WE'LL MISS YOU— JACK

HASTA LA VISTA

On November 4, 1974, I entered into a completely new world, the world of a foreign exchange student being hosted by the Rotary Club of Brackettville, Texas.

My stay in Brackettville consisted of participating in Rotary sponsored activities both at home and around the state and of mixing as much as possible with the community in the hope of getting a picture of what life in the U.S. and particularly Texas, is like. Since my first day in Texas, some seven months ago, I have travelled almost every part of Texas and have met and been associated with practically all types of Texans. Even though all of these people had completely different personalities, they all seemed to have one thing in common, they were Texans which means that they are extremely proud people, both of themselves and of their state, and that they are very friendly (second in friendliness only to Nova Scotians) very seldom did I ever meet a Texan that wouldn't go out of his way to help me.

Since my stay in Texas is almost over, many people have asked me if I'm really looking forward to going home. The answer to this question is two fold; Yes, I am looking forward to going home to my family and friends in Nova Scotia, but, No, I'm not looking forward to leaving my adopted families and friends, in Texas. Now, if I could just figure out some way of transporting Nova Scotia on the map of Texas I could have the best of both places.

As an outsider that now feels like he is inside I can see how WE Texans are proud. Texas has personality that no other place in teh world can match. Texas has a diversity that very few places can come close to and finally Texas has people that are great.

My world as an exchange student in Texas for the better part of a year is known only to myself and my friends in Texas and you can bet that my fond memories of this state will remain in my mind for many years to come.

In closing I would like to thank all of those people who made my stay in Texas one of the best and certainly the most memorable year of my life.

It would be very difficult to list all the people who made my stay so successful since this paper is only six pages long, but, I would like to particular mention to the Rotary Club without whom I would never have gotten a chance to participate in this fantastic program. I hope that some day I will get a chance to return some of the favors shown to me by Texans.

TEXAS, THANK YOU AND STAY PROUD!

I WONDER WHERE THE WORLD WOULD BE IF WE HAD MORE AMBASSADORS WITH JACK'S OUTLOOK ?

After knowing Jack Graham since the first day he arrived in Brackettville, I know that his open letter to his friends is one of greatest sincerity.

Jack, not only has a message for his teen-age friends, but also, for some of us old foggies. This is the way to build international relations in the future. LET OUR YOUNG PEOPLE LIKE JACK AND HIS NEW FOUND FRIENDS IN BRACKETTVILLE COMMUNICATE----INSTEAD OF TRYING TO BUY OUR FRIENDS!

I know that I speak for the entire community when I say, Thank you Jack--Come back and see us--bring your friends---don't forget Texas or Brackettville..

COUNTY AGENT REPORT

BY: CARL ESSER

Wherever home vegetables are growing, at least one insect pest can usually be found--the cabbage looper.

Although its name indicates that it feeds on cabbage, this insect is also a major pest of cauliflower, broccoli, lettuce, beans, and tomatoes as well as numerous other crops, points out Carl Esser, county agent for the Texas Agriculture Extension Service.

The worms are light green in color and have thin, white stripes running the length of their bodies. The tail end of the pest is larger than the head portion.

Full-grown loopers are about one-and-a-half inches long. They move with a looping action, hence the name "loopers".

Cabbage loopers are foliage feeders and give leaves a "buckshot" appearance where they are active, explains Esser. Heavy numbers can completely strip plants of their leaves.

Several insecticides will effectively control cabbage loopers if control measures are taken when the small worms are first detected. Control of large loopers become more difficult.

Among recommended insecticides are Bacillus thuringiensis, carbaryl (Sevin), dibrom (Naled) and endosulfan (Thiodan). Esser advises reading the label on all products and following directions closely. Particular attention should be given to restrictions on dosages and days from last application to harvest.

Postert--- During the conversation , he mentioned that he has had a very difficult time locating members of his congregation . HE HAS EVEN ATTEMPTED TO MAKE HIS OWN CITY MAP with people's names on it. He too was concered on the emergency situation of our new doctor that is arriving,with his assistant not being to locate an emergency in time.

Father postert, stated: " I would be gald to donate to a street sign and numbering system".

Readers lets have your comments and veivs on this.

POVERTY OR PROGRESS?

