GARDENING TIPS
BY THE MORNING
GLORY GARDEN CLUB
DEL RIO, TEXAS

"Dainty Maidenhair Fern"

A container or hanging basket of Maidenhair Fern will add charm to a room or patio. The dainty graceful pattern of the fronds makes it a most beautiful and useful plant for indoor or outdoor gardening.

Maidenhair Ferns are easy to grow as house plants when the following tips are observed: They need plenty of open light, but not direct sun, and you should be careful of watering them, keeping them moist and not over watering, and provide good drainage. Leaflets of this fern are soft and thin and are sensitive to atmospheric conditions. It is natural for oldest leaves to turn brown and die. If this happens, it is a sign that the plant is entering a rest period. When this takes place, shear off all of the leaves and withhold watering except for just a small amount to keep the soil moist. Do not fertilize until new growth starts to appear. The dormant period lasts about a month, and soon you will have a thriving plant.

The Concert is free and open to the public.

SPOTLIGHT ON SALADS

It's that time of year again — warmer weather sparks the craving for sprightly salads that are refreshing to eat and require little real "cooking." And almost everybody's favorite summertime fare should be more than a supporting player. With a bit of ingenuity, it's easy to create show-stopper salads that become the Main Event —starring in everyday or party meals—as well as offer solid nutrition. Start with a mixture of light and mineral-rich darker greens, add raw vegetables for vitamins and crunch, then toss in the protein—leftover chicken or roast beef, cubed luncheon meats, canned tuna or salmon and, of course, cheese. For a particularly delicious flavor accent, try mellow, nutty Norwegian Jarlsberg. Pale golden in color, its distinctive yet delicate taste and smooth texture give this versatile food broad appeal. Jarlsberg is chock-full of beneficial calcium and, since it's made using part-skim milk, comparatively lower in calories and fat than many other cheeses. Dress with a light vinaigrette that lets each of the complementary ingredients shine. And you have a cool, balanced lunch or supper in a bowl, ready in a jiffy—bring it on to rave reviews!

BRACKETT TAKES DISTRICT

SAN ANTONIO - The Tigers and Tigerettes both won the district golf championship in the tournament played at Lackland A.F.B. last Monday. This makes the second consecutive district championship for the boys and first for the girls.

The championship did not come easy however, as the Tigers were 10 strokes behind the favorite Cole, and 7 strokes behind Lackland with one player still on the course for Brackett. Ken Mulligan's final 18 hole score of 105 threw the Tigers into a tie for first with Cole, eliminating Lackland from any chance at going to the regional playoffs in Victoria.

It was decided that the playoff format would be sudden death beginning with the 1st hole using the combined 4 best scores of both teams to decide the winner of the hole. What happened next was pretty basic, the Tigers were mentally tough and Cole choked under the pressure. Lee Floyd led the way in the playoffs with a par 4. Mike Cervantez had a bogey 5 as did Jack Baker, and Ken Mulligan had a double bogey 6 for a combined total of 20 strokes. Cole shot a total of 26 and it was all over but the shoutin'.

Tiger scores for the day were: Mike Cervantez (1st place medalist honors) 89, Lee Floyd (2nd place medalist honors) 96, Ken Mulligan 105, Sean Mulligan 114, Jack Baker 115, Mitch Frerich 117.

The Tigerettes also won their district championship with Travis Smith (1st place medalist honors) 66, Melinda Meyer (2nd place medalist) 69, Sheri White (3rd place medalist) 71, Jeanette Avila 72, and Tammy Frerich 72 (the girls round was shortened to 9 holes as a result of the weather).

Regional play begins on April 27th at the Colony Creek Country Club in Victoria.

Once again, I would like to thank all those people who donated both time and equipment to help our teams. We couldn't have done it without you!

BRACKETT TAKES FOURTH by Mike O'Rourke

DILLEY - The Brackett Tigers took fourth place overall in the Dilley Relays held last Saturday.

The field contingent for the boys picked up 14 pts. on Sean Mulligan's 4th place finish in the discus, Eloy Garcia's 2nd in the shot put, and Robert Estrada's 5th in the long jump.

