County's 75th Celebration Is Considered Successful

Field Day Tour Is Set For Next Mon.

A tour of several demonstrations is scheduled to leave the courthouse in Memphis at 9 a. m. Monday, Sept. 27, it was reported this week by County Agent W. B. Hooser.

The tour is set up through cooperation of the Hall County Agricultural Program Building Committee, the farmers, the Texas Agricultural Experiment Stations and the Extension Service.

The first visit on the tour will be a beef cattle result test demonstration at the J. J. McDaniel farm where midland bermuda grass was planted. Supplemental feeding, insect control and management were combined.

On the Paul Smith farm, the tour will visit a cotton nematode control demonstration. The following farmers used Fumizone 70 E to control nematodes under the direction of Dr. Robert W. Berry, area extension plant pathologist: Paul Smith 70A, James Skinner 25A, Weldon Gable 20A, Brown Smith 32A, Dunbar Posey 25A, R. S. Wansley 95A, R. D. Revell 25A, Clyde Reed 10A, Foy Young 24A, and Troy Phillips 140A.

The beef cattle result demonstration on the McDaniel farm will be under the direction of Dr. Dixon Hubbard, area extension animal husbandryman.

On the Troy Phillips farm, the tour will visit a nematode control demonstration where nematode resistant cotton varieties were planted and fumizone was used.

Also, a cotton variety test demonstration will be visited on the Wayne Hutcherson farm. The last scheduled stop will be at a cotton fertilizer test on the Roy Gresham farm.

Outstanding agricultural representatives from experiment stations, the Extension Service, and others will be present on the tour to explain the demonstrations.

All farmers are urged to attend the Field Day Tour, Hooser said. Transportation, lunch and cold drinks will be furnished.

Convention Here Thursday To Draw 100 Peace Officers

Over 100 members of the Panhandle Police Communications Association will gather in Memphis for the fall meeting on Thursday, Sept. 30. Their host will be the Hall County sheriff, Elmer Neel.

Sheriff Neel said the program will get underway at 9 a. m. with registration. Claude Whilite, the president of the association, and the board of directors have lined up a very interesting program.

Expected to attend are law enforcement officers from Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas and New Mexico.

A noon luncheon will be served to those attending the meeting, and will be served by Mrs. Barber and the other women who serve the Memphis civic clubs.

The spring convention was scheduled for Memphis but had to be postponed due to the funeral services of a highway patrolman, at which many of the peace officers attended.

"Our association has two meetings each year, for the purpose of coordinating plans to solve problems in our communications systems," Sheriff Neel said.

Despite several rain storms and adverse weather conditions, the 75th Anniversary Celebration of Hall County was proclaimed a success at its conclusion Sunday afternoon.

The two-day celebration was hampered by wet weather but it still was the best in the series of celebrations to be held by the Hall County Picnic Assn.

One of the final topics of business handled by those attending was the election of officers for next year's celebration. Memphis Mayor H. J. Howell was named president of the association. V. C. (Zipp) Durrett was elected first vice-president and County Judge E. (Gip) McMurtry was named second vice-president.

Saturday morning dawned with rains falling and heavy clouds in the sky. Due to this, the planned fly-in breakfast, to acquaint area pilots with the newly paved facilities of the Memphis Municipal Airport, had to be called off.

