Core Drilling Begins On Lakeview Watershed Sites

Core drilling crew arrive here this week to start work in Lakeview Watershed, sponsors the project announced this week.

Work has started on flood retarder structures on the upper portion of the Water Creek, Henry Gregory, District Conservationist, reports.

The core drilling schedule calls for drilling at the sites of flood-retarding structures 3, 4, 5 on Bitter Creek and sites 1 and 2 on Brushy Creek. It is estimated that it will take about two weeks per site to do the drilling.

The core drilling crew is headed by Curtis Evans, geologist, Waco. The core drill information will be sent to the SCS engineering design section where plans will be drawn for the bids and awarding contracts, according to the plan now on, could be let in the spring of 1972, Gregory stated.

Survey crews have been busy several weeks making final, detailed surveys of the sites on the creeks.

The core drilling crew is composed of: C. Robinson, geologist; J. Rudloff, geologist; J. Ryan, drill operator helper; J. Wells, core drill operator; F. Carter, core operator, helper; and J. R. Lathrop, geologist.

Turkey-Quitauque Voters Ballot On Consolidation

On Saturday, Sept. 4, voters of Turkey Independent School District and patrons of the Quitauque, S. D. will go to separate polls to determine whether or not the two districts should consolidate for election purposes.

The vote will be an official consolidation vote. If patrons of the two districts approve the consolidation, then officials of the two districts can begin planning for the consolidation.

Voters in either one or the other of the districts should fail to approve the proposal, the issue will be defeated.

Consolidation orders have been issued by both Commissioners of Briscoe and Hall Counties authorizing the election. Appropriate notices have been posted in the school districts affected.

The construction cost would be financed in part with incentive aid money from the state which would amount to approximately $300,000 over a period of 10 years.

In a previous, three-district vote, Quitauque and Turkey voted in favor of a consolidation between Quitauque-Turkey-Flomot, however, Flomot voters disapproved of the merger by a 98-47 vote. Quitauque voters approved 186 for and 12 against while Turkey approved 269 for and 4 against.

The new school board would be composed of three members from each school, with one member-at-large alternating between the two.

Cyclone To Scrimmage Quannah Here Friday

"We're really pleased with the way the scrimmage went at Stinnett," Coach Clyde McMurray told Cyclone Boosters Tuesday after the local supporters viewed the scrimmage films.

"We're way ahead of last year we have quicker boys our defense outshined our offense in this scrimmage," he said.

Memphis fans are being invited to spend an entire evening at Cyclone Stadium tomorrow to view what could prove to be a long, long session of scrimmage activities between three local units and three units from Quannah.

The Quannah Indians are rated No. 1 this season in District 2-A-A, and have depth and size. "We'll have our hands full with Quannah, but we hope to give them a good scrimmage," Coach McMurray said.

Quannah will bring their freshmen squad, B team and varsity units. The freshmen will scrimmage from 6 to 7 p. m., the B team will scrimmage from 7 to 8 p. m., and the varsity will begin scrimmaging about 8:15 p. m.

"The varsity scrimmage will be run by 20-minute quarters using a more realistic concept," Coach McMurray explained. He said both teams have agreed to use punting, but no punt returns in the scrimmage. Down situations will remain the same as in regular games, and lost fumbles and pass intercept-

Disaster Forseen For Cotton's Future!

Donnell Echols, Dawson County farmer, ginmer and President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., in plain words describes the major problem facing cotton producers if cotton is to survive.

"Over the next few years adequate farm income from the production of cotton is facing greater threats than at any time in recent history, and without such income, cotton as a fiber and as a major U. S. industry will simply wither and die." Echols told the PCG Board of Directors.

Echols in analyzing the cotton situation, reported that combined cotton income at the farm level in the area (25 counties of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.) normally exceeds $350 million a year, substantially more than income from any other source.

"Significant portion of producer receipts from cotton since 1965 has come in the form of federal price support payments, and these payments, which make up from 30 to 50 percent of our total returns, are under an increasing barrage of criticism in Congress where cotton programs must be passed periodically and where the money must be appropriated every year," he said.

Prior to 1966, the price of cotton was supported by cotton programs involving a non-recourse loan which maintained market prices at a level reasonably sufficient to cover the cost of production plus a return to capital, management and labor. Under these programs, in the absence of an immediate market, farmers through the loan were "guaranteed" a price for their cotton in recent years ranging from a high of 35.08 cents a pound in 1958 down to 29 cents in 1965.

The Agriculture Act of 1965 discarded this system of supporting cotton prices. It dropped the loan level from 29 cents to 20.25 cents a pound and called for farmers to be reimbursed, by government check, for the difference between this so-called "world price" and their cost of production. These "price support payments" were based on a percentage of the cotton parity price and ranged from 9 cents a pound in 1966 up to 16.8 cents per pound in 1970.

Under the 1970 Act, which is good through Dec. 31, 1973, the payment rate was set at 15 cents a pound in 1971 and is likely to remain at that level for the duration of the program.

