Growing World Troubles!

If you have been keeping up with the tactics of Mr. Khrushchev for the past several years, as many news writers have been doing, it is rather easy to see the pattern the Russians are taking in their try for world domination.

There is no country connected to the boundary of the USSR or its satellites that has not been pressured by the "Big Bear." Who is the latest victim of this organized pressure by Russia? The country to the northwest, Finland.

In 1939, Joseph Stalin, who was recently kicked out of his tomb of honor by Khrushchev (It took Mr. K. this long to gain enough support to do this so that when he dies he can have the tomb), attacked that little Scandinavian country in order to defend herself against Germany after Finland refused to grant Russia the right to establish military bases and give other concessions to Russia.

Mr. K. is playing pretty much the same hand he did in all the countries from South Korea all along the line west to Finland — terrorize, pressure, and push. Will there be another winter war between Finland and Russia? Many observers do not believe so. Khrushchev's aim, many officials say, is to compel Finland to abandon her post-war policy of neutrality, and to line up with the Soviet Union in foreign policy. This would include the forcing of Finland to join Russia in signing a peace treaty with East Germany, and in extending recognition to the Communist regime there.

There is another side to this thing. Mr. K. is attempting to frighten Sweden into less pro-Western neutrality, and to terrorize Norway and Denmark into a policy of non-co-operation with NATO.

How is Mr. K. doing this? He is using the 50-Megaton blast to impress the world, especially the neutrals like Finland, that Russia has a decisive power advantage over the U. S.

During the days that the U. S. power was spectacularly superior to Russia's, then the USSR had no choice but to tolerate the existence of a little neutral nation on her frontier. However, today, the Russians are attempting to prove that the power balance has shifted in her favor, and she wants to convince the world that she doesn't have to tolerate this situation any more.

If a neutral country yields to the pressure the Russians exert, then it isn't very long until they are a part of Russia. However, if a nation resists, then, the Big Bear passes them up for a more convenient period of time.

The major difference between Russia today and Germany in the late 1930's and early 1940's seems to lie in the philosophy of their leaders. Hitler believed that Germany must rule the world during his lifetime and he rushed the German people into their world wide conquest. On the other hand, Mr. K. does not believe that he will live to see the Communist philosophy spread over the world, but he is working toward that goal every day. The Russian's have shown in the past that they can wait to get what they want. This is what makes the cold war colder, and a long battle to fight.

Pioneer Teamsters Slain

Satana, Stank and Big Tree were Comanche Indian Chiefs. On May 18, 1871, these chiefs led their warriors in an attack, killing seven teamsters hauling forage between Jacksboro and Fort Griffin. The grave of these teamsters is now marked 20 miles east of Newcastle, Young County, in North Texas.

Packsaddle Mountain Battle

Packsaddle Mountain, southeast of Llano, in Central Texas, was the site of the last Indian battle in that region. A highway marker nearby reads, "In a battle fought August 4, 1873, Captain J. B. Moss, Stephen B. Moss, William B. Moss, Eli Lloyd, Arch Martin, Pink Ayers, E. D. Harrington and Robert Brown routed a band of Indians three times their number."

Oldest Living Baptist Church

The "oldest living Baptist Church" in Texas was established in 1838, about four miles north of Nacogdoches in East Texas.

Although the small log structure was initially built in 1838, the present Old North Church building dates from 1852. Isaak Reed, pioneer Baptist Minister, organized the church. Reverend Reed came to Texas in 1834 from Tennessee. He held the first Baptist prayer meeting in 1835 under a tree near the present site of the Old North Church. Under that tree there is now a monument with the unique remembrance that "God alone can make a tree."

Horsehead Crossing on Pecos

Horsehead Crossing is located south of Crane, Texas, in the far western part of the state.

An historical marker pays tribute to this important early day crossing and tells of how it was used.

It reads: "Well known to frontiersmen and used by emigrants for several years preceding, this crossing was an important point on the Southern Overland Mail (Butterfield Route) which linked St. Louis and San Francisco with a semi-weekly mail and stage service, 1858-1861."

First Ice in Texas

Ten cents per pound was the cost of ice in Texas in 1875. That's the year the first ice plant was established in Texas.

Site of this first ice plant is on the present Marion County Court House grounds in Jefferson, in the North East part of the state. Later this ice plant was moved to Harrisburg. Had ice plants flourished more rapidly in Texas, who knows, we might be larger than Alaska today.

Diamond Bessie's Grave

"Diamond Bessie" now lies in a well-marked, fenced grave in the cemetery at Jefferson, Texas, in the northeast part of the state. This beautiful, well dressed, and be-diamonded woman was found murdered near Jefferson only a few days after her marriage to a Rothschild.

Rothschild destroyed one eye in a suicide attempt, on being charged with the murder. He was twice convicted of first-degree murder, but twice freed by a reversal from a higher court. The trial lasted seven years.

What Other Editors Say

It's Work—Not Wages

At present the ultimate question in the United States is: "How long will this country remain an industrial nation?"

