Take Pride In Voting!

Tuesday, Nov. 2, 1976, during the 200th year since the beginning of the great American experiment in self-government, citizens of this great country have the right and privilege to go to the polls and vote.

Not all men, and most women, were not allowed the voting privilege during the early days of this nation. Only those property owning males (women were not allowed to own property or vote) could exercise their privilege of voting.

It took many, many decades, a war between the North and the South, and years and years of political battling before all men and women, citizens of this country, over 18 years of age, who have bothered to be registered voters, to have the voting privilege, and sad as it is, less than half, usually, ever bother to go vote on any given election.

Those who do vote, in largest numbers compared to how many there are, are those old, original first to get the privilege, property owning males, followed by their wives. The well-to-do participate stronger and stronger in voting activities than any group in this country.

Those less likely to vote are the poor, minority female. These are the statistics of voting records in past elections.

Should a citizen feel good about voting? It all depends. Back when ballots contained names of candidates that had to be "scratched" out, it was common to hear statements like: "I enjoyed scratching out so-and-so's name, it gave me a good feeling." But today, emphasis is marking an X beside the name of the candidate the voter wants to vote "for". To some this may take the fun out of voting, unless they have this privilege denied to them for the committing of felony offenses.

Let's go to the polls and vote on Tuesday, Nov. 2. They will be open in Memphis, Estelline, Lakeview and Turkey from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Let the voice of the people be heard.

Cyclones . . . All The Way!

Friday night, 7:30 p.m. at Powell Field in Wellington, the biggest game of the 1976 football season will be played between the Memphis Cyclone and the Wellington Skyrockets.

According to Harris Rating System, a computerized grading of teams, both teams will be pretty evenly matched going into the contest, and it could be a game where the bounce of the football will determine the outcome.

A huge crowd is expected, for fans from Memphis and Wellington will jam pack the facilities, plus fans from Clarendon and Childress have indicated they are going to attend to see this crucial game.

Memphis, under guidance of Coach Clyde McMurray and his staff, have been involved in these confrontations every year since 1971. This, in itself, is praiseworthy, but this year, the efforts of the Cyclone team deserve additional praise and support for the team has come from back in the pack to challenge the powerful Wellington Skyrockets for the spotlight of gridiron glory.

There has been no great to-do about the game here, no unusual build-up of spirit, little is necessary at this point in time. The Memphis team will go into the game well prepared to play their best, and regardless of the outcome, Memphis fans will be proud of their showing for they are a well disciplined, spirited, hard-hitting, and talented bunch of young men.

In workouts this week they have gone about preparing for the game in an outstanding manner. What more can a town hope for from a bunch of young men.

This is the type of match-up that sometimes produces historical contests to be talked about and re-lived in memory for years to come. Wellington, big, powerful, strong, and talented going against Memphis, smaller in size, quick, explosive, talented at running and passing the football. The outcome possible will rely as coaches usually say in defence and the kicking game.

Games of this nature, however, sometimes develop along three avenues. One, the scoring is real close all the way to the final play. Second, the strong team takes command and enjoys a relatively easy victory. Third, the weaker team, through tremendous effort, outscores the more powerful team, and pulls off the big coupe of the season. These things happen every Friday, Saturday and Sunday on gridirons all over the nation.

For us, we're betting on the Cyclone, all the way. They have our support and the support of all their fans. These young men know this. We want to see them win this game for themselves, after all, they are what's important, and they would make an outstanding District 2-A Champion. Go see the game in Wellington at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

HIGHTOWER - PRICE DEBATE!

The debates between Jack Hightower and Bob Price have been lively as both candidates took off the kid gloves and got into the personal. In the Wichita Falls debate, Bob Price made a mistake when he lumped the 58 weekly newspapers of his district as "Democrat newspapers who would not publish my remarks and in some cases would not even sell me advertising space in those newspapers." He cited the Memphis Democrat as an example, stating that he couldn't place an ad in that newspaper. Bill Combs, editor of the Democrat, dug up his records to show that more advertisements were published for Bob Price than his Democratic opponent Graham Purcell in the 1972 race. Combs challenged Price to prove that he had ever been refused advertising space in the Memphis Democrat.

Some of the rest of us object to being lumped into a group of "Democratic newspapers" because we are not. Neither are we a "Republican newspaper," although we have supported Republican candidates from time to time. Right now we are supporting Bob Close as a Republican candidate not just because he is from Perryton but because he is the best qualified candidate for state representative.

But we think Jack Hightower has done a good job as U. S. Congressman from this district and we see no reason not to continue supporting him. During the two years that he has been in office, we have had occasion to call upon him a number of times in connection with our National Newspaper Association office, and he has always been quick to respond and his staff has been exceptionally courteous and capable. He does hold a seat on the House Agriculture Committee and is in position to be of great help to this area.

PAYING BILLS

If you're the kind of feller who pays his bills on time and doesn't borrow any money, you've got problems. You're probably the same feller who pays cash for things, and that is enough to bring insults for such business dealings.

Without borrowing money or charging something, you have no credit references. Without credit in today's world, you're swimming upstream. Cash purchases used to be a point of pride . . . today you may have to apologize, according to a Dallas Morning News survey conducted recently.

A rent-a-car lady said, it's most irregular when a client paid cash rather than use a credit card. "We don't usually take cash," she said. "Don't you have a credit card?"

A fellow we know checked into a motel in Dallas, and wanted to pay cash. "That's fine," said the clerk, "but don't you have a credit card for our reference?"

In New York, several credit card companies have announced they had a problem about customers paying their bills within the allotted 30 days. They just can't make any money off them! The companies are now charging customers who pay their bills on time a penalty of 50 cents a month!

COLLEGE STATION — Cotton production should be continued to grow in the cotton market in the months ahead as crop prospects have been reduced by adverse weather," says an agronomist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "The freeze and frost damage in West Texas on Oct. 8 and 9 should reduce the Texas cotton crop by about 250,000 bales," says Charles Baker, Texas cotton crop in the United States was estimated at 2.2 million bales on Oct. 20. The U. S. Department of Agriculture. At the same time the USDA estimated Texas crop at 3 million bales.

Farmers still own about 60 percent of the 1976 crop— they can refuse to sell on price dips," contends Baker. Domestic mills and foreign buyers need cotton and compete for it. World production will exceed 1975 production by about 2 million bales this year." Looking ahead, Baker expects 1977 cotton plantings to be higher—perhaps 5 million acres in Texas and 13 million in the U. S. Of course, the 1977 crop will have a big price. Contracting for cotton has been heavy in both Texas, with production in a profit at a 10 cents under the current price. This early cotton heavy demand by domestic mills. Contracting is a farmer's option, but this marketing alternative may help farmer more in 1977 than in 1976, contends the Texas A&M University System agronomist. Competition has been getting farmers a little more for cottonseed in the "Blacklands," adds Baker. "This is a valuable asset of the cotton crop that is completely overlooked by some farmers. Products milled from cottonseed are returning around $180 per ton, and the farmer's share should be around $120 based on grade 100. This figures out to $46 per bale. Farmers are now getting about $10 less than that."

Memphis Takes 48-0 Win Over Shamrock

The Memphis Cyclone team opened District 2-A play against the Shamrock Irishmen Friday night in Shamrock and came home with a one-sided 48-0 victory. The game was a one-sided affair from start to finish as the Cyclone defense surrounded the Irishmen, allowing only five first downs, while Memphis rolled up 28 first downs.

Injuries continued to plague the Irishmen as early in the encounter QB Mickey Mitchell was pulled down backwards and one of his legs was injured when it was pinned under him. An ambulance came onto the field to take him for medical treatment.

HB Gerry Aaron came in to quarterback the Irishmen and he did a respectable job.

Memphis scored on its first possession after Shamrock was held on their first possession. Jackie Thompson punted the football 22 yards to the Memphis 49 where the drive began.

The opening play, a sweep around right end with FB Kirk Fields carrying, set the stage for the contest. Blocking was crisp and clean clearing the way for Fields to turn the corner, then, an Irishman safety came up and FB Fields shed the tackler and was finally knocked out of bounds on the Shamrock 25.

The 51yd. drive was made even longer as two major blocking infractions were called, during the drive. The ball was set back to the 40-yd. line, but QB Don Cofer found End Anthony Johnson on the sideline with a pass and Johnson twisted and squirmed his way for a first down to the Shamrock 15yd. line.

TE Pete Salinas made two yards on the next play, but on the next, the second of the major penalties was stepped off against Memphis QB Cofer passed to WB Rodney Hall on the next play, and Hall was finally downed on the Irishmen's one-yd. line.

On the next play, FB Fields dived over the goal-line for the Cyclone's first TD. Cofer's point after kick was 6-0, with 7:50 left on the clock in the first quarter.