The runners picked up 64 pts. to finish off the scoring. The sprint relay team of Jesus Aguirre, Ernest Cervantez, Robert Estrada, and Frank Morgan, took 1st place. In the 100 meters, Estrada was 2nd, and Aguirre finished 4th. Morgan took 4th in the 200 M., and Cervantez finished 3rd in the 400 M. Manuel Pena finished 4th in the 300 meter intermediate hurdles. Armando Talamantez took a 3rd in the 110 meter high hurdles. The mile relay team of Pena, Morgan, Cervantez, and Estrada capped the scoring with a 3rd place finish.

GIRLS FINISH THIRD by Kelly Hall

Dilley - The girls picked up 57 pts. with Martha Samaniego taking 1st in the shot put. Yvonne Luna finished 2nd in the high jump, 4th in the long jump, and 3rd in the triple jump. Elena Estrada placed 4th in the high jump and 6th in the long jump.

Luna finished 2nd in the 100 M. dash, while Estrada took 5th. In the 200, Luna was 2nd and Estrada was 3rd.

The next meet will be the District meet. It will be held in Jourdanton on Saturday, April 11th.

COMMUNITY MEETING TO BE HELD

A MUST FOR ANYONE WHO QUILTS

Here is one of the largest treasuries of quilt designs and variations ever assembled—1001 patterns in all—an absolute must for anyone who quilts! This collection offers you a kaleidoscopic array of designs (44 in full color!) that range from traditional favorites to the new and innovative. The designs are geometric—easy to draw up—and intriguing at the same time—so they will fascinate both beginning and experienced quilters.

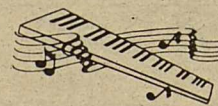

For the quilter's convenience, designs are grouped according to the number of patches making up the block, such as 4-patch, 9-patch and so on. Each design is clearly marked with graph lines to enable you to scale the block to any size desired.

Whether you work by hand or with the sewing machine, the designs in this book are bound to make it one of the most treasured and thumbed-through volumes on your bookshelf. Order your copy of 1001 Patchwork Designs today!

TO ORDER: Send your name, address, zip code and $9.95 plus $1.25 postage and handling to American Melody, 123 South Street, Oyster Bay, NY 11771. NY residents add appropriate sales tax. Please print clearly.

SAVE! Order two for $19.00 plus $1.90 postage and handling.

A routine check of a suspicious vehicle by two local U.S. Border Patrol Agents at approx. 1:00 a.m. on Tuesday, March 31st led to the arrest of two Bandera County residents on felony charges of Possession of Marijuana.

The two Border Patrol Agents, Gregory Sharp and Steven Lamascus, were on routine patrol on Highway 334 when they noticed the vehicle, a 1968 Ford pickup, in an area known to be used by smugglers of illegal aliens to make their pickups. The vehicle also fit the profile of vehicles commonly used by smugglers so the two agents decided to check it out. During the subsequent investigation they discovered a brown paper bag containing almost a pound of marijuana and arrested the driver, Marie Lisa McBeth, 29, and her husband, Arthur Wayne McBeth, 34, both of Vanderpool, Texas on the Possession of Marijuana charges. The two suspects were first taken to the Border Patrol station in Brackettville for processing and the case was later turned over to the Kinney County Sheriff's Department. They were arrested and booked into the county jail and magistrates later that same day before Justice of the Peace, Alvin Hall who set bond on each at $25,000.00. They were released after surety bonds in the amount of $50,000.00 was posted.

District Court convened on Monday, April 6th with District Judge George Thurmond hearing two felony cases. The first case heard was that of Antonio Pedro Reynaga, 35, of Uvalde, Texas who was charged with Felony DWI stemming from an automobile accident on Hwy. 90 at the intersection of Hwy. 131 in January of this year. Reynaga received a 2 year sentence to the Texas Department of Corrections on a plea bargain agreement between his attorney and District Attorney Tom Lee.

The second case heard was that of Cecil Raymond Ferguson, Jr., a Tennessee man, who is in jail on charges of Possession of Cocaine, a felony. Ferguson asked for and was appointed an attorney by Judge Thurmond. Naturally the county will have to pay for all attorney fees for this suspect. His trial has been scheduled for later this month. He is currently on parole from TDC for a prior drug conviction in which he received a 15 year sentence.

A burglary that occurred at the Fort Clark Springs Golf & Country Club on Monday night, April 6th, caused losses in property and damage in the amount of $6,557.50. It is believed that the burglars entered through an unlocked window on the east side of the building sometime between 6:30 p.m. and 10:30 p.m. This time span is based on the fact that an employee was at the Club House at 6:30 p.m. and the crime was discovered at 10:30 p.m. by Ft. Clark Security officers on routine patrol. The case is under investigation with no suspects at this time.