Echols warns that the direct payment of supporting cotton prices has been in trouble from the beginning. Direct payments, as were the loans of previous years, are a very necessary subsidization of a vital U. S. industry. But the change from loans to government checks has made it infinitely easier for legislators of uninformed constituency to make political hay in predominantly urban districts by spotlighting payments as a superfluous government give-away program to "rich farmers."

Each year when Congress asked for funds to carry out the 1965 act there were efforts to place a limit on the amount of payments that could go to any one farmer. These efforts were based on what any one farmer "ought to get" instead of formula written into the law.

In 1970 these foes were back at work, as the current program was being developed, and the House and Senate settled on $55,000 per crop per person as the minimum limit which the program could be passed through both Houses of Congress.

But even before the law was passed, when the agricultural appropriations bill came up in 1970, the Senate voted to further substitute the "minimum income requirements" philosophy for the capitalistic method of paying each farmer on the basis of his contribution to the industry. They voted to lower the payment ceiling to $20,000. The House had previously passed the appropriations bill without restrictions on payments, and the Senate move failed.

Then, (in 1971, this year, the situation was reversed. The House passed a lower ceiling, the Senate was persuaded to turn it down, and agriculture once again "dodged lightning."

With this history of strong and growing opposition to cotton program payments, Echols told the PCG Board, "cotton producers can no longer afford to be complacent and assume that 'things will always be worked out.' We must face up to the fact that the ultimate goal of congressmen who want to lower the payment ceiling is not $20,000, but is nearer the government's poverty level of $3,000, and some congressmen openly admit that their objective is to kill farm programs, period.

"There is now no doubt that a majority of both the House and the Senate is opposed to cotton price support payments to producers in proportion to the amount of their production, so there is no assurance that a workable direct payments type cotton program can be passed for the years beyond 1973," he said.

Cotton as a fiber and a major U. S. industry, is dependent upon the producer and unless this producer finds alternative sources of income, or finds some different way to obtain government assistance, the industry will simply wither and die, Echols concludes.

It appears to us that this nation can ill afford to lose one of its major industries, especially one which competes effectively on the world market and provides jobs throughout this nation. Friends of the cotton industry had better start doing their home work now, if this movement is to be checked.

What Other Editors Say

Graham Purcell Vs. Bob Price
The announcement from Graham Purcell that has long been awaited finally came through this week. Purcell, presently congressman from 13th District which includes Childress, has decided to announce for re-election in the district. Although this is still the 13th district, it has been enlarged to include all of the Panhandle including Amarillo.

The old 13th district went no farther west than Childress county but extended east to include Denton and part of Dallas county. Part of the east end of the district was chopped off but added was all of the Panhandle. Purcell will run on the Democratic ticket and Price on the Republican ticket. It is likely that in the primary elections there will be little activity on the part of either candidate. Neither is likely to be opposed in the primary. The big fireworks will come next fall prior to the General Election.

Purcell lives in Wichita Falls. Price has his home in Pampa.

Both men have served in the Congress to represent Childress county. Price was elected in the old 18th district and was the Congressman for this county until Childress was placed in the 13th district. Purcell, who was the Congressman at the time, became our representative in Congress.

Being a Democrat, which we have publicly admitted on many occasions, means we will support Graham Purcell. But our support goes further than the fact that he is a Democrat. His record in Congress has been outstanding. He is a farmer at heart, being a graduate of A&M University, and a lawyer by choice. As a lawyer, farmer and Congressman he is most helpful to the needs of this area.

We believe his decision to run for re-election in the 13th district is because of his interest in agriculture and because the counties in the district are cattle, wheat, cotton and grain growing counties. This is a field in which he is at home and a field in which he like to work and can serve best. As a ranking member of the Agriculture Committee in Congress he has a strong voice in the policies of the government regarding the farmer and agriculture.

It must be disappointing to Senator Jack Hightower of Vernon for he had said he would seek the post from the 13th district if Purcell ran for the new district including Denton county and the area around Dallas and Fort Worth. Hightower will run for re-election in the Texas Senate once the boundaries of the district are announced.

In addition, Hightower is the Grand Master of the Texas Masonic Lodge and in a position where he will be traveling over the state regularly for the coming year and will be quite busy. He likely will be in a position to step up to higher office at a future date.

Both Purcell and Price have been campaigning in the district for the past few weeks. Price has been holding Town Hall meetings in the new part of the 13th district. He is in Childress tonight for a Town Hall meeting at the Junior High school. It seems that 10 yr. come around pretty often and hardly are we settled in one district than changing population puts us in another district. We don't like it. We thing Congressmen should be on the same basis as U. S. Senators, representing an area regardless of population. That wouldn't conform to the Supreme Court's ruling of "one man, one vote", but at least it would assure us of being in the same district for more than ten years. If people continue to move from the farms and small cities to the metropolitan area it may not be too many years until one Congressman will be representing nearly all of west Texas. He couldn't make it by to see you very often.

