Operation No-Mud' Provides Better Parking Area At School

Several weeks ago began Acting Mayor Jim Beeson. "I'll be glad to cooperate," answering to Superintendent Charles Chambless' plea for help getting parking areas at the High School Building out of mud.

Operation No-Mud became an outstanding example of what cooperative community effort can do. Specifically for the Memphis Independent School District, it consisted in land grading, loading, spreading and spreading several hundred yards of crushed base material for the parking areas.

through the cooperative efforts of many.

Mayor Kenneth Dale, Ed Hutcherson, commissioner of Precinct No. 1, and Henry Crow took turns operating the loader at the material site east of Memphis.

Driving the trucks furnished by the city to move the material to the school were Supt. Chambless, J. L. Rea, T. O. Pounds, John Hancock, L. V. Riggs, Marvey Edwards and Beeson, now back to his old job as mayor pro tem. Assisting with the motor grader and blade work was Joe Mother-shed.

Engineering to determine grade levels was furnished by the Soil Conservation Service. This phase of the operation was manned by Henry Gregory, Royce Frisbie and Bob Kilcrease.

Final step in the project, which is in the future, will be application of asphalt material. When this is done, it will complete a project that would have cost several thousand dollars under contract.

"It is good to live and work in a community that has such a cooperative spirit, and we want to thank everyone who had a part in getting the job done," Supt. Chambless said.

Local football fans will have an opportunity to get a pre-season look at the potential of the 1967 Cyclone football team at a scrimmage session against the Wellington Skyro-kets at Cyclone Stadium Friday night beginning at 7:30 p. m.

"The scrimmage will be under near game conditions except the teams will not kick off or punt," Coach Bert Glascock told members of the Cyclone Booster Club Monday.

The Friday night scrimmage will be important for the local lads as the varsity squad selections will be made after this outing. It is also expected that all the boys will be in action at the scrimmage as it is the purpose of pre-season scrimmages to give game-like experience to the players.

The Cyclone squad travelled to Kress last Friday to scrimmage the Kangaroos. The scrimmage was declared successful by local coaches who had high praise for the team effort of the Cyclone lads, especially the defensive units.

The Cyclones first offensive unit scored one TD against Kress and the Kangaroos first unit scored one against the Cyclone's defensive squad.

"We had one long drive which ended on their five yd. line when time ran out on us," Coach Glascock said. Each unit was allowed 20 minutes on offense before giving up the ball.

The Cyclone's second offensive unit scored twice while their second didn't score. Kress' third unit scored as did Memphis', he said.

The local coach was not particularly pleased with individual execution at certain positions but said, after all, it was just inexperience showing up during the first scrimmage.

"The coaches were all pleased with our defensive unit in being able to contain the Kangaroos' running attack. We just had real

County Farmers To Receive Gov. Checks

Lynn McKown, office manager of the Hall County A.S.C.S. office in Memphis, announced this morning that a total of $1,800,000 in subsidy payment checks have been or will be mailed to county farmers this week.

Approximately $600,000 in checks were mailed from his office Monday and another $1,200,000 in checks are being mailed today, or possibly tomorrow, he said.

These payments include only the subsidy payments for cotton, wheat and feed grain and do not include other payments which are made by the ASCS in Hall County, under soil bank, A.C.P. and Cropland Adjustment, McKown said.

A complete total of ASCS payments will be announced at the end of the year when final figures are tabulated, he said.

In most instances, the checks being mailed this week are total payments for crop reduction to the farmers receiving them. Not all farmers will receive checks under this mailing as only about 50 percent of the checks have arrived and are being mailed. Others will be mailed whenever they arrive, McKown said.

Payments on the long range diversion programs, soil bank and C.A.P., will be made after Oct. 1 this year, McKown said.

Annual Celebration Just Around The Corner!

The annual Hall County Picnic celebration is just three weeks off, so it behooves us all to make plans now to participate in the affairs of the celebration wholeheartedly, giving our full cooperation and support to the countywide celebration.

Since Hall County Picnic began as a Homecoming picnic in 1955, under sponsorship of the Memphis Improvement Association, W. E. Leslie, president, the annual observance has grown to a full scale celebration.

The history of the continued growth of this observance is both interesting and important to our citizens. Beginning as a basket-lunch affair, scheduled for the third Sunday in September, the Hall County Picnic has continued to grow into a full two-day celebration.

From 1955 until 1959, the Hall County celebration was a basket-lunch picnic. Then, in 1960, at the 70th Anniversary Celebration, three beeves were barbecued and the first free meal was served to visitors. Byron Baldwin served as president at the 70th Anniversary, and over 2,000 were on hand.

From that time on, for the past seven years, the Hall County Picnic has been highlighted by a free barbecue lunch at the City Park.

Most of us remember the 75th Anniversary celebration held two years ago, when a parade, whisker growing contest, historical pageant, etc., was added on Saturday, as well as the big barbecue on Sunday. Although it was a wet weekend, the affair was a tremendous success.

Last year's celebration seemed to be another tremendous success with everything scheduled going smoothly because of the good planning and the hard work of the committees.

The momentum generated by eleven other celebrations is evident in the plans for the 77th Anniversary celebration. It is a credit to our county and our citizens that we would stage a two-day affair such as that being planned for the weekend of Sept. 16 and 17, 1967.

It is beyond the scope of this editorial to go into the plans for this year's celebration. However, our citizens should be urged to give whole-hearted support to all the events.

On display which needs everyone's cooperation is the historical display being set up now in the old First National Bank building. The first display has been put into place and if it is an example of what the other displays will be like, our visitors and citizens will really have an enjoyable time going through the building examining the relics and keepsakes of Hall County citizens. But we must have these relics and keepsakes on display at the historical building they can be appreciated.