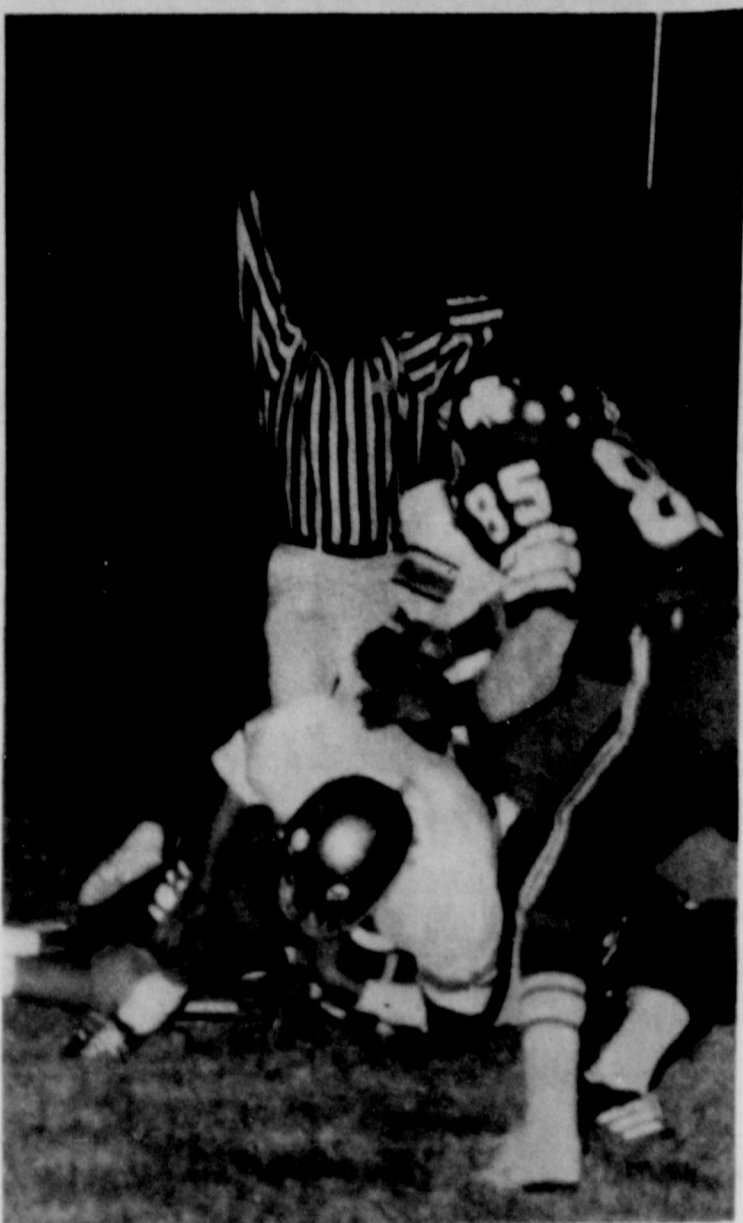

Shamrock was again held after the kickoff and punted 20 yards to the Shamrock 42 where it was first and 10 for Memphis.

Memphis drew a five-yd. penalty on the first down. Then QB Cofer made six on a keeper, and FB Fields made six more. A 15-yd. penalty was stepped off on the next play. The first down yardage couldn't be picked up so Ricky Guy punted 55 yards into the endzone.

Rushes by Jackie Thompson for Shamrock picked up first down yardage to the 30yd. line, but then things went wrong for Shamrock, as two running plays lost yardage, another was held for no gain, and Thompson's punt only advanced the ball seven yards giving Memphis the ball on the Shamrock 32.

QB Cofer engineered a two-play scoring drive, passing to End Ricky Guy for 27 yards to the Shamrock 5-yd. line. Then, FB Fields took the handoff and circled left end for the score. Fields carried for the two-point conversion and the score was 14-0.

Shamrock fumbled the kickoff, when Thompson was upended about the 31-yd. line and Kirk Fields recovered for Memphis.

Memphis made a first down on a 26-yd. screen pass to FB Fields (following another major penalty) to the Shamrock 20. But Shamrock's Gerry Aaron picked off a pass near the endzone and returned it to the 10 to save the threat.

The Irish tried to pass out of the hole, but Fields intercepted a pass in a confrontation between himself and a Shamrock receiver. The officials ruled pass interference so Shamrock had a first down on their own 20.

Shamrock had two big plays in the game and one of them was a 60-yd. pass from QB Aaron to End Randy Copeland which took the ball to the Memphis 25. But on the next play, Thompson fumbled and Tracy Galloway came up with the football.

Memphis marched for first downs to the Shamrock 40 before the drive fizzled, and Guy punted the ball to the Irishmen's 21.

Shamrock, facing a third down and 13, fumbled the handoff and Eddie Braidfoot recovered for Memphis on the Shamrock 15.

QB Cofer carried on the keeper and raced for the goaline. He was knocked out of bounds on the one. He scored with a keeper on the next play. Cofer's point after kick barely missed the upright and the score was 20-0.

Despite recovering two Shamrock fumbles during the remainder of the second quarter, the Cyclone couldn't manage another score before halftime.

Second Half
Memphis almost broke the kickoff starting the second half as Pete Salinas was finally downed on the Shamrock 45. Face masking was ruled against the Irishmen and Memphis had a first down on the Shamrock 30 after the penalty was walked off.

TE Salinas opened the drive with an 8-yd. carry. QB Cofer picked up first down yardage to the Shamrock 18. Salinas made eight yards, then Fields made nine more moving to the one-yd. line. On the next play, TE Salinas raced over. Memphis tried a pass for points but it went incomplete. The score was 26-0.

The Cyclone's next scoring opportunity came when Safety Tracy Galloway fielded a Shamrock punt about the Memphis 15-yd. line. He made a good catch of the ball below his knees, straighten up and set sail down the east sideline behind a wall of Cyclone blockers. Galloway was downed on the one-yd. line.

Galloway scored two plays later from the three-yd. line after a five-yd. penalty had been stepped off. Cofer kicked the point after and the score was 33-0.

Anthony Johnson set up the Cyclone's next scoring opportunity when he intercepted an Irishmen pass near mid-field and returned it to the Shamrock 35 where it was first down for Memphis.

QB Cofer rushed on carries of 22 yards and 11 yards for a first down on the Shamrock 1-yd. line; then, sneaked the ball over for the score. Johnson caught a pass from Cofer for a two-point conversion and it was 41-0.

Memphis' final score came on a 69-yd. drive in the final period. Running backs in this drive were Woodrow Richardson at fullback and Steve Flemmons at tailback. Cofer passed to FB Fields opening the drive for a 37-yd. gain.

From the 32 of Shamrock, Richardson carried for four, but then, Cofer was trapped for a 10-yd. loss. Going to the air, Cofer hit Erd Guy for 14-yd. gain, just shy of first down yards. Cofer made the first on the next play.

Off-setting penalties nullified the next play, then TB Flemmons made 13 yards for a first to the 8-yd. line.

Cofer passed to End Johnson in the endzone for the score, and Cofer booted the point after making the final score 48-0.

Randall Shahan came in to quarterback for the Cyclone the remainder of the game.

Tips Are Given On How To Save Money On Family Food Shopping

COLLEGE STATION — a cost-saving plan for grocery shopping? Impossible, you say?

It can be done, says Mrs. Mary Sweeten, a foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"For economy, plan meals around the less expensive foods from each of our four food groups—the milk group, meat group, vegetable - fruit group and cereal - bakery products group," she advises.

She suggested some general tips to find good buys and cut an expensive food budget to a cost-saving plan.

"Compare prices at the store. Unit pricing, now used by many stores, allows cost comparison of a food in containers of different sizes and of various brands and grades. "In unit pricing the cost of a single unit such as an ounce, pound or quart of a food is shown, usually on the shelf just below the food. From the items that will meet your needs, choose the one with the lowest price per unit."

"To find the best buys among types and cuts of meat or among raw, frozen or canned vegetables, compare the cost of an amount needed for a family meal or the cost of the serving."

Another hint for the home-maker — watch for specials in the newspaper ads and at the store. Stock up on good buys for the family's likes if storage is available. But don't overbuy — waste "leaks" the budget away fast, she said.

"Cut cost when shopping for meat group foods by selecting the cuts, grades and types of meat, poultry and fish that provide the most cooked lean for the money spent. These give best return in nutrients for the food dollar. Consumers can get a top price limit for dinner meat or set an average amount as a goal, allowing for some higher and some lower cost items," she suggested.

Study the nutrition labeling on commercially - prepared main dishes before replacing them with home - prepared dishes, this specialist advised.

"Frequently, commercially prepared main dishes require less than a home recipe for the same dish."

"When reading labels, commercial foods labeled primarily meat with gravy, meatballs and sauce and pork and dressing, are required to be only one-half meat, for example. Meat pies must be at least one - fourth meat. Foods labeled spaghetti with meatballs and sauce and lasagne with meat sauce must be at least one-eighth meat. Usually these convenience foods are more expensive than home-prepared ones containing the same amount of meat. Even so, if time is a major concern, they may be best."

Usually ground beef, liver, chicken, turkey, many types of fish, dry beans, split peas and peanut butter are good meat group food buys, Mrs. Sweeten said.

When shopping for meat, look for USDA grades on beef you buy. USDA prime, choice and good are the grades most often found in retail markets. Compared to choice, similar cuts of good grade beef contain more lean and usually cost less per serving, but

Local Credit Bureau Keeps Credit Files

COLLEGE STATION — Your record of credit transactions is kept at the local credit bureau. It usually consists of factual data, rather than a rating on the order of a Dun and Bradstreet rating for corporations, Mrs. Linda McCormack, a family resource management specialist, says.

