Many matters of great importance will come before the next legislature. These matters will for Representatives with deep convictions. They call for Representatives who can be trusted to stand firmly by what is right and honest in spite of pressure from political groups."

"Our state and nation is taxing our people beyond all reason. Too much of the taxpayer's dollar is being lost through waste, extravagance, inflation and corruption. We must put an end to this and to the parade of higher and higher taxes."

"Taxes at all levels of our government are too high, a condition which can be corrected only by a careful and complete examination of governmental operations, followed by positive action designed to give us a more efficient, economical and business-like system."

"This can be done only by legislators who will not be influenced by economic ties or special interest groups who are free from political entanglements. If elected, I will work for the following ideals and proposals:

1. Opposition to a general retail sales tax and a personal income tax.
2. Support for the general recommendations of the Hale-Aikin

School program with local control of schools guaranteed.

3. Elimination of inequities in the new auto insurance plan which the present Insurance Commission and the last Legislature failed to remedy.

4. Adequate pensions and medical care for our aged citizens.

5. Support a progressive state highway program, including a continued expansion of the Farm-to-Market road system.

6. Retaining and improving the state cotton research program to find more commercial uses of cotton and its by-products.

7. Adequate legislation to insure conservation of our precious natural resources, with emphasis on soil and water conservation.

8. Business-like conduct of all the state activities, with faithful and diligent representation at all times.

"I feel that our ranchers and farmers are entitled to fair prices and fair treatment without being hamstrung by unnecessary state or federal interference and controls."

"Every citizen has a responsibility to choose carefully the men who will represent him in the operation of our state government. I will sincerely appreciate your serious consideration of my candidacy. I am campaigning in an effort to meet and talk with each and every person between now and election day, Saturday, May 7."

Pay Promptly Is Goal of Social Security Group

One of the goals of the Social Security Administration is to pay benefits as promptly as possible to those local persons entitled to payments, Hal Heldon, manager of the Amarillo Office stated today.

To do this, Geldon said, a person interested in claiming benefits should notify the Amarillo Social Security Office by letter approximately 2 months before retirement. This action will give the Amarillo Office and the person claiming benefits time to get the information and evidence together to establish his rights to the payment before the time his first check is due.

Generally, evidence will be required to prove the age of the retired person and the age of his wife. This may be a birth certificate established shortly after birth or other record of age that is old and reliable. Also, evidence of the worker's earnings for 1959 is necessary. This may be a copy of the income tax return for self-employed persons or the W-2 forms for wage earners.

Geldon again stressed that for prompt payment of the first social security check "inquire before you retire" by writing the Amarillo Social Security Office.

WIRE BEATS FIRE ... FOR MODERN COOKING

For less than 1/2 the average family served by WTU can cook a complete meal the modern electric way ... and enjoy the cleanliness and conveniences of Electric Living.

Cleaning an ELECTRIC RANGE is child's play

Oven cleaning is truly "child's play" in this smart new 1960 electric range. Some of the models are equipped with pull-out ovens. This mother-daughter team can wipe clean any part of the oven, even the back walls, without stretching or straining. And that's only part of the convenience story. Surface heating units tilt up out of the way and porcelain drip bowls go to the sink for washing. Most switch knobs on the back panel are removable, glass surface can be wiped clean in seconds. Ease of cleaning is just one of the advantages of an Electric Range. You will also like the fully automatic features and the "always the same" heat of the surface units—No flame to go up and down. And so economical—Go see your Electric Appliance Dealer. He'll tell you the change is to Electric Cooking.

An Open Letter—

Scoutmaster Writes To Parents of Boys

It has been my desire for a long time to write you a letter, but could never word it quite right, but will try by starting in this way.

"On my honor I will do my best; to do my duty to God and my Country, and to obey the Scout Law; to help other people at all times; to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight."

When you son stood proudly before his Scout troop and made this pledge his Scoutmaster stood with him and made the same promise. It matters not that the same words carry a somewhat different meaning to the man than they do to the boy — for both of them it is a pledge that is not to be taken lightly; a promise that is not always easy to keep.

