Former Resident, H. B. Bryan, Dies In Lubbock

H. B. Bryan, 64, former Memphis resident, died unexpectedly Friday afternoon at his home 3311 54th St., in Lubbock, an apparent heart attack.

Funeral services were conducted at 4 p. m. Monday in the First United Methodist Church in Lubbock with Dr. Paul M. Bumpers, pastor, officiating.

Mr. Bryan was born in the Oklahoma Indian Territory and moved with his parents to Texas in a covered wagon. The family settled in Hall County. He graduated from Memphis High School and attended Texas Tech. He and the former Bobbie Dawson were married Nov. 28, 1929, in Lubbock, where they have lived since that time.

President of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association, Bryan was a former Lubbock County tax assessor-collector and served several terms. During his terms of office, he was elected second vice president and then president of the Tax Assessors and Collectors Association of Texas.

Active in civic affairs in Lubbock, he was a past president of the American Business Club and a former director of the Lubbock Boys Club, the Community Chest and the Salvation Army.

He was especially active in local and state Masonic efforts and was a past officer of all the York Rite bodies.

Bryan was named executive president of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association in 1957, and to president of the firm in 1958. He had been a director of the organization for several years.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Jim Bob and Joe Dale Bryan, both of Lubbock; a brother, L. B. Bryan of Memphis; two sisters, Miss Maggie Bryan and Mrs. Adda McQueen, both of Corpus Christi; and seven grandchildren.

Memphis Citizens Reminded Of Siren Signal For Alert

Memphis citizens are reminded that the tornado warning siren signal is a long, steady pitched blast on the siren, lasting up to five minutes in duration.

The signal was given Monday evening when a tornado was sighted south of Memphis.

Citizens will be warned by the siren whenever tornadoes are sighted in the Memphis area.

Law enforcement officers, including the Hall County Sheriff's units, Highway Patrol, City police, and several volunteers including Memphis volunteer firemen, utilize their two-way radios to keep Memphis Police Station informed concerning severe weather approaching Memphis.

Whenever the signal is sounded, citizens are advised to take shelter, or at least begin their own storm watch surveillance.

Hall County completed its third consecutive week of recorded rainfall, the best wet spell the county has experienced since last September.

Rayford Hutcherson, official weather observer for Memphis reported a week's total of .80, including a half inch Friday and .30 Monday night.

This morning the sky was overcast over Memphis and light showers have fallen.

Tornadoes along Red River south of Memphis in the Estelline area were spotted Monday night, and the Memphis Tornado Warning signal was blown about 9.15 p. m., sending many citizens to cellars. No damage was reported however.

The Memphis area was also under tornado warning late Tuesday evening and early Wednesday morning, and again late last night.

Rainfall over the county appears to have been fairly general, with heavier amounts reported south of Red River.

For Memphis, the year's total rainfall has climbed to 3.12 inches, with most of this moisture falling after the middle of April.

Since the last of May, Memphis has received 2.40 inches of moisture, almost half of the year's total.

Rainfall in general this spring and early summer has been general, in that all areas have received rainfall, but it has been spotted in that some areas have received much larger amounts than other areas in the county.

This morning, a heavy thunder cloud passed to the south and east of Memphis, and early reports indicate good showers from this cloud.

Major concern of farmers is whether or not cotton fields will have to be replanted. Fortunately, Hall County has missed most of the severe weather which hit High Plains counties dumping heavy hail over as much as 50 per cent of Swisher County and causing crop damage in a four-county area.

Some farmers in the area have had to replant several times in certain areas already this season.

All in all, however, County Agent W. B. Hooser reports that crop prospects are good for the 1971 crops. A lot of the cotton is up now, and it would take a real washing rain to wash it out, or a dreaded hail.

After the drought of the spring of 1970, farmers are feeling a lot better because there is sufficient moisture to plant crops this year.

Funeral Services For Mrs. Powell To Be Held Fri.

Funeral services for Mrs. Pearl Louise Powell 85, who died Wednesday morning in a nursing home in Childress, will be held at 10:30 a. m. Friday in the First Baptist Church Chapel.

The Rev. C. H. Murphy, pastor, will officiate. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery by Spicer Funeral Home.

Mrs. Powell had been a resident of Memphis for 64 years, and resided at 805-B Skiddy. She was born in Jasper, Ga., and was married to Joseph Henry Powell Jan. 18, 1907, in Sherman. They moved to Memphis in 1907.

Survivors include two sons, Elmo of Wichita Falls and J. H., Jr., of Amarillo; two brothers, W. C. McElrath of Porterville, Calif., and E. P. McElrath of Orange, Calif.; two sisters, Miss Mae McElrath and Miss Esta McElrath, both of Memphis; and two grandchildren.

