Amateurs Win
Pump Race

A funny thing happened on the way to the Brackettville Frontier Fair at the last moment, a girl's pumper team was needed to compete in a pumper race. Kimberly Trant,
Kathy Dyer of Brackett, and Linda Connell of Rocksprings more or less volunteered to compete. Though completely new at the games the young ladies won----not because of speed, but because of accuracy.
It seems that the tortoise is always a step ahead of the hare.

JOE TOWNSEND

Recently as we came into town, about 10:30 p.m. I heard a conversation on the C.B. a big "18 wheeler" had ruined a tire and was stopped on the highway at the intersection of Hwy 90 and the Rocksprings road. He had called for a tire and one was being brought out from Del Rio. He needed a jack and wrench to take off the bad tire. He said he had called a local service station owner but the man refused to even open up and let him use the needed equipment and certainly would not do it for a trucker. The tribute paid the service station owner by the trucker was not the sweetest thing that could be said. It even "bled" over into expressions about a "town like that." The trucker said, "If any man stopped at my gate even at midnight or later I certainly would help him anyway I could and I'm not even in business." A local "Yokel" or two joined in the conversation and their comments weren't very savory. It ovvurs to me that perhaps the "Chamber of Commerce" or some group could co-ordinate services in Brackettville where a stranger in trouble any hour of the day or night might find help and leave the town knowing that people here are friendly and do care when someone needs help. This indeed is the knid of thing a "Chamber of Commerce" is organized for. The trucker was calling on his "C.B." for a man with whom he had talked on the "Boulevard" and the local told him if ever he was in trouble in Brackettville just give him a "shout-shout". The trucker finally got his help and was soon "Westbound" and 10-10 but he took with him a "bad taste" of a fine town and good people. Somehow something should be done to make help available any-time it is needed---most people here want it to be that way.

KNIGHTS OF THE ALTAR HONOR JASO, GOMEZ

Sunday, May 9th, at the 10:30 Mass in St. Mary Magdalene Church, four new members were received into the Knights of the Altar. They were: Seth Kaplan, Richard Jaso, David Wilson, and David Benites. A candidate for the Knights became ill with the measles so his reception had to be postponed. He, Stephen Wilson will enter as soon as he is well enough to be present.

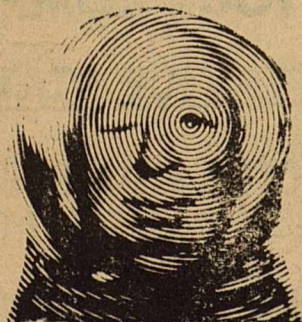

The new members were received by the Rev. Edward B. Postert, pastor in a very beautiful and inspiring ceremony following the reading of the Gospel in the Mass. Fr. Postert was assisted at the Altar as master of ceremonies by Anthony Koch who is the President of the Knights of the Altar. Serving the Mass for their last time were Jose Jaso and Flor-entino Gomez who will graduate this month. Both have served the altar for more than seven years. All 30 members of the Knights were present to welcome the five new members. After Knights Jaso and Gomez leave the membership the local parish will have a membership of thirty-three Knights.

ELAINE WILLS TO GRADUATE

BRENNHAM.....Marion Elaine Wills from Brackettville, is a candidate for graduation from Blinn College. Commencement exercises will be held on Spencer Field, May 16, at 8:00 p.m. with Dr. Lee H. Smith, President of South-west Texas State University delivering the commencement address.

WHO IS THE TOWN'S PET PEEVE?

Reprinted from the Lambeth (Ont. Canada) News-Star

He is the fellow who arouses tension by simply walking into a room. Conversation stops. No one wants his or her name in the paper.

He is the fellow who kept a certain father's son from jail last year, whose father this year took his advertising out of town.

He is the fellow who prints your opinion over your signature, and takes all the blame.

He is the fellow who patched up the affair by telling him that he'd better not run the ad about her debts.

He is the fellow who should have written that the singer was a dud, or the performance a shout..... but he sold his soul for the lie to save face for others.

He is the fellow who should spit editorial venom at the council, school board, public utilities and all the other boards....and when he does he's the solitary figure on proverbial limb.

He is the fellow who misquotes all politicians and office seekers.

He is the fellow whose paper gets into every home for only ten cents a copy. That's pretty cheap isn't it?

He is the fellow who won't print an ad on the front page. One the other hand he'll sell the back page for a price, but only if he's paid by the twentieth of the month following. Heck, you can get a better deal somewhere else, where you're lucky if you get a bill once a year.

He is the fellow who should stay home nights with the family instead of running around with a pencil.

He is the fellow who sympathizes with the advertising department because of late copy, and thereby gets all the tense end of pre-deadline from the composing room.

He is the fellow who, when you pat him on the back for his comment this week, will bite you editorially next week.

He is the fellow who castigates the proofreader: "Read it for sense as well as for errors!"

He is the fellow who barks at the young reporter: "Don't ask me how to spell it. Look it up in the dictionary; that's the only way to learn." Mean of him, don't you think?

