WHO'S THAT MASKED MAN??

THE THUNDER OF HOOVES OF A MIGHTY HORSE AND A HEARTY HI YO SILVER ECHOED THRU ALAMO VILLAGE THIS PAST MONDAY... Children of all ages, heart stood still as the hero of all America appeared. None other than Clayton Moore, The Lone Ranger that all of us respect as the real defender of justice, truth, and righteousness came to Kinney County to film a commercial for the Dallas, Tarrant County Ford Dealers.

Literally thousands of people came to Moore's defense recently when a court ordered him to remove his mask. His sunglasses, new mask, and his personality are still thrilling people across the country. His recent appearance on "Real People" drew a standing ovation. This LONE RANGER made every man, woman and child his immediate friend!

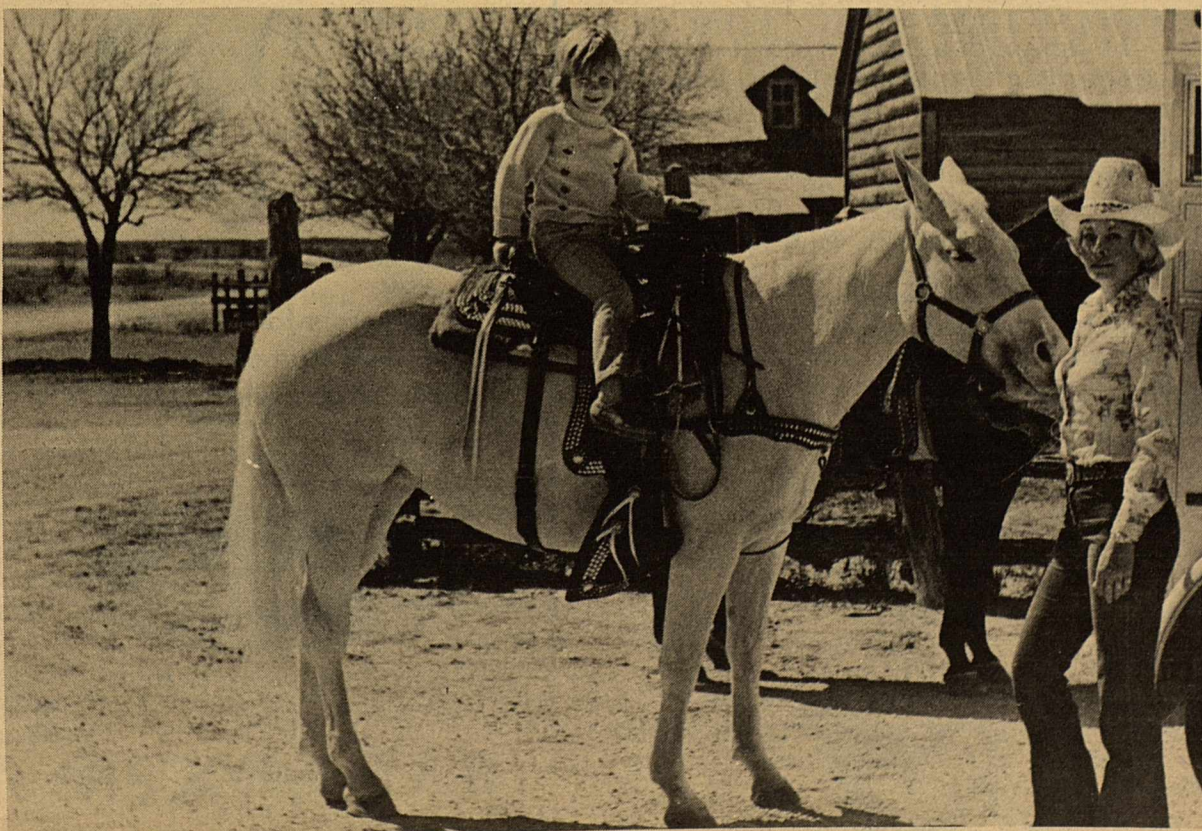

WOULD THE REAL LONE RANGER, CLAYTON MOORE, COME BACK AND SEE US AGAIN!!

