Today Is Deadline For ASCS Election Voting

Today, (Thursday, Sept. 12) is the last day for mailing ballots in the 1964 ASCS community committee election. As of noon Wednesday 272 farmers had returned their ballots to the county office. As most envelopes contain two votes, it is estimated over 500 persons have voted.

This compares favorably with the 541 total votes in last year's election and indicates the continuing interest shown by Hall children under six years of age. A wide variety of entertainers has been secured for the evening's fare and a good time for all is assured, the director stated.

Among the entertainers will be the Country Playboys, a fiddle band; the Corn Huskers, a three-piece "combo"; the Gas Lighters, a male quartet; the Visions, a rock 'n' roll "combo"; Milton Beasley's square dancers; Julie Dodge doing the twist. Paul Hancock and Joe Wood will lead the hymn singing.

Added to these will be "rag-time" music and "break-down" fiddling.

Don Kaplan Wins Invitational Golf Tourney With Five Under Par 199

Don Kaplan of Childress, defending champion of the Memphis Invitational Golf Tournament, set a blistering pace in the opening rounds of the tournament here Saturday, to capture the early lead.

On the second day of play, Kaplan slipped to a three over par total for the 27 holes, but due to his remarkable eight under par rounds Saturday, gave him a total for the tournament of five under par 199. This was one of the best 54-hole totals ever posted on the Memphis course.

In the opening day of play, Kaplan shot a 30, 32 and 32. On Sunday, he shot an even par 34, one over 35, and two over 36.

Max Hickey of Pampa came on strong the final day of play to capture the runner-up honors again this year as he did last year, with a 54-hole total of 202, two under par.

Bob Giese of Amarillo took third place with a 207, three over par.

Qualifying Friday, Malcolm Martin of Chattanooga, Tenn., who was visiting here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Martin, shot the best qualifying score, a 67, one under par for 18 holes.

Cyclone, Crowell Bobcats To Tangle Friday Night

The Memphis Cyclone will travel to Crowell Friday night to meet the Bobcats on their home field. A large crowd of local fans are expected to make the trip.

Coach Charley Chambliss said, "Crowell has a real tough ball club and I look for a tough game," when he was asked about the upcoming contest.

Both teams won their opening games last week with Memphis defeating Price College 34 to 28 and Crowell defeating a tough AA school, Iowa Park, 26-6.

Crowell is picked favorite in the game. Crowell's starters include: Paul Campbell, Larry Henry, Dan Mike Bird, Rickey Traweck in the backfield, Coye McCurley and Ronny Clifton at tackles; Mike Shrode and Lee Looney at ends, John Borchardt and James Corder at guards; and Randy Smith at center.

The captains of the Bobcats, Henry, Shrode and Corder, will be Crowell's key players in the game.

The Cyclone will miss the services of Donnie Bridges, starting center and linebacker, due to a knee injury received Friday night.

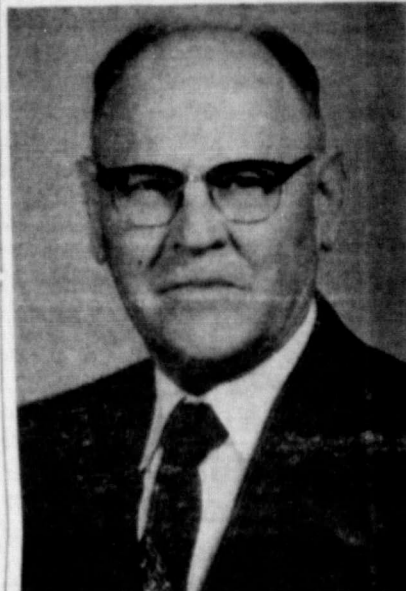

Mike Branigan and Jack Stargel, both have pulled muscles which may keep them from seeing up on the picnic grounds, and all persons are requested to be sure and register by Tops Gilreath, chairman. Special ribbons are being made for those designated hosts for the day. These, too, should be picked up at the registration desk. Those who are serving as hosts are asked to be at the picnic grounds not later than 12 noon.

Desserts

Local residents have been requested to bring cakes and pies again this year, Lucile Wright, chairman, stated. Various kinds of desserts may be brought. However, fruit pies and cakes are much easier to serve, she added.

"We are expecting a large crowd at the picnic this year," President Harrison said. "Several former residents from as far away as California and other parts have already arrived in Memphis to attend the picnic and visit with friends and relatives."

SUPT. W. C. DAVIS

W. C. Davis Is To Retire After Aug. 31, 1964

W. C. Davis, superintendent of the Memphis Public Schools, made the announcement to the Memphis School Board, at their regular meeting Monday night, that he will retire from the teaching profession at the termination of his present contract, which is Aug. 31, 1964.

He gave his board this early notice that he is not interested in having his contract renewed in order that they will have ample time to select a man to take his place.

The school board, in a statement released this week, said, "The trustees of the Memphis Independent School District sincerely appreciate the work W. C. Davis has done in building the school system we now have. The members of the board would like to see this year be the outstanding year in the 29 years Mr. Davis has served the Memphis Schools, and they pledge their wholehearted support and cooperation to that end."

The Memphis School Board agreed to accept applications for the superintendency of the Memphis Schools by invitation only.