Another costly theft occurred at Ft. Clark on Tuesday afternoon, April 7th. This one involved Mr. & Mrs. Maurice G. Martineau of Fox Lake, Illinois who were staying at the Masters Apartments across the creek from the Golf & Country Club. They came to my office Thursday afternoon to report the theft of a diamond ring belonging to Mrs. Martineau valued at almost $10,000.00. This case is also under investigation and there is a suspect that we are trying to locate at the time of this writing.

A stolen car was recovered Tuesday morning on Ft. Clark. The vehicle was in the possession of two San Antonio juveniles, a 15 year old boy and a 14 year old girl. The girl was reported as a missing person in the TCIC computer. The owner of the car as well as family members of the two juveniles were notified and appropriate action taken by all parties involved. The youngsters stated that they had come to Ft. Clark to visit friends. Both had a long history of juvenile crime problems.

General Manager for Fort Clark Springs Association, Inc., is Gene Britton, who is also the President of the Chamber of Commerce.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

In reading the comments to the editor, I can see that this community can and will get involved in issues that are pertinent to the community. I feel the same way in matters that involve my department and services rendered to the community.

The problem that I encounter most frequently is making comments about an issue that may be construed as political in nature. I refrain from getting involved in local politics. The information that I will communicate to you is general in nature and may concern problems that you may have encountered in the community.

When we are asked to handle a legal problem, we look at all facts and statements made in order to determine probable cause. Sometimes we take no action because the facts are not there. We in no way can use hearsay information to determine probable cause. When we fail to take action some factions of the community feel it is political. This happens in all the communities.

We have been working very closely with your local law enforcement agencies in order to solve the assaults by poison at the school, also the burglaries that were committed in Fort Clark. The investigations are just about completed and will be presented to the District Attorney for prosecution.

How do you, as a community feel about the program of early release for good behavior in prison? Some of these people have been out only for a very short period of time before they commit another crime. It happened here in Brackettville. That is the example I made in my last statements, as to how we do business here in our community will have an impact statewide.

I, and other law enforcement professionals object to early release of any person convicted of a crime. It is my opinion that once a person has been convicted and sentence passed, that person must serve out the full punishment. It does not matter if it is jail, prison or probation, all are forms of punishment.

On the 30th and 31st of last month, I attended a meeting in Austin that addressed the issue of using probation as a means of easing the overcrowding at the Texas Department of Corrections. I will keep you informed about that meeting.

On the subject of probation, currently about 30 persons in Brackettville are under supervision of the department. Some of these people I know quite well and are not hardened criminals, but the laws of this state must be obeyed and enforced.

Probation is a form of punishment that is imposed by the court. Most violations are for DWI and for a period of two years. My Probation Officers enforce these terms of probation stated by penal law and the court. We do not make up these terms, we cannot subtract nor add to the court order. Some people object very vividly to these terms because of the intrusion into their private lives. Probation can be difficult and embarrassing for some.

How can you make a difference in what happens in our criminal justice system? Use your right of petition and make your opinion known. Write to your elected officials or contact your local ones and say what needs to be said. If you do not vote or do not care in community problems, they just pray that you won't get injured by a drunken driver or assaulted in your home. We Texans are known for our independence and our willingness to get involved. Let's continue to state our opinions, and those that disagree, let us respect their right to disagree.

Sincerely,

Ignacio R. De La Rosa
Chief Probation Officer

Home Hints

COTTON PICKERS — Instead of buying cotton balls in the store, I save the cotton which is stuffed in bottles of aspirin, etc. We have a quart jar on hand filled with this cotton for use whenever we need it! Katherine Y., Waycross, Georgia

EYEGLOSS CLEANER — When your decongestant spray bottle is empty, unscrew the top and pull the top assembly off. Rinse well and refill with a window cleaner or similar product and use to clean your glasses when you're away from home. Make sure to apply a band of tape and label the contents for safety's sake. Yolanda O., Santa Fe, N.M.

NO MORE WHISTLING DIXIE — If your whistling tea kettle is a source of annoyance to you, place a toothpick between the lid of the spout and the spout itself. It'll save wear and tear on your ears and your nerves! Amanda K., Raleigh, N.C.

