County Voters Reject Repeal Of Poll Tax

Hall County voters last Saturday in the special constitutional amendments election voted almost four to one again the poll tax repeal amendment.

The final, official tabulation for Hall County showed 411 voted against the proposed amendment while 122 voted for the proposal.

Hall Countians voted 303 to 227 in favor of welfare payments amendment but voted 293 to 136 against the Jefferson County Pension amendment.

The closest vote was on the fourth proposition. Voters in the county approved the veterans' land fund amendment 273 to 257. Over the state, the only amendment which carried was the welfare payments amendment. The poll tax repeal amendment was voted down, the Jefferson County pensions amendment was not approved, nor did voters approve the Veterans' land fund amendment, although the vote was very close.

This total vote in Hall County was on the poll tax repeal amendment which was 533 votes, far below the county's usual turnout at the polls.

John Berryman Receives $109 Cotton Award

John E. Berryman, who lives on a farm three miles west of Estelline on the Estelline-Turkey highway, received a nice, unexpected award for being a good cotton grower.

Last week, Charles Lane, a Mrs. Baird's Bread salesman of Lubbock, stopped by his farm and told him that he won a prize in the Lubbock Cotton Carnival.

The salesman told him that he had entered a stalk of Mr. Berryman's cotton in the contest, which was a first prize winner. Last weekend, Mr. Berryman and his wife visited their son in Lubbock, and they checked on what prize they won. As it turned out, the Berryman now have a handsome, $109 reclining rocker for their home which they brought home with them.

Berryman state the cotton stalk came from a 50 to 60 acre dry land field. "We should get about a bale and a half per acre from the field this year," he said. "Last year it made two bales to the acre, however, we have had insect damage this year," Mr. Berryman explained. The field the sample was taken from has long been a high-yield one for dry land. The surprising aspect of Mr. Berryman's win at Lubbock is that the dry land cotton plant competed with the irrigated cotton of the entire area. A few years ago, when the farm belonged to John Russell, the field yielded 1,168 lbs. of cotton per acre, W. B. Houser, Hall County Agriculture Agent said.

Negro Charged With 2 Slayings

Jessie Lee Beaver, a 38-year-old Negro man, is charged with two counts of murder with malice in the double slaying of two Negro women late Wednesday afternoon at the farm home of Earl Williams, located one mile east and one-half mile south of Lakeview.

Beaver turned himself over to Hall County Sheriff Elmer Neel at 5:20 p. m. yesterday at the County Jail and confessed to the double slaying, which he said had occurred only minutes before.

The two women, Mrs. Everline Williams, 31, wife of Earl Williams, and Corrine Walker, 32, Mrs. Williams' sister, were found by Sheriff Neel at the Williams home shortly before dark.

Mrs. Williams was found dead on the floor of the living room and Corrine Walker was found in the yard outside the farm home. Both had been shot at close range with a shotgun.

Beaver was arraigned before Justice of Peace J. S. Grimes this morning and he is being held without bond.

Beaver offered to make a statement to District Attorney John Forbis, but due to inconsistencies the District Attorney stated that no statement would be taken until these inconsistencies are worked out.

Beaver agreed to take a lie detector test as soon as it can be arranged.

When Beaver turned himself over to the Sheriff, he left his 12-gauge shotgun in his car, with which he said he shot the two women.

The bodies of the two women were taken to Spicer Funeral Home. Funeral arrangements are pending at this time.

Season's Ginning Total Climbs To 19,275 Bales

This week, the 14 Hall County gins had their busiest week of the season with 6,645 bales ginned during the seven-day period, which brings the season's total to 19,275 bales.

As of this period last year, 17,577 bales had been ginned, so, as was predicted last week, this year's harvest is being gathered faster than last year's harvest, despite the slow start.

K. E. Voelkel, officer in charge of the USDA Cotton Classing Office in Memphis, reported today, that as of Wednesday at closing time, 50,369 samples had been processed. This compares with 49,396 samples last year.

"We are running six tables, and two crews of technicians on the micronaire machines," he said. "We have been able to keep up with day by day receipts so far," Voelkel explained.

The daily receipts at the office are running between 2,500 and 3,000, he said. Most of these are from the gins in the southern portion of the 17-county area the office serves.

Mr. Voelkel announced that the office is now serving five new counties, all located in the upper Panhandle. "This area has only one gin, so we now serve 57 gins," he said.

The new gin is located at Spearman in Hansford County. The other four counties are Roberts, Ochiltree, Lipscomb and Hatcher.