EDITORIAL

Cordial Hosts!

This weekend, many out-of-town, former citizens of Hall County will be on hand for the annual Hall County Picnic which will get underway Sunday morning with the Church Services, at all the Memphis Churches. Following this, a meal will be served in the City Park, and an afternoon program is planned.

However, this editorial is not to the out-of-town visitors who have already put forth a tremendous effort to attend this affair, but it is to the citizens of Hall County to be a gracious host during this annual affair.

It is said that Texans are among the most friendly people in the world. We in Hall County feel that we are among the friendliest of Texans.

In relation to the Hall County Picnic, we encourage residents to make a special effort to go to the City Park for the noon meal, Sunday, to bring a dessert, and to welcome the visitors.

Secondly, while you are at the Picnic, tell the visitors about the new developments which are going on in this area. If time permits, and the visitors are willing, a tour would be very interesting. We would suggest taking the visitors by the new hospital, factory building, municipal building, new homes, the nursing home and the recently completed Travis Baptist Church building. It has been estimated that almost two million dollars is being spent in Memphis and surrounding area since the building boom began.

Let's be cordial hosts at the Picnic Sunday. Be on hand to meet and greet the visitors. Much work is being done to prepare for the affair. Don't disappoint your out-of-town friends who have driven a long way to attend and to see you by staying at home Sunday.

Constitution Week

Constitution Week, Sept. 17-33, will pass with very little consideration by citizens of this nation, with the exception of certain classes in our schools. This is not as it should be. It should be a time when everyone spends some time reviewing this greatest of all governmental documents.

The observance is scheduled throughout this nation in recognition of the importance of the federal constitution, which forms the basis of our form of government. It insures a stable balance of power between the legislative, executive and judicial branches of government by providing curbs upon the authority of each.

Much is being written and said at this time about the Constitution and the amendments thereto. But only specific words are in the news. Debates are occurring about how much power each of the three branches of government may exercise. Now that Congress is in session, demands are being made upon our elected representatives at Washington to "pass a law." Mighty as our Congress is, the Constitution does not give it certain powers, such as:

1. Neither Congress nor anybody else can suspend the writ of habeas corpus (unless the public safety demands it during rebellion or invasion.) All officers or others must obey a court and bring in anyone in their custody to see whether he is held lawfully.
2. Congress cannot pass "bills of attainder," special acts to punish someone. Congress cannot by-pass the courts.
3. Congress cannot pass an ex post facto law—a law which makes an act a crime which was not one when done, or which punishes the offender more than called for when done.
4. Congress cannot tax exports from any state nor by regulation favor one state's parts over another's, nor make one state's vessels clear or pay duties to another state in order to enter.

Besides these denials from within, the Constitution curbs Congress and the executive and judiciary in the amendments, especially the first ten.

Among other things, Congress cannot make a law respecting establishment or religion or prohibiting its free exercise, or abridging the freedom of speech, of the press or the right of the people peaceably to assemble and to petition the government for a redress of grievances.

The Constitution also curbs the courts (for example, they cannot deny a person a fair hearing duly represented by counsel.) It curbs the executive (he cannot, for example, take private property for public use without just compensation.) The Constitution, which divides the work of the three branches of government, winds up by telling where the rest of the power rests—just in case anybody gets any fancy ideas of dictatorship. There are things no state can do, for instance, "make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States."

If there are any powers not given to the United States government or reserved to the state, they belong to the people. The Constitution does not seem to limit the people.

Study the Constitution. Know your rights and appreciate your privileges as a citizen. It is only through an informed citizenship that active contributions can be made toward better government.

What Other Editors Say

Price-Fixing
A "quality stabilization bill," a citizen might suppose, would be a bill having something to do with quality stabilization. But that's where said citizen would betray his innocence of legislative namesmanship.

There is indeed a "quality stabilization bill" now before Congress, on which a Senate Commerce subcommittee is holding hearings. It already has the blessing of the House Commerce Committee, as well as a lot of powerful support both in and out of Congress. Its principal sponsor in the House is Rep. Oren Harris, chairman of the Commerce Committee; its principal sponsor in the Senate is Hubert Humphrey, assistant Democratic leader.

What it is, though, is a plain old-fashioned price-fixing bill dressed up—what used to be called "fair trade" until the silly sham of that monicker got across to the public, then masqueraded in the last Congress as a "fair competitive practices bill."

Whatever the name, the intent is the same: to allow manufacturers to dictate the retail prices of their products, and get court injunction against any one who sells them for less. It's a bill wanted by some manufacturers, and dear to the hearts of small retailers who don't like to face price competition. But it shouldn't be too welcome to consumers, since its whole purpose is to force them to pay more for a product that somebody wants to sell for less.

When corporate executives get together in a smoky hotel room and agree not to undercut one another's prices, that's called a conspiracy and the executives are sent to jail. When they attempt to do the same thing by law—and require everybody to go along—that's called fair trade. When Congressmen seek to disguise "fair trade" as "quality stabilization," that's called politics.

Mule Talk?
Can an animal testify in court? A mule did at Brownwood once in a case involving two Cross Cut men.