DEEP FREEZE — When you get a good buy on pot roast, oven roast, chicken, etc., here's a good tip on how to organize your freezer. When you get home, take the item out of the plastic wrap, but save the label which indicates the item, weight and date. Rewrap the item in freezer wrap and tape the label on the package (at the top and bottom of the label). This eliminates searching for your red pen or other marking item and there's no more "bleeding" of the markings. Natalie H., Ruskin, Florida.

A certified check or bank draft, payable to the order of City of Brackettville, negotiable U.S. Government bonds (at par value) or a satisfactory Bid Bond executed by the Bidder and an acceptable surety in the amount equal to five percent (5) of the total Bid shall be submitted with each Bid.

Attention is called to the fact that not less than the federally determined prevailing wage rate, as issued by the Texas Department of Community Affairs and as set forth in the Contract Documents, must be paid on this project, and are not discriminated against because of their race, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

In addition, if the prime contractor is not minority-owned business, the prime contractor shall ensure that at least fifteen percent (15%) of the funds subcontracted under this contract are awarded to minority businesses. In the event that the prime contractor does not subcontract any portion of the construction work funded under this contract, the prime contractor shall ensure that at least fifteen percent (15%) of the work force employed by such prime contractor is composed of minority group members.

For the purpose of definition, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings:

- 1) "Minority Business" means a corporation, partnership, sole proprietorship, or other legal entity formed for the purpose of making a profit, if at least 50 percent of the business is owned by minority group members or, in the case of a corporation, at least 51% of its shares are owned by minority group members.
- 2) "Minority Group Members" are Black Americans, Mexican Americans and other Americans of Hispanic origin, Asian Americans, American Indians, Pacific Islanders, and Alaskan Natives.

The City of Brackettville reserves the right to reject any or all Bids or to waive any informalities in the bidding.

Bids may be held by the City of Brackettville for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days from the date of the opening for Bids for the purpose of reviewing the Bids and investigating the qualifications of Bidders, prior to awarding of the Contract.

WAGON TRAIN PARTICIPANTS SAY THANKS

BY DONNA STEPP

April 2, 1987

Yes, from "Little Arcons, Big Oak Trees Do Grow". This was the case as the Texas Wagon Train had its first reunion after traveling over 3000 miles together for six months in 1986.

We came, we gathered, we laughed. As each vehicle pulled onto the campground in Junction, Texas March 13 and 14, a cheer went up throughout the campground that told each wagoner's feelings. In they came, from Ohio, Missouri, all points in Texas, Tennessee, Alabama and many more.

From our band of volunteers that had gathered to celebrate Texas' 150th year of freedom, a big reborn attitude towards the original pioneers and settlers of last century came to life.

The Texas Wagon Train left Junction March 15 and went out into an area they did not travel upon last year. We enjoyed the old country roads that dated back into an era that does not exist but comes back to life when those covered wagons cross over them.

Entering Happy Shahan's property was a real highlight to us. From the lead wagon being pulled by four huge Percheron horses, driven by our host Wagon Master Hogg Jones, to the column of horseback riders stepping into line smartly, we rode into yet another area of great historic value. Mr. Shahan hosted us personally, taking us on a tour of his famous Alamo Village. We were guests of his for two days and nights, treated to entertainment by his resident "Cowboy Showman" Dan Garrett and his wife Sharie.

For those of us that participated on this journey, we will always cherish the special time we all had just walking the streets of yesteryear in Alamo Village and leaning up against a building to let our thoughts wonder back into an age when John Wayne, Dean Martin, Roy Rogers, Tom Mix, and many more must have done a time or two. To Happy and Virginia Shahan, their daughter in Brackettville, Dan, Sharie and all of the welcomers and volunteers that took the time to welcome us into Brackettville and Fort Clark Springs, we want to extend a heartfelt "Thank You" and we will return.

