EDITORIAL

Jack Hightower, Our New Representative!

We express the general, popular feeling of our citizens when we say we are proud of, and proud for, State Senator Jack Hightower who won election to be U. S. Representative from the 13th Congressional District.

He will be dropping the title of Senator and taking on a title of "Honorable" or "Representative" when he is sworn in to office in early January. The title "Honorable" is one that somehow seems to fit like a glove on this man, a native son of Hall County.

News media personnel, especially from the Amarillo area, seemed to express disbelief that Hightower would sweep to victory by such a large percentage, especially after Incumbent Bob Price, up to the eve of the election, said that he was the leader in the race and would be re-elected.

Obviously, opinion polls were not too accurate in judging this race. This was the second major political victory pulled off by Hightower this year, as he won the primary race over two opponents with 65 percent of the vote carrying in all 33 counties.

Jack Hightower has all the credentials he needs to go to Washington, effectively represent his district, and grow into a national leader, much as he did in the State Capitol, where he was the leading State Senator in Texas.

Born and raised in Memphis, near a farm his grandfather homesteaded 85 years ago, he received BA and LLB degrees from Baylor University and an honorary LLD degree from Howard Payne College. He has served in the Texas House, as a District Attorney, recognized as "Outstanding District Attorney in Texas" in 1959. He served 10 years in the Texas Senate and was elected president of the Senate and saluted as Governor for a day in April, 1971.

Senator Hightower is a family man, he spent election night with his family, in celebration of his victory, and his comments to news media were humble, thankful and informative as he gave a brief outline of what he will be doing between now and the time he takes office to prepare for his new job.

Jack Hightower did something in this election that political observers of the 13th Congressional District said "couldn't be done". He drew good support from the traditional northern counties of the upper Panhandle, long a stronghold of conservative Republicans. Meanwhile, he solidified that southeastern portion of the district solidly behind him. This combined to give 46-year-Old Vernon resident his victory.

Although many may indicate that Congressman Price's defeat was caused by Watergate, and the problems of the Republican Party, we feel that inflation, sagging farm commodity markets, and public service records of the candidates played a far greater influence on the voters than did any national issues like Watergate.

This newspaper supported Jack Hightower, was the first newspaper in the 13th Congressional District to unofficially announce his candidacy for the office. We thank Jack for coming by the Office early last fall, before he announced his intentions, and planting the news tip in our ear, and giving his permission for us to publish the hottest political news we had received, before the dailies had it. He wanted the home folks to know first.

We congratulate Jack Hightower, his wife Colleen (Ward formerly of Tulia) and three daughters, Ann, 21; Amy, 18; and Alison, 14; whose lives will be undergoing a tremendous change. We admire them all.

What Other Editors Say

Poverty Exaggerated

From time to time, and especially during an election year, we hear a lot about poverty in these United States and a lot of people seem to think that a growing number of people live in poverty.

It might be well to take a look at the situation.

Americans, except for a tiny few, don't know what poverty is, compared to the rest of the world.

Poor Americans live better than the so-called middle class Russians who think they are living well.

The federal government says that 10.8 per cent of the families in America now live in poverty. They define poverty as that in which annual income is below $4,137.

But the same government statistics show that roughly 50 per cent of our poor have at least one car and 7 per cent have two or more cars.

Of these below the poverty level, 78 per cent own a black and white television set and 20 per cent have a color TV. There are 55 per cent with washing machines, 18 per cent with dryers, 77 per cent with refrigerators and 22 per cent with home freezers.

Of our poor, 16 per cent have air conditioners and 3 per cent have automatic dishwashers.

Would the folks in Bangladesh think a neighbor was poor if he had a car, a TV, a refrigerator, and maybe even an air conditioner?

Would a Russian school teacher think a neighbor or colleague poor if he had some or all of these things? We think not. Such a person would be considered rich.

The poverty line in the U. S. is higher than the average income in the Soviet Union and the U. S. poverty line is higher than the income of 90 per cent of the people of the entire world.

Those pictures of children looking like a skelton with skin draped over it don't come from the U. S., you can bet on that.

Our poor are not starving, although admittedly not everyone gets to eat high on the hog, so to speak.

The poor in our country are receiving $1,107 per year for each poor person in the U. S. while our foreign aid program comes to $1.14 per individual living elsewhere in the world.

Today's so-called poverty stricken Americans do not have it so good, but they could certainly have it worse.

It fact, there are people living elderly in our community make out very well on a whole lot less.