Pall bearers will be A. L. Gailley, Willie Frank Goffinet, Gene Lindsey, L. F. Jones, Wendel Harrison and Troy Phillips.

Memphis Lions Club will hold its annual Ladies Night and Installation of Officers Banquet Friday night at 8 o'clock in the Community Center, Bill Hall, announced today.

Officers to be installed include: Clyde Lee Smith, president; C. J. Wynn, vice president; D. H. Pope, second vice president; M. C. Allen, Jr., third vice president; John Ferrel, secretary; Billy Prince, treasurer; Dub Parker, Lion tamer; Donny Spicer, tail twister; Buster Helm, song leader.

New directors elected are Charley Chambliss and Larry Rogers.

Congressional Districts Lines Drawn!

Hall County once in the lower edge of the old 18th Congressional District, now finds itself slap dab in the middle of a U. S. Representative District No. 13, and the battle lines appear to be drawn for the 1972 election year.

The Texas Legislature has drawn the lines, and the newly formed 13th District takes in much of the Texas Panhandle and a portion of northwest Texas, including all of Wichita Falls and area and all of Amarillo including Potter and Randall counties.

This will see U. S. Representative Bob Price of Pampa going against U. S. Representative Graham Purcell of Wichita Falls. Price is a Republican and Purcell is a Democrat.

In the 1968 Presidential Election, voters in the newly formed 13th district cast 72,843 votes for President Nixon, 55,534 votes for Democratic Candidate Hubert Humphrey, and 32,785 for the third party candidate, George Wallace, totaling 161,162 votes.

What the voters in the newly formed district will do in an election between Republican Price and Democrat Purcell, both strong candidates for their parties, is a subject of much speculation at this time, with some observers saying the new district favors Rep. Price when past voting records are examined.

As we see it, voters in the new 13th District will certainly have a choice at the polls in November, 1972. Hall County will probably be seeing a lot of these candidates as they go back and forth across this district campaigning. For this reason, and others, it will be nice for Hall County to be in the middle of a district.

The U. S. Supreme Court has ruled that multimember (state legislative districts are legal, as passed by the Texas Legislature for metropolitan areas of this state. Under the redistricting of State Representative districts, in heavily populated areas, such as Houston, Dallas, etc., State Representatives will run "at-large". Harris County house members would run at-large in six districts—five with four members each and one with three giving Harris County a total of 23 representatives.

The multimember system was chosen over a system of a representative for each neighborhood on the premise that legislators running at large in our cities can better represent the interest of the entire area.

As far as our area is concerned, the State Representative District Hall County is a member of is the 83rd, including Collingsworth, Briscoe, Hall, Childress, Floyd, Motley, Cottle, Hardeman Wilbarger, Baylor, Knox, Foard, and Dickens. Most of these were members of the old 80th district.

Texas Senators were so divided over their own redistricting plans that the job of drawing new boundaries was left up to the Legislative Redistricting Board of which Lt. Governor Ben Barnes is chairman.

ACROSS THE DESK

What Other Editors Say

No Time for Reading

Unless an individual spends at least an hour and 45 minutes a day reading newspapers, magazines and books, he is not going to get very far, says Dr. George Gallup, the pollster.

Speaking at the convention of the American Newspaper Publisher Association in New York, Dr. Gallup said the student who spends the most time reading is typically at the head of his or her class in school.

What Dr. Gallup said, of course, carries equal validity for everyone, in school or out.

Unless a person reads, he will absorb only a fraction of the knowledge he will if he does read. No matter what the subject in school, whether it be history, chemistry or algebra, the key to learning is first in reading and understanding what is read.

Everyone tends to peer out at the total scheme of things through a tiny peephole. The only way to enlarge the peephole into a wide-angle lens is to draw upon the wisdom of the ages.

Without reading, enlightenment is confined to one's own limited insight and wisdom.

People usually say "I just don't have the time to read." Time is elastic, and it can be stretched to cover any activity that a person really wants to do. People always find time to do the things they enjoy and always have a hard time finding time to do things they don't.

It is tragic that reading has been made dull and a chore in the early days of school. Children should be taught to read and shown that reading is fun. Once a child learns that reading can transport the mind into an exciting world of fact and fiction, he is apt to read because he likes it, not because it is an assignment.

In these times, the average person wastes enough time in front of a television set to read several dozen average sized books a year.

Television provides entertainment, and a measure of education as well. It is a fixture in American culture and we wonder what we did to amuse ourselves before we had it.