YOU KNOW YOU'RE GETTING OLDER WHEN:

Everything hurts and what doesn't hurt, doesn't work.
 The gleam in your eyes is from the sun hitting your bi-focals.
 You feel like the night before, and you haven't been anywhere.
 Your little black book contains only names ending in M.D.
 You get winded playing chess.
 Your children begin to look middle aged.
 Your mind makes contracts your body can't meet.
 You sit in a rocking chair and can't get it going.
 Your knees buckle and your belt won't.
 After painting the town red, you have to take a long rest before applying a second coat.
 The best part of your day is over when your alarm clock goes off.
 Your back goes out more than you do.
 A fortune teller offers to read your face.
 The little gray haired lady you help across the street is your wife.
 You sink your teeth into a steak and they stay there.
 You join a health club and don't go.
 You begin to outlive enthusiasm.
 Your favorite part of the newspaper is "25 Years Ago Today."
 You regret all those mistakes of resisting temptations.
 You decide to procrastinate but then never get around to it.
 You finally reach the top of the ladder, and find it leaning against the wrong wall.
 You know all the answers, but nobody asks you the questions.
 You look forward to a dull evening.
 You walk with your head held high trying to get used to your bi-focals.
 You turn out the light for economic reasons rather than romantic ones.
 You're 17 around the neck, 42 around the waist, and 106 around the golf course.
 You stop looking forward to your next birthday.
 You're startled the first time you are addressed as "old timer".
 You just can't stand people who are intolerant.
 Dialing long distance wears you out.
 Your pacemaker makes the garage door go up when you watch a pretty girl go by.
 You burn the midnight oil after 9:00 p.m.
 You get too much room in the house and not enough in the medicine cabinet.
 You get your exercise acting as a pallbearer for your friends who exercised.
 You remember today that yesterday was your wedding anniversary.

God's Harvest Is Never-Ending

"He who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit for eternal life..." — John 4:36

Paul in his letter to the Romans noted that "the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Jesus Christ our Lord." His words echoed those of Jesus when he told the disciples that their eternal life would come from the deeds he accomplished for God and that they would reap through their gathering of converts. Jesus was indeed God's instrument to harvest the believers in the Lord and his word. For God wisely gave all his children the option of free will in life, but their choice dictated what course their souls would take after death. How much better to be nurtured by God through Jesus and become a part of God's never-ending harvest than to be cast aside as unfit chaff as will the sinners among us.

At the cost of over fifty-thousand dollars Charles William Post became the greatest rainmaker of all time.

This amazing man came from a family of pioneers. His father Charles Rollin Post was a forty-niner, who went to California over the Sante Fe Trail and took part in the Pikes Peak Rush.

Charles William was born in Springfield, Ill., October 12, 1854, the oldest of three brothers. In Springfield his father was a grain dealer. At thirteen the boy was sent to the Ill. Industrial University in Urbana, which was later to become the University of Illinois. Two years at the University was enough for the restless fifteen year old boy and he proceeded to acquire a job and left school.

He left this job to serve in the Illinois Guard, and from there decided to strike out on his own. With a partner and one thousand dollars borrowed from his mother, he opened a hardware store in Independence, Kansas. One year later he sold out after doubling his capital.

For the next eight years we find him working for a farm machinery company, where he became manager and along with a friend perfected a seed planter and acquired one of many patents he was to obtain for his various inventions.

In 1886 his health broke and sometime along here he visited Fort Worth and heard about the wide open spaces beyond, towards the West. But before he could do anything about it he had a relapse and had to leave the family real estate business in Fort Worth and return to Battle Creek, Michigan.

While in Texas, Post had become acquainted with chicory, a substitute for coffee, and after a years work in Michigan he developed a mixture of wheat, bran and molasses to which he named "postum". After a wide and elaborate sells program, "postum" was in, and from there he soon developed "grape-nuts".

In Battle Creek he build a great hotel and put up ideal housing for his employees. Here he experimented and learned a lot he could use for another plan that had been on his mind for a long time.

Finally his dream was about to come true, and he bought most of the land in Garza County, Texas on the high plains above the caprock for about three and a half dollars an acre. He bought part of the Slaughter Ranch, the Curry Comb, the Everett Trust, H.D. Woodruff Trust, McCutcheon Trust, O.S. Ranch, and several other smaller pieces of land.

On his visit to the Curry Comb his new neighbors threw a Bar-B-Que and listened to his wild talk about building a town in the middle of nowhere with his own water-works and electric light plant.

His talk proved not to be so far out of line, because in October, 1906, he began to make his dream come true. He broke his newly acquired ranches up into farms, and staked out the new town in what he thought was the middle of Garza County. He set up a corporation chartered in the state of Texas, calling it the Double U Company with headquarters in Battle Creek, with a Board of Directors, namely, H.C. Hawk of Battle Creek and H.B. Herd and Noah Harding of Fort Worth and Post.