A farmer bought a mule from a neighbor and claimed that the beast was not as represented. One word led to another and when both men became fighting mad, the new owner went to court asking redress for financial injury.

"I was told the mule was sound in every way," testified the plaintiff, "and this is not correct; the critter's teeth are no good, he can't even eat corn."

Evidence was heard for both sides but testimony was inconclusive until the late Jake Alford of Rising Star, attorney for the defendant, asked the judge to summon one more witness.

"Let the mule speak for himself," demanded the lawyer.

Accordingly, the mule was hauled into court and led directly in front of the jury box. Alford handed the animal three choice ears of yellow-dent corn. To the embarrassment of the plaintiff the mule gobbled the corn greedily.

Judgement was rendered for the defendant and the owner's investment in the mule was increased by all costs of the trial.

Profit From The Bible
"Do you read the Bible?" This question, asked in a crowd, would produce interesting replies if the truth were told.

There are some people in the State-line area who think themselves "superior," because they place scant reliance upon the book which it still the world's best seller. They fancy an independent aloofness but, in reality, there must be some other explanation for their failure to give the Word of God a trial on its merits. Any number of our best citizens can, and will, testify to the great influence this book has exerted upon their lives. They know that its study has brought them values, not equalled by any other publication. As a matter of selfish "profit," basing their testimony solely upon "returns," they will utter thanksgiving for their Bible-reading habit.

Vanderburg-Davis Nuptials Read In Perryton Rites Sat.

Impressive candlelight wedding vows Saturday, Sept. 7, at 7 o'clock in the evening united in marriage Miss Linda Kay Vanderburg of Spearman and Jimmy Davis of Memphis.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Everett E. Vanderburg of Spearman and the bridegroom is the son of Dr. W. C. Davis of Memphis.

The Rev. Luther M. Berry, pastor, directed the exchange of double ring vows in the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church in Spearman.

The altar was arranged with baskets of white chrysanthemums and pom poms before a background of jade palms and greenery. Spiral candelabras and seven-branched candelabra holding white cathedral tapers completed the setting.

White satin ribbons and pom pom chrysanthemums marked the bridal aisle which was covered with a white aisle cloth.

Mrs. Marvin Jones of Spearman, organist, presented a medley of nuptial selections and played the traditional wedding march. She also accompanied Richard Fencher as he sang "I Love You Truly" and "Always."

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a formal wedding gown of candlelight peau de soie. The low sculptured neckline and elbow length sleeves were accented with a cummerbund embroidered in French lace and pearls. The pearl encrusted appliques of the sheath skirt were repeated on the long back panel which fell over the chapel length train.

Her bouffant veil of imported candlelight illusion cascaded from a re-embroidered lace pill box. She carried a white Bible which her mother carried in her own wedding, crested with a white gardenia. Short white gloves completed her attire.

Miss Nelda Jean Vanderburg attended her sister as maid of honor and Mrs. John Webb of Corpus Christi, college roommate of the bride, was bridesmatron. They were identical long sheath dresses of silk ottoman in a moss green shade designed with short overjackets. Their matching shell hats were of the same moss green ottoman and they carried single white spider mums.

Bill Davis of Gainesville was his brother's best man and Jack Vanderburg of Spearman, brother of the bride, was groomsmen. David Duncan of Memphis, Zack P. Fisher, Edward Bear and Burl McClellan, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, all of Spearman, were ushers.

Mrs. Vanderburg chose for her daughter's wedding a sheath of sheer wool in a fawn shade with beige accessories and a white gardenia corsage.

Wedding guests were registered in a white leather bound bride's book by Mrs. Douglas Moore.

The bride's parents were hosts at a reception in Fellowship Hall of the church following the ceremony.

The bride's table was laid with a white satin bridal cloth centered with a white three-tiered colonaded wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Mint green punch, nuts and dainty mints were served with the cake. Table appointments were in silver and crystal.

The bridegroom's table was laid with a brown linen cloth encircled at the edge with clusters of grapes. A chocolate cake centered the table and coffee was served from a silver coffee service.

Misses Joan Greene and Mary Vernon of Spearman, Marianne McCarty of Casper, Wyo., and Susan Brown of Plainview presided at the refreshment tables.

When the couple left on their wedding trip to Colorado, the bride wore a Chanel suit of sea blue wool with accents of green and matching accessories. Her corsage was a white gardenia.

The bride is a graduate of Spearman High School and Texas Technological College, Lubbock, where she received her B. A. degree this spring in Marketing.

The bridegroom graduated from Memphis High School and attended the University of Arizona and North Texas State College before graduating from the Southwest School of Printing, a division of Sam Houston College in Huntsville.

The couple will make their home in Spearman where the bridegroom is co-publisher of The Hansford Plainman and Sunday Plainman.

Rehearsal

Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Davis of Memphis, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Berl McClellan of Spearman hosted the rehearsal luncheon on the day of the wedding.

Quartet tables were laid with white linen cloths and centered with bronze pom poms. An arrangement of bronze chrysanthemums and frosted white wedding bells highlighted the serving table where baked ham, French green beans, salads, hot rolls, relishes, coffee and Mississippi lemon pie were served.

Mrs. Edward Dear, Mrs. Don Floyd and Mrs. Zack Fisher, all of Spearman, assisted with hostess duties.

