Cyclone Travels Friday To Contest Skyrockets

Friday night at Powell Stadium in Wellington, the Memphis Cyclone and the Wellington Skyrockets will continue their annual gridiron battle, however this time it will be a non-district affair.

Spawning an era of football possibly as long as the two towns have had football teams, the Wellington-Memphis game is one of those neighborhood affairs which always brings out the best effort in the winner and the bitterest of tastes for the loser.

The 1970 contest promises no different, except Memphis takes into the contest a 2-1 mark and Wellington has a 0-3 record. Possibly, the local team will be just slightly favored at opening kickoff but in a game of their type between neighboring teams, predictions of a possible winner are often unreliable.

Although the Skyrockets of Coach Thayne Amonett this season have lost two outstanding ball players due to the Robinson twins moving away, and have some injured players, the Skyrockets are a big, hard hitting team, and can be expected to play their best against Memphis.

Wellington holds a big edge in the winning column over the years, especially in games played at Powell field.

The Rockets, "Big Red" as they are called, are led by QB Bobby Saied, 150 lbs., as the man under who leads the passing attack and has the ball off to big Teddy McLain, 175-lbs. of hard running fullback. McLain is also one of Wellington's linebackers and a leader on defense.

Rounding out the fullhouse backfield are No. 22 Mark Killian, 155, a halfback, and No. 2 Jackie Pendleton, 135, the other halfback.

The Cyclone camp of Coach Clyde McMurray after the 30 to 7 victory over Paducah last Friday has been having workouts described as enthusiastic, with morale good.

This was the announcement by Bill Hall, chairman of the retailers committee of the Chamber of Commerce, which met Monday afternoon to make final plans for the event.

Cooperating merchants who are going "all out" for this promotion are listed in an advertisement appearing in this issue of The Democrat. Other business firms have indicated that they will join in the special day's events.

"Our first Sidewalk Sale, held May 16, was a definite success from every standpoint," Hall said. "The customers seemed to have a good time, and clerks and owners enjoyed the contact in the unusual atmosphere of the sidewalk."

5th Boll Weevil Spraying To Be Made Oct. 1

The fifth spraying in the overall effort in Hall County to combat boll weevils is being made today, according to an announcement by Harold Hodges, president of the Hall County Insect Control Association.

Plans call for two more applications of the poison to be made this year, Hodges said. Inspections of cotton fields show heavy infestation of boll weevils, according to reports made by entomologists who are regularly checking for damage of the insects.

Cost of the spraying is being paid for jointly by the farmers of the county and the State of Texas, Hodges explained.

"We have been informed that the fund appropriated for the state's part in the diapause control measure is still in good shape," he added.

Junior Gridiron Teams To See Action Tonight, Split Games With Quannah

The Memphis junior football teams will see action tonight, as the Memphis J-V's joined by the Memphis freshmen, travel to Wellington for a game over there at 7:30 p. m.

The Memphis 7th grade will be hosting Wellington's 7th graders at 6 p. m. and the Memphis 8th graders will field two teams and play double headers with Wellington 8th graders here at 7 p. m. and with Clarendon 8th graders at Clarendon at 7:30 p. m.

Coach George Berry said the 8th grade team playing Clarendon will be engaged in a district contest as the class A District is having a Junior High District conference this year.

"From what I understand, the Clarendon team has a real tough 8th grade squad with big running backs," Coach Berry said. Last week, the four junior teams split games with Quannah. Here at Memphis last Thursday, the J-V's, despite a good effort, lost a contest 26 to 18 to Quannah. Tommy Johnson scored two touchdowns and QB Mike Browning made one.

In the freshman game, despite a good second half effort, Quannah won the contest 33 to 20. The scoring for Memphis were made by Jim Dixon, 2; and QB Bobby Hall, one. Mark Bradshaw scored the two-point conversion.

The Memphis 7th and 8th graders won both games at Quannah by holding their opponents scoreless while each local squad scored two touchdowns.

For the 8th graders, Jimmy Melton scored one touchdown, and Don Davis made the other in a 12-0 victory.

Charles Bryley of the Memphis 7th grade, scored a TD and a 2-point conversion. Joe Reyes made a two-point conversion and End Glen Johnson caught a TD toss from QB Ricky Miller for

Think About Your Kids!

A young lady, participating in a campus protest gathering, carried a sign different in meaning and thought to other signs present, but it brings dawning to one of the needs of today, yesterday, and tomorrow.

The sign simply said, "Think About Your Kids." A picture of this sign appears on the front cover of "The Rotarian," October, 1970, a special issue of the International Magazine which covers the topic World Campus: Conflict and Challenge.

The Rotary Clubs throughout the free world, like the Lions Clubs, Kiwanis, and Jaycees and many others, sponsor all kinds of youth programs, youth camps, Scouts, youth entertainment and recreation facilities, and sponsor elaborate international student exchange programs.

Rotary International, with its world wide scope, has been collecting information concerning student unrest around the world and tried to bring this issue into focus in this magazine.

The articles used brought many ideas on both sides of the issue into perspective. The United States appears now to be the leading nation of student unrest. Campus bombings like the ruins of a research center on the campus of the University of Wisconsin, is one example. Not only this scene in the United States, but almost every area of the globe where higher education is practiced are the fires of unrest burning.

Violence is, of course, unthinkable in an intellectual atmosphere like a university. Many university officials have always been proud of the fact that it could solve its own problems in its own community without using police, for example, and the thought that soldiers would be called onto the campus of an institution of higher learning to solve an internal problem was beyond imagination in past years.