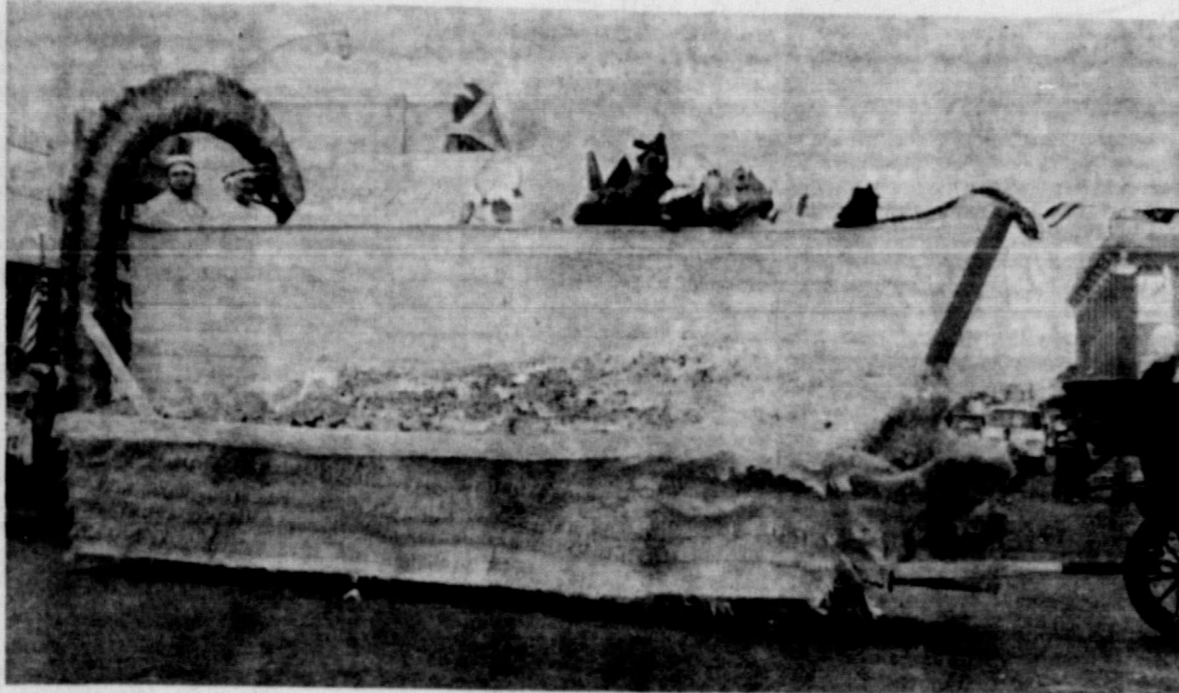

The weather cooperated Saturday afternoon, however, and one of the biggest and best parades ever to be assembled in Memphis, marched down Main Street, circled the square and marched out Noel Street.

The parade was 30 minutes long and the over 3,000 spectators which lined the parade route had an enjoyable time.

The top five float selections were announced shortly after the parade and the five trophies were awarded to the following: first place, Travis Baptist Church; second place, First State Bank; third place, Lakeview Lions Club; fourth place, First Christian Church; and fifth place, First Baptist Church.

The parade had many interesting floats, most of which carried a western theme, like chuck wagons, buckboard, etc. Several old cars and other vehicles were in the parade along with late model vehicles and farm equipment.

The Memphis Cyclone Band and the Hall County Singers provided music for the parade. Other (Continued on Page Ten)

Cyclone-Eagles To Tangle At S-F Fri.

The Memphis Cyclone will travel to Sanford-Fritch Friday night to seek their first victory over the Eagles in the history of the two schools. Last year's game ended 36 to 24 and was the closest the local lads have come to a win.

The Eagles are under new coaches this season and so far have not been too impressive in other outings. They defeated Canadian 8-6 in their only victory of the season and have lost to White Deer 47-0 and to Panhandle, 22-0.

But Coach Charley Chambliss is not too concerned with what the Eagles have done in the past but what they are capable of doing. "They have the size, speed and talent to be a fine ball club and as soon as they begin to click under their new coaching they will be tough," he said.

The coach pointed out that the Sanford-Fritch lads are about as fast a bunch as we will play, they have the local lads out weighed about 15 lbs. per man, and they are tough football players.

The Eagles run from the Oklahoma split-T formation. Their starting backfield includes No. 10 QB Joe Kime, No. 20, FB John Harbison, No. 21 RH Larry Sum-

Picnic Dishes May Be Picked Up At Potts-Tucker

Several dishes were left at picnic grounds Sunday, Tomie Potts, chairman, announced this week.

The dishes are now at Potts-Tucker office, located at 120 North 5th Street. Owners are urged to come by the office and pick up the dishes.

Brands displayed in the West Texas Utilities window during the celebration have also been taken to Potts-Tucker office and owners may pick them up there, it was stated.

Potts Issues Statement Concerning Celebration

Tomie M. Potts, chairman of the Hall County Diamond Jubilee Celebration, issued a statement for publication this week concerning the event.

He said of his article, "this is what the shoe-maker threw at his wife, the last."

"As we hand the reins over to our successor, the very capable Mayor H. J. Howell, we urge each and every Hall Countian to give him the same splendid cooperation that you have given me . . . united we do . . . divided we don't."

"I am deeply grateful to the entire citizenship of Hall County and especially to each and every one who contributed to its success in any way—bees, money, and time, service or talent. The cooperation of all committees was superb."

"Even though the rain hindered the attendance at the Picnic and Barbecue, the attendance was gratifying. The rain was beneficial for which we are grateful."

mers, and No. 25 LH Ronnie Adkins.

Coach Chambliss indicated there would probably be no change in the starting lineup against the Eagles, unless an injury occurs in a workout this week.

Which team will be given the favorite not by area sports writers has not been indicated as yet, however, on the strength of the records, it will probably come to the Cyclone.

Turkey To Host
Hart Friday

The Turkey Turks surprised everyone Friday night by defeating the Silverton Owls in a grudge battle at Vardy Field, 8-0.

The Turks play host to Hart Friday night in their second home game of the season. Considering Silverton defeated Hart 44-12 recently, the Turks will be definite favorites to win the game.

The victory over Silverton must be considered an upset, but it has helped the Turks' rating considerably. The Turks have been given the ninth spot among Class B football teams in the Panhandle.