Boys Ranch To Have Rodeo On Labor Day '71

Approximately 10,000 people are expected to visit Cal Farley's Boys Ranch over the Labor Day weekend to watch the boys put on their 27th annual Boys Ranch Rodeo.

LETTERS

To The Editor

Walnut Grove, Mo.
Dear Bill:
The Ozarks Empire Fair for 1971 is over and the event, running from Aug. 11 to Aug. 18th, broke previous records for attendance. Last year the total was 14,884 and this year that number was reached with another full day to go. This is the largest fair in Missouri with the exception of the State Fair held in Sedalia which follows the Springfield event on the show circuit. This year's stock entries were so large that it was split into a dairy show the first four days and a beef show the last four. The judging arena in the coliseum is the size of a football field and two breeds of stock were judged at the same time, using different ends of the arena.
Your former Chamber of Commerce manager was honored here as Guest Artist at the Arts and Crafts show in the large Arts Building, paintings being displayed in the front of the building and not entered in competition. He had 12 paintings, mostly Texan scenes, and was very happy to have the attention they attracted. The old Wallace homestead with its storm cellar perhaps drew the most attention.
The Robertson Art Gallery in Springfield took the display after the fair and will be our Southwestern Missouri representative in the future.

May I add that I have already had time to do some fishing and had two messes of bass and catfish in the ice box. We have been in love with the Holiday travel trailer. I had to shift down second only two times after driving driving speed, between Memphis and Springfield, and that was between Memphis and Amrock. Feels like it is pushing the car instead of being pulled. The gas consumption tells a different story.

Sincerely,

in the nation in which all of the contestants are boys riding calves, steers, brahma bulls and bucking broncs. The older boys compete on professional rodeo stock and all of the judging is under R. C. A. rules. All of the 375 boys now at the Ranch have a part in the rodeo, either as contestants or working in the many behind-the-scenes activities.

Each rodeo performance will begin at 2:30 both Sunday and Monday afternoon, and big barbecue beef sandwiches will be prepared and sold by the boys for only $1.00. The rodeo is also a traditional homecoming for the more than 2,500 boys who have lived at the Ranch since it was founded by Cal Farley in 1939.

Reserved box seat tickets for $2.50 are available at the Boys Ranch office, 600 West 11th Street in Amarillo, or can be obtained by writing to Cal Farley's Boys Ranch, P. O. Box 1890, Amarillo, Texas, 79105. General admission will be $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children.

Labor Day Weekend To Take 52 Lives On Texas Highways

AUSTIN—Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, today estimated that traffic accidents over the long Labor Day Weekend will claim 52 lives in the state.

Speir called for motorists to avoid drinking while driving, avoid fatigue, and modify their driving speed in accordance with expected heavy traffic conditions.

In an effort to hold the toll down, the DPS and local law enforcement agencies, in cooperation with the news media of Texas, will conduct "Operation Motorcade" a public awareness program designed to focus attention on the traffic problem. Special reports on fatal traffic accidents will be prepared at DPS Headquarters and released three times daily during the holiday period which runs from 6 p. m. Friday, Sept. 3 to midnight Monday, Sept. 6.

New Law Requires Motorists To Stop For School Buses

AUSTIN—A new State law effective August 30 will no longer permit Texas motorists to stop and then pass a school bus which is loading or unloading children.

Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said the new law, passed by the 62nd Legislature, applies in both cities and rural areas and requires motorists moving both directions on the same roadway with a school bus to stop and remain stopped as long as the flashing lights on the bus are in operation.

Under current law, which applies only in rural areas, drivers must stop for a stopped bus, but may then proceed around it at a speed of not more than 10 miles per hour if safe to do so.

The new law will not require those vehicles on another roadway of a divided highway to stop, and stops are not required if the bus has stopped in a loading zone of a controlled access highway where pedestrians are not permitted to cross.

Speir noted that provisions of the new law will be strictly enforced to afford maximum protection to the school children of Texas.

She was installed as first vice president of the national band fraternity at the meeting. She had been serving as treasurer of the fraternity.

During the summer, Miss Blain did graduate work at Texas Tech University, and served as dorm mother during the summer Tech Band camp.

The Cyclone Band won sweepstakes in UIL competition and was again selected to have the film of their band on the march show at the Convention of Texas Bandmasters Association.

FHA Loans Texans $155,456,817 During Last Fiscal Year

J. Lynn Futch, Texas State director of the Farmers Home Administration, announced this week that the agency extended credit to rural Texans in the amount of $155,456,817 during the 1971 fiscal year ending June 30, 1971.

This credit was furnished farmers and rural residents through the many loan programs administered by the agency with rural housing leading the way with $72,302,453. Loans for community services facilities such as rural water systems and sewer systems totaled $24,205,192. Credit extended to individual farmers and ranchers for operating expenses, capital purchased and land purchases totaled $58,949,172. This was the largest yearly volume of loans in the history of the organization, which has as its overall mission the development of rural areas.