He is the fellow who hasn't enough sense to relax. He wakes up at night thinking of the inadequate hospital, the need for more school accommodation, the town hall problem, the hole hazard on the road, spiralling taxes, the gas line, service station hours, closing by-laws, parking, people shopping out of town, unemployment, the shiftless, the hypocrites, the dead, the mothers giving birth, the wayward, the suicides, and all the coming events for which onesingle line has not been written. The known hw can cope with, but the future he can't.... yet.

He is the fellow who is the plague of all contributors who find their copy condensed.

He is the fellow who is the paramount make of mistakes. Everything that passes his hands is scrutinized by the public. Although he is densely stupid at times, he has an intelligent staff to supply the answers.

In fact, the editor is the community's pet peeve.

KINNEY COUNTY LITTLE LEAGUE

The Little League opened it's 1976 Baseball season with w "Big Wallop" In the opening game of Thrusday, May 6th, the Giants whipped the Rams by a score of 14 to 4. The Yankees went on to win their opener by defeating the Lions 2 to 0. Gillerno Leos of the Giants and Flavio Talamantez of the Rams both homered for their clubs.

The second game of the season was played Monday night, May 10th, in which the Giants blasted the Lions by a score of 15 to 5. The Yankees went on to win over the Rams by a score of 5 to 3. Gillerno Leos of the Giants again was the leading hitter with two homers and a double.

The burden of operating the league should not fall on a few. The parent who shirks this responsibility connot, in turn, expect others to assume the burden. So let's all pitch in and make this a fund raising year for our Little Leaguers.

Raffle tickets for an RCA, 12 inch, Black & White, portable TV will go on sale Thursday, May 13th. Tickets will sell for $1.00 each or 6 for $5.00. Buy one, buy all, let's help our teams grow. See your at the games.

NURSING HOMES

Texans have been urged to visit Nursing Homes by "Heloise", the internationally famous writer who is this year's official Hostess of Nursing Home Week sponsored by the Texas Nursing Home Association.

"Many of Texas' finest citizens reside in Nursing Homes where they receive the total care available from qualified, licensed professionals," she said in issuing the invitation from her home in San Antonio where she authors a column of clever household hints syndicated in hundreds of newspapers.

Heloise has compiled an impressive record of some 14,000 hours of volunteer service, much of it in Nursing Homes.

"My hint for happiness is to visit a Nursing Home," said Heloise, "they are nicer than you think and the people in them are wonderful. Your visit will be a rewarding experience."

Observance of Nursing Home Week, proclaimed by the Governor and local officials to begin on Mother's Day each year has become traditional in Texas. Members homes of TNHA regularly schedule a variety of activities ranging from exhibits of resident's handiwork to entertainment, teas, chapel services, and Open House with most facilities specially decorated for the occasion.

Texas has 982 licensed nursing homes with facilities to accomodate 93,219 residents requiring various levels of long-term care. The ad-ministration of matching state/federal funds in which Texas participates under Medicaid Title XIX has been rated #1..... best in the nation.

COMMENTS from THE SAGEBRUSH

by: JOE TOWNSEND

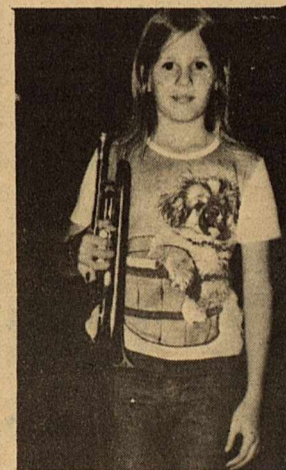

Many ladies received pot plants for Mother's Day. Most were hydrangeas, some were Azaleas and others different plants. To get the very most out of these plants they should be kept as cool as possible and well watered. Hydrangeas need water daily. When the blooms fade on hydrangeas and azaleas they should be cut from the plant. You can then plant these in the yard. With only reasonable care they will live and do well for years. Azaleas should be planted in a somewhat protected area. The full thrust of the summer sun is more than azaleas like. These plants like acid soil also. This can be achieved by adding soil acidifier or humus from under oak trees. Azaleas will remain green through the winter and will bloom profusely in the spring. Hydrangeas may be planted outside and though they freeze back in the winter they come out fresh in the spring and grow larger each year. They too bloom well in late spring and summer. In this way Mother can have a lasting memento of Mother's Day.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to extend a special note of thanks to the annual staff, junior English students, and Sterling Goodloe for the flowers and cards I received during my stay in the hospital.

PUBLIC NOTICES

NOTIFICATION OF INTENT TO REQUEST THE RELEASE OF FUNDS

On May 25, 1976 the City of Brackettville will submit a request for the release of funds and certifications to HUD. The request and certifications will be an application for a grant of funds under Title I. The projects to be undertaken are as follows: street paving, low water crossings, improvements of water system and pedestrian (foot) bridges. The City of Brackettville has prepared an environmental review record for the projects. This record may be examined and copied in the office of Brackettville at the hours between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. on Monday thru Friday. The Chief Executive Officer of the City of Brackettville is Mr. William Mendeke, Mayor. The City of Brackettville will undertake the project described above with Block Grant funds from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974.
