Mrs. Blackshare, Former Resident, Buried Here

Burial was in Fairview Cemetery with local arrangements under the direction of Spicer Funeral home.

Mrs. Blackshare and her daughter, Mrs. Alvin White of Lubbock, had recently moved to Holden to be near Dr. White and his family. The family moved from Hall County to the South plains in 1936 and had lived in Lubbock for the past 21 years.

Animal Health Comm. Receives Hall's Petition For Brucellosis Control

Dr. O. R. Garrett, Executive Director of the Texas Animal Health Commission announced this week the receipt of Hall County petition for Type II Brucellosis control.

He stated that proclamation by the Governor No. 210 has been issued and a hearing has been set for Sept. 9, 1963, at 9:30 a. m., in the office of the Texas Animal Health Commission, State Office Building, Austin.

"All those in favor of or in opposition to the designation of this County as a Type II Brucellosis Control Area are invited to attend," he said. If no opposition is present, Hall County will be designated at a Type II Control Area effective October 14, 1963.

Bovine brucellosis is an infectious disease in cattle.

A public notice explained the program is posted on the bulletin board located outside the Sheriff's Office in the Hall County Courthouse. The notice is No. 41-988.

All counties surrounding Hall County are either modified certified brucellosis counties, Type II control counties being tested, or petitioned for or proclaimed Type II counties.

Bank deposits and assets reported last week by the four banks in Hall County showed a continued improvement in the financial conditions here.

The statements of conditions of the four banks at the close of business June 29, listed an increase of over one million dollars on deposit, as compared with a year ago.

Total deposits for the four institutions — First National Bank and First State Bank in Memphis, First National Bank in Lakeview and People's State Bank in Turkey — were $11,198,250.53. The figure as of June 30, 1962 was $10,011,207.25. This year's figure is 2.7 million dollars higher than the June 30, 1961 figure, for a two-year comparison.

Assets of the four banks are reported to have totaled $12,329,607.79. This is in increase of $1,071,584.64 above total assets at this time last year.

The largest change in the financial picture of the county the past year is seen in the loans and discounts figure released by the banks. As of June 29, 1963, loans and discounts of the four county banks totaled $6,597,712.53 which shows an increase of $2,870,457.36 over last year's total.

Denver Leaders Feature Cotton From Memphis

Whether it's known locally or not — it seems Memphis cotton gets around! When Denver, Colo., merchants needed some bales of cotton for their annual fun-fest early this month, they turned to the local compress for shipment.

A news article, along with picture, was carried in the Rocky Mountain News of July 12. The picture showed Miss Lynne McKenzie of the May-D & F Store sitting atop a bale of cotton from Memphis. An excerpt from the article reads as follows: "Visitors to the University Hills Shopping Center will be treated to a Deep South atmosphere complete with cotton bales from Memphis, Tex., period costumes, band concerts and Dixieland jazz."

The article was sent to Henderson Smith by his brother, Dewey M. Smith, who is a resident of Denver.

Mrs. Lorenzo Graves Is Shot, Husband Charged

Lorenzo Graves, a Negro, is in Hall County Jail facing two charges of assault with intent to murder. Bond has been set at $5,000 on each case.

The charges were brought against Graves by Sheriff Elmer Neel following the Saturday morning shooting which resulted in serious injuries to Graves' wife, Mrs. Madis Clara Graves, 29 years old.

Mrs. Graves was treated for a bullet wound at Goodall Hospital here, and then was rushed to Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo. The bullet was lodged against her backbone and she was in a paralyzed condition.

The shooting took place at 9:15 a. m. Saturday at the intersection of Highways 287 and 256 in Memphis, across the street from Putts Texaco Service Station.

Besides the assault charges against Graves involving the shooting of his wife, Graves is also facing assault charges for the attempt made on Joe Whiten, father of Mrs. Graves, who arrived on the scene at the time of the shooting.

Whiten avoided being shot by seeking refuge in his pickup. A bullet was fired at Whiten in the pickup hitting the vehicle in the door.

Sheriff Neel stated that five shots were fired from Graves' .25 caliber automatic pistol at his wife and father-in-law.

