City Council Hears Two Requests

Memphis To Host Childress Friday

The Memphis Cyclone will take the field Friday night against the Childress Bobcats, another strong District 2-AA opponent and an undefeated ball club.

The Cyclone is looking for its first victory of the season, and the team has been showing some improvement as the schedule nears the mid-way mark.

The Bobcats came out of last week's encounter with the Quanah Indians a 20 to 14 winner, and will be a heavy favorite when they come to Memphis Friday night. Game time is 8 p. m. in Cyclone Stadium.

Billy Ed Dixon To Go To Nat'l. FFA Convention

Billy Ed Dixon, senior FFA member and President of the Memphis FFA Chapter and the Greenbelt FFA District President, will leave next Tuesday for the 42nd National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Mo.

He will be accompanied by FFA Advisor Ronald Morris of Memphis.

Dixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Dixon of Memphis, won an all expense paid trip to the national FFA convention from Santa Fe Railroad, and will travel by rail to the convention, catching the train at Amarillo.

He and Mr. Morris will be back Saturday, Oct. 18.

Dixon was the Greenbelt District and Area I winner in the public speaking contest last spring.

The Secretary of Agriculture and many other noted speakers will be on hand at the National Convention.

The Memphis City Council heard two requests at their regular October meeting Tuesday night, and deferred action on both pending further study.

Lone Star Gas Company asked the City of Memphis to increase local residential and commercial natural gas rates to enable the company to earn a reasonable rate of return on the fair value of properties used in rendering public service.

The Council members voted 5 to 3 to table the request until the November meeting for additional study. The ordinance will be considered in the Nov. 4 meeting.

A delegation from the Memphis B&PW Club met with the Council and asked that the City of Memphis construct bath and toilet facilities and set aside a portion of the City Park for tourist camper and trailer parking. The organization now has $500 which the members will be willing to contribute toward the establishment of a trailer park.

Mayor Kenneth Dale appointed a committee with Johnny Farnsworth, chairman, City Attorney Robert Montgomery and Alderman Troy Phillips as members, to study the feasibility of the establishment of the camper site in the City Park.

Representing the B&PW Club were Mrs. Joyce Webster, Mrs. John Binkley and Mrs. Jack Moreman.

The Council accepted the Mobil bid of 1308 for regular gasoline and the Continental Oil Co. bid of 1230 for diesel fuel.

Gas Rate Increase

The application for gas rate increase, the first major request since 1953 based on an income deficiency in the Memphis distribution system, listed increased cost of gas, higher property and equipment costs, increased wages and salaries, higher interest rates on borrowed money, and increased taxes as primary reasons for the deficiency.

The company indicated that it had used every means available to avoid a request for rate increases, but inflationary pressures not under the company's control necessitated the application.

"Obviously our wish to keep gas rates low must be balanced with the economic pressures we face," Coy L. Miller, manager of the Memphis distribution office, said. "These pressures can no longer be offset in any other way."

Approval of the company's application would increase the average monthly residential gas bill by approximately $1.31. Lone Star Gas serves approximately 1443 customers in Memphis.

County Voters Start Registering For '70

Voter registration for elections held between March 1, 1970, and February 28, 1971, began Wednesday in Hall and other counties.

Voters are registering in the County Tax Assessor - Collector's office in the Hall County Courthouse. Registration period is from 1, 1969 to Jan. 31, 1970.

The general rule is that no one may vote without having registered. The only exception being those who are absent from their county residence in active military service.

Qualifications for voting include: 1. Citizen of the United States; 2. over 21 years old on the day of the election; 3. resident of the State for at least one year immediately preceding election day; 4. resident of the county for at least six months immediately preceding election day; 5. required for voting in local elections but not required for voting on statewide offices and issues. This is also a requirement for voting in city elections.

Mr. Malissa Anderson, County Assessor - Collector said that registration is coming in real well. There will be no sub-station registration this year due to the complexity of registration requirements.

A person must register as a voter of the county and precinct where he has his permanent residence. He makes his application for registration to the county tax assessor - collector of his county. The application may be made either by mail, on a voter registration application form which can be obtained from the assessor-collector's office, or by personal appearance in the assessor-collector's office.

There is no charge for registration.

The husband, wife, father, mother, son, or daughter of a voter may act as the voter's agent in applying for registration if the relative is a qualified voter in the same county. Except for these listed relatives, which do not include persons related by marriage, (in-laws), no one may act as agent for the voter in applying for registration.

Assembly Of God To Serve Spaghetti Supper Oct. 14

The Women's Missionary Society of the Assembly of God Church will hold a Spaghetti Supper at the Travis Cafeteria Tuesday evening, Oct. 14, it was announced this week.

