An increase of $3,711,174.89 in total deposits over last year was reflected, with total loans remaining just about the same, just slightly lower than last year. Total deposits and total assets set new record highs for Hall County banks.

Total deposits in the three county banks totaled $31,217,360.65, as of Dec. 31, 1975, up from $27,-506,185.76 at year-end 1974.

Total assets of the three banks was $34,637,768.61, an increase of $3,830,027.68 over the yearend 1974 figure of $30,807,740 .-

Total loans were $18,563,816.-83, a decline of $1,330.33 from year-end 1974.

Statements of condition of Peoples State Bank of Turkey, First National Bank of Memphis and First State Bank of Memphis are published elsewhere in this issue. Improvements in agriculture markets in 1775 and continued inflation must account for increases in the total deposits and total assets. The 1974 cotton market was down considerably.

In setting new record highs, the total assets and total deposits figures surpassed from April, 1974, a record high set when most of of a million dollars.

"I feel our teams may have had letdowns against Clarendon," Coach Bill Montgomery said, "after big wins over Shamrock last Friday.

The Memphis girls won 55 to 52 over Clarendon after the game was all tied up at 49 to 49. The game was tied many times during play. Faye Beck scored 30 of the Cyclonettes points,

In the boys game, the score was real close until about four minutes left in the final period. then Carendon moved out to a 66 to 56 victory. "Anthony Johnson, our paymaker, and Ricky Guy both were unable to play due to injuries. We lost Kirk Fields to fouls 10 minutes deep in the second half and had to go to a manto-man and Clarendon was able to take advantage of us." Johnson, Guy and Fields are Memphis' top scorers and key players especially rebounding by Guy and Fields.

Coach Montgomery said that Johnson should be back for Friday night's game with Claude.

Last Friday night in Cyclone Gym, the Memphis teams overpowered two good basketball teams from Shamrock by a big margin of points.

In the girls game, both Memphis and Shamrohk were undefeated going into the game. The Memphis girls opened the lead in the second period and enjoyed a 33 to 18 halftime edge. The local girls, behind equal scoring pace by Jana Davis and Faye Beck of 26 points each, and a 14-point effort by Melba Walker, to a 68 to 39 victory. In the boys game, the Cyclones jumped to a 19-9 first period edge, and went on to win 74 to 39 over Shamrock. Darryl Smith had 16 points, Anthony Johnson 15, Charles Bryley 14, Ricky Guy 12, Kirk Fields and Randall Shahan six each, Steve Flemmons three and Kenneth Bryley two.

In spite of warnings by their counsel, Leon Jaworski, senators voted to accept the entire transcript of a Judicial Qualifications Commission removal hearing on Carrillo for use in the trial.

Attorneys estimated use of the JQC testimony and exhibits may shorten the Senate proceeding from the expected six weeks or more to three.

Meanwhile, the Judicial Qualifications Commission continued to move forward on its own course toward ousting the 229th district judge from office.

Carrillo's attorney, Arthur Mit-chell of Austin, made clear he will try to show the impeachment effort was launched as the result of a political break between the Carrillo and George Parr factions in stormy Duval Coutny last year. Carrillo has been suspended from his court since last August when the House of Representatives voted articles of impeachment, but he continues to draw

U. S. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen began his re-election campaign with a two-day barn-storming tour which ranged from Houston to the Panhandle and from Dallas-Fort Worth to San Antonio.

Bentsen also campaigned in Austin, Lubbock, Amarillo, Abilene and Laredo.

Senate Inquiry

A new task force is investigating tangled state Senate financial affairs over a five-year period.

The inquiry is part of the independent investigation set in motion by Atty. Gen. John Hill after indictment of Senate Secretary Charles Schnabel on charges of theft and misconduct.

Senators voted last week to keep Schnabel, who has been their chief administrative officer for 20 years, on the job pending trial on the charges.

First Federal Savings & Loans Reports Good Year

At year-end 1975, the assets of First Federal Savings and Loan Association reached $24,852,842.-60. This was an encouraging 17% over a year ago, Russell V. Jones, president, reported today.

First Federal paid a record anount of interest to its savings depositors, $1,353,580.77. "We have paid and are now paying on our savings account and certificates of deposit the highest rates ever and the highest allowed by aw," Jones said.

Services of First Federal have been expanded to neighboring areas during the past two years, having opened a branch in Memphis in December, 1974, and a branch in Wellington in December 1975ers of the 39

"All in all, 1975 was a good year for this association, and hopefully the bicentennial year will also turn out to be a year of further progress," Jones stated.

The Railroad Commission will start a series of hearings February 3 in Austin and Dallas which could have significant impact on shippers of packages weighing from 100 to 350 pounds.

Nine carriers seek to show present service is inadequate. More than two dozen carriers already operating protest the applications. Courts Speak

The Texas Supreme Court refused to grant Texaco Inc.'s application for writ of error in a case that could have cost the state $30.8 million in franchise tax revenues. The decision again up-held constitutionality of the state's method of collecting franchise taxes from multi-national corporations.

In another case, the high court affirmed a $134,156 judgement against Texaco, favoring a Sweetwater man hurt when oilfield equipment fell on him in a warehouse

Court of Criminal Appeals reversed a Hillsboro murder case because a divorce petition filed by the slain woman was read to the jury by a prosecutor.

