A LETTER OF CONCERN FROM AMBULANCE VOLUNTEERS

TO THE CITIZENS OF BRACKETTVILLE AND FORT CLARK SPRINGS:

It takes true dedication and a lot of personal sacrifice to be an ambulance attendant volunteer. There are many hours of study and continued education to become and stay qualified by the State. After meeting these qualifications, the volunteer is expected to be on call 24 hours a day, 7 days a week resulting in many interruptions in their private lives and many hours of lost sleep. These are people who have their own full time employment and family responsibilities.

Frequently the time given by these volunteers is abused because of totally unnecessary "emergency" calls. In addition to this abuse, the volunteer on many occasions has been subjected to verbal abuse and criticism by the friends and relatives of the very person they are trying to help. It is very hard to understand how this can happen. The attendant who volunteers their time to help the community should at the very least have the gratitude of the community.

Your Volunteer Ambulance Organization is in need for more volunteers if we are to continue to serve this area adequately. However, until the community gets behind them with support and appreciation instead of abuse and criticism, their morale and dedication to community service will continue to decline.

TRACKS ALONG THE
BY DORTHY PAYNE

Cowboys have gone...the old cowboys that is. Cowboys who used to get up way before daylight and come back to the bunkhouse way after dark are no more.

In the old days a boy was practically born in the saddle and could ride before he could walk. Almost every boy in cattle country took a job on a ranch. Sometimes he couldn't hold it if he was much of a greenhorn, one mistake and he was looking for another job on another ranch.

Nowadays a cowboy expects to be treated with kid gloves or he will quit and go to some ranch that does.

Just like the wheat fields in harvest, a cowboy made all the smaller ranches round-ups if he didn't have a job on a bigger one. And all this work was done on a steady diet of beans, beef, biscuits, potatoes and coffee. When pay day rolled around, he got thirty dollars and found back then most every cowboy learned to cook, not because he liked it, but because he had to or not eat sometimes. Probably why some of them died young, from eating their own cooking.

If the ranch was big enough the cowboys ate at a chuck wagon where the food was cooked by a regular cook hired for that purpose. If the cook knew how to make sourdough biscuits he was a jewel.

To make the starter he mixed flour, water, sugar and yeast together and let it set four or five days until it fermented. Everytime after he made biscuits he kept part of the sour dough and mixed more flour, lard and water to replenish it or he would have to take four or five days to go through the whole process again. These biscuits were "larrupin" and would assure a good cook a steady job.

A cowboys life was no bed of roses, you had to love horses, cows and hardships to be a cowboy, you had to know how to break a horse, throw a thousand pound steer on the open range, or roll out of your soogans (bed roll) at first sign of light and in the winter time break the ice around your bed roll.

Take these rodeo cowboys, he would be at sea if he was turned loose on a regular working ranch.

The horses and cattle were smaller in the 1920's but they were a lot wilder. Probably because they were turned loose on the range until round-up. In those days the cattle were just about as wild as the cowboys so it just about evened out.

I guess the biggest improvement in the cattle business was the better control of livestock diseases.

Up until the screwworm program was started several years ago, a cowboy might have to get off his horse thirty or forty times a day to doctor a wild animal who didn't like the cowboy, the horse or the idea of being doctored. Sometimes everything got all tangled up, and in the fracas a cowboy could get hurt or killed, or a horse get crippled. Oh well, that was all in a days work of a cowboy.

And then there was the stampede. A cow was pretty skittish, especially in a rain storm, or even a bark of a dog, a flash of lightning, it didn't take much to set off cattle, especially the cranky ole mossyhorns.

Then it was the cowboys job to jump up and fork his horse and calm down the cattle. Sometimes they scattered so bad they couldn't be found for days. But usually if the cowboys could get the cattle in a mill, they got tired and were glad to slow down and lie down and be serenaded softly by the night guards as they rode around the herd.

I guess the old days are just

A NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

Since I am also a member of the Volunteer Ambulance Organization, I fully agree with Jean and Gloria.

I have worked with the Ambulance for 13 years. I would not even begin to count the number of hours that I have donated to this service. A lot of my suppers have turned cold and been left untouched, my warm bed on many a cold winter night has been left. I could go on and on but I won't.

We do have many appreciative people in our community. It is a shame that a few have to be bad apples. We know that when someone you love is ill that you are worried. But please try to understand that we are doing the very best job we can for you. We care - we have to or we wouldn't be going through all this. Try to be a little more considerate and patient the next time you need our help.

I would like to ask you another favor if I may. Say thank you next time and if you see one of our attendants even a hug would be nice.