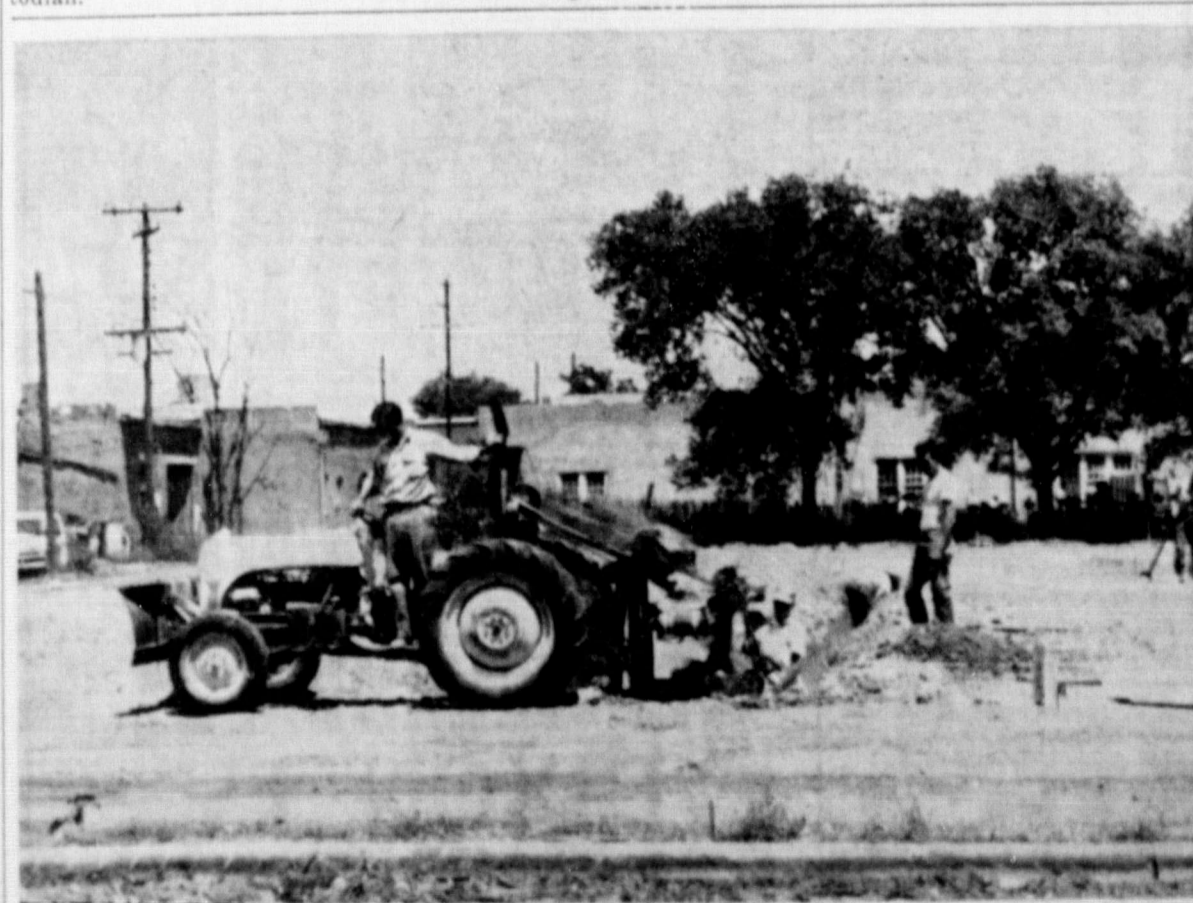

Deputy Sheriff Joe B. Browning stated that he was notified of the shooting by Sam Putts, owner of Putts Texaco Station. He called Sheriff Neel, who was out of the office, and both officers arrived on the scene at about the same time.

Pistol In Purse

Sheriff Neel said, "We found a .25 caliber automatic pistol in the purse of Mrs. Graves." He explained that she did not have time to get it out before she was shot.

The sheriff explained that apparently the shooting resulted from a long standing family fight between Graves and his wife.

The two cases will be brought before the Hall County Grand Jury at its next session, Sheriff Neel said.

WORK BEGINS ON MUNICIPAL BUILDING — Work began this week on the foundation of the new municipal building for Memphis, located at the corner of 8th and Robertson streets. It is estimated that about three weeks will be required to complete the foundation work.

Farm Safety Week July 21-27!

Next week over the United States citizens will pause to observe National Farm Safety Week. "Inspection Plus Correction Equals Protection," is the theme for this special week.

President John F. Kennedy, in proclaiming the week, called upon all Americans, especially those allied with agriculture, to unite their efforts to cut down the number of farm, home and highway accidents.

The Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, long active in the promotion of rural safety, points out the need for making farm and home safety a year-round effort. Prevention of accidents takes action by people and it must be continuous throughout every year, says the Council.

A very high percentage of all farm accidents can be traced to a specific cause, and carelessness is a major contributor, the councilmen say. A little checking close to home, they add, will likely reveal that most crippling or fatal accidents on the farm or in the home result from actions wherein people should know better.

The accident record of agriculture is not good and with the ever-increasing use of power machinery and allied equipment, the rate can be expected to move higher unless the people involved make up their minds to do something about it, warns the council. It is up to farm families to find and remove hazards which can cause accidents and to practice safety in their daily living. The outstanding records in accident prevention by other industries of the nation haven't just happened, says the Council, but are the result of well-planned and conducted safety educational programs.

It isn't news to those who live and work in rural areas that farming can be a hazardous occupation. Farm accidents are a constant threat, not only to life and limb, but also to livelihood. The injured farmer can't work, and the crops and farm animals won't wait for him to recover.