Futch said that he was also pleased that there was a sizeable decrease in the percentage of loan delinquencies as compared to previous years.

Due to the severe drouth in the spring and early summer of this year, it is expected that the demand for emergency credit to farmers and ranchers this fall and winter will substantially increase the volume of farm loans in fiscal 1972, with all other programs also expected to be expanded. The program is administered in Texas through 144 county offices and the state office in Temple.

CARD OF THANKS

We gratefully acknowledge the many expressions of kindness and sympathy extended to us during the illness and death of our loved one. We especially wish to thank the nurses, doctors and staff of the Hall County Hospital for their faithful service.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

BY VERN SANFORD

Confidence helps you catch fish. Maybe it's the "power of positive thinking". But, whatever it is, it works.

A man who is bored or really isn't expecting a strike seldom lands a lunger.

It's that true many a man has caught a fish when he least expected it—when lighting a cigarette, looking the other way, or talking to a buddy. More than likely the reason for his surprising success is in the change of pace in his fishing.

Chances are he had been erratic in his fishing methods. Or fishing too fast. When he turned his attention elsewhere, he forgot his lure and quit thrashing it around in the water. He was actually giving the fish its first appealing look at his lure.

This man can thank our expert lure manufacturers for his catch—the strike was not due to the angler's skill but largely to the built-in attractiveness of the lure.

There's no doubt in my mind that the most successful angler is the fisherman who is really enthusiastic, who sincerely believes that every minute his lure in the water a whopper is looking at it trying to decide whether or not to gobble it up. Usually, the intent, enthusiastic angler is by far the better fisherman—all other things being equal.

This enthusiasm comes to fishermen in various ways and for various reasons. Some are just naturally enthusiastic about everything. Others get pepped up because they have been so successful in fishing in the past they actually seem to think that fish are everywhere at all times. Others are enthusiastic about a particular spot where they have had good luck before. Their favorite spot remains their favorite for one good reason—they fish it better. They're enthused over it. They know they can catch fish there because they have done it before and they have full confidence that they can do it again.

Too often we are "doubting Thomases." We feel the fish must have moved on to greener pastures

This doesn't mean we won't catch any fish... simply that we catch more with positive thinking.

Just how does one acquire confidence, if it doesn't come naturally? Generally, by concentrating. Many anglers don't like to concentrate because it boils down to just plain work. Most people fish for fun and don't want to make work out of their fun.

You should watch some of the professional fishermen. They make their living selling fish, or those who sell fishing lures and equipment... or by observing fishing guides. Those fellows take fishing seriously. They work at it all day long, day after day. They catch lots of fish. They concentrate on what they are doing. They plan every cast. And they react the instant a fish strikes. They will bring a fish to the boat while the average angler is toying with his catch.

But how does the average fisherman get this confidence, this sensitive attitude? Of course, the way is to start catching fish. Not only gives you confidence in the fish are there but also that you have ability to bring them

SPORTS CORNER

By BILL COMBS

The season is upon us, when the whistle, the music of the crack through the late evening air and the oblong pigskin sailing by the toes of one player into the anxious, nervous hands of a receiver, wearing a different colored uniform. Football is here again.

What makes the game of football such a vital, exciting and compelling part of the lives of our youth and adults alike is really no mystery. The game has all the elements of warfare, without the destruction which warfare brings.

We received the following article from a studious observer of the sport which has much merit. The writer says: "Ever since the time of American football became a part of our sports life, studious observers have realized that the foundation of a successful team rests on the linemen. The 'infantrymen' who battle on each play, toe to toe along a line of scrimmage, are the critical factors in the success of a team.

Football in a sense is warfare miniature. The rival armies attack and defend a given piece of ground. It is true that the forward pass and kicking add the force to the game and increase defense and attack in a different way; but as students of military strategy have long noted, the infantrymen must take and occupy the land if the battle is to be won. This concept is totally applicable to the game of football.

When your team is on offense, if your linemen can attack and move forward into the ground of the enemy, you will have a successful offense. Your team will be able to move the ball to the goal line and score. Conversely, if, when on defense, your linemen stop the back of the enemy by successfully defending their territory, your opponents will be unable to score. Your team will win.

To summarize the statement above—the fundamental basic foundation of a successful football team is the ability of the line. If the line can win the fight over the opponent's line, the team will win the game. If your line loses the fight to the opponent's line, your team will lose the game."

Armies and football teams are made up of many same factors. Coaches must select their players as Generals do their military units to accomplish desired objectives. Sometimes, small, quick, aggressive lines, with quick hitting, check blocking, double team blocking, can crack holes in the defense of the big, slow, more powerful opponent. But sometimes when the bigger boys are quick also, the contest is reversed.

Some fans go to the game and watch only the quarterback, backfield men and the action surrounding the football. They leave the game with the misconception of how well each team did against the other. The fan who watches closely the linemen as they execute blocks, knows instantly where the play will materialize. Offensive linemen quickly show pass blocking, trap blocking and sweep blocking.