She is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Information recorded on a personal file usually includes the following: opening or closing a retail account, making prompt payments or being consistently late, fulfilling a contract or defaulting, name, address, employer and former employer, social security number."

"Other information recorded comes from public records, such as a contract suit, a judgment, divorce notices, marriages, a tax lien or a bankruptcy, or reports of arrest, indictment or conviction of a crime."

She said that if you are interested in your credit file, you can examine it in person for a small fee or without charge, if you are challenging a credit, employment or insurance denial.

The Fair Credit Reporting Act gives each person the right to check their credit bureau record upon request and proper identification.

"To establish a good credit rating, be financially responsible. Pay bills on time. Do not overextend by borrowing or charging more than can be paid back. In order to take advantage of the credit market, the better a financial record, the better the chances to qualify for credit, charge accounts, and low cost loans when needed."

they are not quite as juicy and flavorful. Prime beef is generally considered to have the best flavor, but contains less lean and is more expensive than other grades, she explained.

"When shopping for vegetable - fruit group foods, compares the cost of the amount needed to serve the family. Certain fruits and vegetables, such as apples and carrots, are almost always economical whether fresh, frozen or canned. Others, such as avocados and strawberries are economical only in season or when supplies are bountiful. Look for good quality produce but limit purchases even at bargain prices to amounts that can be used while they are still good.

"Try lower - priced brands because you may like them as well as the more expensive ones. Often chain store and seldom - advertised brands may be similar in quality to widely - known products—but cost less."

Add seasoning, such as sauces to vegetables, in additional home preparation. Frozen and canned vegetables with sauces or seasoning are more expensive. Also, large bags of frozen vegetables may be a good buy for both small and large families. Use just the amount needed and save the rest for later use, the specialist advised.

When buying milk group foods, buy fresh fluid milk at the supermarket, or dairy store if possible. Home delivered milk and milk bought in special services stores costs more. Gallon or halfgallon containers are economical choices if storage is available.

Another good milk buy, especially for cooking, is non-fat dry milk. It costs less than fresh whole milk and can be reconstituted, chilled and served as a beverage. Mixing equal amounts of reconstituted non-fat dry milk will enhance the flavor.

American, cheddar and Swiss cheese can be economical in place of milk in the diet. Yogurt, ice cream and ice milk can also replace some of the milk but do add cost. Check dates on the containers of milk and milk products. Ask the grocer how to use the dates on products as an indication of freshness.

Most of the cereal - bakery products group foods are well liked and many are inexpensive. Select whole grain and enriched products for money's worth in nutrients.

Buy uncooked cereals if there will be time to cook them and the family likes them. They're usually less expensive than ready-to-eat kind. Ready-to-eat cereals, especially sugar coated ones, in individual - size boxes are almost always more expensive.

Decide which baked goods can be made for less at home, depending on situation and time. Get the facts, by comparing the cost of the ingredients for a favorite recipe with the price of an equal amount of a similar ready-to-bake bakery product that the family likes.

Cakes, cookies, biscuits and muffins baked at home usually cost less than the commercial products. Also, using prepared mixes to save time frequently adds only slightly to the cost of home prepared products. Day old bread and baked products are fine for toast and bread crumbs for dressing — and they save money.

Select rich desserts or foods which add fat with special care. Many of them, such as butter, salad dressing, snack foods, fancy candies and soft drinks are expensive sources of energy, she said.

Top Democrats Predict Carter Victory Nov. 2

AUSTIN — Top Democratic Party officials have predicted that Jimmy Carter's two-day campaign visit to Texas this week will provide the extra boost needed to put Texas in the Democratic column in next week's presidential election.

Carter is scheduled to visit the Rio Grande Valley, San Antonio and Fort Worth this Saturday and Sunday.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe, who has campaigned extensively throughout the state for the Carter-Mondale ticket, said that he detected "a great response to the positive and productive manner with which the Carter organization is conducting its campaign in Texas and throughout the nation."

Briscoe said that Carter's record and promises of fiscal conservatism and government efficiency appeals to all Texans who are concerned with the ever-rising cost of government.

"The people see in Jimmy Carter the answer to their hopes that our government can once again be a government which is manageable, responsive to the needs of the people, and most of all, compassionate," Briscoe declared. "They realize that compassion implies more than just giving the people what they need, it involves not taking away from people that which they hold dear."

Texas Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong, Carter-Mondale campaign co-chairman, agreed with Briscoe that Carter's visit will help carry the state for the Democrats but cautioned that a low voter turnout could narrow the victory margin to a very small percentage point.

"We have conducted the most unified presidential campaign since the Johnson landslide of 1964," Armstrong said. "But that unity will be for nothing if the people who agree with us that we cannot stand four more years of Republican incompetence stay home on election day. This is a crucial election and there is no reason why anybody should fail to exercise one of his most basic rights under our form of government."

State Party Chairman Calvin Guest said that his organization is conducting one of the most intensive get-out-the-vote efforts ever done in Texas. He predicted that if the effort is successful Texas will see a record voter turnout.

"We have everything going for us," Guest said. "We have the candidates who promise a new day and a new spirit for this nation, we have a hard-working organization, and most important, we have the people with a desire for competent, honest and responsive government."

Charles Phillips Serving As WTSU Official Host

WTSU — An $800 scholarship winner from Memphis, Charles Phillips feels it is very essential for a student of today to attend college.

Phillips, who is a freshman attending West Texas State University, was a recipient of a Camus Services scholarship. He is currently serving as an official host for the University for this term under the direction of Keith Winter, director of development.

To be eligible to receive the award, candidates must fulfill the following requirements: have leadership abilities, maintain an outgoing personality, compile a B average or above in high school and score 21 or above on the national ACT test.

A graduate of Memphis High School, Phillips was on the honor roll and was listed in Who's Who Among American High School Students. He also received the American Legion's Boy's State Award.

Majoring in industrial technology, Phillips describes his first weeks of college as "lots of fun." "I really like it (WTSU), especially meeting new people and making friends," he adds.

Phillips says he hasn't had any trouble adjusting to campus life, either. "Today is so much more advanced than a few years ago, and college is what prepares a student for this more advanced life," he believes.

As for the future, he continued, "If you don't attend college, it is sometimes difficult to find a good job." He emphasizes that attending college "will better prepare me for my future life."

Phillips is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Phillips of Route 2, Memphis.

Senator Farabee Endorses Water Bond Proposal

State Senator Ray Farabee, speaking at a public forum in Wichita Falls sponsored by the Texas Water Development Board, endorsed a proposal to allow an increase in funds available for water development and water quality improvement.

This proposal will be presented to Texas voters on the November 2 ballot in the form of Constitutional Amendments No. 1 and No. 2.

Senator Farabee stated, "The additional funding permitted under these amendments is needed by our smaller cities and communities to build and improve sewage treatment plants, collection lines and other facilities. Sewage treatment plants even for a small town can cost as much as $2 million, and these communities simply can not raise that kind of money on their own."

Since 1957, when the Water Development Fund was created, over one-third of Texas' population has been helped by such loans.

Senator Farabee concluded, "Texas is a growing state with growing needs for water. Also, inadequate and outdated sewage treatment facilities are the major cause of damage to our rivers and streams. We must plan for our future water needs now, and not wait until we have a crisis situation."

Although there seems to be little, if any, opposition to amendment number two, Senator Farabee expressed concern that both amendments might fail because of some confusion about the effects of amendment number one or voter apathy.

Ample Amounts Of Swine Flu Vaccine Expected

Vaccine for the national swine flu immunization program is arriving slowly and in small quantities, but ample amounts are expected by late November, according to the Texas Department of Health Resources.

Lon Gee, health program specialist for the Department of Health Resources Immunization Division, said, "As of the eighth of October, the Department has received a million and a quarter doses of vaccine for use across the state. One million doses may sound like a great deal, but there are more than 12 million people in Texas."

Gee added that deliveries are expected to be slow throughout October, he said. "Everyone is going to have to be patient." However, he said that considerably larger shipments are expected during November, and "We hope that by early December we would have vaccine waiting for us to find someone to give it to."

Two major types of vaccine are involved: a bivalent, or combination vaccine, that protects against both the New Jersey (swine) flu and the Victoria strain of Asian flu, and a monovalent vaccine against the New Jersey flu only. The bivalent vaccine is intended only for persons over 65 years old, or individuals of any age who are chronically ill. The monovalent vaccine will be administered to the general public.

Vaccine deliveries to date have favored the bivalent vaccine, Gee said, "because the elderly and chronically ill are a high risk group and we need to reach them first. Large public clinics for the healthy citizens have been scheduled later."

Gee said, "For healthy children under age 18, recommendations have not been received as to what dosage the vaccine can be given. However, we expect to have some recommendation from federal sources later this month or in November. We will schedule the program for healthy children when we get a final recommendation following the results of all the field trials that have been made with the vaccine." This decision will be reached by federal authorities at the national Center for Disease Control in Atlanta, Ga., where the nationwide campaign is being coordinated.

Reports received by the state health department from local public health departments and the ten Public Health Region offices indicate that the flu campaign is proceeding smoothly around the state, in spite of the fact that plans made in many communities have had to be revised repeatedly. The major problem in most areas has been the slow delivery of vaccine in much smaller quantities than had been anticipated when the campaign was first planned this past summer.