Mr. Voelkel said there has been no change in personnel during the past week, however, when receipts pick up the office has three more classing tables available.

The very favorable weather throughout this classing territory was reflected in the increased sample receipts, Voelkel said.

The quality of cotton changed very little from that classed the previous week. White grades constituted 32 per cent of the cotton classed, and 68 per cent fell in the Light Spotted and Spotted categories. In the White grades, Middling was the main grade with 15 per cent; Middling Light Spotted with 38 per cent was the chief grade in the colored grades.

Samples reduced in grade because of Bark, Grass or Oil amounted to about 1 per cent of the total classed this week. This is one-half the amount reported last week. Slightly less than 1 per cent was reduced in grade because of preparation. Preparation is one of three factors considered in grading cotton, and it reflects the smoothness of the sample.

The staple length ranged from 7/8 to 1-1/8 inches, with 97 per cent stapling 31/32 and shorter, and 3 percent stapling 1 inch and longer. The chief staple length was 15/16 with 67 percent. Wasty cotton was still conspicuously absent as compared with last season.

The predominant grade and staple length for the third straight week was Middling Spotted, 15/16 inch with 26 percent in this quality.

The micronaire readings continued to be high although the grouping under 3.5 showed a slight increase with 3 percent. Ninety seven (97) percent of the cotton this week had readings 3.5 and higher with the reading 4.5-4.9 showing 42 percent.

The fiber strength of the cotton in this section continued to be good with 43 percent testing Strong and Very Strong. Only 5 percent fell in the grouping 70,000-74,000, which is rated Fair.

Average prices paid farmers for the main qualities moving into trade channels were: Middling, 15/16-30.90; Strict Low Middling, 15/16-29.85; Middling Light Spotted, 31/32-30.45; Middling Light Spotted, 15/16-29.90; Strict Low Middling Light Spotted, 31/32-28.75. These prices were based on micronaire readings of 3.5-5.0 for cotton uncompressed, mixed lots in warehouse.

Cottonseed prices at gin points were $53.00 and $55.00 per ton. Hand labor was receiving $1.75 and $2.00 cwt for pulling cotton delivered to the gin.

Commissioners Canvass Election Returns Tuesday

The Hall County Commissioners Court met Tuesday for their regular monthly meeting, and the most important business before the court was the canvassing of the election returns.

The court found them to be in order. The court also approved the authorization for the purchase of two receiving units for the Hall County Sheriff's office and also authorized the County Sheriff to hire clerical help from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m., five days a week.

Mrs. Presley Thomson has been hired to fill this capacity in the Sheriff's office, Sheriff Elmer Neel said.

The Commissioner's Court also approved the paying of the election officials and the regular monthly bills. They handled other routine matters and approved the reports before adjourning.

Memphis To Play Clarendon Friday

The Memphis Cyclone will travel to Clarendon Friday night for the final game of the 1963 football schedule and the traditional contest promises to be a good one. Game time is 7:30 p. m.

Memphis and Clarendon have been meeting in the district contests for a number of years with keen competition marking most of the games.

This year's game will match the Cyclone's speed, passing and hard running attack against the Bronchos' tough defense. Clarendon's defense has shown up well this season and Coach Charley Chambless said this team has the soundest defense we have faced this season.

Offensively, the Bronchoes run basically a wing "T" and No. 15 Ted Graham is their best running back. He plays fullback and tail back and weighs 160 lbs. Clarendon likes to run off tackle sweeps and the dives.

In the overall weight department, both ball clubs are about evenly matched, and in the speed department the Cyclone will hold only a slight advantage in the backfield.

This will be the last football game for the two senior team members, Jerry Lowe and B. H. Cook, both are tackles for the Cyclone squad.

Coach Chambless said, "We are going to Clarendon to win a ball game."

Clarendon has not won a district football game. They suffered a heavy defeat at the hands of the Wellington Skyrockets last week.

The Cyclone will probably be picked as favorites in the contest by area sports writers.

The Cyclone goes into the final game of the season with a one win, one tie, two lose record in district play while the Bronchos have not won a district football game. In district standings, the Skyrockets will play their last conference game Friday night at Canadian, however, even if the Wildcats win the game, the Skyrockets will still represent this district in Bi-District competition.

The McLean Tigers will play the Lefors Pirates Friday night. The Wellington Skyrockets will represent District 2-A against the Stratford Elks of 1-A in the bi-district football game to be played at Pampa Friday, Nov. 22, at 7:30 p. m., it was announced.