Crystal Sez:

"SILVER IS THE BEST HORSE IN THE WORLD AND HE HAS THE FINEST TRAINER IN THE WHOLE WORLD, MAEZAL MERK.

ALAMO VILLAGE OWNER, HAPPY SHAHAN, AND THE LONE RANGER DO THE "CROSSED PISTOL" AMIGO SALUTE.

Congratulations

Mr. and Mrs. Walt Wagon are the proud parents of a baby boy born February 15, 1980, weighing in at 6 pounds 7 ozs. and 19 inches in length. To the proud parents, CONGRATULATIONS.

Letters to the Editor

February 24, 1980

Letter to the Author of "Between Us"

Dear Sir:

Although I agree with some of the points of your article in the February 23 Cavalryman I must disagree on one.

On line 9 you said..... "People vote their emotions, a critical analysis of qualifications on the part of the electorate would never (emphasis mine) have elected a Kennedy, a Johnson or Truman or a Carter."

On page 3, under "And God Said". The following Biblical quotation appeared:

"Judge not that you be not Judged." (Matt. 7:1)

You judged me unfairly because I voted for Kennedy and Carter but I did not vote for them on the basis of my emotions Just as I did not vote for Johnson or Nixon--again, because my emotions were not the way to go.

Now, some of the people I worked with voted against Kennedy because he has said he would "take a look at the depletion allowance." These people worked for oil companies.

Some of the people I worked with, when Humphrey was running against Nixon, voted for Nixon because they didn't want four more years of Democrats" after Johnson and, also, he said he would "end the war in Viet Nam." And they probably voted for Nixon the next time because somehow--- he ended up running against McGovern--They forgot he hadn't ended the war in Viet Nam.

Carter was elected in spite of a well-calculated campaign to discredit him where it hurt the most--"Carter's for (emphasis mine) gun control." I read every printed statement he made that I could find and all I ever found was as I recall this long afterward, that he believed we needed to curb violence--look at the handgun problem. So I voted for him, in spite of an inflammatory "newsletter" I received in my post office box saying he favored gun control which I do not.

It reminds me of John Hill's campaign. The anti-Hill slogan was, "He can't do what he says he is going to do without raising taxes." Enough people bought this slogan or something (I received a "newsletter" to this effect on him, too) that Clements defeated him. What has Clements done for Texas? How far forward have we moved? Will these same people re-elect him to safeguard their precious dollars? And on what basis? Something they get in the mail? Or hear on TV? How many sides of a question are there?

When we react emotionally or judge on only part of the story, or fall for lines like "Carter favors gun control", or "Hill can't do what he says he will without raising taxes," we are being suckered just as it was intended we should be!

Is Carter president?

Do we have gun control?

I do agree with the following points you made:

It should be that any candidate is considered on his merit his character, his qualifications his integrity(emphasis added) and his ability and then voted as the best in the field.

It should also be that when the election is over there should be no rifts of friendship, no bitterness, and no hard feelings.

Voting on the basis of our emotions is childish. I did it when I voted for one president, I was only thirty.

If we Americans vote on any unthinking basis, we have not yet grown up to our responsibilities as the citizens of our democracy.

Present Day Myths

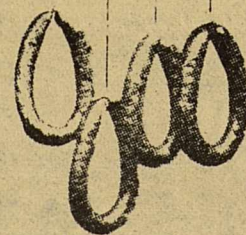

by: JOE TOWNSEND

There seems to be no end to the blackmail used against the American taxpayer. Now comes the Department of Agriculture trying to force school children to eat what they dictate. By legislative and bureaucratic pressure politicians would force schools to serve meals (most of them free to the students--including breakfast) and would funnel back to the schools a small fraction of the money taken from the taxpayers pocket-books so they can force the schools to do as they arbitrarily dictate. Some unthinking dictators in the bureaucracies have now decided the children eat too much "junk" foods, candys, potato chips soda water, etc.