Boys who play football are aware that if they play in the line, they'll get little publicity as a general rule. Also, they often fail to hear their name mentioned when fans do the congratulations. Linemen do battle in a zone called the scrimmage zone, three yards on either side of the line of scrimmage from tackle to tackle. This zone is often referred to as the clipping zone, where it is legal to hit someone from behind without being penalized for it.

In the game of football, the linemen are the unsung heroes, the infantrymen, the warriors who punish and are punished. They're the ones up front fighting the battle of strength, quickness, nerve and courage.

Other members of the team, ends, backs, defensive secondary personnel receive a certain amount of publicity. However, in all positions, before a lad gets to play in a ball game he must earn and hold a starting position. This,

'They Came From Spain' To Premier At Canyon Sept. 2

CANYON, The early history of the Texas Panhandle depicted by the latest in multi-media equipment will unfold in "They Came From Spain," to premier Sept. 2 in the Pioneer Amphitheatre of Palo Duro Canyon State Park.

The show is produced by the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation in cooperation with West Texas State University. The University also cooperates with the foundation in the production of Raul Green's symphonic drama Texas.

Against the backdrop of the tiered Palo Duro Canyon walls, "They Came From Spain," written by Mrs. Margaret Harper of Canyon tells of the 16th century exploits of Francisco Vasquez de Coronado and his company, of their daring quest to find the fabled Seven Cities of Cibola of Indian legend. The story will be depicted in a pageantry of light, sound, film and live action.

Performance time is 8:15 p. m. Thursday through Saturday. A barbecue dinner is served before each performance from 6:30 to 8: p. m. at the amphitheatre site. Eddie Thomas, instructor of forensics and debate at El Centro College in Dallas, is director of the production.

Oklahoma State University's No. 1 QB Tony Pounds is in the thick of another duel over who will call the signals for the OSU Cowboys. Coach Floyd Gass admitted this week the Cowboy quarterback race has narrowed down to two, last year's starter Tony Pounds and sophomore Brent Blackman. Gass says, "They've just graded higher and produced more often in clutch situations. They're both about dead even, at the moment." Gass declined any speculation on when the decision of 'who'll start in the opener?' will be made. That's the latest word from OSU on Tony's chances to remain the No. 1 field general of the Cowboys. We're pulling for Tony for we know he'll be doing his best.

Local Resident Attends State Cancer Meeting

"Volunteerism" was a word often used by Dr. Grover Bynum, out-going President Texas Division, American Cancer Society, in his closing address to more than 300 delegates attending the 26th annual meeting in Houston, last week. Perhaps no one understood the meaning of this word better than Hall County delegates, Mrs. Roy L. Guthrie, president of the local unit, who lost her husband to this dread disease in June of this year, and Mrs. Bernie McIntosh who is service and rehabilitation chairman for Hall County.

The Division annual meeting is a busy, work-studied two day affair, consisting of some 36 different volunteer conferences, committee meetings and elections. It is at this meeting that volunteers get a glimpse of the magnitude of the work being conducted in the battle to eradicate cancer, and how to better perform their job as a volunteer worker. More than 300 delegates get a look at the success ACS has had in public education, research, and rehabilitation, but at the same time, are reminded of the great task that lies ahead if cancer is even to be conquered.

Hall County is one of twenty counties which compose District Three. This district had nine counties represented by fifteen delegates and three district directors. Five counties reached an all time high exceeding 32 cents per capita in Crusade efforts and five others received awards of merit or recognition in fund raising.

"We are presented with the challenge to learn the true meaning of the word 'volunteerism' in its very deepest sense, because we are told that more than half of all cancers can now be cured if people would only heed the warning signals or have regular health check ups," says Mrs. L. C. McLain, district director from Hart. Mrs. Guthrie says "What a magnificent effort to combat cancer is exhibited at this meeting—300 people with a common goal combining their resources to achieve a common victory which would alleviate the suffering and heartache of millions." Surely it will come in our lifetime. This is the hope, the anticipation, the dream of every volunteer."

Local Carnegie Library Renders Valuable Service to Area Resident

By VIRGINIA BROWDER

We, of this area, are thrice blessed as to our local library: (1) In having one of the few libraries in the United States endowed by the Andrew Carnegie Foundation. (2) In having an unusually fine collection of books available to the reading public. (3) In having in Mrs. Jack Boone an interested and busy librarian, eager and anxious to serve her patrons in every possible way.

Unfortunately, the building erected in 1911 is in a deplorable condition except for the beautiful front door and fan-light given by the Atalantean club members. Through the years, little thought or attention has been given to the building's repairs, therefore its present state. However, investigation is being made by Johnny Farnsworth, president of the Library Board, as to possible restoration and remodeling of this landmark.