Jerry Lane was the star of the game as he ran 50 yards for the only score of the night. Charles Hamner followed up with a run for the extra two points.

Coach Joe Bob Barnhill's lads played good defense to keep the Owls from scoring.

Fans are encouraged to be at the opening kickoff at 8 p. m. between Turkey and Hart at Vardy Field.

Jack Boone To Open Law Office Here Sept. 29

Jack B. Boone announced this week that he will open his office for the general practice of law at 609 Noel Street on Wednesday, Sept. 29.

The office is located next door to Blevins Barber Shop in the Masonic Building.

Attorney Boone completed his law school education at the University of Texas and he and his wife, Bebe, and daughter Kathy, moved to Memphis September 13 and are residing at 720 South 8th Street. While at the University, Mr. Boone was a member of Phi Alpha Delta Legal Fraternity.

He is a 1955 graduate of Memphis High School where he participated in all sports and attended Boys State in 1954. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack L. Boone of Memphis.

Prior to entering law school he served three years in the U. S. Marine Corps and is presently active in the organized Marine Corps Reserve holding the rank of Captain.

The Boone family will be members of the First Baptist Church.

Estelline Bears Go To Oklaunion Tomorrow Night

The Estelline Bears will travel to Oklaunion Friday night for their third game of the season. Then, next Thursday, Sept. 30, the Bears will play Childress B team at Childress. Both games will begin at 8 p. m.

The Bears lost last Friday night to Cotton Center, 32-14. The Estelline boys led the first half of play, 8-6, but could not keep the Cotton Center squad out of their end zone the second half.

Scoring for Estelline was Melvin Long on a two-yard carry for the touchdown with Jodie Rapp going for the two-point conversion. Bob Wood made the final score.

Grazing Privileges For County Extended

Congressman Walter Rogers announced today, in a telephone call to The Democrat, that he had been informed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture that the department is offering grazing and haying privileges on Soil Bank land and Diverted crop land in Hall and Collingsworth Counties through Oct. 31, 1965.

The congressman was advised by USDA that the state and county disaster committee said the foliage conditions in the two counties have continued to deteriorate.

Continued hot, dry weather has exhausted most of the remaining foliage, he was told.

Farmers and ranchers wishing to participate in grazing or haying privileges should contact their County ASCS offices, Congressman Rogers announced.

Grazing of land under the wheat and feed grain program is not prohibited after Oct. 31 each year but it is on soil bank land. To graze soil bank land after that date, continued permission will have to be granted by the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture.

ASC Convention

Joe Montgomery was elected a member of the County ASC Committee and holds a one-year term.

At every point, the 75th Anniversary Celebration—the Hall County Diamond Jubilee—was a success. Every worker did his or her part and should be given credit. No one shirked regardless of how hard the task. For weeks, and hours they brought forth ideas and night something of the glory of the Golden Jubilee of the perfect county in the Golden State.

Our Celebration Is Successful!

The 75th Anniversary Celebration of Hall County was successful, despite the rains which came and went during the two days and we must admit, citizens of Hall County and the visitors who came, were real troopers in their conduct and the events went off without a hitch.

We want to say here and now that the celebration does not end here . . . this is just another block in the wall, another stone in the street, so to speak. Mayor H. J. Howell has been named picnic association president for the 1966 celebration and V. C. (Zipp) Durrett of Lakeview first vice-president and County Judge E. (Gip) McMurry second vice-president.

But rightly so, the 75th celebration has been our best effort in recent years. The entire two-day celebration was conducted with dignity, graciousness, and above all with an orderly procedure which showed the detailed planning and execution of hard working committees.

Our citizens are to be commended for their efforts. The rains Saturday morning prevented the fly-in breakfast sponsored by the Memphis Chamber of Commerce which was unfortunate.

Then the skies cleared Saturday afternoon and the 3,000 spectators in Memphis witnessed a really beautiful parade. Pete Shankle and the members of the Memphis Lions Club are to be commended for their work on the parade. The affair was over 30 minutes long and a lot of work and planning went into it.

We feel that the parade was one of the best ever put on in Memphis and all the businesses, organizations, churches, towns and individuals are to be commended for their efforts.

A special vote of thanks should be issued to Mr. Tommie M. Potts who accepted the challenge of chairman of the celebration and for the many months of work he personally put into it. He also in turn humbly thanked the many committees for their work.

The rain fell on Sunday afternoon during the serving of the meal and during the program which followed but the 3,000 plus visitors and residents did not complain. Seldom in Hall County does one hear an unkind word about rain for our citizens live too close to the soil to complain about rainfall.

Another type of congratulations was issued this week from the Hall County Sheriff's office and the City Police Department. In effect, the officials wanted to thank those who cleared the square Saturday for the parade and to those who parked on the square Sunday and rode the bus to the park. Also, they reported that not one person was picked up during the two-day celebration for anything more serious than driving violations. For a celebration of this kind, this is remarkable, they reported.

