OVER 400 PERSONS ATTEND OPENING OF MEMPHIS BOWL HERE SATURDAY

Over 400 persons registered at the Memphis Bowl during their Open House activities here Saturday. The Formal Opening program began at 2 p. m. Mayor H. J. Howell, Rotary President T. J. Bridges, and Chamber of Commerce Manager Clifford Farmer made short talks in the opening ceremonies. Dale Caraway served as master of ceremonies. Following the talks, each of the three men, and Mrs. H. J. Howell, president of the B&PW Club, probably got four of the easiest strikes in the history of bowling. The pins fell before the ball ever reached them, spectators stated. An exhibition match of one line was put on by two local bowlers, Cleatus Lebow and George Ferris. Winning the four prizes offered by the Bowl were: Judy Guthrie, the bowling ball; Jimmy Harrison, the men's shoes; Norma Martin, the women's shoes; and Mrs. J. M. Saunders, the bag.

Memphis Will Battle Paducah Here Fri. Night

The Memphis Cyclone and the Paducah Dragons will try to break a tie from last year's encounter, Friday night at 8 p. m. in Cyclone Stadium. Last year's game ended in a 14-14 tie.

Coach Wayne McLean's Dragons will field a team with a line averaging approximately 180 lbs. per man and their backfield averaging 163.

The Dragons run from a straight T, spread and winged-T formation. Outstanding players on the Dragons' squad include their fullback, No. 11, James Hanks, a 173 lb. senior. Hanks does yeoman service, carrying on end runs, and line plunges; he can throw passes, and plays line backer on defense. Also outstanding is No. 63, their 156 lb. junior guard, Robert Worley.

Injured in the game last Friday night with Quannah was the Dragon senior tackle, No. 55, Loyd Brown. Brown received an ankle injury in the game.

Paducah's QB Bill Neskorik called on FB Hanks several times during the Paducah - Quannah game when yardage was needed. Other backs on the Dragons' squad include: No. 42, Roy Don Fox, HB, Jr. 167 lbs., No. 31 Dwight Read, sophomore, 155 lb. HB, No. 41, Jerry Pate Long, junior, 149

lb. junior quarterback and half-back.

Paducah's offensive attack contains many of the T formation dives and end sweeps, a wide

B&PW Club To Sponsor Drive For Disaster Area

A drive to collect household items to be sent to the Carla Disaster area is now underway in Memphis. The drive is being sponsored by the Memphis Business and Professional Women's Club, Louise Howell, president, announced this week.

After the items are collected, the club will be responsible for seeing that they reach the storm area, Mrs. Howell said.

All persons who would like to help with this project are asked to bring their donations to West Texas Utilities Co., Branigan Jewelry or The Memphis Democrat. Suggested items include cooking utensils, towels, sheets, pillow cases, blankets or quilts, pillows, and bedspreads. Donations of money will also be accepted.

spread which the team added to their season offense in the Quannah game, and a wing-T formation. They did not use a man in motion during the Quannah game, as the Cyclone's last opponent, the Wellington Skyrockets, did. On the spread they like to throw the "look-in" pass.

The heaviest linemen on the Dragons' squad are their center, No. 77, Don Sunday, a 220 lb. sophomore, and another sophomore tackle, Danny Mints, No. 73, who weighs 205 lbs.

In comparison, the Cyclone will have a line average of 180 lbs. per man and a backfield average of 170 lbs. per man. The Cyclone has six seniors in their starting lineup while the Dragons have four seniors.

The Cyclone and the Dragons are expected to go the air during the night's play. Both teams will run multiple offensive attacks. Pass defenders for the Cyclone will be Perry Wright and Bill J. Pounds, and for the Dragons, Allen Greear, No. 80, a 175 lb. Junior end, and QB Neskorik.

The Cyclone has the edge over their opponents, and have been picked as the favorite in the game.

Memphis Cotton Classing Office Is Now Open

Classing began last week at the Memphis Cotton Classing office here, Kermit Voelkel, officer in charge, announced this week. As of Wednesday the classing office had two classers besides Mr. Voelkel.

Cotton ginning in Hall County is approximately one month ahead of last year, a survey of county gins revealed this week. As of Wednesday, the 1961 cotton crop has yielded 2,143 ginned bales. On Oct. 27, 1960, there had been 2,377 bales ginned in the county.

Mr. Voelkel stated that last week the Classing Office here, which serves a 12-county area containing 57 gins, had classed 3,278 samples. He stated that most of these samples are coming from the counties south of Memphis, and some are being received from Wellington.

The two classers working in the Memphis office are Virgil Kaylor of Tulsa, Okla., and Richard Whitley of Oklahoma City. Other employees include Mrs. Mildred Gidden, head clerk, Mrs. Hattie Lee Linville, Mrs. Oma Jean Parr and Mrs. Wilma Norman. Coy Johnson is the laborer at the office.

Mr. Voelkel said that the office is receiving from 900 to 1200 samples a day, and that the present crew would be able to handle from 1200 to 1500 samples each day.

"We will add as many classers as is needed to handle the work load," he said.

Most of the cotton samples being received now were not gathered by machines, he said. However, it was his understanding that many farmers are defoliating their crops now, and he expects to start receiving samples from stripped cotton bales by the last of this week, or next week.

"Some sections over the southern part of the 12-county area are stripping now," Voelkel said, "for some of the samples we are receiving are 'barkly' cotton."

The officer in charge stated that this season the Commodity Credit Corp. will accept "barkly" or "grassy" cotton at one-cent or 100-point discount based on the loan rates. Also, "wasty" cotton will be eligible for the loan for the first time at four cents or 400 points discount based on the loan rate. The base for all the (Continued On Page Twelve)

Farm Tour Is Set For Monday, Oct. 9

A three-hour tour of several demonstrations on Hall County farms is scheduled to begin at 9 a. m. Monday, Oct. 9, it was announced this week by W. B. Hooser, county agent.

The annual tour is held through the cooperation of the Hall County Agricultural Program Building Committee, the farmers, the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, and the Extension Service.

The tour will start at the county agent's office in the courthouse in Memphis at 9 a. m. Monday, Oct. 9, and will end at 12 noon at Memphis.

The Memphis Chamber of Commerce and Hall County Board of Development and the Hall County Farm Bureau will co-sponsor a free dinner for everyone on the tour at the Cyclone Drive Inn at noon. They will also furnish cold drinks on the tour.

The Memphis Schools will furnish buses for the tour, Hooser said.