The meal will be served between the hours of 6:30 to 7:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The menu will include Spaghetti with either mild or highly seasoned sauce, Cold Slaw, Texas garlic toast, home-made pies and coffee or tea.

Those who would like to have tickets for the supper are requested to call members of the ticket committee including Mrs. V. C. Sparks, phone 259-2367; Mrs. A. L. Rogers, phone 259-3012; L. Nell Weddell, phone 259-3152. Reservations for tickets should be made by Saturday night.

Memphis, on the other hand, lost a 32-0 decision to Shamrock in the district opener.

Childress' 179-pound fullback Dickie Nations, is described by the Childress Index as a powerful and determined runner. He made 87 yards against Quanah while QB Fred Bawer made 86 yards, mainly on sweeps or by following Nations through the holes he created. Halfback Fred Wright (155) made 83 yards in the first half against Quanah, scoring on a 32-yard run. Kevin Wood, No. 22, (146) is the Bobcat's wingback.

QB Baker is a good passer as well as ball carrier and he throws to his backs and to tight end D. Lane (155) and B. Land, his split end.

Childress led in the game 20-0 in the third period, when Quanah's all-state quarterback candidate, James Page, was injured and taken to the hospital by ambulance. This fired up the Indians, and with the guidance of Sophomore QB Melvin Mills the Indians scored twice.

Tackles for the Bobcats are Bearden (224) and Holtman (194), and are the biggest boys offensively.

Defensively, the Cats use a 4-3 or 5-2 defense with Jack Dorsett (162) as center linebacker and Stan Webster (140) and Bearden as linebackers. Cornorbacks are

Estelline To Open Dist. 5-B Play Fri.

The Estelline Bears open District 5-B play against Patton Friday at Estelline, with game time set at 8 p. m.

Coach Jimmy Don Adams said the Bears, injury-wise, are ready for the opening of district play.

The Bears are coming off a 44-0 victory over Northside of Patton, a game their coach described as the best Estelline effort of the season.

"This was the best game we ever played," Adams said. "We played more fire, more aggressive and played more consistent football than we've done before."

Coach Adams cited Charles Moore as having an outstanding night on offense and defense, and Jackie Morris for his blocking and down field coverage on the punts and kickoffs.

Scoring for the Bears were Moore, Jouett, Fowler and Paul Bryant. Bryant did a good job of carrying the football on the quarterback roll out plays, the coach said.

Moore was cited especially for his ball carrying and his play at center linebacker. Roldan Trevino, a boy in his first year playing football, was also cited for his excellent job of kicking the ball off the tee on kickoffs.

The Bears have already played Patton Springs in a non-conference game at Patton Springs this year, which they won. The Bears will be favored Friday night.

Memphis Jr. Football Team Will See Action Against Shamrock Thurs.

The Memphis Jr. Varsity football team will play host to the Shamrock Jr. Varsity team tonight at Cyclone Stadium. Game time is 7 p. m.

Coach Denzil Lacy reported one injury this week to a key player on the Memphis team, Terry Wheeler, who received a knee injury in workout this week.

The Jr. Varsity team is expecting a hard game against Shamrock tonight.

Last week, the Jr. Varsity was defeated by Clarendon B team 42-14. "We did well on offense," Coach Lacy said, "but defensively we got into position all right but were poor tacklers."

"Clarendon has a good club, undefeated from seventh, eighth and as B teamers this year," he said. "They are probably the best club we will play."

Scoring for Memphis was Bill

Hamblin, one touchdown, a pass from Mark Stevenson to Larry Johnson. A Stevenson pass for two points was caught by V. Busby.

"We felt that Mark Stevenson was the most improved player for us," Coach Lacy said.

Jr. High Teams

The Memphis Jr. High Whirlwinds (seventh and eighth grades) will travel to Shamrock for 6 p. m. and 7 p. m. games with the Shamrock Jr. High teams.

Coach George Berry said the games will be hard ones for the Memphis Whirlwinds to win for Shamrock has good teams.

Recently, the Seventh graders defeated Quanah 7th Grade 16-0 in a hard fought contest here. Jimmy Melton put two scores on the scoreboard for Memphis and added a two-point conversion. (Continued on Page 12)

Over 100 Attend Hearing Tuesday On Corridor Route Around Estelline

There were 114 people attending the public hearing conducted Tuesday evening at the Estelline High School by the Texas Highway Department concerning a corridor route around Estelline. There were 104 not affiliated with the Highway Department in attendance.