All in all, the celebration was the best and our citizens can be proud of the impression left on the visitors. One visitor made a statement well worth quoting: "You people here just don't realize what a wonderful celebration you have. I've been to several of them and everything is just perfect." He went on to say that he was sure there was some confusion somewhere, there just had to be considering the size of the crowds and the handling of the vehicles and the getting the food ready, but he said he had never seen any celebration run so smoothly with everyone doing their job at just the right time.

The Hall County Picnic Assn. celebration each year has been growing. It was said one time that each town or area needs some big project each year to keep its citizens busy. Dalhart has its XIT celebration, Clarendon its July 4th celebration, Hedley its cotton festival, so the picnic is our way of celebrating our heritage.

Buy From Your Local Merchant

Different sections of the State of Texas have similar problems, and, like the towns in Hall County, there is a need to remind the rank and file of a basic fact of life. This was seen in the Hondo (Texas) Anvil Herald editorial published last year. The weekly newspaper is located near San Antonio. It is reproduced below. See how well it fits our problem:

There is an old saying—"Let one hand wash the other"—and the truth of this homely adage is constantly borne out in our everyday life. Purchasing from transients allows the buyers no recourse when the seller is gone to another address which is as fitting and unstable as the miles which add up on his truck.

Business concerns (and you can substitute Hall for Medina County) offer all kinds of merchandise and service . . . and they're still at their business when something goes wrong and the purchaser feels an adjustment should be made or service given.

In addition, these local businessmen and women, who live in your community, contribute to the community's charities and other activities, pay taxes to support the schools, maintain the roads and assist financially in the operation of local government functions.