Gee said that the delay in the vaccine program stems from the national level. Everyone was trying to do too much too fast. A job that might well take a year or a year and a half was being planned for three or four months. Although everyone had the noblest of intentions, said Gee, the delays were probably inevitable because of the enormous job. He added, however, that the delays have been made worse by legal problems involving the vaccine manufacturers and their insurance companies.

State health officials say that they still don't know exactly how much vaccine eventually will be received in Texas.

Gee explained, "The program is an entirely voluntary one, and for this reason we are uncertain as to how many people will desire to receive the vaccine. At this time, we expect to receive vaccine for approximately 50 to 60 percent of the population of Texas, he said." Although Texas officials had originally expected to have at least eight million doses of the various vaccines, they have been told to expect about 5.5 million doses. Whether more vaccine will be available if needed depends on how much is used in other states. Production of the vaccines has been discontinued by the manufacturers.

Mrs. W. Whitley Doing Nicely After Surgery

Mrs. Wyley Whitley, who underwent surgery in Amarillo several days ago, is reported this week to be recovering nicely.

Mrs. Whitley is a patient in High Plains Hospital, Room 461. Her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Pritchard of Carlsbad, N. M. are in Amarillo to be with her.

Models came gift wrapped in what may be the most unusual fashion show of the year. They were part of 18 models who had sewn their own floor-length gowns from aluminum foil gift wrap, supplied by their employer, RJR Inc., a manufacturer of packaging materials.

Agriculture Exempt From OSHA, One Year

COLLEGE STATION — Nothing has happened in the nation's capitol which will interest to all agricultural producers as well as business, notes Dr. S. Nelson, safety engineer with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. On Oct. 1, farms, ranches and other enterprises defined as "agricultural operations" which have 10 or fewer employees at any one time are exempt from all requirements under the Occupational Safety and Health Act (OSHA) for one year.

Annual attempts to amend OSHA during Congressional floor debate on appropriations bill succeeded this year," points out Nelson. "Certain amendments have been attached to appropriations bill for the Departments of Labor and Health, Education and Welfare. All OSHA operating for fiscal 1977 are in bill."

The bill stipulates that no penalties would be provided on first-instance OSHA violations (other than willful or repeated violations) unless 10 or more violations are found, explains Nelson.

Nelson. The bill also exempts from OSHA coverage farms with 10 or fewer employees.

President Ford first vetoed the $56.6 billion appropriations bill for the Departments of Labor and Health, Education and Welfare, including $130.3 million for OSHA, on Sept. 29, on the grounds that it exceeded by $4 billion the sum he requested for fiscal 1977. However, Congress overrode the veto the following day. The bill will provide $130.3 million overall funding for OSHA, including appropriations for the preparation of inflationary impact statements, education, research and consultation activities, and an increase of the compliance staff.

"Someone has said that it is differences in opinion which make horse races, and that is certainly the case here," contends Nelson. OSHA restrictions were designed to give some relief to small relief to small firms and small farms. OSHA estimates indicate 87.5 per cent of all farms in the United States have 10 or fewer employees. However, some Congressmen, regardless of the number of employees, regardless of the type of industry, create a second-class group of American workers.

"Future resolution of these differences may be found in the rational use of cost-effectiveness studies which compare the cost of proposed legislation with the benefits received," believes Nelson.

MRS. JOE T. RASCO

Mrs. Joe Rasco Is 99 Today

Today Mrs. Joe T. (Corra) Rasco is 99 years young. She was born in Tryon, N. C., on October 28, 1877. At age three her family moved to Georgia Mountain, near Guntersville, Ala., where they lived for many years. On November 15, 1899 Corra Maude Foster was united in marriage to Joe T. Rasco of Cullman, Ala., who passed away in January of 1964. Their children are a daughter, Gertrude Rasco, born in Hanceville, Ala., and a son, Foster Rasco, born in Indian Territory, Okla.; both of whom now live with their mother. The Rasco came to this area in 1907, living three years in Donley County and in January of 1911 they moved to the home where they have lived for 65 years—"Crepe Myrtle Hill" so named by a friend as there are over 50 small and large Crepe Myrtles in several colors. Mrs. Rasco has always loved flowers and at one time there were over 40 different species growing in her country flower garden, many of which have been given to her friends and relatives and in turn she has passed on the beauty of growing plants to others. Some people say that one has a "green thumb" but she says that it is just "pure hard work that give you the green thumb."

Mrs. Rasco is most grateful and thankful to all friends and relatives who have helped encourage and inspired her along the pathway of life these many years. Her philosophy is: "There are two days about which I never worry; Two carefree days kept sacredly free from fear and apprehension, one of these days is yesterday and the other day I do not worry about is tomorrow." She has always been grateful for her long life and her favorite poem best portray her thoughts. The Privilege Of Living Thank God for the privilege of living. The privilege of breathing the air. The privilege of being alive in the midst Of such beauty everywhere! Thank the good Lord for his mercy In giving me eyes to see, — A mind to learn, and a voice to speak And a faith in eternity. Thank God for the privilege of living, For sharing His earth and His sky, That a gift so rare as the gift of life Is given such as I. —H. Marshall Mrs. Rasco's birthplace is a good motto: "Try-On."

Undertreatment of Depression Is Noted by Texas Mental Health Assn.

"Depression probably causes more human suffering than any other condition," said Harrell B. Bryant, President of the Texas Association for Mental Health, "and the suffering it causes is almost totally unnecessary." Bryant explained that current methods of treatment have been successful in relieving depression and its consequences, but that most people who have the condition remain untreated. "What we face," he said, "is primarily a problem of attitude. People who would seek treatment for any other serious illness feel that depression is something they should bear, like a punishment, without complaint. Depression, according to Bryant, is common in all segments of society, young and old, rich and poor, male and female, educated and uneducated. It is thought by some experts to stem from a chemical imbalance in the brain. This imbalance makes the person susceptible to the condition, which can erupt at any time and is particularly likely to strike during periods of stress. Common symptoms of depression include headache, sleep disturbances, fatigue, loss of appetite, anxiety, inability to concentrate, loss of interest in people and activities, feelings of guilt, helplessness, remorse, fear, exaggeration of minor obstacles, and other feelings that diminish self-esteem and make even routine activity difficult or even impossible. According to figures obtained by the Mental Health Association, about 1,500,000 people are currently being treated for depression, but as many as 8 to 15 million more remain untreated. "This is the figure that concerns us," Bryant said. "We hope that as more people become knowledgeable about the condition and its causes, there will be less hesitancy about accepting treatment. If so, a great deal of human suffering can be spared. People who are depressed should be encouraged to call a physician, or local mental health center or clinic. Kenneth Metzger of Memphis led bellringer workers in May to collect donations for the Texas Association for Mental Health.

Inflation Give Texas 11-Billion Backlog Needed Highway Projects

AMARILLO — Inflation has handed Texas an $11-billion backlog of needed highway projects and less than $2 billion to meet it in the next 20 years, Charles E. Simons, a member of the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission, said here today. "And I defy anyone here to buy $11 worth of groceries with a $2 bill," he added. Simons addressed the Texas County Judges and Commissioners Association meeting. The commissioner referred to a yearlong study of the department and the Texas highway program recently completed by the department and an internationally known consulting firm, McKinsey & Company, Inc. "I know of no study that was done with greater competence or objectivity than this one," he said. The study has stirred public interest in the plight of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation. But he added that several questions have arisen since as a result of the wide public interest it has stimulated. One of the points was the matter of why the highway program needed dedicated sources of funding, Simons said. There are several reasons, he said. "First, dedication of funds allows the department to plan and carry out work on the highway system in a rational and orderly pattern." He added that, because of delays occasioned by red tape and required environmental, social, and economic studies, lead times have increased drastically. "Thus, we need assurance that the money will be ready after the plans have been reviewed and re-reviewed, ad infinitum," Simons said. Also, with assured income, he said, the department can schedule jobs more efficiently and can spread work loads over an extended time. The Commissioner said the backlog of work represents projects the commission had every reason to believe they would be able to fulfill in the light of conditions that existed at the time. He noted that for most of the post-World War II era, growth in vehicle ownership and usage has been sufficient to offset the effects of inflation. But in the early 1970s inflation hit the double-digit range and the program began falling behind. Simons said the department began early to start tightening belts, decreasing the work force and effecting other economies. At the same

Project Test Gasoline Stations Set

Comptroller Bullock announced Tuesday that his office is initiating a pilot project to test the quality of gasoline at service stations in the Memphis area.

Bullock said the Comptroller's Office has received a request from consumer groups in recent months indicating that some service stations are selling inferior gasoline.

"We've had calls from people whose engines totally quit after a few miles down road after filling their tanks," he said.

Comptroller said that the project will be conducted under the provisions of the Civil Statutes, set out in the gasoline standards act which empowers his office to see that the standards are met.

"We're going to be testing inferior gasoline to see if it's really inferior to the standard quality," he said.

Bullock urged motorists to document that their engines have been damaged by inferior gasoline to call the Motor Fuel Tax Division from anywhere in the state at 1-800-252-5555.

The pilot project will be coordinated with efforts by Sen. Lloyd Dornett to strengthen the law to test and enforce reasonable gasoline standards, he said.