Conducting the hearing was Virgil J. McGee, district engineer; Lewis White, assistant district engineer; Howard Preston, in charge of the right-of-way; and Arville Coyle, senior resident engineer in charge of the project, all of Childress.

Four routes were discussed either by or through Estelline, and the route entitled Alternates No. 1, five and one-half blocks to the west of the present route between the city water wells and the Estelline Co-Op Gin, was recommended by Highway Department personnel during the hearing.

Routes No. 2 and No. 2A were not recommended, which would pass east of Estelline, due to the necessity of having to relocate the Greenbelt Municipal and Industrial Water Authority line at a cost of $50,000, and certain terrain difficulties.

The present location of the highway was not recommended as a four-lane facility, the engineers stated, due to the danger to school children crossing the road, and traffic hazards at the T-intersection of State 86 and U. S. 287.

Alternate Route 1 would have a grade separation overlap at the intersection of State 86 and U. S. 287, it was pointed out.

Lower Standard Of Living Has Arrived!

You can build the latest gadgets, put more shiny chrome on new automobiles, make clothing more desirable and use the latest marketing techniques, but if the buying public has no money to buy, then merchandise doesn't move and everyone begins living on a lower standard.

It appears unavoidable now that citizens of Memphis and Hall County can expect to have a lower standard of living. This is the result of inflation and the steps being taken to curb it. The principle being used is, "since the little man is hurt worse by inflation, then let him fight it the most."

You don't have to look far to find a family that has a lot of needs. It needs a new car, the house needs repairs, there isn't enough money to send the oldest child to college, winter clothing is needed, there isn't enough cash on hand to pay the ever-increasing local, state and national tax installments, the family is a month or more behind on the Sears revolving charge account.

Papa and mama are having frequent discussions. Papa thinks less money should and must be spent. Mama is spending less than she needs in almost every department. To spend less means drive the old car another year, forego the repairs on the house, cancel plans for college, dig out last year's winter clothing, pay the income tax installment out of grocery money, and return the latest purchase to Sears.

In short, it simply means lowering the standard of living. Let's face reality! We've been enjoying an increased standard of living since the end of World War II because of inflation. That's why we are living better today than we were before World War II.

We can cut spending, we can switch from inflation to deflation . . . but in both cases, let us be prepared to accept lower wages, lower profits and a lower standard of living.

In our area, wages, prices received for raw materials, and about everything else, are below what it is in the metropolitan areas of this nation. Salary increases to all types of labor, regardless of the avocation, in our area, have been slow, as compared to those in industrial centers of our nation, where labor and management continually battle over business and labor parity. No one can say labor and business in these United States aren't getting things. But in rural America, things are not so good.

First off, the United States Government no longer, and hasn't for several years, recognized parity for the producer of raw materials, the farmer.

Now that the population has shifted to the metropolitan centers, a trend reflected in Washington with more and more urban congressmen and fewer and fewer congressmen representing agrarian areas, it is felt that farmers should survive on the law of supply and demand. If this ever happens, the poor American farmer will be the only human species in the civilized world, which must exist in this purely theoretical condition. The idea of making farmers sell on world market prices is as ridiculous as asking labor to receive a world average or industry to sell its commodities on a world average price.

The farmer isn't now receiving his fair share of the economic dollar. Thus, all segments of our society associated with the farm economy are below standard to begin with. Then add, higher interest rates, higher cost of living, higher taxation, higher school costs, higher costs of every necessary staple, food, clothing, transportation, utilities, property, etc., and you have a lower standard of living in rural America.

The United States Chamber of Commerce recommends to the government that small, marginal farms be closed, and the folks on these farms be retrained for some "worthwhile" job. Take the good American soil out of production, is their recommendation.

Then we receive word from our economists, that the steps being taken to curb inflation, high interest rates, higher taxation, etc., are having no effect. The poor little men of America, who make less than $10,000 a year, who are battling to keep their heads above the water, despite spending less and less money on food, clothing and the staples of life, are just not receiving any sympathy. They find themselves in the same place the American farmer finds himself, too few friends in the right places to hear his plea.

All we can figure out is say, "you can accept a lower standard of living until you take more, much more of an interest in political matters which definitely affect your pocket book."

Shaking Up Transportation

The ordinary businessman who ships and receives freight has absolutely no control over the rates he pays. These rates are supposed to be approved by government agencies, and they usually are even if it is a sort of rubber stamp provision.

This week, the Interstate Commerce Department ruled that trucks in the Midwest must refund some $6,470,429 in excess rates charged their customers since mid 1968.

The truck firms banded together into the Middlewest Motor Freight Bureau, all the truck lines got together, and fixed their rates.

