Annual Parade To Kickoff At 2 P.M.

The Hall County Picnic Parade will kick off at 2 p. m. Saturday afternoon after forming at the Jr. High Building on Main St. beginning at 1 p. m. under sponsorship of the American Legion here.

Any group or individual, firm or organization interested in entering the parade Saturday should contact J. T. Stone or J. R. Mitchell of the American Legion here.

The annual parade will highlight a full day of activities planned by the American Legion Post and Auxiliary Unit 175 for Saturday during the Hall County Picnic Reunion, according to an announcement by Cmdr. Jay Stone.

Master of ceremonies for the parade will be Glenn King, farm and ranch editor of KGNC-TV, who will be accompanied by three out-of-town judges for the parade divisions contest.

The American Legion color guard will lead off the parade, followed by the Parade Queen float and the Memphis Cyclone Band.

The float featuring the American Legion Parade Queen will hold a place of honor. Candidates are junior members of the Auxiliary, including Debra Hawkins, Mitzie Lindsey, Pamela Watson, Ramona Ballew, Carol Foxhall, Carol Godfrey, Bonita Ballew, Vickie Clifton and Becky Gardenhire.

Last year's queen, Nelda Gay Stone, will crown her successor during the parade. Voting cans for the candidates will be picked up Friday afternoon.

Also to be in the parade will be an array of floats for organizations and businesses, decorated automobiles, Model A Car Club of Amarillo, Lions Club from Hedley, American Legion from Hedley and one or two other Hedley floats, Childress Riding Club, horses, motorcycles and bicycles.

Memphis citizens are reminded that the Hedley Cotton Festival will be held next month and floats made for the Hall County parade are welcomed to enter the Hedley parade.

Immediately following the parade, the Auxiliary will hold an old-fashioned cake walk in front of the judges' stand on the west side of the square.

Miss Byrom passed away Wednesday afternoon in the Vernon General Hospital.

Survivors include: four sisters, Mrs. Bertie Meadows of Wichita Falls, Mrs. Thelma Gossett of Pratt Kans., Mrs. Ruth Scott of Amarillo and Mrs. Betty Walton of Hedley; and four brothers, Marvin of Santa Clara, Calif., Raymond of Seagoville and Delton and Lawrence, both of Memphis.

Pall bearers were Sam Jackson, Wendell Harrison, Orville Goodpasture, James Jeffers, J. O. Dixon and J. M. Ferrel.

Homer Tucker Joins Ward Motor Co. As Salesman

Homer Tucker became associated with Ward Motor Co. here recently as a salesman, according to Dennis Ward, local Chevrolet and Oldsmobile dealer.

Tucker is a well-known businessman of Memphis and is well known here. He became associated with his father-in-law, Tommie M. Potts, in operating Potts Chevrolet Co. in 1940. After serving in the Navy during World War II, he again joined the firm, which was purchased by Ward Motor Co. in 1964. He is experienced in all phases of the operation of an automotive dealership.

After selling the dealership to Ward Motor Co., he and Potts established Potts-Tucker Auto Mart, and later he joined an insurance firm as a salesman.

Tucker has been active in civic affairs here for many years, and served as president of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce and Hall County Board of Development, Memphis Country Club and Lions Club. At this time he is serving as president of the Highway 287 Association. He is a former member of the board of trustees of the Memphis Independent School District and helped organize the Hall County Industrial Foundation.

Post Office To Close Saturdays Starting Sept. 19

Windows in the Memphis Post Office will be closed each Saturday morning, starting Sept. 19, Gene Lindsey, postmaster, announced early this week.

This means that window service will not be available on Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays at the local office.

This is an economy move established by the U. S. Post Office Department, Lindsey explained. It will mean that clerk hours will be curtailed to meet the Saturday window closing schedule.

The mail will be put up on Saturdays and Sundays as in the past, the postmaster stated. The only curtailment of service is the closing of the windows Saturday mornings, which means that patrons will be unable to purchase stamps, mail or receive parcel post packages.

The city delivery service will continue on Saturdays, and the rural and star routes will run as in the past.

Postmaster Lindsey reminded patrons that a stamp vending machine is located in the post office lobby, and stamps may be purchased even if window service is not available.

Estelline Bears Host Patton Springs Fri.

The Estelline Bears will play host to the Patton Springs Rangers Friday night in the first home game of the season for the Bears of Coach Jimmy Don Adams.

The team last week suffered a 26 to 8 defeat by Harrold as the Bears had trouble getting their ground attack going against a big Harrold five-man line.

The Bears scored in the second quarter on a pass play from HB Glen Longhine to End Jack Morris to tie the game at 6-6 and then Steve Pardue and Gene Bruce dropped a Harrold ball carrier behind the Harrold goal line for a safety for the Bears to lead at halftime, 8 to 6.

"Harrold's team was bigger than we were and in the last half they got our boys worn down. We lost the ball about five times on a poor run up in our numbers," Coach Adams said.

"We're going to have to get our running game going and be smarter on defense," Coach Adams said.

"I wasn't disappointed with our boys against Harrold, they were hitting good and gave a good showing the first half. Our boys this year want to play," the Estelline coach said.

"We're just going to have to get together and improve on our weaknesses," he said.

The Bears lost the services of Tommy Lee Williams who was injured in the Harrold game on the opening kickoff. Coach Adams said Williams will miss the Patton Springs game but should be back for the next game after the open date Friday week.

The Rangers of Patton Springs lost their opener last week by a narrow margin to Woodson. They carry 14 players on their roster, three seniors, three juniors, four sophomores and four freshmen. The largest man on the roster is 160 pounds.

The seniors on the Rangers are backend Dickie Brindle, backend Dewey Slough and endguard Andy McAllister. They are reported to be primarily a passing ball club.

Coach Adams said the Bears pass defense may get a real test against Patton Springs.

"The Rangers, although not physically large, have a lot of ability and good speed on their ball club," Coach Adams said.

The Estelline club is looking for a victory over Patton Springs but the squad is expecting a tough game for their home opener.

"All the teams we'll play this season are pretty evenly matched," Coach Adams said.

Cyclone Travels To Chillicothe

By BILL COMBS

The Memphis Cyclone will again be on the road Friday night as the local squad travels to Chillicothe to begin a two-year gridiron engagement with the Eagles. The game begins at 8 p. m.

The two teams haven't met in recent years and both teams will be seeking their first victory of the 1970 football season.

Last week, Frederick, Okla., defeated Chillicothe 32 to 13. Frederick is a school about the same size as an average Class AA school in Texas.

Chillicothe is picked second in their Class A district behind Archer City.

The Eagles have a physically large team, especially in the line, and have one exceptionally fine halfback, No. 24 Lester Norice, 175, who is possibly as fine a running back as Memphis will face this season.

The Eagles have nine returning starters from last season and boast of experience, size and depth. Speedwise, Norice will be the fastest man on the field. Except for him, the two teams will be fairly evenly matched in the speed department.

No. 22 is QB Kert Grummer, 170, who is a good passer and likes to throw to Norice. HB Ricky Bivins, 155, carries on many inside plays and he wears No. 18. SE Johnny Richards is used primarily as a blocking back and a receiver. He wears No. 32 and weighs 160.

The Eagles linemen average over 170 lbs.

The Cyclone, on the other hand, lost to White Deer, now ranked sixth in the state in Class A, 36-0. Against White Deer, the Bucks' running attack was hampered by the Cyclone defense but not stopped often enough, despite a spirited effort on the part of the local lads.

The Cyclone offensive unit was held to only one first down until the second half and only managed five first downs all night.

Cyclone Coach Clyde McMurray in discussing the past game with White Deer and the upcoming game with Chillicothe at Cyclone Booster Club meeting Tuesday night said the Cyclone defense has got to improve if the local team is going to stop Chillicothe. Offensively, the local coach said the Cyclone is showing real improvement in workouts this week.

"We're going to have to put more points on the scoreboard than Chillicothe if we are going to win this one," he said.

The coach said that the Cyclone's defensive line was the bright point in play against White Deer so the same personnel will start against Chillicothe. In the linebacker and secondary slots, the Coach announced that starters will be LB Terry Wynn, Inside Safety backs Lewis Davis and Mark Stevenson, and Outside (Continued on Page 8)

Childress Rites For Mrs. Phillips Are Held Monday

Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth Lee (Eli) Phillips of Childress were held at 2 p. m. Monday, Sept. 14, in the First United Methodist Church of Childress.

The Rev. Bailey Phelps, pastor of the Childress First Presbyterian Church of which Mrs. Phillips was a member, conducted the services.

Burial was in the Hulver Cemetery near Estelline.

Mrs. Phillips died suddenly at her home, 1204 Ave. I, NW, at 8:30 a. m. Saturday of an apparent heart attack.

Mrs. Phillips was born in Memphis on Dec. 3, 1910. She married Lester E. Phillips June 2, 1934, in Canyon. They moved to Childress in 1966 from a ranch near Estelline. She was a graduate of West Texas State University and taught school in Lakeview and Estelline.