Thus a sanctuary was created on campuses where militant groups could practice without fear of legal reprisals.

In the U. S. A., racial problems and the war in Vietnam were much more of a factor than the student uprising in Paris or Rome, where students primarily protested the lack of space and the out-dated rules and regulations of schools built for the elite of a century ago.

From the rather mild sit-ins of a few short years ago, to the showing of weapons on the campus—as at Cornell; to physical violence and the destruction of university property—as in the case of computers in Montreal and San Mateo, and the burning of a bank near Santa Barbara (not to mention the total destruction of the life work of a professor at Stanford); to the fire bombing and building destruction of the kind that characterized today's U. of Wisconsin tragedy, the list grows.

Who's winning? It's hard to say. It is sobering, however, to note that student activities closed more than one-third of the universities in the U.S.A. in the Spring of 1970. Alumni contributions have decreased, corporate support for universities wavered, and many U. S. legislatures sharply reduced university budgets. These are victories to those who would destroy one of the essential organs of any free society—the process of higher education.

Student unrest is not a new thing. The assassination in 1914 of Archduke Francis Ferdinand in Sarajevo by a Bosnian student ignited the fuse which fired World War I. Surely Socrates was one of the first "faculty" members to encourage his "students" to defy the "establishment"!

The central theme of it all concerns the future. Youth of today have an uneasy feeling about their own future. Adults recognize the problems of the world, of the age, and increase the fears of their young. Instant communication from trouble spots brings these problems home with stark reality. Moral values are hard to find in many situations and solutions to serious problems seem remote due to the complexity.

Youth reach physical maturity before society establishes adulthood. Intellectual abilities are developed in school, sometimes at the expense of the student's emotional development. "Very bright as they often are, emotionally some of them remained fixated at the age of the temper tantrum..." Dr. Bruno Bettelheim, Professor of Psychology and Psychiatry of University of Chicago, writes.

University students, taught by television, papers graded by mechanical systems, with professors unapproachable, the student thinks of himself as a number on a computer card. To succeed in this atmosphere, a student isn't prepared for the self-discipline required.