"We're already on the job," he said.

"We obviously contemplate the quality of gasoline in Texas motorists be tested," said Bullock.

"This has never been done before."

"While our funds are limited at this time, we feel we can support this pilot project. Should it prove beneficial to the motoring public, we will seek additional funding from the Legislature."

Local Teachers Attend Quannah VAC Workshop

Mrs. Janet McMurray, V. A. C. resource teacher, and Mrs. Winnie Floyd, teacher's aid, were in Quannah Monday, Oct. 11, where they attended an all day workshop held by the Greenbelt Cooperative Special Services. The workshop was led by Joe Green, Secretary Curriculum Specialist of Region 9 Education Service Center and Mrs. Betty White of Childless, Vocational Adjustment Coordinator for the Greenbelt Coop.

During the morning, the group heard pertinent material from a workshop the two had attended earlier at Midwestern State University with the topic, "Exceptional Students: Alternatives at the Secondary Level." "Dealing with Behavior Problems" was also discussed.

The afternoon session was held in the V. A. C. department of Quannah High School where Mrs. Delight Henderson is the resource teacher. In her department are found an academic section, kitchen area, patient care center, a wood working shop and a horticulture section.

Mr. Green conducted a discussion concerning the successes and problems in each of the units taught by these teachers. A sharing of ideas was helpful and interesting, they stated. The meeting ended with the teachers examining and checking out materials from the Greenbelt Coop's materials center.

Women Receive More SS Payments Than Men In U. S.

By Jim Talbot
District Manager
Amarillo So. Security Office

Three out of five adults getting monthly social security payments are women, according to Jim Talbot, social security district manager in Amarillo, Texas.

"About 27 million people 18 and over get social security payments," Talbot said, "and about 16 million are women. Over 7 million women get retirement benefits based on their own social security work records. That's over 20 times as many as in 1950."

A working woman can retire as early as 62 and get reduced monthly payments on her own record. Or she can wait until she's 65 and get full benefits as well as Medicare coverage.

"But if she's entitled to higher benefits as a wife or a widow on her husband's record," Talbot said, "she'll be paid the higher amount."

"The working woman also has disability and survivors protection from social security," he said. "If she becomes severely disabled and isn't expected to be able to do any work for a year or more, she and her family may be eligible for monthly cash payments from social security. After she's entitled to social security disability benefits for 24 consecutive months, she is eligible for Medicare."

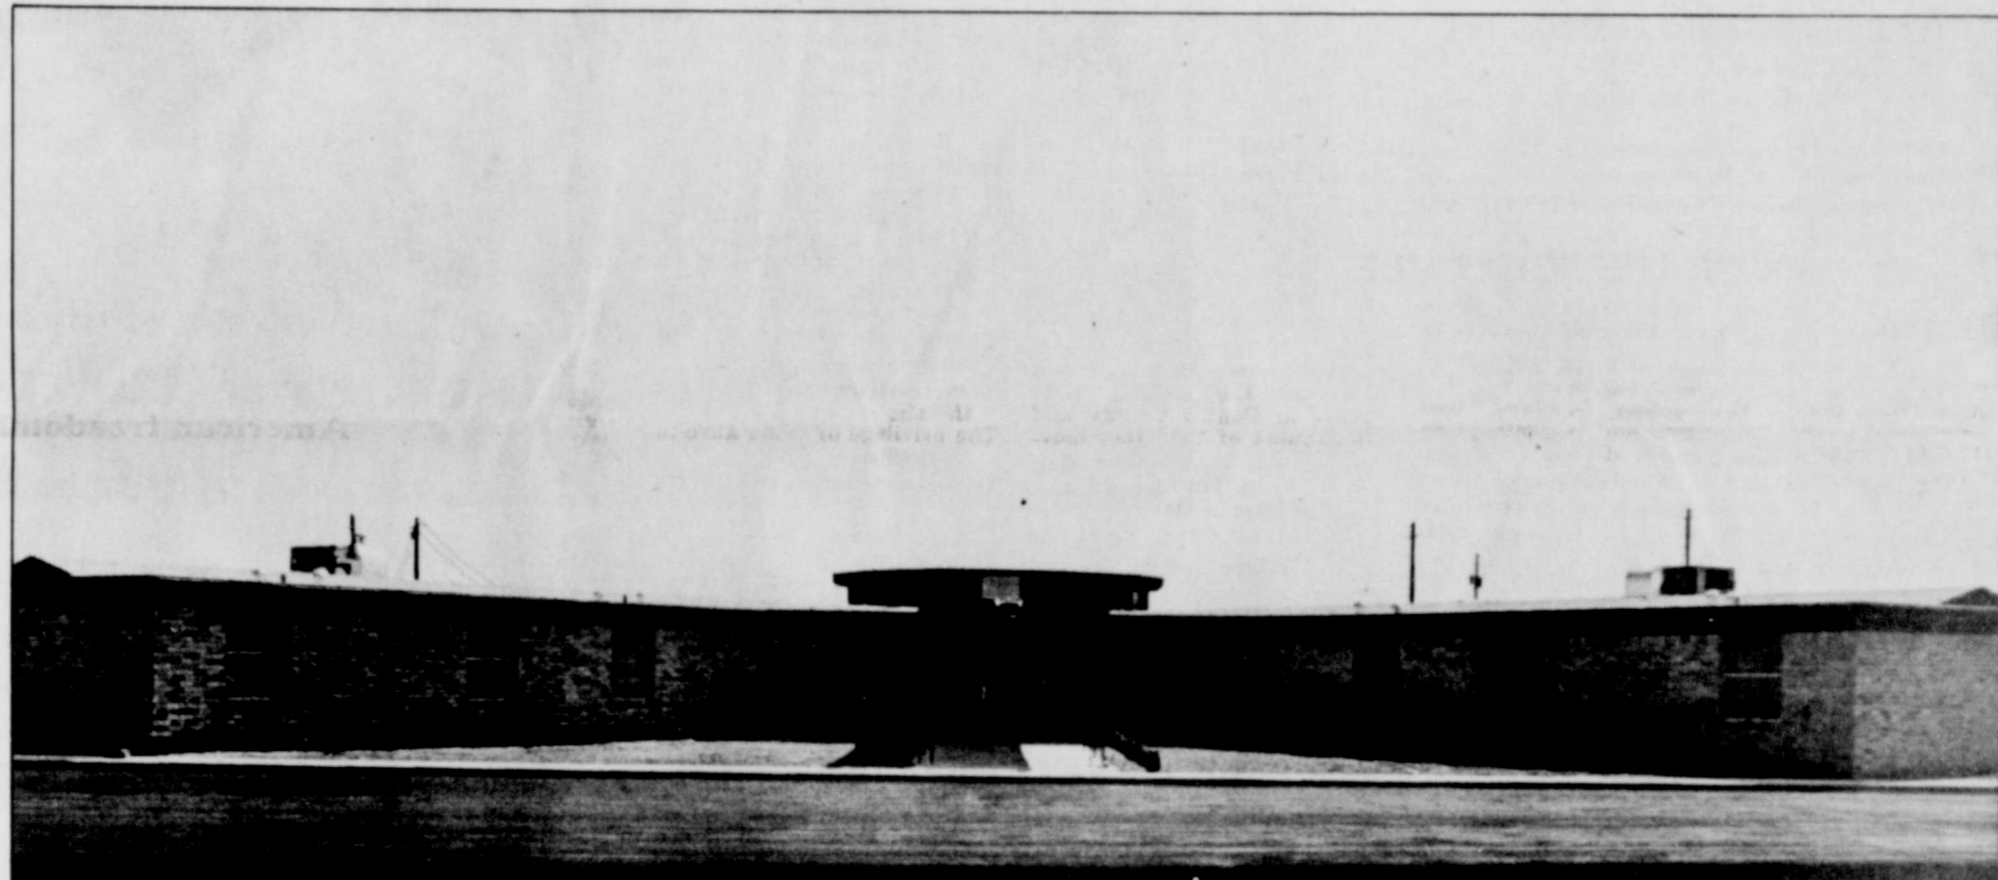

Over 614,000 children get monthly social security payments based on their mothers' work records, according to Talbot. "A child entitled to benefits based on the mother's record can get payments even though the child's father may be working at a full-time job," he said.

Ardella Lorene Benson: Administrator.

Compassionate, conscientious nurses who truly care about our guests are a trademark of every Leisure Lodge Nursing Center.

We have everything you'll find at any nursing home, plus a whole lot more. First of all, we have Licensed Nurses on duty around the clock. Our guests eat together, at regular dining tables, in a regular dining room, and enjoy the fun and fellowship of people their own age. We have planned and supervised activities, scheduled by a full-time Activities Director. And we have religious services, too. But what we have the most of, is FUN, and that's why our guests like it so well here.

At Leisure Lodge, spacious and well-appointed living rooms are a center of activity, where guests gather to visit, read, watch television.

It doesn't cost any more to live at Leisure Lodge than any other home. Don't let our nice building and grounds and our pretty decor fool you. It may look like an expensive place to live, but it isn't. In fact, it doesn't cost a bit more to live here than at any other nursing home. We're approved by the State Welfare Department, licensed by the State Department of Health, and we're approved for Medicaid. Regardless of where you live now, you can easily move to Leisure Lodge Nursing Center. And we know you'll like it here!