Frieght was hauled from Big Springs across country in 24 new wagons traveling through Gail and Tahoka, Texas.

When March, 1907 rolled around, a commissary, three houses, a barn, well and windmill were already built, and a planing mill was already cutting lumber, and he named all this Post City.

About this time the surveyors found that Posts new toy was not in the middle of Garza County but was eleven miles off center and since the law demanded the county seat must not be more than five miles from the center, further work was stopped.

On May 10, Post started tearing down his new toy and by the 19th, Post City was moved lock, stock and barrel to a new location within five miles of the center of the county and three miles from the caprock.

Until his death Charles Post put all his strenght into Post City which became an oasis on the plains, with flowers up and down the middle of main street and hundreds of trees. Under the guidance of this unusual man, the town soon had all the conveniences of a city, with factories and other corporations. The Garza Sheet Company is still turning out good sturdy sheets with which all Texas housewives are familiar.

In spite of Posts pracaibility he went on the biggest rainmaking spree of them all. In the 1890's just about everyone who wasn't eating regular went around the countryside trying to get people interested in his rain-making skills.

Posts Farms were sadly in need of rain, so he decided not to hire a rain-maker he knew nothing about. He became one himself, and like everything else he did, he went at it with a will.

First he tried kites, fifteen or so, with two pound pieces of dynamite tied to their tails, and stationed his men six or seven miles apart, but no rain. His next idea was based on the fact that during the Civil War, it always seemed to rain after a big battle. Post staged his own battle, lining his men up in twelve groups who at intervals set off dynamite on a rock and ran, but again no rain. He didn't give up and a week or so later arranged another battle, firing two hundred and fifty shots, but no rain. Ten or twelve hours later it did actually rain, and rained off and on for a week or two, and Post felt he had been successful.

In July he staged another so called battle, but got only a light sprinkle. In August he tried again, setting up a battle line two miles long with scattered blasts and after an hour, rain began to fall and the last shots were fired in the rain, and in October another battle and more rain five hours afterward.

After the first of the year, which was 1912, Post staged eight more battles. This time he was very scientific, his engineer mapped out fifteen firing stations on a two mile front on the caprock.

For such an undertaking he needed plenty of dynamite so he conferred with Du Pont and they agreed to supply half the material for advertising purposes. At the last minute Du Pont refused to furnish caps and fuses so Post furnished them himself, but Du Pont did furnish about 12,000 pounds of dynamite and Post went on with his plans to use 3,000 pounds per battle.

After this battle, hail was the result, hail as big as hens eggs, and Post figured he had the rain-making market cornered.

The next battle, and the next, were fired only hours apart, resulting in a very light sprinkle after the second charge.

At the next battle, no rain fell.

"THE NITTY AND THE GRITTY"
BY JOE TOWNSEND

As I was driving through the hills south of Junction, suddenly when I topped a hill, out of the trees swooped a buzzard as if he had taken dead aim on the windshield of my car. Did you ever drive with a windshield that was shattered but still in the car? It is truly a weird experience. At any rate, I thought at the time, "Why in the world did God have Noah put two of those in the ark?"

I sat the other day watching some buzzards soaring and circling in the sky. Did you ever stop to think how very graceful they are? How effortlessly they keep watch over the landscape. An occasional flap of the wings reminds you they can actually work at flying when the need arises.

Then I paused to think how truly valuable they are. With the mayhem committed against wayward varmints, deer and such on the highways, it's truly a good thing to have such a good clean up squad. It doesn't take long to clean up a dead rabbit or coon, or even a snake. God gave them some kind of a digestive system for them to be able to eat the rotten dead as they do. There are not many smells as offensive as dead animals. How very much we are spared the distasteful odor by the work of the buzzard.

Yes, I guess I am truly glad God put two of them in the ark.

"MIRACLE" DONATIONS APPRECIATED

1987 SPRING BUSINESS REVIEW

JAY MILLER CONSTRUCTION COMPANY

Debi Ohgren — General Manager

When service for which you cannot go window shopping such as paving pads, location pits, watertrucks, maintainers, loaders, dozers, low boys, trailers, dump trucks, roads, rocks, clearing, topsoil is needed, it then becomes more important to know the reputation of the firm with which you're going to do business. JAY MILLER CONSTRUCTION COMPANY located at 1203 Bedell in Del Rio, phone 774-5642 or 775-4941, is a firm which can do business with confidence and assurance of receiving total satisfaction.