You saw your son start out one Saturday with a canteen of water, a pack containing raw meat of some kind, a potato, and an onion from which he expected to prepare a tasty meal, and join with other scouts and their scoutmaster on an all day hike. You knew that he would have fun and you hoped he would be safe.

You saw this son stuff his blankets into his pack, roll up this equipment, pick up his supply of food, and forgetting his soap, towel and toothbrush, take off with his fellow Scouts and the Scoutmaster for an overnight camp in the hills or canyon, where nature is close and real and fascinating. And when thunder echoed through the darkness of the night and the rain dashed against your bedroom window, you wondered how he was getting along, (let's admit it) you worried some.

You helped your son assemble clothes and equipment for a week's outing and you took him or sent him to summer camp where you turned him over to the Scoutmaster and the camp staff — those men who would supervise his activities from his rising in the morning to "hitting the sack" at night and then be nearby while he slept; men who would tell him that the pretty bird in the tree was a red-winged blackbird, watch him while he passed his swimming test; men who would stand beside him and say Grace at mealtime, and you hoped and prayed that your son was in capable hands. You knew that this was high adventure for the boys, but a week is a long time and so many things could happen!

I am the Scoutmaster. I promised just as your son did, to "do my best." I was there to show him that small twigs and rope fluff were good for starting his first camp fire, and I was in the tent next to his when it rained that night at camp, and I knew that he was all right. I knew too, that you were thinking of him. I was with your boy at summer camp, and I know how hard it is to see that 12 boys wash their faces before breakfast. I saw your son hiking, saw him seated with many of his fellow Scouts in the Council ring at summer camp. And I saw him kiss his mother and hug his dad when we reached home, somewhat dirty from travel, tired, but safe and in good health, sun browned and strong.

To you, the parents of the Boy Scout, I want to say, "Thank you for the compliment you have paid me." No possession you have ever had, or will have, could be more precious to you than that son. Yet you have placed him in my hands and trusted me to guide and care for him. Could my compliment be more sincere than that you have had such confidence in me? I only hope that my best has been adequate.

I trust that I speak not for myself alone, but for thousands of scoutmasters like me, to millions of parents like you.

"And now, may the Great Master of all scouts be with us—" as we move onward for God and our country.

Sincerely yours
Scoutmaster Boaz Stotts

Miss Goodpasture Is Awarded Peter Pan Scholarship

Miss Lucille Goodpasture, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Goodpasture of Dallas, recently was awarded a $1,000 college scholarship from the Peter Pan Teenage Foundation in co-operation with A. Harris & Co., it was learned here this week. Miss Goodpasture is the niece of Orville Goodpasture of Memphis.

Her application was chosen from many entries submitted by public, private and parochial high school students in the greater Dallas area. In addition to a $750 check toward her own tuition, the college of her choice will receive a grant-in-aid of $250. As a winner, Miss Goodpasture will have an opportunity to compete for the Peter Pan $3,000 national scholarship and an appearance on Ed Sullivan's television show.

If you are having trouble on your farm disposing of outside runoff water, establishing a waterway along a natural water course could be the answer to this problem. Waterways are designed and treated, either with vegetation or by mechanical means so that outside water can be moved along at a velocity which is non-erosive. Waterways usually function as a collective outlet for a terrace or a regule terrace tem. Cooperators who are currently planning or establishing waterways are F. O. Iam of Memphis. Usually the establishing of type of vegetation in a waterway is desirable. After the vegetation has been established in the waterway, it can be utilized for erosion, seed production, or grazing, or for a wildlife

Firemen Answer Two Grass, One Building Alarm

The Memphis Volunteer Fire Department answered two grass fire alarms, and one call to a building this week.

The first alarm was given at 6:20 p. m. Saturday for a grass fire on the Davis place, 14 miles east of Memphis on Highway 256. The fire was extinguished promptly and little damage occurred.

At 9:40 p. m. Tuesday, local firemen were called to a grass fire in a sorghum alnum field on the Lonnie Widener farm, one mile east of Memphis.

The fire was spread from the burning trash dump by high winds. The winds kept the fire spreading through the first part of the afternoon.