But television is no substitute for reading. The news that comes over television is of necessity cut and whittled and emitted in short and rapid bursts. A person who depends solely upon television for his information is apt to be short changed indeed.

There is a great deal that is available for reading and this very fact confuses people. But this is like saying there are too many groceries on the store shelf. One cannot eat or read everything available, but this need not keep him from making a selection.

Dipping into wisdom by reading can be either disagreeable or joyous. But it is worth the effort just to find out.

The little carefree car. Pinto is sized small, like the economy import, but it's bigger on value. And price is only the beginning. Pinto calls for only half as many oil changes as VW. One-sixth the chassis lubes. So easy to service that you can do most routine maintenance yourself. And Pinto is bigger on performance. It has a 75-hp engine that has averaged over 25 mpg in simulated city/suburban driving. Sports-car type rack-and-pinion steering. Wider stance and lower silhouette.

The Simple Machine. Maverick's price makes it simpler to own than Nova. But that's not the only reason we call it the Simple Machine. Maverick's simple to drive and park because of its shorter wheelbase and smaller turning circle. Simple to service because it's been designed that way. Maverick offers a 4-door sedan for a low price of $2235* ($145 less than Nova 4 door). Or choose the sporty Grabber model. A choice of an economical V-8 and three thrifty Sixes.

*Ford's suggested retail price for Pinto and Maverick. However, the models shown are equipped with accent group (Pinto $60; Maverick $52) and white sidewall tires ($29). Destination charges, dealer preparation charges (if any), state and local taxes are extra.

Old Back-Bar Finds Proper Setting

By VIRGINIA ROGERS

After being hauled around literally "from pillar to post" through the years, old solid mahogany back-bar has come to rest in The Golden Cobweb Antique Shop at 413 Main in Memphis.

The huge piece of equipment was purchased by Hollis Boren from a druggist at Kress, Texas, March 15, 1914. The lower portion of four cupboards, the ten-foot marble slab, and the upper part of shelves and large mirror were loaded into a wagon and brought to Lakeview, Texas and cery and soda fountain combination in that community. The wagon with cargo was four days reaching its destination.

After the death of Hollis' father and the closing of their business, the back-bar was moved to Memphis and stored until Mrs. Guy Smith opened her dining room in October 1968. With an old player piano and a beautiful walnut secretary for companion-pieces, it added to the quaint decor of the dining room and afforded shelf space for Mrs. Smith's collection of K. S. Prussian china.

When the Dining Room was no remained unloved and unappreciated in the Hollis Boren building on Main St. Recently, however, it was dismantled and, with the help of three husky fellows moved across the street to The Golden Cobweb. At long last, this noble piece of furniture has a proper setting among relics and memorabilia of similar age and vintage. Not only is it a "conversation piece" but it serves the useful purpose of housing and holding big and little pieces from the days of yore.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to our many friends and neighbors for their thoughtfulness, words of sympathy, beautiful floral offerings, and also for the food that was served. May God bless you.

times we find out that we keep up with us and your better than we think. A lot of people move away from the county but some of them love and friendship for the first birthday cards of the past week was from friends who moved away from several years ago the Jack-son. They are Edd and Gilliam. I do not think we missed our anniversary day since they left here and appreciate it very much. The day of June I entered the banks and front teller "Happy Birthday" and I also two different store and I get with "Happy Birth- day" makes you feel better to know they think of you for once a year. Another you have is how many I have failed to recognize birthday or anniversary as much as you do, but I thought of remem- bered friends that counts.

the storm warning was on television a few days ago said "go to the cellars" there was a lot of close friends. I overheard Harold telling about having a party at his home that with 14 people present and the alarm sounded he said party disintegrated in- to everyone vanished. We have 42 clubs 1969 I think there was a new organized the night of the warning. This was the 54 had their first meeting storm cellar of Jerry and Montgomery on 16th where the 54 crowded in short time. I heard the re- port Mrs. Lee Brown (Polly) Mrs. Morris were travel- ing with their faces for- ward their feet would carry to the cellar and conse- quently fell face forward in the water and mud. After the storm warning was over we heard of some of our people who did not get to the cellar in time. They made a dive under the bed, some in a bath tub with a pillow over their head, other in a shower stall and many other close places to dive for protection and self-preservation.

Well, our home boy Homer Tucker, who has been president of the Highway 287 association along with Jim Beeson, one of the directors of the association succeeded in having their yearly meeting held in Memphis this year. The first I noticed of the embers coming in last Sunday was when I met Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Marquit at Sunday morning church service and I think he is the new president elect. They are from Rawlins Wye. Monday morning we had the pleasure of meeting about 25 of these members of highway 287 and they all seemed like old friends and neighbors as we were living on the same highway which goes on to Canada.