JUST BETWEEN YOU & ME

BY WANDA SCHWANDNER

From the attendance at the Tiger Booster Club meetings, we really need more people to take an interest in the Booster Club. We are trying this year to have an all-sports Booster Club instead of only football. We have football, basketball, volleyball, track, tennis and golf teams. A lot of time and effort goes into practice, travel and play. We give a scholarship to a girl and boy athlete every year. We supply the expense for parents night, homecoming, and a bus for long distance games. We raise money to buy equipment for various sports. We feed the Coaches at our B track meets and have a hospitality room for Coaches at home BB games. As you can see, we do a lot of things. Our major contribution is the BBQ every year to pay for the football boys insurance. A kid that is playing a sport is not a kid that is getting into trouble. This year we plan to have an all-sport banquet in May. The next meeting will be Monday at 7:00 p.m. in the High School Library. Come and get involved.

Congratulations to Grace Frobes on the birth of a son, Anthony Lewis. Little Anthony was born September 15, at Uvalde Hospital with Aunt Nancy in attendance. Sister Cara was privileged to have a look before he settled down for the night.

The Miss Kinney County Pageant is moving along with 11 candidates trying for the title. Whatever the outcome I know that we will have a good time and the program will be very entertaining. The girls are working hard trying to top the production we had last year. Don't forget to mark October 3rd on your calendar.

Rose Mary, Dennis and Richard had a great time in Las Vegas. Rose Mary said three days is just about right. She saw some good shows, Tom Jones for one. See you next week.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

This being the 200th Anniversary of the U.S. Constitution I would like to express some feelings I have.

First, I would like to thank the children and teachers of Jones Elementary School for putting on one of the best pep rally's for the United States and reminding us all that we are an important part of our country.

As a child I was taught to respect this country in which we live. Our freedom can not be compared to any other country. At times we all take for granted all the things we can do, but never really stop to think what it would be like to have all that freedom taken away. We should be thankful for what we do have.

Our children are our future. They will have a say in how our country is run.

If everyone in the world could teach their children to understand that everyone is different and to respect the differences without bitterness or hate, possibly we could live in peace.

No one is perfect and we all make mistakes -- no matter what your age, the important thing is that we learn from them.

Our Constitution has set rules down for all the people in this country. They are there for our protection, let us honor and keep them and try to live in peace.

And God Bless the U.S.A.

Any such tax could be levied only on property located outside the City of Amarillo and outside the South Randall County Hospital District. The tax could not be more than 75¢ per $100 property valuation and would be effective only upon approval by the voters in the area to be taxed. If the tax is authorized by the Legislature and approved by voters, the Amarillo Hospital District is to serve residents of part of Randall County. If a tax is levied under this provision, Randall County must repay the State for the cost of publication of this amendment.

The proposed amendment also permits the legislature to authorize a hospital district to change its boundaries or jurisdiction if the district was created or authorized by a constitutional provision that includes a description of the boundaries or jurisdiction of the district. ## HERE'S TO YOUR HEALTH - CERVICAL CANCER

PART 2

What if the Pap Smear is abnormal?

If the results of your pap smear are abnormal, you will be notified and asked to come to the doctor's office or clinic for follow-up. The doctor will need to remove a small amount of the abnormal tissue for microscopic examination. This is known as a "biopsy". The biopsy may be a little painful, and there may be a little bleeding from the vagina for a day or so afterward. Depending on what the biopsy reveals, further diagnostic tests may be necessary.

DYSPLASIA

Mild dysplasia is usually treated in the doctor's office. "Cryosurgery" is a freezing technique to destroy the abnormal cells. "Cauterization" is a heat method. One or the other will be employed, but neither treatment causes more than mild discomfort.

If dysplasia is very extensive, brief hospitalization may be employed. "Conization" is the term for surgical removal of the abnormal tissue from the cervix and cervical canal.

VERY EARLY CANCER

Treatment for carcinoma in situ may involve any of the above treatments. If no children are planned, a woman may have a hysterectomy to prevent recurrence of the cancer. Women who have gone through menopause will usually undergo a hysterectomy.

INVASIVE CANCER

will require hospitalization. Before undergoing treatment a second opinion is advisable. Depending on the extent of the problem, treatment may involve surgery, radiation therapy, or a combination of both. If further involvement has occurred, chemotherapy may be initiated.

Regardless of the abnormality or severity of the condition, regular follow-up examinations are vital. The doctor or clinic will advise you about when to schedule follow-up examinations. If you experience any abnormal symptoms, such as unusual bleeding, see a doctor immediately.

REFLECTIONS

Do you sometimes wonder why God's people observe Sunday as a special day of worship? That's a good question and has answers that should satisfy our curiosity -- if we are honest with what the Bible sets forth.

Jesus rose from the dead on the first day of the week. Any reading of the gospel stories makes this clear.

Jesus appeared to ten of His disciples who had gathered for worship on the first day of the week. This, too is related in the next to the last chapter of John.