The tour will include a hybrid grain sorghum demonstration on the Harold Hodges farm, where many different varieties of grain sorghum have been planted; a cotton fertilizer result demonstration on the Clyde Collins farm. A dry-land cotton variety demonstration test on the Wayne Hutchinson farm will be seen; also a lateral oiling of Johnson grass on cotton will be seen. The field was very heavily infested with seeding Johnson grass.

Agent Hooser said that outstanding agricultural representatives from Experiment Stations, Extension Service, and others will be present to explain the demonstrations.

"This is a very important educational demonstration Field Day. Every farmer in Hall County is urged to attend," Hooser stated.

Girl Scouts Are Making Plans For Trip To Mexico

Girl Scout Troop No. 187, under the leadership of Mrs. Brode Hoover, has begun a two-year series of money-making projects, the proceeds of which will be donated to finance a trip to the Scout international gathering in Mexico.

The girls may make the trip in two years when they become 15 years of age at a cost of $50 each. Mrs. Hoover stated that 11 Scouts are planning on making the trip.

The gathering place, called a "Cabana," is located at the town of Cuernavaca in Morales, Mexico.

As their first money-making project, the Scouts have been using the skating rink one night a week and sharing in the profits, Mrs. Hoover said.

Wide Range of Guesses Listed in Cotton Contest

Predictions ranging from 42,250 to 78,100 bales have been made on the 1961 cotton yield for Hall County by local prognosticators this week as the annual Cotton Guessing Contest got underway. The contest is sponsored each year by The Memphis Democrat.

Susan Goodnight decided that the crop might not be as good as last year and listed her prediction several bales under the yield of 1960. While Mrs. Gerald Hickey took a rosy view of the future, she listed her prediction much higher than that produced last year.

All readers of The Democrat are eligible to enter the contest. All any person has to do to enter is come by the office of the newspaper and make a prediction. Or, if more convenient, mail a card or letter to The Democrat with the guess listed on it. If a letter or card is written, be sure to include your name and mailing address. No entries will be taken by telephone.

Last day of the contest is Saturday, Oct. 14.

The person who guesses closest to the actual number of bales ginned will win a three-year subscription to The Democrat. Second place winner will receive a two-year subscription, and third place will get a one-year subscription.

Any reader of this newspaper is invited to enter this contest. It is not restricted to residents of this county or state. The total number of bales ginned in Hall County will be the figures used to determine the winners.

The Democrat will publish the names of the winners when the final figures are released on the 1961 crop by the U. S. Department of Interior. This report generally arrives the latter part of March each year.

1962 Fords To Be On Display At Foxhall Motor Co. Here Friday

The 1962 Ford line will be introduced in this area Friday, Sept. 29 at the Foxhall Motor Co. showroom, it was announced this week by Eddie Foxhall, local dealer.

To be introduced will be the Ford Galaxie line and the 1962 Ford Falcon line. The Ford Falcon for 1962 boasts new styling, and expansion of the economy and maintenance-free features that have made it the best selling compact car in the country, and the addition of two new models, a Falcon Squire Station wagon and a Deluxe Club wagon.

For the first time, the popular Ford Galaxie is being offered in 12 models in two series: the Galaxie and the new Galaxie "500" series.

"The 1962 Galaxie is the first regular production vehicle in automotive history to have a factory recommended 6,000 mile service interval," Foxhall said.

Foxhall said that in addition to the many self-maintenance features introduced on the Galaxie last year, 1962 Galaxies will offer: 30,000 mile lubrication for wheel bearings; a factory installed radiator coolant interval of 30,000 miles or two years; extended fuel filter life of 30,000 miles; a recommended oil change interval of 6,000 miles.

"These features, coupled with our 30,000-mile major lubrication schedule, self-adjusting brakes, double-wrapped aluminum muffler, and specially processed underbody parts," he said, "mean that the average 12,000-mile-a-year Galaxie owner will require normal maintenance on his vehicle only once every six months."

The new Falcon line of 13 models will be introduced by Ford dealers on Sept. 29. Included in the Falcon line of 13 models being offered for 1962 are: standard and deluxe two-and four-door sedans, two-door Futura, standard and deluxe two and four-door station wagons, four-door Squire station wagon, Station Bus, Club wagon, and Deluxe Club wagon.

The standard engine for all Falcon models, except the Club Wagon, is an improved version of the six-cylinder, 85 horsepower engine that in 1961 recorded the greatest gas mileage ever achieved for any "6" or "8" in the 25-year history of the Mobilgas Economy Run.

Both this 144 cubic inch power plant, and the optional 170 cubic inch, 101 horsepower engine, has a new, redesigned carburetor that provides quicker cold starts, more efficient warm-up and smoother idling.

Some of the engineering improvements for the Falcon include the same improvements as in the Galaxie as far as the Factory-installed engine coolant, oil change interval, and fuel filter. The front wheel bearings now go to 12,000 miles between lubrications. Falcon body contains 50 per cent more insulation for greatly increased quietness of operation.

A new standard transmission

interlock mechanism prevents drivers from "clashing the gears."

The sculptured body of the 1962 Galaxie gives the appearance of actual motion to its unmistakably classic Ford lines. This appearance of movement is emphasized in the recessed Thunderbird-like rear window, and in the forward thrust of the roof itself.

While the new Galaxie is slightly shorter and fractionally narrower than the 1961 model, the large passenger compartment is the same size as 1961.

Throughout the entire Galaxie line a wide variety of power plant and transmission combinations are available. Four different engines, with optional high-performance packages, three manual transmissions give Galaxie buyers the opportunity to custom order their car.

Election Date Set For Turkey Zone, HCSCD

An election will be held in the Turkey Zone of the Hall County Soil Conservation District Oct. 3, in the Turkey City Hall at 4 p. m., according to W. B. Hooser, county agent.

In this meeting at the Turkey City Hall, a supervisor of the Hall County Soil Conservation District will be elected or re-elected.

Those eligible to vote include anyone 21 years of age who resides within the county, all or any part of which is included in the District, and who holds the title to lands within the Turkey Zone, Hooser said.

The present district supervisor of the Zone of the District is Lee Scrivner.

"If you will attend this meeting and election at the City Hall in Turkey Oct. 3 at 4 p. m. to elect a district supervisor, I will appreciate it very much," Hooser stated.

HAILED OUT COTTON PROMISES HALF BALE

Red Hightight brought a stalk of cotton to town the first of last week to show what hailed out crops are doing. The stalk had blooms, small bolls and grown bolls that should yield half a bale per acre.

He thinks, if frost holds off, many of the hailed out crops will show good returns. Following the hail storm, most of the fields looked as if there would not be any recovery.