Inspection, Correction and Protection are the three keynote themes of National Farm Safety Week. Farmers are urged to inspect equipment, land, buildings, and their own work habits and attitudes. They are urged to correct dangerous conditions and careless habits. By so doing, farmers can protect lives, their own and others.

Farm resident accidents cause 9,000 deaths and 800,000 disabling injuries every year. These statistics are appalling, because most of these deaths and injuries could have been prevented. And the statistics do not convey the grief, loneliness and pain involved in accidents.

Accidents don't just happen, they are caused. More than 90 per cent of all accidents involve some human failure—improper attitudes, carelessness, lack of attention to rules and regulations.

Statistics do not point out how to prevent accidents, but they do point out some danger areas. Almost half (11,800) of all accidental home deaths are result of falls, which can occur at any time and at any place, on the premises, to anyone. Men and women between the ages of 25 to 44 are as likely to fall downstairs as a baby or oldster. More deaths are caused by falls in the very young and very old, than are found in middle-aged persons. Many more women are injured by falls than men.

For many, many years farming has ranked as the third most hazardous occupation. Only mining, including quarrying and petroleum drilling, and construction have higher death rates.

National Farm Safety Week is not a week in which to be more careful, then to be forgotten until next year. Instead it is a time to examine work habits, to compare methods with those proved effective in other industries, and to seek out better and safer ways to do our jobs.

Accident prevention is a year-round job. An official "week" is simply a reminder that emphasizes the importance of that job.

Every week should be Farm Safety Week.

FBI Accomplishments!

Last week, Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy announced that according to FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, new all-time highs were recorded in FBI accomplishments in all major phases of operations during the 1963 fiscal year. Fines, savings and recoveries in cases investigated by the FBI during this period reached a new peak of $186,225,348—a figure representing a return of $1.37 for every dollar appropriated for the FBI.

During the past fiscal year, convictions in FBI cases increased to 12,816, the largest number for any peacetime fiscal year. Mr. Hoover noted that convictions were recorded against 96.1 per cent of all persons brought to trial and that 93 per cent of these resulted from guilty pleas. As a result of these convictions, slightly over 37,009 years of actual, suspended and probationary sentences were meted out. In addition, seven life sentences were imposed.

According to Mr. Hoover, a total of 11,887 FBI fugitives were located, an increase of 724 over the previous year. Included in this number were nine members of the FBI's "Ten Most Wanted Fugitives" list and 2,514 violators of the Fugitive Felon Act who were being sought at the request of state and local authorities after they had fled across state lines to avoid prosecution, custody or confinement.

Last year the FBI reported that approximately 130,000 items of criminal intelligence information were disseminated to other law enforcement agencies. Included were items received from FBI confidential informants which, when passed to the authorities concerned, resulted in the arrests of almost 3,400 persons.

These are staggering figures, but they represent what a mammoth job the FBI faces in carrying out its job as defined by the Constitution of the United States. The FBI has devoted its resources and facilities to the preservation of the rights which are guaranteed every American by the Constitution and laws of the United States. As long as the FBI functions thoroughly, promptly, impartially, and without apology to anyone, citizens have little to fear from subversive groups who would take control of this nation and rule it for selfish gain.

What Other Editors Say

Two horned toads from Weslaco went up to a little city in Kansas the other day and caused a riot in Uncle Sam's post office.

And O' Earl Butts of Weslaco is responsible for it all.

O' Earl found the two horned toads and decided to send them to his sister in Kansas. He put them in a box and mailed them.

A witness tells us that one of the little reptiles looked like it was expecting and that she sort of thought that by the time the box arrived in Kansas there would be a box of horned toads instead of just two. However, we look upon that thought with a dim view, because we have always thought that horned toads laid eggs and the eggs hatched little horned toads, like snakes. We're sort of ignorant about the subject. All we know is that most horned toads look like they're expecting.

Anyway, the package arrived at the Kansas post office. We have not been fully informed on exactly what transpired there, whether the little fellows escaped from their box or whether they were scratching around in the box and some postal clerk opened the box to see what kind of a bomb it was.

All we know, and we don't know that for sure, but we believe this, is that somehow the horned toads were freed in the post office and set off a chain of events that will go down in Kansas history like the racial riots in Birmingham, and the PASO thing in Crystal City.

A lady postal clerk saw the beady little eyes of the two "Monsters" and screamed. She screamingly described them as "horned devils". There was something of a chain reaction when she ran out of the post office and left the mail with the invaders from Texas. As we understand it, nobody really knew what her problem was, so the fire department was called.

You can just imagine all the fire trucks arriving at the post office where there wasn't even any smoke. After about half the town had gathered, we understand, and excitement had reached a peak of several people had gone into orbit, the horned toads were "captured" by O' Earl's sister, who had been sent for because her name was on the package.

We understand that they haven't had a lynching in Kansas in a long time, but that there might be. They're saving a big limb on a tall tree there for O' Earl if he ever shows up there, and they have the noose ready.

