REFLECTIONS
BY PRESTON TAYLOR
FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Have you ever lost any valuable possessions? Kind expressions of gratitude are frequently lost or over looked by most of us.

I never did tell Mr. Hinton the high school baseball coach in the small school I attended (28 in the senior class) - "thank you, sir" for letting me be the baseball catcher for three years. Nor did he ever hear me say a word of gratitude for the math he taught us back during that time.

Mr. Atkins taught Chemistry and Algebra in our high school. He was a tremendous man -- with most of his left ear missing because of an accident. He failed to hear "thank you" from ninety - eight percent of his students for his labors. Neither did our Biology teacher have students standing at his door to express appreciation for his faithful teaching. We just had not been taught to do those things.

Mrs. Dowdy and Miss Carroll were two of the greatest English Grammar, Literature, and Speech teachers any school ever had. Most of us failed to encourage them by words of praise. Mrs. Dowdy died at ninety years of age. She answered my thank you not a few years ago, deeply grateful that someone remembered her in her sunset years of life.

Mr. Bolen, our High School Principal, taught Geometry. He was a tough hombre! I did not write him in his retirement years and remind him that I still remember that "a straight line is the shortest distance between two points: but that I probably couldn't tell him today the difference between a right angle and an isosceles triangle.

Mr. Davidson was disappointed that I didn't go beyond the required second year in his Agriculture and Shop classes. He wanted me to stay on a cotton farm and I wanted to leave it! Some Church members have wondered through the years why I don't go back there!

Gratitude? Yes, I owe this to my small town high school teachers who together

But to the Lord of glory, I owe more -- so much more. Maybe we all should stop today and say "thank you, Lord" for all you do for us!

• NEIGHBOR TO NEIGHBOR •

When you're already struggling to make ends meet, a financial emergency can be overwhelming. Yet, it happens to thousands of our neighbors in South Texas every year. Often elderly, unemployed or disabled, these are people who can just get by, if nothing goes wrong. They cannot afford an emergency.

CPL's Neighbor to Neighbor Program. The emergency fund.

That's why the stockholders at CPL started the Neighbor to Neighbor Program. It's a special energy fund to help our customers pay any home energy bill (electricity, natural gas, propane or butane) in emergency situations.

Pledge an extra dollar to your monthly electric bill.

If you'd like to help a neighbor who really needs a hand, just pledge an extra dollar or so to your monthly electric bill. Or make a one-time donation. Whichever way you choose to help, your contribution is fully tax-deductible.

CPL stockholders begin program with $100,000 contribution.

CPL's stockholders have already contributed $100,000 to establish this program. And starting next year, CPL will match every dollar pledged up to $100,000.

Program administration.

The Neighbor to Neighbor emergency home energy fund will be administered by area social service agencies. For a complete listing of these agencies, call your local CPL office.

Call now for your pledge form, or pick one up at CPL.

For more information or to get your pledge form, just give us a call, or come by CPL. Together, we can be there when someone really needs a hand.

Brought to you by the stockholders of Central Power and Light Company.

SNOOPS

Ah wants ta thank all of you nice folk fur supportin me, and requestun that I continue the "Snoops" column each week. Jest who ya'll were, ah don't know, but ah'll git the news to ya the best ah kin.

Bless her heart, thee Mrs. Jackie Truesdale called in frum Spofford, and said she enjoys "Snoops" so much. Jackie also said that her daughter, Doreen Tollett, had a bit of an accident, while she war a going ta work, last week. The good Lord was a watchen over her, when this lil ole deer plumb ran over her. No one was injured, but the car wuz pretty well messed up. She didn't say, but I believe the deer must a been pretty messed up.

Hear tell that Candido Gomez, who's been in the hospital with a heart problem, is now home, and he's doin well. He shor do like company, an ah wonders if it's physical heart problems or "girlwise". What ya say Candido!!

Our sweet Mabel Parham, had eye surgery, and she sees a might better now, and can watch T.V. Bless ya'll Mabel. Glad things turned out well.

Heard that Elsie Sauer, and Miss Ballentyne came by The Cavalryman ta say "hi", and also forgot ta mention that Mrs. Truesdale sends a copy ta Mrs. Andrews who once lived in Spofford, and is now a liven in Miami, Florida, and she enjoys keepin up with the goins on here. Mrs. Andrews, we shor do miss ya'll around these parts, and hope that ya'll will come home ta visit soon.

Ah had the nicest conversation with Louisa Deregowski, of Brackettville who is a young 83 years old. She war married ta Paul, who served and was stationed at Ft. Clark Springs fur 25 yars. She's a widow now, and they had three wonderful children; the first, who passed on was Alonzo, the oldest; then Rose Marie Fuentes, living in Brackettville, who has one son. Her daughter Cordelia Barlow, lives in Rockport, Texas. She has three boys. Louisa's parents whar Geromina Olvera and Jacinto Castro, and her grandparents whar Guadalupe and Leandro Castro. She whar tellun me that they whar not related ta the Castroville Castros. Louisa loves company. She watches T.V. a lot, but will welcum yar visit anytime. She lives over near the Football field in Brackett.

Wal, I jest heard that Tim Ward, got himself a good case of Lyme disease. Wal, ah wouldn't call that good. That Lymes's is a bad thing. We all wish ya a speedy recovery Tim, cause we know how busy ya'll are in the community, and yar church, and yar ranch. Hear tell that ya keep busy with yar lovely wife, Debby and daughter Cherise, sons Chase, and Blake. Hope I got that al right, but in caseun ah didn't, give them a call and let them know ya'll care. This man has been a tremendous builder of our community, so now let's help him fur a change.