County Sports

By Bill Combs

1961 baseball season is drawing to a close, with the World Series not too far away. This year will be remembered by fans as the year of the New York Yankees, who did not break Ruth's record home runs.

Professional and high school football is well underway. Memphis last Friday night the local fans took off their jackets to see different directions to see different games. Most of the talk was about the Cyclone's 20-6 victory over the Wellingtons. The weather at that time was cold. Then, some of the fans went to Wellington to see the Cyclone game. They were disappointed for the Cyclone was postponed for a short time because of heavy rain. The Cyclone's next game was scheduled for Saturday, but it had trouble with their field on such a wet field.

Other fans, which group went to Paducah to see the Quannah-Paducah game. Quannah-Paducah game took a sound beating. However, the Cyclone's effort just was worth the effort just to see the Cyclone's speedy HB Wade. The Cyclone's next game, Paducah, did not fare too well in the 63-0 contest. However, a fullback who is a fine player, Coach Bill Davis, old Supt. W. C. Davis, has coached at Quannah.

Watching the Memphis Cyclone and the Lakeview "A" team last Thursday night, I decided to take time to find out something about the Cyclone's football team. Eight-man football is a smaller field than the regular team. The teams have five and three backs. Coach Bill Davis of Lakeview said that the Cyclone's line is unbalanced. Both passing and running are normally defensive. The Cyclone's defense is 5-2-1. However, if your offense is only a running one, you will run a six-man line. The Cyclone's "dog" explained. The Cyclone's line has a good passer, quarterback, Tony Sahar. Two good ends, Rodney Paul Ponder. With few exceptions, the Cyclone's line has high scores. This is a call for a necessity of running during a game. The Cyclone will have two home games this season. Coach Taylor said that for teams who have ability, they use passing play 50 per cent more than a normal 11-man football team. Besides being a good passer, the Eagle quarterback can also run with the ball.

Many of the men this week are talking about Class I-A and Class II-A districts, and naming the favored teams which have possible state potential. People in McLean were shocked at the outcome of the McLean-White Deer game, which ended 20-6. Statistics showed that McLean held the advantage in the game, but White Deer took advantage of the breaks. It was the opinion of many that a true test of Lefors' strength could not be seen Friday night, in the Wellington-Lefors game which ended 14-0, due to the wet condition. However, Lefors, the week before, had tied White Deer 6-6. Clarendon and Canadian have not been showing very much power in their games this season. As I see it, the Cyclone is in the same position they were last year at this time. They don't play any team that can be compared with any other team in the district with the exception of Wellington. So, until Friday night, at 8 p. m., when the Cyclone goes to McLean, on Oct. 20, it will be anyone's guess as to how strong Memphis is as compared to White Deer, Lefors, Stinnett, and the other teams in the two districts. It is clear, however, that District I-A is not any stronger than District II-A this year.

Quannah Blasts Paducah, 63-0

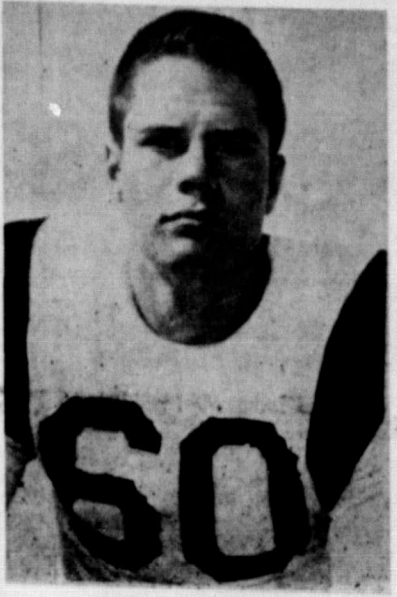

The Quannah Indians used every method of scoring in the game of football besides the touchback to blast the Paducah Dragons 63-0 and dealt them their fourth defeat of the season.

Bill Davis' Indians scored in every period but the third quarter in the one-sided contest.

The Indians' first score came in the opening minutes of the game when Quannah's speedster, James Wade blasted over to score. Everett Kelly place kicked four conversions and one field goal during the game.

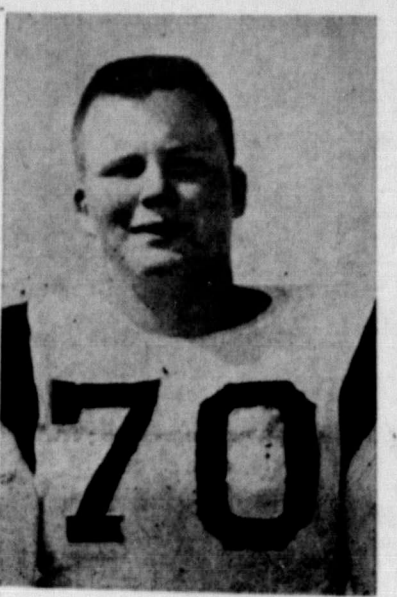

Quannah's second TD came on a 14-yard run by Harold Nippert. The score at the end of the first quarter was 14-0.

One of the most spectacular plays of the night by Wade, a 65-yard end sweep, gave the Indians their third TD at the first of the second quarter. A 5-yard plunge by Danny Shelton made

Turky Turks Down Lorenzo Friday, 6-0

The Turkey Turks added another win to their record defeating the Lorenzo Hornets, 6-0 at Lorenzo Friday night. The game was a hard fought one with Turkey scoring in the fourth quarter to win the game.

The Lorenzo Hornets were kept in a hole all the first half on the superior punting of Turkey's QB Don Guest, whose first three punts went out-of-bounds on the Lorenzo's 1, 3 and 7 yard lines respectively. The score was 0-0 at the half.

Late in the third period, Turkey started a nine-play, TD drive which carried them approximately 50 yards. The third quarter ended during this drive. Three plays late in the fourth quarter, Turkey's LHB, Weatherly, plunged over for the score, from the 2 yard line. On the play before the TD, Weatherly carried on a reverse to the two-yardline. The extra point place kick was no good.

The Turks defensive squad held off a determined Lorenzo drive in the fourth quarter to hang onto their 6 point lead, and to win the game.

Turkey's defensive squad, led by Weatherly, Hutton, Billy Lane and John Edwards was able to stop the Lorenzo offense on the separate occasions during the contest. The Turks threatened to score early in the second quarter but the Lorenzo squad was able to stop both their passing and running attack to keep them away from pay dirt.

The Turks starting lineup included: RE Derrel Fuston, RT Edwards, RG Wilkinson, C Richmond, LG Farley, LT Billy Lane, Le Johnny Fuson, QB Don Guest, LH Weatherly, RH Hutton and FB Stone.