Poverty is as much a state of mind as a state of finances. We do have poor people and we do have government programs to help them. But whenever we keep reading and hearing that poverty is on the upswing in our country, we need to take a look at the facts and regain our perspective.

farm east of Plaska (Lodge). There were four children in this family—Fritz (deceased), Zola, Thelma and Homer who are all now living in Big Spring. I think all of the members of this family have the same feeling about Hall County as I had a letter a few weeks ago from Homer and his wife, Virginia, expressing their love for their friends in Hall County. After the many years since Thelma taught in our schools, she can look over some very successful adults now that at one time were her pupils at Lodge and Memphis. If any of these pupils want to write their former teacher, it's Mrs. J. R. Stanley of Big Springs.

I was grounded by the doctor the past week a few days and got behind on my news contacts. I did have a short visit with Mrs. A. W. Howard who had been absent several months in the hospital in Dallas and visiting her sister in Florida. I think she had been drinking some of Anita Bryant fruit juices.

Mary Foreman Valghn and Thelma (Shankle) Stanley of Big Springs were visitors in Memphis for a few hours last week. I had a telephone conversation with Thelma and she was expressing her love for Hall County and her friends. Even though she has been away several years, she still claims Hall County as her home, as she taught in our public schools over a quarter of a century and still has the interest of her former pupils in her heart. I first knew the J. D. Shankle family when they lived on the

I can remember when the Shankle family lived at Lodge, it was a very thriving business center in that part of the county with 3 or 4 churches and I believe there were 3 general stores where my uncle, Chas. Baldwin, operated one of these stores. Some of you who knew this family might be interested to know that Chas. lived to be 97 years old and his wife is now living in Lamesa and will be 100 years old the 19th of December. In the early days of this thriving community, the energy was furnished by coal, coal oil, hay, milo, Kaffir Korn, cobs, chips and burrs. This was a happy, hardworking group of people without any energy crises. But the speed was a little slower (Continued on Page 6)

Dear Editor:

We are writing to protest the unsportsmanlike conduct displayed by some of the Memphis football players in our game Friday night.

Several players and quite a few fans cheered when our Kenneth King was injured in the game. We understand that this sort of thing can be expected of a few fans in every town and that it does embarrass the rest of the people. However, the coaches should not tolerate such conduct by their players.

You have a very good football team, and we felt both teams played well. We do feel that some sort of apology is in order.

Sincerely,
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gerner

Dear Sir:

I am writing in protest of the actions of Memphis fans, band members, and football players in the game Friday night.

The Memphis fans, and players cheered and the band started playing when Kenneth King was injured in a late hit.

I don't want this to sound as if we are poor losers. Naturally, everyone hates to lose and Memphis has a good team. Win or lose, I hope (I know) I shall never see the day when Clarendon fans, students or especially football players will cheer when a player is injured. That's the kind of people we have here—they want to win without trying to put someone out. I hope that this was not an example of all Memphis people and that some of your people were embarrassed.

You won on the scoreboard, but we wouldn't trade players or coaches with you.

This is the first time I (and many many more) will not be pulling for the team which represents our district.

Sincerely,
John Wayne Stepp

at that time when you had to have slickers and 4 buckle overshoes. We owe a lot to our pioneers who preserved Hall County for our inheritance.

A quote from Theodore Roosevelt—"Pioneers do not endure the hardships of the plains for themselves, but for their children and their children's children."

The following is some western lore taken from "The Spirit of the West" by Dan Valentine.
"Western cowboy cooks had a reputation for making the strongest coffee in the world. One old cowboy explained his recipe for making coffee: 'I boil it until a branding iron floats on the top—then it is ready for drinking.'"

Colorado's Pikes Peak was named in honor of Captain Zebulon M. Pike. But he never got to the top. He tried in 1806 but was turned back by heavy snows. At the time, he wrote he believed no human being could reach the top. However these days, hundreds of tourists make it to the top every year. Incidentally, although it gets all of the publicity, Pikes Peak is not such a tall peak after all. It stands 14,110 feet. There are 39 peaks in the United States that are higher than Pikes Peak.

Mrs. Ruth Harrison and Mrs. Hiram Crawford were in Amarillo over the past weekend attending a bridge tournament at the Villa Inn.

Local Area Is Shielded Against Depression

NEW YORK, Oct. 26 — With inflation continuing unabated in Hall County, as it is elsewhere throughout the country, local residents are wondering whether a recession, or what is worse — a depression — is on the way.

The term "depression" is meaningless to most local people since they never experienced one personally. There hasn't been one in the United States since the 1930's. Two-thirds of those now living in Hall County were not alive then or were too young to remember it.

To the other one-third it brings back some bitter recollections. It was a time when industry ground almost to a standstill and when millions of workers lost their jobs.