They know the business perfectly and insist that each job be perfect. They employ only competent, well trained men who have the desire to please the customer.

This firm is favorably known for prompt service and fair prices. Much of their popularity is due to the fact that they stand behind every job and are there when you need them.

The Editors of this 1987 Business Review, suggest that you contact JAY MILLER CONSTRUCTION COMPANY first. We're sure you will be pleased with any work they do for you.

GARCIA AND SONS

Victor H. Garcia — President
State License TAC IB005539

A good roof is an all-important factor in the protection of your building investment and a firm well known for the installation and maintenance of all types of roofs is GARCIA AND SONS in Del Rio at 310 East Gibbs, phone 775-5991 or 775-9912 (Free Estimates).

It is said that your roof represents only about 3% of your building involvement, its value is out of all proportion to its cost; for a roof acts as a guardian of your building and all its contents.

Just as you take inventory of any possessions periodically so you should check up on your roof. Let these roof specialists examine your roof for they may find that it is in good condition, ready for many years of service or they may find defects that can easily be remedied, but which if neglected might soon dangerously weaken your roof. Or again they may discover that your roof is so badly worn that it needs a new covering to protect it and to prevent a costly leak.

They are the company to see for the latest air conditioning technology, authorized Rheem sales and service.

This 1987 Business Review and its compilers are pleased to recommend GARCIA AND SONS to our readers as one firm who does the job right at an honest price!!

VIDEO VIEWER

BY RORY WOODSON

Hi!

This week I'll review "Deadly Friend" and an oldie but goodie called "Fast Times at Ridgemont High".

"Deadly Friend" was a fairly good movie! It's about a boy and his robot. The boy you might remember from "Little House on the Prairie". This movie, although a horror movie, has a good story line. This movie is directed by the man who brought you "Nightmare on Elm Street" parts I, II, and III, Wes Craven. This was one of the better horror films of this year.

"Fast Times at Ridgemont High", in my opinion, is one of the best teenage movies of all time. A lot of today's stars got their start in this movie. Sean Penn ("At Close Range", "Race with the Moon"), Judge Reinhold ("Beverly Hills Cop", "Ruthless People"), Phoebe Cates ("Gremlins"), Eric Stoltz ("Mask") and Jennifer Jason-Leigh ("The Hitcher"). It is truly worth watching. It's one laugh after another. I highly recommend it.

Until next week, Happy Viewing.

SPECIAL SERVICES PLANNED

METHODISTS CELEBRATE EASTER SEASON

The Chancel Choir of the Brackettville First United Methodist Church will present the Easter cantata, "Behold the Empty Tomb," on Sunday evening, April 12, at 7:00 p.m. in the church sanctuary.

Choir Director Danny Potter, will conduct this powerful musical expression of the Easter Story, which will be accompanied by Cathie Conrey, church organist, and a special instrumental ensemble. Narrator Ray Kurtz will also provide the Scriptural settings for the choral and instrumental works by composer Joe E. Parks.

"The musicians of Brackettville First United Methodist Church, have worked hard in preparation for this performance," said Pastor Philip A. Bell, "and the public is invited to attend and share in this experience." The presentation is a part of the church's observance of Holy Week, marking the Christian significance of the Easter message.

Brackettville First United Methodist Church has planned a special series of worship services and activities for Holy Week, according to Pastor Philip A. Bell.

Sunday, April 12 is Palm Sunday/Passion Sunday, marking the beginning of Holy Week which commemorates the events in Jerusalem during the last week of Jesus' life leading up to the crucifixion and resurrection. The morning worship service at 11:00 a.m. will initiate this week of remembrance, and will be followed by a dinner in Slator Hall served by the members and parents/sponsors of the Youth Fellowship. The choral cantata, "Behold the Empty Tomb," will also be presented by the chancel choir and instrumental ensembles at a 7:00 p.m. performance in the church sanctuary.

Maundy Thursday, April 16, will be observed with a 7:30 p.m. evening worship service, and the Communion Service of the Upper Room, remembering the Last Supper at the time of the Passover, and Christ's experience in the Garden of Gethsemane leading up to his arrest and trial.

Good Friday, April 17, will be remembered in a Tenebrae Service (the Service of Shadows) at 8:00 p.m. recalling the crucifixion and death of Jesus at Golgotha, or Cavalry.