SPORTS

Eagles, Local "B" Tangle

The Memphis Cyclone 'B' squad and the Lakeview Eagles 8-man football team played a high scoring game Thursday night before a small crowd of spectators.

The rules of the game were altered so that both the Eagles' 8-man offensive squad and the Cyclone 'B' team's 11-man offensive squad could receive game experience.

The Eagles opened the scoring of the 44 to 42 ball game in the early minutes, and after kicking off to the local squad, took over the ball on a punt and were able to rack up another TD and extra point with their tricky 8-man offensive attack. When the Eagles kicked off the score was 16-0 in their favor, and the Cyclone 'B' team was never ahead in the game.

The local team's only first half score came in the second quarter when a Cyclone 'B' punt was partially deflected by a Lakeview lineman, and recovered deep in Lakeview territory. The scoring punch came a few plays later on a pass from QB Jimmy Don Sturdevant to End Bill Ellis which good for 6 points and the score was 16-6.

For the remainder of the second quarter, the Eagles 8-man offense run against an 8-man 'B' squad defense rolled for several TDs. The Eagles third score came on a 50 yard pass play, and a quarterback sneak added two more points to make the score 24-6. The Eagles fine running quarterback added another 6 points on the scoreboard on a roll-out play, but the pass for two more points was slapped down by Donnie Bridges of Memphis and the score was 30-6.

With 21 seconds left in the second quarter, the Eagles completed two passes to score their next to the last TD to make the score 36-6. Then on a running play, two more points were made and the half ended 38-6.

As the coaches agreed, the Eagles would field a full 11-man team the second half on both offense and defense. Since the Eagles are an 8-man team, this handicapped their offense and gave the local team a defensive advantage. During the first half when the Eagles were running an 8-man offense, the local team did not know how to defend against it, since that was the first time they had set up an 8-man defense.

After the half, the local team made their second TD in the early minutes to make the score 38-12. The next TD was set up by a long pass to End Jimmy Waites deep in Lakeview territory. The local team plunged over to score and a two-point conversion added two more points to make the score 20-38. Jimmy Waites intercepted a Lakeview pass to set up the local team's next TD, which was climaxed by a carry by Billy Ed Thompson. A line plunge added 2 more points and the score was 28-38.

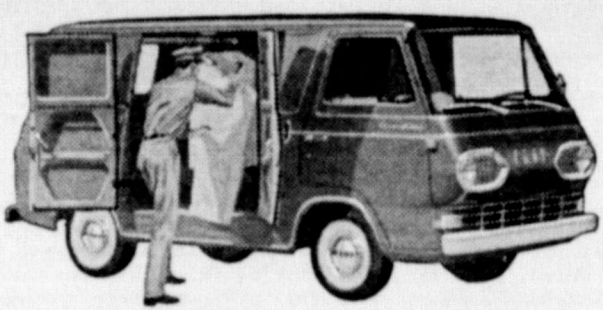

On the Cyclone kickoff, the Lakeview quarterback took the ball on the 35, picked up blockers and scampered all the way to the goal line to score. A two-point pass play went incomplete and the score stood 44-28.

In the closing minutes of the game, a pass to End Waites set up another score. The TD and two more points made the score 36-44. Near the end of the game, another pass to Waites was good for a TD and the score was 42-44. The extra points attempt was fumbled.

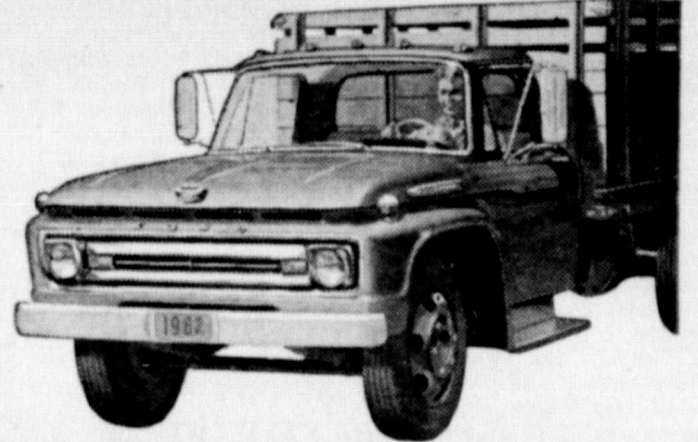

The game ended several plays later.

Browder Home Is Scene For Brunch Introducing 1913 Study Club Year

The members of The 1913 Study Club gathered for a brunch and their first meeting of the club year at the ranch home of Virginia Browder Wednesday morning, September 20th. Acting as co-hostesses were Mmes R. E. Roark and Carl Yancy.

Shortly after arrival, the guests were served a tomato juice appetizer which was followed by a brunch of melon balls, ham and corn bread patties, and d'ace twists served buffet style from a table covered with an India print cloth. The centerpiece of grapes and bronzed magnolia leaves with green tapers was in keeping with the harvest season. Copper and brass trays and ruby-red glass cups accented the gay colors of the cloth. . . and a merry chatter accompanied the enjoyment of the goodies.

Following the harvest, Mrs. L. G. DeBerry, acting as chairman called the meeting to order and extended special greetings and welcome to the four new members; Jan Ferris, Jim Roark, Johnnie Hutcherson, and Lou Smith. The meeting began with a special arrangement of The Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. DeBerry then distributed the new year books and "charted the course" of study and year's work. "On Wings of Knowledge" was chosen as the course of study for 1961-1962. As Mrs. DeBerry explained the programs, the members followed along with delighted smiles and comments in anticipation of an interesting and informative series of meetings to come. The president, Mrs. Bray Cook, was introduced and proceeded to elaborate on the course of study. "On Wings of Knowledge."

"Summer Flights" added humor and gaiety to the meeting with an account from each member of her experiences during the summer. Mrs. Greene had visited some wonderful caverns while in Arkansas which she found were anything but wonderful unless you like walking endlessly. Cy Foxhall had spent most of the summer craning her neck for the stork that finally arrived bringing her the

Around and About

By HELEN COMBS

Fall is here . . . and soon the hum of gin machinery will fill the air day and night, and our town will be blanketed in a mist of smoke. This is our favorite time of year. We love the harvest season. It lends a shade of fulfillment to the air.

This is the season of reward . . . reward for those long and tedious hours spent in tending the soil. This is the season when those ambitions for a new dress, new washer, new furniture, new car, etc., can be realized if there is enough left over from the year's profits.