Guests at the wedding and reception from Memphis included Dr. and Mrs. Davis, Mrs. A. W. Howard, David Duncan and Dr. Roddy Bice. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Guthrie of Perryton and formerly of Memphis, also attended.

Pink And Blue Shower Honors Mrs. B. Lemons

Mrs. Buck Lemons was honored with a pink and blue shower last week in the home of Mrs. Doyle Fowler of Brice.

Refreshments were served from a table laid with a lace cloth over pink and centered with an arrangement of pink artificial roses tied at the bottom with a large pink satin bow.

Joan Ward and Mrs. Dwight Cailey served the punch and coffee.

The honoree opened an array of attractively wrapped gifts from a table covered with a pink cloth. Hostesses for the occasion, other than Mrs. Doyle Fowler, included: Mmes. Starr Johnson, L. T. Weaver, Wayne Stephens, Aubrey Martin, Archie Hawkins, G. W. Selmon, Keith Robertson, Joe Woods and Leroy Pate.

Cyclone Defeats Cards Offensive Battle, 34-28 offensive tussle Friday... Memphis Cyclone forced their fifth touchdown with the clock and edged Price College Cardinals... the non-conference season before an estimated over 1,500 spectators.

held on the mid field stripe. At the end of the first quarter, P. C. was in punt formation.

Opening the second quarter action, Odom received the punt but fumbled the ball when he was tackled and a Price College lad recovered it on the Cyclone 15.

Two plays later, Quarterback Thomas scored for the Cardinals and also carried for a two-point conversion. The score was 14-6.

Memphis took over the ball, but lost it a few plays later on an intercepted pass, reclaimed it with an interception when James Waites snatched the ball out of the air on the Memphis 42. This started the Cyclone's second TD drive.

On good carries by HBs Jack Stargel and Toby Crooks, the Cyclone knifed their way through the Cardinal defensive unit which held a definite weight advantage.

Twelve plays later, the Cyclone was on the Cardinals 14. FB Mike Crow carried two downs for four yards, and then QB James Waites scampered around end for the score, with 0:14 seconds left on the clock before the half. The extra points try was no good and the half ended, 14-12.

Fans who were late getting back to their seats, after going to the snack bar during the half, missed the most spectacular run of the night when HB Jack Stargel took the opening kickoff from Price College and scampered 85 yards up the center of the field for the touchdown. The scoring run took 14 seconds according to the scoreboard clock. Don Craig's extra point place kick was wide and the score was 18-14.

But Price College, not to be counted out of the game, used a fine passing and running offense to drive down the field and score. QB Thomas carried over from the one yard line to make the score 20-18. The extra points pass was incomplete.

Jack Stargel returned the kickoff to the Cyclone 47, a gain of 20 yards.

Two plays netted the Cyclone 16 yards and a first down on the Cardinals 37. Problems developed here, however, when Crooks was thrown for a three yard loss. Sturdevant made four yards on one carry and on the third down, a pass went incomplete.

On a fourth and nine situation, QB Sturdevant hit Halfback Stargel in the flat, and Stargel scampered across the goalline before being downed. The play carried for 36 yards. QB James Waites carried for the two point conversion and Memphis again captured the lead with a score of 26-20.

A short kickoff by Richard Ellis for the Cyclone gave the Cardinals the ball on their own 48. From here the Cardinals ran the ends until they had a first and goal to go on the Cyclone 7 yardline. From here, however, the Cyclone defense showed some stubbornness, and the Cardinals were held.

The Cyclone took over the ball, and marched out to the Price College 43 before losing the ball on a fumble.

On the next play, Price College's QB Thomas connected with a pass to No. 12. Timothy Burks, who outran the Cyclone secondary to the goalline. The play covered 53 yards. Another pass from Thomas to End Michael Walsh made two more points and the score was 28-26.

The game's final score came when Mike Crow intercepted a pass thrown by Price College to give Memphis possession on the Price College 40.

Carries by Toby Crooks, Mike Crow and Jack Stargel, took the ball to the Cardinals four yard line. Stargel carried to the one, and Mike Crow, on the next play, carried the ball in to score.

Jimmy Don Sturdevant carried over for two more points, making the final score 34-28.

Lakeview Area Gets Over Two Inches Of Rain

Good rains fell south and west of Memphis Wednesday. However, in Memphis, only .11 of an inch was measured by J. J. McMickin, official weather observer.

In the Lakeview area, from two to three inches was recorded in some areas, and west of Lakeview some light hail was reported Wednesday afternoon.

In the Newlin area, rains of almost an inch were reported in different locations.

The high-low temperatures for the week as recorded by McMickin include: Wednesday 97-68, Tuesday 100-68, Monday 100-72, Sunday 99-69, Saturday 104-69, Friday 99-69 and Thursday 89-62.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Massey and daughter, Abbie Louise, of Dumas spent the night here Thursday with their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Pearl Massey. They were on their way to visit their daughter, Mrs. Jimmie Bradshaw, in Waco, then on Sunday carried Abbie Louise to Austin, where she will enroll in the University of Texas.