In the recent months I have noticed the new releases to this paper and other area papers regarding the terrific poverty programs under-taken in our county. These programs are extremely essential and worth while however, during this period of time I have not noticed a single statement regarding any attempt to increase business income or employment of our community.

All of us know of our local area people that have to commute out of town for employment--and our young people leaving the community to get decent jobs.

It is high time that we all"get on the stick" and try and bring some employment into our area.

I am not talking about a steel mill or an auto plant . There are many companies in the clothing, electronics manufacturing, ect. looking for locations like Brackettville. These type of operations usually employ 50- 200 people. (Not too long ago Motorola opened an assembly plant in Seguin, to assemble car stereos).

LETS QUIT BUILDING OUR POVERTY AND START BUILDING OUR PROGRESS!!!

TEXAS SHEEPMAN TESTIFIES

There is ample evidence available to prove that sodium monofluoracetate, or Compound 1080, should be registered for predator control, so testified Dr. Percy R. Turner, first vice president of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raiser's Association, in his testimony before the U.S. House of Representatives' Committee on Agriculture concerning legislation to extend the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide and Rodenticide Act. Appearing in behalf of the National Wool Growers Association as well as the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association, Dr. Turner advised the committee that is was certianly not the FIFRA Act itself which caused the problems to the Sheep Producer but the Environmental Protection Agency. The Agency acted without due authority when they removed the registration of certain chemical toxicants for predator control. Dr. Turner went on to point out that the sheep and goat industry may have suffered as much as a 50 million dollar loss to predators here in the United States. Much of this loss is blamed on the inability of the Livestock producers to use chemicals for coyote control.

Dr. Turner pointed out that there is data that shows the negative relationship of coyote density and that of sheep and goats, and also there is data showing a positive relationship of coyote density and producer estimates of losses due to predators. Dr. Turner's information came from work conducted by Dr. Maurice Shelton and Dr. John Klindt on the interrelationship of coyote density and certain livestock and game species in Texas. One of the main points that Dr. Turner emphasized was that the suspension of the registration order states that there are known alternatives to the use of toxicants. These known alternatives such as traps, snares, denning and aerial hunting, are being used but are inadequate to do the job and are very expensive in terms of cost per coyote. He further explained that one of the closing statements in the order to suspend registration notes that the order would not affect supply of staple foods. Dr. Turner stated that lamb may not be a staple foodstuff, but it is a food enjoyed by many persons, and the supply is being profoundly affected by this order. We have already had one lamb slaughter facility closed in the Midwest this year because of lack of lamb. The primary cause of the decrease in sheep and goat numbers is due to predators. He continued that the questions raised by EPA in regard to at least one toxicant has been answered in a manner favorable to registration of the toxicant. It is now time that registration of sodium monofluoracetate, or Compound 1080, be reconsidered Turner stated.

Dr. Turner was one of well over 25 persons who testified in four days of hearings before the House Agriculture Committee. The purpose of the hearings was to determine whether or not the FIFRA Act of 1972 should be extended or terminated. Much of the testimony indicated that the Act was well conceived and well written, but it was felt the EPA had certainly stepped out of line in their interpretation of the law and something must be done to control the EPA and make it function as directed by the Act.

WELCOME TO BRACKETTVILLE.....

OUTSTANDING CITIZEN

This week the CAVALRYMAN salutes....TRAVIS WILSON...

Travis is serving his third term as President of the Brackettville Chamber of Commerce. He is not only the Lion's Club present President, but, unknown to many he holds three perfect attendance pins. For many years he has been a very active supporter of the FFA- 4-H Junior Livestock Show. In fact, you can find very few community activities that Travis is not involved in.

One of his lesser known activities, is his work with the Seminole Indian Association in their restoration of the Scouts Cemetary.

Travis is from Gurver, Tex. and served 4 years in the Navy as a Petty Officer during World War II, mostly aboard the aircraft carrier USS Sitka Bay. After the war he went into the Stock Farming and Fertilizer business.

Travis' hobby is breeding and training Quarter Horses and he is a Member of the American Quarter Horse Assoc. and the National Cutting Horse Association. He has shown several champions over the years.

The Wilson family moved to Brackettville in 1971.

Married to the former Lanett Higgins, of Dalhart, they have an 18 year old son, Mitch, a recent graduate of Brackett High School.