It's a season for all to work together . . . to pull together . . . to complete a task that was started many weeks ago—the 1961 cotton crop. And just how many bales of cotton Hall County will gin this year is still anybody's guess. Already we have had predictions from 42,250 to 78,100 bales. If you have not listed your guess in the 1961 Cotton Guessing Contest, please do so before the next week is out.

Mrs. Oran Adcock brought in the largest cockscomb we have seen. It is a flower of beauty, and measures more than 13 inches. The color is a velvet red. We understand she has a lovely bed of these plants in bloom at her home.

People are still commenting on how much they enjoyed the Hall County Picnic and seeing many friends who returned here for the occasion. Among the visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Rank Howard, who were married here more than 50 years ago. While here, Mrs. Howard went in to see Byron Baldwin, which brought to mind the fact that he had sold her wedding shoes more than 50 years ago. Mr. Baldwin asked her if she didn't wear a size 2½. "That's right, but how did you remember," Mrs. Howard asked.

While our picnic was in progress here, G. D. Stephens was enjoying a reunion in Marion, Ind. He is not only a graduate of the Marion High School, but returned there more than 50 years ago to teach for his first term. Many of his pupils were at the reunion, Mr. Stephens said. He really had not planned to teach at Marion, but one of the members of the school board came to him and told him that he thought it would be a good precedent to follow in his father's footsteps—who had also graduated from Marion High and later taught there.

Enjoyed a most delicious meal at the IOOF and Rebekah Lodge Hall Monday night. Members of the Rebekah Lodge serve meals on the fourth Monday night of each month. Proceeds from the socials are being used to redecorate the lodge hall. Latest improvement to the building is fluorescent light fixtures.

Today's chuckle: She—"Now, tell me the truth—do you men like the talkative women as well as you do the other kind?" He—"What other kind?"

Sunday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Scoggins of Lesley were Mr. and Mrs. Mode Hatley and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ashcraft and Fern.

BRIDE-ELECT — Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Young, 1622 Broadway, announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Marvann, to Morris Grant Troxell, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Troxell of Amarillo. The wedding will be solemnized 7 o'clock Monday evening, Oct. 2, in the First Christian Church in Memphis.

Miss Marvann Branch, Lt. Newcomb Are Wed In Fort Worth Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Marvann Branch of Fort Worth and 2nd Lt. Sidney Howard Newcomb, Reese AFB, Lubbock, was solemnized at 7:30 p. m. Friday, Sept. 15, in Carswell AFB Protestant Chapel in Fort Worth. Chaplain Robert Leffel, Jr. officiated.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Branch, former Memphis residents and Fort Worth. Miss Branch is niece of Mr. and Mrs. Innes and Randolph Johnson of Memphis. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. S. G. M. Dominican Republic.

Miss Omalu Branch, sister's only attendant, and Lt. Nick Holly of Reese AFB were bridesmaids. Ushers were Robert Rischer of Reese AFB and Dudley Ray Cole of Longview.

Given in marriage by her, the bride wore a strapless dress of ivory brocade. She had long sleeves and a notched neckline. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and d'Amour.

A reception was held at Carswell Officers Club. Of the house party were R. Bateman and Miss Dvoracek, Armita Keene and Jeanne Woolf. Linda and Jeanne Woolf.

After a wedding trip to the coast, the couple will live in Fort Worth. The bride wore a green suit with black accents.

The bride attended Texas Tech and the bridegroom is a member of the U.S. Air Force.

Mrs. McMurry Is Hostess To Delphian Club

Mrs. J. S. McMurry was hostess to the Delphian Club on Sept. 19, with the following members attending: Mrs. R. H. Wherry, Mrs. J. W. Stokes, Miss Maud Milam, Mrs. Jack Boone, Mrs. Lynn McKown, Mrs. J. L. Barnes, Mrs. O. R. Goodall, Mrs. Sim W. Goodall, Mrs. Henry Hays, Mrs. Bob Fowler, Mrs. Joe Lloyd Mothershed, Mrs. Clyde Smith, Mrs. C. D. Keith, Mrs. W. C. Dickey, Mrs. C. C. Hodges, and one guest, Mrs. Frank Blackwell of McKinney.

The president, Mrs. Keith, called the meeting to order with club members standing for a moment of silent prayer, followed by the business meeting.

The program on Home Life was introduced by Mrs. Smith with Mrs. Boone giving the devotion saying, "To build a true Christian home each member must bring his own gift to the fireside, strength is developed from the whole family. Encourage children by saying 'You are a good boy' or 'You are a good girl' and the child will develop into what is expected of him."

Do We Cheat Our Children explained Miss Milam, is the rock of the foundation of a unified family. The home is the place in which youngsters are guided and directed. It is possible to blame crime on the lack of family closeness or spiritual guidance from parents. A child that always has his own way or fails to accept responsibility may be headed for an era of crime, she said.

Mrs. Mothershed continued by explaining that "parents have rights to make rules, right to be different, right to make mistakes, to disagree with the children, the right to show feelings and to control disappointments, rights to privacy, right to be worried, right to seek help. Parents need friends as well as children. Life will be empty after the children are reared if parents do not continue growing as persons."

"Don't Tell Your Age" was the topic for discussion of Mrs. Sim Goodall. "How old are you? People are asked this question from the first day they can talk to the last day of their sunset years. They may answer: 'I am 5' or 'I am 25' or perhaps 'I am 65.'"

Youth means a temperamental predominance of courage over timidity, over an appetite for adventure over a love of ease. People grow old only by deserting their ideals; as years wrinkle the skin, but to give up enthusiasm wrinkles the soul. Worry, doubt, distrust, fear and despair—these are the long, long years that bow

The head and turn the spirit to dust," she quoted. Mrs. Goodall quoted a newspaper clipping, "I long ago I made up my mind if I couldn't be beautiful the outside I would try to be beautiful from within. I do not want to see looking in the mirror. Myself beautiful, but when I see good to most people they see me coming."

A lovely refreshment of fresh apple pie, nuts and coffee was served. Mrs. McMurry.

Free Chevrolet Lines To Go Display Friday At Potts

Chevrolet's passenger car line of 1962 features extensive styling and major mechanical changes for its standard models. The complete line of small cars, known as Chevy II, M. Potts and Homer Tucker, local dealers announced this will bring the company's passenger car line-up to 32 — highest in its history. Available in the Corvair, Corvair Chevy II and standard Chevrolet lines. These cars will be on display at Potts Chevrolet show beginning Friday, Sept. 29, at Potts Chevrolet Co. show room here.