And so far as anybody knows as of this moment, neither horned toad was expecting any little horned toads.

Poll Tax Puzzle Growing
The Legislature has left Texas county tax assessors and collectors with a Chinese puzzle to mull over between now and October 1. That's the date when people begin paying poll taxes.

In a special election on November 9, voters will decide whether or not they want to repeal the poll tax as a prerequisite for voting. Fortunately, for this election they'll use their old poll tax receipts which are valid until next year.

If voters approve repeal, a new law will go into effect setting up a 25-cent registration fee as a requirement for voting. The poll tax itself wouldn't be repealed... it would still be due and payable... but probably few people will pay it if it isn't required for voting.

The tax assessors could solve the problem temporarily by holding up poll tax receipts until after the November 9 election... but they're likely to face another crisis in the spring in any event. This is because 36 states have already ratified a proposed amendment to the U. S. Constitution outlawing the poll tax as a requirement for voting for president, vice president, Senators and Congressmen. In January Arizona and South Dakota legislatures will meet, and it's a good bet that they will also okay the amendment... making it law.

If so, Texas voters will have to pay either two bits or $1.75 to vote for state and local officials (the amount depending on whether Texas' poll tax is repealed in November) but can demand special registration certificates free of charge to vote on races involving only federal offices.

Any way you look at it, it's going to be headache for the county tax assessor.

Improve Yourself
The editor of a large Japanese newspaper in California last week told the Negroes they should exert as much effort in improving themselves as trying to tear down the segregation barriers.

He wrote that his race had been socially segregated and even put in concentration camps, better known as relocation centers, during World War II. However, his people returned after the war and made an effort to be better citizens.

The editor said he had found many Negro leaders did not want to be reminded that much of their troubles were caused by actions of their own race.

County 4-H Clubs Take Active Part In National Farm Safety Program

The 585 Hall County 4-H Club members in six 4-H clubs have been very active this year in Farm Safety Program, County Agriculture Agent W. B. Hooser said this week.

Each 4-H club member made a survey of his farm and home, and some of the members made a survey of their neighbors farms and homes.

Each club member located the hazards and assisted in correcting them. A county chart was made in order to correct these hazards, Hooser said.

The County Safety Program has saved Hall County farmers many thousands of dollars, Hooser explained. Slides were used to show the value of the safety program to 4-H Clubs.

Each member located the hazards, placed cross-bone signs that were furnished by General Motors on each hazard, and practiced caution in correcting them.

The tractor program emphasized safety, with tractors, farm machinery, handling fuel, electricity, and in handling farm animals.

President Kennedy has proclaimed July 21-27 National Farm Safety Week. In the proclamation he urged all farm families and all persons and organizations allied with agriculture to unite in an effort to reduce the number of farm, home and highway accidents.

Hooser said that in the 4-H program, every member of the family was urged to take a part. Each 4-H club member acted as leaders in the clean-up campaign at home. Each club member was urged to remind his parents of the importance of fire-resistant constructions when remodeling or planning new buildings.

Hooser said 4-H club members asked every farmer to complete the following five practices:

1. Collect old papers and magazines, rags, old clothing, discarded furniture from attics, closets and basements and turn them in for salvage. Such materials are often the sources of spontaneous ignition and provide perfect tender for flame.
2. If the roof is not protected by a fire resistant material, such as asphalt, or a similar material, it may burst into flame. A dirty and defective heating system, plus a flammable roof, accounts for almost one-third of all home fires.
3. Make sure gasoline and kerosene are not stored in the home. It should be stored under the ground. Look at the labels on containers of cleaning fluids. If marked "flammable or inflammable" get rid of them. Good, non-expensive cleaning fluids are available which are safe to use.
4. Check all electrical equipment. Do not use it if it is not operating properly.
5. Replace frayed extension cords, clean dust and cobwebs away from the fuse boxes.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Leggett and daughter, Paula, of Houston, were guests in the Guy Wright home Friday and Friday night. Mrs. Leggett is a sister of Mr. Wright.

Let's Consider Safety

National Farm Safety Week is July 21--27

Safety is a big consideration on the farm today. Lack of it is meaning the loss of thousands of lives each year, and the loss of property and vital time. Every farmer knows safety measures pay in dollars and cents.

There is another "safety" important to farmers, that of their bank. The First State Bank has been a safe place for farmers to do business for a long time. This safeness enables us to make a valuable contribution to the farm economy of this county.

WSCS Enjoys Program By Church Youth

The Woman's Society of Christian Services met Monday, July 18, at 3 p. m. in the Methodist Church Annex.

Mrs. Lee Brown and Mrs. Bob Hutcherson are leaders of the M. Y. F. work in the church and were in charge of an enjoyable program presented by the youth of the church.

Noel Clifton, Jr. gave a splendid account of the Crusade Scholars who have made good at several mission points in East Asia where the church speaks to the need of the modern world through their fine leadership.