Football Films To Be Shown At Big O Monday

T. O. Pounds, president of the Booster Club, extended an invitation to all parents of the Junior High and B football teams to see the film of the Junior High-Shamrock and the B Team-Wellington games.

The films will be shown Monday night at the Big O Restaurant along with the film of the Memphis-Clarendon game.

County Citizens Are Urged To Pay Poll Taxes

Mrs. Melissa Anderson, Hall County tax assessor and collector, this week urged citizens to pay their poll taxes as soon as possible.

"Since the voters of the State of Texas, in the Special Constitutional Amendment Election on Saturday, Nov. 9, did not vote to repeal the provision making the payment of a poll tax a requirement for voting, it will be necessary that poll taxes be paid," Mrs. Anderson stated.

She went on to explain that much confusion is prevalent at the present time, but that the old requirements are still in force.

"We want to urge everyone to come in and pay their poll taxes. It is necessary that every citizen (unless specifically exempt) pay his or her poll tax in order to be qualified to vote in the elections which are coming up in 1964," she added.

She and the personnel of the tax assessor-collector's office are now accepting poll tax checks, which are $1.75 for each person.

EDITORIAL

Good Conservation Includes Wildlife

Charles A. Rodgers has expressed some ideas regarding wildlife in an article sent to the Herald recently that is good meat for an editorial.

Rogers is with the Soil Conservation Service and expresses the idea that a conservation practice can add to the production of wildlife.

His article reads,

"What has happened to wildlife? Comment such as this is heard when there is difficulty finding game. This problem could be overcome if with a little effort wildlife was farmed in rather than out.

"No matter what the major purpose of any conservation practice is, each can contribute to the production of wildlife if any effort is made in this direction.

"Many conservation practices produce additional food and water and other practices provide a place for wildlife to raise their young, travel unseen, or hide from their natural enemies.

"More and more farmers and ranchers are seeing wildlife is being made a part of their conservation plan, where weeds are no problem, small areas are being allowed to grow wild with native shrubs and plants. Low shrubs and plants bearing fruit and seeds are especially liked by wildlife and should be included in windbreaks and other odd areas. A few outer rows of grain sorghums and small grains can be left standing bordering areas where game feed or live. Game feeders scattered over an area can provide an additional supply of food.

"Odd areas on farms and ranches can be managed for wildlife. Odd areas include places such as fence corners, rocky spots, blowouts, abandoned road and good land isolated by ditches, streams, gullies, or irrigation ditches. Another good 'odd' area is around playa lakes in this District. Stock ponds, if protected by fencing also offer refuge for wildlife.

If managed correctly, wildlife can be a good source of income. Many thousands of dollars are made each year by farmers and ranchers selling fishing and hunting rights. Wildlife is a crop of the land. Where good conservation practices are applied and maintained more wildlife results. Think of the number of local farmers who journey north to hunt pheasants. This trend could be reversed in this area if only tried.

"Carson County has an ideal setup for such things and could be reaping rich rewards if only a dedicated effort was made to farm wildlife in rather than farm it out."

—The Panhandle Herald

ACROSS THE DESK

What Other Editors Say

A Question of Faith in U. S.

The trouble with the right-wing movement in this country is that the ultra conservatives have little faith in our system of government.

They continually preach the gospel that it is subversive to talk disarmament with communist leaders because we cannot trust them and they are certain to get the better of us over the bargaining table.

We do not trust communist leaders either but we fail to see what will be gained by refusing to discuss the possibility of peaceful coexistence. The alternative is war, and this would make ideological argument academic. The survivors of a nuclear war would be too busy remaining alive to worry about which type of government was guiding their destinies.

We are not convinced that because the communists are dedicated to their ideology there is no hope of persuading them that war must be outlawed, or that in doing so we would lose the battle for men's minds. Through the forum of the United Nations we have as much opportunity as our enemy to convince the world that our system of government is superior. Americans with abiding faith in our destiny have no hesitation in engaging in open debate with the puppets of the Kremlin or in working and praying for peace.

Our strongest weapon is the freedoms we preach, and our greatest weakness is our failure to practice those freedoms, particularly in the area of civil rights. Here is where the communists could be put to rout if we would put our mind to it.

Mr. Truman Has The Answer

In a speech in Cleveland, former President Harry Truman got off some pungent comment on an item or two in the recent news. He said:

"These youngsters who are running around the country trying to institute mob rule were raised under the nutty theory of let the child grow like a weed with no home discipline. It is a lazy way to raise a family. These young rioters were not spanked enough as they grew up.