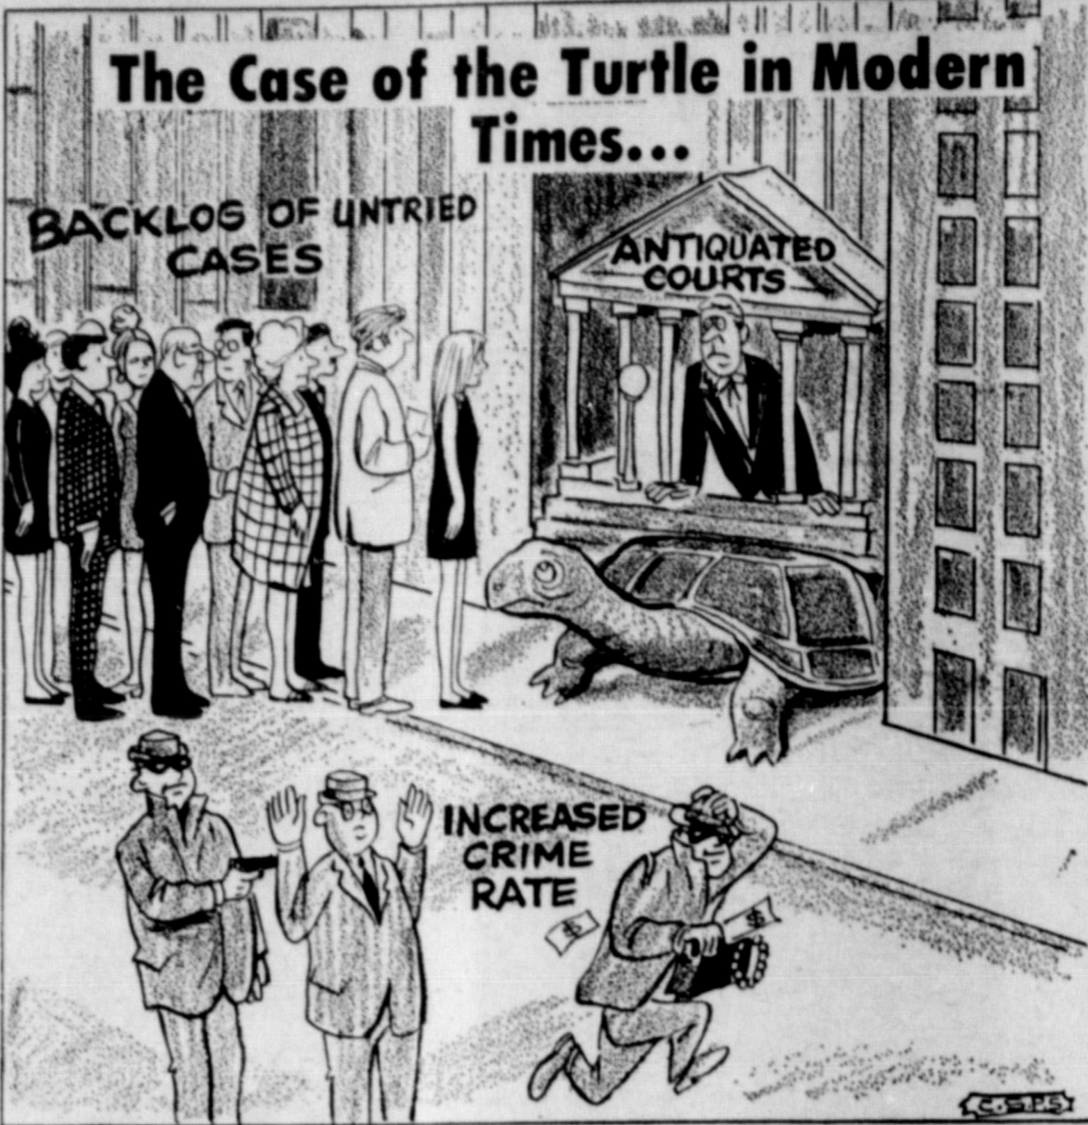

Without intellectual success, students blame the system, the establishment, and have deep rooted fear of the future. The young generation must have a reasonable chance to live, to work out their destiny in peace and decency.

Modern parents must prepare their children for the modern world. If the family unit breaks down our youth will miss the parental guidance needed to cope with the problems confronting young people today and tomorrow.

The future belongs to the young. One young lady on her sign advises: "Think About Your Kids!"

Statements Can Distort!

Cleverest falsehood of the season is Charlie Shuman's claim that the government is depressing the price of corn. Statements of this nature... and distort the truth. They illustrate why we are forced to doubt the sincerity of Shuman, and of the American Farm Bureau Federation and its close friends in the food industry.

Any ten-year-old child could tell you that grain placed in storage under government loan must someday come out of storage. It is smart business to get this hold-over grain back into the stream of commerce when prices are up. Shuman claims again should be held for 150 percent of support price. What he wants to do is to hold it, period. Then, as under Ezra Taft Benson, the surplus becomes so burdensome that storage costs are a million dollars daily, the public is outraged at all farm programs, and the threat of that surplus becomes a permanent ceiling over the price of grain.

The long-term, general effect of the Commodity Credit Corporation loan program has been to support grain prices when they would otherwise have gone lower. This is why the manipulators of the Chicago Board of Trade hate the CCC. This is why the processors and packers of farm products hate the CCC. And this is why Charlie Shuman and the Farm Bureau hate the CCC.

If loading out some millions of bushels of corn may have held the market back several cents for a few days, it has now been absorbed and the price is friver to rise to levels reflecting the very serious damage by blight to the 1970 crop.

If you farm or own a farm, Commodity Credit is the best friend you have had during your lifetime, and don't you forget it! —The Maroa (Ill.) Prairie Post

The Constitution No other single piece of paper is as valuable to an American as the U. S. Constitution.

All other papers, personal or business, pale beside the significance of the U. S. Constitution which is some 7,600 words organized in a nation, united a people, guaranteed individual freedoms, framed a political government whose powers were limited to assure the liberty of its citizens, and provided in broad terms the necessary avenues to adapting a nation's growth and changes for decades to come.

There are the historians who maintain that the men who drew up the U. S. Constitution must have been divinely inspired because no other similar document in the history of the world has stood the test of time in maintaining the model freedoms of a people that are the envy of the rest of the world.

The U. S. Supreme Court, under the guidance of former Chief Justice Earl Warren, has corrupted the Constitution to some degree, interpreting its provisions in a manner of the court's own choosing, seeing the court in the role of an agent "to implement social justice," but court decisions are changed and the present court is locked on a path toward its true role of interpreting the Constitution, not amending it as the court sees fit.

The U. S. Constitution was adopted in 1787, some years after the war of independence from England was won. The Constitution took the place of the Articles of Confederation which had a lot of defects.

The framers of the Constitution wanted to grant the several states equality in the Congress and decided that the fair way to do it was to allow representation both on the basis of population (House of Representatives) and in order that the smaller states not be overpowered, set up the Senate with two Senators from each state regardless of size.

The Constitution prohibits the taxing of exports and has other taxing safeguards because these men could force the time when the federal government would become a greedy tax collector, taking all and leaving nothing for the states. They could not force the income tax amendment being passed in 1913 which allowed Congress to levy income taxes which today overshadow all other tax collection methods.

The first ten amendments to the Constitution are the Bill of Rights which guarantee the individual citizen the right to bear arms, to worship as he pleases, to be secure in his house against search and seizure, to be tried by a jury of his peers, to have his property safe from government confiscation without proper compensation, and other individual rights which make America the land of the free.

"The U. S. Constitution is the most wonderful work ever struck off at a given time by the brain and purpose of man," said English jurist William Gladstone. No one could have said it better. —The Perryton Herald

LETTERS

To The Editor

8331 Cabrera Dr. Dallas, Texas 75228

Dear Mr. Combs: We wish to express our appreciation for the recent publication concerning the Prisoners of War in Southeast Asia, and my daughter's request for "Letters to Ed," her husband, who is a prisoner of war, there. We are so grateful to all who wrote letters. We believe the response has been wonderful, from individuals, churches, offices, clubs and etc. We anxiously await the results and pray for a letter from Edwin.

Please keep up the publicity and urge that letters be sent to the President, Vice President, and members of Congress. The P.O.W. mistreatment must be kept uppermost in the minds of our leaders. The force of American public opinion and that of the free world, is necessary in the struggle to save our sons. Flood Hanoi and the Delegation at Paris with strongly worded letters of protest, if it has to be letters instead of bombs.

I am enclosing a narticle which you may use or publish, in an appeal for letters for better treatment and an exchange or release of our sons who are prisoners.