The new Chevy II is larger than the Corvair but smaller than the regular car. Station wagon with optional bucket seats. The new Chevy II, while being slightly larger on the outside than the Corvair, is designed to give passenger car and luggage space more nearly equal that of the standard Chevrolet. The car is 183 inches long and has a 110-inch wheelbase. It is 70.8 inches wide and 55 inches high.

The car has simple, yet refined styling. Finely sculptured lines flow the length and width of the car to give it a long and substantial appearance. The nine Chevy II models are divided into three series, with station wagons listed in each. In addition, two-door and four-door sedans are included in the 100 and 300 series. The Nova series also includes a sport coupe and convertible.

Economy of operation is emphasized in both the four-cylinder and six-cylinder engines designed specifically for the Chevy II. This will mark the first time since 1928 that Chevrolet has offered a four-cylinder power plant. The four-cylinder engine has a 153 cu. in. displacement and is rated at 90 horsepower. The six-cylinder unit has 194 cu. in. displacement and generates 120 horsepower. Both automatic and three-speed manual transmissions are available in the Chevy II.

The body-frame integral design used by Chevy II provides unusual strength and torsional rigidity as well as weight savings. The highly functional design of the entire car allows maximum conversion of exterior size to usable interior space for passenger comfort and luggage storage. In addition, the unitized front end structure will decrease maintenance costs because of easier access of components and parts for maintenance, repair or replacement.

The wide customer choice available in the Chevy II is further accentuated by the 14 exterior colors which will be available along with color-keyed interiors. A full line of comfort and safety options will be available, including power windows and steering.

The new standard Chevrolet has a crisp, tailored look. The models have completely new metal, grille work, bumpers, fenders, and as well as new exterior colors and restyled interiors. New roof lines for sedans and the Impala sport coupe also reflect the new styling, they number of mechanical changes and modifications will improve performance, durability and economy of 1962 models, Potts, local dealer said.

Among the major changes are the new V8 engine, a weight-saving Powerglide automatic transmission and tires advanced two-ply design.

The new V8 engine is rated at 150 horsepower. It replaces the 148 cu. in. engine except for use in trucks. Its performance is rated at 348, but fuel economy and engine operating efficiency both improved, it was expected.

The redesigned Powerglide will be used with the new V8 engine in both the four- and six-cylinder engines of the Chevy II. Extensive use of aluminum will save 85 pounds of weight. The new tires give improved economy and ride quality.

Retaining load-carrying ability, strength and durability of the tires. The redesigned front seat anchors are standard equipment on all 1962 Chevrolet cars. The slip differential and air conditioning are also available on the line of 32 passenger models.

The new styling appearance of the Corvair will have new twin

Then—head for the open highway. ■ That sittin'-on-satin feeling you get is Chevrolet's famous Jet-smooth ride at work—with a pliant Full Coil spring cushioning at each wheel. The standard six and V8 are triggered to do special things on regular gas, and for real hair-trigger reflexes you have a choice of four optional-at-extra-cost V8's with output all the way up to 409 hp. ■ Hard-working helpers (like the new steel front fender underskirts that guard against corrosion) give this '62 its built-for-keeps beauty. Even the heater and defroster come as standard equipment this year. This is the kind of car that will make you feel luxurious all over, and your Chevrolet dealer will be only too happy to show you how easy it is to have one of your own.

Corvair Monza Club Coupe

THE '62 CORVAIR MONZA

Meet the car that puts sport in the driver's seat! Bigger new brakes and Corvair's renowned rear-engine traction offer just about the surest footed going on the road. A new Monza Station Wagon makes its debut. And all models sport freshly tailored upholstery inside matched by sassy new styling accents outside.

This jim-dandy's got the stuff that drivers dote on. ■ Backstage you have a standard aluminum air-cooled engine that turns up 80 hp. (or if you like more razzamatazz, one that uncorks 102 hp*). ■ Sure enough, there's independent suspension on all four wheels to keep the ride as amiable as ever. Inside, you'll find a heater and defroster, cigarette lighter, dual sunshades, front-door armrests and automatic choke as standard equipment on most models. ■ There are lots of reasons for liking what's new—and tried and true—in the '62 Corvair. And your dealer's eager to tick 'em off for you. *Optional at extra cost.

Chevy II 300 2-Door Sedan

HERE'S THE NEW CHEVY II

Here's modern basic transportation in a totally new line of cars with all the solid, time-tested Chevrolet virtues—plus some surprises you've never seen on any car before. A full line of saucy new-size models. Thrifty? Choice of a frugal 4- or spunky 6-cylinder engine (in most models). Roomy? Sedans seat six solid citizens. Price? A real pleasant surprise!

This plucky new Chevy II comes about as close as a car can to perpetual motion. ■ All nine models (station wagons, a hardtop, even a convertible will soon be available in the lineup) are designed to save you money and service. Major front-end sections, including fenders, bolt on for easy replacement in case of damage. The heater and defroster are yours as standard equipment. Tough—but ever-so-gentle—Mono-Plate rear springs eliminate the friction of old-fashioned multi-leaf springs. ■ And, maneuverable and sensibly sized as this Chevy II is, it gives you the kind of room that'll make many a "big" car wonder how it's done.

MINUTE MEDITATION

O Lord, give us faith to resist when we are pressed on every side by our Ancient Foe.

When the Ardent Assailant runs hotly on our trail, give us wisdom and power to overcome him with the Sword of the Spirit.

Grant us strength to press the front of the battle deep into his ranks; let us meet him in the field of conflict and put to death the hostile forces of evil. Let every soldier of Christ put on the "whole armor of God" and contend with Satan til his blood runs deep in Armageddon.

O great Captain of our salvation, help us to raise up the banner of the Prince Immanuel and let the battle cry be sounded until the alarm echos in the ears of those who struggle in the valley of death.

When the last shot is fired and the guns loom silent by shot-seared walls, when the Angel of the Lord hath sworn to Him that sitteth on the throne that time shall be no longer, may we be able to say with Paul, "I have fought a good fight."

Advertising . . . A Force For Democracy

Advertising is the bulwark on which many of our freedoms are built. Some of these freedoms are as small as the choice of a tube of tooth paste, and some as large as the exploration of outer space — but, large or small, they are the open gates through which we can constantly expand the scope of our lives. Advertising makes possible the marketing of goods and services, encourages competition among businesses, and assures the people of free countries a choice between competing products.