Another fire alarm was given at 12 noon Tuesday to the Farmers Co-Op Gin No. 1, 3rd and Davis Streets.

The south end of some Latin American Quarters on the Gin's property was ignited when the burning bur pile was scattered by the high winds.

Firemen estimate that from one-third to one-half of the building was destroyed. This included six rooms of the twelve room structure.

Atalantean Club Observes 32nd Anniversary With Breakfast Saturday

Members of the Atalantean Club observed the 32nd anniversary of the organization with a breakfast Saturday morning at 9 a. m. at the Memphis Country Club.

An annual event, the club has celebrated the occasion since its organization January 28, 1928. One of the highlights of the club year, the gala affair is one to which members look forward from year to year.

As members arrived at 9 a. m. they were greeted by members of the social committee including Mmes. Eddie Foxhall, Ralph Williams, Herb Curry, Ed Hill, Robert Sexauer and W. C. Dickey.

Members were seated at four-some tables which were arranged in a half-circle. Centering the tables were arrangements of assorted fruits and greenery highlighted with a bouquet of white chrysanthemums on a round table in the center of the circle. Other decorations throughout the room featured the same motif.

The menu consisted of Canadian bacon, cheese biscuits, scrambled eggs, a fruit cup and banana nut muffins with coffee.

On display were all the year books from 1928 through 1960. Also a number of scrap books that have been made through the years.

Mrs. Robert Sexauer gave an address entitled "Gateways of Service." She stated that great opportunities are before us daily and we must grasp them and be willing to do our part in this fast changing world of ours. "We must want to be a part of the great spiritual movement that will make our world a better and safer place to live for our democratic way of life," Mrs. Sexauer said.

"Clubwomen everywhere must be aware of this. We must see ourselves as we really are," she added. At this point Mrs. Sexauer passed out birthday gifts wrapped in dainty packages. All members were asked to unwrap these at the same time... the packages contained small mirrors so each could see herself as she really was.

Mrs. Bill Cosby, president of the club, was presented with a gift in appreciation of her untiring efforts and successful year's work. The gift was a silver a-pie-a-lauder set. Mrs. Cosby's response was most gracious.

Members present were Mmes. Earl Allen, D. H. Aronofsky, J. W. Coppedge, Bill Cosby, W. C. Dickey, H. B. Estes, Eddie Foxhall, Charles Hamilton, N. A. Hightower, Ed Hill, Claud Johnson, C. W. Kinslow, Cecil McCollum, J. H. Norman, J. A. Odom, W. R. Scott, Robert Sexauer, Ralph Williams, Robert Spicer, Myrtis Phelan, Miss Imogene King, Miss Gertrude Rasco and Mrs. Henry S. Foster, a former member of the club.

Cakes-Then And Now: 1860-1960

In a delightful old cookbook published in London 100 years ago, the directions seem very amusing to the modern housewife. Her predecessors were admonished to take care lest the cakes be heavy and fall. She was warned that "It is indispensable that all ingredients be heated before mixing... flour thoroughly dried and warmed, currants, sugar and anything else the same way, butter and eggs beaten in basins which are fitted into pans of warm water..."

"Sugar should be rolled with a rolling pin... Butter washed and weighed... Firkin butter cut in small pieces and washed. For a quick cake, beat whites of ten eggs for one hour..."

Now aren't you glad you live in the year 1960, in the days of cake mixes and quick frostings? For a truly luscious topping on a spice cake, try:

DANISH BLUE CHEESE FROSTING

- 1/2 cup heavy cream, whipped and mixed with
- 3/4 cup Danish Blue Cheese
- 1/2 cup chopped California walnuts

Cool cake slightly, spread with topping, cut in squares and serve at once. Delicious.

Girl Scouts Present Program At Delphian Club

The Delphian Club met in the home of Mrs. J. S. McMurry Feb. 2, with Mrs. Jack Boone, first vice president, presiding.

The meeting was opened by a moment of silent prayer, followed by the Salute to the Flag. Mrs. Mothershead gave an inspirational message "Being a Real Person". She closed the meditation by reading the poem, "The Ways of the Lord."