Since the ICC and the state commissions have to grant truck lines permits to operate over certain routes, competition is eliminated and the truckers are free to charge what they wish, if the government doesn't intervene.

And the government didn't, for over a year. Finally the wheels turned and the government found the truck line rates too high, and ordered a refund.

Transportation and freight charges are increasingly important to the American businessman. During the past year or so, the freight has been handed so roughly that claims have skyrocketed. This has caused the truck shippers to get together and set a new policy which reduces their liability for concealed damage, charging the manufacturer with a fifth, the wholesaler with a fifth, the intermediate line with a fifth, the delivering line with a fifth and the receiver with a fifth of the cost.

This adds up to five fifths, and relieves truck lines of some of the cost, but the shippers and receivers don't like it.

This freight rate refund is the first step in what we believe is a badly needed shakeup in the nation's transportation system.

Togetherness isn't everything
There is a mood "going around" — at high levels and at low levels — that puzzles us. In fact, it is, to some little extent, disturbing.

We refer to the attitude which evokes, with growing frequency, a plea from various and numerous quarters for unanimity. Oneness. "Bring Us Together," said a sign used as a plea to president-elect Richard Nixon on a recent public appearance. Bring us together — for what?

Rep. Bill Heatley To Serve on Leg. Budget Board

AUSTIN — Rep. W. S. (Bill) Heatley of Paducah will serve as a member of the Legislative Budget Board Speaker G. F. (Gus) Mutscher announced.

"Representative Heatley is more knowledgeable in the field of appropriations for Texas government than any other man in the State," Rep. Mutscher said. "He has served an unprecedented five terms as chairman of the House Committee on Appropriations and we are indeed fortunate to have Rep. Heatley's services on the Budget Board." Mutscher continued, "Representative Heatley's experience, knowledge and philosophy for sound government will be of great benefit to the Legislature and to the people of Texas."

Other Representatives on the Budget Board are Ben Atwell of Dallas, Richard Slack of Pecos and James L. Sluder of Naples. Speaker Mutscher said that the four members are intimately familiar with the taxing and spending needs of the state.

A rumor floats from Washington that a committee will be named to plan a Model Ghost Cities program for future lack of development.

There is now a federal proposal for a three-day work week to do away with social and economic problems. It won't work, Senator, because too many people prefer the no-work week.

Miss Frances White, Alpha Delta president, and Mrs. M. Roy Sullivan, area director, are co-conveners. Miss White has served as regional director, as recording secretary of the state organization, on the State Auditing, Nominations, and Publicity Committees, as president of Alpha Omega chapter, and in numerous other capacities. In 1960 she received a Delta Kappa Gamma State Achievement Award, and in 1962 was named Teacher of the Year by the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs in Port Arthur, where she is librarian at the Robert E. Lee Elementary School.

Mrs. Sullivan has served as first vice president of Alpha State, and as state chairman of the Music Committee and the Committee on Personal Growth and Services, as well as president of Beta Delta and chairman of various committees in Beta Delta and Theta Delta chapters. She was a recipient of a State Achievement Award in 1963. A music teacher for many years, she is now teaching English in the Robert E. Lee Junior High School, Pampa.

Saturday's meeting will begin with a presidents' conference at 8:30 a. m. at the Pampa Country Club. At 9 o'clock will be registration and a coffee given by Mrs. Julian Key, sister of Miss White and an honorary member of Beta Delta chapter.

Beginning at 9:30, Mrs. Sullivan will preside at the general assembly; Miss Oleta Marlin, Beta Delta, will give the invocation; and Mrs. Poole will welcome the guests. Miss White will give a report on the Southwest Regional Conference held in Reno, Nevada, in July; members of Eta Alpha chapter will present "The Significance of Initiation", and Theta Delta chapter will direct group singing.

Based on a quotation from Alfred Noyes, three chapters will survey the work of Delta Kappa

Miss Joanne Allen Of Houston Holds Refresher Course In Vision Screening

A four hour Refresher Course in Preschool Vision Screening was given to members of the 1913 Study Club, Tuesday, Sept. 30. Miss Joanne Allen, Program Consultant, Texas Society for the Prevention of Blindness conducted the course.

This project is sponsored by the 1913 Study Club and the Texas Society for the Prevention of Blindness, in an effort to locate visual problems in preschool children before they enter the first grade. These simple vision tests, administered by trained volunteers, are given to preschool age children using the Snellen E Chart. No diagnostic techniques are used and the volunteers do not attempt to make a diagnosis. When a child is unable to pass the test, letters are sent to the parents recommending that the child be taken for a complete medical eye examination.