We had several visitors in Heri- tage Hall Monday afternoon, members of the families that were here for the Highway Meeting. Monday night at the banquet I had the pleasure of sitting near Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bivens of Quanah, Texas. In the opening program of the banquet Miss Linda O. Steen the grain queen of Dimmitt, Texas of 1961 entertain- ed us singing popular songs while we served our plates. Bob Huddleston of Dodge City intro- duced this young lady as the queen of Highway 287. She is only 4 feet and 11 inches tall and she has a voice that puts out the message in a song.

Homer Tucker gave the report an tourism which was next to the large industry we had here of Highway 287. Judge Chas. Reynolds and President C. of C. Lester Campbell has a part of the program of introductions. Jim Beeson very highway-minded in- troduced the main speaker, our Sen. Jack Hightower. Sen Jack carried us on a sentimental jour- ney of Highway 287. Making us better neighbors and friends in bringing our people close together as Abraham Lincoln did in his ex- pansion of railroad program of making it possible for the east and west to meet and get better acquainted.

Out of Orbit

"YOU SURE THAT'S PART OF THE EXPERIMENTAL PACKAGE?"

In conversation with Mrs. Burl Smith a few days ago, she remem- bered 55 years ago when our Commercial Clubs were working for Hwy. 287. She typed the let- ters at that time for A. W. Read who was Commercial Club secre- tary.

I can remember when making a trip to Amarillo with the dirt highways full of chug holes, that you would go up one one day and back if you sped any time there. There was a time when you drove from Route Clarendon in one hour you had accomplished something. I can also remember a wild trip coming back from Colorado in 1915 with the dirt roads. Another young man Roy Thompson and I were in a 1914 Ford and the timer and brakes burned out just as we started over Raton Pass. We had to unload all of the luggage and hand push this car to the top of a rise and walk back, bring the luggage and reload. There we coasted down the hill as far as we could. This operation was kept up all the way over the pass where there were very few places you could pass another car. But even with this trouble we had a good time, and we made almost a re- cord drive when we drove from Clayton N. M. to Memphis in one day. Maybe it's just my age, but sometimes I wonder if we are not traveling and living too fast to enjoy the things we have and see.

I copied this from Virginia Rayette's column a few days ago. "Our jet age is indeed mira- culous." It can whiz you across the world in less time than it took the forty-niners to get the wagon train across the Missis- sippi. But it has one drawback once you there you don't feel you been any place. You miss out on sensation of having made a jour- ney. One minute you are in your local airport and suddenly you are going through customs in some other airport thousands of miles away, groggy a little hun- gry and completely disoriented.

Last Monday morning I observ- ed that some travelers in Cadil- lacs and campers parked on the south side of the square and as 8 or 10 unloaded I thought they might be looking for the Hwy. 287 meeting and I could tell them where they were meeting. They were not looking for the meeting. After introducing myself I found out they were from the Davis fam- ily of Baton Rouge, La. Cousins of Mrs. Kenneth Parker on their way to Colorado and stopped here to get a good cup of La. coffee that Roxie knew how to make.

Some of the out-of time visi- tors in Hall County Heritage Hall the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Don Byars of Las Cruces, N. M. Don is the grandson of Roy Sneed. Don and his wife Debbie liked Heritage Hall very much and said it was much larger than the one in their town.

Melissa and Jennifer Randal of Amarillo were giving their grand- mother, Lucile Randal a good showing of Heritage Hall. Randy Braidfoot of Panhandle visiting in Heritage Hall; also Torin Wil- liams of Johnstown, Colo., gran- son of Chas. Williams looking things over. Also Pete Kinsey of Oklahoma City. The following were in from Kit Carson, Colo., Anna Henderson, Bobbie Knud- stan, ent and Karen, Derby and Nan Henderson. Those people from Carson City were surprised to find so many displays behind glass.

I notice this statement in the Earl Wilson column a few days ago. "A woman charged her hus- band with mental cruelty, so se- vere that she had lost 3 lbs." Di- vorce granted" said the judge. "Not Yet" the woman pleaded

"First I want to lose another 10 pounds."

Another statement I noticed in this column was that "This may be remembered as the decade when take-home pay was abol- ished."

I have heard of two mothers who did not like their Mother's Day gifts from their husbands. Mrs. Dick Fowler did not like geese and Mrs. Jim Goldston did not care for the load of hay.

There was a lot of romance in the air from out of town visitors for Mrs. Barber, Mrs. Yarbrough and Mrs. Murdock. The cause of this was of course for the good food they served for the 287 Highway banquet. They also rate high with home folks!
