PRESENT DAY MYTHS

by: JOE TOWNSEND

Big business is bad! This had been said so much that unthinking people believe it. The news media takes every opportunity to pow big business, (the oil companies, the telephone company, and others) anyone who believes the news media is not "big business" is ignorant. Our present president had nothing but unkindness to say about the oil companies. Juries completely disregard facts and make a mockey of justice in order to stick big business. Politicans talk about taxing big business and giving the tax collected to the people. People vote in big numbers for such deceiving politicos.

I seems anyone would see the fallacy of such reasoning. Big oil companies bad?; no place in the world can gasoline be bought cheaper. No place in the world furnishes energy through petroleum as cheaply as the United States. Telephone company too big and thus bad?; what country has the telephone service most of America enjoys? To be served by a small telephone company particularly an independent company quickly shows the advantage of being served by a big company. Big business is the cause of technological development that makes America the leader of the world. Aside from this however, is the fact of life--penalize--tax--destroy, the big companies and its the little man that suffers. Tax big business and the price of merchandise or services must go up to cover the added cost and the consumer pays more. So the consumer is the one who suffers from the higher tax. We're all somewhat sick of hearing about Crystal City but there is a current situation making a case in point. They "couldn't afford" to pay for natural gas because local petty politicians told them they didn't have to. So now they use propane gas. It will cost those "poor people who couldn't afford to pay for natural gas twice as much to pay for propane. Even the gravy ladeled out by a racially biased bureaucratic organization at the behest of a loud mouthed man who never worked a day in his life will soon be gone and the poor people who ignocantly listened to those who profess to be bigger than big business will be paying $4 for the amount of heat they could have bought for $2 if they had only paid their bills as other "poor" people did.

"JACK FROST" CLAIMS

LUSH NEW GRASS GROWTH

UVALDE --- The greening of Southwest Texas was slowed considerably last week as back-to-back cold fronts brought the first frost of the season into the region.

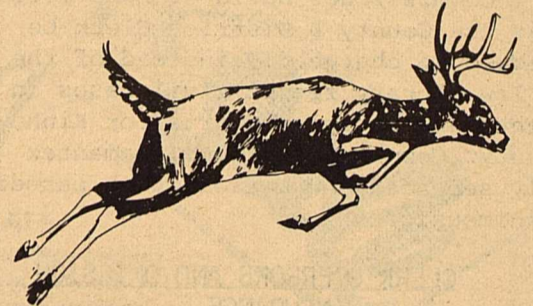

Late fall rains made the lush, new growth of grasses highly vulnerable to frost damage, and the cold may have spelled the end of warmer season grasses on the range for this year.

With the first frost, deer hunting fervor hit a feverish pitch as hunters poured into the region to check their deer leases and await dawn Saturday. Preparations have been underway for the big day for weeks.

Texas Agricultural Extension Service Agents reporting said oats are growing well and generally look good. In the Southern end of the district, the late fall moisture has slowed the late peanut harvest almost to a standstill. Launching of the soybean harvest also has been delayed due to the wet weather.

Pecans are being harvested with those reporting points rating the crop yields from fair to good. Most are qualifying good yield reports, however, with complaints about poor quality due to scab and other disease damage. In the Wintergarden, worm damage on cabbage continues to be a problem. Kale is ready for harvest and spinach will be cut in about two weeks. More spinach is being planted and onions are growing well.

Some cattle marketing continues with stock water short in certain areas. Supplemental feeding of fivestock is underway in some parts of the region.

Between Us

by: JOE TOWNSEND

Already we see Christmas decorations in the stores and advertising of merchandise for Christmas. And yet I've heard nothing about the real heart of Christmas. Not a single mention have I heard about the coming of the Christ. It is a real tragedy when such a Holy Season is commerialized to the extent such an important day as Thanksgiving Day is overshadowed almost to extinction. About the only emphasis we see on Thanksgiving is a sale on turkeys--commerial emphasis again. What's wrong with remembering the first Thanksgiving in America? What's wrong with saying "Thanks" to God for his great blessings on our land? If there's nothing wrong then why do we let the sale of merchangise overshadow it? After all there is plenty of time to sell Christmas merchandise when Thanksgiving is past. I tried to find some material for Thanksgiving emphasis and all I could find two weeks before Thanksgiving was Christmas material. The places I tried to buy Thanksgiving supplies and found only Christmas trappings' may sell more over all for Christmas by the early start but one thing for sure--they won't sell me anything for Christmas.

TEACHER'S WORKDAY BY: JOE SWEET

The Brackettville teachers will have a workday on Monday, November 21. This day is to give the teachers more time to figure out the grades, record them, and to put them on permanent records. Many of the teachers use this time to make their lesson plans for the next quarter.

Teachers work, students play, most BHS students think that this is a good idea.