According to the Texas Society, a shocking number of children face partial blindness if their defective vision is not detected early. Today experts know that amblyopia or "lazy eye blindness" is the leading cause of partial blindness in preschool children. However, it is almost 100-percent preventable. Tragically, because so few parents are aware of the danger, we are still finding only a small fraction of these children

B. B. Shots

By BYRON BALDWIN

I was to well shot myself last year to give any shots as I was busy trying to keep up with the picnic and Heritage Hall. Both programs were taken care of. About 2500 that good barbecued meat and had about 1,000 go through Heritage Hall Saturday and Sunday. People came far and near to meet friends and loved ones. It seems that a lot of love is shown for each other. Members of different families met and you would see a good many people meet that had not seen each other in several years and when they found out they would embrace for sure you would see an embrace of happiness between them. Some of there were seeing their grandchildren picnicking and telling how smart they were. I thought we had a real parade with the chuck wagon and everything else that belongs to a parade. I saw Nicki Eddleman in the parade on her grandpa's side saddle. We had a lot of bull in the parade, about 100 pounds, with a man riding and using a bridle like a horse. They have trained pigs for shows and now come with a trained bull. Maybe they will be long before they can get a human beings to do what they do.

Thanks to the parade committee for their good work. Good rains just before service and the line had formed. All eliminations took the water with a smile, with the exception of the Methodist, Gayle Greene, who served, ran for the shelter and it was too much water for him.

We had one couple from Floyd-ville that met at last year's picnic had not seen each other in years and five months later met. Said they had to get in their attendance this year as a celebration for meeting here last year, and would continue to come as long as they could. You never know when and where cupid is working. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Woodson of Floydada.

I wish I could give everyone names who registered in Heritage Hall and the picnic but that would be impossible for me. Elmer Moreman said he traveled 600 miles to get here for the picnic. Elmer was here in the early days and now lives in Missouri. Polly Alexander, daughter of John Alexander, Sheriff of Hall County at one time, was from San Francisco, Calif.

Well, I think Frank Ogden could have won the prize on his age. He has lived 97 years, but he doesn't get around like it as he was keeping up with his daughters. Think they had a good time with their dad.

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Everett of Startford were visiting friends. Mrs. Everett, the former Winnie Rawlins, was a graduate of MHS in 1916. H. B. Bryan of Lubbock was taking in Heritage Hall and the picnic. He was in public office of Lubbock County 25 years after leaving here. His brother, Ike, was there too. He has lived in Odessa for the past several years and his wife is the former Lulu Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Bass of Dallas were here. Mrs. Bass, the former Ray Johnson, is the daughter of the W. A. Johnsons, former publisher of the Hall County Herald, also the senator and Lt. Governor. Ray brought in souvenir cup and saucer, also pin tray with the picture of the old courthouse. Ray graduated with the 1920 class of MHS, and her name is Alma Ray. She was named after the Knights of Pyrees Lodge her and was given a medal by the lodge in 1902. She will bring us the medal to display in Heritage Hall.

Senator Jack Hightower was here for the picnic and seemed to enjoy meeting old friends as well as new ones. At any kind of celebration I always meet some cousins and this time was no exception. There was cousin Gwen and Tony Craig, cousin Nita and J. W. Coppedge, cousin Sis and Gene Koeninger, cousin Pat and Jack Wolf, cousin Ruth and Candler Hawkins, cousin Myrtle Walker and cousin Melissa Hale of Floydada. There were others but will not try to cover the whole territory.

Gene Cantrell, resident here 1905-1913, was looking for some of the Webster boys. Hope he found some of them. Mr. and Mrs. Linton Estes and grandson were here for the picnic. Linton first came to Hall County in 1902 and moved on to Wichita Falls. He is a brother to our late Herb Estes.

Mrs. Archie Glascoe was here from Lubbock. She and Archie were early-day teachers in Hall County. Archie was always a regular attendant at the Hall County Picnic. He passed away two and a half years ago. Three sons and Mrs. Mack Paschall were in looking Heritage Hall over and enjoying good fellowship with one another.

Owen Fields of California was here visiting old friends. He spent several years here in the barber shop. He clipped a good many of us, but traveled to California still clipping. A number of the McQueens were here and think they had a family reunion. Also a good many of the Adams family were here and guess they were having a reunion as heard them call for them on the south side of the park. First time had seen Paul Adams since he left here. He married one of the Kennard girls and they are living in Berger. Pud had traded his car off since he left here and think he made a good trade. He gave me a lift to town from the park.

We had the Gospel singers headed by Ernest Lee Saturday and Sunday. And if you missed this, you missed a lot, as everybody joined in singing the old time religious songs.