On the first day of the week Jesus appeared to eleven of His disciples, exactly one week after that first appearance. The second time they were in worship, also.

The Holy Spirit came to dwell in the hearts of God's people of His Church on the first day of the week. That was on the day of Pentecost, the day which came on the first day of the week.

Simon Peter preached his unforgettable sermon about the death and resurrection of Jesus on the day of Pentecost -- the first day of the week, or Sunday.

On Sunday, the first day of the week, three thousand who experienced conversion to Christ were baptized into the fellowship of the New Testament Church in Jerusalem.

The rite of Christian baptism in the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit thus had its initiation on Sunday.

At Troas where Paul preached the Christians assembled for worship on the first day of the week (Acts 20:7).

Paul instructed the Christians at Corinth to make contributions to the work of the Lord on the first day of the week. (I Cor. 16:2).

On the first day of the week Christ came to the Apostle John on Patmos. (Rev. 1:10).

Jesus comes to be with His people, the Christians, on the first day of the week. For years I have preached God's Word and have witnessed the glory of His presence with His people in worship on the first day of the week. God visits with glory and power His people who meet to honor and glorify Him on the day He raised His blessed Son from the dead.

about gone. The old cowboys are getting old and wearing out. And there are no young ones coming up. Probably it boils down to a ranchers own family doing what the old cowboys used to do. I'm glad I knew the old cowboys, they were honorable, polite when the needed to be, but wild enough when the occasion arose. Now and then you still see a little bit of the old time cowboy showing up in some of the men in the southwest and we still sing the old songs they crooned to the herds on their bedgrounds.

TOUGH LOSS

Brackettville - The Brackett Tigers took one on the chin Friday night in a 7-0 loss to the Rocksprings Angoras. The Tigers now stand at 1-1 on the season by virtue of a 25-6 win over the Leakey Eagles in the opening game of the season.

The tigers were strong on defense with tackles Placido Samaniego, Jaime Rodriguez, and Mike Cervantez combining to make 20 tackles. Rodriguez and end, Dutch Wardlaw, had led the Tigers with 9 tackles each.

Head coach, Dough Spring, feels "if our offense will execute as well as our defense, we will be very competitive in this district."

Eloy Garcia, Jr. led the Tiger running backs with 63 yards. Jesus Aguirre had 43 while Frank Morgan had 11. Jaime Rodriguez had 1 catch for 17 yds. and Mitch Frerich caught one for 25.

Tomorrow night the Tigers will be on the road to take on the Nueces Canyon Panthers. Game time will be 8:00 p.m.

GREEN TIPS

BY KATHY BADER

For anyone looking for a shade tree for the yard, consider some of our Texas Natives as alternatives to the standard Ash tree or Mulberry.

One of the most exciting trees to be released through nurseries this year is the "Lost Maple" of Texas. This Big Tooth Maple (Acer Grandidentatum) was stranded in the canyons of the Texas Hill Country and were able to adapt and survive the ice age changes. These trees are now available across Texas and do very well in Alkaline soils. Every October & November, when conditions are right, they turn spectacular hues of scarlet, gold, orange, and burgundy. Most Northerners who move to South Texas have complained of not having the beautiful fall colors of the Maples. Now's your chance!!!

Another Texas native that makes a nice tree with an abundance of white blooms that last for a long time during the spring and summer is the native Wild Olive. This is a fast growing, well adapted tree with unusual foliage and attractive trunk.

The Texas Red Oak is another native with brilliant fall color. It is a very nice shaped tree that grows rapidly (4' - 6' per year) with proper care. It does very well here and should really be considered as an alternative to the slower Live Oak.

The Chinguapin Oak resembles the American Chestnut tree. It has large, dark green leaves, very tall and shapely with a lush look than other oaks because of its larger leaves.

For a contrast in leaf shape consider the Bald Cypress. They can reach heights up to 130 feet, do well in almost any soil, are extremely long lived, and are beautiful trees.

Another relatively fast growing tree is the Cedar Elm. It is a rough textured tree with nice fall color reaching a height of 90 ft. It is a tough, healthy tree, and should be used more often.

Smaller trees, but just as beautiful, include the Mountain Laurel, the Evergreen Sumac, Flame Sumac, Smoke Tree, Golden Ball Tree, Chinese Elm, Texas Pistash, Texas Red Bud, and Bradford Pear. These trees are all unique, with a spectacular variety of shape, size, and color. Look into these trees. They are great for yards, and can be used as the focal point in landscapes.

One last tree...the Afgan Pine. This Pine is fast growing, beautifully shaped tree, excellent for our area. It can be used as a live Christmas tree then planted for a beautiful addition to yard and home.

Until next time...enjoy!
