LOCAL STUDENTS TO ATTEND SEMINAR

Under cloudy skies, Arturo Lincon, Salutorian for 1988, gave his speech to the Seniors, families and friends.

The Texas Farm Bureau's 26th annual Citizenship Seminar for junior and senior high school students will be June 13-17 on the campus of Angelo State University in San Angelo.

Planning to attend from Kinney County are Kelly Hall, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Charles Hall and Travis Smith, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Rod Smith.

They were chosen to represent Kinney County because of their leadership ability, scholastic achievement and character, said Bret Trant, Kinney County FB president.

The seminar, which runs for three full days, is designed to give these selected high school students a better understanding of the various forms of government and their responsibilities as citizens. Comparisons of the different kinds of economic systems are outlined in lectures, films, and discussions presented by leading authorities in government, history and economics.

Students attending the citizenship seminar will be eligible to enter the TFB Young Speakers for Free Enterprise contest.

REFLECTIONS

Just on the other side of the High School diploma stands a sparkling, big world. Every graduate looks beyond that graduation line, expecting to go places and do things in a spectacular way. Any counsel? Yes, even though most eyes will not see it, and most ears will turn deaf to the appeal.

Let God be the center of your life. Emptiness, loneliness, and mere sham occupy the heart of one who has no place for Jesus Christ. In all your ways acknowledge Him and He will direct your paths. In fact, God never makes a mistake. He offers the rich an abundant life. Why, then, will anyone decide upon another route?

Be brave and work hard. Don't be afraid of sweat, of labor, of diligence. Solomon plainly says: "Go to the ant...consider her ways, and be wise." Success never comes by accident to anyone. Struggle is involved. Albert Einstein said genius is 98 percent perspiration and 2 percent inspiration. Like Pablo Picasso, the great Italian artist who died while working at 92 years of age, we must exert energy, if we achieve the worthwhile.

Be pure. Don't let this age contaminate and pollute and destroy your body, your mind, your soul. Beware of the drinking crowds. Such people don't care for your eternal destiny. Don't go about in an animal fashion trying to satisfy the lower nature, the lusts of the flesh. God's Word says all this is passing-fast!

Yes, keep your life morally clean by the power of God. Avoid profanity and filthy talk. Refrain from alcoholic beverages and drugs. Your body comes as a gift of God. To have illicit relationships to poison and defile the mind and body with drugs and drink is like throwing sand into machinery or into a gasoline tank. Dedicate your physical as well as your mental and spiritual life to God.

Enough is written. And yet, another word from Solomon is a superb P.S. "Remember now your Creator in the days of your youth." God walks with those who have room in their hearts for Him. Don't burn the candle of life in the devil's service and blow the smoke in the face of God. The Eternal God deserves better. Let Him have your heart. May the Lord God be your redeemer, your guide and your helper as one chapter ends and a new chapter begins in your life of hope and promise.

Hi,
This week let's talk about "Fatal Beauty" and "Throw Mama From the Train".

"Fatal Beauty" is Whoopi Goldberg's latest, and probably her best to date. Her character, Rita Rizzoli, is a streetwise detective. Rita is hot on the heels of a shopping mall mogul, who also happens to be pushing some poison cocaine called Fatal Beauty.

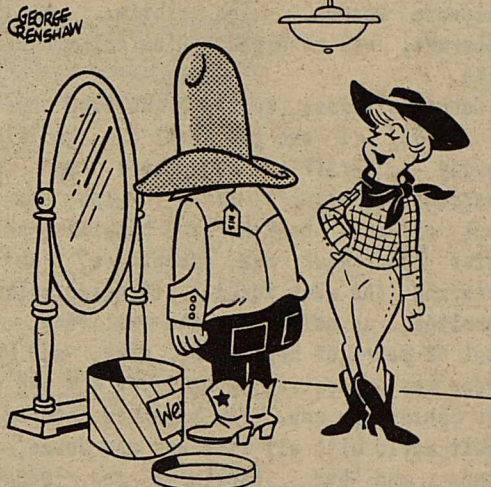

Marsck, played by Sam Elliot, is the shopping mall moguls' chief of security. He is assigned to keep an eye on Rita and not let her too close. This movie is well worth watching. I highly recommend it.