Survivors include: her husband; one daughter, Mrs. Peggy Mahan of Estelline; her mother, Mrs. Etta B. Anderson of Childress; and three grandchildren, Cindy, Phillip and Michael Mahan.

Pall bearers were L. A. Tucker, Billy Bob Holland, Guy Jones, John Forbis, Carroll Seal, Alex Saied, Dalton Martin and Joe Howard.

Gentle Rainfall Brings Welcome Relief To Area

Hall County was blessed with over two inches of slow, gentle rainfall the first of this week which was the best kind for the drought hardened land.

Reports from all over the county indicate the rainfall was general and gentle with little run-off and deep penetration.

Reports in some areas run as high as two and three-quarters inches while other areas received right at 2 inches. Especially will the rain be beneficial for winter wheat and rye.

ASC Community Committeemen Elected, To Convene Sept. 25

Farmers and ranchers of Hall County have elected a total of 30 ASC community committeemen and alternates in a mail election conducted earlier this month, according to Larry B. Rogers, County Executive Director, Hall County ASCS Office.

ASC community committees assist the County ASC Committee in administering farm programs in Hall County, such as wheat, cotton, peanut acreage allotments, feed grain bases and agricultural conservation cost-sharing measures. They also help keep local producers informed of farm program provisions and regulations.

In addition, the just-elected ASC community committeemen have an important responsibility in the near future in filling vacancies on the County ASC committee and determining the chairman and vice chairman for the coming year, Mr. Rogers said.

The new ASC community committeemen will convene September 25 at 9 a. m. at the Community Building in Memphis in a meeting open to the public. They will elect one County Committeeman to serve a three-year term and two alternates to serve one-year terms. After the vacancies are filled, the community committeemen will determine which of the three regular members of the County ASC Committee will be Chairman and Vice Chairman.

Each of the six ASC community committees are made up of three members and two alternates, who serve for a one-year period.

The candidate in each ASC community who received the largest number of votes is the committee chairman. Second highest is vice chairman; third is regular committee member; fourth and fifth in the number of votes received are first and second alternates.

Following are the newly-elected ASC community committeemen in Hall County, listed in the order of chairman, vice chairman, member, first alternate, and second (Continued on Page 8)

Cub Pack To Have Kickoff Rally Tues.

Cub Scout Pack 35 will have a kickoff rally Tuesday, Sept. 22, at 7:30 p. m. in the Travis School Cafeteria, Cubmaster Jimmy Lindsey announced this week.

Boys who are now 10 years of age are also invited to attend and join the Webelos under the new Webelos leader, Wayne Adams. Webelos is the transition program between Cub Scouts, ages 8 and 9, and Boy Scouts age 11 through 14.

"We are looking forward to having a good Cub Scout program this year and encourage all boys who were Scouts last year and those wishing to join to attend the rally," Cubmaster Lindsey reported.

The Memphis Cub Pack is under sponsorship of the Memphis Rotary Club.

New Petro-degrading Agent Able To Clean Up Every Kind Of Oil Spill

Experimental oil spills on water have been gobbled up in as little as four days by an oil-eating mixture of microbes with nitrogen and phosphorus nutrients, reports "Chemical and Engineering News," the weekly newsmagazine of the American Chemical Society.

"A method of cleaning up oil spills by accelerated microbial biodegradation, in effect 'eating up the oil,' is being developed by Dr. Edward N. Azarowicz of Bioteknika International, Inc., Alexandria, Va.," the magazine says.

"Called Petrodeg, the petroleum-degrading agent contains a mixture of 20 micro organisms—one of marine origin and the rest terrestrial organisms. The agent also contains necessary chemical nutrients for microbial growth, particularly nitrogen and phosphorus compounds.

cleans up every kind of oil tried as little as four days.

"One of the still most widely used methods of combating oil spills is dispersing the slick with chemical dispersants. . . . However, the known toxicity of many chemical dispersants to shellfish is an inhibiting factor, and federal limits have already been set on their use.

"Furthermore, as indicated in recent testimony before Congressional committees, oil droplets dispersed from oil slick may end up as toxic hydrocarbons in edible fish and shellfish tissue. Dr. Max Blumer of Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution in Massachusetts has carried out probably the first major study, using sophisticated analytical methods, of the long-term chemical and biological effects of an ocean spill. He concludes that natural microbial oil degradation in the ocean is very slow. Although oil from a 1969 spill in West Falmouth, Mass., can no longer be seen, Dr. Blumer's chemical analysis reveals oil's persistent presence in bottom sediments and in shellfish. Under natural conditions, straight-chain hydrocarbons are degraded faster than branched chains, and aromatics—potential human carcinogens—are degraded slowest of all."

The idea has occurred to a number of scientists of accelerating natural microbial biodegradation of oil in oceans by spraying oil slicks with enriched "oil-eating" cultures. Such studies are proceeding at Rutgers University, New Brunswick, N. J., and at Florida State University's department of oceanography in Tallahassee, Fla., according to the magazine.

The Bioteknika method may be closer to practical use than other biodegradable methods, since the small, nine-month-old pollution control company plans to hold a test for Coast Guard observers this month and plans start-up of a pilot plant before the end of the year, the magazine points out.

"Questions still remain to be answered about practical application of the Petrodeg method," C&EN continues. "Dr. Azarowicz believes that his microorganisms produce no toxic products, but break the oil down to carbon dioxide and water and form a cell biomass. Preliminary tests are underway to ensure nontoxicity of degradation products.

"Another question is whether a method that works in the laboratory and in protected test beds will also work on massive oil spills in the heavy waves and cold temperatures of open seas. Dr. Azarowicz has found under the microscope that his microorganisms not only operate at the oil-water interface of oil droplets, but apparently also enter into the droplets. He believes that waves and heavy seas would only increase aeration and mixing, actually promoting microbial growth, and microorganisms would stick to or stay inside moving oil droplets.

"In any case, it seems that the first potential application of Petrodeg might be for use in enclosed waters—for example, small spills in harbors—or to clean ship bilge water and tank sludge of oil tankers. In the present undeveloped state of oil cleanup technology, this could by itself be a step forward."

Three Residents From Turkey At Texas Institute

There are three residents of Turkey enrolled in classes at the new Texas State Technical Institute School at Amarillo. These students include:

Tim Salem, son of Tom Salem of Turkey, who is majoring in Commercial Art and Advertising; Calvin D. Thrasher, son of Harold Thrasher of Box 322, Turkey, who is majoring in Farm and Industrial Equipment Mechanics; and Lonnie Russell, son of Mrs. G. E. Russell, Box 172, who is majoring in Airframe Mechanics.

Enrollment at the T.S.T.I. Campus ended September 15 for the first trimester according to Dr. J. N. Baker, T.S.T.I. Vice President and General Manager of the Mid-Continent Campus school. The next trimester at State Tech will begin January 4, 1970.

State Tech became an official part of the Texas educational system last year when authorization was given by the 69th Legislature to purchase portions of the Old Amarillo Air Force Base for use as a Vocational-Technical School.

Purchase of the property (1,500 acres, including building and equipment) was not accomplished until June 27 of this year, at which time work was begun to open classes as of September 1, 1970.

Other courses being offered this trimester (State Tech's school year is divided into three 15-week semesters called trimesters) include Livestock and Ranch Operations, Building Construction Craftsman, Graphic and Design Technology, and Technical Communications.

Paleolithic drawings of archers indicate that bows and arrows are an invention of at least 20,000 years ago.

The whole land is made desolate, because no man layeth it to heart. — Jeremiah 12:11

Although nothing does so much to enhance the beauty of a furniture finish as a fresh waxing, occasionally wash your furniture to remove heavy wax build-up. Wash a section at a time, using a sudsy solution of warm water and a good detergent or soap flakes. Rinse your cloth often and always follow the wood grain with your strokes. After the surface is thoroughly dry, you are ready to re-wax or polish. Do not wash furniture that has been finished only with oil.

Federal Holdback Of Highway Funds Curtails Contracts

AUSTIN—The Texas Highway Commission announced Tuesday the cancellation of the regular December lettings of highway contracts throughout the state.

The Commission blamed the contracting moratorium on the recent holdback of part of the Texas apportionment from the Federal Highway Trust Fund.

The action came at a time when highway construction has been at an all-time high in the State due to favorable weather. For the last two months, pay-out for construction completed by Texas contractors has set new records in dollar volume.

Contractors were paid $42.6 million in July for work completed in June and $46.3 million in August for work completed in July. The payments represented work on 501 contracts in June and 593 contracts in July.

The Federal Aid Highway Act of 1968, as approved by the Congress, provided that the states should receive $5.4 billion for the 1971 fiscal year apportionment from the Highway Trust Fund. This amount was reduced by the Administration to $4.6 billion nationally and resulted in a reduction of the Texas share from $275 million to $210 million, $65 million less than expected.

The Texas Highway Department pay-out contractors in the first fiscal year ranged from a low of $20 million in February (for work done in January) to the all-time high of $46 million for work done in July.