"The police should be furnished with nice, old-fashioned butter paddles and be authorized to use them in the place intended for spanking on such demonstrators as interrupted the House Un-American Activities hearing in Washington and on the so-called 'sit-ins' in Mayor Waggoner's office in New York."

As a whole there is nothing wrong with the younger generation. On the contrary. But whatever ails a relative, few of them—as well as some of their elders—

Mr. Truman has spotted exactly. —The Fort Worth Press

TIPS FOR OUTDOORSMEN

by Varn Sanford

Emergency Knife

If you lose or forget your knife you can still dress that big game you just shot.

Flatten the open end of a used cartridge and sharpen it on the nearest stone.

This really works.

Grow Your Own Duck Blind
Building a good duck blind is something of a chore.

Result is not half as effective as growing out on the spot.

You can make a most natural looking blind by planting millet seed about a foot wide around a wooden frame on a lake or stream bank that inundates.

Millet is a fast grower. But it must have a spring rise and summer drying.

If planting is done about three months before duck season, you'll have a thick growth of grassy stuff that's just right in height, ready for the fall shooting.

Stop Door Scratching

If your hunting dog has the run of your house there probably are many ugly marks on the door where he scratches to get in.

These can be eliminated if you will tack a heavy sheet of sandpaper over the spot.

Not only will it protect the door, it also will file down the pooch's claws at the same time.

Oiling Difficult Places

At best, oiling a rifle or shotgun is a dreary job. There are many hard-to-get-to places.

Simplify the chore by keeping a package of pipe cleaners handy.

When you come to a hard-to-oil spot, dip a pipe cleaner in oil. It will do the job effectively.

Hunting from Duck Boat

Long mornings in a duck boat can get mighty uncomfortable. Lessen the discomfort somewhat by inflating an ordinary inner tube to carry with you.

Inner tube makes a soft seat and acts as a life preserver should such be needed.

Cleaning Your Dog's Nose

During quail season, dogs often get chaff and dust in their noses. This lessens their efficiency as hunters.

Before taking to the field, slip a small bottle of diluted boric acid in your hunting jacket. Now and then insert a few drops of the stuff in the dog's nostrils.

This will cause the dog to sneeze and blow out any foreign matter.

Umbrella Tent Tip

Here's a handy tip for your umbrella tent.

Apply luminous paint to the center pole and the spreader arms. This will help them absorb sun or lantern light, and glow all night.

Result—no more bumped heads when getting up during the night.

Travis News

This past week the fourth grade of Austin has enjoyed the book Viking Adventure, by Clyde Robert Bulla. Ramona Ballew shared her new book with us.

The book tells the story of a Viking, Olaf the Strong and his son, Sigurd. The story correlates with our geography in the study of Norway, stated Miss Alma Bruce.

The newspaper story of November the 6th, about "Viking City Found in Newfoundland" was also interesting to the class. Carol Foxhall brought this newspaper article to school.

The 5th grade of Austin and the 4th grade at Travis are working on food units, learning the four basic food groups, the nutrients and what they do for the body, and foods containing each of the needed nutrients.

Mrs. Gurley's 4th graders are especially interested in knowing better what kind of foods to eat in order to stay healthy. Miss Walker's 5th grade stated that this unit is to culminate in a notebook of outlines and pictures.

At Austin Friday, Nov. 15, at 9:45 A. M. all pupils will be called to an assembly where Mrs. Gaileys' 5th grade chorus will sing a number of Stephen Foster songs. All parents are welcome and are encouraged to attend.

Mrs. Newton's 1st grade at Travis has two new pupils: Adan Salazar and Virginia Ann Spruill from Amarillo. We welcome them to our school.

The pupils would like to tell their parents that they are getting fifteen minutes of exercise each day with the exercise record. The children also asked their parents to be sure to attend P. T. A. the second Tuesday of each month.

General Business Class Takes Trip

By JIMMIE WARD

Fourteen members of the general business class visited the First State Bank Monday, Nov. 4. This tour concluded a study of banking and banking activities by the class.

As the members of the class were shown from one department to another, the employees explained how different activities of the bank were handled. Some of the highlights included microfilming of checks and deposit slips, book-keeping and taking a daily balance, the organization of the bank, safety deposit boxes, and the handling of long term and installment loans.

The most interesting part of the tour came when the members of the class were allowed to see the money in the vault and to hold a $1,000 bill.

