Robert H. Thonhoff noted Texas historian presented a program at the Brackettville Country Club, Thursday, June 16, on "Texas in 1776." The meeting was hosted by the Brackettville Lion's Club with guests from the Library Committee and Rotary Club.

Miss Elsie Sauer was instrumental in the arrangements for Mr. Thonhoff's presentation.

Seminole Grave Dedications

Seminole descendants from widely scattered locations were in Brackettville Sunday for the dedication of grave markers for four Congressional Medal of Honor winners who are buried in Seminole Indian Scout Cemetery, west of town.

William Warrior of Del Rio is the leader of the Seminole Scout group who planned the dedication of markers for the graves of Sgt. John Ward, Trumpeter Isaac Payne, Pompey Factor, and Adam Paine.

Speaker for the occasion was Clyde I. Brown for Del Rio, who has done special research work on the Seminole Scouts.

The Ceremony was held at 11 a.m. Sunday in the Seminole Cemetery.

An honor guard was provided for the occasion by Laughlin Air Force Base.

Col. Lawrence Garrison, wing commander, and Col. Jesse W. Campbell attended the ceremony along with other dignitaries, Warrio said. Ian Hancock professor of English at the University of Texas in Austin with a group of his students were on hand. After the dedication, a barbeque was held at the old school in Brackettville which the Seminole Scout Organization bought.

After the ceremonies, and dinner the students presented selections in the language of the South comprised of mixtures of African dialects; some Gullah appears in the Seminole dialect.

Rev. Harvey Kinchelow of Uvalde, who also serves as pastor for the Grace United Methodist Church in Del Rio attended the ceremony and had a group who sang.

TIPS FOR GREEN THUMBS by:

JOE TOWNSEND

A number of people have asked me about tomato plants this time of the year. Tomatoes should be producing by this time. If normal weather prevails tomato plants will not do well now. There are generally two gardening periods a year-spring and fall. Some things will grow anytime but the bulk of vegetables do better in the spring or in the fall. It's not too early to begin planning you fall garden. Count about 120 days for your vegetables to grow to maturity and produce. Our average first frost comes in the last part of November. This would mean your fall garden should be planted August 1 or thereabouts. Tomato plants should be available about that time. You can grow squash, cabbage, brocolli, brussell sprouts, turnips, carrots, beans, tomatoes and et al. It would be useless to plant peppers, okra, blackeyed peas, cantaloupes or watermelons that late. Its surprising how much good fresh vegetable eating one can enjoy from a fall garden.

GUILLERMO LEOS KNOCKS FIRST HOME RUN OF THE SEASON

Smiling as he crossed home plate to receive congratulations from his team mates, "Memo" Leos was the first to chalk up a home run this year. The ball sailed across the center field fence. It happened at the top of the sixth inning with Memo's Giants trailing 6 to 2. Leos knocked in Robert Brown, then Roger Brown came in for a final score of Rams 6, the Giants 4. Pitching for the red shirted Rams was Johnny Cadena with Walter Dyer going all the way for the Giants. Scoring for the Rams were Richard Jaso-2, James Benites-1, David Benites-1, Louis Waddell-1, and Eloy Garcia-1. Getting two nice hits was Conrad Veltmann.

In a high scoring first game, the Yankees out scored the Lions 15 to 14. The Lions were leading at the bottom of the 2nd inning 9 to 7, but the Yanks came on strong in the 3rd inning with 6 runs. The Lions had a good rally going and looked like a tie ball game, but failed to score. Yankees scoring included: Martin DeHoyos -3 runs, 2 hits, Carlos Guajardo-2 runs, 2 hits, Eddie Garcia-2 runs, 2 hits, Jeff Burgess-2 runs, 1 hit, and scoring one apiece were: Jesus Pena, Robert Gallagos, Norma Terrazas, George Villareal, Steve Pena, and Gilbert Gallagos. The Lions under the coaching of Lingo Sandoval had Seth Kaplan-3 runs, Robert Longoria-3 runs, Kenny Perry-3 runs, Greg Sandoval-2 runs Phillip Pena, Paul Flores, and David Hensley all had one run a piece.