Now a high handed order that schools must remove dispensers of these items. The only pressure they can apply is to threaten to withhold funds from the schools. People tend to forget it is their money the legislators have taken and the bureaucrats are using to blackmail the schools. This money is not out of the pockets of these do-gooder petty tyrants. It is probably true that many of these students who spend money for these "junk" foods could better spend the money for more nutritious foods. It does not follow, however, that if you take out the food dispensers the child will eat the foods prescribed and prepared in the school cafeteria. At least the children must have cash money for the machines. To stop the students from purchasing these foods on school premises will likely be a boom to nearly all nearby merchants. If these foods cannot be purchased at the schools it is doubtful that less foods of this nature will be sold --they will just not be sold on premises. There probably is some

AND GOD SAID:

"Ye must be born again."

There must come to the soul a new life. The person must be spiritually born in addition to the physical birth.

"For God so loved the world that He gave his only begotten son that whosoever believeth in him should not perish but have everlasting life."

God sent His son into the world as a human being to die so that each one who puts his faith in him may have this spiritual life that never dies.

"He who does not believe (in Him) is condemned already because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God."

The person who has not put his faith in Jesus Christ is already doomed because of his failure to trust Christ. The person who does trust Christ is "born again" when he truly accepts Jesus Christ as his personal Savior.

merit to not having these foods available in elementary schools. Where you reach the secondary school level it is a little ridiculous to feel anyone can arbitrarily force the students regarding what they eat or do not eat. At any rate this is a problem to be faced by the students, their parents, and the local school authorities. It definitely is a violation of the Constitution for the Federal government to thus interfere in local matters such as this. How long will Americans continue to let petty do-gooders high-handedly use black mail to carry out their petty personal notions? When will some State or local entity take these power-crazed nonentities to court and force them to abide by the Constitution?

Kinney County LIBRARY

Dear K.C.,

At the recent library Board meeting attended by Charles Ward, Paul O'Rourke, Richard Olvera, Francis Larson, Charlotte Golemon Miss Charles Wilson, Else Sauer, and Allen Kreiger, Jr., president of Friends of the Library and Julian Lucas, vice president, a petition asking the County Commissioners' Court for more money to push for completion of the new county library was taken into consideration and discussed.

Also the Garden Club recently gave the library a beautiful wooden hat and coat rack in honor of Mrs. Golemon for her outstanding work at the Garden Club and at the County Library.

Mrs. Golemon has outdone herself in completing a Job Description Manual and still plans to hold a Volunteer Aide workshop in the future. The Library still needs many volunteers to help out. If you have some spare time each week, please contact Miss Sauer. A well-staffed library often makes a library with better services to offer its patrons.

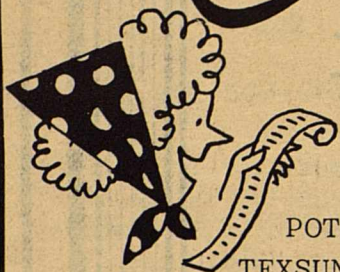

Three out of four services are for adults-not children; yet a large percentage of the books checked out is by children. The Library has a larger collection of books for adults including most of the recent bestsellers. It has also acquired several highly acclaimed and/or popular young adults books such as "Star Trek Fotonovels-Metamorphosis #5, All our Yesterday #6,

DOE REQUEST FOR AUTHORITY TO BAN WEEKEND BOATING OPPOSED BY BTAT

Texas boaters have been urged to testify at a March 13 hearing against Department of Energy proposals for authority to ban weekend boating as a means of saving fuel, a move the Boat ing Trades Assocaition of Texas calls both "unnecessary and discriminatory."