Anita Snowdon told in an interesting way of the work of U. S. 2's in their church and community, stating that their task as well as ours is to share the magnificent love God so freely gives us.

Misses Mary Ann Lemons, Suzette Smithee and Lynn Foxhall presented a skit entitled "Recruitment Airline Company," which all enjoyed thoroughly. Helen Jones (played by Lynn Foxhall) was instructing Marg Smith (Suzette Smithee) about the spiritual values to take with her as a missionary to India instead of fear, insecurity and worry over long hours. Miss Brown (played by Mary Ann Lemons) added a touch of realism to the scene.

Ginger Greene gave the closing meditation on the subject, "A God of Innerspace," inspiring all present with the awareness of the indwelling Holy Spirit as work through healing, enlightening and strengthening.

Mmes. Myrtis Phelan and Ed Hutcherson, as hostesses, served delicious refreshments to the group.

At the beginning of the business session, Mrs. M. G. Tarver reported on her recent trip to Mt. Sequoia at Fayetteville, Ark. This was a special meeting in that it was the 40th anniversary of the South Central Jurisdiction School of Missions. Delegates, Conference and Jurisdiction officers attended.

Mrs. Tarver was privileged to study the three spiritual classics with a professor from the college in Kansas City. These classics will be studied during the church year as a Bible study, Mrs. Tarver said.

Those present at the meeting other than the above named were: Mmes. R. S. Greene, W. J. McMaster, Bess Crump, J. W. Oliver, Ben Parks, J. B. Thompson, F. W. Foxhall and Mrs. Phelan's grandson, Charles Phelan of Clarendon.

Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Shankle enjoyed vacationing at Ruidoso, N. M. from Thursday until Sunday with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lee and children at their summer cabin. The Lees remained in Ruidoso for a 10-day vacation. Their home is in Lockney.

Mrs. Walter Jameson of Amarillo visited here the first of the week with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Hutcherson and Mr. Hutcherson.

Senior Girl Scouts Make Plans To Attend Camp

Senior Girl Scouts, Troop 195 are busy preparing for a week's camp out at Camp Kiowa August 4-10. Work on equipment is being done in order to make this year one of the most successful outings. Mrs. Elmont Branigan, publicity chairman, said.

The girls are making banking cabinets for groceries, a dining fly for sun protection, lasted foundations for water cans and washing facilities, and pole lamps for evening light.

In 1962 the troop participated in the camping program near Canadian and found the present equipment was inadequate. Since last year, donations have been received from several clubs to be used to finance material for needed equipment which can be used for years to come. All troops encamped at Camp Kiowa are to cook their individual breakfast and lunch, and the evening meal will be served to them at the lodge. Cooking is done on charcoal stoves. Fresh meats and vegetables are delivered to each troop daily, Mrs. Branigan said. Senior scouts going to camp this year are Elmonette Branigan, Diane Gailley, Glenda Bruce, Amy Hillhouse, Regina Hoover, Susan McQueen, Laurel Pounds, Carol Voyles and Ginger Greene.

Troop leaders, Mrs. Brode Hoover and Mrs. Elmont Branigan, plan to accompany the girls.

Miss Ann Hampton of Abilene arrived here Wednesday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Herman Vallance and family.

Lawrence Stone visited in the George Pierce home over the weekend.

More than 45 members of the T. E. L. and Mary Martha Sunday School Classes of the First Baptist Church and several guests enjoyed a covered dish supper at the City Park on Thursday evening, July 11.

Rev. Fern A. Miller offered the invocation after which a lovely meal was served.

Mrs. Leta Ellis brought the devotional in the form of a Bible quiz.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gilliam and Billy Darrell Roden brought several musical numbers.

Patsy Jarrell and Jane Hoover returned Sunday from Richardson where they spent several days vacationing with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Jarrell. While there they enjoyed a visit to "Six Flags Over Texas."

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Veazly and six children are visiting her sister's family, the George Pierces, this week. The Veazly family lives in Amarillo.

A farewell party given in honor of Doris Eddins was held Friday, July 11, in the home of Claudia Welch with Mrs. O. Fowler as co-hostess.

A maple wall shelf was given the honoree.

Chocolate cake, homemade vanilla or strawberry ice cream and iced tea was served.

Those attending were: Gus Orcutt of Lakewood, Ed Rothwell, Rayford Jones, Braidfoot, Don Ferrel, Joe Nivens, Jack Kinard, William Lier, Paul Collins, J. N. Baker, Leon Helm, R. V. Wood, the core, and the two hostesses.

Farm Safety Precautions

... Will Yield A Bumper Crop Of Accident-Free Years and The Happiness and Financial Benefits That Result!

This is the time of year when most farm accidents occur. We may hurry a little more to make up for delays. We may be so busy we become careless.