Contracting involving Federal projects has been on a curtailed on-again-off-again basis, due to prior withholdings from the Federal Highway Trust Fund. Monthly lettings since January have ranged from a high of $50.3 million in May to a low of $18.4 million in March, when lack of funds limited the amount of Federal aid projects.

Proceeds in the Federal Highway Trust Fund are derived from special taxes levied on motor vehicle users. The fund was established in 1956 to provide a stable source of revenue for the construction of the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways.

Cancellation of the December bid letting is the first since World War II, Greer said. The Commission Chairman said the reduction has come because the condition of the finances of the Federal Government has required that it borrow money from the Federal Highway Trust Fund for government operation even though the trust fund was established for the specific purpose of building the highway system from highway user revenues.

Greer said that it is most unfortunate that the condition of the finances of the Federal Government has required that they borrow money from the Federal Highway Trust Fund for the operation of the government, when this Trust Fund was established by the National Congress for the specific purpose of building the highway system from highway user revenues.

Greer concluded: "The motor vehicle users of this country, who pay these dedicated taxes, have every right to expect that the Federal Government return to the highway system these revenues, in accordance with the agreements made fourteen years ago."

The announcement was issued as a joint statement by Greer, former State Highway Engineer, and by Commissioners Herbert C. Petry, Jr., of Carrizo Springs and Garrett Morris of Fort Worth, both attorneys.

Oldest known written text is the cuneiform expression of Sumerian speech of about the 4th millennium B.C.

Federal Aid Highway Act of 1968, as approved by Congress, provides that states should receive $5.4 billion for the 1971 fiscal year from the Highway Trust Fund. Amount allocated, however, was reduced by the Administration, Highway Commission Chairman Dewitt Greer said, to $4.6 billion nationally and resulted in a reduction of the Texas share from $275 million to $210 million—$65 million less than was expected.

Hospital Troubles in Texas
State Rep. R. H. "Dick" Cory and House Speaker Gus Mutscher made a trip to Washington seeking better interpretation of recent Social Security regulations which threaten to close 158 of the state's hospitals.

Most are in rural areas and are having extreme difficulty complying with new regulations such as the one requiring them to have registered nurses on duty around the clock. A Texas nursing shortage of 10,000, plus the difficulty of finding nurses willing to live in smaller communities, contribute to the problem.

Hospitals which do not comply with the regulations are in danger of having Medicare payments terminated, which would in turn force them to close their doors. Representative Cory, who is chairman of a special Speaker's Committee on Texas Health Care, noted that Texas, because of sparse population in wide areas of the state, has 40 percent of the nation's Class 7C hospitals.

Another fear of the Committee is that if the small hospitals close their doors many physicians will move away due to lack of hospital facilities.

Immunization Legislation Upcoming

Gov. Preston Smith says he'll ask the 62nd Legislature, which convenes in January, to pass legislation requiring immunization against several communicable diseases before a child may enter Texas schools.

Governor proposes compulsory immunization against measles, polio, whooping cough, tetanus and—in the wake of the epidemic in San Antonio—protection against diphtheria.

Smith said figures available to him for 1968, the latest year for which complete data is available, indicate that Texas has the highest incidence rate in the nation for measles and polio, the second highest for diphtheria and the fourth highest for whooping cough. Tetanus is not an epidemic disease, but a single injection generally immunizes against diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus.

Attorney General Opinions

A non-profit, charitable organization which conducts a driver training program must be licensed to do so by the Texas Department of Public Safety, says Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin. The exceptions are training or classes conducted by colleges, universities, high schools and junior high schools for regularly enrolled students.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that: "A county extend City-County Health Unit services to a city within county boundaries, even though the city does not participate in the unit; however, the county may contribute only those services normally made available by the county unless the city wishes to join the City-County Health Unit."

"Justice of the Peace is not entitled to collect a fee for actions transferred or dismissed without trial from his court."

"Commissioners Court may authorize travel expenses of an expert witness to appear at an HEW Committee hearing in Washington, D. C., to give evidence of the need of federal funds in certain poverty areas in the county. Commissioners Court may also authorize travel expenses for Chairman of a County Historical Society Committee necessary to the performance of his duties in that capacity; and Court has power to create a Museum Board to manage a County Museum and pay travel expenses of the board members in carrying out their duties in those capacities.

"An independent school district has authority under the Texas Education Code to deduct union dues from wages of custodial and maintenance employees upon their written authorization and to forward the deductions to the union."

Appointments

Governor Smith has appointed Richard A. Fielder, Lockhart attorney, as District Attorney of the 22nd Judicial District Court. Arch M. Connolly, M. D., has been named acting Assistant Deputy Commissioner of Mental Health Services for the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation. Connolly has served as superintendent of Rust State Hospital since 1967.

Draft Quota Down

October draft call for Texas is 674—down from 704 in September, says Col. Charles M. Duncan, acting state Selective Service Director.

October quota for pre-induction physical and mental examinations is 4,285, a decrease from 7,171 in September. Texas' induction quota of 674 is the state's share of a national call for 12,000 men for the Army.

Duncan said no man maintaining "a bona fide family relationship with a child or children" and who qualifies for class 3-A will be ordered to report for examination.

Mrs. Alvis Gerlach has returned home this week after visiting in Caddo, Okla., with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Gerlach and Melinda and Wayne, and her daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Ruyke. While there she also visited with her grandson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Skipper Hall and Daniel of Oklahoma City, who were guests in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ruyke, over the Labor Day weekend.

Mrs. Florence Paschall visited in the home of her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bryant of Slaton for the past two weeks. While there, she attended the Lawrence Welk Show in Lubbock.

Senator YARBOROUGH'S REPORT

It may be a shock to many Americans, but the United States is far behind many other nations in this world in getting good health care to the people.

The United States ranks 13th among the nations in infant mortality during the first year of life. We rank seventh among the industrial nations in the percentage of mothers who die in childbirth. In 17 other countries men have a greater life expectancy than do men in this country.

In all these cases and in others, the United States had a better ranking among the nations of the world 15 or 20 years ago. That does not mean that our health care has gone down in the 15 or 20 years, it just means that other nations have improved their health care so much in the past 15 or 20 years, that they have passed us in the average health care for the average person.

There have been many medical breakthroughs during the past two decades, most of them here in America. More new medicines have been discovered. Many new methods of treatment have been developed.

But, the problem here is that we have not been getting this new knowledge and this new medicine out to the people. The medical care that people have received has cost more and more. Hospital costs have gone up in the past few years more than 100 percent faster than the increase in the cost of living. Doctor's fees have gone up 50 percent faster than the average cost of living.

These costs have gone up rapidly and millions of Americans have not had the insurance to cover these costs. In 1968, 102 million people in this country under the age of 65 had no insurance to cover the cost of a visit to a doctor.

As chairman of the Senate Health Subcommittee, I have been studying this question of the health care we have in this country and its high costs, and how shall we meet it and how to have insurance to that a person can go to a doctor when they are sick.

To meet these needs, I have joined with three other Senators,

"Notice how she hugs the road?"

Citizens May Now Make Application To Vote Absentee

Any qualified Texas voter eligible to cast an absentee ballot by mail may now make application to the county clerk for an absentee ballot for the November 3 general election, Ruby Goodnight announced this week.

In order to vote absentee by mail in this election, a voter must: (1) be unable to appear Nov. 3 at the polling place because of sickness or physical disability; (2) expect to be absent from his county of residence on Nov. 3 and during the county clerk's office hours throughout the period of Oct. 14 - Oct. 30, inclusive, Mrs. Goodnight explained.

All applications for absentee ballots must be received in the county clerk's office not later than Oct. 30.

Details as to absentee voting procedure may be obtained from the county clerk. Generally, these provisions apply:

A voter applying for an absentee ballot by reason of sickness or physical disability must mail his application to the county clerk. It should be accompanied by the voter's registration certificate, and by a certificate of a duly licensed physician, chiropractor or accredited Christian Science practitioner certifying to the voter's illness or physical disability.

A voter desiring to vote absentee by reason of absence from the county may either deliver or mail his application for absentee ballot to the county clerk. In the application, the voter must state that he expects to be absent from the county on election day and during the clerk's regular office hours for the entire period of personal appearance absentee voting (Oct. 14 - Oct. 30). The absentee ballot then must be mailed to the voter at an address outside his county of residence. Also, the envelope in which the voter returns the ballot must be postmarked from a point outside his county of residence.

Voter registration in Texas this year hit an all-time high of 4,150,645. On Nov. 3, voters will express their preference in state, district and local races, as well as on seven proposed state constitutional amendments, Mrs. Goodnight stated.

Against Heatly—

Leon Williams Gives Support To Republican Candidate, Zack Fisher

Zack Fisher, Memphis businessman and Republican candidate running against Democrat W. S. (Bill) Heatly of Paducah for State Representative, 80th District, announced last Thursday that Leon Williams of Quana is now supporting him in the race. Rep. Heatly defeated Williams in the Democratic primary.

The announcement was made Thursday in Amarillo, and received coverage on that city's television stations, and in area daily newspapers last Friday.

A copy of the Williams endorsement was received here Friday morning, and excerpts of the release to newspapers of his statement are as follows:

"Today I am announcing my support for Zack Fisher, the Republican candidate for State Representative in District 80.