Got ta get ma tail-feathers a flutterun, and I do need yor input on ta whats a goin on. And remember folk, ifun ya'll has time on yar hands, git out and meet these folk that ah introduce ya to, and say howdy ta them. What a wonderful place it would be if more people would be concerned and caring. God bless ya'll an I'll be a chawen with ya again next week. "Snoops" 563-2991.

Determine Our Community's Future!

Place them in an out-of-town investment and they will never do anything to improve the quality of life in our community. But save them in our bank and here is what can happen: We use your funds as loans to help a neighbor buy a car, improve a home....a farmer finance his crop. We help a merchant carry a larger inventory, a young person go to college. Your dollars do double duty by earning a fair return and helping the people of our community. The decision of where you invest your funds is yours. We sincerely hope that you will save at home.

One of the most unusual con men was a Pawnee Indian, traveling with the Pawnee Bill and Buffalo Bill Wild West Show in the early 1900's.

This combination of shows toured big cities. There were cowboys, Indians, cowgirls, vaqueros, covered wagons and stage coaches. They held shows from New York to Denver and stops, all along the way.

While the show was playing in Madison Square Garden, between acts some city slickers decided to have a little sport with one of the Indians. They happened to pick on a Pawnee, wearing eagle feathers, war paint, beaded leggings, breech-cloth, dance bells and a brightly colored shirt.

The bartender at the Garden Bar plied him with free drinks. Pawnee Bill had asked his Indians not to speak English in order to seem more fierce. So he used sign language and grunted a lot. He wasn't born yesterday though, and had gone to school in Carlisle. So he just glared at his tormenters, which made them heckle him all the more.

When the party began to glow, the Indian asked for a saucer of water and the bartender obliged. From his beaded pipe bag the chief took some horse hairs and dropped one into the saucer of water and folding his arms like he had seen the Indians do in the movies he spoke in broken English. He told his audience he was a medicine man with heap big magic and said; "Hair turn to smoke!" Before their very eyes the hair began to move and appeared to swim. He put more horse hairs into the water and they swam too. By now he had the audience watching his every move. He took cockleburs from his bag that were painted white. He gave an elaborate speech about them and said they were porcupine eggs and sold them to the people until they were all gone, for one dollar each. He sold them handfuls of sumac for two dollars saying it was Indian Health tobacco.

Then, he wrapped some horse hairs in a cigarette paper and said they were do-it-yourself snake kits. They sold like hotcakes. Then, he took an eagle feather from his head dress and borrowed a pocket knife and where ever he moved the knife the feather followed.

He stayed so late he stuffed his money into his pipe bag and ran for the depot but he had missed the show train that was going to their next engagement in Pittsburg. He knew some Carlisle friends in Brooklyn who put him on a fast train to Pittsburg and he made it just in time for the show.

Back in the bar in Pawnee, Oklahoma, the story was laughed over for years. As everyone knows a horse hair soaked in water will twitch when its segments form air pockets. And everyone knows a feather can be blown which ever way you want it to go. I wonder if any of the porcupine eggs ever hatched for the suckers who bought them?

The 1989 Kinney County 4-H Awards Banquet was held on the 23rd of October. The annual banquet was held in the NCO club at Ft. Clark Springs. There were approximately 125 persons in attendance with a fine barbecue meal cooked and prepared by Albert Payne. Special thanks, should be mentioned to the donors of the meat for our banquet this year. The Mr. & Mrs. Richard Smith's, Tully Shahan's, Tim Ward's, Happy Shahan's, Zack Davis's, and Gerald Ahren's were the persons responsible for the 4-H club enjoying a brisket meal which is such a major cost of this event.

Jennifer Shahan, Pres. of the 4-H club, served as mistress of ceremonies with an invocation and welcome given by Wil Shahan, who serves as club reporter. Michelle Brandt, District 4-H council delegate, led the group in the 4-H motto and Pledge. Vice-President, Stephanie Ahrens, introduced special guests attending the banquet. Kasey Hall, county club secretary, gave an over-view of the Kinney County 4-H program for the 1988-89 year.

Kasey Hall presented sheep project awards to 36 county members. Jennifer Shahan presented 3 beef project awards. Rebecca Payne gave 9 project awards to members participating in the swine project. Twenty-seven Foods & Nutrition project awards were presented by Monica Cruz. Mary Jean Duran presented 2 clothing project awards. Richard Esser gave a brief explanation of the importance of a 4-H leader and also how parents play a vital role in the family concept idea of the 4-H program. Richard thanked the parents and leaders attending the banquet for their time and efforts for our program.

Mary Alice Dimery introduced our 1989-90 county 4-H club officers to the group. Cecilia Aguirre also presented to the group an award to 11 new 4-H members. These are members that have just recently enrolled in the 4-H program.

Jennifer Shahan presented the 1988-89 Outstanding Friends of 4-H Award to Russ & Sharon White. This award is voted on by the county 4-H'ers and signifies a volunteer or volunteers who have given of their time unselfishly throughout the year.

Agent, Alan McWilliams, presented this year's County Gold Star Award Winners. The County 4-H Gold Star Award is the highest honor a 4-H member can receive. It is awarded on the basis of hard work, growth in knowledge, and skills through the course of a member's 4-H career. Gold Star Winners for 1988-89 were Mary Jean Duran & Stephanie Ahrens.

Mr. McWilliams thanked everyone attending for their support and other contributions which help keep the 4-H program a success in Kinney County. Jared Shahan led the group in a 4-H prayer to close the banquet.