Reason for the question is because increasing numbers of American firms are setting up factories abroad. The as to "why", is a rather simple one.

In the recent report of President Gordon Patterson of Yale & Towne is a warning that American industry approaches a crossroads from which there is no turning back.

In the company's international operations, involving plants in several foreign countries, Patterson reported "a better relationship of productivity-to-wage cost than we have experienced in the U. S. in recent years."

Contrasted with this overseas situation, the same company's plant in Philadelphia is strike-bound because its workers rejected a 21 1/2c an hour package increase rather than drop "certain production-restricting practices."

In plain language, what Patterson is saying is this: U. S. workers, enjoying the world's highest wages and most extensive employee benefits, are hamstringing management by their insistence on various forms of featherbedding, while, at the same time, foreign workers are contentedly out-producing them and at far lower wage scales.

If there is such a thing as "labor statesmanship" now is the time for it to come forth. American labor leaders should lead their members back to the path of sanity by removing obstacles in the way of productivity and increase their job security.

It isn't the wages nor the conditions that are causing American labor to lose out in the race—it is simply the lack of willingness to work for what they are getting paid.

"McCarthyism neither burned nor beheaded a single martyr. Its sole weapon was the creation of an unfavorable climate of opinion; But it harassed and hampered the scientific community far more effectively than did those Fundamentalists who put through the Tennessee 'monkey law' 30 years earlier. . . . McCarthy is dead, but to assume that McCarthyism died with him is reckless optimism."

I strongly suspect that the above quotation is one to make J. Evetts Haley's Texans for America, the DAR and John Birch Society chortle with glee. At the same time I am equally confident that the now notorious triune would scream bloody murder at the mention of the author, Gerald W. Johnson. The quote appears in one of a series of essays which have appeared in such reputable magazines (I hope) as Atlantic Monthly and the Saturday Review. They have been combined to appear in book form under the title "The Man Who Feels Left Behind."

These observations are prompted by the current censorship program being endorsed by the three mentioned groups. The censorship, as you must know, despite little or no mention in the daily press, is directed at books which will be used for study in Texas' schools for the next six years.

At this point the latest intelli-

Society seems inevitable. And in the near future.

The time may well be near when it will be as difficult for a Texan to procure an uncensored title as in Moscow.

My immediate concern is for the school children, and it is a personal concern as well as tearful skepticism over the degree of literacy to be given public school children during the coming years of what appear to be Haley-DAR-Birchism ascendancy. I have three children who will be bound to attend the schools through them all and I accordingly anticipate, if the threesomes star remains at its zenith, to be hauled off to gaol for

Galaxie and Falcon

Some cars have new names... this name will have a new car!

The name is familiar—the Ford Fairlane 500. The car itself is totally new—so new you'll see nothing else like it this year. It is one of Ford's milestone designs—and will be as influential in its way as the first mass-produced car (a Ford Model T), the first popular station wagon (a Ford Wagon), the first four-passenger luxury car (a Ford Thunderbird), the world's most successful compact (a Ford Falcon).

Right between Galaxie and Falcon in size and in price, the 1962 Ford Fairlane 500 is just the right car for just about everybody; you have never been able to buy anything so right before.

Big in room, ride and performance, it is still priced under most compacts. It nurses a nickel as though it never expected to see another. It moves like a rabbit on roller skates.

Twice-a-year maintenance
Service is reduced to a minimum—30,000 miles on many items, twice a year on the rest. You go 30,000 miles between major lubrications, 6,000 miles between oil changes and minor lubrications. You don't have to touch the engine coolant-antifreeze for two years—or 30,000 miles—at a time. Brakes adjust themselves.

would be gratifying in a smaller car. In a car this size it's a downright delight.

Preview America's newest car now
As part of Preview Run U.S.A., new Fairlane 500's are riding the nation's highways and main streets right now. Watch for them. See what thousands have already seen—and raved about. Take a turn at the wheel—and perhaps do a little raving yourself.

We think you'll agree: this all-new Ford is just right for just about everybody. No matter how many new cars you've looked at, you haven't seen any thing like this one. It will be at your Ford Dealer's next week. If you miss it now, be sure to see it then.

New unitized body a foot shorter outside . . . full-size inside

Ford engineers have changed the proportions of the automobile: a completely new unitized body gives you more room inside with less bulk outside. A foot shorter than previous Fairlanes, the new Fairlane 500 is pleasantly parkable, delightfully driveable, easily garageable. At the same time it packs into its neat and nifty 197 inches as much passenger room as you had in some of the biggest Fords ever built.

All-new economy Eight from world's V-8 leader

The hand that honed the Thunderbird—and sped the Falcon to all-time Economy Run honors—turned to a new problem here, the world's first economy V-8. Made possible by new Ford foundry methods, the new Challenger V-8 is as strong as iron—and a lot lighter than iron's ever been before. As lively as you'd like. . . . thrifter than you'd expect a V-8 to be. . . . it's a natural powerplant for America's first cat-your-cake-and-have-it-car.