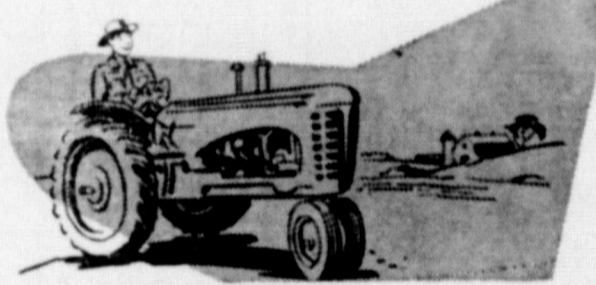

Farm Safety Week — July 21-27—is your reminder that a few minutes of your time now is worth much to you. Every day, 11 farmers die and 89 more are seriously injured in farm accidents.

We of this business firm know you and know your family. For your sake, we hope you will observe safety week every week of the year.

One Fourth of all Fatal Accidents Happen on the Farm

Happen on the Farm

This is a terrible drain on the productivity and the financial resources of the farmer. Next week, July 21 to 27, is National Farm Safety Week and we would like to urge everyone to be aware of the slogan for this year's observance — "Inspection plus Correction equals Protection."

Farming is a high-hazard industry, ranking in third place behind mining and construction. The national average is 58.8 fatal accidents per 100,000 farm population, and 31 per cent of these are in the category of work accidents. A farmer must be a man of many talents and in one day he may be called upon to be a carpenter, an electrician and a mechanic. He also uses fuels, chemicals, fertilizers and many different kinds of machines, thus being exposed to a great number of hazards.

We hope that National Farm Safety Week will be a time when all those engaged in this industry will examine their work habits and seek out better and safer ways to do their jobs. . . in order to take care of yourself and your family.

Midge Threatens Grain Sorghum

Delbert Langford, associate agronomist of the High Plains Research Foundation, located at Halfway, Texas, announced this week that midge is now infesting grain sorghum throughout the Plains area. Langford has alerted farmers to take measures to protect their crops. This insect can completely eliminate a grain sorghum crop, he said.

Midge infestations have invaded the High Plains Research Foundation. July 9 is the first this insect has put in an appearance here this year. The adult midge itself will not do any damage, but will lay eggs in the bloom of the grain sorghum head. As the larva grows, it eats the grain, thus leaving only an empty hull.

Control of midge can best be brought about by spraying with insecticides prior to and during the blooming stage. The first application should be made about two days after the head emerges from the boot. Some of the chemicals recommended for spraying are Endrin, Sevin, and Toxaphene. Farmers should contact local dealers for application rates and methods.

In the past with plantings of May 15 and earlier, there has been no damage to grain sorghum by

Hall County Soil Conservation District News

By RICHARD MYERS Range Conservationist

Conservation irrigation, the use of soils and irrigation water in a way that will insure high production without the waste of either, is each year becoming increasingly more important. Upward trends in population are increasing production needs and will require the most careful use of soil and water resources.

Irrigation, be it sprinkler or surface, has rarely been as efficient as it could be. Frequently, low efficiencies are caused by inadequate designs that do not provide for the application of water in accordance with soil conditions and crop needs. On the other hand, adequately designed systems, improperly operated, also may waste water, damage land, and result in lowered production.

No matter how sound the planning or how good the design, an irrigation system will not give desired results unless it is operated correctly. To do this the irrigator must know the capacities of his system, of his soils, and the water requirements of his crops. With this knowledge he can apply the principles of conservation irrigation to his crops and to his farm. The specifications of a system to fit a particular farm is a complicated problem, and the irrigator needs the services of a specialist in irrigation system design. In the Hall County Soil Conservation District, technicians of the Soil Conservation Service are available for this work.

Chamber of Commerce Manager Clifford Farmer had another article published in the Texas Game and Fish Magazine this month entitled "Carp in Comfort." In the article, Cliff does not apologize for spending time fishing for carp. He says that carp rib cuts are delicious cooked outside in deep, popping grease. He and T. D. Weatherby often spend many lazy afternoons on his raft catching the fish on light spinning equipment at Lake Kemp where they both have cabins. In the article, Cliff said, "I recommend this type fishing to anyone who can no longer stand up against fast water — or to anyone who wants to take it easy while fishing." He uses dough bait made of equal parts wheat flour and cotton seed meal, mixed with blackstrap feeding molasses, no water added.

This is excellent bait for catfish and for carp. Small hooks and little lead is also recommended for carp fishing. Both Cliff and T. D. started carp fishing when doctors told them to stay outside a lot but avoid strenuous exercise, about two or three years ago. Cliff said his record was a 12 pounder.

Barney Bevers of Lakeview said that the tennis tournament held last weekend in Lakeview was the best they had ever had. He said, "For the first time, we came out a few dollars in the black, instead of being in the red as we have been on past tournaments." He also said that they (the Lakeview Tennis Club) sold almost 1,000 cups full of soft drinks at their concession stand.