Besides the fine assortment of books on diverse subjects for children and adults, books of poetry and documentary editions have been given as memorials to loved ones. Mrs. Boone maintains constant contact with the Bivins Memorial Library in Amarillo and frequently writes letters of introduction for students who want to borrow books from that excellent storehouse of current and historical literature.

Recently, the Carnegie Library of Memphis was extended a grant of $400 worth of books on loan from the Bivins Library. Mrs. Boone was allowed to select the books she wanted. This together with the fund for purchase of new books each year will add immeasurably to the collection already available. Besides the selection of magazines subscribed to by the librarian, Charlie Stout, a regular patron recently donated subscriptions to "The American West" and The Audubon Magazine to the local library.

Through the summer months, reading certificates were given students for reading a certain number of books. Surprisingly enough, the Latin American children entered this program eagerly and carried away several certificates.

Mrs. Boone wishes the club women and any other interested parties to know that, by use of the Watts line, she can procure almost immediate delivery on any book needed from the Bivins Memorial Library. Also, Mrs. Boone will be on duty at the Bivins Library booth at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo September 23. If you visit the fair that day stop by and say "hello" to our capable librarian.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mothershed took their daughter and grandson, Mrs. Jim Ekerberg and Mark, to Trinidad Sunday to meet their husband and father. The Ekerbergs live in Loveland, Colo.

Mrs. Helen Furrh of Denton, Tex., has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. H. E. Adcock, who fell and broke her shoulder on Aug. 8.

Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Shankle visited in Lockney over the weekend with their daughter, Mrs. Carl Lee and family.

GRAHAM PURCELL

Graham Purcell Announces Intentions To Run For 13th Dist. Representative

Amrillo—Incumbent U. S. Representative Graham Purcell (D-Texas) this week announced that he would seek re-election in the redrawn 13th Congressional District in 1972.

In making the announcement, the six-term Democratic Chairman of the House Agriculture Committee's Subcommittee on Livestock and Grains said simply, "This is where I belong." Purcell's statement thus ended speculation that he would run in the newly created Dallas-Ft. Worth District established when the Texas Legislature redrew Congressional District lines earlier this year. The announcement also set the stage for what would undoubtedly be the most difficult campaign Purcell would ever wage - against Republican Bob Price who also has his eye on the new District which combines the Panhandle and other counties eastward.

I was greatly impressed by the show of support I received during my visits with people around the Panhandle," said Purcell, who has been serving continuously in Congress since the 8th Congress, to which he was elected in 1961 when he left his post as District Judge. While I was also flattered and deeply appreciative of people who wanted me to represent them in Fort Worth and Dallas my roots are here. This is where I grew up, where I returned after the War, and where I will stay. This is my home," the veteran Congressman said.

Ben K. Green, Best Seller Author, Visits Golden Cobweb In Memphis

"The Village Horse Doctor" by Dr. Ben K. Green has been on the "best seller" list in the Sunday edition of The Ft. Worth Star Telegram for the past fifteen weeks which is some kind of a record for a fellow who didn't want to write in the first place. This reluctant author was on a return trip from Laramie, Wyoming when he stopped in to visit at The Golden Cobweb Antique Shop Thursday of last week.

Dr. Green was a practicing veterinarian for 20 years after graduation from Cornell University and post graduate study at the Royal College of Veterinary Medicine in England. Now retired, Dr. Green lives on ancestral land northwest of Ceuby, Texas which was patented by a great grandfather in 1841. His main business is his fifty acre fruit orchard, Devon cattle (an English breed) and good horses but his side lines are many and varied.

A master story-teller with a background of colorful and exciting experiences as source material, Dr. Green's books now number seven in all, have received acclaim throughout the southwest. His breaking mules when he was 'a young buck' of fifteen for Ross Brothers in Ft. Worth, his living with the Bedouin Arabs in the Sahara desert, his formulating a treatment for yellow weed poisoning in sheep in the Ft. Stockton area, these many and many other true happenings have been carefully woven into his stories.

Urged into the writing field by friends and publishers acquainted with his thrilling, often hair-raising experiences, Dr. Green began to recount his stories for publication. He never kept a diary or a day journal but relies on his memory for the tales he tells and certainly his power of recall is remarkable. About his writing, Dr. Green says he "dictates live" that is his dictaphone is a young lady who has been his secretary for a number of years and takes down his tales as he relates them to her, all his actual experiences through the years as a horse-trader, a doctor, and a traveler over many states and foreign countries.

Considered an authority on horses, another sideline is judging at horse shows and ordering horses for customers. This keeps him traveling much of the time. He purchased the foundation mares and stallions for the Kellogg (ceral family) farms in California several years ago and goes back to Keenland, Kentucky each July to the yearling sale to buy horses for other people. He once flew to Hawaii to judge an all-breed horse show which was "duck-soup" for one with his knowledge of horse flesh but the "kluauus" were almost too much for him.

As an author, Dr. Green has appeared on the "Today" Show, received awards for his writing and been literally "wined and dined" but, despite all the fuss and fanfare, the success of his stories and his contact with prominent people, he is still a down-to-earth genial horse-trader the likes of which one doesn't meet every day.