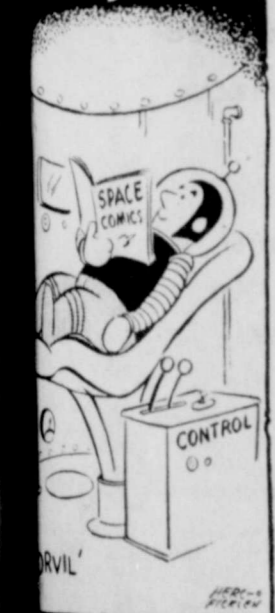

Anyone who has ever eaten a meal at a Leisure Lodge Nursing Center knows that the food is good, lovingly prepared, and that there's plenty of it.

We'd love to have you visit our home anytime, at your convenience. We're proud of Leisure Lodge Nursing Center, and we'd like for you to see it anytime. And especially, if you are in need of professional care; if you are living by yourself or with some family member who is unable for any reason to give you the attention and help you need; if you're just lonely for companionship; or if you know anyone in one of these categories — call or come by Leisure Lodge Nursing Center. Find out how much FUN living can be. You'll be glad you did!

Handcrafts and other activities are a large part of the program of rehabilitative care which is typical of every Leisure Lodge home.

Patsy Reed, Don Springer Marry In Home Ceremony

Ann Reed, daughter of Mrs. Clyde Reed and the late Mr. Reed, and Don Springer, son of Hed- Ross Springer of Hed- were united in marriage in a pretty ceremony on Oct. 16 at the home of the bride's mother.

Rev. Bill Curry, pastor of First Baptist Church of Memphis, performed the ceremony before a ring ceremony before a table of yellow and orange flowers centered by an arrangement of camellia leaves. The ceremony was accented by a bow of white satin and wedding

MR. AND MRS. DON SPRINGER

The Bride
The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Jay Piland, chose a gown of white tulle. It was decorated with a V-necked bodice and a long, flowing skirt. The gown featured a short jacket with cape sleeves and a high collar. She carried a bouquet of white roses and a white satin streamer in her left hand.

The groom, Harold White of Hedley, was dressed in a dark suit and tie. He stood to the left of the bride, holding her hand. The ceremony was held in a home setting with floral decorations.

The three-tiered wedding cake was topped by miniature white doves and wedding bells. The groom's table was covered with an orange cloth and offered chocolate cake and coffee.

Miss La Moss Springer, daughter of the groom, and Miss Sheri Hill served at the reception tables.

Mrs. Bobby Pickard of Ar- arillo and Mrs. Ken Dunnam of Lubbock, cousins of the bride, presided at the register table to secure signatures of the guests. The table was covered with a cloth of white lace over orange and decorated with an arrangement of Talisman roses.

Rickey Springer, son of the groom, and Jay Lynn Piland, nephew of the bride, handed out rice bars of apricot illusion tied with yellow ribbon.

For a wedding trip to points of interest in Colorado, the bride wore a three-piece knit suit of teal blue accented with orange stitching. She wore the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The couple is at home in Hedley where the groom is engaged in farming.

Other members of the house party included Mrs. Jesse Smith and Mrs. Ruby Melton of Groom, aunts of the bride; Mrs. Nellie Campbell of Lakeview and Mrs. Bill Leggett of Memphis.

In addition to those mentioned above, other guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Ross Springer, Martin Hill, Mrs. Harold White, Mrs. Renee and Carrie Shields, all of Hedley; Ero, and Mrs. Alice Curry of Quitaque; Mrs. Ruby Milton of Groom; Mrs. Cora Belle Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Gardenhire and Billy Combs of Memphis; Mrs. Wanda Moore, Bobby Pickard and Little Miss Rebecca Jane Pickard and Jesse Smith, all of Amarillo; and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Milton, Jr., of Baumholder, Germany, cousin of the bride, who is home on furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Greene left Sunday for Dallas where they will attend market and also visit with their daughter, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Caldwell and daughter, Kelli Greene.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shadid and Terri left Friday for Dallas to attend market. They returned home the first of the week.

Culture Club Enjoys Program On Texas

The Woman's Culture Club met in the home of Mrs. Alvin Pycatt October 20.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. L. A. Stilwell, followed by the invocation by Miss Sybil Gurley. After the reading of the minutes and the treasurer's report, a brief business session was held.

Program chairman, Mrs. Frank Ellis presented the program entitled "Different Nationalities in Texas and other Colorful Figures."

Mrs. Anne Lange's picture presentation gave an interesting account of the eight tribes of skillful Indians, who have lived in Texas during the past years.

Mrs. R. E. Clark reported on the French. She stated that La Salle was the most interesting explorer. He was magnificent in his personal failures but by his courage against odds, he had always made a great appeal. Though he seemed to fail, his explorations gave France a claim to a vast, splendid empire.

Miss Alma Bruce talked on the Spanish. She stated that today, among the people of the southwest, Spanish influence can be seen in law, architecture, and property rights, and above all, a gentle way of life in a gentle climate makes this region unlike any other in the United States.

Mrs. Robert Moss discussed "Cowboys and Missionaries." She told that of all forces affecting early Texas society none had a greater influence than the churches. It was not until after Texas had her independence that a well organized missionary program was launched.

Texas cattle and the technique and lingo of the Texas Cowboys have contributed to the history and saga of the west, and visitors still ask to see a genuine cowboy.

Thus we see how the Indians, French, Spanish and Cowboys and missionaries helped paint the colorful background of Texas.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. A. W. Howard, Theo Swift, L. A. Stilwell, Hester Bownds, Sylvia Lewis, Robert Moss, Jeanette Irons, R. E. Clark, Frank Ellis, Ward Gurley, Misses Esta McElrath, Sybil Gurley, Alma Bruce and hostess, Mrs. Pycatt.

Veterans Administration mobile office vans traveled 122,000 miles in FY 1975, serving veterans and their families remote from VA offices.

PLANS DECEMBER WEDDING—Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Brown of Andrews announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Ann Brown, to Jimmy Booth, both of Memphis. The groom-to-be is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Booth. The wedding will be an event of December 5 at 2:00 p.m. in Travis Baptist Church. All friends and relatives of the couple are cordially invited to attend.

Patsy Reed Is Shower Honoree

Miss Patsy Ann Reed, known to most of friends as Patty, was honored with a bridal shower on Friday, October 8, from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. at the Methodist Fellowship Hall at Lakeview. Miss Reed was married to Don C. Springer on October 16.

The bride's chosen colors of orange, yellow and white were used throughout the Fellowship Hall.

Mrs. Joan Whitten and Mrs. Evedyn Hicks alternated at the registry table which was covered with a lace cloth with underskirt of orange and was centered with a small vase of flowers, the wedding book, and white plumed pen.

Mrs. W. O. Clark listed all the gifts by the names of the guests as they were opened.

The serving table was covered with white satin cloth underlaid with orange. The centerpiece and candles, in the bride's chosen colors, were appropriately placed amid the silver and crystal appointments.

Mrs. Dixie Barbee and Mrs. Mozelle Richburg served orange punch and white cake, mints and nuts.

LET FAITH INSURE THE WISE SELECTION OF OUR LEADERS

One of the most precious rights inherent in our God-given heritage of freedom is the election of our officers whose job it will be to guide our destinies for another prescribed period of our history; taking into account our social and economic problems within as well as the turbulent world developments without. We must decide the entire direction in which we will move, and this requires a great deal of study, reflection and the willingness to listen impartially to both sides, to inform ourselves of the issues involved & to divest ourselves of all prejudice and preconceived ideas. Your attendance at the Church of your choice can be of great help at this crucial moment of decision; giving you the wisdom, patience and impartiality that are so essential for the task.

The LONELY HEART

FOOD KEY TO PEACE, PROSPERITY, HEALTH
Texas A&M University's dean of agriculture contends that peace, prosperity and human health in the next few decades will depend more than ever on food production and distribution. Food delivery and economics are the main problems as far as malnutrition is concerned today. The issue is getting the food to where the people are and providing an income so that they can buy it. Significant breakthroughs are needed in productivity to meet future food demands, as the world population is expected to reach 7 billion by century's end.

foreign producing countries. Major buyers of Texas crude entered requests for more than 3.9 million barrels of oil a day in November.

Employees Fired
House Speaker Bill Clayton fired four veteran House employees last week. He said they did not fit into his plans to computerize the system of handling legislation.

Discharged were House Chief Clerk Dorothy Hallman, a House employee for 41 years and chief clerk for 20 years; Adele Jacobs, who has been calendar clerk since 1947 and has worked for the legislature since 1931; Assistant Chief Clerk Ruth Rainey, a 10 year veteran; and Assistant Calendar Clerk Cynthia Lewis.

Clayton claimed House members and lobbyists had told him they had been contacted by some of the employees and warned that bills may be lost under the new system or that copies of legislation would not be available. The speaker also said there were just too many employees in the clerk's office.

Mobile Home Probe Set
The Department of Public Safety has launched a statewide probe of mobile home scandals.

DPS spokesmen said owners of the homes are being offered phony contracts under which buyers claim they will agree to pay off the balance owed them.