The Helm sisters seem to enjoy the day as they always do. Mrs. Chas. Reed said she worked until 4 a. m. Sunday and drove on to the picnic. One of the sisters, Mrs. Alt Sims, called me over to her chair after the singing was over and said, "I believe I had the best time today in my life." She was in a wheel chair, but had a look of happiness on her face.

Three new donors to Heritage Hall are Mrs. Chas. Reed, Mrs. Anna Margaret Clark, both of Lubbock; and Gertrude Rasco of Memphis.

Elsing Fain Shaffer, a graduate of MHS in 1939, is now living in DeSoto. She brought us a school picture of her class that we did not have. She is the lady I rode the train with a few years ago and had the tumble weed in a big brown sack and planted it at her home as she was home sick for Hall County. She reports the tumble weed would not grow and died, but would put out another one.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Jenkins were here enjoying the picnic. Many of you will remember they furnished a good deal of power for the Cyclones a few years ago with those big strong sons.

Roy Even was here for the picnic and having a good time meeting old friends. Roy is from Allen, Matt, Dyke and Albert McMurry, these boys all hail from Dumas. I asked Dyke when he graduated from high school. Said he would rather not answer that question as when he was going to school at Indian Creek he was in the third grade. The teacher sent him home because he had not shaved.

Frank Duke of Alvin is an old Hall County boy even though he moved away several years ago.

A pot plant was delivered to Heritage Hall Saturday morning with a card on it as follows: "Honoring Hall County, my adopted county that has been very good to me, signed Brunetta Morris."

We had two good coffee-makers at the picnic this year, Arthur Eddleman and A. W. Johnson. They had two kinds of coffee, as when you asked for coffee, they asked if you wanted it poured or cut. I happened to think and did not try the cut kind.

Mrs. H. B. Bennett and son Guthrie started the celebration Friday. They now live in Santa Fe, N. M. Nolan Baker and Dave Price of Fort Worth were here again for the picnic. Dave was getting in a hurry to go back Sunday afternoon and I overheard Nolan tell him, "If you are in that big of a hurry, go ahead down the highway and I will pick you up after awhile."

Sunday of the picnic marked the 58th anniversary of the P. E. Morrison family going to the O. B. Burnett farm. Dillard Morrison of Amarillo reported this.

Roy Alvin Massey reported 30 attended the 20th anniversary of the 1949 class. Roy brought us two more manikins, proud to get them.

We received many compliments on Heritage Hall and I want to share with you the letter received today.

Dear Byron:
"Having toured most all the states in the U. S. A., there have been many, many museums to visit and see — always they are interesting. History is loved again through the preservation of old pictures, relics, mementoes, and historical records.

"Hall County Heritage Hall is no exception—in fact it is more interesting—the variety of items is overwhelming.

"Besides it is a 'History' of people whom we know, love and admire.

"A history of their happiness, their hardships, their progress, and above all their faith in the land, mankind and god.

"Heritage Hall offers a 'Symphony' of thoughts (both interesting and inspirational) to all visitors."

Gertrude Rasco

Importance Of Farm Credit Is Discussed Here

The importance of farm credit was discussed by Jim Chappell of Farmers Home Administration and Robert Proctor of Production Credit Association for the Memphis Young Farmers and Ranchers Club, Monday night, Sept. 22.

It was stressed that a farmer or rancher should have a outline of his projects needs and sources of income before talking to a loan officer about credit.

All those present were quite interested in the program given by Chappell and Proctor and are looking forward to the next meeting on Monday, Oct. 6.

Memphis Jehovah's Witnesses To Go To Plainview Soon

The Memphis Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses is making preliminary plans to attend a three-day training program in Plainview, it was announced this week.

Jack Cobb, presiding minister of the group, in discussing this announcement with the congregation pointed to the recent "Peace on Earth" International assemblies of Jehovah's Witnesses as being an example of the type of convention planned for Plainview.

"The object of having three conventions a year," Cobb said, "is that each gathering advances in attendance and equips every one of the preaching fellowship of Jehovah's Witnesses with the practical use of the Bible as a help in fortifying the spiritual morale of people in our community."

Family groups here are making plans locally to attend the gathering which is scheduled for the Plainview High School Auditorium Nov. 7-9.

Mr. Cobb discussed with the group local arrangements which will include travel plans as well as rehearsals and other preparation for those having been assigned parts on the upcoming program.

Control For Fall Armyworm Given By Entomologist

Heavy populations of fall armyworms are causing extensive damage to volunteer wheat and oats as well as to recently planted small grain crops in Hall County, Emory Boring, area entomologist, said.