AG Opinions Salaries of state employees and officers may not be supplemented unless the source of the supplement is reported to the Secretary of State, Attorney General of America for freedom. People of today may think the wagon trains from over the United States would be a pretty rough life, but not compared to what the ones at Valley Forge endured who had untold hardships and proved they had the courage to build a nation. Still no battle was ever fought there except the battle of hunger, cold and despair. In a masterly retreat, Washington led his dispirited troops to Valley Forge for the winter. It was one of the worst winters in history. The temperature dropped far below zero.

The rabble American Army was without shoes, without food and clothing. More than 3,000 American soldiers died that winter in Valley Forge, Washington ordered that because of morale, all graves would be without markers. On Dec. 23, 1777, George Washington wrote, "There are 2,898 men in camp unfit for duty because they are barefooted and otherwise naked. The men lived in 900 small huts built of logs and clay. Twelve soldiers jammed into each 14 x 16-foot hut. Many of the soldiers were forced to sit up all night by the fires because of the lack of blankets. There was a near famine in the camp. The men went for weeks without meat. Naturally there was discontent, and some deserters. But the majority of the American soldiers remained at their deary posts. Washington maintained iron discipline. Eventually supplies began to trickle through and some raiding parties captured stores from the British. By the time spring arrived, the men who had survived knew the worst was over. In June, the American troops marched out from Valley Forge and defeated the surprised British at Monmouth New Jersey. It was the beginning of victory, and it was the beginning of the United States of America. We hope the wagor train groups all have a safe and sound trip to Valley Forge for the 200th birthday on July 4, 1976.

A letter from Homer Shankle of Big Spring a few days ago had a program given in Memphis High School, May 21, 1930, almost 46 years ago which was very interesting. Some of you that will remember especially if you had a part on this program. "The Belle of Bagdad" was given by the Memphis High School gled club which was sponsored by Sam S. Cowan, This program was under the direction of Mrs. Elmer S. Shelley (Kate Arnold). This "operetta" was in two acts with the following portraying the characters, Sarah Bradshaw, Annie Rene Motgomery, Iris Hollis, Homer Shandle, Sara Hart, Marg Winston Walters, Margot Shaw, William Sanders, V. L. McGlocklin, Margie Perkins, Blanton Bakwell, Bill McKelvy, Pauline Ross, Clarence Jackson and then with the chorus of natives, guards and dancers. The dancers were Ethel Pearson, Timeda Jarrel and Annie Louise Hudgens. The ushers were Ruth Harrison, Jewel Grundy, Frances Joy Tomlinson and Chloe Johnson. The chorus was composed of the following sopranos: Ollie Merle Bean, Estelle Harris, Almeda Jarrell, Veta Ray Jones, Mary Helen Kinslow, Lorraine McQueen, Gertrude Mc-Queen, Vera Neely, Ethel Pearson, Georgene Sexauer, Rebecca Sitton, Pauline Turlington, Thursia Mae Turner, Jessie Wood. The altos were Hazelteen Bradley, Marjetta Gibson, Velma Huckaby, Anna Louise Hudgens, Christene Mc-Queen, Lorraine Thompson, Ora Lee Wood, Willie C. Wilson, Teners were: Guthrie H. Bennett, Holland F. McMurry, B. F. Shepherd, Jr. Basses were Gayle W. Greene, Alton B. Odom, James Ivan Thornton and Harry Womack. Homey thought this would be good for Heritage Hall. There were 8 different businesses with advertising on the program, and the only one remaining here now under the same name is the Memphis Democrat. I did not see them, but Dick Fowler told me that they were both wearing shoes; and they came back here to buy some 10c stamps before they went up to 13c. This makes me think of a tight cousin have that sent me a card dated 12-31-75. Sore Throat - -Symptom of Trouble

Sore throat can be a symptom of many diseases, not just a common cold or flu, says the Texas Medical Association.

If sore throat persists for a few days, especially if cold or flu symptoms do not materialize, you should consult a doctor. Sore throat can be one symptom of diseases as varied as scarlet fever or sinus trouble. Of course not every sore throat indicates the diseases mentioned. But it does indicate a problem of some kind.

air, excessive smoking, and breathing mainly through the mouth can trigger sore throat.

caused by streptococci bacteria (strep throat). As with many diseases, the doctor may want to take a culture (swab test) and have it analyzed in the laboratory.

Another bacteria which causes ease is called, produces severe sore throat and croup. You should consult a doctor at once because

The "kissing disease", infectious mononucleosis, can have sore throat as a smyptom. The disease can be spread just like the common cold. Often only a laboratory test can confirm that "that tired feeling" is due to mononucleosis. These are just a few of the diseases associated with sore

1975 Harvest Of Cotton Hits 61,131 Bales

The 1975 cotton harvest is definitely in final stages now, as ginning points report a total of 61,131 bales have been weighed in, an increase of 4,423 over last week's total, with good weather for harvesting.

How many more bales the county will make was a part of the telephone survey and the answer appears to be between one and two thousand bales. It will mean the county's total will be less than 65,000 bales.

One gin reported it has closed report expected receipts will be in the hundreds of bales.

T. J. Proske, officer in charge of the Memphis Cotton Classing Office, here said Tuesday at the Memphis Rotary Club, that receipts have fallen off sharply, and he expects a further decline as The Memphis Democrat is authorthe season is about at an end.