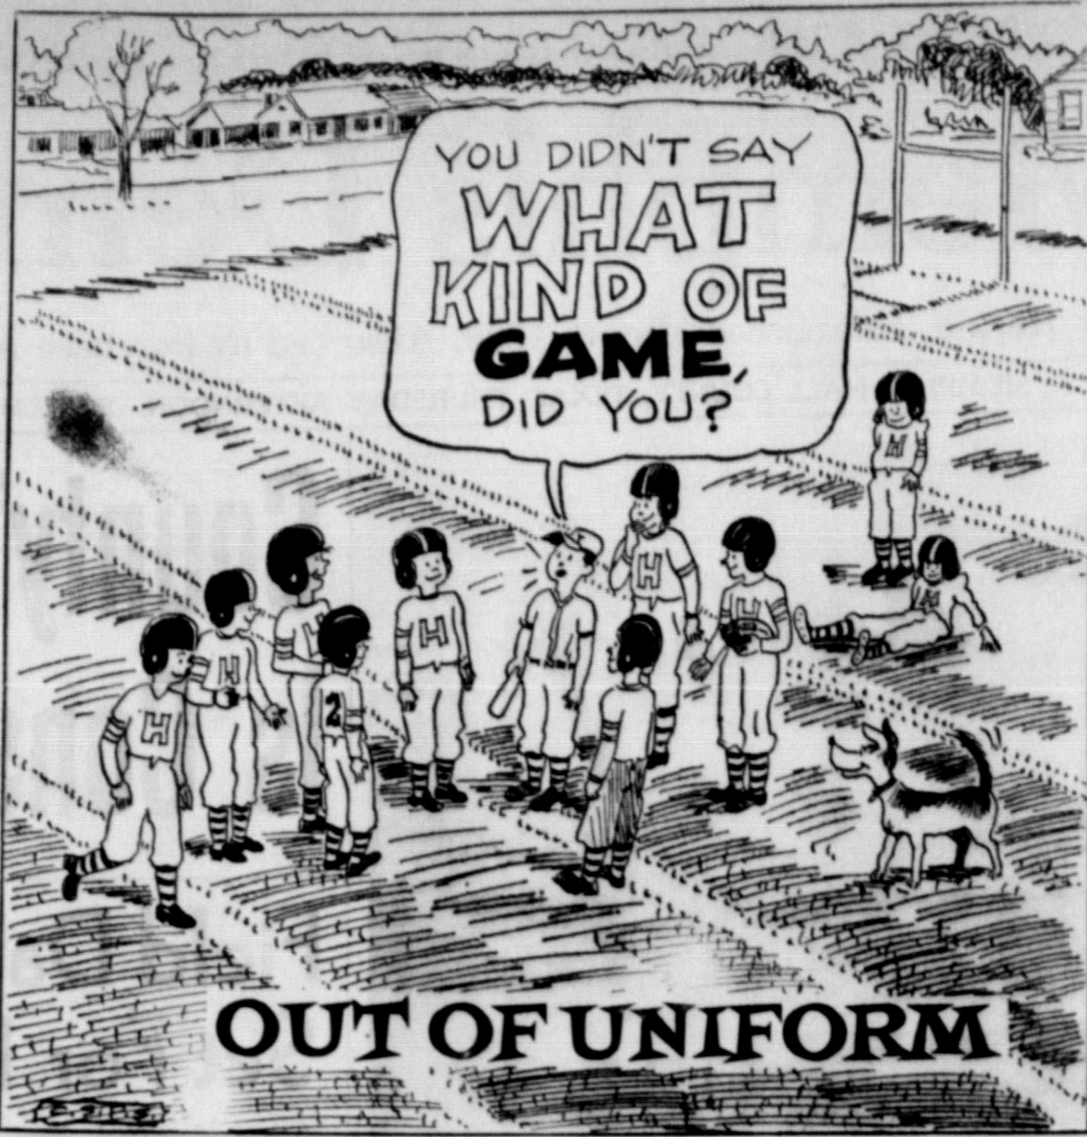

These businessmen and women know their customers, their needs and desires. They must satisfy their customers if they desire to remain in business and prosper and they make all efforts to meet this challenge—not evade it. The reputation of your local retailer stands behind every sale—he is ready to service your purchases, where you both live.

So, think when you buy—if you buy at home you will not have to continually keep in mind this motto: "Let the Buyer Beware."

Comments On Our Times

The following story has no local connection at all, and in case you're trying to read some particular significance into it, or identify some particular characters with it, we'll have to admit at the start that we picked it up from another newspaper published in a town a long way from here . . . and further, that we have the slightest idea whether it ever actually happened or not. But we hope, somehow, that maybe it really did.

The story concerns two cantankerous old gentlemen who got along "like cats and dogs" in the same small community. Never to anyone's knowledge did a kind word pass between them. They were considered life-long enemies. Then one of them died. Many hours before the mourners began arriving at the church for the funeral, the surviving old man carefully placed a small spray of delicate flowers on the casket and left the church. Later, during the funeral service, he was discovered sitting quietly and prayerfully in the back pew.

The minister, pleased but as puzzled as the rest of the town-folk by all this, sought out the old timer after the service to inquire what might have brought about his change of heart toward the deceased. "No change of heart," said the crusty oldster. "Still fell the same about him as I always did."

"I can't quite accept that," said the minister. "You openly showed your dislike for him when he was alive, but to everyone's surprise, you became very respectful of him when he was dead. How come . . . ?"

"Well, now, Reverend," the old fellow responded, "I must say I'm just a mite surprised that you, of all people, would ask such a question. How I feel about another man's politics or his character has got nothin' to do with how I feel about his soul."

"Oh yes, of course," said the minister, recovering quickly from his embarrassment. "Quite as it should be. But even so, what about those flowers you put on his casket when you thought no one was around to see you?"

"Knew all along," the old fellow answered, "that somebody would spot me with the flowers. They weren't for the old coot himself, mind you, but for the only good thing about him . . . his soul."

"I personally appreciate your thoughtfulness, said the minister, "because the beautiful flowers contributed so much to the service and helped the family, but," he asked, "how could you do something nice like that when you couldn't find a single kind word to say about the man while he lived?"

"Still can't," said the old timer. "That's why I bring the flowers."

In these times when much of the daily press has abdicated its editorial responsibility in favor of syndicated columnists . . . whose punditry is both predictable and ponderous . . . some of the sharpest satirical commentary on the passing scene is found in, of all places, the comic strips. And one of the cleverest is Gur Arriola, whose "Gordo" is also an artistic delight. Arriola sketched one of the shortest and sharpest editorial comments on modern politics you're likely to find a few days

Rebekah Lodge To Serve Monthly Supper Monday

The Rebekah Lodge will serve the monthly buffet supper at the lodge hall Monday evening, Sept. 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith and son of Borger visited here over the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Frank Smith, Sr.

J. C. Penney Observes 90th Birthday Thurs.

The local J. C. Penney Store joined with 1,700 Penney department stores throughout the country last Thursday, Sept. 18, in the observance of James Cash Penney's 90th birthday anniversary.

J. C. Penney personnel in Memphis stopped their duties at 2 p. m. to light a candle on a traditional birthday cake in observance of Mr. Penney's birthday. Birthday cake and coffee were served. Wray Studstill, manager of the local store, said the lighting of the candle on the cake here coincided with a similar ceremony taking place at the Company's Central office in New York City.

As Mr. Penney reached the three-generation mark, his major interest continues to be in the Company he founded back in April, 1902, when he opened his first store in the frontier mining town of Kemmerer, Wyo.

Mr. Penney's conviction that the Golden Rule is just as applicable in business as it is in one's personal life continues to be a guiding principle behind the operation of the Penney stores, Mr. Studstill said.

While Mr. Penney has not been involved for many years in direct management of the firm bearing his name, he continues to serve on the board of directors. And he exerts an inspirational influence on associates that cannot be measured, according to manager Studstill.