With continued work on the part of our citizens, the 77th Anniversary celebration put on by the Hall County Picnic Assn., will be a roaring success.

This celebration is already capturing a certain amount of fame, and is especially popular with our former citizens. Its growth over the years is a fitting memento to the cooperative spirit of our citizens who feel that our heritage is important. A good old fashioned picnic is one of the best ways to preserve our heritage, and in the meantime, keep alive the cooperative spirit of our citizens.

What Other Editors Say

Corporation Farming
The Wall Street Journal last week reported a new trend in agriculture—a stepping up of corporate farming, with several large companies getting into the field. Of course, this is nothing new, exactly. We all know that farms have been getting larger and more mechanized for the past two decades and that it takes a lot of acreage and a lot of capital to make farming a success these days.

But it is a surprise to read where the CBK Industries, Inc. has decided to get out of the woman's apparel business, selling off their plant and facilities in order to buy acreage and grow corn and soybeans on a big scale.

The company says that farming offers more opportunities for profit than does manufacturing of women's clothing, and they may be right.

Some farm economists say the recent growth of corporate investment in farming is just the start of a broad-scaled trend and that we will see much more of this in the future.

They foresee the day when the old family farm will fade into extinction and corporations will mass produce the nation's food as efficiently and impersonally as they today produce its autos and vacuum cleaners.

Federal farm planners say privately that eventually the U. S. will need only about 500,000 farms, compared to today's 3,176,000, and that future farms will have to be big, factory-like operations.

This may be the trend of the times. But we don't like it and neither do a lot of other people. There must be something worth while about smallness. Why must everything be big?

About Hard Times

CLAUD M. McCEVER (Thomson Ga.): An editor reports that a man walked into the office of a weekly newspaper in a nearby town and said he had lost a valuable dog while hunting near there. He asked to have a notice printed in the paper offering a $100 award for the dog's return.

A week later he went to the town to get a copy of the newspaper. When he got to the newspaper office there was nobody around.

Finally, he found a woman who told him there had been no newspaper that week. She doubted whether one would be coming out she said.

"After all, the whole staff's been out hunting for a lost dog all week."

The McDuffie Progress

Detailed Reporting
The Eden, (Tex.) Echo says this business of getting enough news to fill the paper is just as simple as anything. Here one reporter describes his effort on getting details of a big fire:

Reporter: Did you discover the fire?

Man: Yeah, I guess.

Reporter: When?

Man: I dunno. Sometime after I got up. You're not going to put any of this in the paper, are you?

Reporter: Well, you discovered the fire, and you deserve the credit. Let me get your name here.

Man: I dunno about that. I don't want my name all over the papers—like all spread around, you know.

Reporter: So what's your name?

Man: Joe. Everybody around here knows me, Joe.

Reporter: Joe what?

Man: (Amazed and hurt) Joe Blufzksiczkopf; Jees, everybody knows me.

Reporter: Where do you live? What's your address?

Man: You know the price place where the double sign board used to be near the flour mill. The one that burnt down in fifty-five. And where O'Hara's daughter's husband runs the still.

Reporter: No, I can't quite place it.

Man: Where you been? Everybody knows me, knows where I live. Ask anybody. Say, you're not going to put all this in the paper, are you?

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Lindsey of Quail while the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Houston of Memphis.

Rev. Gene Jorgenson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, read the double ring ceremony at 4 p. m. before an altar centered with white wrought iron arch covered with jade foliage. On either side of the arch stood seven-branch candelabra holding cathedral tapers and flanked by pedestal baskets of white gladioli.

Music for the wedding was provided by Miss Betty Stewart, organist, and Robert Hargrove, vocalist.

Attendants

Janice Pitts of Amarillo served as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Bonnie and Connie Winegard of Pampa.

They wore identical street-length dresses of yellow satin fashioned with empire waists, scoop neckline and bell sleeves.

Velvet ribbon bows accented the waists of the dresses and they carried crescent cascade bouquets of pale green carnations.

Sammy Houston, brother of the groom, was best man and groomsmen were Jimmy Stewart and Johnny Ellis. Ushers were Robert Maddox, Jerry Burleson.

Little Miss Linda Lindsey of Hedley, niece of the bride, served as flower girl and Mark Bowersox of Lawton, Okla., nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

The Bride

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a formal wedding gown of mother-of-pearl material which was designed by the bride and fashioned by her mother. The empire waist was accented by velvet ribbon which formed a front bow. The bodice of the dress was styled with scalloped neckline, long fitted sleeves which came to a petal point over the hands and fastened down the back with tiny covered buttons.

Her chapel-train of illusion was attached at the waistline and her veil of illusion fell from a tiara encrusted with seed pearls and crystal beads. She carried a cascade bouquet of gladioli and salal leaves atop a white Bible covered with lace. She carried out the traditional bridal custom of wearing "something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue."

Mrs. Lindsey chose for her daughter's wedding a two piece dress of rose lace accented with black accessories. Mrs. Houston the groom's mother, wore a frock of bonded blue crepe with matching accessories. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlor.

Mrs. Joyce Sellers of Midland cousin of the bride, registered the guests.

The refreshment table was laid with a white cloth and centered with a miniature bride and groom and the bridesmaid's bouquets. Miss Connie Bradshaw served the tiered wedding cake while Miss Nancy Simpson ladeled the punch.

For a wedding trip to Six Flags Over Texas, the bride chose to travel a blue two piece suit with white lace blouse and white accessories.

After August 29, the newlyweds will be at home at 2507 8th Ave., Canyon, Tex., where the groom is a student at West Texas State University.

The bride is a graduate of Quail High School. She later attended Clarendon Junior College and is a graduate of Pampa College of Hairdressing and Beauty Culture.