Advertising gives us freedom of enjoyment, because the makers of competing products must price their goods as low as possible — and when the cost of necessities is held to a minimum, people have money left for recreation and entertainment. Advertising gives workers freedom from much exhausting physical labor — and a greater choice of ways to earn a living. Advertising, by increasing the demand for products, makes mass-production methods possible, necessitates the use of gigantic machines to carry tremendous weights, and creates a labor market in which intelligent "man hours" are more vital than "horse power."

Advertising gives job-holders security by sustaining a demand for products and giving financial stability to the company which makes them.

Most important of all, advertising gives us freedom of knowledge. Every public means of communication in the United States is supported by the advertising it sells.

Without the several thousand trade publications which cover individual segments of our industrial fields, manufacturers would not know of new machinery and techniques available, retailers might never learn of new products available for their stores, and doctors would have to leave their patients and return to medical school to keep abreast of modern medical research.

Without radio and television, we would be unable to hear the voices of our national leaders. During the political campaign, the men for whom we vote can become almost as familiar to us as our families, and we choose our candidates confidently, because we know them — thanks to the advertising media.

Without newspapers and magazines we would have no knowledge of important events which take place half-a-block or half-a-continent from our homes. Newspapers, often sold for less than the cost of the paper and ink, can give us facts from all over the world in a matter of hours. Magazines, published at a more leisurely pace, but still supported by their advertising pages, can utilize their staffs and freelance writers to find the long-range trends, or to explore subjects which will interest and teach their readers.

Advertising has been strongly criticized, and sometimes weakly defended. Perhaps the greatest commentary on advertising as a force for democracy is that there is no advertising industry behind the Iron Curtain.

Dictators have much to hide — and nothing to advertise.

Cotton . . . The Miracle Fiber

In an advertisement which appeared in last week's issue of The Democrat, appeared these words: "Cotton . . . the miracle fiber only Nature could have created." The message, published by the Memphis Compress Company, describes the many advantages of the fiber which is the main-stay of Hall County's economy.

Too many people in this area are too close to this "miracle fiber" to recognize its advantages. Among the points in its favor might be mentioned its flexibility and versatility as far as fashion designers are concerned. From the standpoint of the purchaser of wearing apparel, we quote the following: "There is no denying it — nothing looks like cotton, does like cotton, is like cotton. It's in a class by itself."

The fiber is a natural for adaptability in all stages from the breeding plot to the spinning mill. Its textiles are naturally adaptable to notable developments such as wash and wear, water repellency, heat resistance, luster, and many others. Other advantages which might be noted is its launderability, durability, beauty, long wear and comfort.

Closer to home, it is recognized as the choice crop for farmers of this area because it is the "money crop." At the same time, cotton sustains one of the great industries of this nation, provides employment and income for several million people who play a part in its transformation from a raw material into useful finished products.

At least we of Hall County can do our part in helping move more fiber in commerce. We can use more cotton products and wear more cotton clothing.

What Other Editors Say Sales Tax I wonder how much longer the sales tax is going to last in Texas? There are more disappointed people over this bit of legislation than any that has come out of Austin that I remember. The store clerks are unsure, the people are unsure and I feel the lawmakers are unsure of what is to be taxed and what isn't. With the resentment that is now being shown against the tax, it looks as if the next special session may be needed to change and revamp the entire sales tax program—it needs it!

Money In 1913 the Federal Reserve System was created. Regardless of the word "Federal" it is privately owned. The Federal Reserve unconstitutionally issues our currency. The private banks controlling the Reserve are largely composed of international banking interests and their motivation is not remotely connected with your or my welfare.

The Federal Reserve pays the United States $1.25 per $1,000 for the currency they issue—this is to cover the cost of printing. Though issued by the Reserve, this money is guaranteed by the people of the United States. In 1913 the Reserve had a capital of 147 million. Today, without producing anything whatsoever

Memories Turning Back Time From The Democrat Files

30 YEARS AGO October 2, 1931 Plans were made for Memphis to have a band at a meeting of the members of the Memphis Gold Medal Band held for the first time in over two years Monday evening at eight o'clock in the band hall. This was the first meeting of members of the organization since the death of the late Paul James, formerly director of the band for about 12 years. Through the efforts of W. C. Milam, the members were brought together. Final preparations are being made by members of the Fair directorate this week for the opening of the Hall County District Fair that will be held here Wednesday and Thursday, October 7 and 8. The Fair this year will feature home demonstration club products, 4-H products and common and independent school work, according to J. Henry Read, secretary of the Fair Association. Byron Baldwin and John Vallance are in Amarillo this week attending Federal Court.

20 YEARS AGO October 2, 1941 Hall County's fourth annual Dairy Show, declared by Oscar Evans, manager of the Tierra Blanca Farm in Canyon, to be as big and as good as the Tri-State Fair dairy show, is over, and Cleron McMurry of Memphis is wearing a big smile on his face. Miss Dorcas Wilson Becomes Bride Of Larry Patterson In Illinois Ceremony

The wedding of Miss Dorcas Clementine Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Wilson of 107 S. Lincoln Blvd., Centralia, Illinois, and Larry Joe Patterson took place Sunday afternoon, Aug. 22, 1961, at the First Christian Church. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Patterson of 121 E. 10th St., Centralia.

The Rev. Homer L. Watkins officiated at the ceremony before an altar decorated with pink gladioli and chrysanthemums. One large bouquet featured an open Bible with candelabra entwined with flowers on either side.

Miss Joan Behrens, organist, played appropriate music and accompanied Miss Eva Carr, who sang "Because" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple knelt at the altar.

The bride chose a chapel length gown of nylon organza over silk taffeta. The bodice featured short sleeves and a portrait neckline with a rounded yoke of tulle edged with bands of silk rosebuds. A peplum of tiny pleated organza just below the waistline was also banded with the rosebud trim. The full skirt fell in soft folds over the six ring hoop underskirt. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink Fiji mums dropping from it over a white Bible.

Attendants to the bride were Miss Barbara Gregory, as maid of honor; Mrs. Sue Forehand, sister of the bride, and Miss Linda Burtchinas, bridesmaids; and Valeria Jean and Melody Ann Parkinson, cousins of the bride, as junior bridesmaids. They were all attired in dresses of pink crystal with scalloped necklines, small cap sleeves and bouffant skirts. They wore matching shoes and headpieces and carried cascade bouquets of pink chrysanthemums cascading downward. Their crystal earrings were gifts of the bride.

Kenneth Eubanks of Sanjovail

attended the groom as best man. Groomsmen were Richard Heavener of Salem and Jim Bonner of Centralia, a cousin of the groom. David Eggers and Dwight Telford, cousins of the groom, ushered.