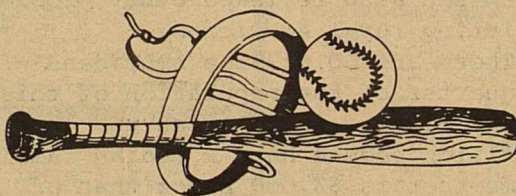

JUNE 20-----

LEOS KNOCKS TWO MORE HOMERS

"Memo" Leos cut loose again in this high scoring game to blast two home runs from the Giants. Leading his team mates Memo scored -3 runs, Sweet-3, Robert Brown-3, Terrazas-1, Dyer-1, Sanchez-1, Voss-1 and Roger Brown with 1 run, making the score Giants 14, and the Lions 1. Robert Longoria pitched for the Lions and made the Lions' lone run. Robert Brown and Louis Terrazas shared pitching duty for the Giants.

The Rams and Yankees played a heads up ball game with the Rams coming out on top 8 to 3. Waddell led his team on the mound all the way while the Yankees used Burgess, Villareal, and DeHoyos at the plate. The 4th inning the Rams scored 4 of their 8 runs, Rams scorers were: David Benites-3, Richard Jaso-2, Veltmann-1, Waddell-1, and Garcia-1. Yankees scoring were Martin DeHoyos, Carlos Guajardo and Jesus Pena. Johnny Cadena played a heads-up ball game with his Rams.

The next scheduled game will be played Friday 24th. Come on out and support your little League.

BENTSEN OPENS SECOND DAY OF RURAL HEARINGS CITES LACK OF ADEQUATE MEDICAL CARE

WASHINGTON, D.C.--Senator Lloyd Bentsen said Wednesday that a shortage of doctors make the very existence of medical care a critical problem for rural America.

Bentsen, Co-Chairman of the Joint Economic Subcommittee on Economic Growth, presided Wednesday over a second day of hearings into the economic problems of rural America.

"Rural counties average less than 60 doctors per 100,000 people, compared to over 200 doctors in large cities." Bentsen said in his opening statement.

"In my own State of Texas we have 23 counties, at last count, without any physicians at all. We have 49 counties that have been designated 'critical health manpower shortage areas' by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare."

"While cities are legitimately concerned about the quality of medical care, the overriding concern in many rural areas of this country is simply the existence of medical care," Bentsen said.

Bentsen also reviewed other problems afflicting rural Americans.

"There are 60 million Americans--one quarter of the population of this country--living in rural areas. These 60 million people have a median family income that is $3,000 below that of their city cousins," the Senator said.

"These 60 million Americans own one-third of the homes in this country, but they have one-half of the substandard housing--houses without plumbing or in a dilapidated condition."

"These 60 million Americans suffer a poverty rate that is 50 percent higher than the poverty rate in big cities," Bentsen said.

"The rural communities of our great country have been neglected far too long. For decades, they have failed to share in the growth of this country and it is time to reverse that. The continued balanced growth of our economy requires that rural Americans have a share," Senator Bentsen said.

Shopping for air conditioning? High EER means more efficiency.

High EER: that's the requirement to keep in mind if you plan to invest in air conditioning this summer.

EER, fortunately, isn't as mysterious as it may sound. EER stands for Energy Efficiency Ratio, and is simply a measurement of cooling delivered for energy consumed.

In air conditioning, the higher the EER number on the system you choose, the more efficiently it operates. And that means savings for you on electric bills.

Air conditioners with the same cooling capacity may vary greatly in their efficiency, with some using more electricity than others to achieve the same level of cooling. By comparing EER numbers, you can determine which unit will do the most efficient job.