For those who want even greater thrift, there's a new Fairlane Six. Its economy of the Delphian Club Mrs. George Greenhaw of the world tour she made months ago at an annual meeting on Tuesday afternoon. The social was held in the ballroom with members and guests in attendance.

She was greeted by Mrs. C. C. Davis, president of the club, who used the words of the hymn in her welcome. Mrs. Greenhaw said, "I am blessed by the friends who are making this trip for me. It is one of God's best gifts. I have many things, but above all, I have the power of going out of my home and appreciating what is so beautiful and loving in the world."

Keith introduced Mrs. Greenhaw as a guest speaker by saying she is an active worker in the Methodist Church. She is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and has been a member for many years. She is also a member of the Delphian Club and has been a member for many years. She is a very active worker in her church and in her community. She is a very kind and generous person and is always ready to help others. She is a very popular person and is loved by all who know her.

radise of the Pacific, by Pan American jet, where we were greeted by the chief by a kiss on the cheek when he placed the lei around our necks, was most wonderful. On this night we were entertained at several night clubs and saw the hula hula girls perform; took a bus tour of the island where we saw Japanese and Chinese Christian churches, Hawaiian University; at Pearl Harbor we paid homage to the American dead soldiers; and lunched in a tea garden on Waikiki Beach.

"From Hawaii we crossed the international date line and lost one day somehow, arriving in Old Tokyo to be met by the agent of the travel bureau. We were assigned three Japanese guides for the week we were to spend in Japan."

"I was happy that we arrived in old Tokyo, the city of nine million people; and I think one-half of them were on the highway that day. There is no traffic system and we were two and one-half hours getting to the Imperial Hotel. The women were padding along in wooden shoes with their babies strapped to their backs. All Japanese go bareheaded."

"A friend of my roommate took us to see a part of Tokyo that was very unique. . . . We visited a Japanese family; it was like a miniature doll house. We attended Japanese bazaars, had luncheon in the Tower of Tokyo, the tallest building in the world, and I had my first experience with chopsticks. We saw the Imperial Palace grounds and attended a Japanese Opera. When we were given a program, the words were in English and this gave us a better perspective. We clapped when the others cheered."

"On Monday we had an excursion of Nyko on the most beautiful train I have ever seen. We went into a gorge on an elevator to see a beautiful waterfall some 351 feet high."

"We saw the great Buddha that stands 49 feet high with eyelashes four and one-half inches long, that has stood for many centuries during wars and storms perhaps from 200 B. C."

"The Japanese farms may not average more than one-half acre, but they are just perfect, every row laid very straight. The wheat is planted by hand with the women doing all of the work. I saw six women in a group with their white aprons and shovels cleaning the streets."

"We saw the mountain, Fujii, that so many of you have seen in pictures. The hotel was huge in that it rambled all over the side of the mountain with its heated indoor pool. Instead of rooms having numbers, names of flowers were used. Ours was carnation."

The City of Kyoto is very modern, and General MacArthur is given the credit for this. Most of Japan idolize him.

"Hong Kong, our group was separated, and baths were only allowed between 4 and 6 p. m. The porter, knowing we had to change hotels, drew our bath of boiling water. Since the water was cut off, Ethel, my roommate, took hers first and I bathed in the same water. Oh, it was lots of fun."

"We crossed the harbor on a ferry and saw the 7th Fleet of the American Navy which had moved in the night before. We took a cable car to Victoria. At Aberdeen we had lunch on a floating restaurant."

"We returned to Hong Kong on New Year's (theirs), and saw long streamers of firecrackers being ignited, which resulted in the loudest popping you have ever heard."

"We noted just blocks and blocks of people with sacks or baskets carrying food to Red China for their relatives. They were allowed 70 pounds. Ton after ton is carried; but they say only a very small per cent goes to the individual; the other is sold."

"Our guide, David, was reared in Red China, and he said you can buy your way out and that is what he did, including his mother and father."

"As you know, England owns Singapore. It is a tropical country about 70 miles from the equator. We were told we were to go through inspection. It developed we were sprayed with a disinfectant before we could leave the plane. Singapore is beautiful with everything green—the coconuts hanging from the trees, bananas growing. We stayed at an old hotel where royalty had formerly stayed."

"We visited a rubber plantation in India and waited 15 minutes while a rubber tree was tapped just to touch one little drop of rubber. We saw a temple that was exquisite beyond description with the most beautiful chandeliers. There were no seats, and no women are allowed in the temple."

In Bangkok the temples were the highlight of our trip, especially the Temple of Dawn, which was made of porcelain in little squares cemented together, and some being of soft gold. The floating markets were lovely. The canals were thick with boats with the people of the area buying vegetables, even beef and fish from them. We saw floating beauty shops, barber shops and filling stations. This is the only place in the world where Thia boxing is allowed and there are practically no rules. The boxers kneel to pray before entering the arena. At the Theatre they even have Thia dancers.

"India has three very large cities, one being Delhi, the home of Mahatma Gandhi. His shrine was interesting and his grave is covered with fresh flowers every day. These people had great respect for Gandhi and some actually worshipped him. He actually did much to remove the caste system. We also visited Gandhi's cottage."