"I have always been a Democrat and have no intention of changing my party preference. However, my conscience compels me to step forward in Mr. Fisher's behalf because the issue in this campaign are far more important than party labels.

"The power of politics in our district has become a monster that consumes all who oppose the existing organization."

Williams concluded his statement, "I urge all who voted for me in the Democratic Primary to vote for Mr. Fisher in the general election."

Fisher's Statement

In response to Williams' endorsement, Fisher made the following statement:

"I am pleased that Mr. Williams has seen fit to endorse my candidacy for the State Legislature. I think this sheds light on the fact that the race in the 80th District this year is more bipartisan than ever before. I hope Mr. Williams' thinking is representative of the majority of citizens in our district who realize that each candidate should be judged on his own individual merit, and not solely on party affiliation.

"We, as voters, must take a long, hard look at the man and what he stands for. This year, the candidate should be judged on his ability to represent his respective district concerning statewide problems of high taxes, increased welfare rolls, increased crime rates, disrespect for law and public property, drugs, pollution, conservation and other issues vital to the state. He should not be judged solely on his ability to funnel state money into his district, which many times is offset by higher taxes.

"It is encouraging to me to know that lifelong Democrats as well as Republicans are taking the time this year to investigate carefully each candidate for public office before they vote."

CARD OF THANKS

Lakeview Baptists Honor Pianist, Mrs. H. W. Spear

The Lakeview Baptist Church last Sunday morning recognized and honored the church's pianist, Mrs. H. W. Spear, who has served as pianist for the past 42 years.

Mrs. Willie Mae Leggett presented the Honor Day program which was written by Mrs. C. J. Reed for the occasion.

During the program Mrs. Leggett said, "The mark of a beautiful life is an unending tenderness toward God and others. It doesn't seem that so many lives could be touched by one small family, but such is the case in this little village.

"In 1929, a couple with their two little girls moved into the Lakeview Community where they left a deep impression. Only time and eternity will reveal the impact of the influence of your life, faith, and loyalty to God here: Mrs. H. W. Spear.

"To Mr. Spear, we thank you for moving here so Mrs. Spear could serve our Lord so well in the ministry of music, and so this church could be the recipient of so many years of her fruitful service.

"To her pride and joy, her daughters, Pauline and Muriel, we say thank you for coming today to help make her day a pleasant one."

Mrs. Spear has also served the church as Sunday School teacher, President of M. M. U. and in other fields of church work.

"Many pastors have come and gone. No doubt they, like we, will long remember her ministry as pianist, not only for regular services, but for countless hours spent in preparation for Bible Schools, Revivals, Weddings, Graduation Exercises, and presentation of special numbers: quartets, trios, solos, and duets," she said.

The special ceremony was ended with Proverbs 31:31, "give her of the fruit of her hands, and let her own works praise her in the gates."

An all-out war against pollution in all of its forms must be waged, and it must be started in the small, upstream watersheds where the districts are well known and where their supervisors are experienced, have exercised traditional responsibilities, and already have invaluable support and working relations with state and Federal agencies.

YOUR COUNTY AGENT SAYS

Agent Advises on Potting Plants
Late summer is the time to re-pot house plants, but, reminds County Agent W. B. Hooser, soil as it comes from the garden is not usually suitable for the potting job.

He suggests mixing two parts of good garden loam, two parts peat humus or shredded peat moss and one part of sand. Well rotted manure or shredded leaf mold may be substituted for the peat humus, he adds. This type of mixture, he noted, provides the three most needed conditions for potted plants—support, good soil aeration and ability to hold water and plant nutrients.

After the potting mixture is prepared, it should be placed in a shallow pan less than six inches deep, then moistened and placed in a preheated oven at 180 degrees F. for 30 minutes. Clay pots should be thoroughly washed and placed in the oven. This heat treatment will kill disease and insect organisms and weed seed. But, reminds the county agent, don't sterilize plastic pots, just wash them with hot water. Use clean tools and keep the hands clean when doing the potting job or the soil may be reinfested with harmful organisms.

Livestock Should Not Graze Fields, Pastures Treated With Chemicals

Fields treated with most defoliants, dessicants, insecticides and some herbicides should not be grazed by livestock, warned W. B. Hooser county agricultural agent.

Agricultural chemicals, commonly used as herbicides, insecticides, defoliants and dessicants, are necessary for profitable cotton production in Texas. Some of these chemicals are highly toxic to livestock and animal death can occur when treated fields are grazed.

Besides causing direct death to animals, chemical residues from treated fields may contaminate meat and milk and make the subject to seizure under state and federal regulations, advises the county agent.

It is a producer's responsibility to adhere to specific restrictions on grazing fields treated with pesticide or harvest aid chemicals. Follow all label instructions, and if in doubt about grazing restrictions, check with your county agricultural agent before livestock are permitted to graze treated fields.

Donley Co. To Have Crusade For Christ Sept. 20-27

Plans are currently being made and consummated by members of eight Churches in Donley County for the Donley County Crusade for Christ which will be conducted September 20-27 in the Rodeo arena in Clarendon.

William Lowe, Clarendon attorney, is serving as the general chairman in preparation for the crusade. He is being assisted by numerous people from the various churches and denominations included in the Crusade for Christ.

The Evangelist for the Crusade will be Rev. Ed Robb. Rev. Robb committed his life to evangelistic service in 1946 while serving in the U. S. Navy. Later, after completing his education Rev. Robb became a Methodist minister. He served several churches in the Northwest Texas Conference, serving in Midland in 1962.

In 1965 Rev. Robb was appointed evangelist in The Methodist Church, and during the years since that time he has made for himself a name in evangelistic service.

Other members of the Robb team are Dr. Hubert Thomson, veteran minister who serves as Crusade Coordinator and Associate Evangelist; The Rev. Gene Hare and his wife Bobbie, widely known singers; youth evangelist Gene Harper; and the Rev. N. R. Leez, former District Superintendent and now an evangelist to the Mexican-American population.

Carl W. Messer, Former Resident, Is Buried Here

Funeral services for Carl W. Messer, 50, of Phoenix, Ariz., were held at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday, Sept. 15, in the Spicer Funeral Home Chapel. The Rev. Gordon Pace, pastor of the United Pentecostal Church, officiated.

Burial was in Fairview Cemetery under the direction of Spicer Funeral Home with graveside services conducted by the American Legion Simmons-Noel Post.

Carl W. Messer was born Aug. 18, 1920, in Memphis. A salesman with Western Auto Stores in Phoenix, he moved to Phoenix in 1964 from Amarillo. He was a member of the United Pentecostal Church and a veteran of World War II.

Cyclone Travels

Safety backs Larry Moss and Jimmy Phillips.

Offensively, Coach McMurray reported some starting lineup changes also. Ends Donnie Carroll and Larry Jeffers will start in those positions. Tackles will be Junior Kennon and John Orr, Guards Billy Ballew and Glen Miller, and Center Terry Wynn.

Coach McMurray announced one backfield change in the starting lineup. TB Lewis Davis will start at the left tailback slot, with Jimmy Phillips at right tailback, Roger Kehr at fullback and John Carmen at quarterback. "Our offense is looking much improved this week," Coach McMurray said in answer to this editor's question about the team's ability to score against Chilli-cothe.

"Our camp missed Monday's workout outdoors due to rain," he said, "but Tuesday and Wednesday we had much improvement."

"Lewis Davis is helping our running attack and John Carmen, our quarterback, is improving every week and is doing a very commendable job," the coach said.

"John is our quarterback and against White Deer he executed his assignments with fewer mistakes than any other member of the squad," Coach McMurray said. "Technically speaking, we have no one in our entire organization capable of coming into the lineup and executing offensively as well as Carmen."

The Cyclone mentor told local boosters that he feels the Cyclone team is like a powder keg on a short fuse, ready to explode. "The boys have had 12 straight defeats. A victory would jell the squad into a closer unit," the coach said.

"To win," Coach McMurray summarized, "our offense has got to click."

Hall County Picnic Week!

Whether or not the Hall County Picnic brings rain or sun just naturally comes, the third week in September is one of the subjects of speculation here as plans finalize for the week-end celebration set for Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 19-20.

President Carl Hill of Eastlawn reports that the barbecue will begin early Saturday. Plans for the parade and other activities Saturday are progressing. "Give all the ladies in town green pins, cakes, candies or whatever they like," the president said.

Visitors who come to the celebration this year probably will see only a few of the signs of the drought since the slow growth of crops has not been full early in the week and more has been promised.

Whatever the weather will be for the picnic Sunday and the parade Saturday will be in the hands of Mother Nature. In past years, activities of the picnic week-end have continued in between rain showers or during rain showers.

The Hall County Picnic is a celebration in which former residents are invited back to enjoy a free barbecue and visit with friends and get to meet and know the good citizens of Hall County who live here today.

The effect is shared by visitors and business institutions who contribute to picnic expenses. Most of the expense goes for the food for the barbecue that is served at the City Park at 12-30 p.m. on Saturday. Churches have a welcome mat out for Sunday morning services.