Band News

The band gave a half-time show at the Lefors game to: Three Introductory Fanfares, No. 1, Entry of the Gladiators, Bells Across the Gridiron, Battle Cry for Freedom, New Colonial, and the Fight Song. The twirlers did a fire-baton routine to Bells Across the Gridiron. Battle Cry for Freedom was set to a geometric routine and Victory March was played while the band marched down the field in the floating "M" formation.

The band will have the traditional Mexican Dinner on Saturday, Nov. 16 at 5:30 P. M. at the Travis Cafeteria. The ten best marchers will be announced, and also the member with the best marching spirit. Special prizes will be given and various marching films will be shown. If possible the "Cyclone" contest film will also be shown. The photographer is ill and chances are the film will not be ready. The dinner will be prepared by Mrs. Alewine.

What can this modern gas range do that a comparable electric model can't? Plenty!

Even women who cook on electric admit they don't have the controllability gas gives you. When you turn the gas "on", it's "on" instantly... turn it "off" instantly. There's no heat to cause boil-overs and no pot-shedding necessary with gas. Another gas exclusive—smokeless broiling—the flame edge smoke so you can keep the broiler closed. This means a cooler, smoke-free kitchen—only with gas! How about a kissed flavor for steaks and burgers—a gas flame does it. But the big economy... natural gas is so inexpensive you can cook four meals for the price of one. See the beautiful new automatic ranges now on sale at Gas Appliance and Lone Star Gas!

Lefors Takes Squeaker from Cyclone 27-22

Pirates used their point conversion and the score was 8-6.

Memphis received the kickoff and moved to the Lefors 40 on a pass from Sturdevant to Crooks. But on a first down, a pass play was broken up when QB Sturdevant had the ball knocked out of his hand and a Lefors tackle intercepted the ball and returned it to the Memphis 20 before being brought down from behind.

Lefors had time for only two plays before the half ended, but these were enough to make a TD. After the half-time gun sounded, No. 21 Neal Cates carried over for the score. A place-kick was good by Don McCool and the score was 15-6 at halftime.

Second Half

The first part of the third quarter was taken up with a see-saw battle between the two ball clubs.

Lefors was given the first break in the second half when they recovered a Cyclone fumble on the Memphis 12 yard line in the closing seconds of the third quarter. For three plays the Cyclone defense held and Lefors faced a 4th down, 13 yards away from a first and 15 yards from the goal line. However, No. 23, Phil Woodring, a converted end who weighs 170 pounds, skirted left end and ran over several defenders in the bid for the TD. He went into the end zone standing up and the score was 21-6.

Memphis received the kickoff, moved for one first down; then punted to the Lefors 9. John Lemons did the punting honors for the local squad.

The Pirates returned the Memphis compliment of a few minutes previous, fumbling the ball and Memphis recovered on the 10. On three carries, Memphis backs moved the ball to the two yard line. On the fourth down, QB Sturdevant, on the option play, carried into the end zone behind FB Mike Crow for the TD. On the extra points try, Jack Stargel carried across the goal line for a two-point conversion and the score was

The Pirates fullback, Don McCool was the key figure in the Pirates last score. The Pirates took over the ball on their own 44. McCool carried the first time, 29 yards before being mobbed by the local team. Then on the second play of the drive, he bulled his way to the one yard line. On the third play of the series, he carried over, using his 180 pounds to good advantage.

With little over one minute left on the clock, Memphis took over on the Lefors 49 after an onside kickoff attempt.

Going wide, Toby Crooks circled left end to the 10 yard line. On the next play, the Pirates were penalized one-half the distance to the goal line for a personal foul. Jack Stargel scored from the five-yard line. Toby Crooks carried for the two-point conversion.

The game ended following the kickoff.

Laff Of The Week

"I see you dancing the twist with a tall, dark, handsome young man and marrying a short, fat chiropractor."

SPORTS AFIELD

By Ted Kesting

If I were asked, as I frequently am, what I consider to be America's most versatile gun dog, I would, without hesitation or qualification, name the English springer spaniel.

These are, I know, pretty strong words and subject to debate from a number of quarters.

The rise of the ring-necked pheasant to a status of major game bird in many areas has caused an upsurge of interest in the springer as a gun dog, and it is on this elusive gamester that the springer has really won his spurs. Only the best and most experienced pointers and setters can handle this wily game bird effectively, as it has a frustrating tendency to run away from a pointing dog. This maddening proclivity for running away from a point has corrupted many a well-mannered pointing dog, causing him to break his point and chase.

But the springer is a flushing dog, gaining his name from the fact that he "springs" his game, says Henry P. Davis, Sporting Dogs Editor of Sports Afield Magazine. Well-trained, he quarters his ground at reasonable gun range and causes his game to flush, providing the gunner is a fair shot.