Courts Speak
The State Bar of Texas has filed a complaint in district court at Houston seeking to disbar, suspend or reprimand Donald B. Yarbrough, Democratic nominee for the State Supreme Court.

The Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed the death penalty for two men who killed an off-duty patrolman.

The same court upheld a trial court decision denying bail for Fort Worth millionaire Cullen Davis in the slaying of his stepdaughter.

The court also reversed the 14 years sentence given a man in the rape of a deaf mute in Bell County.

Hearing Slated
Texas Public Utilities Commission set December 1 as a tentative date for review of the rural rate structure of Central Power and Light Company.

The commission turned down a motion from intervening cities to delay the consolidated hearing until late December after all cities have individually considered rate requests presented to them by CP&L.

Two intervening groups were named by the commission. One consists of 41 South Texas cities. The second combines interested ratepayers in Aransas and Nueces counties, South Padre Island and the Key Alegre Canal Owners Association.

Meanwhile, the commission granted Atty. Gen. John Hill and Texas Municipal League a three-day time extension to intervene in the Southwestern Bell Telephone rate case. The company is seeking a $272 million annual hike.

Share $212.2 Million
Texas cities and counties

spent a combined total of $212.2 million in federal revenue sharing funds during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1975, Comptroller Bob Bullock has reported.

Bullock said cities spent 72 per cent of their $132.3 million for capital improvements and the remaining 28 per cent on operating expenses.

He said counties spent 62 per cent of a $79.9 million allotment on capital improvements and 38 per cent on operating expenses. Transportation accounted for 26 per cent of the revenue sharing fund expenditures by both cities and counties.

Bullock reported August state expenditures of $408.4 million ended the state's 1976 fiscal year at a total expenditure level of $6.2 billion, an increase of $826.4 million over the previous year. August revenues were $633.5 million, closing the fiscal year with total revenues of $6.6 billion — a $917.1 million gain.

Mrs. George Greenshaw returned home Friday, Oct. 22, after spending a month in Placentia, Calif., with her sister, Mrs. Edna Forbis, and niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Wing.

Parents May Now Be Asked To Sign "Consent Card" Before Vaccination

The next time you visit your doctor, or public health clinic, to get a vaccination for yourself or your child, you may be asked to sign an "Informed Consent Card." This procedure is designed to protect you by making sure that you understand what is involved in a vaccination, according to Hall Nelson, legal consultant for the Texas Department of Health Resources.

The procedure itself is not entirely new, but it has been greatly expanded. Nelson explains, "It has always been necessary for some sort of consent to be given for any type of medical treatment or immunization. The consent quite often has been implied, however."

For example, when a person goes to a physician and seeks treatment, the person's consent is implied by the fact that he sought the treatment. However, Nelson says that this line of legal reasoning doesn't necessarily apply in the case of a mass immunization program or a public health clinic, where a physician is not making an independent medical judgment on each individual recipient of the vaccine.

Furthermore, Nelson says, a recent federal court case has spurred renewed concern over the matter of informed consent. The case, "Reyes versus Wyeth Laboratories," developed in Texas and involved vaccination against polio. When a child who had been vaccinated later came down with polio, the parents sued the manufacturer of the vaccine. Although the court agreed that the manufacturer had not been negligent in the sense of producing a harmful vaccine (the child evidently contracted the polio from some other source), nevertheless, the court felt that the parents had not understood the inherent risks and limitations of vaccination.

"The key word here is 'informed,'" says Nelson. "The Court in the Wyeth case said that not only does a recipient, or his or her parent or guardian, have to consent to receiving the immunization, but they have to know what they're consenting to. They have to be informed as to various aspects of the vaccine itself, the possible side effects, something about the disease, special precautions, and special allergies, if any."

Nelson emphasizes that informed consent is not as entirely new concept. He points out, "Your physician, your surgeon will not operate unless you give him consent to do so. It's a protection for both parties, actually. It's so that the patient knows fully, and appreciates fully, the treatment he is about to receive, and it's also for the protection of the physician or those persons working in the clinic."

The informed consent concept, although it is not entirely new, became a major problem for both private physicians and public health authorities when the Supreme Court's decision was made in the Reyes case. Part of the problem was that, for the first time, the manufacturer of the vaccine was held responsible for seeing that the recipient had been properly informed, in the past, this was always considered the sole responsibility of the person or agency administering the vaccine. The vaccine manufacturers, understandably, have not taken the position they will not release any vaccine until they have been assured that "informed consent" will be achieved. This stance on the part of the manufacturers has resulted in delays in the production and distribution of the new influenza vaccine, for the so-called "swine flu" campaign, and has caused shortages or delays in the delivery of polio vaccines in some parts of the country.

Signing an "Informed Consent Card" does not mean that the person releases the physician or clinic from all liability, Nelson says. He explains, "This does not allow a treating person — a physician or a nurse, for example — to be negligent. A person always is, always has been, and always will be responsible for his or her own acts of negligence." Rather, "informed consent" merely means that a person understands that there is always some degree of risk in any medical treatment or vaccination, even if it is properly given, and that the person accepts that risk in order to obtain the benefits of treatment.

CAN YOU TRUST JIMMY CARTER TO DO WHAT'S BEST FOR THE AMERICAN FARMER?

Jimmy Carter is an engineer, a scientist, a former governor. He is also a farmer. His children will be the sixth generation on the same land. He understands what it means to roll up his sleeves to do an honest day's work for an honest day's pay. He also understands the abuses you have suffered during a Republican Administration which has taken excellent care of the grain speculators, the Russians, the food processors and the powerful. At your expense. The Republican big-business approach to farming is a disgrace and a failure. American farmers are going broke trying to produce food American consumers cannot afford to buy. As a farmer Jimmy Carter is committed to changing that. As President, Jimmy Carter will change that.

TOGETHER, JIMMY CARTER AND WALTER MONDALE WILL GIVE THE AMERICAN FARMERS A VOICE IN THE WAY YOUR GOVERNMENT IS RUN.

One of the reasons Jimmy Carter chose Walter Mondale to be his running mate was because they both share the same concern for the American farmer. Born and raised in rural Minnesota, Mondale has relentlessly and consistently fought for the rights of the family farmer. And as a U.S. Senator, his record stands as one of the most impressive in Congress.

CAN YOU TRUST A REPUBLICAN ADMINISTRATION WHICH STANDS ON A RECORD LIKE THIS?

As a Congressman, Gerald Ford led the fight for cutbacks and impoundments of rural funds. He voted for every termination and elimination of rural programs family farmers so desperately need. As President, Gerald Ford and a Butz Department of Agriculture have consistently vetoed, embargoed, reduced and curtailed a long list of programs designed to guarantee the family farmer a decent standard of living. It's a record of disregard and insensitivity to the problems facing the farmers and consumers of this nation.

If you agree that drastic reforms must be made in the way this country is run, in the way our farm program is administered, you have only one choice on November 2nd. And that's for change.

ON NOVEMBER 2ND, VOTE FOR JIMMY CARTER. A LEADER, FOR A CHANGE.

Political adv. paid for and authorized by B. J. Robison, Hall County Democratic Party Executive Committee Chairman.

Another new business operation I overlooked in last week's column was the AHO Corn Company, Inc., of Memphis. A few days ago Hubert Dennis delivered me a small package and printed on this package was as follows: "Fresh Ground Pure Corn". AHO Corn Co., Inc., Ace and Hubert, Good for mush, hush puppies, cornbread and maybe squeezing. 16 oz. maybe more or less $3.25 no refunds. After looking at the rich contents of this package, I wanted the history of this company operation which was as follows: It seems that Ace and Hubert made a trip to Dimmitt, Texas, and visited with Jerry Cluck (whose wife is the former Carol Ann Monzinger, daughter of the late Frank Monzinger and Grace of Memphis). Jerry is now a large operator of farms in the Dimmitt area and is growing a lot of fine corn. I do not know which one of the A&H's visited with Jerry while the other one filled the trunk of their car with the fine corn. Anyway, they arrived back home with it and dried it out good and had a test made by Don Ferrel to check for moisture to see if it was ready for ground meal. It checked out exactly. So the next operation was to find someone to grind this corn. They found Jiggs Land at Lelia Lake who had his grandfather's stone meal grinder that is over 100 years old. I have not weighed the package or paid the $3.25, but I appreciate having some of the fresh ground meal that makes you lick your tongue for more. The first time in my life I know about this fine meal was when my grandfather put a sack of corn on the horse's back and told me to go to the gristmill and bring back a sack of meal which is made up in the kitchen in hot cornbread which, if I remember right, had a taste better than cake. Hot cornbread with plenty of butter is good for body and soul. Anyway, we found out that Jerry raises good corn.

There was a question with me a few days ago when the weatherman of TV quoted the high temperature that particular day as the same in Amarillo as it was in Fairbanks, Alaska. We are approaching the frigid zone or else Alaska is headed for the torrid zone. We better start looking for the ice bergs coming down on us.

Mrs. L. D. Bingham who recently moved from Lovington, N. M., was a visitor in Heritage Hall the past week with her granddaughter, Xan Bussanus. Mr. Bingham is the new operator of the Lesley Co-op Gin.