The picnic is for all Hall Countyans. The picnic from the Memphis Democrat is provided to help those who want to park their cars in the picnic area. It is located parking in the City Park. Citizens are encouraged to use this service.

A Community Service will be held at the Community Center, Memphis, Sept. 17, 10-11 p.m. with an address by Rev. James H. Beale, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Memphis. The address will be on the subject of "The Role of the Church in a Free Society." The address will be held at 10-11 p.m. at the Community Center, Memphis. The address will be held at 10-11 p.m. at the Community Center, Memphis.

The celebration this year will be honoring the 50th anniversary of the founding of Hall County. If you see a sign that says "Hall County 50th Anniversary" it is a sign of the celebration. The sign is a sign of the celebration. The sign is a sign of the celebration.

NOTICE: We are closed the week of Sept. 20-21. Open as usual Sunday, Sept. 20. We will have a Delicious Sunday Dinner at ODOM'S RESTAURANT. 241 Adams St., Memphis.

What Other Editors Say

The Good Old Days
We constantly hear people talking about the "good old days" and we've been wondering what was so good about them.

What we remember best about the "good old days" was having to get out of bed in the wee hours of the morning, slipping into a cold wooden floor in our bare feet (wooden floors were common) and all the children gathering around the old coal stove in the hearth room. That was the room where the mother kept the only one with a stove.

We also remember fighting the flu and pneumonia in the winter time and the lack of bathroom facilities in the house. What greater pleasures than taking a bath in a No. 10 wash tub? It seemed to me the greatest pleasure of the "good old days" was to have a hot water shower and being able to wash one's hair in the bathroom. The only shower was in the bathroom. The only shower was in the bathroom.

We also remember having to get up in the wee hours of the night. We had to get up in the wee hours of the night. We had to get up in the wee hours of the night.

We really consider those things necessary, but if you wish you can always give them up and go back to the "good old days". But have in here. We like it like it is. —The Sunday Board

Smith Will Win
US News & World Report this week says the White House is optimistic about the chance of Paul Rogers defeating President Smith for governor.

Personally, I think that if the White House is optimistic on this score then it is also foolish. President Smith, although not a political genius, is an accomplished politician and he will win in November. No will Ron Rogers.

The two party system hasn't got a chance in Texas until the Democrats and Republicans realize the situation in the state. They are fighting and warring off. —The Current News

By BYRON BALDWIN

I think they had some intelligent people for judges in Atlantic City for the year of "Miss America" and the way I could see in this year was that it should be "Texas" and sure enough it was Phyllis George of Denison, Texas. This was the first time she had won this honor since 1955. Of course, we are a little biased in thinking everything is larger in Texas. Makes me think of the cartoon I saw the other day with the Texan looking at Niagara Falls and the New Yorker said, "I'll bet you do anything like that in Texas." The Texan replied, "No, we have a plumber in Texas who could stop that."

One week we had a lady give a Rotary program on Brazil she had lived the past two years. The lady seems to me to be about in her early teens, so she graduated MHS in 1963 and was married to a man in 1964. They have a daughter, Victoria, age 5, and a son, Russell, age 2 1/2 years.

This lady is none other than a native Hall County girl, Elaine Clayton, and this program was appreciated by all. Mr. Potter is a petroleum engineer. They will be here until October, and they will depart for Singapore where they will be for a time.

Visiting in Heritage Hall were George Harvey of Van Nuys, Cal.; Jim Smith of Richardson; Mrs. Larry Kelson and Denise of Childress; Mrs. C. A. Court and son Scott of Childress; W. E. Hill of Hedley where he has lived since 1922, moving here from Montague County. I asked him if he ever had any wild rides while cowboying in that area. He said he thought the wildest ride he ever had was where Mr. Finch told him to get in that black car to show him something on the other side of the ranch. They took off and got back alive, but he did not know how they kept from going over in one of those canyons. He remembered the time the lightning struck where the man was running a row-binder killing three mules and knocking this man out. So he and Soapy Tribble saw him lying there and they asked him if he was hurt. He replied, "I swallowed my chewing tobacco."

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Neal had as their guest in Heritage Hall the past Saturday, Mrs. Stella Wallace of Littlefield. She was a former Hall County girl, sister of Ernest and daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Neal who moved to Hall County from Tarrant County in 1907. Mr. Neal drove through in a covered wagon and his wife drove the mules to the hack, which was their transportation. They had to ford Red River at that time as there was no highway bridge. They just located here on the Dick Hutcherson place near Salisbury where their children attended school. Two of their teachers they remembered were the late W. A. Thompson who at one time was county surveyor of Hall County. The other teacher was Mattie Miller, now Mrs. W. D. Orr, who is still living here. Stella Neal married Chas. Wallace and they left here in 1924. They had three daughters, now living. Charles passed away in 1958. The other daughter of W. L. Neal's married Jess Walker and they are living in Littlefield.

Ewel Noel is finally out of the hospital and was here the past weekend but not able to stay for the picnic. He says he has lost time and his middle-age spread, but Fami is working on increasing his appetite with good food. Hope he is soon as good as new.

The Lawrence Welk show was in Fort Worth a few days ago where he had an audience of near ten thousand people. He is greatly loved by our generation. His music has melody that is soothing. He was interviewed by a reporter from one of the Fort Worth papers and would like to quote some of his statement, "Too many of the Americans are living off the wisdom of the past and making fun of those who provided that wisdom. The smartest people are those who built America. I know I am called a 'square' by many for saying that. I don't mind it at all, being called a square." Welk runs his successful musical family without having a contract with a single performer. "Mutual love, brotherhood and sharing of the wealth make the cement that holds the group together," Welk said. He advocates the same guidelines for all enterprises. Too many young people today have it too easy, Welk thinks. They have too much. "Being poor is good for one starting in life. The best assurance of success still is to work hard and keep one's faith in God," he noted.

One of the number in the audience at Fort Worth was a man from Abilene, now a rancher, who in the dirty thirties was manager of the Hilton Hotel, and gave Lawrence Welk help when he needed it and he has not forgotten this. Lawrence is now a millionaire, but he has known lean years. He started out as a farm boy in North Dakota and at one time, he hocked his watch for $75.00 so his hand could eat in Phoenix, Ariz., during the depression. Welk & Co. ended a 14-city tour in Lubbock and the 67-year-old music maker starts his 16th year on network television on Sept. 19. He seems to have love in his heart for his fellowman.

The 20-hour telethon put on by Jerry Lewis for multiple sclerosis which was nation-wide, gave me a different impression of actors and actresses. It proved to me that they have love and compassion for others who are unfortunate. Before this program, I never thought Jerry had a serious thought. With this program along with Billy Graham, Bill Glass and Lawrence Welk, I had thoughts that the world was getting better, and then comes news of an explosion destroying 50 million dollars worth of airplanes that had been hijacked. We will have to keep looking for something else good.

Mr. and Mrs. Arms Hightower and Mrs. Walter Hightower had as their guests in Heritage Hall the past week Mrs. J. R. Snider of Wichita Falls. She was a Hall County girl, Fannie Hightower; also, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Poole of Grapevine. Mrs. Poole was the former Sallie Hightower. They are the daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hightower who were early-day arrivals in the west part of Hall County. They moved to Memphis from their farm about 1916 and lived at the corner of 12th and Bradford. Another sister, Mrs. Sumner Reed, is now living in Lubbock. I believe only two of the boys are now living, Arms of Memphis and Falkner of Pecos. W. C. passed away in 1915 and Mrs. Hightower in 1936. Fannie worked in the Citizens State Bank as secretary for W. B. Quigley and she is the only living person who worked in this bank at that time. Mr. Poole is a retired traveling man (whom we used to call a drummer). He made it about a quarter of a century without highways and he had all kinds of experiences even being hi-jacked. We asked Sallie what she thought of Heritage Hall (quote) "It is very interesting and revives many memories. Most enjoyable to me to see who has lived here and attended school."

I visited a while with a man I guess one of the men who served as a cowboy in Hall County for the longest period of time. He is still carrying on as a cowboy for Mr. and Mrs. John Deaver on the ranch known as the Alex Lyles place. If you do not know Irl Twilla, meet him, as I would call him a typical West Texas cowboy and most of us have retired at his age, but not Irl. He put in much time with the Shoe Bar and Circle ranches. He can remember when the Shoe Bar sold the Circle Ranch to the Ogdens 36-sections and a thousand cows and only one windmill and one tank at that time. I asked Irl if he had ever had any bones broken riding as a cowboy and he replied, "No, but a while back I was trimming the hoof on a horse without a bridle on him and he kicked and broke my ankle bone. But he did not blame the horse as he clipped a tender spot. The Twillas came from Mexico where Clovis is now, but there was no Clovis then. He recalled the first vote he had in Hall County and he voted for a woman. Said this lady came to their camp to electioneer and when election day came, about 29 of the cowboys all went to vote for this lady who was the late Edna Bryan. I think she was about the second woman to hold office in Hall County.