A&M Demonstration Lecture Featuring Atomic Energy To Be Given Here Soon

COLLEGE STATION—A demonstration lecture on atomic energy and its uses will be presented Oct. 8 at Memphis High School. Titled "This Atomic World," the program will acquaint Memphis students with basic principles of nuclear energy, its sources and role in agriculture, industry, medicine and research. The presentation to be conducted by Harold L. Watson is part of the Atomic Energy Commission's traveling educational program. Using student terms, Watson will explain structure of atoms, operation of nuclear reactors and concepts such as radiation, fission and fusion. Special equipment will be used to demonstrate sources of radiation and how nuclear energy is harnessed to generate electricity. Use of radioisotopes to aid in diagnosis and treatment of diseases and to learn more about life processes also will be graphically portrayed. A chalkboard talk to Memphis High science classes will go into more specific detail on such topics as atomic structure, radioactivity, radiation biology and nuclear science careers. The program will be presented by Texas A&M University in cooperation with Oak Ridge Associated Universities, a non-profit educational and research corporation of Southern colleges and universities. Watson trained with the AEC and ORAU at Oak Ridge, Tenn. He holds degrees from Arkansas A&M and Texas A&M.

Artists' Studio Members Attend Amarillo Meet

Several Artists' Studio members were in Amarillo Tuesday evening, Sept. 29, to attend a painting demonstration given by Lloyd V. Cook. This event was sponsored by Artists' Studio of Amarillo and was held in the Southwestern Public Service Building. Mr. Cook, a prominent Amarillo commercial artist and watercolorist, gave an interesting and informative demonstration of painting a floral in the medium of oil. In the course of an hour, Mr. Cook brought the painting from a rough brush layout to a semi-finished position, explaining his palette and his approach to painting this particular subject. A very attractive painting resulted. Members of the Memphis chapter in attendance at the demonstration included Martha Pearl Salmon of Brice, Ola Mae Ward Zettie Baker, Nat Scott and Dorothy Morris. Visitors over the weekend in the homes of Mrs. Emma Baskerville and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gresham were T-Sgt. Charles E. Champion and Sgt. Tom Manfield of Fort Riley, Kans., and Mrs. Jack Allen of Amarillo.

Preston Smith has announced. Heatly, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, will join Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes as legislative spokesman on a panel concerning Texas' Competitive Position on financing new industry. More than 1,000 leading businessmen from throughout the state are expected to attend the annual event at Austin's Municipal Auditorium. Gov. Owls, Cyclone Only Dist. 2-A Winners Friday

District 2-A teams won only two games while losing three against opponents last Friday night as Memphis and Silvertown were the only winners while Clude, Wheeler and Clarendon all took it on the nose. Memphis downed Paducah 30 to 6 and was a pre-game underdog but the local lads got their offense rolling for the first time this season. Defensively, the local lads played tough football. The Silvertown Owls picked off Class B Groom to a score of 32 to 0 and with their 3-0 record are ranked 7th in the area in Class A. Clude lost to Vega 29 to 14 in a Class A battle. Vega moved to the No. 2 area ranking spot and dropped Clude to No. 4. Wheeler found the Spearman Lynx, ranked third in Class AA in the Area ranking, too tough as Spearman downed Wheeler 25 to 13. Wheeler, however, holds No. 8 spot in Class A rankings with its 2-1 record. Clarendon is yet to win a game as Phillips downed the Bronchor 28 to 0. Clarendon is 0-3. McLean lost to Boys Ranch 15 to 6. One of the highlights of this game was a 44-yd. field goal by Boys Ranch.

Memphis' two remaining non-conference foes, Wellington and Crowell were not in the winning column last week. Crowell battled Class AA Electra to a 0-0 contest, while Wellington lost to Gruver 20 to 6. Memphis travels to Wellington Friday night, and Clarendon hosts third ranked Canadian. White Deer plays McLean at McLean and Groom goes to Wheeler. Lefors travels to Clude and Silvertown plays Petersburg. Why does home canned fruit sometimes float in jars? Fruit may float because the pack is too loose or syrup is too heavy; or because some air remains in tissues of the fruit after heating and processing.

Cyclone Overpowers Dragons In First Home Game 30-6 Fri.

The Memphis Cyclone added its second consecutive victory to the Friday night overpowering of the favored Paducah Dragons to 6 at Cyclone Stadium.

The Cyclone unleashed a bruising defense and a hard charging offense in over powering, and outwitting and tackling the Dragons. All three of the Cyclone running backs ripped off gains in the Paducah secondary as shifty scat-back Lewis Davis stepped off 158 yards and power runners Jimmy Phillips and Roger Kehr had 102 yards and 64 yards respectively, as the Cyclone offense rolled for over 400 yards and 22 first downs. Defensively, the Cyclone held Paducah to nine first downs and a total offense of slightly over 100 yards.

For Memphis fans, the victory, the first one they have seen by the varsity squad in Cyclone Stadium since Nov. 1968, made the discomfort of the chilly north wind and 50-degree temperature seem noticeable.

The north wind was a big factor in the contest as both teams had trouble punting and passing the ball against the wind.

The Cyclone defense got testier as Paducah took over the ball on the Cyclone 31 and marched for a first down to the Memphis 20-yard line. In the next series the Cyclone defense held and Memphis took over on the home 10-yard line.

The Cyclone offense made one first down and moved the ball out to the home 36 before giving up the ball on downs.