By looking over the results of the tournament, I would say the competition in all brackets was stiff. In fact, several matches took twice as long to play as normal, due to the number of games which had to be played to decide a winner. For example, the matches in the women's open bracket were thrillers. To begin with, Karen Clements defeated Trilby Bateman in a good match, 3-6, 6-4, 6-2, while Nikki Clements and Deeda Hickey played 41 games and three sets decided their match. Nikki

On the front row from the left is pictured: Mike Thompson, Bobby Hall, Ronnie Browning, Barry Simmons, and Gary McAllister. won it 12-10, 3-6, 6-4. Many of the matches went into the third set before a winner was decided.

LATE INTO THE NIGHT — Many matches scheduled for 10 p. m. were not able to be played until 1 a. m. due to the stiff competition in earlier matches. All in all, I would say that those who entered the tournament found plenty of excitement and the winners had to play good tennis to win their trophies. Congratulations are due the winners.

GOLFERS! Don't forget the Men's partnership tournament to be held at the Memphis Country Club Sunday. Play is 18-hole medal (stroke). Entry fees must be paid by 7 p. m. Saturday if you are going to enter. The course is being kept in good shape and some good scores should be turned in.

The Little League All-Stars will have an important game coming up Thursday night when they play Childress. This will be the area playoff between Memphis, Childress and Clarendon. The winner tonight will play Clarendon Friday night. Game time is around 8 p. m. A large crowd is expected.

NATIONAL FARM SAFETY WEEK

July 21-27

Don't Let Carelessness Reap a Grim Harvest of Accidents!

These Facts Make It Important To ALL of Us:

Farm work accidents claim about 3,500 lives each year, more than any other major industry.

About 12,000 farm residents lose their lives each year in all types of accidents.

A million or more farm people suffer accidental injuries and the accompanying disabilities, miseries, and financial troubles each year . . . because of accidents.

- Safety makes sense — it means . . .
- Less expense
- Fewer injuries
- Less grief and suffering
- Fewer deaths
- Who loses?

Everyone in the nation is affected, directly or indirectly, by the annual farm accident toll. Business in general loses economically and socially after a farm accident. The victims and their families, however, suffer the greatest loss.

• Human Failure

Human failure, not motor vehicles, farm implements or animals, is the basic cause of accidents. In nearly every case, human failure to recognize and correct a hazard is the real cause of accidental death and injury. Human failures include:

- Hurry
- Procrastination
- False Confidence
- Improper Equipment
- Lack of Common Sense
- Improper care of machinery
- Lack of Knowledge

Yes! To America? YES! To America? Do you believe that our people and our institutions are going to fail? Do you believe that our Nation's most precious personal convictions are going to be lost? Do you believe that our Nation's most precious personal convictions are going to be lost? Do you believe that our Nation's most precious personal convictions are going to be lost?

their feelings in words. Second, those of us who read the letters — and I'll publish the most inspirational statements as part of a future newsletter — will benefit by seeing the convictions expressed by fellow citizens.

In a more material way, everyone who sends a letter on the topic will win. To each letter writer I will send copies of two booklets — "How Our Laws Are Made," a most interesting and accurate explanation of the Federal legislative process, and "Our American Government, What is it? How does it Function?"

In addition, I will send other worthwhile books to the writers of the five letters adjudged to be most expressive in each of four age categories. These books are "Inaugural Addresses of Presidents of the United States" and the 2-volume, authoritative study prepared by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, "Facts on Communism."

The letters will be judged in these age categories:
1. Grade School (grades one through six).
2. Junior High school (grades seven through nine).
3. Senior High school (grades 10 through 12).
4. Adult.

To the writers of the best letters in each category, I'll send an American flag — a flag that has flown over the Capitol of the United States — as well as the books and booklets. One of my most distinguished colleagues in the House of Representatives will be given the five letters I've picked as best in each category. He in turn will pick the flag winners.

I hope the letters flood into the office. Be sure and give me your name and address and the category in which your letter should be placed. All letters postmarked by midnight Sunday, August 25th, will be considered in the competition. I'll announce the winners in a newsletter early in September. Send your letters to me:

FHA Loans Exceed $1 Million In Hall, Childress

Farmers Home Administration loans approved exceeded one million dollars for Fiscal Year 1963 for Childress and Hall Counties, reports E. Leon Thurman, County Supervisor of these two counties.

Operating Loans made to farmers for the 1963 crops totaled $477,530. Fourteen loans were made to purchase, enlarge and finance farms for a total cost of $339,650. Seven Soil and Water loans were made for irrigation wells for a total cost of $75,150, three Rural Housing loans for a total cost of $31,280. One Association loan was made to the City of Lakeview for $110,000 to develop a water distribution system, making all loans approved totaling $1,033,610 for the two counties.

The Farmers Home Administration, an agency of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, serves eligible farmers with credit and needed technical help on farm and money management problems. Loans are made only to applicants unable to obtain adequate credit from other sources at reasonable rates and terms.