I was out at Hall County Hospital last Saturday and happened to meet two out-of-town, former Hall County girls, Helen Davis James, the daughter of Tracy Davis, who graduated from MHS in 1932, attended Texas Tech and taught in the Brice schools in 1936. She reminded me that she worked for me in the dirty 30's and we both remembered what the salary was and neither one of us could figure how we lived. She is now Mrs. Phillips James and is living in Fort Worth. Janie Fowler, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Fowler of Lakeview. She graduated from Lakeview in 1962 and is a graduate of North Texas State University. She married Gary Young of Turkey and they are now living in Fort Worth. They have one child.

More items have been brought in for Heritage Hall, real coal and schuttle, a stone packer, saw, rubberboard, caster catch for kitchen safe, by the Ault Sims family, and Ault's World War I overcoat worn overseas; baby pictures of the Womack sisters; picture of the 1912 train wreck sent in by Roy Brock of Amarillo; long horns from Mr. and Mrs. Larry Parks of Longview; 100-year-old oak table from Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kilgore.

Heritage Hall will be open Saturday and Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. Hope everyone has a good time at the picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Pate and granddaughters, Kim and Pam Pate, visited in Arlington over the past weekend with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Fowler.

Mrs. Ralph Williams of Tulsa, Okla., spent the past weekend visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. David Kilgore and John and LeAnn of Plainview visited here over the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kilgore.

White Deer Drops Cyclone 36-0 Friday

The White Deer Bucks lived up to their state ranking by downing the visiting Memphis Cyclone Friday night, 36-0, in the season opener for both Class A ballclubs.

The Bucks rolled up five touchdowns, scoring in all four quarters of the contest, and added points to the scoreboard with two point-after-touchdown kicks, a two-point conversion carry and a safety.

The local team, despite a gamine effort on the part of the defensive line, had a hard night of it trying to stop White Deer's 190-lb. fullback, Terry Sargent, halfbacks Jerry Urbanszyk and David Guinn who ran well behind able blocking by Sargent, and quarterback Ricky Hoskins, a 174 pounder.

Guinn scored both the first and second TDs, the first from the two-yard line late in the first quarter, climaxing a 54-yd. drive, and the second from the one-ft. line following a 34-yd. drive early in the second quarter. The Memphis punting team foiled a punt attempt which gave White Deer the ball on the home 34.

Later in the second quarter, the Bucks drove to the Memphis 18, but were set back to the 33 by penalty and attempted a field goal, which was missed.

Memphis took over the ball, and on the next play fumbled and the Bucks recovered to set up their third TD. FB Sargent carried over from the 5-yd. line to make the score 19-0.

White Deer kicked off and Jimmy Phillips returned the ball to the Bucks 46 for Memphis. On the next play, tailback Lewis Davis almost broke loose on a 25-yd. scamper to the Bucks 21. Here however, the Bucks defense stiffened and the ball went over on downs. Memphis made only one first down during the first half.

White Deer received the football and began a drive which ended on the Memphis 10, giving up the ball on downs. The local squad lost ground on three consecutive plays ending with one of the local backs trapped behind the goal-line by White Deer for a safety.

The Bucks were able, with a fine return, and a 25-yd. pass play, one of the three they completed all night, to set up another TD. QB Hoskins carried over from the one and Urbanszyk added two more points.

With the score 29-0, Memphis got its only sustained drive of the evening going as Davis returned the kickoff to the home 38. Then QB John Carmen found FB Roger Kehr open and hit him with a nine-yd. pass to the Bucks 47. On the next play, TB Davis stepped off 12 more yards and another first to the Bucks 35.

In the next series, QB Carmen, found running room and moved to the Bucks 25 and another first down.

The Cyclone offense continued to show spark as TB Phillips added 5 more yards on the next play, and Davis made it third and two on a carry to the 17. Carmen picked up the necessary yardage for another first to the 15.

At this point, carries by Davis netted five yards to the 10, and on the fourth down, Carmen passed complete to FB Kehr who was downed on the 6-yd. line, a yard shy of the needed yardage for a first down.

In the waning minutes of the fourth quarter, the Bucks set up their final score with a long pass from Hoskins to End Pat Hudgins to the home 16. Urbanszyk scored three plays later from the 8-yd. line after shaking off tacklers. Hoskins kicked the PAT for the final point of the evening.

Lew's Davis was the Cyclone's leading ground gainer carrying the ball nine times from scrimmage and making 43 yards for 4.8 yd. average. Mark Hundley carried 7 times for 16 yards for a 2.3 average. Roger Kehr carried four times for 4 yards and caught two passes from QB Carmen for 14 yards. Jimmy Phillips made several kickoff returns for good yardage. From scrimmage he carried six times for five yards. QB Carmen had a net yardage of 1 on 10 attempts.

Although the Bucks offense almost totally dominated the game, the Memphis defensive unit deserves praise for its spirited play during the evening. Offensively, the local team had trouble moving the ball on the Bucks tough defensive unit, until the final stanza.

The bright points of the evening for local fans was the kickoff returns by the local team and the running of junior tailback Lewis Davis.

Coach's Comments

Cyclone Coach Clyde McMurray after viewing the game film said his squad showed steady improvement as the game with White Deer progressed.

"Considering we got beat 36-0," Coach McMurray said, "our defensive unit, especially our defensive line did a commendable job and deserves a favorable comment."

Defensive End Larry Jeffers, a 160-pound junior, has been selected the Cyclone of the Week for his defensive play against White Deer.

"Larry graded very high in the game film on defense," Coach McMurray said, "and we're proud to name him to the Cyclone player of the week."

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sweatt enjoyed having their children home over the weekend. Visiting with them were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sweatt and Leslie of Groom, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Sweatt and family of Saginaw, and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Sweatt and family of Spade. The Kenneth Sweatts also visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moreman while the Wayne Sweatts visited with Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Phillips, who are Mrs. Sweatt's parents.

Memphis Foes Win Five, Lose Four Friday

The Memphis Cyclone has nine remaining games on its 1970 season schedule, and last Friday night, five of these opponents won their openers while four of them were defeated.

As far as Dist 2-A opponents are concerned, Wheeler, Claude and Silverton began the season on winning notes while Clarendon, McLean and Memphis were defeated.

Clarendon stepped out of their class and took a 40 to 13 whipping by the top ranked team in District 2-AA, the Childress Bobcats.

McLean also took a downing by the second ranked team in Dist. 2-AA, their neighbors, the Shamrock Irishmen. Shamrock won by 38 to 8.

Memphis lost 36-0 to a state ranked Class A ballclub the White Deer Bucks.

Silverton picked on Class B Turkey and won the contest 59 to 0. Claude played Happy and won the game 34 to 0. Wheeler defeated Class B Lefors 26 to 14.

Next Friday night, Memphis travels to Chillicothe to meet the Eagles, who last week lost to Frederick, Okla., 32 to 13. Frederick has a good ballclub and is a larger school than Chillicothe.

Other non-district Cyclone opponents include Paducah with a 26-16 victory over Class B Mator; Crowell with an impressive 45 to 19 victory over Quannah of Class AA, and Class AA Wellington who lost 21 to 8 to Hollis, Okla.

Upcoming games have Clarendon hosting White Deer, Claude visiting Groom, McLean visiting Lefors, Wheeler hosting Wellington, Silverton visiting Happy, Paducah at Childress, Memphis at Chillicothe and Crowell at Mator.

1971 FORD LTD—Pictured above is the new Ford LTD, highlighted by this new front end treatment featuring a forward-thrusting center grille section and dual exposed headlights. This LTD two-door Brougham includes a new, standard high back bench seat which eliminates the need for separate headrests. Ford's new side impact protection system, flush door handles, concealed windshield wipers and a new two-tiered, covered instrument panel are standard features of the 1971 Ford.

1971 Ford Lineup To Go On Display Friday, Sept. 18, At Ford Dealers

The Ford Division's 46 models and six car lines for 1971 will be on display Friday, Sept. 18, at the dealers' showrooms across the nation and in Foxhall Motor Co. showroom in Memphis.

The line ranges from the all-new Pinto and hot-selling Maverick in the economy market to the stylish Ford and elegant Thunderbird. And the most completely redesigned Mustang since this car started it all in 1964 will kindle the interest of sporty compact buyers.

"1971 stacks up as nothing but a vintage hardware year for the auto business," says John Naughton, Ford vice president and Ford Division general manager. "Our product line-up not only includes a new entry in the new size for us, but exciting changes in Mustang and Ford as well. This significant investment in new design and engineering changes should add real momentum to recent indications of an upturn in auto sales."

"The action in '71 is bound to be in the small car area," Mr. Naughton says, "and our little Pinto is going to be right in the thick of the donnybrook. Combined with Maverick in both the two-door and new four-door version, we've got a one-two small car punch that gives us the strongest entry in the industry in this increasingly important market."

Maverick is stepping up a notch in size from Pinto, and was introduced in April, 1969, is now nearing the one-half million mark in sales.

Maverick in 1971 offers a four-door model, a Grabber sport sedan and a wider choice of options for dependable family transportation.