Mrs. Keith, program chairman, introduced the program, "Tomorrow's Future Today," by presenting Mrs. Brode Hoover, Girl Scout Leader, who then presented her girl scout troop and one Brownie Scout who gave an excellent lesson on the purposes of Girl Scouting.

"Scouting is a Community Affair" was discussed by Mrs. Hoover. She said "A little girl in a green uniform and a trefoil here and a little girl in a brown uniform and a little brown cap is fast becoming one of the most familiar sights on the American scene. We must agree that Girl Scouting has come to stay in our country. She said Lord Baden Powell realized that children learned more when the impulse comes from within themselves than when information is forced on them and that children must be taught how to live as well as how to get a living. So, to foster this self discipline of the young he developed a code of ethics in their own terms, The Scout Promise and Scout Laws.

In 1912 Juliette Lowe, a friend of Lord Baden, brought Scouting to the U.S. Adults, whose volunteer help is the strength of the organization, are finding satisfaction in working with girls. Membership is open to all girls aged 7 to 17. The girls are asked only to do their best. Girl Scouting is essentially a citizenship organization, said Mrs. Hoover. The leader and her community are embarked on a cooperative enterprise. The leader gives her time and strength, the community gives the real life situations in which girls can put into practice the good citizenship habits they learn in their group.

The Community helps the girls in many ways and in turn the girls give service to the community as needed. Service to the community is part of Girl Scouting. A richer program is, of course, one of the aims in getting community cooperation, but even more important for them to see their community and their place in it.

Some of the organizations who help Girl Scouting within the community are the churches, the PTA, schools, civic organizations and libraries.

Carol Voyles gave a brief history of Girl Scouting, and Bonnie Eubanks the "Girl Scout Promise" and Janie Hoover gave the Brownie Scout Promise, after which each girl gave a law of scouting.

The girls used posters to present the fields of Scouting. The program closed with the girls singing "Girl Scouts Together".

After a brief business session Mrs. McMurry, hostess, served the visitors and members from a tea table with Mrs. Dickey presiding at the silver service.

Guests were Mrs. Hoover, Carol Voyles, Bonnie Eubanks, Laurel Pounds, Regina Hoover, Patsy Murdock, Anita Snowdon, Elmonette Branigan, Ginger Greene, Susan McQueen, Janie Hoover, Girl Scouts and leader, and Mrs.

Blake of Clayton, N. M.

Members present were Mmes. Clyde Smith, Bob Fowler, J. W. Stokes, Sim Goodall, Jack Boone, Joe Mothershead, R. H. Wherry, J. L. Barnes, W. C. Dickey, C. C. Hodges, Henry Hays, C. D. Keith, Miss Maud Milam and the hostess, Mrs. McMurry.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Godfrey and daughter, LuGay and Mrs. Godfrey's mother, Mrs. Bess Crump, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Crump of Bovina.

Wyly Whitley returned home Sunday after being in the Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo. He is reported doing fine.

Will Wilson says that the dispute over Greer county led an Oklahoma nester to remark "I ain't moved an inch in nigh on 50 years but I've lived in one Injun territory, two states and three dad-gum counties."

"Battle Border"

Little known facts about Texas boundaries.

(Editor's note: This is the sixth in a series of articles outlining the numerous boundary conflicts dating back to 1716, pointing up little known facts which shaped the Texas of today.)

Texas fought hard for Greer County but finally lost to Oklahoma.

In 1890 Congress created the Territory of Oklahoma out of a portion of the Indian Territory which was bounded on the west and south by Texas.

In the same breath it directed that a law suit be filed in the U.S. Supreme Court to settle the controversy as to who owned Greer County, Texas.

In March, 1896, the Supreme Court ruled that the Treaty of 1819 called for the TRUE 100th meridian as the boundary line and not the surveyor's mistake. The court specified the south bank of the south fork.

This last seems to have gone unnoticed at the time but it did handle of Texas when he was just a kid. His knowledge will astound you, and his descriptive and storytelling abilities will keep you on the edge of your chair.