"We saw the most expensive rug in the world, but you are not allowed to step on it. This was in a little rug shop on the balcony. It is valued at one-quarter million dollars, and is oval in shape, with red velvet center and outside in solid jewels; and 9 by 12."

There are some six million people and some three million cows in India. As you know, they worship cows. Actually, there is a cow for every two or three people, and they will starve themselves to feed a cow. We passed a 'fuel' factory where women were kneading cow dung into little pancakes for fuel. They knead all of the moisture from it, and the houses are often plastered with these little cakes. The women truly do all the work in India."

"The Taj Mahal is a beautiful structure of white marble, and is over 600 years old. Here again we removed our shoes or put little canvas shoes over our own, before entering. The dome is 80 feet high and voices echo, resounding like a beautiful choir."

"Our next stop was Bombay with a beautiful airport decorated with flowers since they were expecting the queen. Many bands were playing. I sat next to a window so that I might not miss anything. I saw this little band come from an alley, and thought another one to welcome the queen, but our guide said it was a funeral band. Upon arrival at the beautiful Arabian hotel, we heard another band, and just knew this time it had to be the queen; but, alas, another funeral. Ethel wanted to take a picture but was not allowed to photograph a funeral procession. We could see the body carried above their heads and we could not see his face. It is a sin to kill any living thing in India. They do not bury their dead, but feed them to the vultures and this is considered an act of mercy."

"As the queen's procession passed we got to see her. In fact, we saw her twice.

"We saw the sunset in Bombay and seven and a half hours later saw the sunrise in Beirut."

"On to Cairo, Egypt, where our hotel was just a short way from the Nile river. We had a large picture window which looked out on this beautiful river. The lobby of our hotel was covered in Nile carpeting."

"Our guide pointed out the spot where Moses was hidden in the bulrushes."

"We saw the Pyramids and the great stone image, the Sphinx. On into Egypt and the Jordan River and across the Sahara Desert into Jerusalem we went. We felt a bit sad when we saw the tomb of Gethsemane. The hills of Jerico were interesting."

"The shepherds wore robes of black with small caps as they did in Christ's day. As we entered Jericho we truly felt that we were in the Holy Land. We passed a refugee camp. There is no work. We asked how the refugees ate and were told that the United Nations cared for them."

"We saw the Jordan River where Christ was baptized by John the Baptist. The Dead Sea was beautiful."

"On entering Israel after leaving Jerusalem, it seemed like Little America. This country, as you know, was given to the Jewish people by the allies and it is surprising what they have done in 13 years. They have planted six million trees; this is what the National Council of Jews has done."

The Victory classroom was decorated with fresh flowers, figurines and dry arrangements depicting a Thanksgiving theme.

Refreshments of pumpkin pie, coffee, nuts and candy corn were served to the following members and guests: Mrs. Keith, Mrs. David Hudgins, Mrs. Greenhaw, Mrs. Jean Lamb, Mrs. Theo. LEFORS DOWNS MEMPHIS 13-0

The Memphis Cyclone last Friday night at Lefors lost out on any hopes of any part of the District championship when they were defeated 13-0 in a hard contested game in freezing weather.

This was the first time this season the local squad was denied a score by the defensive unit of their competitors. The Cyclone defensive unit fought off one Pirate drive early in the game but yielded two TD's in the closing minutes of the second quarter to the Pirates' quick hitting offensive unit.

The Pirates' first TD was set up by a 66 yard run around right end by No. 22, Ronnie Lane. No. 25, Scott Dunnam carried over for the score two plays later with 4 minutes left on the clock before the half.

The Cyclone took over the ball on the kickoff after, but on the third down, a fumble in the Cyclone backfield was ruled recovered by the Pirates on the Cyclone 27 which set up their second TD. Dunnam also scored this TD for the Pirates.

The Cyclone took over the ball on the kickoff after, but on the third down, a fumble in the Cyclone backfield was ruled recovered by the Pirates on the Cyclone 27 which set up their second TD. Dunnam also scored this TD for the Pirates.

The Pirates netted 6 yards in four plays and Memphis took over the ball on the 38.

The Cyclone drew a 5-yard penalty on the last play of the first quarter. Three good carries by Pounds moved the ball 10 yards. However, the Cyclone faced a 4th down and 5 needed situation so Pounds punted. The Pirates took over the ball on their 35 yard line.

They drew a 15-yard penalty for holding. On the fourth down they punted to the Cyclone 25.

Carries by Peters, Jones and Pounds picked up a first down to the 35. On this series of downs, penalties kept the Cyclone from making a first, so Pounds punted to the Lefors 25.

At this point the Pirates got the first of two breaks which won them the ballgame. No. 22, Ronnie Lane broke into the clear and scampered 66 yards to the Memphis 9 yardline before he was caught from behind by Cyclone End Jackie Bridges.

Dunnam scored two plays later and place kicked the extra point to make the score 7-0, with 4 minutes left in the first half.