The four-door model is seven inches longer than its two-door cousin, blends Maverick economy with the added comfort and convenience of a four-door car. This extra length is between the front and rear tires adding to rear seat head, leg and knee room.

The sporty Grabber sedan first offered as an option in the middle of the 1970 model year, becomes a separate model for 1971. Performance styled features include a charcoal grille, rallye-type road lamps, twin non-functional hood scoops on a specially painted hood, reflective tape stripes, remote control racing mirror and a blackout treatment of the rear lower back panel.

Torino has a revamped lineup of 14 models including two four-door sedans, six two-door hardtops, two four-door hardtops, three station wagons and a convertible for 1971.

A revised two-door Torino series and a new Torino 500 series have been added for 1971 while the Fairlane 500 and Falcon series are discontinued.

To dress up any Torino model, there are 16 exterior colors, up to seven interior trim styles and the racy Cobra SportsRoof offers a more luxurious interior.

Standard engine for all Torino and Torino 500 models is the rugged 250-c.i.d.-1V Six. The 302-c.i.d.-2V V-8 is standard in the GT, Brougham and Squire models and the 351-c.i.d.-4V V-8 is the standard powerplant on the Cobra.

Mustang "Torino won the styling awards in 1970, but we're looking to Mustang as the pacesetter in styling for '71," says Mr. Naughton. "The 1971 Mustang is the most changed since the original model six years ago. It has a sports car feel air) five versions of the popular 351-c.i.d. Cleveland engine and a 302-c.i.d.-2V, the base V-8.

The 1971 Mustang is as new on the inside as it is outside.

Ford New styling that gives the 1971 Ford even more of the luxury car look than the popular 1970 models highlights the 11 sedans and hardtops, seven station wagons and a convertible.

A brand new sedan-hardtop, offering the best features of both models, has been added to the LTD and LTD Brougham series.

The SportsRoof body style has been discontinued and the convertible becomes an LTD model in '71, thereby eliminating the XL designation.

"The big Ford should continue to gain in share of the standard size market with the significant improvements in looks, ride and quietness we have made for '71," Mr. Naughton stated.

Smoother sculptured lines that create a more formal overall look are exterior design features. New high and low series grilles, ventless side windows on all models, concealed windshield wipers, new taillight design and three new roof designs are the major exterior changes.

Mustang has hardtops, SportsRoofs and convertibles. Among the features most responsible for Mustang's totally new contemporary appearance are the unique "flat roof" of the SportsRoof models and the distinctive "tunnel backlite" of the high-fashion hardtop.

Mustang's look of performance is backed by nine powerplants that say "go". New base engine for all Mustang models but the Mach I and Boss 351 is the peppy 250-c.i.d.-1V Six. Optional engines include two new 429-c.i.d.-4V powerplants (one with ram and a European flavor that's sure to be an eye-catcher wherever it goes."

Thunderbird has been at the top of the personal luxury car sales list since the four-passenger model was introduced in 1958," Mr. Naughton says. "We feel the design and engineering improvements of the new model will keep it up there again in 1971."

Mr. Bill Combs, Editor
The Memphis Democrat
Memphis, Texas 38105

Dear Bill:

Once again, on behalf of all our boys and staff, thank you for the 26th annual Boys Ranch Rodeo. With approximately 10,000 people at the two performances over the Labor Day weekend, this was one of the most successful rodeos the boys have ever put on and you folks certainly deserve much of the credit for this interest that was shown by so many in the boys.

Nearly 200 boys appeared as contestants in the rodeo and each one gave all he could to show his appreciation for the home he has and the many opportunities he has found at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch. Without the interest you have shown in our boys, not only at rodeo time but throughout the year, their home would not be possible, and each youngster and staff member is most grateful to you. If you did not attend the rodeo this year, I do hope you will come to the Ranch at the first opportunity so that the boys can thank you yourselves. With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Herschel Combs was in Wellington Sunday to attend a birthday party honoring her mother, Mrs. L. A. Dickey, and Mrs. Dickey's twin sister, Mrs. L. W. McClure.

The home has been the subject of poets and songsters for ages, and the words to such songs as "Home Sweet Home" bring wistful memories to those old enough to remember them.

But to those in the fields of public health and safety, "Home Sweet Home" is a place where accidents occur all too often, says the Texas State Department of Health.

One of the big home hazards of today is in the field of poisonings. More than a half-million children will swallow poison this year in the United States and 90 per cent of all cases reported will involve children under the age of five.

Children are the greatest victims of accidental poisoning because of their inquisitive nature. Closets and cupboards are great places to hide and investigate. A child will taste, bite and swallow anything he can reach, and teething time calls for chewing on furniture, toys and window sills.

Not only children but adults, too, are subject to poisoning.

Take a look around your home and what do you find? You normally think of insecticides, rat killers and some rug cleaners as poison. But do you realize that many of the time saving and labor saving substances under your kitchen sink, in your bathroom, in your garage and in your workshop or basement can be deadly? Your medicine closet is particularly dangerous.

The kitchen is perhaps the biggest threat. The oven cleaner, drain cleaner, bleach, dishwashing compounds and furniture polishes are every-day household products which may make your home more attractive and lighten your work load. But they can be deadly if misused.

In the garage or attics, many of us store paint remover, paint thinner, kerosene and other solvents and cleaners. Although essential in home maintenance, these products can cause injury or death when accidentally taken by a child. Some are extremely harmful.

Medicine cabinets contain liquids and pills which are modern miracles when taken as prescribed. But the same medicinal preparations that cure when taken as prescribed can kill or make a child deathly ill.

To help poison proof your home, there are some steps you can take. 1. Store all medicines and household products in locked cabinets; 2. Clean out medicine cabinets regularly; 3. Don't put hazardous objects in soft drink bottles but keep them in their containers; 4. Don't leave any medicines, cleaning compounds, insecticides or fuel oils where children can get to them; 5. Don't use lead-based paints on toys or furniture.

"Safety First" is more than just a slogan when applied to your home, which can be a booby-trap unless precautions are taken in advance.

Hall Co. Ahead Power In Buying

NEW YORK—Hall County proved to be a stronger market than most during the past year, according to a national survey of business, just released.

Its relative strength was manifested in the rising level of family income in the area and in the amount of consumer spending in local retail stores.

The figures bearing this out are contained in the new, copyrighted "Survey of Buying Power," issued by Sales Management, the marketing publication. It presents comparable data on income and spending for communities in all parts of the country.

In Hall County, it shows, the amount of disposable money in the hands of local residents was above average.

Total net income locally, after payment of personal taxes, came to $14,094,000, as against the previous $13,796,000.

Just what this was equivalent to, on a per-family basis, was determined by dividing the income figure by the number of local households. It averaged out, per household, to $6,406. The year before it was $5,998.

Despite the effects of inflation, which cut into the purchasing power of people in all sections of the country, local residents still had a greater amount than usual left for discretionary spending.

And, although many consumers were more hesitant than at other times in their purchasing, because of their concern over the war in Vietnam and the threat of a recession, they did spend freely enough to give local merchants a good year.

As a result, Hall County stores were able to chalk up gross sales of $9,608,000.

Because local consumers did not spend as much as they were capable of, more of their money went into savings and into a reduction of their outstanding indebtedness.

Consequently, there is now more cash in their bank accounts and in their other reserves, ready and waiting to be used when they feel the time is right.

A University of Michigan poll shows that that time will come when uncertainties over the national economy, inflation, taxes, high interest rates and jobs begin to disappear.

Economist Says Marketing Is Key To Farm Survival

COLLEGE STATION — The market is the basis of survival in the "farming game," and many farmers are becoming increasingly aware of this fact.

"Farmers are becoming much more attention to the market," more attention to the market," Dr. William E. Black, Extension agricultural economist, says. "They are realizing that the market can't be ignored if they are to stay in farming."

"They are realizing too that agriculture is marked not by a scarcity of goods, but rather by a scarcity of markets."

As a result of this realization, some farmers see agriculture gaining more by being oriented outward toward the market, instead of inward toward the commodity, he said. The purpose of agriculture must be to satisfy people, not to produce endless piles of food and fibers, he added.

Dr. Black noted that there are several reasons why marketing is getting much more attention and interest from producers.

"Producers are finding that only through marketing are they able to measure the real worth of their effort," he said. "Gone are the days when the farmer considered his success during a growing season by the fullness of the grainery or barn at the end of the year.

"The real measure of success, now, is how much money was put in the bank and how much of this money was in excess of costs."

Through marketing, farmers are converting from bushels, tons and bales to dollars, Dr. Black said.

There is also no longer a clear delineation between production and marketing as there was in the past, Dr. Black added. Today, marketing and production are entwined into one large complex, and in this complex, marketing controls production rather than production controlling marketing, he said.

"The farmer's most important asset in 1980 will be a market ahead of time for what he is going to produce, and if a man has a market arrangement, he will be more likely to secure necessary finances to farm," Dr. Black said. "Farming is becoming a 'residual activity'. It is something that will be done after obtaining a market and financing."