Might it happen again? The consensus among the experts is that it is most improbable because of economic safeguards created since then.

What was it like, generally, during the 1930's? According to U. S. News and World Report, unemployment reached 25 percent, which is over four times the rate in Hall County at present.

It was a time when the national output of goods and services fell by almost one-third in a period of four years.

By way of comparison, although there was no growth in that respect in the past year, neither was there a major slippage. The drop in the national output was about two percent, not counting inflation.

The 1930's also saw people's investments and savings go down the drain. The stock market industrial average fell nearly 90 percent in a period of three years.

As for personal income, it dropped 28 percent in four years. This is in marked contrast to what has been happening in Hall County.

Met L. Brumley, Former Resident Dies in Colorado

Funeral services for Met L. Brumley, former Memphis resident, were held October 30 at 10 a. m. at the Swan Funeral Home, Colorado Springs, Colo. Brumley died Sunday in a nursing home.

He was born Jan. 21, 1886, Gravelly, Ark., and was a groceryman. He had been a resident of Colorado Springs since 1922. Prior to that he lived in Memphis and was employed by the J. L. Barnes Grocery.

He was a member of the Evangelical United Brethren Church and of the Tejon Lodge No. 10 AF&AM.

He is survived by his wife, the home; a daughter, Mrs. A. Gostnell of Arnold, Kan.; a brother, R. C. Brumley of Kansas; a sister, Mrs. Thelma Knight Childress and a brother, Ed Brumley of California and nieces.

David McKay, student at Texas Tech University, Lubbock, visited the weekend here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. McKay.

Let's Talk Memphis!

During the last four years, income after taxes went up 10 percent locally, the figure for the nation was 5 percent.

Despite the fact that the cost of living has gone skyhigh, many families are protected from financial collapse by safeguards that did not exist during the depression.

There is now unemployment insurance and minimum wage laws to protect the worker. These backed up by Social Security in many cases, by private pensions. Bank accounts are government-insured and home loans running for longer periods, easier to handle.

zingo and Dorothy Braidfoot.

response to a letter written by Shelton to the editor Memphis Democrat, I take issue to state my views on the question. Sportsman-any boy, whoever he is, should suffer injuries as farthest from any jubilation at such an event is out of the question, he is so accused is unwarranted and grossly unfair. You cheer when an opposing offensive drive is stopped, it be Clarendon Bronco's cheer. There was an occasion from the Bronco for the same reason. Shelton failed to mention and quiet in the entire when the injured boy in the ambulance. King suffered any injury, it was being left in the general plays after his injury were obvious; being sacrificed on the scoreboard. The boosters, had nothing to do with that.

sportsmanship and hospital- the issue, may I point out incidents from the 1973 of the two teams. 1. It is tradition, dating back the days when Mrs. Shelton was a M. H. S. cheerleader, that after half time the host cheerleaders cross-field and extended a welcome to the visitors. That did not last year, thus breaking a tradition of hospitality and sportsmanship. Clarendon students every dirty word in their vocabulary on the Memphis buses. True, they were brought down here to wash the buses and apologize to the Superintendent, but no public apology was demanded or received. So—if apologies are the order of the day, we might need to go back a bit for a beginning.

The entire situation boils down to what Sportsmanship really is: part of which is, when it occurs, accepting defeat gracefully. That, Mr. Editor, Mrs. Shelton and other indignant Bronco fans, is the bitter pill.

It's that time again...

...time to start getting your home ready for the winter months ahead. By starting now and checking your home for those energy leaks, you'll stay warmer this winter and conserve energy.

- Take a few minutes and check the following items to make sure your home will be winterized:
- 1 Insulation is most important... and can pay for itself in energy consumption savings. The usual recommendation is 6 inches of insulation for the attic and 4 inches for outside walls. Check FHA requirements for further information.
 - 2 Weatherstrip doors and windows, and caulk cracks and crevices to prevent drafts and the loss of heated air.
 - 3 Maintain heating equipment for maximum efficiency by having it checked by a competent serviceman.
 - 4 Dirty filters cause heating equipment to work harder and use more fuel. Check your filters every 30 days. If they're the permanent type, clean them according to the manufacturer's directions. If they're the disposable type, replace them at least every 90 days.
 - 5 Don't be a "thermostat jiggler". Turning the thermostat up or down doesn't cause the equipment to heat or cool faster. It simply works longer to satisfy the setting. The national conservation program calls for settings of no more than 68°F. in heating weather. If you are going to be away for several days, lower the temperature to 60°F.