While the springer is a real specialist on pheasants, he is also highly proficient on ruffed grouse and woodcock, particularly in thick, heavy cover where it is difficult to locate the wider-ranging pointing dogs. An exceptionally capable retriever, he is very useful in the duck or goose blind. Smaller than the retrieving breeds, he is, nevertheless, rugged and can perform wildfowl-retrieving chores without undue hardship.

He is not popular as a quail dog, for his necessarily restricted range is overshadowed by the more satisfactory sweeping casts of the pointing breeds. However, he is a mighty handy dog to have around when it comes to retrieving quail and will more than pay for his keep at heel as a nonslip retriever.

I haven't mentioned an outstanding quality of the springer: his disposition. He is an affectionate dog, happy to be with his family, and splendidly tolerant with boisterous children, he is seldom equalled, never excelled. And these are some of the reasons why I consider the English springer our top all-around gun dog.

Hall County TSTA Holds First Meeting At Turkey Tuesday

Approximately 80 school administrators, teachers and guests attended the first meeting of the Hall County, Texas State Teachers' Association held Tuesday evening at the Elementary Cafeteria in Turkey.

Banquet tables were attractively decorated for the occasion using a fall motif. Covers for the program booklets, focused on Trigonometry and mixed numbers, semi-circles, line segments, equilateral triangles, etc.

The invocation was given by Jack Hutton, minister of the Church of Christ.

The food was prepared by mothers of the Junior Class and served by Class members.

The menu included baked turkeys and dressing, giblet gravy, green beans, baked potatoes, fruit salad, pecan pie, hot rolls, and coffee or tea.

Loran Denton, superintendent of Turkey Schools, welcomed the members and guests after which the group joined in singing "Battle Hymn of the Republic," "Cindy" and "America."

Special music was then presented by Joe B. Meacham, pianist.

R. V. Wood of Estelline, president of the association, presided at the banquet.

New teachers were introduced by Supt. Jones for the Lakeview School; Supt. Cuppell for Estelline School. Supt. Denton also introduced members of the Turkey School Board and their wives and PTA officials.

Special guests were introduced by County Supt. Tops Gilreath.

Clinton Voyles, principal of the Memphis High School, introduced the guest speaker, Dr. Dan Procter, president of Star Engraving Company, Houston.

One of the outstanding educators of the state, Dr. Procter talked to the group on "Education is like a good, clean bath—you can't appreciate it unless you have had one."

Dr. Procter challenged the teachers to "know what is cooking" and to keep up with the issues of the day.

He said that school administrators and teachers are faced with many problems in this age and that education is more important today than ever.

In colonial times it took 15 people to feed 85. . . today 15 people can feed twice that many and more and still have food to dump into the ocean. Each year there are more and more white-collar workers and less need for the muscle man.

He pointed out that today too many people consider themselves an authority on education. Just because a person invents a submarine or makes a million dollars that doesn't make him an authority on education, he said.

He discussed some of the policies set forth in a book written by Roger Freeman in which he advocates larger classes among other things. . . in order to keep taxes down.

Dr. Procter pointed out that our children cannot be educated by these methods. Many of Mr. Freeman's policies do not give the full facts, such as there is not a shortage of teachers. This may well be if you base the number of teachers on the number of teacher's certificates issued students who graduate from college, Dr. Procter said. But of the 72 per cent who receive teacher's certificates only 22 per cent will actually enter the class room as teachers, he said. Many times students graduate with a teacher's certificate with no intentions of teaching simply because they consider it good insurance, he said.

Commenting on teaching machines, Dr. Procter asked if you had ever seen a teaching machine that could pat you on the back, give encouragement or stimulate creative thinking? "Did you ever see a machine you could love?" he asked.

"Heaven is reserved for teachers who love your children. If you don't believe that it takes a heap of loving ask the neighbor what he thinks about yours," he concluded.

Concluding the meeting, President Wood conducted a business session. Mrs. Bain presented Clinton Voyles, out-going president, with a past president pin from the association.

Tribute was paid to Barney Bevers who is to be honored for his outstanding ability as a tennis coach at the Sports Hall of Fame in Amarillo and to Mrs. Roy Guthrie, who has been selected as the Teacher of the Year from this county to enter the state contest. The association went on record as endorsing Mrs. Guthrie for this honor.

Reports on the state convention was given by chairman Wood and Tops Gilreath.

