COUNTY MEETS ON LIBRARY PROBLEM

—headliners—

Monday, March 12, the City Council met at City Hall at their regular meeting.

The top of the list question was the public hearing to bring before Brackettville citizens the adding of Channel 9 and raising the cable rate cost per month. The Council decided to hold a public hearing but no date was set.

Several Fort Clark people were at the meeting asking for the extra channel and for a hearing to be set.

Also several complaints were heard on the service as it is getting to be terrible reception on the present channels.

The Texas Highway Department presented a proposal to the Council to cut the amount of road with the 45mph speed limit and raise it to 55mph, also to increase the size of the speed limit signs.

The Council rejected the 55mph increase but approved the increase of the sign size.

John Meyers asked that the City close a street to his property so he could put livestock in the area. The council voted to close the road so it could be reopened if necessary.

The Council expressed their thanks to County Commissioner David Luna for his assistance in clearing right-of-ways in certain areas of the City.

The subject of increasing the cost of building permits and sewer taps was brought up and City Manager Tim Ward was instructed to present his recommendations at the next meeting.

SENIOR TEXANS EMPLOYMENT PROGRAM

Governor William P. Clements, Jr., has declared the week of March 11-16, 1979, as "Older Workers Week." In doing so, Governor Clements has urged all Texans to work for the creation of additional employment opportunities for all older Texans. The Senior Employment Program supports the Governor in asking all Texans to take a moment to appreciate the talents and wisdom displayed by our older Texans and to assist them in maintaining their independence and dignity through meaningful employment opportunities.

The Senior Texans Employment Program is administered by Farmer's Union Community Development Association, Inc. and is jointly funded by the Texas State Legislature and Department of Labor through the Governor's Committee on Ageing.

The Senior Texans Employment Program is active locally in Kinney County. The local STEP employees are: Hannah Daniels, Virginia Cruz, Robert Wilson, Victoria Martinez.

KINNEY COUNTY COMMISSIONERS' COURT MEETING

The off-again-on-again County Library controversy hit a snag again this past Monday at the Kinney County Commissioners' Court Meeting.

The Commissioners had previously agreed to re-contract with Myers Construction of Uvalde to complete the project that Myers had started. The original project terminated after a dispute with Myers Construction and Graves and Associates, architects for the project.

The Commissioners had authorized County Judge Albert Postell to present a new Contract to Myers Construction. Unfortunately Myers Construction did not show up on the appointed date to sign the contract. According to Court house officials Myers Construction has determined that the contract submitted by the county is not satisfactory, and their attorney will submit a new contract to the Commissioners Court.

The County Commissioners' Court made arrangements for Justice of the Peace of Precinct 2, 3, and 4 to have office spaces in the welfare building next to the Civic Center. These Justices have already moved their offices to the new location.

and nutrition and the dishes at the food show.

All contestants earned the right to enter the district contest when they won top honors in county competition.

This year's theme is "Cooking Good-Looking Great."

4-H Food Show are sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, and The Morrison Milling Company of Denton, Texas.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages, regardless of race, color, creed, sex, religion, national origin, or socio-economic levels.

Present Day Myths

by: JOE TOWNSEND

I don't resent being above 60 years of age. I'd rather have lived the years of my life than any years past or future. Marks of age that identify me as "old" are self evident. I very much resent that politicians have made political hay out of people my age and older. I resent the fact that bureaucrats and politicians feel they must patronize me because of my age. I'm offered free meals at taxpayers expense just because of my age. I resent the fact that do-gooders seem to think I'm incapable of feeding myself, that they can plan and prepare a more nutritious meal than I can afford or prepare. I resent the fact that politicians feel they must provide recreation and transportation for me by harnessing the taxpayers with additional taxes. I resent the implication that I'm incapable of providing my own meals, medical care, transportation and recreation because of my age. I resent the fact that in many cities I can ride public transportation at a fraction fare while taxpayers pick up the tab for the remainder. I resent the fact that my P.O.Box is flooded with appeals for support for lobbying organizations so they can squeeze more out of the taxpayers for me--just because of my age.

The years tell me that there are no free lunches. When a bureau gives me something--someone has to pay for it. The years have given me a deep sense of pride that prevents me leeching off of someone else. The years, have given me a sense of personal integrity that makes me want to rely on myself. My years have taught me I know more about what's good for me than politicians and bureaucrats. Until I need someone to help me because I can't do it for myself--Mr. Politician please don't insult me by implying I need a crutch furnished by the taxpayer. Though it now seems to be only a myth--I still believe every person should do for himself. The Government owes me no social service.

It is now fully time to plant a garden. There is not likely to be another freeze. The earlier most vegetables as planted the better they produce. If you are putting out tomatoes plants, put them as deep as you can. The more of the trunk of the plant you have under ground the better the plant will do. It will put out roots the full length of the plant in the ground, hence you will have a sturdier, heavier plant that will produce more. Soaking beans and oka in water overnight will help them sprout sooner. Egg plant is a plant easily grown in our area and very productive. Fertilize your ground before you plant. This will increase production a great deal. Be sure to follow the directions on the seed packet for best results. After planting do not let the ground become dry. This could cause the seed to sprout and die for lack of moisture. A small amount of many different things will produce a great variety of fresh vegetables and that's like money in the bank.