Dunnam kicked off to the Cyclone and Pounds returned it to the 29. On the first play, Pounds carried for five yards. Then, the Pirates received their second break. A fumble in the Cyclone backfield was recovered by Perry Wright, however, before the officials blew the whistle, Lefors lineman dived into Wright, turning him over and two other Pirates fell on the pile and one of them came up with the ball. The officials ruled it was the Pirates ball on the Cyclone 27.

The Pirates drew a 5-yard penalty but were not to be denied a TD. Four plays later, Dunnam went over for the score. The extra point try was blocked and the Pirates led 13-0.

The Pirates tried an on-side kick but the ball didn't travel the necessary 10 yards so the Cyclone covered it on the 44.

Dunnam scored two plays later and place kicked the extra point to make the score 7-0, with 4 minutes left in the first half.

Dunnam kicked off to the Cyclone and Pounds returned it to the 29. On the first play, Pounds carried for five yards. Then, the Pirates received their second break. A fumble in the Cyclone backfield was recovered by Perry Wright, however, before the officials blew the whistle, Lefors lineman dived into Wright, turning him over and two other Pirates fell on the pile and one of them came up with the ball. The officials ruled it was the Pirates ball on the Cyclone 27.

The Pirates drew a 5-yard penalty but were not to be denied a TD. Four plays later, Dunnam went over for the score. The extra point try was blocked and the Pirates led 13-0.

PASS COMPLETED — Cyclone End Dwight Gailey (81) catches a good pass in between two Lefors defenders in the game last Friday night. The score shown on the board in the background (13-0) was the final score of the game with Lefors on the top end.

The Cyclone drew a 5-yard penalty on the last play of the first quarter. Three good carries by Pounds moved the ball 10 yards. However, the Cyclone faced a 4th down and 5 needed situation so Pounds punted. The Pirates took over the ball on their 35 yard line.

They drew a 15-yard penalty for holding. On the fourth down they punted to the Cyclone 25.

Carries by Peters, Jones and Pounds picked up a first down to the 35. On this series of downs, penalties kept the Cyclone from making a first, so Pounds punted to the Lefors 25.

At this point the Pirates got the first of two breaks which won them the ballgame. No. 22, Ronnie Lane broke into the clear and scampered 66 yards to the Memphis 9 yardline before he was caught from behind by Cyclone End Jackie Bridges.

Dunnam scored two plays later and place kicked the extra point to make the score 7-0, with 4 minutes left in the first half.

Turkey To Host Matador Friday Night; Drops Estelline Last Week, 28-8

The Turkey Turks blocked an Estelline punt in the early minutes of play last Friday night at Estelline, and recovered it deep in the Bear Cubs' territory to set up their first score.

The Turks went on to defeat their rivals 28-8 for their first District 9-B win. The Turks were leading at halftime 12-0. The Bear Cubs came back after the half and scored on a 20-yard pass play to Tony Stephens. The Cubs scored two more points to make the tally read 12-8.

The Turks were not to be denied and came back to score two more TDs in the last period of play. Scoring for the Turks with 14 points each to their credits were Ronny Richmond, fullback, and Jerry Weatherly, halfback. Each of the two boys carried for two point conversions.

This ended the season for the Bear Cubs, leaving them in the cellar of the three-team district.

took over the ball on the Lefors 44.

Pounds carried for 6 yards on the first play and then circled end for 15 more to move the ball to the Lefors 23. A fumble lost 5 yards back to the 28, and then FB Jones passed to End Dwight Gailey for 18 yards to the Lefors 10. The Cyclone was penalized 5 yards on the next play. The Cyclone threw several passes but were unable to connect. Lefore took over on their own 17 and ran a quarterback sneek to run out the clock.

Second Half Play
The Cyclone received the opening kickoff and Pounds returned it to the Cyclone 37. Jones made 13 yards and a first down to the mid-field stripe. Here, a penalty stopped the Cyclone and Pounds punted to the Lefors 21. The Pirates moved for one first down to the 33, and another first down to the 47. Two more carries moved the ball 14 more yards to the 32.

This drive was stopped at the 32 and they punted into the end zone and the ball was brought out to the 20.

On the next play, Peters skirted end for 12 yards and a first down to the 32. Carries by Jones, Pounds and Jones moved the ball to the Cyclone 45, and a 15-yard piling-on penalty against the Pirates moved the ball to the 40.

Carries by Jones, Peters and Wright, and another 15 yard penalty moved the ball to the Pirates 16. On two carries Pounds carried the ball to the 10, but on two more carries the Cyclone couldn't pick up a first down and Lefors took over on their 10 yard line.

The Pirates marched out of the hole and moved out to the 48, where they were held and punted to the Cyclone 9.

The Cyclone, on carries by Peters, Jones and Wright moved for a first down to the 20 and then, with the aid of a penalty against Lefors for another first down to the 32. Jones broke loose around end to pick up another 15 yards to the 47. Here the drive faltered and Pounds punted out of bounds on the Lefors 39. In the closing seconds of the game, the Pirates were held and the Cyclone took over on the Lefors 32.