BRACKETT UPSETS CHARLOTTE TO WIN CHAMPIONSHIP
BY: PAT O'ROURKE

Friday night, November 11, the Brackett Tigers met Charlotte in Tiger Stadium for the game to decide the District 30 A Championship. Charlotte was the number seven rated team in the state, but this fact did not intimidate the Tigers. The Tigers were able to pull out a devastating win over the Trojans and win the championship. The last time the Tigers took the District Crown was in 1973.

The game was, in the words of Coach Simmonds, "...probably the most exciting high school game anyone would see this year." Brackett dominated the score the entire game but with about one minute left to play, Charlotte was knocking at the door. The Tiger defense would not open up for them, even though the Trojans tried four times to cross the goal line. When Brackett took possession they had the ball on the 6 inch line!

The exciting goal line stand was not the only source of excitement during the game. Two records were set in the game. One was a state passing record set by the Charlotte quarterback, Carlos Tijerina, who passed for 398 yards. The second was a Brackett team record for yards rushing in a 10 game season. The record was held by Ronnie Hobbs until Moses Benites ran 139 yards in Friday's game for a year total of 1069.

The Brackett quaterback, Tony Samaniego also had a good night. He ran for a total of 124 yards and intercepted a Charlotte pass which he ran back 95 yards for a touchdown.

Tiger offense was good, but the real heroes were the defense players. They were able to hold the Trojans at bay 5 times inside the 5 yard line.

The Tiger will face the Marion Bulldogs in Devine for the Bi-District Championship Firday, November 18. Brackett will be the home team and have the West bleachers.

SENATOR JOHN TOWER'S VISIT BY: NACONA BREEN

Texas Senator John Tower visited Brackettville Wednesday, November 9, to answer questions. Some Brackett High School students were privileged to go and hear the Senator.

He talked about things such as the Panama Canal, Energy Programs, Gun Control, and illegal aliens. The Senator would give his views on each of these important subjects after being asked questions. Most everyone was pleased with his stand on gun control.

The Senator's visit was a rare honor for our town and I am glad that we had the opportunity to hear him.

SPECIAL ASSEMBLY HELD BY: LETY MARTINEZ

Thursday, November 10, Harold Smith came to the Brackett High School Auditorium. He spoke to the students about the following problems facing today's teenagers: Boy-Girl Relationship, Drugs, Alcohol, and VD.

Mr. Smith told the students which drugs such as cocane, heroine, and marijuana are harmful; and how students on drugs can get help. Another subject he mentioned was Boy-Girl Relationship. Mr. Smith mentioned how many abortions there are annually in the U.S. He stated that some girls are as young as 11 years old. Many of the girls try to commit suicide. Mr. Smith emphasized that a boy and a girl should know how far their relationship should go.

During the speech, Mr. Smith told very interesting stories about students on drugs and who had VD. He also informed the students that there was a new form of VD that could not be cured. He also mentioned how much penicillin it took to cure VD.

Most students seemed to feel that Mr. Smith knew what he was talking about. One Junior High teacher felt that Mr. Smith was able to handle a difficult subject in a manner which was neither flippant or embarassing to the students.

UVALDE BANK OPEN HOUSE

An open house and fiesta was held Saturday evening (Nov. 5) to celebrate the completion of a major expansion and remodeling program at First State Bank of Uvalde, according to Lewis E. Bracy, Jr., president.

"We are very proud of our bank," Bracy said, "and want everyone to see the improvements we have made.

Gov. and Mrs. Dolph Briscoe participated in the opening ceremonies in front of the bank at 6 p.m., followed by the open house, Bracy said. The bank is located one block off Main Street at 200 E. Nopal St. in downtown Uvalde.

An exhibit of western paintings and sculptures from the Texas Art Gallery of Dallas was shown during the open house.

Commenting on the new facilities, Bracy said, "This expansion represents our confidence in the continued growth and progress of Uvalde and Southwest Texas. We are grateful to the thousands of people who have helped us grow during the last 70 years and made it possible for us to enlarge and increase our banking services to meet the financial needs of this area."

John S. Graves and Associates of Uvalde served as architects for the expansion project, having also designed the original bank building which was occupied in 1969. With the addition of over 27,000 square feet, the First State Bank now has approximately 50,000 square feet.

FIRST STATE BANK OF UVALDE OFFICIALS INVITED RESIDENTS OF UVALDE AND SOUTHWEST TEXAS TO AN OPEN HOUSE AND FIESTA AT 6 P.M., SATURDAY (NOV. 5) TO MARK THE COMPLETION OF THE BANK'S EXPANSION AND REMODELING PROGRAM. SHOWN HERE ARE CHARLES REED (FROM LEFT) AND MELVIN CROUCH, SENIOR VICE-PRESIDENT IN THE TRUST DEPARTMENT AND LEWIS BRACY, BANK PRESIDENT.