The hearing, scheduled for the Americana Inn and Conference Center at Six Flags in Arlington, is one of six scheduled around the country on the emergency Energy Conservation Act of 1979.

"It's the inequity of the proposal that distrubs us," Don Dacus, president of BTAT said. "The Department of Energy doesn't mention anything about a ban on auto racing, general aviation and recreational vehicles."

Dacus said boaters should not have to assume too much of the burden for conserving fuel during a severe energy shortage. He pointed out the Act as passed by Congress requires fuel to be equitably distributed among all users after is has met essential needs.

"once Texas boaters understand just what DOE is trying to do to them, I'm sure they will want to testify at this important hearing," Dacus said.

Dacus said a ban on weekend boating would be unnecessary since driving restrictions and fuel shortages would reduce boating in Texas in the same manner as last summer.

One of the greatest days of the year is Valentine's Day. Though not specifically a Christian holiday it demonstrates the true Christian spirit as much or more than the Christian holidays. If Jesus taught anything at all he taught that we should love one another. Valentine's Day is the most tangibly expressive day of love during the year. It is unbelievable the amount of flowers that are sold on that day. The tremendous flower business is sold out nationwide even at the wholesale level. Great amounts of chocolates are sold that day. This is to say nothing of the many personal items bought and given. Each gift whether to Sweetheart, wife, mother, or friend says "I love you." Unlike Christmas, Valentine's Day is not Grass. Stirrup-high and far as the eye could see. That's the way it was. That's the way it can be.

When the first ranchers pioneered Texas and Oklahoma they were greeted by grassland. Ranging for miles and waving a welcome to the strong-spirited ranchers and their grazing herds.

When the land was all taken, it was not all taken care of. It was fenced and overgrazed. It was parched by the dry years, and invaded by deep-rooted and "drouthy" brush. Brush destined to invade nearly every ranch, and to cut in half the grazing potential of over 88 million acres.

But there's a new pioneer spirit among ranchers today. They want their land back from the brush...and back to its natural beauty and bounty.

And there's a new product that makes it practical. It's Graslan™ from Elanco. Graslan is a new approach to brush control. It's as revolutionary and unique as were three other Elanco products—Tylan® and Rumensin® for your cattle and Treflan® herbicide for soybeans and cotton.

To find out more about brush control with Graslan, talk to your local SCS, Extension Agent or Range Management Specialist. Or call the toll free Elanco hotline: 1-800-428-4441. It could be the most important call you'll make for years to come.

a time of exchanging gifts. It is the time when giving is a one way street. This is the Christ like way. The giving and expecting nothing in return is Christ like. Loving is Christ like. Showing love is Christ like. How much more Christian can one be? Why can't all mankind act as though it were Valentine's Day every day of the year?

DOE.....

"The DOE made a serious error in assuming that boating uses a significant amount of this country's fuel," Dacus continued "The truth is, boating consumes less than one half of one percent of the nation's energy. Thus the potential energy savings from curtailing boating is minimal."

Dacus said the DOE has also underestimated the economic impact of its proposal on the marine industry. "Over 80 percent of the boating in Texas takes place on the weekends," he said. "Thousands of Texans employed at marinas and other marine facilities will be put out of work and millions of dollars in retail spending lost if this proposal is ever implemented."

Boaters must contact the Dallas office of the DOE no later than 3:30 p.m. on March 7 if they want to testify at the hearing. They should write Grace Morrison, P.O.Box 35228, 2626 W. Mockingbird Lane, Dallas Texas 75235, or call area code 214/767-7736 to apply to testify All will be notified before the hearing if their applications have been accepted.

Written comments concerning the proposal may be sent to the headquarters of the Boating Trades Association of Texas at 411 Adolphus Tower, Dallas, Tx 75202. BTAT officials will submit all comments at the hearing For more information call 214/748-8218.