Kay Lynn Richards Becomes Bride Of Bob Stoddard In New Mexico Rites

Miss Kay Lynn Richards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Richards of Tularosa, N. M., and formerly of Memphis, became the bride of Bob Stoddard, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Stoddard of Liverpool, Ohio., in candlelight ceremonies solemnized on Friday, August 24, at the First Baptist Church in Tularosa. The Rev. Donald Douglas read the double ring ceremony before a nuptial space decorated with standing candelabra and tall baskets of white gladioli.

Bobby Yerby was the organist, rendering "The Lord's Prayer" as a special selection.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a satin gown, styled with an empire waistline featuring a lace bodice and long fitted lace sleeves that came to petal points at the hands. Her chapel-length train was also of lace.

Her shoulder-length veil of illusion was held by a tiara embellished with seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and rose buds. In tradition, something old was her pearl earrings, something new was her dress. She wore a blue garter and borrowed a blue ring from her sister.

Mrs. Kay Matheny of East Liverpool, Ohio, sister of the groom, was matron of honor. She wore a full-skirted chiffon gown of pale blue over blue taffeta. Her flowers were carnations.

Jim Moivas of Alamogordo was best man, and groomsmen were Randy Richards and Rainey Nowell. Candles were lighted by Randy Richards.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Richards chose a blue suit with white accessories. The mother of the groom, Mrs. Stoddard, wore an aqua suit with white accessories. Both wore corsages of white carnations and rosebuds.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlor. The bride's chosen colors of white and blue were used in decorations. The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with blue flowers and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Bouquets of white gladioli tied with blue streamers were placed at each of the serving tables.

Served with the cake was white punch with blue ice cubes. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Lynn Dunning, Mrs. Jimmy Livingston and Mrs. Don Roberts.

Miss Vicky Turner presided at the guest book to secure signatures of those attending.

Following a wedding trip to Cloudercroft, the newlyweds will be at home at 614 Seventh in Tularosa.

For traveling, Mrs. Stoddard chose a creation of white lace over blue taffeta accented with white accessories and the corsage from her wedding bouquet.

Among out-of-town guests attending the wedding were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stoddard of Liverpool, Ohio; his brother, John Stoddard of East Liverpool, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Richards of Memphis, grandparents of the bride; and Mrs. Dale Dobbs and children, Dawn, Milse and Mark of Houston, sister of the bride.

MRS. BOB STODDARD

Blewer - King Vows Read In Lubbock

Miss Alison Gwenn Blewer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Blewer of Lubbock, became the bride of David Little King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond King of San Antonio, at 7:30 p. m. August 25 in the Ford Memorial Chapel, First Baptist Church of Lubbock. The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Blewer of Lakeview.

Rev. J. B. Fowler, Jr., pastor of the Southeast Baptist Church, Lubbock, read the double ring ceremony. Music for the wedding was furnished by Mrs. Richard McHaney of Lubbock, organist, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Haney of Lubbock, soloists.

Miss Mary Dillon of Lubbock served as maid of honor and matron of honor was Mrs. Wm. Brown, also of Lubbock. Miss Betty Mauldin of Lubbock was bridesmaid.

The attendants were identically dressed in leaf-mint linen. Their shoulder length dresses were fashioned with empire waists, slim straight skirts, lace edged demure sleeves, and feathered narrow pan-brush trains outlined in Irish green. Their headpieces were fresh flower bandeaus of white dianthus and English Ivy. They carried bouquets of white dianthus and English Ivy.

Henry Payne, Jr., of Lubbock was best man. Groomsman and ushers were Wm. P. Dickson, Jr., of Post, brother-in-law of the groom, John Porter of Sweetwater, and Tom Morahan of Lubbock.

The bride

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a formal length gown of white silk lined with organza fashioned with a Bateau neckline, a modified empire bodice and Kabukia sleeves edged in re-embroidered Alencon lace beaded with imported seed pearls. Appliqued motifs of the beaded Alencon lace accented the bodice and soft A-line skirt. A detachable Watteau chapel length train attached at the shoulders, accented with a bow at the neckline, featured the seed pearls on a lace band around the center panel.

A tapered pillbox in matching fabric and Alencon lace frosted with pearls and crystals had a bow atop and held a triple-tiered shoulder length veil of imported silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet stephanotis accented by English Ivy atop a white Bible.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held in the Chapel parlor.

After a wedding trip to Durango, Colo., the newlyweds will be at home at 2402 South 20th Street, Abilene.

The bride is a 1965 honor graduate of Monterey High School and attends Texas Tech College where she is on the Dean's honor List, a member of the Texas Tech Band, and Tau Beta Sigma honorary band sorority. She will be a Senior English major at McMurry College in Abilene in September.

New A-C Stripper On Display At Shields Implement

The new Allis-Chalmers self-propelled cotton stripper is on display at Shields Implement Co. in Memphis. The new machine features pre-cleaning, then re-cleaning by a unique extractor unit, according to an announcement issued this week by Coleman and Jerry Shields, local A-C dealers.

Area cotton farmers were invited to come by the dealership, located on Highway 287 North, and inspect the new stripper.

Burrs, trash and foreign matter are dropped back on the ground through a metal vacuum box, which cuts the cost of hauling burrs from the gin to the farm, it was explained. A boll separation unit is provided which utilizes distribution of green bolls and foreign objects by the filling auger. Green bolls can be dumped on the ground as determined by the operator.

Hydrostatic power steering and hydraulic power brakes are standard equipment.

Massey Family Takes European Vacation

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the concluding segment of a letter written by Roy Alvin Massey to his friends in Hall County describing a tour of Europe which members of his family have enjoyed this summer.