The following types of loans are made through Farmers Home Administration:
Operating Loans — are made to eligible operators of farms, not larger than family farms, to assist them in making improved use of their land and labor resources, and make adjustments necessary for successful farming.
Farm Ownership Loans — are made to eligible farmers to enlarge, develop and buy farms not larger than family farm, and to refinance debts against the farm.

Rural Housing Loans — are made to eligible farm owners and owners of non-farm tracts in rural areas and small communities for the construction and repair of needed homes and essential farm buildings.
Water Development and Soil Conservation Loans — are made to eligible individuals and groups of farmers and rural residents to develop water supply systems for irrigation, household use and for livestock and to carry out soil conservation measures.

Emergency Loans — are made to eligible farmers in designated areas where natural disaster such as floods and drought have brought about a need for credit not available from other sources.
Watershed Loans — are made to local organizations to help finance projects that protect and develop land and water resources in small watersheds.

Full details on loans and services can be obtained from the local FHA Office in Childress at 210 Commerce Street, and in Memphis at 505 Main Street.

- Do you use moisture-proof cords for outside weather conditions; heavy rubber cords for motors and motor driven appliances?
- Are you using an approved commercial electric fence controller?
- Are all electrical appliances in proper condition; are they being properly operated?

Now Is Time To Fertilize For Fall Wheat

It is now time to consider plans for fertilizing wheat to be planted this fall, suggests County Agent W. B. Hooser. Because Hall County soils vary in their ability to supply plant nutrients, the most logical starting point for determining fertilizer is the soil test.

Hooser stated that his office can supply information on how to collect and mail the samples. By sampling early the report will be received in plenty of time for making the final decision as to what kind and how much fertilizer to apply.

Nitrogen is the fertilizer element likely to be in shortest supply. Organic matter as measured by soil tests is one of the guides for determining how much nitrogen will be needed. However, factors such as the amount and stage of decomposition of previous crop residue, physical condition of the soil, ability to irrigate adequately, and intended grazing practices

Sandra Mauck Reported To Be Improved Today

Sandra Mauck, 15 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mauck, is reported to be improving nicely from injuries she received when the car she was driving overturned about three miles north of Memphis Monday afternoon. Sandra suffered a skull fracture and is receiving treatment in Goodall Hospital.

Riding in the car with Sandra was Wanda Coleman, who received only minor injuries. She was treated and released that afternoon.

The accident occurred on a dirt road near the Troy Davis farm. Mrs. Davis brought the girls to the hospital.

will all influence the nitrogen of the crop, Hooser said.

Research data of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station clearly indicates that where wheat is grown on Pullman soils for grain only, the time of nitrogen application is of little importance. When wheat is to be grazed it is important to apply all or part of the nitrogen preplant. Adequately fertilized wheat forage can contain 2 per cent protein or three per cent nitrogen on a dry basis, he said.

Insufficient phosphorus may be limiting wheat production, Hooser added. Profitable response has long been evident on many of the sandy and mixed land soils, and more recently excellent yield increases have been noted on Pullman soils shown to be deficient by the soil test. Because phosphorus does not move appreciably with soil moisture it must be placed in the soil where it will be within reach of the permanent roots for efficient use.

Eight Memphis Masons Plan To Attend Conclave

Eight Memphis Masons are making plans to attend the third annual Hilltop Open Air Conclave for Master Masons and their wives, Saturday, July 27, on the Andis Ranch, three miles west of Skellytown.

HEAD FOR SHORE WHEN BAD WEATHER ARRIVES

The Texas Safety Association says boatmen caught out in the water by bad weather should keep calm and head for the nearest sheltered shore.

If the water is very choppy, seat passengers on the lowest part of the vessel, keeping them as close to the centerline as possible, and head into the waves at reduced speed.

The show contained three vocalists, six bands, one dance routine, and comedy acts.

"We also want to express our thanks to those who performed numbers in the show. They did an excellent job and showed talents we were unaware of," Duncan said.

The show lasted two hours and fifteen minutes. Although the show was longer than planned, the audience response was high with praise.

"I would like to express my appreciation to The Memphis Democrat for the fine publicity which I feel contributed so much to making the show a success," Duncan said.

FARM SAFETY WEEK

Is July 21-27

Do You Know ...

That more people were killed in farm accidents last year than were killed in the great Chicago Fire, the Sinking of the Titanic, the San Francisco earthquake and the Johnstown flood combined. You don't hear much about farm accidents, yet farms are the scene of an alarming number of fatalities. National Safety Council figures indicate that 8,700 people are killed on farms each year. Fires alone cost farmers over $163,000,000 in 1961.

In Farm Safety Week, we urge you to take every step to bring safety to your farm. We should also like to remind you of the benefits of ADEQUATE INSURANCE, for you, your family, your crops, your buildings and your possessions.

Do You Know About Our Farmers Comprehensive Liability Insurance?

It gives you complete liability coverage on every type accident except those involving registered vehicles, which are covered by other types liability insurance. No farmer can say he is entirely safe without this Farmers Comprehensive Liability Insurance.