Two young men, Swede Roark and Dick Fowler, who had read and relished his books were called in to meet and visit with this gentleman of the Old West and scholar of animal lore. The author of this thumb-nail biography first met the dear doctor when he came to Cedar Hills Ranch in Donley County in 1961 to measure some horses for her. Only one mare of the group of five passed his standard of measurements and could be registered in The International Jockey Club, an organization which he originated.

Dr. Ben K. Green has touched bases at Cedar Hills Ranch for all-too-brief visits in the past ten years, even taken a nap in the big arm chair on the porch when the owner was not at home. To know him is a real treat and his stories, like icing on the cake, leave a sweet taste in your mouth.

Ted Wheelers Enjoy Trip To Nashville, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Dutch Wheeler and Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Wheeler and children, Wendy Dawn and children, Mrs. Charles Robertson and children enjoyed attending the annual Wheeler family reunion in Mount Ida, Ark., on August 8.

From there Mr. and Mrs. Ted Wheeler and children and Mrs. Charles Robertson and children went to Nashville, Tenn., where they spent a week visiting Wendy Dawn and children. While there they toured Music City and visited Andrew Jackson Hermitage which has all the original furnishings used by Andrew Jackson and his family. They made a tour of the homes of famous singers such as Johnny Cash, Roy Orbison, Lefty Frizzal, Jeanie C. Riley and also visited the County Music Hall of Fame and the Grand Ole Opry. They were given a personal tour of the home office of National Life and Accident Insurance Company with whom Wheeler is employed. En route home, they spent weekend in the home of Mr. Mrs. W. W. Shawhart in Paris.

one of our Hall County boys who had been away for many years was visiting last weekend (that he found that he knew when he was here). This former resident with his wife, Ursula, and two daughters, Mary Ann and Ninabeth Guill. A. W. and his wife have three sons, now enrolled in Houston University, a graduate of University, Talley, a graduate of University and now living in Hartford, Conn., and Dennis, a graduate of A&M, married and in the service stationed at Carson, Colo. The two daughters are in the home where one of them is a sophomore and the other is a senior in high school. A. W. and his wife were both graduates from M. H. S. and late graduated from A & M. At one time in his school days, he was an emcee at the Memphis Democrat office and headed for his office and asked Claude Wells, as he did know that Mr. and Mrs. Wells were away. I can remember in the 1930's I would go to Jack, J. W. Slover and A. W. Slover and their model airplanes in the Memphis Democrat office. I noticed a picture of the new directors of the Oak Cliff Chamber of Commerce and found on this board there were two Hall County boys (now men) and also both of them were named Jerry. Jerry Burnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Burnett, and the other one was Jerry Gilmore, son of the late Bailey and Mrs. Gladys Gilmore, who now lives in Dallas. Both of these boys come from families who were early day settlers in Hall County. Congratulations to them!

had eight children in their family, four are deceased, only one living in Memphis and that is Louise Nunneley, wife of Jay. They liked Heritage Hall very much. Mrs. Tamplin has increased her weight by 50 pounds since leaving here in 1957.

Jay Mullins, now of Dallas, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Mullins of Turkey, was in. He is the grandson of the late H. E. Mullins who first moved to the Turkey area about 1890. Jay graduated from Turkey High School, attended Texas Tech, lived in New York for a time, and for the past four years has been in the Fort Worth-Dallas area doing landscaping.

We had another one of the Jones girls visiting in Heritage Hall. This was one of Mrs. A. B. Jones' daughters, Ethel (Jones) Johnson from Garland. Among with her were two of her grandchildren, Teri and Billy of Euless. Ethel graduated from MHS in 1930. She and her husband, Bill, formerly lived here.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Sparks had as their guests in Hall Co. Heritage Hall, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith of Dallas. Mrs. Simts is a sister of Mrs. Sparks.

Other visitors in Heritage Hall were Mrs. Rush Record, Mrs. Roberts Kilgore, Mrs. Hal C. Hiller and Thelma McClure Gravely, all of Childress.

When I was reading the Oak Cliff section of the Dallas News, I noticed a picture of the new directors of the Oak Cliff Chamber of Commerce and found on this board there were two Hall County boys (now men) and also both of them were named Jerry. Jerry Burnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Burnett, and the other one was Jerry Gilmore, son of the late Bailey and Mrs. Gladys Gilmore, who now lives in Dallas. Both of these boys come from families who were early day settlers in Hall County. Congratulations to them!

Mrs. Joe Mothershed had as her guest in Hall County Heritage Hall, her daughter, Nancy (Mothershed) Ekerberg of Loveland, Colo. She graduated from MHS in 1963. She has one son, Mark, age 3. She attended the University of Northern Colorado. Joe and Mildred have another daughter, Susan, who graduated from MHS in 1956 and graduated from Baylor University at Waco in 1969. We will try to check up on Washington D. C. when Susan is here as she has been working there the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Tamplin of Fort Worth were in Heritage Hall the past week. They lived in Memphis from 1947 to 1957. They her son, Don, is now living in Pasadena where he and his son, Keith are operating an auto parts store. Keith recently returned from Vietnam where he served as a helicopter pilot. Josephine's sister, Margaret, passed away in 1917. Josie worked some for me and also for Goodall Hospital before moving to Fort Worth where she has worked for a surgical supply house for several years.