On the last play of the game, Wright's pass was intercepted by a Lefors boy, who was downed after a gain of about 15 yards.

Matador Friday night in the play-off game to determine who will represent the district. Coach U. F. Coker stated that the game will be a "little rough" for the Turkey eleven.

"We will start the same bunch of boys we did against Estelline," he said.

The coach added that they had no new injuries and that Ronny Richmond, a guard, had been converted into a fullback for the Turks.

Matador is still rated as the strongest Class B team in the Panhandle, while the Turks are in the fifth place in rating.

Eagles Place Third In District 2-B Competition

The Lakeview Eagle football team placed third in District 2-B, 8-man football, following their defeat Friday night by Booker, 30-8.

The score was 6-0 at the half time and at the end of the third quarter, Coach Bob Taylor said, but the Booker speedy quarterback broke loose several times in the last period.

The Lakeview boys scored when the score was 22-0 on a carry by Tony Sahagun.

Miami will go to Bi-District. Then, if they defeat Jayton, they will go to region, he added.

Lakeview Girls Are Downed 65-39 By Samnorwood

The Lakeview girls basketball team lost their second game of the season Tuesday night at Lakeview, 65-39, to the girls of Samnorwood.

Darlene Rainey, who plays post for the Samnorwood team, was the high scoring girl of the game with 36 points. High point forwards for the Lakeview girls were Karen Clements and Tommy Payne, both scoring 12 points each.

The score was 22-19 in favor of Samnorwood at the half. The Samnorwood girls won their last game, 55-51, from the Lakeview team in an earlier match.

Coach Bob Taylor of the Eagles stated that the boys team is just getting started this week, and their first game will be against Quail at Lakeview Tuesday night, Nov. 14.

A schedule of the Lakeview Eagles basketball games appears elsewhere on this page.

Be Alert for Snakes

Watch out for snakes when in the field, or wear snake-proof boots. Don't think there are not snakes about just because of the calendar. A warm sun on a cold day often brings out the reptiles.

Also, remember that rattlers don't always rattle before striking. So don't depend on your ears. Look for moccasins around water and in damp places. Rattlers usually inhabit rocky or timbered country.

Always carry a snake-bite kit to be on the safe side.

"Seasoned" Hunting Clothes

Smoke those new-smelling hunting clothes over a campfire. This will prepare them for the hunting season so they won't scare off game, or get ribald comments from your fellow hunters.

END SWEEP — Halfback Bill J. Pounds (40) makes an end run for good yardage in Memphis-Lefors game last Friday night. Other Memphis players are Eddie Jones and Dee Miller (63).

County Sports

By Bill Combs

Duck, coot and goose seasons have either started or will start within the next few days. The open season for killing geese began Nov. 3 and will continue through Jan. 1, with shooting hours from sunrise to sunset. Duck and coot season begins Sat., Nov. 28, and will continue through Dec. 17. The open season for deer and turkey will begin Thursday, Nov. 16 and close Nov. 29. Quail season begins at noon Dec. 1.

With the final game of football season coming up this week, it appears that several county teams wind up in third place in district competition. The Estelline Bear Cubs finished their season last week as did the Lakeview Eagles. The Cubs took third in District 9-B, and the Eagles took third in District 2-B 8-man football. The Turkey Turks have a chance at the district title Friday night when they play the Matador team at 7:30 at the Turkey stadium. Matador is rated the No. 1 Class B team in the Panhandle, and the Turks are rated the No. 5 team. If the Memphis Cyclone wins its last game against the Canadian Wildcats here Friday night, the local eleven will win third place in District 2-A.

Lakeview Coach Bob Taylor and Estelline Coach Jimmie Don Adams are making arrangements this week to begin workouts for basketball. Neither of the coaches know who will be on the squads from the boys who are coming out for basketball.

Coach Don Lambert of the Cyclone stated the first of this week that there will be some changes in the Memphis team Friday night when they go on the field against the Canadian Wildcats, who will be seeking their first district win. He was not too specific as to what the changes will be or whether they will be in formations, personnel or what. It is usually the practice of many ball clubs on the last game of the season, when the eyes of the other district teams are not on them, to try a lot of things that may prove to be valuable for next year. I recall last year at Canadian, when the local team turned in one of their best performances of the season. They tried fake line plunges and roll outs for end sweeps. QB Adcock scored on the play on a long run (the one when he lost his shoe), and made other good gains in that game. This season, the team has scored several times on a similar play. If you recall, Perry Wright scored twice on the play at Tullia; Bill J. Pounds scored with it at Wellington and in other games,

You need not
alone

When was the last time you woke up in the morning and said to yourself, "It's great to be alive"?

When was the last time you tossed a cheery "good morning" to your neighbor . . . or smiled at a stranger as he passed you on the street?

When was the last time you felt that the world was really FOR you — helping you celebrate the good days and standing behind you when things were not running smoothly? Was it so long ago?

You need not walk through life alone and annoyed with it, for no man is an island unto himself. The strong companionship of deep religious Faith can be yours through regular weekly worship — with others who believe as you do.