Announcement was made on a course in programmed instruction of teaching machines to be held in Memphis Feb. 26 and 27.

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

Hall County Soil Conservation District News

The Supervisors of the Hall County Soil Conservation District want to remind the cooperators of the District, that with fall harvest of crops well under way, it is time to plan on the construction of new terraces or repairing their old terraces. A good terrace system has many advantages, some of which are: increased yields, control of water erosion, conservation of moisture, and permanent guide lines for contour farming. In order for a terrace system to be efficient it must first be planned properly. All outside water has to be taken care of before installing a terrace system. Then terraces should be built to specifications. In this area the level ridge type terrace is the standard terrace. Terraces must be laid out with proper interval so that they can handle the normal rainfall. The soil and the slope of the land are two other important items to consider when planning a terrace system. It is almost impossible to hold or maintain terraces on land that is too steep or too sandy. Where land is too steep or sandy, it should be put back into permanent vegetation, such as native grass. As almost everyone knows, one broken terrace can ruin a whole system of terraces. When a terrace breaks, the next terrace below will have to handle more water than it is designed for, causing it to break. This usually starts a chain reaction that breaks the

Gona Rao Of India To Visit Next Week

Hall County Agent W.B. Hooser said this week that Mr. Gona Rao of India will visit here Monday Nov. 18 through Friday, Nov. 22, to observe the work of a county agent.

County Agent Hooser said that a tentative schedule has been worked out which includes the following:

Monday will be spent in the office going over records and discussing the paper work involved in the county agent's work.

Tuesday, Mr. Rao will be taken on a tour of four result demonstrations. Also, Tuesday, he will speak at the noon luncheon meeting of the Memphis Rotary Club and show film slides of his native country, India.

Wednesday, Mr. Rao will give a talk at Austin school in the morning, to the Memphis Lions Club at noon, and to the Travis school in the afternoon. Agent Hooser said the meetings at Travis and Austin schools are regular 4-H Club meetings.

On Thursday, the schedule calls for a visit to Jim Hutchins' Hereford herd, a visit to Jerrel Rapp's Angus herd, a visit to the Jack House Hog farm, and a talk to the Turkey 4-H club in the afternoon.

Friday's schedule is not complete but it will cover numerous aspects of the diversified agriculture in this area, Hooser said Wednesday.

Mr. Rao speaks good English, is married and has a B. Sc. from Madras Agriculture College. He lists his address as Rension Lines, Eluru Town, West Godavari Dist., Andhra Pradesh, India. His present position is Farm Management Specialist.

Mr. Gona Rao has attended an academic program at Texas A&M University and has visited with County Agents on the coast of Texas for the past several weeks.

The problem facing India is that it has a population of about 438 million and 80 per cent of which lives in rural villages under very poor conditions. India has an annual food deficit. If the information that is available from research and from the practices of better farmers is put into practice by the masses of farmers the food shortage can be overcome.

India is developing an expanding agricultural extension program implemented at the farm and village level through the Community Development Blocks by Village Level Workers.

Mr. Rao will train for six months in the United States. The objectives of this training are to help him to learn by observation, study and practice to more effectively implement a practical extension program in the field.

Al Dewlen's 'Twilight Of Honor' Showing At Tower

Coming to the local theater this weekend, Thursday, Friday and Saturday will be Al Dewlen's best selling novel, "Twilight of Honor," which has been filmed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

Richard Chamberlain, who has become the idol of millions of television viewers as Dr. Kildare, plays his first starring role in the movie.

Dewlen, who was reared in Memphis, now lives in Amarillo. He has written three best selling novels along with numerous television plays. Among the best known are "The Bone Pickers" and his latest novel, "Twilight of Honor," showing here this weekend.

In this tense and absorbing courtroom drama, Chamberlain's role is a far cry from that of his famous doctor portrayal. He plays David Mitchell, a small town attorney who is appointed to defend a man accused of wantonly murdering the community's leading citizen.

Together with Chamberlain, the Perilberg-Seaton production, filmed in Panavision, stars Nick Adams as Ben Brown, who faces the murder charge; Claude Rains as Art Harper, an elderly attorney to whom Mitchell turns for advice and encouragement; Joan Blackman as Susan, the latter's daughter; James Gregory as Norris Bixby, the prosecutor; and Pat Buttram as Cole Clinton, the murdered man. In the role Laura Mae Brown, teen-age wife of the accused, the talented new discovery, Joey Heatherton, makes her motion picture debut.