After getting established in our new home in Pest, we went on a tour of the Danube to Buda and to the famous castle and cathedral. The architecture of the castle is like something of a fairy-tale. I can't describe it, as one must see it to appreciate it. From the hill on which the castle is situated, one has a magnificent panoramic view of Pest (Budapest is made up of two old cities, Buda and Pest which, today, are considered as one city). This particular evening we were up on the hill just before dusk and as the sun began to set the view along the river took on the air of an old 19th Century painting. We stayed there until after dark and watched the lights of the city come on one by one until the whole town was twinkling. We all declared we had never seen anything more beautiful.

We walked across the old square in front of the cathedral to a wonderful restaurant in the courtyard of an old Gothic building. I had told others that Budapest was one of the last hold-outs of the Old World grand manner when it came to eating. We were not disappointed here either. Our table was set with the finest of china, a complete setting of engraved silver and beautifully decorated crystal. The head waiter prepared and served the food in a manner rarely seen in even the best restaurants here. Taken as a whole Budapest is a sad and rather depressing city but when one is surrounded by such charming atmosphere of the past, as we were that evening, one can forget the oppression which exists in that country and live for a few hours in the past.

Having a limited time schedule, we had to leave Budapest the next morning for Belgrade, Yugoslavia. It is not very far, but it is a full day's journey due to the traffic conditions of the country. It is not held up by the number of automobiles on the highway but the term highway loosely used there are very few. One is instead held up by the horse-drawn carts and buggies which abound in this area. Through the whole country, we were constantly coming up behind a horse-drawn or ox-drawn cart, which, of course, slowed us to a snail's pace. So this journey, which in the states might have taken four or five hours at the most, took us all day.

We arrived in Belgrade late in the afternoon, took a hotel and went for a walk and visit to the old fortress. Belgrade is not an extremely interesting city so there is not much I can say about it. However, I did find it less depressing and the standard of living much higher than it was there six years ago. It is still an old and backward city in most aspects but it seems less suppressed than some of the other Communist capitals.

The trip from Belgrade to the Greek border was a wonderful experience. The Yugoslavians built a new road on which only motor vehicles are allowed. Thus, we weren't slowed by animal-drawn wagons. The Yugoslavian countryside is as beautiful as any I have seen in Europe. The rolling green hills and mountains with the fertile valleys all in cultivation are a sight to behold. Peppercorn along in fields are the peasants working with horse-drawn machinery or loading ox-drawn carts with hay. We had debated whether to take the coast road across Yugoslavia, which is one of the most beautiful drives in Europe, or whether to take the inland road with the new highway. We were not sorry we took the inland route, as really, no countryside could be prettier. There wasn't an inch that wasn't in cultivation and the green corn fields alternating and contrasting with the golden fields of ripe wheat were like a painting. To put icing on the cake, every few miles there were large fields of bright yellow giant sunflowers (raised for the seeds). We tried to capture some of their beauty in photographs, but I'm sure they won't half way do it justice. It was truly one part of the trip we were glad we didn't miss.

After a long day's ride through all of this verdure we crossed into the hilly and rocky countryside of Greece. Now Greece is beautiful in its own way but for pastoral beauty it can't compare with Yugoslavia. We spent our first night in Greece at Thesolonika, a resort town on the Aegean Sea. The next morning we took the beautiful drive along the sea and past Mt. Olympus, home of the gods, to Athens.

We found a very nice hotel, right in the heart of the city, and after resting a bit we decided to walk a little before dinner. Margaret Ann and I guided mother and Abbie Louise to a particular spot, where, just as the sun was beginning to set they had their first view of the Acropolis, the magnificent heart of both ancient and modern Athens, and in past the heart of Western Civilization. It was a very moving sight for us all; the rising pillars of the Parthenon just taking on a golden hue from the evening sun.

We walked back to a small restaurant near our hotel where we had a wonderful supper of lamb, roasted on a spit, Greek style. Greek food due to the Turkish influence is rather Oriental and quite different from the food of other Mediterranean countries so we enjoyed sampling different dishes at different restaurants while we were there. Actually, everything the Turks touched under the Ottoman Empire, they ruined, and Greece is no exception but the influence they left on the cooking of Greece wasn't so bad (with maybe the exception of the terrible Turkish coffee).

LAFF OF THE WEEK

"Yeah, but you only carried him for nine months."

Since this was the first visit to Greece for Mother and Abbie we did the usual tourist routine so they could see all of the sights. We started out the first evening by going up to the Pnyx, a hill with a view of the Acropolis, for a production of what is called "Lights and Sound." This type of spectacle has spread through Europe during the past few years and now every major city has at least one historical spot which has "Light and Sound." I am really not too fond of the idea, but the one Athens is very moving. You sit on the Pnyx which is very near the Acropolis, but far enough away to give a full view. Events of Athens past are vocally re-enacted over loud speakers and with very appropriate and moving music the Acropolis is lighted bit by bit to fit the narrator. It is very artistically done and describing it doesn't suffice. It really has to be seen to be appreciated.

The next day we began the typical tour of all of the ancient ruins; spending most of the time of course on the Acropolis. After a couple of days touring I decided to visit a friend on the Greek Isle of Hydra. The rest of the family made plans to take a boat for Israel and I made reservations to fly there after my return from Hydra.

Hydra is a charming little island just a few hours by boat from the mainland. The trip there, through several of the other Greek Islands is beautiful. The Isle of Hydra itself is really just a rocky hill, rising out of the sea. The village is a series of white flat-topped houses rising from the harbour up the hillside. There are no roads or streets on the island, only walking paths, hence, no automobiles. A very good friend of mine from England has bought a villa there and enjoys a life of ease, quite apart from civilization as we know it. All of his provisions have to be brought up to the villa by donkey and it is only this year that they are putting in telephones. He enjoys living there and I must say that my two days there were most pleasant, in fact I was sorry to leave.