By: JOE TOWNSEND

The passing of Dave Rose calls attention to some things we should ever keep fresh in our minds. It's difficult to imagine the changes Dave saw in his lifetime of 87 years spent as a resident of this county. Many of those years his family lived in a tent and ranched. When World War I came he volunteered and served in the U.S. Navy. When depression came they took their sheep to Mexico in order to hold their flock together. When things were better they brought the sheep back. Being born less than ten years after the last Indian raid in the United States and in the approximate area this sturdy pioneer saw such unbelievable accomplishments by the United States. There came the automobile, airplane, radio, television, unbelievable progress in medicine and things to make life easier. It was this sturdy spirit of that generation that led to the progress we've seen. These people believed that they must depend on themselves. They could not abide the idea of the government giving them a handout. When a neighbor was in trouble they pitched in and helped. Their thrill of living was found in just living. They did not find it necessary to look for happiness and contentment by continuously being on the move or demanding entertainment. They were proud to wear the uniform of their nation. They didn't feel it was an 'immoral' war to protect the continent of Europe from Kaiser Bill. They were a rugged people who believed in hard work and in receiving only what they justly earned. Theirs was a freedom loving, independent generation that produced more progress in a lifetime than any generation past and I believe future. When these characteristics were winners it's amazing to see them watered down, softened up and mocked at. They are the characteristics consistent with God's teaching and expectations for man--You can't improve on God.

You can save money on electricity costs... if your home has an Energy Efficiency Award from CPL.

Before you buy or build that all-electric dream house you've been planning all these years, make sure it incorporates energy-saving ideas to help you keep your electricity bills in line. In these days of rising power costs, whether or not a house will help you use energy wisely is a factor you should consider just as carefully as you do size, location and architectural style.

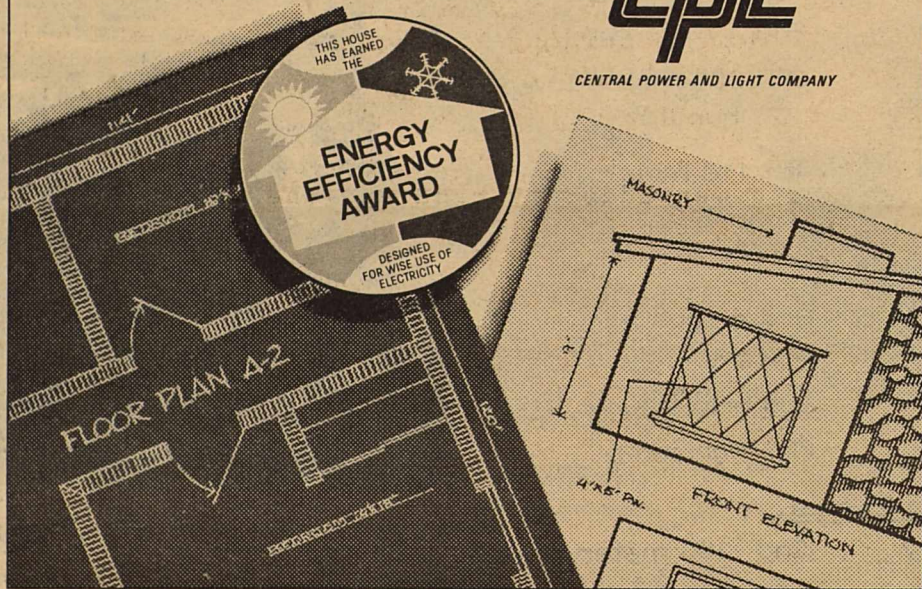

That's why you need to know about the Energy Efficiency Award program sponsored by Central Power and Light Company. An all-electric home that merits this award has been designed and built to help you make the most of every dollar you spend for electricity: it is well insulated, weather-stripped and equipped with efficient electric heating and cooling systems. A qualified technician from CPL checks the house for these and other important features that boost its energy efficiency.

When you live in a home that has earned the Energy Efficiency Award—and follow CPL's suggestions for using energy wisely—you can be sure that you're getting the full value for every kilowatt-hour you buy.

So if you're thinking about building or buying an all-electric home—or remodeling your present one—ask your builder, realtor, architect or designer about the Energy Efficiency Award. Or get more information from your CPL office.

CALL ME A TAXEE. After untold hours of intricate figures, I have discovered that I only owe the government (spelled IRS) a mere $442 this year. Isn't that great? Is anyone out there in the loan business?

RENT IS CHEAPER! For years now people have been telling us that we ought to buy a house. "costs no more than rent" they say, and "You're investing in something that will someday be yours" but them days is GONE! A three bedroom house these days ranges between 35 and 65 thousand dollars to build new. Of course you can buy a nice house for less than that IF you're willing to buy one that isn't new, and if you're willing to forget about that dream you've had for years now of the "perfect house", the one that's built just the way you always wanted it. I, for one am not willing to compromise, I just gotta have MY house! Karen and I have been planning this for six years now and we're gonna DO it.....soon.....maybe.....

all we gotta do is save up between two and five thousand dollars, go two thirteen different banks and BEG for a loan, and pay between 300 and 500 dollars a month for a mere thirty years, and we can have our house. But we have an alternate plan, just in case we can't swing it, I have this friend in the circus business see, and he says he can get me a good deal on a used tent and even if we can't get a loan for it, we can always.....RENT A TENT TENT!