A quote from Nick Power's "Barefoot Hollow", "The Hardest money to earn is that which you have already done spent."

We drove down through the City Park about three weeks ago on a Saturday night and found there assembled at the stadium over 300 young people in a religious service. They were here from here and other surrounding areas. That speaks well for a good community and I am reminded of the statement I have heard Winfred Moore, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Amarillo make a number of times that the best part of the world is in the golden spread" of the Panhandle of Texas.

A good many of our young people have gone away to college and several for the first time.

Mrs. Larry Stewart had as her guests in Heritage Hall her husband's mother, Vera (Mar's) Stewart of Lamar, Colo. Also with them were Larry, Jr., Ronda and Beverly Stewart. Vera attended school here and nursed at Goodall Hospital and later was nurse at West Texas Hospital in Lubbock. She left here about 20 years ago. She has five children, all living, and 15 grandchildren.

Stan Norwood and daughter, Patsy, of Bonham visited in Hall Co. Heritage Hall and were very complimentary of our display. Mr. and Mrs. Preston Jouett, Darlene, Terry and Eddie of Turkey also visited. Mr. and Mrs. Jouett were both born in Hall County in the Estelline area and have only been out of the county two years since they were born.

Remember the Hall County Picnic the third Sunday in September.

Mrs. Albert Gerlach and Mrs. Guy Smith, Sr. had as their guest in Heritage Hall last Saturday, Mrs. Josephine (Hudgens) Tyler Gibbons, a former resident of Hall County and now living in Fort Worth. Both sides of her family tree were old timers in Hall County. Her Grandfather Durham moved to Hall County in 1890 and she thought that Turner Hudgens arrived here in 1893. Josie Hudgens, as we called her, attended school at Webster and Memphis. She and Harry Tyler were married at her Grandfather Durham's home at Webster in 1915 by Bro. Enoch Eiland. She and Harry had two sons, Harry Jr. and Don. Harry Jr. was killed in World War II. Her husband, Harry, passed away in 1939. The ot-

They may think things will be quiet without them and there will be an emptiness in the homes, but we have all heard of up-drafts and down-drafts, and after a few weeks in checking, they may start some over-drafts! I just found another quote from "Barefoot in Booger Holler" by Nick Powers. "Too many folks are itchin' for sump'n they don't want to scratch fur."

We are wishing our college students from Hall County the best of everything and hope they will be an asset to the college they attend and not a liability.

School Board Adopts Federal Lunch Program

The Memphis School Board, meeting to approve the revised 1970-71 school budget of the end of the fiscal year on Aug. 31, also approved the Federal Partial Pay and Free Lunch Program for the Memphis schools.

Each year, the last of August, the school board must meet and amend the budget at the close of the fiscal year, a requirement of state law.

In approving the Federal Partial-Free Lunch program, the Memphis board appointed an applications approval committee and appointed Supt. C. L. Chambliss to be the district's appeal officer for the program.

Each student will bring home a notice explaining the program and how to apply. The application is turned over to the committee for approval or rejection, according to the guidelines. In the case of a rejection by the committee, parents can appeal the decision to the appeals officer, Mr. Chambliss, for review.

Concerning the financial status of the district, Mr. Chambliss reported that the Memphis ISD is in "good financial shape."

He also reported that he was real pleased with the opening of school this year and students are adhering to school policy.

"Enrollment is down approximately seven students at this time, from last year," he said.

The superintendent also reported that the school still has a few reserved seat tickets left if fans are interested. They can be purchased by contacting the superintendent's office during school hours.

"Since it's both teams' scrimmage, the coaches felt it would be more beneficial to make the scrimmage more realistic," Coach McMurray said.

Cyclone Booster Club members will be on hand to sell automobile decals, hats, pins, and other items for local fans at the scrimmage Friday.

Coach McMurray reported that the Memphis B Team and Freshmen scrimmaged at Turkey Thursday night. The local coach said the scrimmage was most beneficial to the local lads, giving them experience before opening their season, and preparing them for scrimmage with Quannah Friday night.

Coach McMurray reported that the Cyclone squad received no injuries in the Stinnett scrimmage. "Our boys made mistakes, missed assignments, and had early jitters, but as a whole, we are real pleased with the scrimmage," he said.

Supt. of Schools C. L. Chambliss reported that there are still some reserved seats left for Cyclone football games. Fans should contact the superintendent's office if they want to purchase the tickets.

The boosters will meet at 7:30 p. m. next Tuesday, then, on the following week, boosters will meet on Monday night.