In the peace and fellowship of your church, in the ritual of the service, in the quiet assurance of prayer you'll find the way to whatever is missing in your life.

Hall County Conservation District News

vested by snapping or stripping, produces an average of 675 pounds of burs, stems, and waste. A ton of these contain $7.65 worth of nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium.

For best results apply burs to the same location for at least three years. A minimum amount of three tons per acre should be applied. The residual effect from these burs will be evident for three to five years. The tests run at Lubbock showed no increase in plant diseases or insects. As far as weed seed are concerned, more seed will enter the fields by wind, water and implements than by the burs.

An application of commercial nitrogen put on as the burs are put down is beneficial as it will help decompose the burs faster, and provide more free nitrogen to the crops.

For additional information on the benefits of cotton burs, a bulletin is available from the county agent's office, entitled "Cotton Burs for Soil Improvement." Also the Soil Conservation Service technicians, assisting the Hall County Soil Conservation District, can give some information on the use of cotton burs and on the management of the burs throughout the year.

Plan to use burs instead of letting them go up in smoke. Every bur that burns is a loss to the economy of the country.

Memphis Scouts Win Ribbons At Wellington Meet

Memphis Scouts came home with first and third place ribbons from the 1961 Scout Exposition held in Wellington on Saturday, Nov. 4.

Boy Scouts of Troop 35 won a blue ribbon on their camping display, Les Sims, scoutmaster, said. Cub Scouts were awarded a third place ribbon for their display of arts and crafts in competition with area Cubs. Accompanying the Cubs to Wellington were Mrs. Red Dinker and Mrs. W. B. McQueen, Jr.

In addition to the third place ribbon, local Cub Scouts were second in the sale of tickets to the Exposition. They sold approximately $48.00 worth of tickets, being exceeded only by the Wellington Scouts. Thirty per cent of this amount will remain to be used in the local Scouting program.

The Cub Scout display was decorated in blue and gold by Mr. and Mrs. Denker, Mrs. McQueen and Cubs Mike Hull, Ricky Denker, Johnny Murdock and Bill McQueen.

For those who did not attend the display will again be shown at the next pack meeting, Nov. 28, and will be open to the public.

Scouts from Quail, Wheeler, Dodson, Wellington, Shamrock, Memphis, and Clarendon participated in the Exposition.

Rev. and Mrs. O. B. Herring visited in Dallas last week with their daughter, Mrs. Ned Kempson and family.

Children Collect $109.25 Oct. 31 For UNICEF

Children of Austin and Travis Schools collected $109.25 in a "Trick or Treat" for UNICEF Halloween night, according to members of the sponsoring organization, the 1913 Study Club.

Club members wish to thank the principals of Travis and Austin Schools, Miss Ethel Hillhouse and Mrs. C. D. Morris, and the school children for their splendid co-operation in the UNICEF program. They are also grateful to the citizens of Memphis for their contributions.

The money, which will mean health and the promise of a happier future for many of the world's needy mothers and children, has been sent to the Committee for UNICEF whose expenditures must conform with United Nations regulations and be approved by an executive board and external auditors. It then goes to fulfill its great humanitarian work among millions of mothers and children in 106 countries of the world.

Mrs. R. C. Lemons and John were in Amarillo Friday. They went up for John to have a check-up on his knee. He is doing nicely and is back in school this week.

Now You See Him, Now You Don't

Russian people must be confused by the re-occurring events. Since they are unable to speak out and to explain, I wonder going on in their minds. It is impossible to stop being by duress or other machinery of a human unless you physically individual. Despite the fact that the average

Russian has been subjected, he must be presently asking himself, "Who and how much can I believe?" He has been told that the names of Karl Marx, Lenin, and Stalin were synonymous with Communism. He was first told that the name Trotsky was associated equally with Lenin. You will recall that Trotsky met his end by violence in Mexico. Historians have differed as to why, but they have not differed as to the fact that it was at the hands of Communists that he died.

During the life of Stalin, he was the lord and master of all the Russians and the satellites. Much has been written about the manner in which he wielded his power and his trials and tribulations in maintaining that power. Nevertheless, after his death in 1953, which was questioned in many circles as to its cause, his body was entombed beside that of Lenin. They laid side by side in a tomb in front of the Kremlin wall, adjacent to the vast Red Square. The faithful from all the Russians made their pilgrimage to this tomb to view the remains of these two Communists, encased in glass, preserved in some sort of gaseous substance with a faint orange tinge: Lenin with his arms by his sides and his fists clenched, and a stern look on his face; Stalin, to the contrary, with his hands folded across his chest, a faint smile beneath his heavy mustache, his entire body completely relaxed, a picture of serenity — a picture completely contrary to the real Stalin of blood purge fame who has now been denounced and condemned by his own fellow travelers, those who no doubt feared during the living days of Stalin that this fate might be visited upon them at any moment.