Visitors in the building are frequently amazed to find themselves in the company of the spry and alert founder. That J. C. Penney is an individual as well as a company surprises many people.

As the Company founder has grown older, his interest in the young and opportunities for them has grown more intense. Says Mr. Penney:

"The chances for success are so much better today than they were when I was starting out. For a young man or woman with a college education and the right attitude, there is no telling how far he or she can go."

From his native Hamilton, Mo., where he was born Sept. 16, 1875, Mr. Penney went west for his health on the advice of a physician. An unsuccessful venture he had in Denver in running a butcher shop convinced him he was meant to be a "dry goods man."

And he went on to become one of the greatest merchants this country has produced.

He was employed by two men who had set up a partnership chain of Golden Rule stores in towns in Colorado as well as Wyoming. Mr. Penney eventually became a partner and was given responsibility of opening a store in Kemmerer. Opening of the store, on April 14, 1902, marked the start of what officially became J. C. Penney Company, Inc., in 1913 when the organization was incorporated in Salt Lake City.

That tiny store in Kemmerer formed the basis for what today has grown to be the most numerous chain of department stores in the U. S., with approximately 1,700 units dotting Main Streets as well as shopping centers. The Company's annual sales exceeded $2 billion for the first time during the fiscal year ended Jan. 31, 1965.

And what of the future, for this is the direction in which Mr. Penney looks. He says that he's "feeling fine" and is looking forward to his 100th birthday.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY—Employees of the local J. C. Penney Store paused from their work Thursday at 2 p. m. to join other Penney employees throughout the country in the observance of the 90th birthday anniversary of J. C. Penney. Birthday cake and coffee were served. Shown above, left to right, are Mrs. J. P. Godfrey, Mrs. Moselle Wright, Mrs. Edna Crowder, Mrs. Robert Breedlove, Mrs. J. W. Ivy and manager Wray Studstill.

Cyclone Tops Good Bulldog Team 18-6

The Memphis Cyclone scored on a break away run to beat the Hooker Bulldogs of the Alabama Panhandle, 18-6, in a game at Cyclone Stadium Friday night, extending its season record to two wins and one loss. Attendance at the game was good considering the rainy weather.

"We had three boys on the field playing football," Coach Chas. Chambliss, coach of the Cyclone, said. "Tackle Larry Gaston, halfback Gilbert Devorce and Mike Pounds did fine work." Gaston, a 145-lb. tackle, showed the type of courage any player would like to see in any line despite his light weight.

Memphis fans learned to respect the single wing attack of the Bulldogs early in the game as they drove down the field to the 14-yard line before giving the ball up on a fumble in the first quarter.

Then, on the first play from scrimmage, Memphis ran on up the middle to the 10-yard line, where HB Gilbert Devorce, who carried or passed the ball for most of the yardage.

As was to be expected, it was Martens who carried over for the score from the three-yard line. He attempted a pass for a two-point conversion but the ball was intercepted by Jerry Moss of Memphis. This made the score 6-6 early in the fourth quarter of play.

The Cyclone, however, was not satisfied with the turn of events. On the kickoff, Clyde Wilson returned the ball to the Memphis 45 yard line. Then on the next play from scrimmage, HB Devorce carried on a halfback dive up the middle and cracked through the right side of the Hooker defense and plowed his way clear to race 35 yards for another TD.

Mike Nabers tried to carry on a two-point conversion but he was stopped shy of the goal line.

Hooker took over after the kickoff and marched down the field. The Bulldogs trying desperately to get ahead on the scoreboard mixed up passing and running plays and piled up many first downs as they marched down the field to the Memphis 10-yard line. From this point, however, the Cyclone defense, which staved off a threat in the first half, got its signals straight and held the Bulldogs for four downs.

The Cyclone took over and was held for three downs and punted on the fourth. A lucky break for the Cyclone occurred when the Hooker lad who fielded the punt began returning it for he was hit hard and fumbled the ball into the end and Clyde Wilson intercepted the fumble and returned to the Hooker 39-yard line before being downed.

On the next play, Fullback Mike Pounds broke free and cut to the right side of the field and outran the Hooker secondary to their own one-foot line.

TD. He also tried the two-point conversion but was stopped shy of the goal line.

The game ended shortly thereafter.

Memphis fans saw one of the best exhibitions of broken field running they have seen this season. The 160-lb. halfback Gilbert Devorce carried the ball 17 times and made 193 yards for a per carry average of 11.4. "Gilbert had a fine night," Chas Chambliss said. The coach said his TD runs were not set up by any exceptional blocking effort but he just ran hard and evaded the tacklers. "He was hit three times on one carry and four times on the other but was able to keep his balance and momentum and once he was clear there was no catching him," the coach said.