Although the air conditioner with the highest EER may cost more initially, it is a better long-range investment, since you will be able to run it with fewer kilowatt hours of electricity. Look for a high EER number—preferably 8 or more—when you buy an air conditioner. It's an important way to use energy wisely.

CB BREAK

BY THE SKY PILOT

One of the most valuable uses of the CB is to give out "Local Information". I rarely drive through, Uvalde Del Rio, and other such cities but I hear many breakers calling for local information. In most places there are local bases always ready to respond. This is an invaluable service to travelers. Lady Copperhead and others in Uvalde perform yeomen service. These people are due a special note of recognition. They give out weather reports, traffic reports, assist people in finding places they need to find and in general seek to serve others. There's no pay involved--- sometimes not even a "Thank You" but there is the satisfaction that they have helped someone in need. Herein is the joy of living not what others have done for us but what we can do for another. Our CB Break is off to these unsung devotees of the radio who constantly seek to help other people.

All the good numbers your way. Have a super weekend. This is KOH 4856, The Sky Pilot. We're going this way we've been that way. We'll catch you later on this boulevard--we're out of it for now and will be 10-10 and 10-8. C-You.

Between Us

by:

JOE TOWNSEND

Recently a man called for local information about Alamo Village. In the midst of the conversation he asked what it cost to go in. I told him I didn't know. Another voice chimed in "It cost--and it ain't worth it". The tones were acid and antagonistic. Another group stopped by the Shop to ask about Alamo Village. I told them I thought they would enjoy it. They went out that evening and stayed around so they could go back the next day and stayed all day. I can understand how some people do not enjoy some things--"Soap Operas" including Mary Hartmann to me are sickening boob tube spectacles. But unless some people enjoyed them they couldn't remain on the air. One of the big problems of life is that fact that so many people want to harness others to their way of thinking, I'm sure to a degree we are all guilty of this. How much better the world would be and how much more pleasant life would be if every person recognized the rights and privileges of others. When the man said "It ain't worth it" he really meant it was not worth it to him. By his attitude I'm sure he finds many many things that "Ain't Worth It." But that is his privilege--he would be more accurate to say, "It ain't worth it to me." If it were not worth it to many many people there would be few to enjoy it. It's never a mark of intelligence to make decisions for another.

Q: If a woman remarries, does she need to have her will revised to show her new name?

A: No. But she will probably want to re-examine her will because of her changed status. A new marriage imposes new legal obligations. Factors which could affect a will would include children born after the new marriage and the rights of the husband to property acquired after the marriage.

Q: Before my marriage, I bought a home with funds I inherited from my grandfather. We're moving to another city, and I want to have the proceeds from the sale of the house kept separate because my wife and I are having problems. Can this be done? Can my original equity be kept from becoming community property if it's used to buy a new home?

A: Only the original amount invested would be separate property. The difference between that figure and its value today would be community property. A lawyer can help you put together a schedule of separate property.

Q: I would like to know how I can get my birth certificate. I was delivered by a midwife and the county where I was born has no record of my birth. What can I do?

A: Write the Bureau of Vital Statistics at the Texas Department of Health Resources in Austin. Their address is 1100 West 49th, Austin, 78756. Tell them your full name at the time of birth, the date and place of birth and the full names of your parents including your mother's maiden name. Also enclose the statutory $2 fee. Sometimes midwives sent the information directly to the state instead of the county, so they may have your certificate on file. If they don't, they'll send you the necessary forms and instructions to obtain a delayed certificate.

Q: I want to contest a ticket for speeding -- do I need an attorney?

A: While it is advisable to consult an attorney anytime one is involved in court, most citizens represent themselves in Municipal Court. You may want to attend prior court sessions on similar cases in order to familiarize yourself with the type of questions asked and the type of evidence used, and also to determine whether you should bring witnesses for your case to the trial.

Send your questions to "You and the Law," State Bar of Texas, P. O. Box 12487, Austin, 78711. Answers may appear in columns in hypothetical terms; personal answers not possible.