Where infestations persist, stand reduction or less is not uncommon. After a field is cleared out fall armyworms invade adjoining fields.

The larval stage lasts about 20 days during which time the fall armyworm reaches a length of one and one-half inches. The full grown larvae vary in color from tan or green to nearly black. The most prominent characteristic for identifying the fall armyworm is the inverted Y on the front of the head. The life cycle from egg to adult requires 25 to 52 days depending on weather conditions.

Most effective control is obtained when fall armyworms are small. Carbaryl (Sevin) parathion might be used on small grain that will be grazed. Cattle should be held off of fields treated with methyl parathion for 15 days following application. There is no time limitation on grazing of small grains treated with carbaryl. For additional information on insects attacking small grains, contact your county extension agent.

YOUR COUNTY AGENT SAYS

Questions arise each year among producers concerning the practice of topping cotton. Is it a paying proposition? Can I gain in lint yield and quality by removing terminal growth?

Obviously, there is no pat answer to these questions, says County Agent W. B. Hooser. Research in several cotton-belt states has generally shown no advantage from topping. In cases where yields were increased, the gain was small. Important factors such as the season, variety and frost date no doubt affect results of this practice. Topping too early causes lateral branches to grow and actually defeats the purpose of topping.

Topping removes excessive terminal growth to allow better sunlight penetration as well as air circulation around lower maturing bolls, points out Hooser. Light seems to promote boll development and maturation. Therefore, plants with mature bottom bolls but with immature fruit in rank top growth with no opportunity to mature would benefit most from topping. Yet, even under these conditions, beneficial results are not always assured.

One problem, explains Hooser, is that topping will remove some mature bolls that should be kept while leaving some immature bolls that should be removed. In other words, mature and immature bolls are usually not distinctly separated on cotton plants. On the other hand, little or no advantage can be expected on cotton with quarter size and larger bolls near the top. In fact, reduction in yield can be expected when topping this type cotton.

Another reported advantage of topping is reducing foliage to aid in stripper harvesting, adds Hooser. This may be especially beneficial in rank cotton receiving excess water in certain areas of the field. However, most cotton this year is generally not too large due to the hot, dry summer. Therefore, the need for topping is less than in previous years. Of course, reminds Hooser, the primary factor to consider is the cost of this practice. Topping costs will range from $2 - $4 per acre. This means a yield advantage of at least 25 to 30 pounds of lint is needed for a break-even proposition. So the producer should take a careful look at this practice before considering it. If you can only expect to break even, the time and money can be more profitably spent on other enterprises, contends Hooser.

October 20 - November 15 is Time To Treat Fruit Trees For Borers

The peach tree borer attacks peach, nectarine, apricot and plum trees as well as others. The insect can greatly reduce the life of trees and has caused the death of trees within a few years. This insect feeds on the cambium and inner bark at or below the soil level. When peach tree borers are present a large amount of gum mixed with a brown sawdust-like material is found at the base of infested trees.

One of the most effective treatments for peach tree borers should be carried out between October 20 and November 15 when the soil is dry and the soil temperature is 55° F. or above. All weeds and grass should be cleaned out of the area within one foot of the tree trunk. The ground is then leveled and a groove is made to encircle the tree two inches from the trunk. Paradichlorobenzene crystals are then placed in this groove at the rate of one-half ounce for 2 and 3 year old trees, three-fourths ounce for 4 to 5 year old trees and 1 ounce for older trees. The band is then covered with soil free of leaf and grass material and the soil is mounded and packed around the trunk so a cone-shaped pile about six inches high is formed around the base of the tree. Care should be taken to see that none of the PDB crystals come in contact with the tree, since crystals in contact with the bark will cause injury. The mound of soil should be removed in the early spring.

For further information on control of pests of stone fruits, contact W. B. Hooser, your County Agricultural Agent.

Use Care With Chemicals To Aid Cotton Maturity

The decision to use harvest-aid chemicals on cotton should be made with utmost care in view of recent weather conditions. Cool rainy weather has slowed fiber maturity and thereby increased the time required for bolls to reach full maturity. Too early application of harvest-aid chemicals on this slowly maturing cotton can result in lower quality fiber — especially lower micronaire, points out County Agricultural Agent W. B. Hooser.

Since weather conditions have delayed maturity, plans to use harvest-aid chemicals will require some alternation. Much acreage will now require the entire season to reach maturity and should not be treated.

On the other hand, Hooser points out that drought-stressed cotton or early cotton that has "cut-out" with mature bolls should be treated with harvest-aid chemicals to permit early harvest. Furthermore, most of this cotton is making top growth that will not contribute to final yield and only tend to delay harvest if treated.