Prevent Forest Fires
One precaution you can take to prevent your campfire from starting a disastrous forest fire is to build the campfire on a thick sheet of aluminum foil. Foil will keep the fire from sinking underground, then up later when you are gone. Dousing the campfire with water doesn't always extinguish the fire.

About Your HEALTH

Weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health.

... makes it possible to relax in the simplest effective way—muscle relaxation, balance, rhythm, and coordination, and all direct bearing on work efficiency and health. Poor posture can habit, like overeating, reduces blood circulation, causes drowsiness and inefficient breathing in the abdominal organs sag and worry.

... tension until there is a feeling of complete looseness. Another method is to close your eyes and, starting from the tip ends of the toes, fingers or scalp, let each muscle relax or go completely limp. After mastering these methods of tension relaxation, it becomes possible to locate tense areas within the body and relax them.

... Aside from building good principles of body mechanics with the fundamentals of health—plenty of sleep, regular exercise, meals which keep up stamina and provide a supply of energy and attention to medical and dental needs—there are specific posture points to consider.

... The most evident fact in a person with good posture is that the body is carried in a well balanced manner with the weight line of the body falling through the main midline joints of the body. Any posture in which the various segments or parts of the body assume a zigzag line, or in other words sag in one spot or bulge out in another, is apt to indicate poor body alignment. Good posture results in body movements of ease, grace and efficiency.

B&PW Club To Sponsor Community Birthday Calendar

Solicitations for birthday and anniversary dates for the 1964 Community Birthday Calendar being sponsored by the Memphis Business and Professional Women's Club began this week.

A house-to-house canvass is planned for the project at which time orders will be taken for the calendars. Cora Belle Alexander, president of the club, stated.

Listings are 25 cents for each birth date or anniversary. Calendars will sell for $1.50 each and will be delivered before the first of the year.

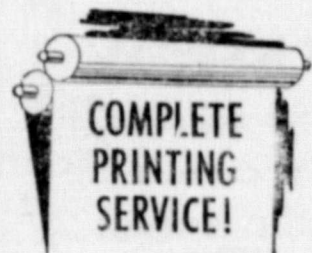

Persons who are not contacted may place orders with any member of the club or with the president, Mrs. Alexander.

Those who would like to mail in an order should list their name, address and date of birth or anniversary to B&PW Club, care of Cora Belle Alexander, Memphis. Enclose 25 cents for each birthday listing or anniversary, and $1.00 for the calendars. Orders must be in before Oct. 1, the president said.

The average person blinks his eyes about 25 times per minute, each blink lasting about two-tenths of a second.

Poor posture is usually awkward and inefficient.

A person with poor posture can get tired just sitting. It's worth learning the right way to sit, too, for it can save much fatigue and weariness. Try it, using these simple rules: Use a firm chair with a seat height equal to leg from bottom of the heel to the back of the knee, minus 1 1/2 inches. Sit tall—on the back of the thighs rather than the end of the spine. Hold the head and trunk erect, centered over the pelvis or slightly forward. Flex the knees at right angles.

Lakeview Vo.-Ag. To Have Tractor Maintenance Course Sept. 23-26

A tractor maintenance short course for adult farmers will be held Sept. 23-26 under the sponsorship of the Lakeview High School Vocational Agriculture Department, according to Mr. Allen Jones, Superintendent, and Mr. Barney Beavers, teacher of vocational agriculture.

The short course is being sponsored by the vocational agricultural department of Lakeview High School.

Mr. Harold T. Wiedemann, tractor maintenance specialist with the Vocational Agriculture Division of the Texas Education Agency and the Department of Agricultural Engineering at Texas A & M College, will do the instructing. He is headquartered at Texas A & M College.

Mr. Wiedemann, a native of Mission, Texas, received his B. S. Degree in Agricultural Engineering from Texas A&M College in 1956. During summer va-

...cations he worked with the John Deere Implement Company of Mission, and while serving 24 months active duty with the U.S. Army he was in charge of instruction and maintenance of both track and wheel type vehicles.

"Outstanding success" has been the words associated with the tractor maintenance short course taught by Mr. Wiedemann, according to Walter Labay, area supervisor of vocational agriculture, Plainview, Texas. Arrangements for the adult education short course in tractor maintenance and in other fields are made through Mr. Bob Jaska's office.

The short course at Lakeview is scheduled to begin Sept. 23 at 8 p. m. in the vocational agriculture building. Other meetings in the series of meeting will be held at 8 p. m. Sept. 24, 25, and 26.

During the dates the short course is in progress, Mr. Wiedemann will be available to assist farmers with individual tractor problems and to provide "on-the-farm" instruction, according to Beavers.

Farmers interested in attending the short course should write or call the Superintendent of Schools, Mr. Allen Jones, or the Teacher of Vocational Agriculture, Mr. Beavers. An entry fee of $2 will be charged. Tractor Maintenance Short course Certificates are to be presented to each individual who attends all the training sessions.

Mr. Wiedemann states that the key to longer tractor life comes from a full knowledge of the fundamentals of an engine and the application of the proper maintenance skills involving lubrication, fuels carburetion, air cleaners, cooling systems, valves and ignition. Mr. Wiedemann will cover the proper adjustments and maintenance of the above, with emphasis on the importance of each in obtaining a longer tractor life. Throughout the short course emphasis will be placed on "Learning to do by doing" through the use of several demonstration tractors. All students will have the opportunity to perform actual adjustments and maintenance on these tractors. Safety during both maintenance and actual operation will also be included in this course. Hall County Soil Conservation District News

Many farmers and ranchers who live in the Hall County Soil Conservation District have developed and are applying complete soil and water conservation plans to their farm or ranch.