Other visitors in Heritage Hall were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Stephens and their two sons, Micah and Jared, of Houston. The twins are grandsons of Gwendolyn Franklin of Houston and the great-grandsons of Mrs. W. V. Coursey. Gwendolyn will be remembered as the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Coursey. She graduated from MHS in 1943. She is now a R. N. and is working at the Veteran's Hospital in Houston.

In conversation with the great-grandmother, she reported that the twins were identical and the only way she could tell them apart was one of them had a little scratch on his nose. I guess the parents will have to keep a little scratch on one of them so they won't spank the wrong one.

In the passing away of D. R. Kelly a few days ago, brought back memories. He was 85 years old when he passed away. When I first met Mr. Kelly, he was only 38 years old at the time he moved to Memphis in 1929 with his wife and three children. Norma Dene Lewis was a two months old baby. She is now Mrs. Bill Lewis, living in Amarillo where she is a secretary at the Veteran's Hospital. After pastoring one of the Baptist Churches in Shamrock, her husband, Bill Lewis, is now pastor of the Cliffside Baptist Church of Amarillo. The other Kelly children are Orth of Eugene Oregon, and Geneva Schropshire of Lubbock who is now working for the state health department of the State of Texas. She is supervisor for her district. Over 40 years D. R. Kelly was a well qualified

Creamy King Crab Chowder

Convenience and good flavor join to create this creamy King Crab Chowder. Juicy chunks of Alaska King crab permeate the rich chowder made in an instant with canned soups.

The unique combination of tomato and green pea soups complements the delicate flavor of the crab. Additional seasonings include chicken bouillon, green pepper and sherry.

Caught off the Alaskan coast, the King crab is available in both the canned or frozen form. The delicious, snowy-white crab meat with bright red striations is fully cooked, cleaned and ready to use right from the can or package. Simply defrost the crab, if frozen, drain and slice against the grain with a sharp knife.

meat market man as he knew his meat. He arrived in Memphis just in time to get in on the "dirty thirties" and they were working days that did not stop with an 8-hour day. He first worked for Leo Fields in the market soon after Leo had purchased the Schnell Grocery Store on the south side of the square. All three of the Kelly children graduated from MHS. Mr. Kelly operated a store of his own on South 10th Street for a number of years before retiring and moving to Littlefield.

In conversation with Mrs. Leo Fields a few days ago, I was informed that their daughter, Linda, who is now Mrs. Jim Sparboe, has been living in St. Louis, Mo., for the past two years. Linda has two daughters. She is married to Jim who is with the Wyandotte Company in St. Louis. He has now been made a district manager and he and his family will be moving to Memphis, Tenn., and his district will cover from Brownsville, Texas, to New Jersey. This sounds like it would be hard for Jim to be on time for supper every night covering that much territory!

This statement taken from the daily news a few days ago gave us another thing to brag about in Texas. "It's a long way from a forgotten sea floor to the kitchen salt shaker, uphill and through a few hundred million years of stratum." This statement was from the town of Grand Saline in Van Zandt County where the sun never shines; however, miners drive trucks through tunnels larger than freeway overpasses to work and zip back to a lighted picnic area for lunch and take two up-to breaks during an 8 hour shift. There are about 20 workers who work about 700-foot underground. The Morton mine quarries rock salt from an underground hump which projects upward from the main deposit at 14,000 feet to form a hill over a mile across and only 200 feet below the surface. The deposit has been chartered as far north as Oklahoma and out into the Gulf of Mexico. In fact, this industry is in the unusual position of having too much product and too little demand. The most costly part of the table salt is contained in the packaging of this item. A work of nature it seems has placed a salt bed under Grand Saline which can supply the world's needs in salt for 20,000 years, according to the statement made by the manager of the Morton Salt Co. in Grand Saline. If the scientists come up with a formula for converting salt to energy, we may not have to import oil.

Anyway, Texas has another thing to brag about as we have one of the largest salt mines in the world. So much salt had been mined that last spring they had a cave-in 30 feet deep by 160 feet wide and 300 feet long, now being filled in.

I had a short visit with James Arthur Anthony the past weekend. The Anthony's were on their way home to Albuquerque, N. M., where they have lived for the past 22 years. They had been visiting with their daughter, Janice, in Pensacola, Fla., for the past month. James Arthur graduated from MHS in 1928. He was a member of the Cyclone football team in high school. His wife, Annie Rene (daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Montgomery) graduated from MHS in 1930. Their other daughter, Jamie, is now living in Santa Fe, N. M. James Arthur retired January 1, 1976. In checking up on his family, we found that T. C. is in Wichita Falls, where he has lived for a number of years as a qualified C. P. A. The other brother, Jack, is living in Los Angeles, Calif., where he has lived for a number of years. The other two children of the late Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Anthony, Sr. were Bess Edmondson (now deceased) and Janice who has lived in Amarillo for a number of years. Other relatives of the Anthony family that I checked up on were Mark Anthony, now living in Gainesville, May Anthony, now living in Bowie where her sister, Mable, wife of the late Pete Berry passed away the past year. James A. and Anne Rene have the two daughters and he says he is married to a grandma as they now have 6 grandchildren. Anne Rene's sister, Dorothy is in Kentucky teaching in the schools for the past several years. The brother,

Liver Offers Variety, Nutritional Punch to Meals

AUSTIN—Variety is the spice of life, and variety meats offer a good change from the usual weekly round of meats.

Liver is probably the most popular variety meat. Loaded with nutrients, it is an excellent source of iron, protein, vitamin A, the B vitamins and minerals. It is an economical source of protein, with virtually no waste.

Chicken livers are a popular type of liver. Long known as a gourmet treat, they are now enjoyed in regular menus. Right now, supplies are abundant, and prices are reasonable.

The Texas Department of Agriculture home economist advises that liver can be made unappetizing if overcooked. When preparing it, take special care to cook over moderate heat for a short time, just until tender.

Chicken Livers Stroganoff is a tasty, attractive dish—even the most stubborn liver-hater may decide to give it a try.

Can we afford four more years without effective leadership?

There is a critical decision to be made on November 2nd. It goes far beyond the question of which Presidential candidate can govern with integrity and honesty. We must determine which candidate has the ability and strength to lead our country out of economic chaos, and the vision to see that all Americans—not just the powerful and influential—have a better future.

During the past two years, the middle class has paid far too dear a price for a President lacking that ability.

Since Gerald Ford took office, the unemployment rate has risen 50%, from 5.5% or 5 million people, to 7.9% or 7-1/2 million jobless Americans.

Today's inflation rate of 6% is higher than it was at any time between the Korean War and the inauguration of Richard Nixon.

The 1968 food dollar is now worth 57¢.

Mr. Ford's budget will account for the largest single deficit and more than 1/3 of the public debt incurred during our entire 200-year history.

Real GNP has actually declined during each of Gerald Ford's two years in office.

And who is most affected by these distressing statistics? Not the Washington establishment, or the economic elite courted by the Republicans. The burden falls on the person who can least afford it: the average American.

Jimmy Carter means to change all that. As President, he will make government responsive to your needs.

Tax Reform: "The average family in this country actually pays a higher proportion of their income in taxes than the average family that makes more than a million dollars a year. That's disgraceful. We need to move toward a truly progressive and simplified tax system, with reduced tax rates for the average American."

Economy: "We'll never have a balanced budget nor an end to the inflationary problems as long as we have 7-1/2 million people out of work. Employment needs to be the major thrust of the whole domestic policy of our government."

Efficiency in Government: "We now have in the federal government the most bloated, confused, wasteful bureaucracy ever created. There's no way to get an answer out of Washington and no way to understand what's going on there. We need to reorganize completely the executive branch of government, making it fair, efficient, effective, and responsive to our people's needs."

Housing: "No government that cared about our neighborhoods would stack the tax deck against them. A landlord can let a building run down and make a good living on tax breaks. But when a home owner spends a little hard-earned money fixing up his home, the assessor raises his taxes. And the FHA no longer cares about families getting started in their own homes. I intend to restore the FHA to the time when, for a down payment, a family could get a mortgage which the government would insure."

Health Care: "We need a nationwide health care delivery system which will make adequate health care a right for all people."

Jimmy Carter has the strength to take charge of our government. If you are tired of paying the high price of Republican ineffectiveness, you have only one choice on November 2nd, and that choice is for change.

Vote for JIMMY CARTER. A leader, for a change.

If you smell natural gas, follow these 3 steps to safety.

The natural gas industry has one of the best safety records of any energy source in the United States.

The fact that you can smell natural gas is because we add a harmless chemical to it as an extra safety feature. Otherwise, it would be completely odorless. If you detect faint whiffs of what you think may be gas, investigate. It may be something that is as easily and safely corrected as a pilot light that has gone out, or a burner valve that's partially open.

If your equipment seems to be working properly and the odor intensifies and seems to be everywhere, please follow these precautions:

1. Do not switch anything electrical on or off. Don't use the telephone in your own home. Do not strike a match. Do not do anything that might cause a spark.
2. Have everyone leave the house immediately, leaving doors open to help ventilate.
3. Go to a nearby telephone and call Lone Star Gas Company. Wait until we have found the source of the odor to determine whether it's safe for you to return to the house.

You may never have a natural gas leak, but we want you to be informed in case one does occur. Please make sure your family is aware of these precautionary steps. And we suggest that you keep this message for future reference.