Why were the Russian people led to believe for more than seven years after his death that Stalin should be revered and worshipped? Had Stalin so entrenched himself with power in depth that it required this length of time to unshackle the stranglehold that he had gained? Surely the Russians must be thinking silently, "If Khrushchev was associated with Stalin and his group, as he was, surely he knew the truth about this man. Why did he withhold this information from us these many years? Why has he stood atop the tomb holding the body of Stalin and praised this man to the vast crowds gathered in Red Square on so many occasions?"

Speaking of the thoughts that must be passing through the minds of Russians, it would be interesting to know what Mr. Khrushchev is thinking. Surely he must be reviewing in his own mind the fate of Trotsky, the fate of Beria, the fate of Malenkov, Bulganin, Molotov, and last but not least, Stalin. He must be convinced that Communism will not permit even the dead to rest in peace. He undoubtedly knows what is in store for him. His prime objective is to delay that end as long as possible.

All of the Soviet Republics should take note of what has transpired in this last meeting of the Communist Party Congress. Also, the satellites should view this with alarm. Certainly the newly independent countries should have little difficulty in choosing the path that will be best for their people. What better evidence than the short history of Russian Communism. Although retribution is

FHA Holds Installation, Initiation Oct. 30

The F. H. A. held its formal installation of officers and initiation of new members on Monday, Oct. 30.

Helen Howard, vice president of 1960-61, served as installing officer. She advised each girl to fulfill her duties as officer. The gavel was presented to the president, Teresa Beckham. Each girl repeated the duties of her respected office. All repeated the creed of F. H. A.

The program was then turned over to Teresa Beckham, who told of the significance of the red rose and of the purposes of F. H. A. by red roses. Teresa presented each new member with a red rose and a copy of the purposes.

After a short business meeting, in which Leslie Helm was elected to serve on the area nominating committee at Childress, the F. H. A. song was sung.

Refreshments of red rose cookies and punch were served in the homemaking department to the following girls: Mary Sue Scott, Gayle Widener, Wanda Grice, Pat Srygley, Sharon Melton, LaQuitta Baten, Carolyn Linville, Vivian Maddox, Sharon Davis, Linda Gilreath, Linda Snyder, Cleta Lebow, Lana Waites, Linda Clayton, C. Latin Americans Face Charges For Burglary

Two adults and three juveniles were filed on for the burglary of the Pete Rigby Dry Goods Store in Estelline last Friday, it was announced this week by Sheriff W. P. Baten, Jr.

Adults filed on were Lorenzo Mata and Pete Garibay. Also, the five Latin-Americans were filed on for the theft of a coffee pot and radio from the Parnell Ladies Club building.

Another Latin-American, Edward Castro, was picked up Friday night by City Policeman Allen Cope for drunkenness and carrying a concealed weapon. Sheriff Baten said the city took action on the drunkenness charge and the county filed on him for the misdemeanor offense of carrying a concealed weapon, in this case a gun.

"If you should not be contacted and wish to contribute to the Girl Scout fund, donations may be mailed or handed to Mr. Martin at the First State Bank," Mrs. Branigan said.

GTC Sets Date For Deadline On Directory Changes

General Telephone Company of the Southwest has designated Friday, Nov. 24, as the deadline for making changes or adding new listings to the 1961-62 edition of the Memphis telephone directory, which includes Estelline, Hedley and Lakeview.

R. L. Brewer, district manager, urged that all subscribers wishing to make changes should call the local business office as soon as possible to enable the telephone company to make corrections or additions before the new directory is printed. The local number to call is 259-3597.

"Correct initials, names and addresses are necessary to assure complete and adequate representation in the alphabetical section and the yellow pages as well," Brewer said.

The new directory is scheduled for publication around the first of the year.

P. O. Is Seeking Applications For Clerk, Carrier

The Memphis Post Office is seeking applications from local residents who are interested in becoming postal clerks or city carriers, Postmaster J. H. Vallance announced this week.

Persons who apply and who pass a written test given by the Civil Service Commission will be placed on a list of eligibles, and will be considered for future job openings.

Clerks and carriers are now paid a starting rate of $2.16 per hour. Anyone interested in a career in the postal service may obtain complete information from Postmaster Vallance, or from H. C. Pounds, local Civil Service representative.

your Doctor orders COTTON

EVERYBODY IN SOME WAY USES COTTON EVERY DAY

To guard and protect each new miracle wrought by his skilled hands and steady nerves... your doctor uses Cotton.

Layers of germ-free absorbent Cotton—soft folds of white sterilized Cotton gauze—give soothing protection that helps to heal the wounds of injured bodies.

In the hospital, the crisp fresh uniforms, the daily laundered sheets and pillow cases, the towels, even the moistened cloth that cools the fevered brow—all are Cotton.

Because Cotton is the kindest of all fibers to the human body, and because it can stand the washing, scrubbing, and boiling to make it fresh and free of germs—you'll find Cotton wherever health is at stake. That's why more than 50,000,000 pounds of Cotton yearly are made into medical supplies.

AMERICANS USE OVER TWICE AS MUCH COTTON AS ALL OTHER FIBERS COMBINED.

You use more cotton because Cotton Gives You More