As all good things must come to an end, and planes don't wait I had to leave Greece for Israel. As the rest of the party had already gone by boat I couldn't change my plans, so I arrived in Israel the evening before they were to arrive the next morning.

I have been writing on this for days and days now, because going at such a fast pace leaves little time to write. I shall write later of a very exciting trip through Israel and Persia but think this is long enough for one letter and I should get it in the mail. We shall be home the first week in September and I hope that I have a chance to write about the rest of the trip.

With warm regards to all,
Roy Alvin Massey

Leslies Attend Florist Meet In Denver, Colo.

Wilma and Bill Leslie of Leslie's Flowers returned from Denver last Thursday where they attended the 54th Annual Convention of the FLORISTS' TRANSWORLD DELIVERY ASSOCIATION. More than 2,100 florists from the United States and Canada, along with a few florists from England, Norway, Australia, Japan, Mexico and South America were in attendance at the convention.

Principle features of the convention were the election of new officers to guide the Association during the coming year. FTD is a member-owned and operated organization of nearly 12,000 florists in the United States and Canada and is a part of INTERFLORA, the world-wide organization of more than 30,000 florists. In addition to participating in discussions and actions relative to the Association business, the Leslies and other members were able to participate in and study the latest practices and trends in the floral business. They stated that they picked up a world of ideas that will be incorporated in their floral designing and business practices which will help them give their customers even better service in the future.

Plenty of entertainment was provided for the conventioners along with the business activities. Included was an evening in Central City, an evening at the famous Elich Gardens and an evening viewing a performance by the WESTERNAIRES, a teenage riding club composed of 450 riders and horses. The Leslies stated that this was a terrific show especially in view of the fact that the participants are all amateurs and range in age from 7 to 17 years. This group has performed all over the world and will be one of the feature attractions at the State Fair of Texas this fall. An unscheduled attraction, or maybe it should be called a distraction, was the collection of "Hippies" that congregated in a plaza across the street from the Leslies' hotel. Part of this group staged a mild demonstration in front of the State capitol on Saturday morning. This part of the trip made the Leslies glad to be back in Memphis.

YOUR COUNTY AGENT SAYS

SMALL GRAIN VARIETIES RECOMMENDED FOR HALL COUNTY
Small grain planting time is at hand and next year's harvest of grain or the amount of grazing from the crop may be determined by the variety planted. It suggests that Hall County farmers suggest that Hall County farmers get the best seed available of varieties adapted to this area of the state. The choice of a variety is influenced by whether the crop is seeded on dryland or irrigated, low or high fertility conditions, used for grazing, grain production or a combination of the two. Disease or insect reaction is important since more resistance is being bred into the varieties. Also the shattering and lodging characteristics and finally, the quality, especially with wheat.

In this section of Texas, the following wheat varieties, based on latest research, are recommended: Caddo, Improved Triumph, Tascosa, Quanah, Concho. These varieties were selected for use in Hall County on the basis of yield of grain and forage, plant characteristics, disease resistance, earliness, cold tolerance, and quality. Early maturing varieties are desirable as a means of partially evading diseases during growth and adverse weather conditions during harvest. Short, strong strawed varieties will resist lodging and subsequent loss of yields. Emphasis is placed on higher baking quality wheat in price support premiums. Winter hardiness is an important consideration. Recommended oat varieties for this area are: Wintok, Winter Excel, Norwin, Bronco, Dubois, Cimarron. Barley varieties recommended are: Will, Rogers, Harrison, Chase Kearney, and Meimi. Rye does best in Hall County if Elbon, Gator or Bonel varieties are planted.

Atty Gen. Crawford Martin said it is up to each individual school district to decide if it wants to adopt the new "tenure" or "continuing contract" law for its teachers. However, once adopted, the tenure plan (protecting teachers against firing without cause) becomes mandatory. In other recent opinions, Martin has held that: *Insurance issued to an individual under a group policy does not become incontestable under the insurance code until two years from the date the person becomes insured under a master policy. *District judges and district attorneys can claim full reimbursement for official travels out of county of their residence, effective September 1. *Railroad Commission employees to a transportation conference are entitled to travel expenses, as are state employees representing their agencies at a Texas Historical Survey Committee sponsored dedication ceremony. *A public weigher may not conduct weighing operations outside the area in which he was elected or appointed; deputy weighers need not be actual residents of the area they serve. *Cities under 185,000 population of firemen's personal obligation as contribution to relief and retirement fund. *Texas Employment Commission may contribute state funds to the premiums of its employees' group insurance coverage; but under these conditions, Commission must secure the contract of insurance, be the policy-holder and pay the contributions to the company. *Writ of possession on property sold at a tax sale may be issued to the purchaser after expiration of 20 days from end of redemption period. *State agencies must make purchases of goods manufactured by the prison system through the Board of Control; political subdivisions may purchase directly from prisons but Board must set manufacturing specifications.

COUNTY AGENT SAYS

Take time to clean up and improve the appearance of your garden during August and September. Get everything ready for an attractive fall garden. Now is the time to remove weeds as they compete with the ornamental plants for food and water. You must use caution when attempting to control weeds with herbicides in the flower and shrub border. Many times it is easier and safer to pull the weeds immediately after irrigating the flower or shrub border. During these periods of high temperature and dry weather, flower beds and shrub borders should be well watered so that plants will go into fall and winter in a healthy condition. Unless sufficient water is applied so the soil is soaked to a depth of six inches you are not watering adequately. If using a sprinkler to water the garden or lawn, place several tin cans in the area and observe how long it takes to fill the can to a depth of one inch. This will provide a guide to how long the sprinkler should be allowed to remain in a given area to adequately soak the soil. Mulching the flower garden shrub border will save time and effort both in reducing weed growth and conserving moisture. A two inch layer of coarse bark, moss, pine bark, cotton burr, pine straw, or similar material will provide an excellent mulch. Mulch reduces weed growth. That that do grow through the mulch will be easy to pull. Some organic mulch will require additional nitrogenous fertilizer so that the decomposition process will not rob the growing plants of the needed nitrogen.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:
Section 1. That Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, be amended so that the same will hereafter read as follows:
"Section 49-b. One (1) such citizen member shall, with the advice and consent of the Senate, be appointed biennially by the Governor to serve for a term of four (4) years; but the members serving on said Board shall complete the terms to which they were appointed in the event of the resignation or death of any such citizen member, the Governor shall appoint a replacement to serve for the unexpired portion of the term to which the deceased or resigning member had been appointed. The compensation for said citizen members shall be as is now or may hereafter be fixed by the Legislature; and each shall make bond in such amount as is now or may hereafter be prescribed by the Legislature."