Out of all this Texas gained a knows more about politics generally than any other individual in the nation. He came to Washington a year before Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn. He has been the friend and confidant of many, many men high in the government of this country, as well as in business and professional circles. He was a long-time friend of John Nance Garner and has been closely acquainted with the leaders and Members of the Congress in both parties since he started his career in the Nation's Capital. He is a most interesting fellow to talk with, whether you are meeting him for the first time or have seen him daily for several years. His great store of knowledge stems from his close association with the men aforementioned, as well as the events which have happened and will constitute the history of this country. Much has transpired since 1912, but I don't think any of it has escaped the vigilance of Bascom. As a newshawk, he probably has no peer.

If you ever have the good fortune to sit down and talk with Bascom for any length of time, don't let him stay on politics too long. Get him to talking about the things which occurred in the Pan-plenty of cooperation in the YMCA work, with but little opposition of others who thought everything was all right and didn't need to be pushed.

Byron Baldwin, president of the Hall County Picnic association, is continually thinking up things that might help to put on a real celebration this year, since it is the 70th anniversary of the establishment of Hall County. He is now obtaining the names and addresses of all former Gold Medal Band members, who are yet living. They scattered to many other sections of Texas and United States

This is Boy Scout Week, and Scouting is being observed all over the world. Our first experience in Scouting was at Hedley in 1913. A Scout troop was organized, and the boys took to the new movement like ducks to a pond. Parents tolerated this new fad, thinking it would not last. Anything that is worthy will last, and anything not worthy will soon go by the wayside. Evidently the Scout Program is worthy, wouldn't you think so?

The flagon that holds our dreams is easily tipped over when we dodge to avoid responsibility. —Douglas Meador, Matador Tribune.

these wells were abandoned, and new wells dug, and a chlorination system installed above the storage tanks instead of below as it is now, the state would approve the system.

Roberts suggested to the commissioners that a committee from Memphis might go to Austin and see what could be done about the water problem. It was the opinion of the commissioners that preliminary work on the hospital should continue without the approval of the water, since this work had to be done before application could be made to the state board. The court also requested Roberts to try and obtain a man from the state board to help select a site for the hospital.

Court Approves Resolution

Commissioner W. F. Brittain made a motion that a resolution signed by W. F. Brittain, H. W. Spear and O. R. Lambert, be entered into the minutes. Spear seconded the motion and it carried unanimously.

The resolution follows: "We the Commissioners of Hall County, Texas, in order to carry out what we interpret to be the expression of the voters in the Hospital Bond election do take the following position:

"We will cooperate in every way possible to obtain Federal Funds to match the $250,000 County money; however, we are unalterably opposed to spending any of the $250,000 County Bond money toward the construction of a County Hospital until we are assured that $250,000 in matching Federal funds are available to us for the same."

Deputy for Estelline

A delegation of men from Estelline met with the Commissioners Court and discussed the possibility of obtaining a deputy sheriff for Estelline.

Following a short discussion, the commissioners voted unanimously on a motion by O. R. Lambert and seconded by H. W. Spear, to approve the payment of $100 a month to a deputy in Estelline provided the Estelline City merchants match this salary. Sheriff

W. P. Baten Jr. was instructed to select and direct the work of the deputy sheriff.

Following the noon break, the commissioners heard the County Tax Assessor-Collector, Mrs. Melissa Anderson, discuss several different problem confronting her office.

First she discussed whether or not a complete assessment should be done this year. Then, she asked if the commissioners wanted her to raise all the county property evaluation 21 per cent to cover the payment of the County Hospital Bonds.

The commissioners voted unanimously to hire individuals to assess salaries in Hall County, with total salaries not to exceed $1,800. Also the commissioners approved the hiring of another deputy tax assessor-collector for that office at a salary of $3,000 a year.

The commissioners approved the paying of the regular monthly bills and approved reports.

The County's financial report gave the balance as of Feb. 1, 1960 as $166,423.06. This is $27,063.05 more than Feb. 1, 1959. New funds on the report this month were the Hospital Sinking fund: $1,702.08 under the receipts column.

Also, in the Hospital Construction Fund, receipts totaled $251,702.08, disbursements were $248,554.25, leaving a balance of $3,147.83.