The Dragons backfield of Buster Smart, Jesse Solis, Carl Wright and QB David Sweeney moved the ball to the Memphis 5 before fumbling the ball and Cyclone tackle Lawrence Kennon recovered it for Memphis.

TB Jimmy Phillips carried on two plays and netted eight yards and then lightning struck as Lewis Davis found running room around the right end and raced 42 yards to the Paducah 22-yard line before Paducah's last defender was able to drop him.

On the next play, FB Roger Kehr, who had an outstanding night blocking and carrying the football, and playing defensive end, powered his way for another first down to the Paducah 11.

Then, 170-lb. Tailback Phillips did all the blocking he needed to find running room and he would not be stopped as he scored his first TD of the season. The try for points saw TB Davis carrying despite a good second effort the 155 pounder was stopped in inches short.

As far as scoring was concerned, the Cyclone's lone TD in the first quarter was all there was, but the remainder of the first half was an action packed affair for Memphis.

The Dragons were unable to pick up another first down the remainder of the first half.

The Cyclone in the first quarter gave the ball twice on fumbles, and one of these gave Paducah the ball on the home 30 after Memphis had lost 30 yards in penalties. But it was an outstanding defensive charge which stopped HB 170-lb. Buster Smart for a seven yard loss which closed the door on the third of Paducah's good scoring opportunities early in the game. Linebacker Terry Wynn led the charges for Memphis.

Memphis took over on their own and began a drive which ended on the Dragon's 16-yd. line. Possibly one of the better drives of the night, the drive was highlighted by a 28-yd. pass play from QB Carmen to End Larry Jeffers. Also, TB Davis made several long carries and FB Kehr ripped off six and seven-yard carries as the local squad marched down the field.

The team had a first and goal from the nine after Roger Kehr recovered a loose Paducah fumble. But again the Dragons' defense held. Memphis fans came to their feet, however, when QB Carmen passed to End Donnie Carroll who was wide open in the endzone from the seven, but the pass was a few inches high as it went off the finger tips.

The Cyclone scored in the opening minutes of the third period with a 52-yd drive. With the favoring wind, on 4th down and four needed, FB Kehr got the drive going with a fine run for the first down to Paducah's 42. Then, Kehr stepped off 12 yards to the 29 of the Dragons'. FB Davis carted to the 17 and another first, TB Phillips behind good blocking raced nine to the 8-yd. line and FB Kehr used his 190-lb. frame to make one yard for the first down to the 7-yd. line.

On the next play, a power play, TB Phillips drove the ball across the goal line. QB Carmen, on the pass-run option play, saw daylight and scampered across for the two points and the score was 14-0.

The Cyclone took over the ball after the punt by Paducah on the home 42. QB Carmen tried as pass but the ball bounced off the receiver. Then, TB J. Phillips saw daylight around the left end and raced for the flag and a 58-yd gallop to paydirt. Phillips carried for the conversion and the score was 22-0.

The Dragons, finding themselves facing a 4th and six, decided to go for it on their own 35, but Jesse Solis was keyed on and dropped for only two-yard gain and Memphis took over on the 37-yd. line.

Two plays netted no yards, and then TB Lewis Davis hit the right side of the Cyclone line, saw daylight to his left and cut back catching Paducah's defenders going the wrong way and the junior tailback was too quick to be caught as he raced for his second score of the season.

Mark Hundley was in the Cyclone backfield as fullback and on a trap play, he cleared the goal-line strip for the two-point conversion and Memphis led 30-0.

The Dragons, with favoring wind in the 4th quarter, and by three exceptionally fine catches by big end Danny James, 201-lbs., of 15, 12 and 6 yards, and with good carries by HB Carl Wright moved for a touchdown.

Actually, Memphis stopped the drive once on the 40, but gave the ball back on the home 48 at the end of the series.

Scoring was HB Wright on a five-yard end sweep for Paducah. The PAT kick was wide and the score was 30 to 6.

After the kickoff, the Cyclone, by virtue of a major penalty found themselves with a fourth and 18. The play tried, resulted in Paducah taking possession on the Cyclone 9-yd. line.

The Cyclone, at this stage, had established defensive superiority, and Wright tried a sweep and was downed for only one yard. On the next play, hard hitting resulted in a Paducah fumble which, defensive guard John Orr recovered on the Cyclone 8.

With the clock running out Memphis drove for three first downs, marching to the Paducah 43. QB Carmen turned in one 20-yard carry, and Mr. K Hundley got the drive going with an eight-yard carry for a first to the home 22.

On the last play of the game, Hundley intercepted a Paducah pass and returned it 25 yards before one of the Dragons last defenders could manage to drop him.

Memphis Coach Clyde McMur-ray was proud of the performance of the Cyclone lads in the hitting department. "We used power football to win this one and I feel we out hit Paducah," the coach said.

Lewis Davis with 158 yards was the Cyclone's leading ground gainer, averaging 7.9 yards per carry on 20 carries. Jimmy Phillips had over 100 yards on 19 carries for a 5.4-yd. average. Phillips had 102 yards.

FB Roger Kehr had 64 yards on 14 carries for a 4.6 average and Mark Hundley had 21 yards on 5 carries for 4.2 yards. QB Carmen carried 8 times for 1971. Buick introduces a new set of values.