"The Commissioner of the General Land Office shall act as Chairman of said Board and shall be the administrator of the Veterans' Land Program under such terms and restrictions as are now or may hereafter be provided by law. In the absence or illness of said Commissioner, the Chief Clerk of the General Land Office shall be the Acting Chairman of said Board with the same duties and powers that said Commissioner would have if present."

"The Veterans' Land Board may provide for, issue and sell not to exceed Four Hundred Million Dollars ($400,000,000) in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as the Veterans' Land Fund, Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000) of which have heretofore been issued and sold. Such bonds or obligations shall be sold for not less than par value and accrued interest; shall be issued in such forms, denominations, and upon such terms as are now or may hereafter be provided by law; shall be issued and sold at such times, at such places, and in such installments as may be determined by said Board; and shall bear a rate or rates of interest as may be fixed by said Board but the weighted average annual interest rate, as that phrase is commonly and ordinarily used and understood in the municipal bond market, of all the bonds issued and sold in any installment of any bonds or obligations issued and sold hereunder shall, after execution by the Board, approval by the Attorney General of Texas, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchaser or purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas; and all bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board are hereby in all respects validated and declared to be general obligations of the State of Texas. In order to prevent default in the payment of principal or interest on any such bonds, the Legislature shall appropriate a sufficient amount to pay the same."

"In the sale of any such bonds or obligations, a pre-emptive right of purchase shall be given to the administrators of the various Teacher Retirement Funds, the Permanent University Funds, and the Permanent School Funds."

"Said Veterans' Land Fund shall consist of any lands heretofore or hereafter purchased by said Board, until the sale price therefor, together with any interest and penalties due, have been received by said Board (although nothing herein shall be construed to prevent said Board from accepting full payment for a portion of any tract), and of the moneys attributable to any bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board which moneys so attributable shall include but shall not be limited to the proceeds from the issuance and sale of such bonds; the moneys received from the sale or resale of any lands, or rights therein, purchased with other moneys attributable to such bonds; the interest and penalties received from the sale or resale of such lands, or rights therein; the bonuses, income, rents, royalties, and any other pecuniary benefit received by said Board from any such lands; sums received by way of indemnity or forfeiture for the failure of any bidder for the purchase of any such bonds to comply with his bid and accept and pay for such bonds or for the failure of any lands comprising a part of said Fund to comply with his bid and accept and pay for any such lands; and interest received from investments of any such moneys. The principal and interest on the bonds heretofore and hereafter issued by said Board shall be paid out of the moneys of said Fund in conformity with the Constitutional provisions authorizing such bonds; but the moneys of said Fund which are not immediately committed to the payment of principal and interest on such bonds, the purchase of lands as herein provided, or the payment of expenses as herein provided may be invested in bonds or obligations of the United States until such funds are needed for such purposes."

"All moneys comprising a part of said Fund and not expended for the purposes herein provided shall be a part of said Fund until there are sufficient moneys therein to retire fully all of the bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board, at which time all such moneys remaining in said Fund, except such portion thereof as may be necessary to retire all such bonds which portion shall be set aside and retained in said Fund for the purpose of retiring all such bonds, shall be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund to be appropriated to such purposes as may be prescribed by law. All moneys becoming a part of said Fund thereafter shall likewise be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund."

"When a Division of said Fund (each Division consisting of the moneys attributable to the bonds issued and sold pursuant to a single Constitutional authorization and the lands purchased therewith) contains sufficient moneys to retire all of the bonds secured by such Division, the moneys thereof, except such portion as may be needed to retire all of the bonds secured by such Division which portion shall be set aside and remain a part of such Division for the purpose of retiring all such bonds, may be used for the purpose of paying the principal and interest thereon, together with the expenses herein authorized, of any other bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board. Such use shall be a matter for the discretion and direction of said Board; but there may be no such use of any such moneys contrary to the rights of any holder of any of the bonds issued and sold by said Board or violative of any contract to which said Board is a party."

"The Veterans' Land Fund shall be used by said Board for the purpose of purchasing lands situated in the State of Texas owned by the United States or any governmental agency thereof, owned by the Texas Prison System or any other governmental agency of the State of Texas, or owned by any person, firm, or corporation. All lands thus purchased shall be acquired at the lowest price obtainable, to be paid for in cash, and shall be a part of said Fund. Such lands heretofore or hereafter purchased and comprising a part of said Fund are hereby declared to be held for a governmental purpose, although the individual purchasers thereof shall be subject to taxation in the same manner as are purchasers of lands dedicated to the Permanent Free Public School

"The lands of the Veterans' Land Fund shall be sold by said Board in such quantities, at such times, at such prices, at such rates of interest and under such rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law to veterans who served not less than ninety (90) continuous days, unless sooner discharged by reason of a service-connected disability, on active duty in the Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard or Marine Corps of the United States between September 16, 1940, and the date of formal withdrawal of United States troops from the present armed conflict in Viet Nam, and who, upon the date of filing his or her application to purchase any such land is a citizen of the United States, is a bona fide resident of the State of Texas, and has not been dishonorably discharged from any branch of the Armed Forces above-named and who at the time of his or her enlistment, induction, commissioning, or draft was a bona fide resident of the State of Texas, or who has resided in Texas at least five (5) years prior to the date of filing his or her application. The foregoing notwithstanding, any lands in the Veterans' Land Fund which have been first offered for sale to veterans and which have not been sold may be sold or resold to such purchasers, in such quantities, and on such terms, and at such prices and rates of interest, and under such rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law."