"Throw Mama From the Train" is simply a very funny movie. Billy Crystal and Danny DeVito do an outstanding job in this movie. But the show goes to Anne Ramsey, Mama, who played the part so well I wanted to throw her from the train. I give it a 9.

Some of the movies due in by next Thursday are:

1. Rent-a-Cop (Burt Reynolds & Liza Minelli)
2. Fatal Attraction (Mike Douglas & Glenn

- Close)
3. Orphans (Mathew Modine & Albert Finney)
 4. L.A. Bad (Esai Morales)
 5. Julia & Julia (Kathleen Turner & Sting)
 6. Dead Man Walking (Wings Hauser)
 7. Adios Amigo (Richard Pryor)
 8. Unnamable
 9. Overboard (Goldie Hawn & Kurt Russell)
- That's all for now, Have a good one!

SPECIAL OLYMPICS

The Boysens, Roland and Rosalie, returned to Ft. Clark last week after a combined business and pleasure trip to Dallas and Austin. On the way back they brought their granddaughter, Amanda Clark for the weekend.

While in Austin they attended the final leg of the police officers' fund raising run down Congress Avenue to the Capitol steps. (The officers ran from all over Texas to raise money for the Special Olympics). Later in the evening they watched the opening ceremony of the Special Olympics at Memorial Stadium. The Good Sam Recreational Vehicle Club helps sponsor the Special Olympics and supports the officers' run. Roland is a candidate for State Director for the Texas Good Sam Chapters and will be doing quite a bit of traveling over our great state between now and October to visit with chapters seeking support in the coming election.

SHERIFF'S CORNER

BY Norman Hooten
Sheriff

We are currently investigating a case of animal cruelty involving the failure of the owner of several horses, a donkey, and goats, to provide adequate feed and shelter for the animals. The suspect in the case has been investigated previously for the same offense and some of the same animals. The Bureau of Land Management was involved in the prior investigation because some of the animals were "adopted" by the suspect under the BLM "Adopt a Wild Horse" program. In this case, as well as the other, the animals involved were locked in a pen without feed or water and several of them died. The survivors were skin and bones and may not survive. Cruelty to Animals is a Class A Misdemeanor providing a penalty upon conviction for a term not to exceed one year; or (3) both such fine and imprisonment.

Another case currently under investigation by the Sheriff's Department is that of an alleged kidnapping and robbery of a 50 year old San Antonio based Internal Revenue Service Agent. U.S. Border Patrol Agents on routine patrol along Hwy. 1572 discovered a burning vehicle at approximately 1:50 am the morning of Wednesday, June 1st and reported the find to the Sheriff's Office. Shortly thereafter another Border Patrol Agent traveling along Hwy. 90 approximately 10 miles east of Brackettville came upon a lone white male walking along the highway. Upon questioning by the agent the man claimed to be the owner of the burning vehicle and stated that he had been kidnapped in San Antonio the afternoon of Tuesday, May 31st. He was brought to the Sheriff's Office for further investigation and questioning in the matter. The man related a story of abduction and terror as he was forced at gunpoint to drive from San Antonio west along Highway 90 to the roadside park approximately 6 miles east of Brackettville. He was then forced to lie down in the rear of the vehicle and place a coat over his head. His abductor then drove him around for several hours before stopping the vehicle on Hwy. 1572 and telling the victim to run and not look back or he would be killed. The victim stated that soon after he heard a popping noise and turned to look and saw his 1988 Chevrolet Blazer on fire. His abductor was nowhere to be seen. The victim then started walking along Hwy. 90 until picked up by the Border Patrol Agent. Due to the fact that the crime originated in San Antonio and that the man is an IRS Agent, both the San Antonio Police Department and the F.B.I. have been called into the case investigation. At the time of this writing the vehicle is awaiting crime evidence technicians from the F.B.I. to arrive for an evidence search. The victim, who was unharmed, was returned to San Antonio by his wife.