Value, not gimmicks or ornamentation, sells cars. More people have been coming to Buick each year for just that reason. Buick concentrates on value. And this year, Buick introduces a new set of values. Features that will help make your new Buick perform better, last longer and get you more of a return on your investment at trade-in time. Only a Buick dealer can offer you our new set of values. So, test your values against our new ones. Then ask yourself this simple question. Wouldn't you really rather have a Buick?

Something to believe in.

1971 Buick Riviera. A totally new design concept. And that's not all. Riviera offers MaxTrac, an exclusive power control system you can order with its own on-board computer. It helps get you securely over slick surfaces by reducing rear-wheel slipping. The new body features side-guard beams for protection, a bigger trunk, and a driver cockpit with a control center designed around the driver for new ease and convenience.

1971 Buick Electra 225. A new interpretation of quiet elegance. We've improved our Electra everywhere you look. There's more room in every direction, interiors that can be appreciated as much for their durability as for their beauty and comfort, even a new balanced braking system. A unique valve proportions braking force front to rear to help give you quick, smooth straight-line stops.

1971 Buick Centurion. This is our newest Buick, a city car with sleekness and grace as well as muscle. It features more nimble variable-ratio power steering, power front disc brakes, Full-Flo ventilation, and a vinyl roof on the Centurion Formal Coupe as standard equipment.

1971 Buick LeSabre. An incredible new offering of Buick value. The LeSabre, like the Riviera, Electra and Centurion, features AccuDrive, a new version of the directional stability system we pioneered. It will help give you smooth handling.

1971 Buick Skylark Custom. This is the car that has set the pace for value in its price class. Rocker panels that wash and dry themselves, big-Buick room and comfort inside, a cooling system that should never overheat, inner fenders that protect the outer fenders, and a modest price have put our Buick Skylark traditionally among the resale leaders in its class.

An Important Improvement. Every new Buick engine is now designed to run smoothly and efficiently, and with lower exhaust emissions, on no-lead and low-lead gasolines. And every Buick V-8 engine will have exclusive nickel-plated exhaust valves for smoother operation and longer valve life, and a new time-modulated choke to help give quicker warm-up and a more consistent fuel mixture.

Seven US Towns Carry Name Of Memphis

Memphis Chamber of Commerce Manager Clifford Farmer received a most interesting letter recently from N. F. Watson of North Carolina concerning the name of Memphis after the writer had completed some research on the subject.

Watson had written the local Chamber of Commerce requesting assistance on how the name of Memphis was selected for this Eastern Panhandle town.

Manager Farmer listed the account Inez Baker wrote in her book, "Yesterday In Hal County" of Dr. Brice seeing a letter addressed to Memphis, Texas, and stamped "no such town in Texas" when early pioneers were seeking a name for the local town site. Several names had been submitted, but refused because there were towns in Texas by the suggested names.

Watson writes that there are seven towns in the United States named Memphis. Previously, it was thought here that there were only five of them.

Local citizens are well familiar with Memphis, Texas and Memphis, Tennessee, with mail and freight shipments missent.

Memphis, Tenn., is the largest of all seven, and is the county seat of Shelby County, and is located in the extreme southwestern part of Tennessee.

Memphis, Missouri, is the county seat of Scotland County, an Iowa bordering county, in north-eastern Missouri.

Memphis, Indiana, is in Clark County, a Kentucky bordering county, of which Jefferson is the county seat. This Memphis is near Louisville, Ky.

Memphis, Florida, is in Manatee County, a suburb just approximately a mile north of Bradenton, the county seat of that Gulf bordering county.

Memphis, Michigan, ride along the St. Clair County-Macomb County line, and is near Fort Huron, thereby making Memphis Mich., in the extreme eastern part of that state.

The seventh is Memphis, Nebraska, in the eastern portion of that state, in Saunders County, west, southwest of Omaha and north, northeast of Lincoln. Waterloo is the county seat in which Memphis, Nebraska, is located.

LETTERS

To The Editor

(Editor's Note: The article referred to in last paragraph above carries the caption, "Our Prisoners of War . . . America's Sons." It is printed below.)

This is written with mixed emotions, far too many to discuss separately. I am a loyal American Mother, proud of my country and ashamed by the conduct of some of my fellow Americans. I am grieved and disturbed by the lack of feeling toward human suffering and the deliberate inhuman cruelty imposed by some on the helpless and defenseless, who are unfortunate enough to fall into their hands. We read and hear of such treatment which shocks us, but how different it becomes when the victim is a dearly loved family member.

—My daughter's husband is a Prisoner of War in Hanoi. Only the experienced can understand the shock, grief, agony, and fear such confirmed news can cause. We have known and lived with such confirmed news can cause. He endured for longer times. The children of these men have known the prolonged absence of their fathers. How do you answer their many questions—When is Daddy coming home? Why doesn't Daddy write to us? Will they let Daddy send me something for my birthday? Will Daddy be home for Christmas???? The Mothers of these children are drained of Answers. They are asking the Questions now and have a right to reliable Answers and some Action from the American people and our United States Government. When will these American Service men and fathers be home? Will they live to come home?? Are they living now? What kind of physical and mental condition will they be in ??? What kind of hunger, thirst, torture and agony are they trying to endure. While we enjoy the wonderful American life, which they sacrificed their freedom and perhaps their life, in protecting? Do you know what it is like for his favorite food or drink to stick in your throat as you partake of it? Do You Care, and Does America Care? What Is Wrong America? Have you really Forgotten these men, Your clean cut, America and thought they had the protection of the Geneva Convention, and so did their families. They were fighting for America and loyal to the bitter end!