"Said Veterans' Land Fund, to the extent of the moneys attributable to any bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board may be used by said Board, as is now or may hereafter be provided by law, for the purpose of paying the expenses of surveying, monumenting, road construction, legal fees, recordation fees, advertising and other like costs necessary or incidental to the purchase and sale, or resale, of any lands purchased with any of the moneys attributable to such additional bonds, such expenses to be added to the price of such lands when sold, or resold, by said Board; for the purpose of paying the expenses of issuing, selling, and delivering any such additional bonds; and for the purpose of meeting the expenses of paying the interest or principal due or to become due on any such additional bonds."

"All of the moneys attributable to any series of bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board (a series of bonds being all of the bonds issued and sold in a single transaction of bonds) may be used for the purchase of lands as herein provided, to be sold as herein provided, for a period ending eight (8) years after the date of sale of such series of bonds; provided, however, that so much of such moneys as may be necessary to pay interest on bonds heretofore issued and sold shall be set aside for that purpose in accordance with the resolution adopted by said Board authorizing the issuance and sale of such series of bonds. After such eight (8) year period, all of such moneys shall be set aside for the re-irement of any bonds hereafter issued and sold and to pay interest thereon, together with any expenses as provided herein, in accordance with the resolution or resolutions authorizing the issuance and sale of such additional bonds, until there are sufficient moneys to retire all of the bonds hereafter issued and sold, at which time all such moneys then remaining a part of said Veterans' Land Fund and thereafter becoming a part of said Fund shall be governed as elsewhere provided herein."

"This Amendment being intended only to establish a basic framework and not to be a comprehensive treatment of the Veterans' Land Program, there is hereby reposed in the Legislature full power to implement and effectuate the design and objects of this Amendment, including the power to delegate such duties, responsibilities, functions, and authority to the Veterans' Land Board as it believes necessary."

"Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this Amendment, no such law shall be void by reason of its anticipatory nature."

"This Amendment shall become effective upon its adoption."

Section 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on November 11, 1967, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:
"FOR the amendment to extend the Veterans' Land Program by authorizing the sale of bonds to increase the Veterans' Land Fund for the purpose of purchasing land in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans who served in the Armed Services of the United States between September 16, 1940, and the date of formal withdrawal of United States troops from the present armed conflict in Viet Nam, which amendment would amend Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, and provide for an additional $200,000,000 in bonds, such funds to be expended in accordance with instructions and requirements that may be provided by law."

"AGAINST the amendment to extend the Veterans' Land Program by authorizing the sale of bonds to increase the Veterans' Land Fund for the purpose of purchasing land in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans who served in the Armed Services of the United States between September 16, 1940, and the date of formal withdrawal of United States troops from the present armed conflict in Viet Nam, which amendment would amend Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, and provide for an additional $200,000,000 in bonds, such funds to be expended in accordance with instructions and requirements that may be provided by law."

Section 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and the amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the Constitution and laws.

PUBLIC NOTICE Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER FIVE ON THE BALLOT

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:
Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of Texas be amended by adding a new section thereto to be known as Section 49-e, as follows:
"Section 49-e. The Parks and Wildlife Department, or its successor vested with the powers, duties, and authority which deals with the operation, maintenance, and improvement of State Parks, shall have the authority to provide for, issue and sell general obligation bonds of the State of Texas in an amount not to exceed Seventy-Five Million Dollars ($75,000,000). The bonds authorized herein shall be called 'Texas Park Development Bonds,' shall be executed in such form, denominations, and upon such terms as may be prescribed by law, provided, however, that the bonds shall bear a rate or rates of interest as may be fixed by the Parks and Wildlife Department or its successor, but the weighted average annual interest rate, as that phrase is commonly and ordinarily used and understood in the municipal bond market, of all the bonds issued and sold in any installment of any bonds, shall not exceed four and one-half percent (4½%) interest per annum; they may be issued in such installments as said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor, finds feasible and practical in accomplishing the purpose set forth herein."

"All moneys received from the sale of said bonds shall be deposited in a fund hereby created with the State Treasurer to be known as the Texas Park Development Fund to be administered (without further appropriation) by the said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor, in such manner as prescribed by law."

"Such fund shall be used by said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor, under such provisions as the Legislature may prescribe by general law, for the purposes of acquiring lands from the United States, or any governmental agency thereof, from any governmental agency of the State of Texas, or from any person, firm, or corporation, for State Park sites and for developing said sites as State Parks."

"While any of the bonds authorized by this provision, or any interest on any such bonds, is outstanding and unpaid, there is hereby appropriated out of the first moneys coming into the Treasury in each fiscal year, not otherwise appropriated by this Constitution, an amount which is sufficient to pay the principal and interest on such bonds that mature or become due during such fiscal year, less the amount in the interest and sinking fund at the close of the prior fiscal year, which includes any receipts derived during the prior fiscal year by said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor, from admission charges to State Parks, as the Legislature may prescribe by general law."

"The Legislature may provide for the investment of moneys available in the Texas Park Development Fund and the interest and sinking fund established for the payment of bonds issued by said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor, income from such investment shall be used for the purposes prescribed by the Legislature."