Mike Pounds, the 155-lb. fullback, carried eight times for 53 yards for a 6.6 yard average. He scored on a fine carry covering 39 yards.

William McFall carried five times for 22 yards for a 4.4 average and Mike Linder carried three times for 24 yards for an 8-yard per carry average. Both boys are wingbacks.

Fullback Fred Durham carried twice for 7 yards while the quarterbacks, Mike Nabers and Tony Pounds, carried a total of four times making one yard.

If you wonder why doctors are chest thumpers, the reason is that this is a sure method to determine if there is fluid in the patients chest cavity.

The percussion method of chest examination was discovered by Leopold Auenbrugger of Austria, who recalled that his father, a wine maker, used to tap cases of wine to determine the fluid level. Auenbrugger tried the same tapping procedure on patients and a new step in medicine was taken.

Forgetting Auenbrugger's chest tapping we might remind you that foot-tapping of impatient customers is a rarity at our pharmacy. Friendly, courteous service is our main stock in trade. Report From Washington

By WALTER ROGERS
Representative, 18th
Congressional District

THE INFORMATION GAP

More than a day after the passage of the farm bill, the version of the bill found in Washington is a summary comparing the House and Senate measures. The delay was that the bill is a very complex piece of legislation and even among the there are sometimes differences of opinion as to the meaning of certain provisions. The summaries of the bill though prepared, persons familiar with farm legislation have difficulty understanding them. The words are English but the meaning is Greek. I am a farmer in the handle who wrote to me earlier this year to say that regulations of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) were so difficult to understand he thought he might get lost in the maze. It is difficult to pose a practical answer to the problem. It is essential that the Government make itself understood. People certainly have a right to understand as well as to be told regulations, whether enacted by law or imposed administratively, under which they must live. Summary of regulation written in intelligible language does serve the public.

plain the present program, and I am convinced that a much better job could be done to explain it. The new program will cover a four-year period. American farmers can't be expected to make the proper personal decisions open to them unless they can understand the program's alternatives.

Too often in the Federal government there is a tendency for "experts" to decline to share their specific knowledge with others. Each agency and department has on its staff men who specialize in very limited areas of that office's jurisdiction, and they become steeped in the most detailed and obscure precedents and ruling affecting their specialties. Specialists of this type on the legal staffs of regulatory agencies pose a most difficult challenge for lawyers in private practice representing clients on the other side of a question. The agency specialists have become experts at taxpayers' expense; the private attorneys, who must represent clients in a broader spectrum of matters, are at a disadvantage. This same problem exists in other branches of a Federal department. Bureaucrats talk a specialized language beyond the ken of the layman. They tend to become impatient with persons not so well versed as they.

The "information gap," as you might term it, is a serious problem when Americans must deal with highly complex law and regulations. The people can't be expected to feel that the government is truly theirs when all they know of it is the need to meet certain government-imposed obligations they do not clearly understand. The tax laws are an example of the kind of regulatory jungle that needs to be clarified in the statutes and better explained to the public. The Internal Revenue Service has made progress. Much more helpful publications are now available to taxpayers seeking assistance in making out their returns. In the matter of taxation, it is obviously unfair for the government not to make every effort to explain the law clearly. A taxpayer who does not claim the deductions for which he is eligible is overpaying his share of taxes.

FLOAT ENTRY—Pictured above is one of the winners in the float contest in the parade Saturday. The float pictured in the fourth place winning First Christian Church. The top five entries in the contest were awarded nice looking trophies with engraved name plates attached. The parade attracted approximately 3,000 persons and was 30-minutes long as it passed the reviewing stand. Under the sponsorship of the Memphis Lions Club with Pete Shankle the parade marshal, the parade included colorful historic floats, horses, old and new vehicles of all kinds, and many marchers including the Boy and Girl Scouts, the Memphis Cyclone Band and a drill team from Amarillo Air Force Base.

I will continue my campaign to bring clearly to government publications explaining the details of government programs. Too many government information specialists are engaged in promoting the public relations of their departments and too few are doing the hard work of translating complex regulations into simple English.

E. Leon Thurman, FHA county supervisor, working with the county agent and SCS, has planned a farm tour in the Brice and Lakeview communities. The group will meet at the FHA office in Memphis at 1:30 p. m. Sept. 30, or at West Gas Building in Brice at 1:45 p. m.

The following stops have been planned:
John C. Johnson, stop 1. Fertilizer and herbicide tests made on irrigated cotton.

Thomas H. Gattis, stop 2. Double rowed cotton with herbicides used for weed control.

Mike Montgomery, stop 3. Improvements made on farstead. Weed control with herbicides.

Gurvis D. Kennard, stop 4. Beef cattle and improved pastures.

Wendell H. Mitchell, stop 5. Senior citizen housing loan.

Johnnie P. Fowler, stop 6. Rural housing loan.

The last stop will be at Johnnie Fowler's at approximately 4:30 p. m.