Congratulations to the graduating seniors of 1988!! I and the staff of the Kinney County Sheriff's Department and Tax Assessor/Collector's Office, wish you the best of luck, health, and happiness as you enter upon your new adventures, be it entering the work force, attending college, marriage, or going into the military. The past 12 years of hard work, play, and being under the protective umbrella of mom and dad, are behind you now. You have now entered the adult world with all it's ups and downs, good times and bad, happiness and sadness. Believe in yourselves, work hard, and do not fear to try again if you at first fail. "It is no disgrace to fall on your face, the disgrace is but to lie there."

TRACKS ALONG THE TRAIL
BY DORTHY PAYNE

Ft. Davis was used as a military post to protect the frontier. Ft. Davis was built in the 1800's and used by both cavalry and infantry units. In the 1960's the Fort was rebuilt by modern day contractors under the supervision of a historical expert. To keep the walls from falling apart concrete was mixed with the adobe, using plans obtained at the National Park Service headquarters in Washington. The cost of reconstruction was about $22,000 which was considerably more than the original cost.

At that time the work was done by the soldiers themselves, who were paid about thirty cents a day.

There are many stories of the early days of the old Fort Davis.

Perhaps the story of Indian Emily was the most celebrated. According to legend an Indian girl who was a maid on the Fort fell in love with an officer. Her tribe was planning a surprise attack on the Fort and she braved the wrath of her own people to warn the officer with whom she was in love. She was shot in the massacre by her own people. In the 1930's her grave could still be seen marked by a stone engraved with her name.

Another story relates the episode of a lost patrol that was never found.

When you drive through the Davis Mountains on the way to Ft. Davis, it isn't hard to imagine all the stories of the time of Victoria and the hardship and dangers the traveler suffered on the way to California. Even as late as 1936, Limpia Creek was forded twenty two times between Balmorhea and Ft. Davis.

In the present time you drive along so quick you don't even notice where the highway crosses the little creek.

At the present time the Fort tries to show the people an inkling of what it must have been like in the 1800's.

The nearby town of Ft. Davis is steeped in legend with interesting citizens living there, and ofcourse the observatory on a nearby mountain recently was in the news as a place to view Haley's Comet.

BALL PLAYERS EARN EQUIPMENT IN RECYCLING PROGRAM

Del Rio, Tex., May 27, 1988 -- Baseball and softball players in the area are being invited to trade used aluminum cans for baseball and softball equipment in the "Bag'Em For Baseball" program sponsored by Anheuser-Busch's recycling subsidiary, Container Recovery Corporation.

"Bag'Em For Baseball" provides ball players with the opportunity to earn top quality Rawlings equipment for collecting and redeeming aluminum cans. The program will run through September 30, 1988.

"At the same time these ball players are getting involved in cleaning up their neighborhoods, they are being rewarded for their efforts with valuable baseball equipment," said Thomas A. Stengel, national marketing manager for Container Recovery Corporation (CRC). "By working for the equipment, they learn the value of their recycling efforts and develop good habits for years to come."

The program is being introduced nationally this year after a successful pilot program in 1987. The pilot program was introduced in eight markets and provided ball players with the opportunity to trade aluminum cans for an aluminum bat.

In the "Bag'Em For Baseball" program, players can redeem cans for the following equipment:

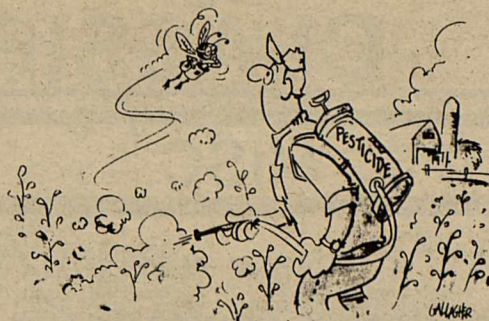

All Leather Softball Glove	60 lbs.
Youth Catcher's Mitt	45 lbs.
"Spinstopper" Softball Bat	40 lbs.
Dave Winfield Baseball Glove	30 lbs.
Budweiser Aluminum Softball Bat	30 lbs.
(must be 21 to order)
Aluminum Baseball Bat	30 lbs.
Aluminum Baseball Bat	20 lbs.
Baseball/Softball Tote Bag	20 lbs.
Official Little League baseball	3 lbs.