A complete farm or ranch plan is the way that a farmer or rancher, truly wanting to do a conservation job, will go about it. It is a plan laid out by him for future years of the conservations jobs that need to be applied to the land. It sets up a time table of projects so as to get the most out of the time and materials spent as well as the amount of money spent.

It gives the operator a goal to work toward knowing that when he has reached it he will have accomplished something worth while and something worthy of his best as an owner of agricultural land. Also a soil and water plan brings the reasons behind each step that is taken.

Then when you as a farmer or rancher have the finished product with all of the parts fitted together for the best in land protection and efficiency that is known today—both from a scientific and experience standpoint—you have a complete soil and water conservation plan.

If you are interested in developing a soil and water conservation plan for your farm or ranch or revising your old plan the Soil Conservation Service employees will be glad to assist you in any way possible.

John C. Myers Is Injured By Power Saw

John C. Myers, Memphis contractor, received a cut left arm Monday morning and was rushed to Odom Hospital by Wesley Waites, a member of his crew, while working on a house on North 17th Street.

Myers was using a power saw when the blade came in contact with his left arm, above the wrist. Although there was some bone damage, the major tendon in the arm was not cut and the arm will heal properly, the attending physician said.

Myers remained in the hospital for two days before being released.

"This cooperative program," states Jaska, "is designed to make the services of specialists available to conduct short courses under the supervision of public schools. Such a program will enable teachers of vocational agriculture to provide improved educational services to farm people." Specialists are now available in the fields of beef cattle, insect control, farm management, farm electrification, farm welding, swine production, tractor maintenance, dairy science, pasture, and oxy-acetylene welding.

Civil Rights Scene

rights wrangles in the Senate has degenerated into a personal spitball fight—rules, and another solid "No" will echo through the Senate after Southern Senatorial fortitude has been worn down by a prolonged filibuster.

Only the most callous Americans of any section would deny the fundamental rights of any citizen, white or Negro. The issue in the current controversy goes deeper. It is more subtle and insidious and behind much of the pressure are men who care not a hoot whether one more Alabama Negro is able to vote in the next election or is able to obtain service at a department store lunch counter. The shadow is cast by men whose steady push at the rear of the vehicle called "civil rights" is aimed at centralization, final and complete, of all meaningful government control at the Federal level.

Said Thomas Jefferson: "I am for preserving to the States the powers not yielded by them to the Union, and to the legislature of the Union its Constitutional share in the division of powers; and I am not for transferring all of the powers of the States to the general government, and all those of that government in the Executive Branch."

Editorial voices in the North declare that the States' Rights position is now "spurious," that it is it posed only as a barrier to a grant of equality to Negro citizens. In the tragically fallacious notion then that legislative fiat can alter the human heart, they would thus tear the vitals from the U. S. Constitution.

The basic question could well be whether or not the United States has come to the point where its citizens will succumb finally to an "Uncle Knows Best" philosophy of national government. Once the Nation has adopted this policy, those who now are so vigorously pushing for enactment of sweeping civil rights legislation (believing that they will thereby benefit politically), may find that the pendulum has a two-way swing. As a result of the centralization they have forced upon their country, they may find that they are to become victims of massive and impersonal Federal intervention in affairs over which they'd like some private control.

HALF-PAST TEEN

This is not a partisan controversy. Republicans and Democrats from the North are trying to work out a way in which they can combine to share the credit. In this, their dispute is sectional—not along national party lines. Their argument at the moment is with each other—not with Democrats from the South. With this issue resolved, if it can be, the attention then will shift to the tactical question of how the bipartisan combine of sectional forces can push civil rights through to enactment.

Northerners should pause a moment in this troubled time to ask themselves several serious questions going beyond anything involved in the legislation itself. They should ask: "By political expediencies are we really providing solutions for the South's problems—and our own grave problems?" "Will we destroy the essence of the Federal-State relationship?" "What will the effect be on the Constitution itself?"

SCHOOL SPIRIT!

What has happened to the school's spirit? Even though we did win our Friday night game there was very little spirit in the stands. Let's all try our best to go to all the games and show some real spirit.

Our pep rally wasn't a very big success. Each Friday every person in the pep rally should make it the best and loudest Memphis has ever had. Remember, parents, you can come to the pep rally, too.

Showing your standing school spirit (at pep rallies) not by sitting. Come on, students and parents. Let's show the boys we're behind them win or lose.

4th Graders Take Imaginary Trip Around World

The 25 children in Mrs. Farmer's fourth grade room have been "busy as bees." Among many things, they have been getting ready to start on an imaginary trip around the world.

By using their attractive text book entitled "This Big World" and films which they have seen on "View Master," they have enjoyed visiting Washington, D. C., San Antonio, Tex., San Francisco, Calif., and New York City, before beginning the interesting journey.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Miller and Mrs. Mary Smith of Tennessee spent Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller. They are cousins of Mr. Miller. This was Mary's first trip to Texas.