The Easter celebration of the Resurrection will be in the 11:00 a.m. worship service on Sunday, April 19.

Each of the planned events will be distinctively different, said Pastor Bell, and have been undertaken in an effort to bring Christian worshippers closer to the actual events in both time and space. "It sets the mood and the tone for people to participate in and experience what was happening," he stated, "to discover and relate to the real significance and meaning of Easter."

The planned worship services and events are open to all who wish to be enriched, spiritually, in this high point of the Christian year.

NOTICE

There will be a general clean-up day at the Catholic Cemetery on Saturday, April 11th. Everyone come and bring tools.

Post blamed it on the bad batch of dynamite Du Pont had sent, so he wrote them to come and get what was left.

The next four firings, no rain, good or bad dynamite, the next two battles, still no rain.

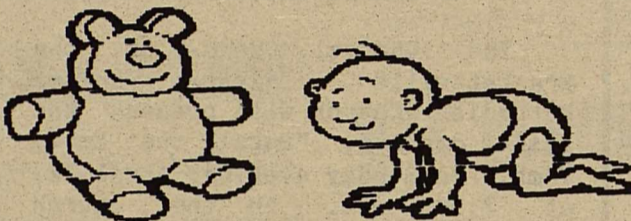

Up until the summer of 1912, Post had been keeping his dynamite in town, but during the summer he kept it on the caprock at a place called the "chimneys". In 1913, he built a new concrete magazine about eight miles from town. On June 4th, began his first battle of that summer, result, a little rain two or three days later. Two weeks later another battle lasting three hours, and although no rain fell on Post City, it did rain twenty miles to the Southeast. Post staged only three battles in 1913 and died in the spring of 1914. Since the spring of 1910 until his death, he had put on twenty-three battles costing over fifty-thousand dollars.

After the death of Charles William Post, his heirs sold some of the dynamite stored near their town because with the permission of the Board of Directors on April 17, 1917, they staged the biggest battle of them all when they set fire to the last twenty-four thousand pounds of Posts' rain-making dynamite.

New Family.

On March 27, 1987, Deborah Herman was given in marriage to Victor Bonner by the bride's father. Best man was Roy Jones and Matron of Honor was Maxine Bonner. The ceremony took place at the groom's Grandmother's home performed by Rev. Philip Bell. After a reception for family and friends the couple left for Corpus Christi for a small honeymoon. The couple will reside in Brackettville until Vic finishes this semester in College.

And Baby Makes Three.

Stephanie Leigh Herman will soon be a Bonner also. Now that everyone is together, Stephanie has definitely got something to smile and laugh about. She has learned to give a helacious belly laugh and that's because she is happy for mom and dad.

JUST BETWEEN YOU & ME

BY WANDA SCHWANDNER

Willie Jo Dooley returned Saturday from a two week tour of the South. She said she had a wonderful time, however, the weather was cold and damp.

Rita Holmes is up and about some with the use of her walker. She still has a cast on her leg, but through it all has kept her wonderful sense of humor. Don and Thelma Bader have been a lifesaver for her. It's wonderful to have good neighbors.

Evelyn Hunter has some of her paintings (oil and watercolor) on display in the Bank this week. She has some beautiful landscapes.

There must be something in the air as there has been an awful lot of violence around Kinney County in the last two weeks. I feel that everything can be talked out without hitting someone else. Of course, 'ole deamon rum seems to be at the bottom of most of it.

Seems like there is new car fever everywhere. I see at least four new cars around. I keep saying "someday...". I do have my '78 T-Bird back from San Antonio and it is running great. I am enjoying a car that I can depend on. When I was younger, I was happy if my car had a stereo, but now I like a little more comfort and dependability. "Bud" is truckin' right along. I guess with everything new, it should.

I attended the Ladies Luncheon at Fort Clark Springs with Sharon White Wednesday. There were approximately 120 ladies present. A style show was held by Nash Dry Goods. There were many pretty fashions. Genell Hobbs showed off her pretty figure in an attractive swim suit. The luncheons are held the second Wednesday of each month. Just call the Adult Center at Fort Clark Springs for reservations at 563-2024.

Karene Fisher will be leaving April 10th for two weeks. She and her parents are taking her Grandmother, Mildred Dean, to Mississippi. Karene's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stein of Uvalde.

The earthworm is often known by several other names, including fish-worm, angleworm or night crawler.