"From the moneys received by said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor, from the sale of the bonds issued hereunder, there shall be deposited in the interest and sinking fund for the bonds authorized by this section sufficient moneys to pay the interest to become due during the State fiscal year in which the bonds were issued. After all bonds have been fully paid with interest or after there are on deposit in the interest and sinking fund sufficient moneys to pay all future maturities of principal and interest, additional moneys received from admission charges to State Parks shall be deposited to the State Parks Fund, or any successor fund which may be established by the Legislature as a depository for Park revenue earned by said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor."

"All bonds issued hereunder shall after approval by the Attorney General, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchaser, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas."

"Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such Acts shall not be void by reason of their anticipatory nature."

Something New Under The Memphis Sun

by Virginia Browder

Things like banks, houses, stores are constantly being added to the Memphis scene as improvements in our town continue. Of recent date there are smaller items which may have escaped your notice.

Some months ago, the entering members of the First Baptist Church purchased one of the older buildings formerly used as a class room in the Morningside section. Even before that it was part of The Cameron Lumber complex. Said structure was moved to a corner location across from East Noel Street and much work and renovation were done by a Baptist Church. The Latin American citizens of the reconstruction work done by the Baptist brethren, their Spanish "compadres" which much credit is due.

Recently, the building has been completed, painted, and topped with a slender and graceful spire. It only does it dignify the surrounding neighborhood but it is an asset to the town's improvement.

ments and a credit to the members of The First Baptist Church. If you have not seen this new unit in the beautification program of Memphis, may we suggest you have a look and take pride in this structural achievement.

The second item worth your notice is the beautiful yard light adorning the front premises of the Bill Miller residence at the corner of Mendon and South 10th Streets.

The light was one of the original gas street lamps used in Los Angeles in an early day. At that time, the old lamp-lighter made his rounds about dusk each evening setting the lamps aglow with a hand torch on a long rod. For years, these old lamps were stored in a warehouse in Los Angeles and only recently were put up for public auction. The Miller's friend who gave them the lamp is Gene Bulman, a nephew of Mrs. Winifred Wilson. He formerly lived in Clarendon and, because he worked for the city of Los Angeles, he could not bid on the lights but induced a friend to buy twenty for him. There is probably not another one like it in Texas.

Though, the glass is not original which must have been clear white the soft rose and green makes it even more attractive and well worth a "look-see."

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rager of Grand Prairie visited last week with her mother, Mrs. Dorothy Duncan. They brought the guests, Rev. and Mrs. Michael Daves also of Grand Prairie.

Rolling Plains PCA Announces New Director

Dean A. Decker, Route 2, Childress, has been appointed to the vacancy created by death of John E. Glover on the Board of Directors of Rolling Plains Credit Assn., it was announced this week.

Decker will serve in this capacity until the next annual stockholders meeting of the association, at which time an election will be held to fill the balance of the unexpired term.

Decker, with his wife, Jerry, daughter, Cheryl, and son, Jim, is carrying on an agricultural operation of some 2,600 acres in Childress and Hall Counties and runs about 800 yearling cattle on a seasonal grass basis. He is 37 years of age, born in Munday. He has lived most of his life in the Childress area.

Associated with the production credit system for a good many years, Decker has been a member stockholder of the Memphis association, and since the merger a member-stockholder of the Rolling Plains association.

Rolling Plains PCA is the result of merging Stamford and Memphis associations in 1965. The central office is maintained in Stamford, with field office in Haskell, Spur, Munday, Anson, Memphis, Matador, Paducah, and Wellington.

The association provides intermediate and short term credit for some 1,800 farmers and ranchers in its 17-county area. Currently there is approximately 13 million dollars in loans outstanding on the association books and it is estimated that the total 1967 lending will be about 25 million dollars.

Library Lore

By Jim Roark

"The world is full of beautiful things, but the majority have not been trained to observe them. We can not see all the beauty that lies around us. We are like the lady who, standing with the great artist Turner, before one of his wonderful landscapes, cried out in amazement: 'Why, Mr. Turner, I can not see those things in nature that you have put in your picture!'"

"Don't you wish you could, madam?" he replied.

"Farewell to Texas", a vanishing wilderness, by William O. Douglas is a plea from the author for Texans to preserve the wonders we have in our great state. You may no doubt comment that he is not a Texan, so how can he truthfully write about it! Many have written who do not know our state or people, their books have aroused our contempt—not so Mr. Douglas. He knows more about the plants, wildlife and conservation of Texas than most Texans do. He has been to all the places he writes of with some of our most knowledgeable men of Texas, and has made a long minute study of our land. He is trying to tell us to wake up and protect our God given beauty before overgrazing, gravel and mineral companies, lumber companies, pipeline seepages and ruthless private enterprise and a callous disregard of the public interest violate the wilderness which is disappearing at the rate of fifty acres a day. The dam builders are the most destructive!

"Texas owns some land and is authorized to purchase it for state purposes or to condemn it, no state program of any size for setting aside wilderness areas for recreation has been launched. Texas has not done at the state level what the federal government has done with its public lands in the realm of conservation. When it comes to state parks and state forests Texas is far, far behind the other states."

Texans must be educated to recognize these shrines and to protect them.

That is why this is a melancholy book. Unless the dedicated minority receives an overwhelming mandate from the people so "Farewell To Texas"—a fine book excellently illustrated that every Texan should read. Get it at the library in Memphis.

ANXIETY

"Have no anxiety about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your request be made known to God."

-Philippians 4:6

In any given situation, prayer is better than lamentations.

We cannot help but be concerned when things are not going our way. Yet, nothing is accomplished if we cry out that life is being unfair to us.

It is better to stop, to consider the situation that we face, to reason out a proper approach to doing something about it - and to pray for the guidance we need, and for the strength we need to do whatever needs to be done.