"Bag'Em For Baseball" is being offered by Ole Distributing, the local distributor of Anheuser-Busch products. Located at 111 Lode

"The heart has its reasons which reason knows nothing of."
Blaise Pascal

Drive, Ole Distributing is open for recycling Monday through Friday from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. and Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon.

More than 500 Anheuser-Busch wholesalers and other third-party operators participate in the CRC recycling program. CRC is a leading recycler of aluminum cans with centers across the country. In 1987, CRC recycled more than 235 million pounds of aluminum -- or 6.1 billion aluminum cans.

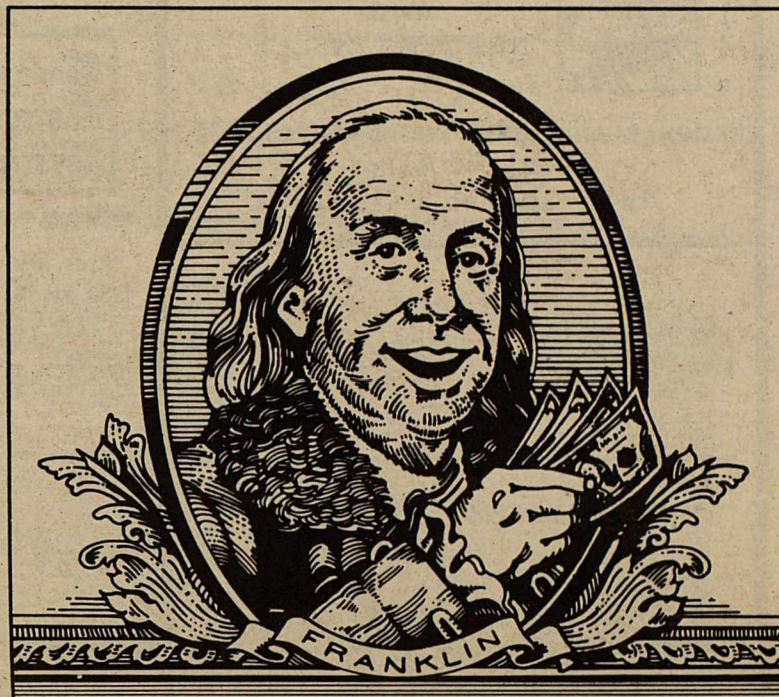

Books by Ralph Hollenbeck

ROCK STAR, by Jackie Collins (Simon & Schuster: $19.95).

Gossip plus guessing games add up to tantalization. That is the combination that makes Jackie Collins, Harold Robbins and other best-sellers in the pop-realism genre of fiction so successful. They tantalize their readers with just enough seeming fact interlaced in their stories to whet the imagination about the "true" identification of their characters.

Miss Collins is a winner at that type of fiction. In "Hollywood Husbands" and "Hollywood Wives," her heroes and heroines could have been any or an amalgamation of all the top names in the motion picture and TV industries. The formula works again in "Rock Star." Who, for instance, might be the model for the British Kris Phoenix, a poor boy who began with a rock group and went on to become a legendary solo singer/guitarist? What about Bobby Mondella, the blind black star? Or Rafaella, the exotic continental hit?

The catalyst who brought them all to stardom and earned their hatred is Marcus Citroen, a despicable, sadistic and powerful record producer who orders command performances from the three at a party given by his equally ambitious and vicious wife. We trace the careers of all three on their way to stardom and the showdown at the Citroen party.