Mrs. Wilson, mother of the bride, selected an embroidered beige sheath dress, with brown accessories. The groom's mother wore an off-white and brown lace sheath dress with brown and white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white Fiji mums.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall following the ceremony. The Mary-Martha Class was in charge of the reception with Mrs. Russell Davis as chairman. Misses Karen Smith and Carol Reed served the punch, and Misses Joan Fleming and Janet Emery served the cake. The guest book was attended by Miss Sue Spiller.

The bride is a 1960 graduate of Centralia Township High School and is employed in the office of the Star Service and Petroleum Company.

The groom was graduated from CTHS in 1959, and attended two years at Centralia Junior College. He is employed in the transportation division of Illinois Central Railroad.

Following a trip through Kentucky, Tennessee and Indiana, the couple will reside at 620 1/2 7th St., Centralia.

Mrs. Patterson is the granddaughter of Mrs. Clementine Wilson of Memphis.

Officers Named For Cyclone Band

Officers for the Memphis High School "A" band for the current school year are as follows:

President, Carol Hanna; vice president, Dale Kilgore; secretary, treasurer and reporter, Teresa Beckham; librarian, Elaine Snow.

Hall County Soil Conservation District News

The management of crop residues is a very important phase of farming operations in the Hall County Soil Conservation District.
 Crop residues managed properly, on the soil surface, can stop the soil from blowing, during the coming months, when high winds prevail.

All have seen fields, with no residue or cover on them, blowing during the winter and early spring. The soil that blows off into bar ditches, as drifts and dunes, and the dust that blows away, in the air, is a great loss to the farmer and the community.
 It takes nature hundreds of years and sometimes thousands of years to produce an inch of top soil.
 Without proper protection, that inch of topsoil can be lost in one sand storm.

A growing crop is the best protection for the land. Sufficient residues from previous crops is the next best protection.

The amount of residue needed to protect the land varies with the different soils. The thing to remember is to keep as much of the crop residues, from the previous crops, on the soil surface as long as possible. Definitely these residues should be managed on the surface throughout the blowing season, and throughout the year when possible.

More residues can be kept on the surface of the soil when sweep or chisel type equipment is used.
 Mold board and disc plows tend to cover up the residues.

Crop residues left on the soil surface, not only reduce wind erosion, but it also slows down runoff and decreases water erosion. It increases the water intake rate into the soil, thereby helping to fill the soils storehouse of moisture.

Soil Conservation technicians are available to assist any farmer in planning the management of crop residue for the maximum benefit of the land.

Suffocation Is Greatest Killer Of Children

Disease, at one time, was the principal killer of children. But modern medicines and vaccines are so effective today that diseases don't kill nearly as many children as do accidents.

One of the greatest hazards, especially for children under four years, is suffocation, according to T. J. Bridges, Lone Star Gas Company manager.

Lone Star and The Memphis Democrat are co-sponsors of the 1961 Home Safety Program in Memphis.

Approximately 1,400 Americans a year die from suffocation. Of this total, 1,250 are in the 0-4 age group.

Infections of the respiratory system cause some fatalities. Reports also show that babies have been smothered by becoming entangled in bed covering or their own clothing; that others have been strangled in gagging after vomiting; some have been suffocated by smoke; and still others have choked to death after having swallowed loose objects.

"Babies and toddlers pop just about everything into their mouths," Bridges said. "Small items must be kept out of reach.

These include pins, needles, nails, buttons, beads, tiny toys, peanuts or peas or popcorn, doll's eyes that may be loosened and swallowed, rattles containing stones or shot which might be swallowed if the rattle is broken, and marbles and caps from bottles, cans and toothpaste.

"At bedtime, for protection against smothering, the child should have his own crib without a pillow. Soft bedding should be avoided. Do not let blankets cover his face.

"Do not give a small child anything to play with, such as plastic bags, blankets, sheets, etc. which might cause smothering.

"Teach the child to avoid kitchen appliances and electric cords. Keep knives and other sharp objects out of the reach of children," Mr. Bridges concluded.

The Memphis office is micronairing about one sample out of every bag, which contains approximately 15 samples. About 80 per cent of all the samples have measured above 4.1 on the machine.

According to Voelkel, if cotton will not micronaire above 2.6 it is considered wasty. However, as of Wednesday, they have found no wasty samples.

Three per cent of the cotton classed last week was 29-32 of an inch or shorter; 79 per cent was 31-32 or 15-16 of an inch; and 18 per cent was 31-32 of an inch or longer.

Of the 3,278 samples 16 per cent were white plus or better, 31 per cent white middling or lower, 49 per cent was strict middling spotted or below. There were 10 spotted samples.

From and About People

James E. Meador, 94, Motley cowboy, was buried at Matador last Thursday. He came to that county in 1891 and worked for the Matador Ranch. He was the father of Douglas Meador, editor of the Matador Tribune.

Another pioneer, Charles W. Roberts of Wellington, celebrated his 100th Birthday Anniversary Monday. He settled in Collingsworth County some 70 years ago, and was a prosperous farmer there for many years.

Just stand aside and watch yourself go by! Think of yourself as "he," instead of "I." Pick flaws, find fault; forget the man is you, and strive to make your estimate ring true. The faults of others then will dwarf and shrink; love's chain grows stronger by one mighty link when you, with "he" as substitute for "I," have stood aside and watched yourself go by. —Copied.

Denver City railroad was building toward Hall County, a townsite company was formed. It included J. C. Montgomery, Rev. J. W. Brice, and T. J. Woods, a Dallas man. J. G. Noel platted an addition.

Every name proposed was rejected by the postal authorities because another Texas town had the right to that name. Rev. Brice was in Austin on business when, by chance, he saw a letter addressed to "Memphis, Texas" and marked, "No such town in Texas."

Since there was no post office of this name in the state, he felt that they would be safe in proposing it. The authorities approved and in short time the nameless town was known to the world as Memphis.

ARMY ENGINEERS SEARCH SECRET OF SALT SPRING

The Salt Spring in Red River at Estelline is now being searched for clues as to the cavity, origin of water and the direction from which it flows. An Army Corps of Engineers and skin divers have been plumbing its depths and drilling test holes around the Spring for some weeks. Skindivers went down the hole 120 feet below ground level, and found the hole had narrowed so that further penetration was not possible. They found that the hole sloped due north.

The Salt Spring flows around 2,300 gallons per minute, and it has been estimated that 10 per cent of Red River's pollution is caused by this one spring. The final report of the engineers' findings will be awaited with interest.

People of this area have been using Salt Spring as a swimming place for more than half a century, because of being able to stay on top whether one could swim or not.