A third reason is that farmers are realizing that marketing is also a profit generator, he said, adding that marketing is an economic activity just as farming and with higher returns.

"How well a farmer farms determines the amount he will produce, and how well he markets his products determines his income," Dr. Black said. "Money invested in marketing returns three times as much as that invested in farming, so many farmers are investing a little less in the farming enterprise in order to invest a little more in marketing."

Simply, those farmers who obtain money from both farming and marketing are better off than those who earn money from only farming, he said.

"As we look down the road, we

OUR COUNTY AGENT SAYS

Brush Control

In order to get the most benefit from brush control, livestock producers should follow the control practice with a deferred grazing and proper stocking program.

Deferred grazing following a brush control operation is a must, reports County Agent W. B. Hooser. In fact, he adds, without a followup with other good range management practices, the money spent for brush control might have been better spent for supplemental feed.

It's a good idea to include an entire pasture in the brush control operation rather than a part. The reasoning is that livestock will concentrate their grazing in the areas where brush has been controlled, since the grass on controlled areas will be more nutritious and palatable. Soon the controlled areas will become badly overgrazed. If the entire pasture cannot be treated, it should be deferred following control measures.

Benefits from brush control amount to much more than increased grass production. These include the ease of working and caring for live stock; increased offspring numbers; lessening of parasite problems; increased food and cover for wildlife and often see more farmers joining together into marketing organizations," Dr. Black said. "These are in the form of cooperatives and other corporate organizations. However, this type of group action is available to the producer as long as he owns what he produces."

"When he no longer owns what is produced, his only alternative is to become part of a bargaining association in order to get better returns for his labor and capital investments. These too, will become more prominent."

the number of breeding males in the herd can be reduced.

Deferring the treated area for one growing season will give desirable plants a chance to come back if a seed source is available; otherwise, reseeding may be necessary.

The county agent said several Extension Publications are available at his office on brush control and followup practices as well as publications on many other range management subjects.

Faith of the Pioneers

During the past reunions of the Hall County Pioneers, it seemed that the favorite pastime was one of relating the early day experiences. Some of those tales were of hardship and sacrifice; some of friendship, love and great devotion; and some were funny or sad. However, the one thing that seemed to hold true with all of the stories, was the fact that these pioneers had two great qualities — FAITH AND HOPE.

When they came here they had few material possessions, little money, but great FAITH in the future and lots of HOPE that their coming here was not a mistake.

There was a FAITH that enabled them to dare to dream, to believe, to adventure. Their FAITH was the foundation of their friendship with one another regardless of their background. Their FAITH created ideals and aspirations that enabled them to keep on believing regardless of the hardships they endured. FAITH was the power that gave them strength to live in their new world and, yet, look to the future of this generation and to those to come. Yes, they brought with them this great gift that gave this County its start — FAITH in themselves, FAITH in their fellowman, and most of all FAITH in their GOD.

They also brought and gave to us HOPE. HOPE is also a quality which abides and is more than mere wishful dreaming of idle dreams. Their hope was based on certain truths, certain expectations, and certain beliefs which they knew were eternal. They could laugh, sing, and cry all at the same time for they knew that behind every cloud there was sunshine, and each disappointment would bring a better day. When something went wrong, they did not stand around wringing their hands woefully saying "There is nothing we can do about it." They did not have time for such idle chatter—they got busy and tried to right the wrong. They felt that time was precious and every day must be spent in building what they HOPED would be a fine place to live.

We point with pride to the growth and improvements of our County, but without the Faith and Hope of our pioneers, our surroundings might have been much less attractive or progressive. We thank you for giving us these two great gifts and we pray that in the future when the 150th celebration is held, our children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren can look back and say the same of us.

We hope that you enjoy your stay here and want you to know that we welcome each and everyone. Come by and see us while you are here.

It may have been slow hitchhiking that landed Bill Heatly in the Texas Legislature.

It may have been an angry letter to a college president, or perhaps just a friendly question a stranger at a lunch counter. However he came to be in the legislature, the country lawyer in Paducah, who would rather be a country lawyer than anything he can think of, has been recognized as one of the leaders of the legislature for most of the years since he was first elected. He is completing his fifth term as chairman of the House Appropriations Committee. Never before had anyone held the chairmanship more than three terms, but then Bill Heatly has a way of getting things done.

Appointments to the appropriations committee generally go to veteran members of the legislature but Heatly was appointed in his freshman year. Except for the 1961-62 term he has been on the appropriations committee since. In his second term, he was chairman of the State Affairs Committee, the most important policy-making group in the House. This is another appointment generally reserved for an old hand.

When the legislature created the Legislative Audit Committee in 1959, Heatly was named to that committee and has been a member since, except for the 1961-62 term. This committee is made up of the lieutenant governor, speaker of the House, two senators and two representatives. It is authorized to check on expenditures of all state agencies to determine whether the intent of the legislature is being followed in daily operations.

How did the country lawyer come so quickly to such prominence?

Perhaps it was because of a decision he made when he was first elected in 1954.

"I felt that to serve my district best it was vital that I become involved in the larger issues of state government and that I become acquainted with the broader state problems and try to help to solve them," he says.

But, about that hitchhiking. That was along in September of 1931 and young Heatly (W. S., Jr.) had set out from the family farm in Limestone County—east of Waco—to go to Lubbock to enroll in Texas Tech. Not that he could afford to go to college but he had a promise of sorts from Pete Cawthon, then head football coach at Tech.

In the spring of 1930 one of the first coaching clinics in the nation was held at Texas Tech, and the coach at Mart took Heatly along as one of the players. (The fall before, Bill had quarterbacked the Mart High School team to 15 straight victories and a regional championship.)

"If you can get here, come to school this fall," Cawthon said.

It was 15 months later that Bill decided to go to Tech.

"I packed my clothes in a 'please don't rain' suitcase and started hitchhiking to Lubbock. The first day I got as far as Deatur. I got a room at the hotel for 75 cents and went down to the coffee shop and ordered the merchants lunch for 25 cents.

"A man sat down beside me and asked if I had come to Deatur to go to college.

"What College?" I asked.

"Deatur Baptist College," replied the stranger, who was the football coach at the college.

Heatly attended Deatur Baptist College and was quarterback of the football team. Then he moved to Baylor University where he was graduated from law school in 1936.

The confrontation with a college president was at Baylor when Heatly turned up with no money for his final year of law school.

Enrollment procedures called for a student having his enrollment card stamped by the cashier before he signed up for classes, unless the card was signed by the president of the college.

Heatly went to see the president, Pat Neff, former governor of Texas.

"Why don't your parents mortgage the farm and raise the money so you can finish college," Neff asked.

Heatly was infuriated.

"If that's the way it is, I can go back to that cultivator I left when I came here," he said.

Then he added:

"But if I can stay in school nine more months—and do 12 months work, which I am eligible to do—I will have the same initials after your name that you have after yours."

Today, Heatly says that it seemed like 10 minutes that the former governor sat and looked at him. Then he signed the card.

Heatly graduated the next spring. He had completed a six-year course in five years.

He was employed as an attorney in Dallas and Beaumont and then opened his law office in Wichita Falls, where he also was in the oil business, operating a drilling rig.

It was in Wichita Falls that he married Jonnie Green Hawkins.

In 1947, Mr. and Mrs. Heatly and their two older boys moved to Paducah. The younger son is a native of Paducah. The older boys, Gene and Bill, are now practicing attorneys. Gene is county attorney at Vernon and Bill is associated with his father in the law office in Paducah. The younger son, William Stanford Heatly III, known as Stan, is a business student at the University of Texas.

There are now four grandchildren, two boys and two girls.

In 1954, Heatly ran for the legislature and was elected. The 80th District then had four counties. After redistricting next year it will be even bigger.

The most influential member of the Texas legislature enjoys being a country lawyer and intends to go on being a country lawyer.

"The country lawyer is like the family physician—he takes care of whatever comes along," Heatly says.

"He serves as a marriage counselor and a domestic relations counselor. He is a financial adviser.

"He discourages divorce but if the marriage cannot be salvaged, he handles the divorce proceedings.

"He practices adoption law.

"He draws wills and handles estate matters. He writes deeds and contracts.

"He is involved in every phase of life."

But Bill Heatly is involved in other ways, too. Since his arrival in Paducah, he has been city attorney, member of the executive board of the Northwest Texas Area of the Boy Scouts, president of the Lions Club, member of the Knights of Pythias Lodge, charter member of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, chairman of the Board of Elders of the First Christian Church and chairman of the church's building committee.

He owns an abstract business and runs about 300 cows in a ranching operation in Dickens and Cottle counties.

If he had a hobby it is helping young people to find part-time jobs so they can further their education.

If he has a pet area of legislation, and he does, it is helping the mentally ill, the mentally retarded, the disabled, and the aged.

"These people are not organized into political pressure groups and they have no paid lobbyists to present their cause. Someone has to look after their interests," Heatly says.

One of his colleagues in the House describes Heatly as "a formidable opponent, a valuable ally."

Those who agree with him and those who disagree are all in agreement on one point: no one in the Texas legislature works harder than Bill Heatly.