Cyclone Band Plans Surprise Show For Crowell-Memphis Game Friday

This year has started off with the Cyclone Band showing a great deal of improvement over last year, Band Director Bill Bradley said this week.

The new enthusiasm could be attributed to the hard work the band did during the pre-school summer practice which started Aug. 12 and continued through the remaining summer vacation. The band practiced a total of 39 hours of marching and musical review during that period.

The pre-school try-outs were the most important element in the band's keeping in "playing trim" during summer vacation, Director Bradley said.

This week's show at Crowell will feature surprise routines to: "Just a Little Bit of Luck," "Invocation of Albrich," "Sound and Fury," and "Texas Tech on Parade."

This year's Cyclone Band has been increased by 25 members.

They include: Lucheryl Tucker, alto clarinet; B. H. Cook and Orvil Weddel, baritone; Kenneth McKown and Donna Beckham, bass clarinet; Jerry Knight, bass horn.

Also, Eva Anne Glosson, Bonita Miller, Liz Johnson, and Kathy Jones, clarinet; Jackie Beavers, Vickie Jones, David Douthit and Betty Sanders, cornet; Mary Ann

Junior High Team To Play Five Games This Year

The Memphis Junior High football team will have a five-game schedule this year.

The 1963 schedule will be: Sept. 26, Memphis at Wellington at 6:30 p. m.; Oct. 3, Memphis at McLean at 7 p. m.; Oct. 10, Lefors at Memphis at 7 p. m.; Oct. 17, Memphis at Clarendon at 6:30; and Oct. 24, Canadian at Memphis at 6:30 p. m.

Coaches Charley Chambless and Bert Glascock will be working with the Junior High team. Coach Chambless said, "The training of these boys is invaluable because they will be our future Cyclones."

Lemons, Zee Yarbrough, flutes; Paul Durham, French horn; Randy Driver, Dwight Alewine, percussion; Cathy Dale, David Rose, Suzanne Smithee, Laura Sue Moss, Bill Durham and Fred Durham, saxophone.

Memphis Science Fair To Be Held Early In March

The science classes this year at Memphis High will be well equipped, having a lot of new material in the lab, Mrs. Inez Robinson, science teacher, said.

Mrs. Robinson also announced plans for a local science fair to be held here the first week in March. The fair will be open to any interested student wishing to participate.

The four divisions in the fair will include: primary, grades one through three; elementary, grades four-six; intermediate, grades seven-nine; and the senior division, grades 10-12.

There will be no limit to the number of entries in the fair, she said.

Winners here will receive ribbon awards and a chance to go to regional contest in Amarillo, with the exception of the primary division.

In the senior division, the regional winner will compete in the National Science Fair.

Mrs. Robinson explained that all exhibits must be individual projects; however, students may get any advice needed.

Fred Meason of Tulare, Calif., visited here Monday with Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Liner.

New Arithmetic Methods To Be Used At Austin

The Austin Elementary School will be introducing new arithmetic methods during this school year. Some experimentation was made in grade one last year in the use of the number line, and its use will be continued this year along with the use of open sentences and equations.

This tri-ad, the number line, open sentences, and equations, will be used to help develop an understanding of the structure of addition and subtraction.

In the first and second grades, the pupil begins to learn addition and subtraction by putting together "sets" and taking them apart; "sets" being the most basic mathematical objects.

The principals of the Austin and Travis Elementary Schools will attend an Arithmetic Workshop in Lubbock on Thursday, Sept. 12, in order to obtain more about mathematics for the elementary grades.

FASHION NEWS

By Janice Pounds

The '63 fashion look seems to be all patches, suede, and jungle spots.

Pastels—pink, blue, and green, each with a touch of gray—are "in" for fall . . . mohair sweater dresses are making the scene . . . waistlines are up to empire or down to below the waistline, seldom in between . . . jumpers are back . . . a fake hairpiece, twisted and piled high for evening, is sensational . . . pastel shades for lips and makeup are a must. Knits and tweeds set the pace all over!

Wrap-around, culottes, pert pants, and shirtdresses add a casual air to start school.

Boys should stock up on sweaters! The big look will be in cardigans. A sweater made of wool and mohair, or one with semi-bulky knit gives a neat, casual look for fall and winter. Try wearing a Scandinavian-inspired ski sweater and you won't go unnoticed, even in a crowd!

Bobby Hill Exhibits Grand Champion Gilt At Hall County Swine Show Sta.

Bobby Hill, 4-H Club boy from Turkey, showed the grand champion Sears gilt at the Hall County Swine Show, which was held in Memphis Sept. 7.

He will exhibit his grand champion gilt at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo Sept. 14.

L. B. Snider, Jr., Memphis, won second place in the Sears class. Susan Sams, Lakeview, won third, and Kay House, Turkey won fourth.

In the Businessmen's gilt class, James Vick, Jr., of Lakeview won grand champion; Jean Martin of Lakeview won second, and Gary Walker of Estelline won third.