Would it be asking too much of our Government for a Senate Investigation, an inquiry by the United Nations and renewed pressure, from the signers of the Geneva Convention, that North Vietnam honor its legal obligations under the Convention and in the eyes of the World? Would it be asking too much of each American, who cares, to write one letter, in our desperate effort to save our loved ones, American Prisoners of War????

I found some more scraps in my pocket with some thing on them and some I not read. That picnic went smooth in all parts of it. I am still full of it. I will tell more about it. We see television show sometimes of the scenes, all that is going with more people in the than there are out in front. Name system is carried out every thing we do. I made rounds of the park Monday noon and it was so clean. I like it was ready for another picnic with plenty of wood. I think Ed Hutcherson is responsible for the wood year and he has always wanted to have plenty there. Hom-ible, Elmont Branigan and Ed Dennis have done a lot of backstage work at night on stage Hall to make it show up. It does and it does not "just do." They work on it!

The three Moore sisters visit- ing in Heritage Hall past week, Ola Moore Dishroom of San Ger- nardo, Calif., wife of the late Marvin Dishroom who passed away in May of 1970. They had three children, 2 girls and one son. Sallie Moore Longshore, wife of the late Miles Longshore, who passed away in 1946. They had two boys and one girl. Sallie is now living in Long Beach, Calif. Florence Moore Yarbrough of Memphis, the wife of the late Lindsey Yarbrough who passed away in 1951. She has 3 daugh- ters and one son. These girls, I call them, as I knew them in their younger days, the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Moore who passed away several years ago. I must be getting a little ancient as I can remember these couples when they were brides and grooms and seems so short a time and now they are the three Moore girls as widows. All three look like they are well preserved and can take care of themselves and we hope so for a long time. I enjoyed this visit very much with these three friends.

There has been a lot of talk and effort by the younger generation for women's equal rights, but my observation is that a little time will give them all the rights with the increase of widows. I noticed in the paper the other day a woman wanted to take down the signs of "hers" and "his" and I guess put up the sign "ours". I don't think I can vote for that.

Visiting in Heritage Hall were Mr. and Mrs. Otho Jones of Hunt- ington. Otho was the oldest son of A. H. Jones who came to Hall County in 1916. There were 10 children in this family and they are all now living. They lived in the Harrell Chapel Community and attended school there. One of the teachers Otho remembered was Mrs. Barnhart.

Mrs. Alvin Yarbrough of Plain- view was in Heritage Hall and reported on her family. Her father, J. H. Widner kept trying for five years to get to Hall County and arrived in Hall County down about the McQueen's place near Salsbury in the fall of 1925 and they picked cotton for Mr. Wad- dill. There were four children in their family, 3 boys and one girl, Lona, Roy and Loyd. The daughter Opal married Alvin Yarbrough in Hall County in 1941. They have one son and one daughter and four grandchildren. Loyd is now living in Lockney. This family I think did the right thing when they moved to Hall County with a lot of hard work they prospered since moving here.

John Jarrell, son of the late Jack Jarrell, visiting in Heritage Hall. He is now living in Snyder.

Ouida Massey Bradshaw of Ft. Worth, with her five woungsters, twin girls Dorenda and Dorette age five, Robin age 7, Job age 3, and Cogdell, age 1 year. It seems so short a time since Iuda was one of our high school beauty graduates. The world and people march on making progress all the while. The mother and father of Ouida, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Massey, along with their son Roy Alvin, made a tour of Heritage Hall. Alvin and Abbie moved from Dum- es to Dallas about one year ago. Their other children are Abbie Louise Massey Cotwell of San Antonio, with one son Shannon O'Neal; Margaret Ann Massey Leeds of Beverly Hills, Calif. Charles Massey of Arlington has three children, Brian, David and Richard. If I count it right Alvin and Abbie have nine grandchild- ren. Roy Alvin has been living or rather had headquarters in Dallas for several years. Margaret Ann and Roy Alvin have just returned from around the world trip, east and west, Africa through Ethio- pia, Egypt, Lebanon, Persia, India, Singapore, Malasia and other places, Hong Kong, Japan, 2 days in Saigon, back home by way of Alaska, Hawaii, but nothing ever greater than coming to Memphis and meeting all our old friends.

Of all the people who attended the picnic and Heritage Hall this year, I think Mr. and Mrs. Harry Delaney of 3012 24th Street, Lub- bock, enjoyed it to its fullest, meeting old friends and visiting Heritage Hall. They lived in Memphis until 1942 when they moved to Lubbock. They have one daughter, Carole Jean, who was born in Memphis. She is teaching music in the Austin Public Schools and working on her doctor's de- gree in music.

Harry's dad, Tom C. Delaney, moved from Jasper to Estelline in 1894 and began working for E. L. Biggerstaff, manager of Estelline Supply Co., owned by the Mill Iron Ranch. Harry's mother before her marriage was Lillie May Arnold, daughter of the late D. H. Arnold who moved from Iowa to Newlin about 1888. Tom and Lillie married in 1901 and Harry was born in Estelline in 1902. They moved to Memphis in 1913. Harry and his dad were in the insurance business here sev- eral years before leaving us. Harry was a member of the Gold Medal Band, served on the Cham- ber of Commerce as a director and was also secretary of the school board, and was always working on some kind of commit- tee. Harry, while living in Mem- phis, was a good singer and was called on a lot for specials at wed- dings and funerals and he was ac- tive as a pall bearer. In going over his early days he realted about his hand work and long hours in the drug store, told of working for W. R. Fickle's Drug 30 days at one time to buy a girl a cut glass dresser set for a Christmas gift. Later he married another charm- ing girl named Ernestine for whom he had been buying powder puffs. Harry has a sister, Hazel, who married a man named Snow and moved to Laredo, a brother, Tom Colby, Jr., who lives in Ruidoso, N. M. and operates a lumber yard. I asked Harry what he thought of Heritage Hall and his reply: "Heritage Hall is an asset to Mem- phis and Hall County. A very in- teresting point of interest for na- tives and visitors alike. We en- joyed it very much."