- 6 Don't place curtains, furniture or other objects in front of heating registers or return air openings. This blocks the flow of warm air.
- 7 Open blinds and draperies on sunny days to help heat your home during the day but close them at night to help reduce heat loss.
- 8 Keep the fireplace damper closed when the fireplace is not in use.
- 9 Storm doors and windows are not customarily used in this part of the country, but they do reduce heat loss. As a temporary substitute, a sheet of clear plastic stapled or tacked over screen doors or windows works well.
- 10 Keep the opening and closing of doors to a minimum to reduce the loss of warm air.

Cyclone Impressive With 58-0 Win Over Silvertown

The Memphis Cyclone completed their 8th hurdle in the 1974 football season with a victory over the Silvertown Owls in Cyclone Stadium Friday night.

The Cyclone offense rolled up 527 yards and 19 first downs in route to scoring nine times. The defensive unit stopped determined drives by the Owls in the first quarter, and the Silvertown team's only scoring opportunity was on a 32-yd. field goal attempt. A bad snap from center cost the Owls this opportunity and field position as Memphis took over on the 41.

Silvertown had two running backs, No. 42 Dean Ziegler and No. 21 Scott Hutsell who would get open on certain running plays but the Cyclone's defensive secondary was always in position to make the tackle.

Silvertown finished the night with 50 yards rushing and 11 passing, but had over 45 minus yards rushing removed from their stats due to busted plays and a-ert defensive work.

Doing effective tackling for the Cyclone was Joe Reyes, Don Davis, Kenneth Fields, Candy Reyes, Fred Alexander, Dick Hutcherson, Audie Moore, James Beck, Duck Richards and Ricky Spruill. Linebacker Gary McKay was in and out to protect a cut eye sustained in the Clarendon Contest, J. D. Evans saw a lot of linebacking duty.

The game became one-sided in the first period. Memphis scored on a 75-yard pass play from QB Ricky Miller, who hit on fifty per cent of his passes during the night, to End James Beck. Beck was open when he caught the ball and raced 50 yards to paydirt after avoiding two Owl secondary people. The extra point kick off Bryley's toe was blocked.

The Owls drove the football 43 yards in nine plays, before the Cyclone defense stiffened and shut the drive down.

The aborted field goal attempt, recovered by Memphis on the Silvertown 41, set up the second scoring opportunity. However, a 15-yd. penalty was stepped off after the chain was set, giving Memphis a 1st down and 25 on the Cyclone 26-yd. line.

HB Charles Bryley, on the next play, broke loose and raced the distance to the goaline, but the play was partially nullified by a clipping penalty, setting Memphis up with a first down on the home 46.

On the next play, QB Miller, who was sacked three times behind the line on passing situations, was dropped for a 7yd. loss.

FB Don Davis got the call on the next play and fought his way out of the arms of Owl tacklers all the way up the field to the Silvertown 34, a 29-yd. gain.

Two running plays by Fred Alexander moved the ball to the Owl's 20. Then, FB Davis, carrying through a big hole, cut toward the endzone flag and won the footrace for a touchdown. He attempted the point after on a carry, but was stopped short making the score 12-0.

Charles Bryley, with a 38-yd. punt return early in the second quarter, set up the Cyclone's next scoring opportunity by getting the ball into great field position at the visitors' 32.

Bryley made three to the 29-yd. line. Then, HB Fred Alexander, stepped out of the arms of an Owl tackler, losing a shoe in the process, and raced the distance to the goaline. Several key down field blocks aided Alexander's progress. Bryley carried for two points and the score was 20-0. The Owls got another drive going, which fizzled at the Memphis 33.

Going to the air, QB Miller hit Bryley for 24 yards, then, hit End Beck for 8 more.

With the football resting on the Owl's 35, the Cyclone called a running play and the ball was given to HB Alexander, and the 170 lb. junior, who electrified Cyclone fans with brilliant running the past two weeks, broke free and raced for the touchdown. Charles Bryley's kick was good.

The halftime score was 27-0. The most unusual touchdown of the night came early in the third period, when a pass by Silvertown QB Ken Wood was tripped into the air by a Cyclone lineman, and noseguard Don Davis caught the tipped pass and ran 37 yards for the interception return TD. The extra point attempt was no good.

Fred Alexander scored the team's next touchdown on a 23-yd. run later in the third quarter, after passes to Buddy Ballew and George Wiggins set up a scoring opportunity. QB Miller attempted the conversion but he was stopped short.

Fourth quarter scoring was all down by reserve fullback Dick Hutcherson on carries of six yards, 35 yards and 50 yards. These carries gave the junior running back a 109-yd. rushing night on seven carries averaging