"We were fortunate in having Harry Cox, county agent from Childress, to judge the Hall County Show. He commended the Hall County 4-H Club boys and girls for having their gilts in wonderful shape and doing an outstanding job in showing. He stated that the fathers and mothers of the Hall County exhibitors were the most outstanding he had ever seen because of their assistance and cooperation with the boys, girls and show officials," W. B. Hooser, Hall County agricultural agent, said.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ballew of Los Angeles, Calif., are visiting relatives here and at Estelline. Tom is visiting his brother, Raymond Ballew, and family here, and at Estelline Mrs. Ballew is visiting her mother, Mrs. S. S. Cooper, who has been ill. The Ballews arrived last Saturday and will return to Los Angeles next week.

Fifth Graders At Austin Adopt Safety Slogan

"The whole town is counting on you to be safe this year" is the slogan adopted by the fifth grade in Austin Elementary School for a safety unit.

After reviewing all the safety rules on using playground equipment, on streets and roads, and on bicycles, they are making safety posters to share with other children in the school.

Science Club To Be Organized Soon At MHS

The organization of the Science Club will be a new project at Memphis High School.

Mrs. Inez Robinson, science teacher, stated this week that she plans to begin the organization of the club next week. The club will be divided into two divisions. The senior division will be for juniors and seniors, and junior division for freshmen and sophomores. Both divisions will contain approximately 20 members, she said.

The main interest of the club will be to study more complex works in the laboratory, on films, and lectureships.

The club will be organized with a charter, constitution and by-laws. The first meeting will be announced later, Mrs. Robinson said.

Tickets Are On Sale For 'Wizard Of Oz'

Tickets are now on sale for the "Wizard of Oz" production, which is scheduled for Monday, Tuesday, Sept. 30 and Wednesday, Sept. 31. The production was announced this week.

The Cyclone Band members, who are preparing for production, have been working hard on the show, and a total of 48 is meeting three times a week.

Those wanting tickets should contact Cuthrie, Anita Snowman, calling 259-2667, and tickets will be delivered.

Now in effect is a new compulsory school attendance law which requires school children, ages 7 to 16, to go to school 165 days out of each 175-day school year.

Before the 58th Legislature passed the law, the minimum attendance requirement was 120 days. This left a wide margin for truancy—especially by children of migrant farm workers who are on the move two to four months out of the year.

ance laws has been cited as one reason for the high rate of illiteracy among Latin Americans. Texas' rate of illiteracy is high for all races. It has been estimated that almost 10 per cent of the state's population is functionally illiterate.

A recent U. S. census survey showed that the average school child in Texas, with a Spanish surname, did not go past the fourth grade. Average Anglo finished the tenth grade and the average Negro completed the eighth.

It will be up to individual school districts to see that children attend school 165 days a year, according to Leon Graham, deputy commissioner of the Texas Education Agency. However, the main responsibility lies with the parents. If a school officer warns the parents of a truant child, they are subject to a fine of $5 for the next day he fails to attend school; $10 for the second offense, after a warning, and $25 for each subsequent offense.

Graham said it is no problem for a migrant parent to enroll his child in any school. No formal transfer is required. "Our schools are here to serve the children of Texas," he said. "All they have to do is say, 'Here I am.'"

Poll Tax Repeal

Campaign for repeal of the poll tax as a requirement for voting was launched by the Texas League of Women Voters, with Gov. John Connally and Vice President Lyndon Johnson giving their support to the movement.

On Nov. 9 Texans will vote on a constitutional amendment to remove the 60-year-old requirement that a poll tax must be paid to vote. Texas voting will be under the shadow of a proposed U. S. constitutional amendment outlawing taxes on the right to vote in elections of Federal officials. Legislatures of 36 states already have ratified this amendment, and when two more approve, it will go into effect.

The Texas Legislature provided Texans a "do it yourself first" route by submitting the proposed amendment to the Texas constitution at the Nov. 9 election. There is no chance for the U. S. amendment to go into effect until after that date.

fields lately, and spraying machines have been busily engaged in poisoning the pests, the prospects are very bright that the Fall County production of cotton will reach into the 50-thousand bale category.

More than half of the U. S. Tourist dollars go to 10 states—and Texas is not among them. That is a situation the new Texas Tourist Development Agency hopes to do something about. So says Frank Hildebrand, Jr., the lately appointed Highway Department tourist promoter. This signals the beginning of a sustained Texas effort to get a fair share of the tourist market. This is something that Texas has been sorely needing. The states that have been attracting the greatest number of tourists have been using such a set-up for many years, and the returns in dollars and cents have been nothing but marvelous.

While the number of farms and farm workers in the U. S. has steadily declined, the farmers' total expenditures continue to increase, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Production expenses have quadrupled in 40 years from less than $7 billion in 1922 to $28 billion in 1962.

Commissioners Meet Here Monday

The Hall County Commissioners Court met here Monday for their regular monthly session in the courthouse.

The Court opened bids for X-ray equipment for the hospital, and rejected the bids. They set the date for re-bidding at 10 a. m. Thursday, Oct. 3.

The Court also took out insurance coverage for the hospital building and equipment. The coverage was 80 per cent on a five-year basis, with extended coverage of $100 deductible.

The insurance agents of Hall County share in the policy. They appointed W. B. Wilson, Sr., and Allen Dunbar to write the policy in their behalf.

The Court handled other routine matters before adjourning.