"You are invited to attend this tour and see how FHA loans are used in these communities," Thurman said.

marchers included the Boy and Girl Scouts and a Drill Team from Amarillo Air Force Base. The Drill Team put on two demonstrations after the parade; and the singers stayed around for two singing sessions.

Following the parade, the west side of the square was the scene for the Beard Judging Contest and approximately 25 men who had entered the contest climbed on the platform and were judged by a panel of women judges.

The first contest judged was the mustache contest and Bill Combs was given first place and Si Rice second place out of a field of three entries.

The chin whisker contest was judged next and R. D. Reddell was named winner and Jerry Byars was given second place.

Next came the partial beards contest and the field had to be judged in two parts because of the large number of entries. After some meditation, the judges awarded Peeewe Simmons first place and G. D. Hall second place.

Then came the full beard judging contest. The judges awarded Sam Goodnight first place and Dick Morgan, second place.

The climax of the contest was the naming of the best looking beard and the worst looking beard. The judges announced that Joe Motherhead had the best looking beard and A. F. Caves had the ugliest looking beard.

Nice prizes were awarded to the winner in the contest.

Saturday night, approximately 1,000 persons went to the City Park to see the "Sagebrush Saga" and the spectators and the cast of actors and actresses all had a good and funny time.

After the show was over Saturday night, it began to rain in Memphis and this rain continued off and on until late Sunday afternoon.

Because of the rain, many did not go to the picnic in the City Park Sunday afternoon, but there were still approximately 3,000 persons who went anyway and had a fine time of it. It was reported that all the food was eaten. Over 2,100 persons registered.

One of the most touching events of the whole celebration was the crowning of Mrs. Lena Memphis Martin. President Potts and Miss Hall County Tanga Neal did the honors and Mrs. Martin was a gracious queen.

Edwin Reeves, 88, of Vinson, Okla., was given the award for the oldest person present and Mrs. Jess Ballew (Hazel White) was awarded for the person traveling the furthest distance. She lives on Stanton Island, N. Y.

begin to blow . . . the falling of snow—which makes us want spring to come quickly.

So is life. It has been spent . . . In looking back we can see how we missed the wonderful springs and summers that have been ours to enjoy—the beautiful flowers were not noticed because we were looking for something else.

Morning dew, glistening like diamonds—making things unreal. It made me think of going into the woods to get calves back to their mothers—as happened in our life long ago . . . every step made in the dewy weeds and grass . . . it is seldom done in today's advances. This dew could be seen from my window at the hospital. There were roses just outside—being plucked by Ruth Harrison for a bouquet which was placed in her office.

Cub Scouts To Meet Tuesday

All boys interested in becoming Cub Scouts between the ages of 8-11 are asked to attend the monthly meeting of Cub Scout Pack 35 at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, Sept. 28, in the Travis School Cafeteria.

L. B. Snider, cubmaster, also encouraged all cubs, their parents and all den mothers to be at this meeting to re-organize the Pack for this year.

We are especially interested to acquiring new boys to join the Pack, he said, and any who feels they would like to join should bring their parents to Tuesday's meeting.

Abundant Rain, Some Hail Is Weather Picture

The hot and dry weather of the summer was broken last weekend when a cool front moved over the Texas Panhandle, and abundant amounts of rain fell.

Accompanying the rain in some areas was damaging hail storms. Here in Memphis, J. J. McMick-in reported a week's total rainfall of 3.99 inches. Light hail stones fell in Memphis late Monday afternoon.

The Turkey area received some damaging hail in the Wolf Flat community Monday. Some fields were hit by heavier hail than others. Most of the area has received about four inches of rain since last Friday, it was reported.

Hail was also reported around the Pleasant Valley area and also near the Harrell Chappel area.

The rains seemed to be general over the entire county with most areas reporting amounts from two and a half to five inches.

Since the rain fell at different times over several days, washing and runoff was not nearly the problem as caused by one big heavy rain.

Cotton farmers reported that the fields were hurt by the dry hot weather of August and early September, and the rains were too late for some fields. Other fields are improving since the moisture arrived.

after the game the local lads played good defense and offense in winning the game.

Tonight at 7 p. m. the Memphis B team will travel to Wellington for a game there. It promises to be a good one.

The Memphis Junior High Whirlwinds exploded to a 30-0 victory over McLean Jr. High at McLean last Thursday night in their season opener.

Coach Bert Glascock said the team's defense was almost perfect as it allowed McLean no first downs during the game and left them with minus yardage rushing.

Scoring for the Whirlwinds were Ronny McFall, two touchdowns, Jeff Phillips one touchdown and Ronald Bradshaw one touchdown. Bradshaw carried the ball on three successful two-point conversions to round out the scoring for Memphis.

Coach Glascock said the boys played a good ball game for a season opener. The team travels to Skellytown tonight.
