Cost of Living and Farm Prices

Commissioner of Texas Department of Agriculture John C. White this month pointed out that farm income continues to lag behind the rest of the nation's economy. And, on the other hand, in June we read where the cost of living has gone up one-half of one per cent, the biggest increase in two years.

But the big jump, as any housewife knows, was the six per cent increase in just one month, in the cost of meat, poultry and fish, coupled with a June increase of 3.7 per cent for fruits and vegetables and a 10 per cent jump in the cost of potatoes.

June consumer prices are up more than 10 per cent from their 1959 level. That inflation has lowered the purchasing power of a $10 bill down to $9. And this big price jump in food has been accomplished without the farmer getting in on much of it. The big increase comes in the processing, with labor costs eating up most of it.

The farmer has in effect been subsidizing the consumer with low-cost food for several years," said White. "Food takes only 19 per cent of the average take-home pay as compared with 23 per cent about 10 years ago."

White said the farmer has been able to increase his efficiency and produce more food at a cheaper price. But at the same time, the prices he receives have gone down, and the prices he must pay to produce his products have increased. This costprice squeeze has been continuing for over a decade.

'Farm prices in 1964 averaged 13 per cent less than the 1947-49 average," White said. In contrast, retail food prices in 1964 were 25 per cent above the 1947-49 average.

The retail prices of food have little to do with the price which farmers receive for their production, White added. Most of the increased food costs have been for "built-in services" such as prepared and partially cooked meals, special processing and other factors.

The rich, fat-cat farmer making thousands of dollars off subsidies is largely an American myth promoted by enemies of agriculture," said White.

'Only one farmer in nine equals the skilled worker's average wage of $2.46 per hour. The average 1964 per captia income of all farm people from all sources, including off the farm jobs, was $1,405, or about three-fifths of the per captia income of non-farm people.

White pointed out that the trend of the farmer to get less and less as he produces more and more must be reversed. Lower wages for an efficient producer is against the American system.

Postal officials tell me that it is not necessary for addressees to accept delivery of Communist propaganda, although this material is no longer being screened upon entry to the United States. Under Postal regulations, I am advised, an addressee may refuse to accept any piece of mail. He may mark any maned matter "Refused" and return it unopened. An addressee may request his postmoster to withhold from delivery for a period not to exceed two years any specifically described items of foreign printed matter. Unfortunately, the knowledge of these regulations is probably not widespread. Efforts are going to be made in this 89th Congress by me and by others to find an alternative means by which to check the flow of Communist propaganda brazenly being mailed to U.S. citizens. The matter is being discussed extensively in an attempt to find a solution achieving the objective of the 1962 Act.

Fire Damages Clent Srygley Building Tues.

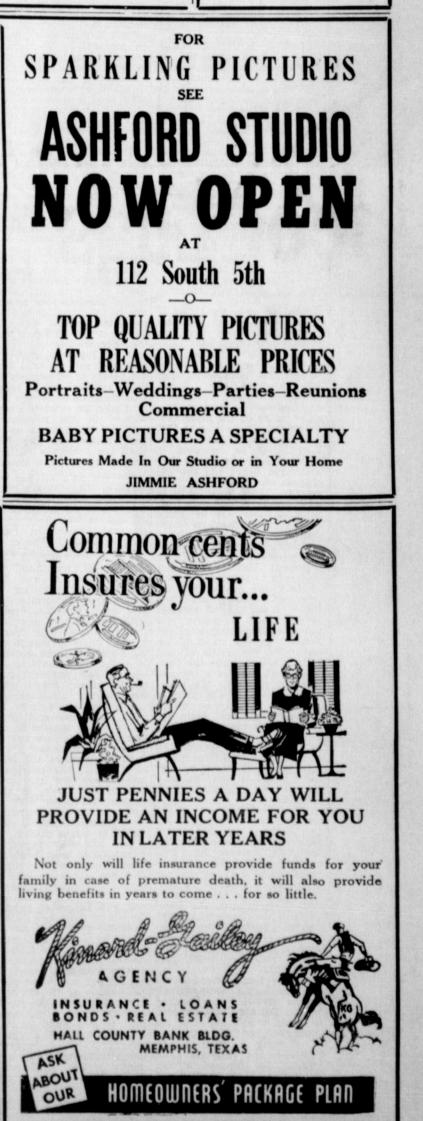

Fire broke out in the attic of the Vogue Beauty Shop at 10 a. m. Tuesday morning and the Memphis Volunteer Fire Dept. was called.

Due to quick action by the fireboys, owner of the building Clent Srygley said, damage was kept to a minimum.

In estimating damage to the building, Mr. Srygley said he guessed it was somewhere between $800 and $1,000. Srygley said as far as he knew the fire Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Coleman, started from wiring in the attic.

Summer is swiftly passing . . and in just a very short time now Hall County will be celebrating its 75th anniversary. It is hoped that many former residents will return to Memphis for the 75th anniversary celebration September 19th.

To have Memphis clean and neat for the celebration has been a project many residents have been working on all summer. But just a few cannot accomplish this aim . . . every landowner must be responsible for cleaning his own premises. Several have called to our attention that some weeds are badly in need of being cut . . some of these are not growing on vacant lots . . . some can even be seen from driving around the squara

We realize from trying to help keep our own 100-foot yardagehow weeds have a way of growing up overnight . . . or so it seems! But, let's all do join together and try to have as few weeds growing as possible in September of 1965!

One of the most common minor injuries to plaque youngsters are puncture wounds caused by rusty nails, glass, splinters and wide miscellany of sharp objects. Although we speak of these as "minor" injuries, they often pose very definite dangers in that they are difficult to clean thoroughly, often they do not bleed well, and the threat of tetanus cannot be taken lightly. It is not imprudent to seek professional treatment in cases of this nature, and most certainly, if fever, pus, or red streaks indicative of infection develop, a doctor should be consulted.

Let's talk now of prescription, the often seemingly unintelligible scrawls which are your ticket to welcome relief from any of a thousand ailments or disorders. Farmers Have Mixed Feelings On Rain-Hail

Two hail and rain storms last weekend did some damage and brought some good rains to certain areas around Memphis.

Saturday afternoon an umbrella looking cloud passed over Memphis bringing rain showers and some pea size hail stones.

Hail damage was reported to be heaviest on the R. S. (Mutt) Wansley and Paul Whitten farms in this area. The hail was concentrated in an area about two mile wide and five miles long, it was reported. Here in Memphis, the week's total rainfall, as measured by J. J. McMicken, official weather observer, was reported to be .30 of an inch, bringing the year's total to 11.45 inches.