So take a hard look at your particular situation, advises Hooser. Keep in mind that low micronaire is a reflection of immature fiber. With present discount ratios for low micronaire, any operation that stops the fiber maturing process should be avoided. A too early defoliation or desiccant will do this.

Too often farmers have a mistaken idea that the use of harvest-aid chemicals will speed up fiber development or maturity. But only time and warm weather will mature cotton, emphasizes Hooser. A good rule-of-thumb is to delay defoliation until 60 percent of the bolls are open and 80 percent or more of bolls if a desiccant is to be used.

For defoliants, either a chlorophyll or phosphate material may be used while arsenic acid and cyanide are used as desiccants. Applications, first using a defoliant and then following with desiccant, are often used to reduce leaf trash.

Further information on defoliant and desiccant materials and application rates may be obtained from the county agent's office.

Shamrock Irish Bop Cyclone Friday 34-9

Memphis Cyclone, after a fought first half of football at the aggressive Shamrock team, saw what was a respectable halftime score of 14-0 before a trouncing 32-0 score at the end of the ball game.

Memphis team at halftime up first downs to Shamrock, and the only difference that Shamrock managed across the Cyclone's goal-line while Memphis efforts ended on the Shamrock a fumble developed on a down and four needed for a down which Shamrock managed to recover, and another drive on the Shamrock 3-yd. line QB Merle Kilpatrick was out of bounds for a two-yd. try to score on a quarter-backer play.

The Irish was evicted in Shamrock's first scoring when QB Lynn Ramsey, on a down play, stumbled his out of a box near his goal when attempting to pass and his way 39 yards to good position on the Shamrock wide so the score was 6-0.

The Cyclone came back, and got one lucky break when a Merle Kilpatrick pass, bounced off the helmet of a Shamrock defender into the arms of End Donnie Carroll for a 32-yd. gain to the Shamrock 27-yd. line.

On the next play, TB Ronnie McFalls was pounced on after the whistle and the officials stepped off a big 15 yards against Shamrock's defense. QB Kilpatrick took the ball to the Shamrock 8 on the first down, and TB McFalls added 1 more to the seven before disaster struck.

On the next play, the quarterback option, QB Kilpatrick lost the ball as he attempted to fake to FB Carol Thompson in one of the most unfortunate of occurrences, for on the play Shamrock's whole defensive unit took the fake except their outside corner-back.

Shamrock took over the ball on the 9-yd. line and got a first down to the 40, after a good gain by QB Ramsey and by virtue of a 15-yd. penalty for hitting late assessed against Memphis.

Then, the Irish, on a third down and seven needed, sent Halfback Charles Franks out of the back-field and he caught a perfectly thrown aerial from QB Ramsey and raced to the Memphis 5 before he could be caught.

Two plays later, Ricky Gragg scored. A two-point pass from Ramsey to End Rhodes made the score 14-0.

Memphis, after the kickoff, started their best drive of the night.

TB McFalls broke tackles and twisted his way 11 yards to the mid-field strip. Then FB Thompson slipped outside and rambled 10 yards to the Shamrock 40. QB Kilpatrick decided to keep the ball and raced to the Shamrock 30. TB McFalls on the next play slipped through for a 11-yard gain to the 19.

FB Thompson added 10 more to the 9 and another first down.

But here, Shamrock's defense regrouped and allowed only six yards in four attempts. FB Thompson took the ball to the Shamrock 3 for Memphis' deepest penetration of the evening. The Cyclone tried to score on the fourth down, but Shamrock foiled the effort.

The half ended with Shamrock in possession.

The Irish got another scoring drive started after the half, after the two teams had exchanged punts, taking the ball 70 yards in 9 plays. On a third down and 5 needed for a first, from the Memphis 37, HB Franks broke loose and raced across the goal-line to score. The PAT kick was no good and the score was 20-0.

The Irish scored a few minutes later on the end around play with Donald Rhodes carrying the football. The play went for 65 yards. Merle Kilpatrick blocked the PAT kick and the score was 26-0.

The Memphis defense in the first part of the fourth quarter stopped a Shamrock drive on the Memphis 9. A good carry by QB Kilpatrick for 11 yards out to the 20, and a first down, and two six yard carries, one by Kilpatrick and the other by FB Thompson made another first to the home 32, but here the drive stopped so Kilpatrick got off a 40 yard boot.

The Irish final score came on a 10-yd. pass play from Ramsey to Franks, as Franks made a one-handed catch on the football. Kilpatrick again blocked the PAT attempt and the score was 32-0.