Marcus Rawlins of Prescott, Ariz., moved to Hall County in 1908, a good mechanic and drove some of the first cars that came to Hall County. Marcus married Abbie McCool (deceased) daugh- ter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McCool. Marcus says he has 2 children, 5 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren. He left Mem- phis in 1917. I remember how he could drive that old "grey ghost" car for Dr. Winfred Wilson through the mud and snow during the flu epidemics.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Brown of Snyder were looking Heritage Hall over and they said, "We have en- joyed visiting the Heritage Hall and you have quite a collection here."

Rugh (Wansley) Brown moved to Hall County in 1906, daughter of the late R. N. Wansley, she at- tended school in Lakeview and married Noah Brown in 1923, and moved to Snyder where they are now living. They have one son and three daughters. Noah will be remembered as a deputy sheriff of Lakeview in the early days.

Adelle Harrell and Mrs. C. A. Reynolds of Lubbock visiting Heri- tage Hall. Adelle is now teaching in New Deal. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reynolds, moved from Quanah to Memphis in 1928. Most of you will remember Mrs. Reynolds served the hot rolls to the service clubs here. The exact time she said was 9 years and 2 months (Mr. Rey- nolds deceased). They had 2 daughters, Wanda Jo Couch of Lubbock, and Aielene Roch of Andrews. Mrs. Reynolds says she now has three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. She thought displays in Heritage Hall wonderful. Mr. and Mrs. Clar- ence Jackson of California are another couple who were in Heri- tage Hall. Mrs. Jackson is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jackson of California, another couple in Heritage Hall. Mrs. Jackson is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baker and sister of Morgan Baker. Bettie graduated from M.H.S. in 1927. Her other sisters were Mil- dred Kydell of Portland, Oreg., but now of Brazil, Edna, the other sister, is now Mrs. Roy Stacey of Albany, Calif. Clarence said he worked here for Tarver Drug in 1929-30. When there were no short hours. Clarence and Bettie have 2 daughters and 7 grand- children.

Others visiting Heritage Hall were Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Jones of Abilene. Mrs. Jones was the former Fayrine Bradley and at- tended M.H.S. Marshall, a broth- er of Lynn Jones former Memphis resident. Mrs. Ruby Gilcrest mar- ried the late Floyd Gilcrest. She is a sister to Marshall and Lynn Jones. She has 3 children, 13 grandchildren and she is a very young great-grandmother. I still find some scraps of paper here and there and will try to get some more of the names in next week's issue of them and their families that have left here. I started a poem on Jack and Jill last week, but I got all mixed up as Billy and Tanya's Jill came first and along came Graham and Barbara's boy and they didn't name him Jack so that messed up my poem!

special to prepare for the Wellington contest," Coach McMurray said. "Other than the effort to keep striving toward excellence."

"We've had two victories and it's no time to rest on our laurels now," the coach said.

Starting lineup for Memphis offense has: LE J. E. Vick, LG Glen Miller, LG Chris Limer, C Terry Wynn, RG John Orr, RT James Hansard, RE Larry Jeffers

QB John Carmen, FB Roger Kehr, LTB Lewis Davis and ETB Larry Don Johnson, wearing No. 30, a 170-lb. sophomore.

Defensively, starting will be Ends Jeffers and Kehr, Tackle E. L. Kirkland and Billy Ballew. Guards Orr and Lawrence Kenyon, LB Wynn, and Safety back Davis, Mark Stevenson, John Carmen and Mark Handley.

Coach McMurray expressed pleasure with the aggressive hitting of the Cyclone team against Paducah last Friday.

"It is a known fact, especially in towns outside Memphis, that Memphis has a reputation of being a bunch of quitters when the going gets tough. Every team we play and especially Wellington capitalize on this prior reputation. Our boys each week must reassert themselves to prove this to be erroneous."

"We, as coaches, after the Paducah game, were pleased because this type of performance proves that Memphis is a bunch of hitter and not quitters."

"Wellington has a big team and hits like all good football teams

They do not have great speed but they have two fine running backs, both converted from guard positions," Coach McMurray said.

Praise Given
This week Coach McMurray said coaches selected linemen and back as Cyclones of the Week.

"In trying to select a lineman the coaches were unable to decide between Billy Ballew, Junior Kennon and John Orr as all three boys deserve the honor for play against Paducah," Coach McMurray said.

"For Cyclone Back of the Week Jimmy Phillips earned the honor. Jimmy provided the scoring punch for us and executed his assignments well," the coach said.

Phillips also was given honorable mention by the Amarillo Globe-News Wednesday as Class A back of the week in the Panhandle area. Against Paducah, he scored three TDs, 7 yards, 11 yards and 58 yards and carried over one two-point conversion. He had over 100 yards of total offense and added 20 points to the scoreboard.