As the story opens with the arrest of the young hitch-hiker Ben Brown, who has been turned in by his wife and who has to be protected from a mob eager to lynch him, the tension and suspense gradually begin to mount. Then as Mitchell starts his questioning of the principals and accumulates his evidence, who begin to see into the characters of Brown, his two-faced, avaricious wife, the hypocritical Cole Clinton and a number of other persons involved, including Clinton's tragic widow.

As the trial proceeds and the various witnesses give their testimony, flashbacks unfold what happened when Clinton picked up Brown and his flirtatious wife in his Cadillac and contrived for all three to spend the night at a motel. It is here that his body was found. He had been bludgeoned to death and the large bankroll he carried disappeared along with the hitch-hiker he had picked up.

Before the murder trial comes to its conclusion and the jurors give their verdict the audience will have participated in a powerful experience and will have witnessed a drama that will linger long in their minds after they have left the theatre. And Richard Chamberlain's incisive portrayal of the young defense attorney, fighting his case against overwhelming odds, will win him an entirely new following of motion picture fans.

"Twilight of Honor" was directed by Boris Sagal from the screen play by Henry Denker. It is one of the fall movie season's outstanding and compelling new attractions.

TIPS FOR OUTDOORSMEN

by Vern Sanford

Feather For A Gun Barrel

Maybe your hunting friends will think you are nuts. And they may even laugh at you. But if you will tie a small feather to the end of your shotgun barrel you'll improve your marksmanship.

The feather will record the slightest wind action, which will help you to subconsciously adjust your lead accordingly.

Quick Reload

Carry a quick reload for that .22 repeating rifle (if the tube type) by using the hollow handle of a plastic fly swatter.

Simply fill the handle with .22's then when needed, pour the contents into the empty tube of your rifle.

Rabbit-Pointing Bird Dogs

Bird dogs frequently develop the annoying habit of pointing rabbits.

Don't try to break this habit harshly, or you may confuse the pup. Rather, just keep walking and ignore him, and he will soon catch on. Usually you can tell a rabbit point since the stance is much less tense than when the dog is pointing birds.

Squirrel-Hunting Trick

Squirrels are mighty bulky to carry in the pockets of a hunting coat.

Also they may overheat and spoil the meat if carried in the pocket too long.

Prevent this by taking along on your next hunt a couple of horse-blanket safety pins. When a squirrel is bagged, run a pin point through a leg tendon, snap the pin shut and attach to your belt.

By repeating the process, a number of squirrels can be carried.

ried this way on one pin. Should you expect to bag a large number of bushy-tails better carry along several pins.

Some hunters seek deer meat. Others hunt for trophy heads.

Sportsmen looking for record racks of antlers would do well to wait until the season is nearly over.

Big bucks usually court in colder weather. They move around more in daylight then and are bolder. So your chance of getting one is much greater.

Notched Crow Caller

It's a ring-tail nuisance to drop your caller every time you lift your gun to shoot.

Crow hunters will find it very convenient if they notch the top and the bottom of the caller mouthpiece. When it comes time to shoot you can clamp the caller between your teeth. Then you do not have to drop the caller when you use your gun.

Successful Deer Hunting

Most successful method of hunting deer is, of course, by running them with dogs.

But, as this is not allowed in Texas (except in a very few counties), the next best way is to take a stand on a known deer trail before daylight.

Stand there motionless (and not smoking) until sunlight hits the tree trunks. Then slowly and quietly creep the likely places such as bogs, thickets and along stream beds.

When late afternoon arrives pick another stand and resume your silent vigil until it is too dark to sight-in a target.

If you have no luck, try again next day.

About Your HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health.

"This world . . . is now, and ever shall be an ever-living Fire," said Heraclitus, an ancient Greek philosopher. His theory was refuted long ago, yet fire never ceases to demand man's respect. Fire, we know, can either serve or destroy man.

Everyone benefits from the heat of a flame. But paradoxically, 500 Texans unwittingly sacrifice their lives to fire each year. Seventy-seven per cent of these lives are lost in the sanctity of the home.

Last winter, while about ten million Texans warmed themselves by the fire, nearly 200 people died from fire mishaps. With this in mind, October 6 through 12 is designated National Fire Prevention Week. It's a good time to look for and eliminate the fire hazards in your home.

Fire can start anywhere, but it usually originates in rooms housing the most activity. The living room and kitchen are each credited with 27 per cent of home fire origins. Another 12 per cent originate in bedrooms; 14 per cent in closets and halls; 10 per cent

It is people who doze in chairs and drop cigarettes under cushions to smolder and kill hours later after the family is asleep.
